Tilda pushed open the door and sat on the chair. She lowered her body and placed Sharon's phone on the table. She looked at her with a provocative gaze. You can ignore me, but Edwin won't see you without my permission.

She raised one of her legs slightly and acted like the owner of the place. She did not ask Sharon to sit

Sharon tilted her head slightly. "I didn't expect you to be so capable that you can control Edwin's life even before you two are married."

This was clearly a compliment, but to Tilda, it was extremely ear-piercing and even carried a hint of sarcasm.

She pinched her fingers several times to maintain the elegance on the surface. "Ms. Cress, don't you want to tell me why you are looking for Edwin?"

"This matter is between Edwin and me. It's better for us to settle it ourselves" Sharon looked at Tilda and leaned forward slightly. Although she did not show much, she already had a sense of condescension.

Tilda instantly became much weaker in terms of vibe.

With that, Sharon picked up her phone and walked out.

"Sharon!" Tilda blocked her way again and slammed the door shut in her face.

After knowing that it was impossible for Sharon to have a romantic relationship with Disney Entertainment's boss, Tilda became extremely nervous and felt that she was in a dangerous situation

She braced her back against the door. As if that wasn't enough, she pressed her hands against it.

Sharon finally looked angry. She frowned "Tilda what are you trying to do!"

Tilda's mind raced quickly as she guessed the reason why Sharon was looking for Edwin. "You're here for Irene's custody, right? Edwin has already told me that he will definitely file a lawsuit! He's very busy. He had long entrusted this matter to me and Jasmine and let us handle it fully! It's useless for you to look for him. He doesn't have time to see you at all!"

Sharon stood rooted to the ground and looked at Tilda. Tilda felt uncertain and could do nothing but secretly size her up

Sharon didn't say anything, nor did she have any expression. It was impossible for Tilda to tell if she believed her or not.

Tilda's eyes flashed. "Edwin has already given me the video of you losing control and squatting in the cel box. Ms. Cress, can't you tell that he insists on having the custody of Irener

Tilda's words were like a punch to Sharon's bear, freezing her blood

She thought, 'Yes, Edwin secretly took evidence against me when I made a bet with him in all seriousness. How can I expect him to be kind?

"So?" Sharon asked coldly, "Ms. Gill, do you plan to be a stepmother?

Tilda pursed her lips and smiled, revealing her dark lip gloss. She was enchanting and high-profile. "I love Edwin. If he's willing to pamper me like this, what's the harm in sacrificing a little for him?"

She tried her best to show off When she said that Edwin pampered her, she felt a wave of bitterness. She did not even dare to look into Sharon's eyes. She felt extremely weak.

Fortunately, Sharon did not look at her face. Otherwise, she would definitely be able to tell something.

"In addition, I don't want to give birth so soon. Irene's existence can alleviate Jasmine's worry about wanting a grandchild, and it won't give me too much pressure. Edwin also insisted on bringing Irene back because of this consideration. Perhaps it was because Tilda had lied so many times that even she bought her own lies. When Tilda said this, her face was filled with superiority and happiness.

She came to look at Sharon and saw her silently clenching her fingers. Her smile deepened.

She had been defeated by Sharon many times. This time, she finally vented her anger.

Pursing her lips, she flicked the corner of her shirt. This is also good for you, Ms. Cress. You don't have to worry that my child stealing Edwin's love for Irene."

Sharon smiled. Her smile was as cold as ice. "I'm sorry, my child is not a shield for you. Ms. Gill, whether you want to give birth or not is your business. My daughter must stay with me

“If that’s the case, we’ll really have to go through the legal channels. This will be very disadvantageous to you, right?” Tilda raised her voice at the

“This is my own business, I don’t need you to worry about. Sharon did not plan to continue. She hooked her chin and said, “Can you open the door now!”

Seeing that she had achieved her goal, Tikda quickly stepped aside. “I still want to advise you not to sacrifice your child just for the sake of achieving your goal.”

Sharon stopped in her tracks for a moment and left in the end.

Tikla, who had been acting elegant and noble, suddenly bit her lips.

She thought, ‘Fight! It would be best if they fought to the death! As long as they keep fighting, I will have a chance to get Edwin again!’

Two minutes later. Tilda walked out with elegant steps. Her body was scented with fragrance, her face was bright, and her eyes were filled with love.

When she saw the receptionist, she greeted her warmly, “Thank you for your hard work”

“Not at all” Seeing Tilda being so friendly, the receptionist was so flattered that she didn’t know how to speak anymore.

Tikda saw this and pursed her lips. “I suddenly have something urgent to attend to, so I won’t be going up. Please don’t tell Edwin and anyone else that I was here”

I know. If Mr. Stanley knew that you came and left, he would definitely feel sorry for you. Mr. Stanley is really attentive to you. The receptionist looked at her enviously, hating herself for not being more beautiful and better so that she could replace Tilda.

Tilda nodded in satisfaction. This was exactly the result she wanted.

When she walked out, her assistant also came up to her. However, she could not help but glance in the direction where Sharon had left. “Isn’t that woman the one you asked me to film the video of yesterday! She...”

Tilda turned around and glared at her sharply, warning her.

The assistant quickly covered her mouth.

Upstairs, Edwin did not look good. In front of him stood May.

Previously. May had been suspended for a period of time because she was being arrogant and uncooperative. Recently, she was brought back because of work needs.

May was quite outstanding in terms of working ability, which was why Edwin would reactivate her.

After the previous incident. May did not dare to make any more decisions on her own. She stood in front of Edwin and looked at him respectfully.

Just now, when she found out that Jasmine had brought a lawyer to look for Sharon, she immediately told Edwin about this.

“What should we do about this? May asked.

Edwin knitted his thick, ink-like brows. When he heard May’s question, he waved his hand. 171 handle this matter. Co do something else

May nodded and left without asking anything else.

Edwin was originally marking documents. At this moment, his fingers stopped on the keyboard and he did not move. His eyes were looking at the phone at the corner of the table.

He thought, ‘Should I call her and explain that this isn’t my intention?’

For some reason, ever since he saw Sharon express her aufude towards Irene in that way, he could no longer fight with her for custody of Irene.

His slender fingers reached out and picked up his phone. Just as he was about to call Sharon, his phone rang. It was Bay,

He said. “The girl you’re looking for might really not be Jaylee Barnard. I have some newc

Upon hearing this. Edwin twisted his hands hard. His heart pounded wildly, and his expression became serious

Five seconds later, he said, “TI be there soon!

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 152

Sharon sat wearily on a chair in the office and closed her eyes

However, her mind was not empty. She kept thinking about everything that had happened recently.

Her phone suddenly rang

She opened her eyes and saw an unfamiliar number.

ot answer it immediately.

Sharon frowned slightly. She treated it as a harassment call and did not

After the call stopped, the person called again.

It was obvious that someone wanted to look for her.

Her slender fingers pressed the answer button and she accepted it.

“Mi. Cress” On the other end, a polite middle-aged man’s voice sounded.

“Yes, who is this?” Sharon could not help but ask when she heard the unfamiliar voice on the other end.

“I’m Dr. Burke, Piers Burke,” the person on the other end replied.

Piers’s name caused Sharon to be in a daze for a while. Many things from the past flashed across her mind like a movie.

“Dr. Burke Her tone quickly became respectful. She straightened her body and said.
“Hello”

She had a special relationship with Piers. He had even saved her life.

A gentle chuckle came from the other end. “It’s rare that you still remember me. I actually called you today because I need your help with something”

“If there’s anything you need, feel free to tell me.” Sharon was quite polite to Piers.

Piers pondered for a moment I’ve recently returned to the country to give a speech, and I need some special cases for that. You’re the only donor I’ve seen who underwent a live cornea removal surgery, and you’re also the first patient I’ve saved from a severe infection. I hope to analyze you as an example to students who love medicine. Can you cooperate with me for an eye and psychological examination! Of course, if you’re unwilling, you can refuse.”

“When?” Sharon did not refuse

Originally, she wanted to ask Piers to remove her cornea, but Piers did not agree. He was the most mean one among those who opposed her. Although he was against her decision, he had never left her after she had the infection. He was the person who pulled her back from the brink of death.

Back then, she had signed an exemption clause with the hospital. Under such circumstances, Piers could completely ignore her.

Based on this favor, she felt that she had to help with this little favor.

Sharon had actually been paying attention to Piers's situation all these years. She knew that ever since he left that private hospital, he had overseas

His superb medical skills were quite popular overseas. He was now an important person in charge of a top medical research institute.

He was also a professor of medicine at a university and had made countless contributions

Rone

Piers was very happy when he heard Sharon's answer. He hurriedly said, "Meet me at nine o'clock in the morning in two days, at Cleansan Hospital. If it's inconvenient for you, we can change the time."

"No need to change in Sharon smiled. "I be there on time."

Piers was a practical person and did not know how to be flamboyant with his words. He only said sincerely. "Thank you so much."

Sharon pursed her lips. "It's nothing. You don't have to thank me. Speaking of which, I should thank you for saving my life back then?"

The two of them chatted for a while more before hanging up.

Piers's call brought back memories of the past,

Back then, she was infected and lay unconscious on the hospital bed for three days.

When she woke up, her body was weak and her life could be in danger at any time.

The hospital was afraid of taking responsibility and hurriedly sent her out of the hospital. It was Piers who brought her to a clinic and took care of her for three months.

Although Piers took care of her partly because of medical research, without him, she probably wouldn't have survived.

Three months later, she slowly recovered and could barely get out of bed.

As soon as she could get out of bed, she thought of Edwin Edwin had told her the location and name of his company.

She ran all the way to that place, wishing she could immediately see his appearance after he regained his sight now, she could still clearly remember how fast her heart was beating when she stood downstairs at the building of Genesis Group, even though she was swaying, trembling, and extremely weak.

Even

However, when she thought about how she had finally survived and could meet him again, she was extremely happy.

Then she saw him coming out of the building, holding a girl's hand

He held the girl's hand and brushed past her. She could hear his gentle words to the girl.

However, he did not even look at her

Everything was clearly predestined, but she still foolishly chose to stay in the city where he was and went to the same high school as him.

She observed the way he treated Tilda

He was very outstanding. He was a dazzling existence in school.

She tried her best to hide herself and purposely performed badly in every exam.

She often wore very old-fashioned clothes and deliberately pretended to be ugly.

Even though she knew that it was impossible for him to recognize her since he had never seen her face before, she still did not dare to meet him head-on

Later on, she got into university.

Following Edwin seemed to have become her habit. As long as she was free, she would go to his city uncontrollably.

In order to quit thinking about him, she studied hard, did live streaming, and later started Bisney Entertainment

She thought that she had completely forgotten about him.

However, after the two of them inexplicably slept together and encountered him being cheated on by Tilda, she recalled everything that happened in the past.

Those few seconds that she pitied Edwin had led to all the mistakes and suffering she had later.

Now that she thought about it, she felt that she was ridiculously stupid back then.

Because of his promise, she was willing to give up her cornea even though it means losing her life

Seeing that he was being criticized, she risked her reputation and would rather be misunderstood by everyone to protect him.

However, what it brought to her was a tragedy that lasted for four years.

The aftermath of the tragedy still followed her to this day.

Sharon sighed softly and shook her head, forcing herself to stop thinking about these things,

Two days later. Sharon set off very early and headed towards Cleansan Hospital to meet with Piers.

At the same time, Ray and Edwin also appeared at the entrance of Cleansan Hospital.

Ray looked down at his watch. "The news was revealed by Piers's assistant. In order to give a speech, Piers especially found the only living cornea donor he had seen back then for a physical examination. I specifically looked Piers up. He worked at that private hospital nine years ago. He was the best ophthalmologist there"

The private hospital he was talking about was the place where the person who donated the cornea to Edwin had their cornea removed.

"I went to that hospital and found out that they only had one surgery in that category. The patient was a girl," Ray briefly explained the situation and then concluded. "Therefore, we can basically confirm that we can see the donor today."

Edwin did not say a word. His lips were pursed into a thin line, and his deep facial features were filled with seriousness. There was coldness in his. seriousness.

was about to appear, it was naturally a living person. It couldn't be the deceased Jaylee.

Since the donor was

He thought, So, Edric. Tilda and Jaylee had joined forces to deceive me?

Seeing him like this, Ray naturally knew that he was feeling uncomfortable. He did not say anything and patted his shoulder comfortingly.

He looked down at his watch again. “The assistant said that they had agreed to meet at nine o’clock. It’s about that time

Only then did Edwin raise his head and look outside.

In the distance, a long black car drove over. The vintage car shone with a low-key and luxurious light, like a huge beast gliding through the night sky.

“Dr. Burke and the others are here!” Ray said.

Edwin also saw Piers and his assistant getting out of the car

The two of them stood by the car

The car was at the bottom of the high steps.

There were few dozens steps separating them.

The two of them did not come up immediately. Instead, they looked around,

Piers begin to make a call

A moment later, he hung up..

Edwin heard h

him say, “She’ll be there soon.

His eyes quickly narrowed as he scanned every corner like a radar,

In less than five seconds, he saw a familiar car drive into his sight.

He thought. ‘Isn’t that.. Sharon’s car?’

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 153

Edwin’s face suddenly tightened. He clenched his fists tightly

He thought, ‘Could the donor that Piers has arranged to meet be Sharon

His pupils suddenly constricted. His gaze was fixed on the car

The car stopped on the other side of the road. The car door opened. The person who walked out was Sharon.

She waved her long hair in the morning light. Her figure was graceful, and her steps were light and elegant. She moved very quickly.

Edwin watched as she walked in his direction step by step. As she got closer and closer to him, his chest tightened. His temples throbbed even more violently.

Even Ray could sense that something was wrong with him and could not help but look at in surprise. "Elwin, you...."

Edwin could no longer hear Ray's words. He lifted his leg and walked downstairs,

His steps were quick and hurried, Ray did not know what he wanted to do and followed him down.

It was not until he saw Sharon walking towards the sidewalk from the opposite side that he suddenly understood something and froze. "Why is Ms. Cress here!"

Edwin did not answer. Instead, he suddenly stopped three feet away from Piers.

He still locked his on Star and watched her walk over step by step.

gaze on

It was almost certain that she was there for Piers.

Ray also looked at Sharon's footsteps and gasped. "Last time, she lied to me"

Edwin glared at him because of his words

However, he did not ask anything and locked his gaze on Sharon again

Just as Sharon was about to reach Piers, she suddenly stopped in her tracks.

After a moment, she lowered her head and picked up a call.

Edwin did not know what was the call about, but she turned around and ran back to the road. She was fast and urgent.

In the blink of an eye, she got into the car and left

On the other side, Piers continued to wait

Ray looked at Sharon's back as she walked away. Only then did he realize that something was pressing against his chest

He could not breathe normally until she was completely gone

Unknowingly, his face was already drenched in sweat.

He looked at Edwin and realized that he stood there like a statue.

He looked at the direction Sharon left, and his eyes narrowed even more.

Sharon didn't remember to call hers until she returned to the company.

She got out of the car and dialed Piers's number. "I'm sorry, Dr. Burke. I have something important to attend to at the last minute. I'm afraid I won't be able to make it today. I'm really sorry!"

"Is it very important! Do you need my help? Piers was not angry. Instead, he asked with concern

He had spent a lot of time with Sharon, so he knew her personality

If it wasn't something important, she definitely wouldn't miss the appointment.

"It's indeed a little tricky, but I can solve it myself. Thank you, Sharon said politely, "Can you wait? Can we meet tomorrow instead?"

After all, she had promised him. Sharon felt bad for breaking her promise. "Or this afternoon."

"There's no hurry." Piers said, "Take care of your own matters first. Contact me when you have time

Sharon said a few more words and hung up.

She made a call while walking by the roadside. When she hung i the phone, she was already at the office.

At the door stood Alanna. Her expression was not good, and there seemed to be a fire in her eyes

When she saw Sharon, she pulled her into the office

The door closed with a bang. Finally, Alanna could not help but say. "The Stanley family is so inhumane. They really want to snatch your daughter. Back then, they did not treat Irene well when she was with the Stanley family. Now, they suddenly decide to pretend to care about her. It's disgusting!"

Sharon did not answer. She only silently took the item in Al item in Alanna's band.

It was a subpoena. The Stanley Family had officially sued her.

She pursed her lips tightly as she looked at the subporra.

Her fingers were also tightly clenched. It was so tight that her knuckles protruded out, suffused with dead white ash

Alanna turned around and saw her like this. She suddenly stopped talking and leaned over uneasily. "Sharon," Sharon rarely got angry. She used to be quiet in the Stanley family, but after leaving the Stanley family, she changed and became cold.

Noor that she was silently angry, Alanna felt both heartache and worry.

"I'm fine, Sharon said after a long while.

Her tone had become much calmer, and her ugly clenched finger slowly loosened. She placed the subpoena on the table.

"What should we do?" Alanna looked at her and asked softly.

Sharon did not speak. Her brows were slightly furrowed, and it was unknown what she was thinking.

Alanna looked at her and suddenly felt extremely aggrieved for her. Her eyes turned red

"Edwin is a fucking demon who hites the hand that feeds him! You've done so much for him back then. It's already bad that he doesn't want to repay you, but he even wants to snatch your child from you. He clearly knows what Irene means to your" The more Alanna spoke, the angrier she became. She slammed her palm on the table. "I go look for him now and explain the past to him!" As she spoke, she jumped up and was about to leave

Sharon grabbed her. "There's no need!"

"Sharon!" Alanna stomped her feet when she saw her like this. "Are you still soft-hearted at this time! If you keep being like this, Irene will be snatched away!"

"I'm not soft-hearted, Sharon replied softly. Her tone was cold and quiet. "It's just that he no longer has the right to know this!"

Alanna looked at Sharon silently and saw that her eyes were cold and her lips were cold.

She understood that Sharon had completely hated Edwin. There was no longer any possibility of reconciliation between them.

This was clearly what Alanna was looking forward to the most, but when she really saw it happening, she could not be happy

She only felt that Sharon was extremely tragic.

She wiped her tears and went forward to hold Sharon's arm tightly "You're right. Just treat it as if all your sincerity in the past has been wasted! Sharon, don't worry. No matter what the price is. Blake and I will stand on your side!"

Sharon gently patted Alanna's arm. Thank you. You can go back to your work first. I need to figure out how to deal with them."

"Alright." Although Alanna was worried, she knew that Sharon needed to be alone

Before leaving, she did not forget to remind her, "If you have any problems, you must tell me immediately. If you need help, you must tell me immediately, understand?"

"I know." Sharon squeezed out a smile and nodded at her.

It was not until Alanna left that she felt like she had been sucked dry She slumped into the chair and closed her eyes in discomfort.

the lawsuit

However, she did not let herself be dispirited for too long. She quickly sat up and began to prepare for th

At the same time, at the entrance of Cleansan Hospital, Piers ended the call and was about to leave with his assistant.

"Dr. Burke," someone called out from behind.

Piers turned around and saw a tall young man walking towards him.

He exuded a noble aura. Although he was young, it was impossible to ignore him.

ed at hin

“You are... Piers looked at him in confusion.

“My name is Edwin Stanley Edwin did not hide his identity.

“Mr. Stanley Although Piers was in the medical field, he was not completely ignorant of the powerful people of this city.

In addition, Edwin was very famous, Although Piers had not met him before, he had heard about him.

He nodded politely. “Hello”

Edwin nodded elegantly in response, but his gaze was like lightning as he looked at Piers. “Dr. Burke, may I ask who you’re meeting today?”

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 154

Edwin’s question was indeed presumptuous

Piers was stunned for a moment before he reacted. He replied slightly unhappily, Tim sorry, Mr. Stanley. Forgive me for not being able to comment.

Edwin seemed to have expected his answer. He was not in a hurry to say anything and only cast his deep gaze down.

He was clearly a very young person, but his gaze was extremely pressuring. Piers was suppressed to the point that he could not even breathe easily.

He was shocked and looked at Edwin again.

No matter what, he was an amazing surgeon. He had experienced countless surgeries over the years. He thought that his ability to withstand pressure was extraordinary

However, in the face of this young man, his ability to remain calm and composed in the face of death had failed

Edwin did not deliberately display a domineering vibe, nor did he look at him coldly. Just by relying on his innate aura, he could suppress everything

For a moment, Piers almost surrendered and said everything.

In the end, he lowered his head and said. “Although I know that Mr. Stanley is extremely capable and can make me suffer with just a stomp of your feet, I have my own principles to follow, Furthermore, I promised her that I would not reveal her identity to anyone.”

Edwin looked at Piers. Previously, he had simply thought that he was just a doctor. Now that he heard his words, he was impressed by him.

However, this did not mean that he would not continue to inquire from Piers

“To be honest, the recipient of the cornea you took back then was me,” he said patiently, “As the recipient, I hope to thank her.”

It's your Piers looked extremely surprised as he widened his eyes and looked at Edwin.

Back then, Sharon wanted to do such a crazy thing. It was not that Piers had not guessed her intentions before.

However, later on, he was busy saving her and did not ask about the whereabouts of the cornea.

Later, Sharon recovered and he left the private hospital

He slowly put these matters behind him and forgot them

After dozens of seconds, Piers said, “To be honest, I don't know her true identity either, I only know that her surname is Cress.”

“Cress?” Edwin tensed up again.

He thought of Sharon, who had appeared not long ago.

Edwin thought, “Is it really..... her?”

At this moment, he was confused again.

He thought, If it was really her, why didn't she mention anything for the past four years? Moreover... she had stayed in the Stanley family for four years, but no one had noticed anything wrong with her eyes. If it wasn't for her, how could there be such a coincidence?

He turned to leave and wanted to find Sharon immediately to ask her about this.

Piers's words came again. That girl is already married and her life is very peaceful. I think she doesn't want her family to know about this past.”

“Married?” Edwin frowned.

He thought, Sharon is not married, but divorced. So... her appearance just now was just a coincidence?

His gaze was as deep as he stared at Piers. It was a few times sharper than before. It seemed to be able to pierce through his heart.

This sharpness made Piers even more frightened, and his heart beat like a drum. It was already a mess. Her palms were sweating.

Just as he thought that Edwin would do something else, he suddenly heard him say, "Thank you, Dr. Burke. He retracted his gaze and turned around with his head lowered. Then, he got into the car and left Watching the car drive away, Piers silently lowered his eyes. He secretly heaved a sigh of relief. He pressed the sweat on his palms on the hem of his clothes and wiped them.

Although he had barely contacted Sharon all these years, he was still clear about some of her situation.

He did not tell Edwin the truth because he had promised Sharon to keep his mouth shut about everything that happened. He turned and headed For the car

The assistant quickly opened the car door for him. Piers did not get into the car immediately.

He stood in front of the car and looked at his assistant for more than ten seconds.

The assistant was puzzled by his gaze. Then, Piers said. "Your job ends today. I don't need you anymore."

With that, he lowered his head and got into the car.

The assistant was stunned at first. Then, his face turned red. Piers's words were enough to show him that Piers had guessed that it was he who had leaked the information that attracted Edwin.

When Edwin returned to Stanley Manor, it was almost nine o'clock.

He parked the car at the door and walked in with his head lowered.

"Edwin, a crisp voice came.

He was stunned for a moment and could not tell who the voice belonged to. He could not help but look up.

What he saw was a graceful figure standing under the pillar beside the door.

The woman's hands hung in front of her. With her back to the light, her face could not be seen clearly “Sharon!” Edwin called out instinctively, surprise flashing in his eyes.

That person walked down the steps and into the place illuminated by the street lamps.

A bright face was revealed. It was Tikia.

When she heard Edwin call her Sharon, her eyebrows narrowed imperceptibly.

The fingers in front of her suddenly curled tightly.

She thought, ‘Edwin. Did he recognize the similarity between my voice and Sharon’s?’

She

suddenly

choked as if she had been hit on the back by a huge rock falling from the sky

She had no choice but to clench her fists and cough softly.

She coughed until her voice became hoarse. Then she raised her head and said, “Edwin, it’s me

When he saw Tilda’s face clearly, Edwin’s raised brows slowly sank

The feelings that had just surged in his heart disappeared.

He thought, ‘Am I too tired? I misheard Tilda’s voice as Sharon’s!’

“What’s the matter?” Edwin rubbed his forehead and asked coldly.

Tilda bit her lip when she heard his question.

Originally, she had gone to look for Edwin two days ago. Unexpectedly, she encountered Sharon.

Although she had shown off her romantic relationship with Edwin in front of Sharon, she knew that it was all fake.

In the two days, although she did not come to look for Edwin, she was tormented. There was no peace for a second.

Every day, she thought that Sharon would look for Edwin to tell him that she was the real Big Eyes.

Tilda even dreamed about it, and she woke up every time.

For the past two days, she could neither work nor rest.

At this moment, her extremely anxious and haggard face was covered by expensive cosmetics.

She couldn't wait any longer. Without caring about anything else, she ran over

The moment she arrived, she heard him calling Sharon's name.

This would only increase her anxiety and uneasiness.

Tilda could not care about anything else. She quickly threw herself into his arms and hugged him. "Edwin, I'm very uncomfortable. I can't sleep because I keep having nightmares. I feel so uncomfortable every day. I think I'm about to die."

She cried pitifully in his arms. "Please, don't break up with me, okay? I can't take it anymore. I'll definitely die"

Tilda knew that Edwin was a sentimental person. As long as she was still Big Eyes, she felt that he would not turn a blind eye to her situation and would definitely do his best to help her.

Edwin was not as nervous as she thought. Instead, he was very calm.

He pursed his lips and fixed his deep gaze on Tilda

He did not push her away, nor did he respond. He just didn't say anything.

His body was hard and cold. It was so cold that it felt like ice.

Tilda hugged him for a long time without seeing his reaction. It felt like she was acting in a one-man show. She was embarrassed and ashamed. Then, she had no choice but to let go.

She took a step back. Her eyes were still filled with tears as she trembled. "Edwin, are you really not going to care about me anymore? I'm depressed. I really commit suicide."

Edwin slowly focused his gaze on her. "Your doctor told me that your mental state is very good. There

Obviously, he had checked on her are no signs of depression."

When Tilda heard this, she suddenly forgot to cry. A wave of guilt washed over her. What followed was disbelief

She thought, 'I have clearly bribed the doctor...

However, she knew Edwin. He had never cheated in front of people close to him. In that case, he had really investigated.

Tikla's heart shattered in her chest. She only felt embarrassed at that moment.

"Go back and get some rest Edwin did not get angry, nor did he question her. He did not even look at Tilda as he calmly patted her shoulder. That was all He turned around and walked in

If he was angry or suspicious, Tilda would feel better. At least it proved that he cared about her.

At this moment, this silence seemed to have mailed countless pillars of humiliation to her heart. It was painful and shameful.

Tilda clenched her fists indignantly and shouted at him.

That sentence successfully stopped Edwin, who was moving forward, and his expression turned extremely ugly.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 155

Tilda said, "Edwin. Have you forgotten! I'm Big Eyes."

Seeing Edwin stop in his tracks, Tilda's dark eyes lit up again.

She knew that the name Big Eyes would cause him to react.

She thought, I was right!"

She ran to him in big strides, her wet eyelashes fluttering pitifully. She tugged at Edwin's sleeve with both hands "Edwin, I knew it. We've been together for so long. You won't abandon me."

Tilda leaned her head over and pressed her face into his palm. "Let's get married. Five years ago, you mentioned to me that you wanted to get married. At that time, I was too willful and playful. I didn't consider your feelings. Now that I've thought it through, I want to build a family with you. I want to be your wife, make dinner for you every day, and wait for you to come home"

She closed her eyes and looked blissful. “Edwin, how many children do you want? How about three! Let’s raise a few more little pets. Yes, just thinking about it makes me feel very, very warm and happy. If that’s the case, we have to hurry up. Let’s get our marriage certificate tomorrow and go on honeymoon the day after tomorrow.”

After saying that, she raised her head and held Edwin’s hand as she jumped. She looked like a happy bride-to-be who was looking forward to the future.

Such a pretentious Tilda made even Myra Bell, who was walking over from afar, feel disgusted.

Myra thought. In comparison, Ms. Cress is much more gentle and real. What a pity....

Myra shook her head. She also knew that she could not interrupt her employer’s matters. She turned around and went in another direction.

While Tilda was enjoying herself, her hand suddenly felt empty

When she regained her focus, she saw that Edwin had already retracted his hand. He even took a step back to keep a distance from her.

Compared to her joy and happiness, he was so calm that he was almost cold. There was no color on his face at all. The two of them seemed to be in a completely different world.

He lowered his eyes and straightened his sleeves until they were smooth. Then, he looked at Tilda and said. “You’re not Big Eyes”

Tilda suddenly felt like she had been hit by a lummer.

She froze and her eyes widened like a machine.

She thought ‘He... knows!

She was suddenly at a loss and did not know how to respond.

Her legs felt like they were being grabbed by a ghost, and she was going to fall.

Her legs were so weak and her body seemed to have been called into a bucket of ice. Every cell was soaked in cold pain.

Tilda felt like her dignity was being tom apart again and there was nothing left behind.

She seemed to hear a voice say in the distance, "Big Eyes never lies. She's kind and sincere, She clearly didn't know me, but she just stayed by my side when she knew that I couldn't see and never wanted me to know that she was pitying me. She's really cute. Now, you are full of lies and you're scheming. You're like a completely different person from before! Tilda, how did you become like this!"

Tilda slowly raised her head and bit the corner of her lips. The originally trembling corners of her lips slowly recovered miraculously. Instead, her tensed chest relaxed visibly.

She thought, 'So he didn't investigate the past? He still doesn't know that I am not the real Big Eyes!'

Edwin was clearly scolding her, but Tilda was overjoyed. She pinched the flesh of her leg hard to make sure that she was not dreaming. When she -felt the pain, she was overjoyed.

Tilda thought, So what if he is disappointed? As long as I am the person he thinks I am, there is still hope The more Edwin thinks highly of the Big Eyes in the past, the more likely our relationship can be saved!'

At the thought of this. Tilda quickly shed a few tears of regret. "Edwin, I know that I am wrong. Everything I did before was because I was too afraid of losing you. I promise you that I will definitely be the same Big Eyes after we get married. I will definitely not disappoint you."

She hooked one of Edwin's thumbs. "Edwin, Big Eyes might be silly, but she will also be afraid. Can you bear to let Big Eyes live in uneasiness?" Tilda looked at him with a pair of watery eyes, revealing a miserable and pitiful gaze. Anyone who saw this would feel their heart soften.

Edwin's eyebrows relaxed a little, and his hand landed on her shoulder.

Tilda obediently closed her eyes and felt relieved.

She thought. Thank goodness"

Because she closed her eyes, she could not see Edwin's gaze. His gaze was still cold.

Edwin slowly retracted his hand. "Tilda, I can't give you feelings anymore. I don't want to hold you up."

She thought, So, we are still going to break up?

Tilda could not believe it. The name "Big Eyes" had always been the magic staff that Edwin had given her. It would definitely make her wish come

After Edwin expressed what he wanted to say, he lowered his head and found Tilda's assistant's number. "Please come over and pick up Tilda's heart turned extremely cold as she listened to his cold instructions. Even her hair was filled with cold air.

GIRL

"Edwin, I don't want it. I must marry you. She suddenly lost control and growled rudely. "Regardless of whether you have feelings for me or not, I want to."

Edwin's eyes flickered. "Tim being responsible by not marrying you. I don't want to hurt my benefactor"

His words suddenly reminded Tilda of Sharon's situation.

She thought, "Yes, this man is really ruthless when he hates someone. Sharon stayed by his side for four years without getting any affection from him. That kind of cold marriage is like being in jail. It is too scary!!

It was as if someone had suddenly woken her up and sent a chill down her spine.

In the distance, a car drove over

The person who jumped out of the car was not Tilda's assistant, but Edric, Edric was wearing a multi-colored shirt. As usual, his collar was crooked and he looked unruly,

When he saw Tilda's tear-stained and pitiful appearance, his face twisted to the extreme.

He ran over and pushed Edwin. "Edwin, what's wrong with you? Why did you make Tilda cry?"

Edwin did not move at all. His eyes were cold and steady. He did not look at him or respond.

Edric was so angry, but he could not do anything to Edwin. He could only turn around and help Tilda up. "Tilda, are you alright?"

Tilda bit her lip and shook her head, then more tears fell.

Expressing her grievances, she said in a melancholic voice. "Edwin wants to break up with me

As soon as she finished speaking, Edric yelled, "Edwin, Tilda came back from overseas for you. Is this how you treat her? Tell me clearly what she did wrong! Don't think that you can bully her just because her family doesn't care about her. If you don't explain this today, I won't let you off Edric raised his voice and acted like a hooligan. He even rolled up his sleeves as the really wanted to fight.

Edwin looked at him indifferently. "Let's talk."

With that, he turned around and walked out

Edric raised his fist for a long time, but in the end, he realized that Edwin wanted to talk to him. He froze for a moment

Then, he turned around and patted Tilda's arm. "Don't worry, I'll talk some sense into him."

After sending down Tilda, he strode over to Edwin. "Edwin, let's make things clear. You can talk about other things, but if you dare to say that you want to break with Tilda again, I won't be polite to you."

"What's the matter with Jaylee?" Edwin did not react to Edric's words and asked coldly.

He stood with his body lowered. His figure was straight, slender, tall, and strong. His handsome face was mysterious and outstanding

Compared to him, Edric appeared weak.

He stood crookedly with his hands in his pockets. His head was bent and his collar was messy. He did not have any temperament at all.

Tilda stood far away and could not help but compare the two of them.

In the end, the only liked Edwin more and despised Edric even more.

Edric did not expect Edwin to suddenly ask this question. He was completely caught off guard. He touched the back of his head out of habit, and his eyes started to drift. "Why are you suddenly asking this Edwin did not respond and only looked at him. His eyes were patch-black, like the bottomless night. No one could guess what he was thinking Edric felt very nervous. He felt that Edwin had seen through him.

This nervousness made him suddenly lose his composure. He choked and shouted, "You want to break up with Tilda just because of this? I planned this whole thing. It has nothing to do with her!"

Edwin stared fixedly at Edric, who had his neck straightened, and smiled enlily.

He didn't say anything else and went into Stanley Manor

Tilda had been waiting for the two of them to discuss, but she did not expect Edwin to turn around and leave after standing for a few seconds. She felt strange.

She could not help but pick up her skirt and stride over. "What's going ont Why did Edwin leave"

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 156

Edric was confused. "He just asked me about Jaylee. I just said that I was the one who did everything. Then he left Tilda suddenly frowned and tensed up. Her heart was also beating rapidly.

"How did he ask?" she asked urgently,

Edric told her the truth. As soon as he finished speaking, Tilda was so angry that her entire body was trembling. "How can you be so stupid! Edwin asked you, which means that he was just guessing. He was not sure if we fabricated Jaylee's matter at all. By admitting it, you're confessing the truth to him!

Tilda looked at the idiotic man in front of her. If not for the fact that Edric had the Greenwood family's support, she would have slapped him.

Edric usually claimed to be special and acted arrogantly. After being scolded by Tilda for being stupid, his face was stiff and he could not flare up. He could only say, "Even though I confessed, I'll be the one taking the blame. Don't worry.

"How can I not be worried?" Seeing that Edric was still unaware of the situation. Tilda only felt frustrated. "At that time, it was the two of us who looked for Edwin. Do you think that with Edwin's intelligence, he wouldn't have guessed that this matter was related to me

Previously, she had hinted to Edric that he should take the blame for the crime. However, Tilda did not expect him to take the initiative to expose everything.

Edric had just realized that there was something wrong with his actions. He scratched his head in regret and was a little angry. "This Edwin actually Tricked me. Fuck!"

Tilda glared at him in disgust. Things were already not going well tonight. Now that Edric had taken the initiative to confess about Jaylee, it would only increase Edwin's disgust for Tilda.

She thought is the breakup destined to happen?

d and got into the car.

She was frustrated and in no mood to talk to Edric anymore. She turned around and

The car had just turned a corner when her phone rang.

Tilda was annoyed. She was too lazy to look at the screen and threw her phone aside.

She leaned against the window with her hand on her forehead and closed her eyes in silence.

Edric v

e, who was driving, did not make a sound. Seeing that she was not picking up the phone, he turned around and picked up the phone. He took a look and said, "It's Jasmine. Are you sure you don't want to pick up!"

Only then did Tilda open her eyes. Her eyes were filled with surprise as she glanced at the screen. Then, she took the phone and placed it beside her ears. "Hello!"

"Tilda, I saw you just now. You came to Stanley Manor? On the other end, Jasmine's voice was filled with a natural sense of superiority. Even to Tilda, her tone was high and mighty.

Tilda hated Jasmine's tone the most, especially now that Edwin had broken up with her and exposed her

She wanted to say something nasty, but considering that Edric was around, she said tactfully, "I chatted with Edwin outside for a while."

Jasmine only said, "Wait for me around a mile away from Stanley Manor Let's meet

Tikda did not know why Jasmine wanted to see her

Thinking that Jasmine's attitude towards her had always been unfriendly, Tilda was about to reject her coldly when Jasmine said, "I want to make a deal with you. After saying that, Jasmine hung up directly.

Tilda's dull eyes flashed, but she still asked Edric to stop at the designated place.

“Drive the car away. Don’t come back unless I tell you to,” she ordered coldly after getting out of the car.

Edric looked at her worriedly. “It’s not safe for you to be here alone. Td better accompany you!

“No need!” Her expression was cold and hard.

She knew that Jasmine was looking for her to talk about topics that could not be known to others. Anyway, Edric couldn’t help her solve anything

Edric looked at her for a moment and thought of the mistake he had made tonight. He scratched his head. In the end, he left as he was told. Tilda waited by the roadside for a few minutes before the Stanley family’s car slowly drove OVEL.

The driver got out of the car first. He immediately jogged to the back seat and respectfully opened the door of the back seat.

Jasmine was dressed meticulously like an empress. Holding her bag with both hands, she got out of the car in the most elegant manner. The only thing missing was that no one would kneel to her.

Tilda had been treated coldly by Jasmine years ago and did not have a good impression of her. Seeing her like this, she only looked at her coldly. There was no warmth in her eyes.

Jasmine did not have much of an expression when she saw Tilda.

Her

Her high heels made a cold thud on the ground in the night. She walked in front of Tilda and straightened her body.

Tilda was not to be outdone. She straightened her neck. The two of them seemed to be competing with each other.

What Jasmine hated the most was Tilda’s temperament of competing with her. She snorted disdainfully and said. Tve already officially filed a lawsuit with the court to fight with Sharon for custody of Irene. Edwin doesn’t know about this yet. I’m worried that if he finds out, he will definitely stop it, so I hope you can think of a way to make him leave for a few days and come back when everything settles”

Tilda had helped Jasmine to compete with Sharon for custody of Irene. She had naturally been paying attention to it in secret. Therefore, she knew about it long ago

She pretended to know nothing about it and looked slightly surprised. Then, she crossed her arms. This has nothing to do with me Why should I help?

Jasmine smiled. The smile was meaningful. With just a smile, she let Tilda know that she already knew a lot of things that Tilda did not want outsiders to know.

Tilda felt a wave of discomfort in her heart, and her bright face became even colder.

"Ms. Gill, you're a smart person. You should know that helping me with this matter will benefit you. You're not helping me, you're helping yourself. Jasmine said deliberately.

Tilda's long and slender eyelashes froze, and a dark glint flashed in her eyes.

Jasmine was right. This matter was indeed beneficial to her.

Once Jasmine and Sharon went to court, it would be equivalent to them falling out completely. Tilda wanted Sharon and the Stanley family to fall out. Even if she couldn't get Edwin, she didn't want Sharon who ruined her happiness to have him Tilda did not reflect on herself. She even blamed Sharon for the failure of her relationship with Edwin four years ago.

"Alright, I agree!" She nodded readily.

Jasmine nodded in satisfaction. She walked back to the car like a queen and left.

Tilda stood under the tree and called Edwin. "Edwin. I agree to break up with you. However, can you accompany me to Pinevale want to stay there for a few days. Let's set off tonight

On the other end. Edwin held his phone with one hand and placed his other hand in his pocket. His gaze was deep as he looked into the distance

At this moment, he was standing in the study. There were a lot of documents piled up on the table, and there were also a lot of pending matters on the computer.

Then, he said, "Okay." He was destined to be unable to give Tilda love, so he really did not want her to spend more time on him.

However, they had spent a considerable amount of time together in the past. Even if he did not like that place, he was willing to accompany her again.

A few minutes later, Edwin arranged everything and drove to Tilda.

Tikda pursed her lips, opened the passenger door, and got in

Edwin looked at her silently and started the car.

The car drove out of the intersection.

Chapter 156

Edwin's phone suddenly rang. He reduced the speed of the car and took out his phone, then looked down at the screen.

A land suddenly covered the screen, blocking his gaze, so he could not see the number on it.

"Edwin. I don't want you answer random calls Tilda met Edwin's gaze and said coquerishly

Edwin looked up at her. With their current relationship, she had no right to make such a request,

However, Tikia did not care. She pulled his phone over and said, "You said that you would accompany me. You have to focus on accompanying me for the next few days. Don't care about anyone!" In the end, she even added a few pleas, "Okay?"

Edwin's gaze fell on his phone and he pondered for a long time. Finally, he nodded. "Okay"

If it weren't for her company back then, he wouldn't be where he was today. Edwin felt that this bit of effort was nothing.

Seeing that he had agreed. Tilda quickly switched off his phone and threw it into her bag

On the other end, the expression of the person holding the phone sank bit by bit

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 157

Sharon thought about it and felt that even if it was for Irene, she should not go to court with Edwin and become his enemy. She had come with this intention to call Edwin. She kept thinking about talking to him again to resolve this matter.

In the end, she heard the conversation between Tilda and Edwin

At this moment, Sharon's heart was filled with coldness. His lips curled into a cold smile

She thought. He kept saying that he cared about Irene, but this is how he cares about Irene? He even turned off his phone to accompany Tilda”

After hanging up the phone, Sharon began to actively search for a lawyer.

There was a legal team in Bisney Entertainment, but they were all experienced with business matters.

Although they were lawyers, their focus was different, so there were obvious differences

The head of the legal counsel recommended Sharon to a professional divorce lawyer in Rosaria City: The two of them contacted each other by phone for a while, and Sharon briefly told the other party about her situation,

“From the looks of it the best evidence for the other party is your video. However, this video is not completely undefeatable. The lawyer analyzed the case briefly and hit the nail on the head.

It was difficult to talk about it over the phone. The lawyer asked her to go to his law firm the next day to discuss it in detail.

Sharon took down the lawyer's address and hung up.

The next day, she went to East Law Firm, where the lawyer was, at the agreed time.

After waiting there for two hours, the lawyer arrived late.

Sharon did not mind. She took out some documents from her bag. “I've brought everything you asked me to bring”

However, the lawyer pushed it back. “I'm sorry, I might not be able to take on your case”

He wiped the sweat from his forehead and looked apologetic.

His sudden change of heart caught Sharon off guard. She was very surprised. "Didn't you say that it wasn't difficult?"

The lawyer answered, "It's indeed not that difficult, but after some discussion, we decided not to accept your case. Why don't you go somewhere

Sharon looked at the lawyer suspiciously. She felt that there was a hidden meaning in his words. "Can you tell me the truth? Did someone put pressure on you?"

Hearing Sharon's question, the lawyer smiled unnaturally and adjusted his deep-framed glasses. Ms. Gress is indeed a smart person."

Sharon couldn't describe how she felt when her guess came true.

She thought, The Stanley family would do such a despicable thing to stop me from getting custody of Irene! If even East Law Firm would not dare to take on my case, it would be useless to go to another law firm

"Ms. Gress, I know you're the person in charge of Disney Entertainment. You don't lack money, but the Stanley family is not only rich but also powerful and has a wide network. If you fight them head-on, you won't be able to gain anything. Why don't you negotiate with them? Perhaps there's still a chance," the lawyer suggested.

He felt guilty for not being able to help Sharon

Although he did not dare to offend the Stanley family, he still wanted to give Sharon some kind suggestions

Knowing that the lawyer was sincere, Sharon nodded. "Thank you."

Walking out, she let out a deep sigh. She thought, it turns out that there is such a huge difference between the new and old money!

In her life, she had experienced countless difficulties. Sharon had never felt so powerless before.

Sharon did not dare to mention the matter of the Stanley family competing with her for custody of Irene to Ethan at all. She was afraid that he would not be able to take it and something would happen to him.

She took a deep breath. She didn't want to lose just like that

After a short rest, she quickly returned to the company and found the company's legal team to discuss a solution with them.

Alanna happened to emer.

She had always been concerned about this matter. When she heard that the Stanley family had actually stopped Rosaria City's lawyers from helping Sharon with the lawsuit, she was so angry,

When the legal team left, she finally couldn't control herself and slammed the table. "Edwin is simply a scumbag! He does whatever he wants just because he has some power! However, he didn't think about it carefully. If it weren't for you back then, he wouldn't have anything! He might be dying right now! If he's heartless, don't blame us for being heartless. Sharon, let's expose all the heartless things he has done!"

"So what if we expose him? He has power, money, and connections. He can easily seal everyone's mouths and find some other news to cover it. Then, everything will be over. What about us? We still have to wait for him to seule scores and take revenge on us!" Sharon sighed.

When Alanna heard this, her eyes turned red with anger. "What's wrong with this world These unscrupulous bastards are getting a great life, but we, who are doing good deeds, have to suffer! Sharon, I really can't take this. We can't let this matter rest. We have to do something about it

She slammed the table. "Since the lawyers in this city won't help you, let's find someone from outside of this city. If that doesn't work, we'll find someone from overseas. I don't believe that the Stanley family can control this world?"

Alanna was about to make a call. Someone suddenly asked from behind, "What's wrong? Did something happen?"

The two of them turned around and saw Ray striding in. When they saw Ray, the two of them were stunned.

Alanna quickly put down her phone and a clear hostility appeared on her face. "Why are you here?"

Ray was Edwin's good friend. Under such circumstances, Alanna really could not treat him nicely.

"I originally wanted to see Master, but I heard that Ms. Cress is here, so I came to pay a visit Ray said. The master he was referring to was naturally Ethan.

Alanna also knew about Ray acknowledging Ethan as his master. Hearing him say this, Alanna snorted. "You were probably going to get some information, right?"

Ray was stunned. He could not help but shrug his shoulders. His handsome face was filled with confusion.

Sharon knew that Ray would not be that kind of person. She quietly pulled Alanna and gestured for her to stop talking

Alanna was in a fit of anger, so she didn't listen "Isn't that so? Edwin is trying to snatch Irene. He is afraid that he can't defeat us, so he specially sent Ray over to get some information for him!"

"Edwin.. is snatching y your child?" Alanna had just finished speaking when Ray revealed a shocked expression.

Alanna glanced at him. "Go back and tell Edwin that he can seal the lawyer's mouth but not mine. If he dares to snatch our child, I will fight him to the end!"

"I'm sorry, Mr. Gildon, Alanna is angry at the moment." Sharon more or less knew that Ray and Edwin were different people. She didn't want him to be involved in this matter and apologized.

Ray shook his head nonchalantly. "I didn't expect Edwin to snatch your child either. He never mentioned this to me. Is there anything I can help with Sharon shook her head silently. The Stanley family and the Gildon family were business partners. It was unrealistic to ask Ray for help. However, Irene was her life. At the thought that Edwin might snatch her away. Sharon's heart felt empty and filled with fear, Ray did not stay for long and quickly bade farewell. Sitting in the car, he did not start the car. Instead, he made a call to find out about the lawsuit.

After the call, he started to think. He knew Edwin's personality. Even if Edwin really snatched Sharon's child, he would definitely not do something that would prevent Sharon from hiring a lawyer. The only person who could do this was Jasmine.

Thinking of this, he called Edwin. However, it showed that his phone was switched off.

He laughed and called another number.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 158

In Pinevale, Edwin stood on the balcony of the only hotel in this town. With his hands in his pockets, he narrowed his eyes and looked into the unknown distance

Tilda and he had been there for a day,

During the day, she did not choose to return to the hospital where the two of them had stayed. Instead, she brought him around the scenic

Although this did not mean anything. Edwin still i

I vaguely felt that there must be something wrong here.

His phone was taken away by Tilda, and the landline in the room was unplugged by her

Even Tilda's phone was turned off and locked in the hotel's safe. She set a password that only she knew. Therefore, even making a phone call became a difficult task for Edwin

As he was thinking, Tilda came in from outside. She had just taken a shower and smelled good. She had specially worn a bathrobe provided by the hotel revealing a large area of her skin. She was so pretty and charming.

were shining darkly

She held two glasses of wine in her hand. As she lowered her head to look at one of the glasses, her eyes were shining

She did not bring Edwin there just for a trip. She didn't express her thoughts obviously. She walked up to to him and raised a glass. "Have a drink." Edwin did not take the cup from her immediately and only looked down at her. Then he looked at the glass she was holding up.

His gaze was naturally deep. Just by looking silently, he had the sharpness to see through everything.

Tilda retracted her hand slightly. "Are you afraid that I do something bad? Forget it then" With that, she turned around and was about to leave.

same room when you are

Edwin snatched the wine glass from her hand. "With our current relationship, it's not appropriate for us to stay in the same room dressed like this"

Tilda's face stiffened as an embarrassed expression appeared on her face.

However, she still took a step back obediently. "I'm sorry. I didn't think it through. I just wanted to give you a glass of wine. Drink it and I'll leave immediately"

Edwin drank the wine in one gulp. As promised, Tilda returned to her room with the wine glass.

As soon as she entered, she quickly placed the wine glass under the tap and rinsed it. As if this was not enough, she used the cleaning products to clean it several more times,

After confirming that there were no traces left, she put the cup back. She stood in her room, her eyes flashing seductively. She looked up at the clock on the wall and counted silently.

Two minutes later, she returned to the door of Edwin's room. The door to his room opened with a twist. Tilda was overjoyed and quickly walked in

She searched quickly and saw that the blanket on the bed had spread out and the bed was arched. Obviously, Edwin must have felt uncomfortable and rested

Tilda did not think about anything else. She quickly pounced on the bed, pulled open the blanket, and hugged the person inside. The person inside froze

Tilda's face was covered by 1 by the blanket, so she could not see clearly. However, this did not affect her actions.

She lowered her head and pressed it against the man's face. "Edwin, I know you need me. I'll help you now" With that, she quickly kissed the person.

As soon as the kiss landed, she felt that something was wrong. There was clearly the taste of garlic between that person's teeth. Edwin never liked to eat such heavy-tasting food.

Tilda was confused. She wanted to pry open the blanket to take a closer look. The man pressed her under him and kissed her hard. It took a lot of effort for Tilda to push the man away and roll off the bed as fast as she could.

Her clothes were disheveled and her pajamas had been ripped off. She looked up at the man and felt like vomiting.

The man on the bed had a pair of small eyes, a tanned face, and a nasty mouth. He was drooling at the moment.

who are your Tilda screamed sharply and pulled her clothes tightly

The man chuckled and wanted to say something. She could not stay with him for another second. She turned around and ran out.

She quickly entered her room and slammed the door.

Tilda vomited in the room for a long time before she remembered that Edwin was missing

After asking around, she found out from the account manager that he had gone to the hospital.

Tilda rushed to the hospital without stopping. From afar, she saw Edwin lying on a bed with an IV drip. Obviously, he already knew what he had drunk.

Tilda felt weak, and she did not dare to approach. Only when a doctor approached did she dare to walk over. "Edwin, why did you suddenly come to the hospital

Tilda naturally knew better than anyone why he came to the hospital, but she had thought it through and wanted to refuse to admit to what she had done no matter what

As long as she didn't admit it, she felt that Edwin couldn't do anything to her.

Edwin looked up indifferently and did not ask her about the wine.

However, he looked at her with a deep gaze. Tilda felt extremely uncomfortable as if she was sitting on pins and needles.

After a long while, Edwin let out a sigh and said, "I am fine."

Edwin was in a single ward. No one else was in the room, so Tilda was not worried about being recognized.

It was not until Edwin's treatment was finished that the two of them slowly walked out.

On the opposite side, two doctors walked over. One of them looked at Edwin and Tilda Tilda wanted everyone to know that the two of them were together. She held him generously and deliberately leaned against his arm, creating the feeling that the two of them were a couple.

She was originally worried that Edwin would push her away without giving her face. To her surprise, he didn't.

Tilda was overjoyed. She planned to find a place with more crowd and let more people know about their trip together. As she was thinking, she suddenly heard Edwin's voice

Tilda was immersed in her own thoughts and did not hear him clearly. She could not help but look up at him. "Edwin, what did you say?"

After she asked, she realized that Edwin was pointing at someone. "You don't know her?"

Tilda replied without thinking, "I do, she's the doctor who just walked past us." As soon as she finished speaking, Edwin's face darkened.

Tilda looked at his face and felt a crisp sound in her heart. She knew that something was wrong, but she couldn't figure out what it was.

“You don’t know each other! Edwin added. These words were even more baffling

“Of course we don’t know each other” she said matter-of-factly

As soon as she finished speaking, her shoulder was tightened by a strong force.

Edwin’s voice was as cold as stone. “So, you’re not Big Eyes!”

Tikla felt speechless. Just as she was about to defend herself, she suddenly remembered that this hospital was the one where Edwin had been when he was blind.

This answer made Tilda realize that she might have made a huge mistake. Cold sweat rolled down her back. Her face also turned pale

“No, I am. I am Big Eyes. Her mind was blank, but she knew that she had to deny i

She held his firm fingers with both hands, trying to pry his hands away. But his hand was like an iron pincer, and there was no warmth in his eyes.

Tilda had never seen such a cold and terrifying Edwin. She was so frightened that her body trembled.

Edwin was no longer the man who had once let her be willful and treated her as a treasure. Instead, he was like a demon who had just jumped out of hell. It was too terrifying.

Tilda was so scared that her teeth were chattering. Every part of her body was trembling and twitching. Her eyes were filled with despair.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 159

Edwin pushed Tilda away. She staggered a few steps back and used her hands to support herself against the cold wall

Tilda closed her eyes tightly. “Yes, I’m not your Big Eyes”

Edwin looked at “Tilda in silence. There was no expression on his handsome face. He only pursed his lips tightly.

Underneath the calmness, there was a tsunami in his heart. His fingers clenched together silently. He couldn’t tell if it was pain, shock, or something Clic

Under his gaze

Tüda’s eyelashes trembled, and her face was filled with pain and sorrow.

After a long time, Edwin asked, "Even if you didn't know that I misidentified you four years ago, why didn't you explain yourself four years later?"

Tears rolled down Tilda's face. When she opened her eyes again, she looked at Edwin with an expression. She looked at Edwin weakly. "Your love has made me lose myself gradually I've long forgotten the original intention of bring Big Eyes for you. You can't be blamed for this. I was too inconsiderate. Edwin, I am sorry

After listening to Tilda, Edwin realized that they were not talking about the same thing. He didn't move. He looked steadily at Tilda.

Tilda twisted her fingers tightly. Her palm, which no one could see, had long been scratched by her nails. She was frightened.

She knew that once she lost the identity of Big Eyes, everything would be over for her. No matter what, she could not make Edwin suspicious.

Tilda took a step forward and held Edwin's hand. "You asked me about that woman just now. I just remembered that she's the attending doctor who your eyes in the past. I hadn't seen her for too long, so I didn't remember her instantly, Edwin, don't be angry, okay?"

treated

Seeing that Edwin was still unmoved, she lowered her head and wiped her tears. "Edwin, we've already broken up. Is there a need for me to lie to you? Speaking of which, didn't the doctor not recognize me just now? It's been so long. Everyone has changed. It's normal that we didn't recognize each other, Tilda's words made sense

Edwin still did not say whether he believed her or not, but Edwin's tensed body clearly relaxed.

Sensing the change in him, Tilda's nerves that were about to break relaxed bit by bit. It was too dangerous just now

"It's getting late and your body hasn't recovered yet. Let's go back." Tilda pulled him out and wanted to leave this godforsaken place quickly, Edwin did not move. Instead, he rubbed the space between his eyebrows. "Since we are here, let's go say hello to her.

Tilda heard an explosion in her mind and her face changed color again. Her eyes were trembling

She thought. So, he still doesn't completely trust me?

Tilda did not know how much the doctor knew about Big Eyes. She only knew that if they n met face to face, she would definitely be exposed.

On the other side, Edwin did not move after making the suggestion. He stood there and looked at her.

He seemed to be asking for her opinion, but his eyes became as sharp as an eagle's.

He didn't move because he was observing Tilda's reaction. Every small change in Tilda's expression was captured by him. The more he looked ar her, die darker his eyes became. His chest felt heavier and more painful

If the facts proved that Tika was not Big Eyes, it meant that he had made a huge mistake nine years ago.

He thought, "How should I face the real "Big Eyes"

Even though his heart was in turmoil, Edwin still choir to pursue the answer. He had never been the kind of person who avoided the truth because he was afraid of making mistakes.

He grabbed as hand and walked towards the doctor. "Dr. Fuller. In the blink of an eye, the two of them arrived in front of the doctor and Edwin greeted her.

Leoline Fuller was on the phone. When she saw Edwin pulling Tilda over, she hung up. Mr. Stanley, I just saw you walking over from the ward area Are you sick? Why did you come to a small hospital like ours to treat your illness""

Faced with Leoline's concern, Edwin pursed his lips. He pushed Tilda gently. "I came here to hang out with a friend."

Leoline's gaze landed on Tilda. At this moment, Tilda's face was ashen

No matter how much a person changed, they would always look somewhat similar to themselves in the past. She had not undergone plastic Hurgery. However, Tilda had a completely different face shape from Sharon.

"Isn't this the famous Tilda Gill Dr. Fuller's surprised voice sounded in her ear. "My son is a fan of yours. Even now, your posters are still plastered over the house!"

Like a fragile steel rope that could no longer withstand the final pressure, Tilda completely collapsed.

Despair, fear, shame, and embarrassment washed over her like a tsunami. She did not even have the face to look at Edwin. Her legs gave way and she fell. In the nick of time, a hand was placed on her arm.

Ms. Gill, what's wrong! Are you feeling unwell? Je was Leoline who helped her up.

She looked Tilda up and down. "I remember that you were quite healthy when you were young. Every day, you would come to the hospital which was filled with gens, however, I've never seen you catch a cold or have a fever."

"What?" Tilda opened her eyes in disbelief. Even she was confused.

She looked at Dr. Fuller steadily. However, it only lasted for two seconds. Tilda did not care why Leoline said those words. It was as if she had grabbed onto a life-saving straw. She quickly nodded. That's right. After staying overseas for so many years, I have had an unhealthy schedule and my health has deteriorated"

Leoline said. "Speaking of which, our own country's customs are better. Don't go overseas anymore."

Tilda said, "You're right

The two of them chatted for a while before Leoline left Looking at Leoline's departing figure. Tilda obediently leaned against Edwin's arm "Edwin, I didn't expect Dr. Fuller to still remember me. You should be relieved now, right

Edwin nodded and pressed her shoulder. Teri go.

When they retired to the hotel, Tilda still felt guilty. She was shaking violently.

She was no longer in the mood to pester Edwin. She by on the bed exhausted.

Only when she covered her face did she feel the overwhelming sadness and humiliation

This humiliation did not come from Edwin's attitude before. Instead, it came from the fact that she had come to the point of sneaking around to steal other's contributions to live a life.

She thought. When have Lever been in such a sorry scute?

After an unknown period of time, a shadow slowly approached her. The black shadow enveloped her bit by bit.

By the time Tilda reacted, the figure had already arrived in Tront of the bed.

Tilda thought that only Edwin could come and see her. She was suddenly delighted. "Edwin, I knew it."

When she looked up, she saw a face that was completely unrelated to Edwin. Seeing this face, the joy on Tilda's face quickly dissipated. In its place was coldness and vigilance "What are you doing here?"

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 160

I'm here to help you.

"How is it a little inappropriate to talk to me in such a tone?" the person said to Tikla, The light was blocked by his tall figure, so his face could not be seen clearly. When his evil and crisp voice sounded, it made Tilda feel especially uncomfortable.

Tikla suddenly frowned. "So, that Dr. Fuller just now..."

"Smart" The man snapped his fingers. Even this simple action was filled with evil. "I was the one who called Dr. Fuller and used her family to threaten her to cooperate with you. How do you think you should thank me for this favor!"

"Thank you?" Tilda did not want to thank the person in front of him at all. Instead, she was angry. "Who asked you to make your own decision? I don't want to be Big Eyes at all. I'm me. I'm Tilda Gille"

Every time she thought about how she was just Sharon's substitute, Tilda felt that her pride had been trampled into the mud. She felt endless humiliation about it.

When the person heard her words, he was not angry. He only chuckled. His laughter was mocking and sarcastic, just like before.

Tilda was so angry that she twisted her fingers and wanted to flare up. His voice sounded again. "It's easy if you don't want to be Big Eyes Go over and tell Edwin now that you're Tikla Gill, not the Big Eyes who stayed with him in this lousy place for a year"

Being provoked by him, Tilda jumped up from the bed. "Do you think I don't dare? Don't look down on me. Even without Edwin, I can still live well! Wish that she walked towards the door,

At this moment, Tilda sincerely wanted to be herself. The title of the replacement of Sharon was too hurtful for her.

The man did not stop her. His voice was still the same. "You have to think carefully Once you are no longer Big Eyes, all the bad things you've done will be sealed, including the fact that you drugged Edwin's wine night"

It was as if someone had suddenly cast a spell on Tikda. She could not take another step forward. Tilda froze and :

allowed the embarrassment to surge. The courage that had just been ignited could no longer waver. It retreated the way it came.

The man slowly approached her and lightly grabbed her shoulder. "You're a smart person, so you should know the importance of this title. Oh right, you also have to use this title to pester Edwin. Don't let him escape from this cage"

"You... What is your motive? Tilda was not a fool. She knew that the man would not help her for no reason.

The man laughed softly. His voice was sinister, making Tikla's chest feel bitter. He said, "I doesn't matter what my goal is. What's important is that you're relying on Edwin in every aspect, right? Without Big Eyes's name, why should Edwin help you? Who do you think you are? To put it bluntly, In your current situation, no one wants to hire you ever as a minor character. You can still be the glamorous Tilda because Edwin is supporting you

These straightforward words were like an arrow that shot out, piercing straight into Tikla. She was in pain, shame, and anger. However, every word hit the nail on the head. Tilda was so angry that she threw everything she could grab at that person.

person easily dodged them. Tilda threw everything she could. Then, she panted and propped up her hands, breathing endlessly. She was like a fish that was about to suffocate

The man had already left the zone quietly, She bit her lips, her eyes filled with hatred. In the end, it turned into a kind of determination. She then tightened her fingers.

The next day, s

Sharon woke up tiredly. After the discussion with the legal team yesterday, she went online to search for information for a long time and slept very late,

Considering that she was busy with a lawsuit, she did not return to Moorwald and stayed in the house she used previously.

Rubbing her eyebrows, she felt indescribably nervous at the thought that there were only three days left before she had to go to court

She had already heard that Jasmine had hired the most professional divorce lawyer, Elbert Andrus Sharon had heard that Elbert had never lost a case like this. This deepened her anxiety.

When she faced the mirror, she saw the dark circles under her eyes as expected. Actually, exhaustion was not scary. What was scary was losing custody of Irene. At the thought of this, Sharon felt as if her heart was being branded with a hot iron.

At that moment, her phone rang. Thinking that it was a call from the company, she picked it up and placed it by her ear.

A polite voice came from the other end. Is this Ms. Cress? I'm from Reese Law Firm. Our boss is very interested in your divorce case. Can we discuss it in detail?"

"Milton Reese?" Sharon was stunned.

Milton, the boss of Reese Law Firm, was as famous as Elbert.

She thought. He is actually not afraid of the Stanley family and is willing to help me?"

She didn't have time to think too much about it and quickly nodded. "Okay,"

She quickly arranged a meeting time with the other party before slowly hanging up.

Sharon stood in the room and focused. Although the Stanley family could not reach their hands overseas, Alanna also helped Sharon to contact professional lawyers overseas.

However, it would take time for them to come from overseas. Moreover, many foreign laws and regulations were different from domestic laws. No matter how good a lawyer was, it was inevitable that they would be restrained because of the circumstances. At this time, Milton's help was simply timely.

Sharon did not waste any time. She greeted Alanna and went to Reese Law Firm to meet Milton as promised.

The two of them talked about the case for the entire morning. Milton's exquisite interpretation of the law and his unique analysis of the case made Sharon gain a lot, so she signed a deal to work with them on the spot. When she left, Milton personally sent her off.

"Mr. Reese, can you tell me who asked you to help me? Also, my lawsuit is against the Stanley family. Aren't you worried that something will happen to your law firm!" Sharon asked as she walked.

These questions had been in her mind for a long time, but she didn't have the time to ask since they were discussing the Milton smiled. "Ms. Cress, you are indeed a smart person. Ray had long guessed that you would be curious and he even asked me to help hide it. However, I think you have the right to know about this."

“Ray?” Upon hearing this form of address, Sharon had already realized what was going on. “Could it be. Ray (

She could only guess Hay since he was close to her.

She thought, “But he... is Edwin’s friend.

Cildon?”

“That’s right” Milton nodded. “Although he’s usually like a spring breeze and treats everyone well. He does not offer this kind of help to everyone he knows. The fact that he’s willing to help you shows that you have an extraordinary meaning to him”

Milton was implying something but he did not point it out. After saying that, he left.

Sharen stood in front of the car and grabbed the door handle stiffly. She did not move for a long time. The moment her guess was confirmed, she could not describe the feelings in her heart. There was gratitude, but there was also more complexity and worry,

Ray had helped her. She could not pretend that she did not know about it. Sharon thought for a moment and called Ray

When he heard that she had specially called to thank him. Kay smiled gently. “It’s nothing. Don’t mention it. If you really want to thank me, why don’t you treat me to a meal?”

Since Ray had helped Sharon so much, she felt that treating him to a meal was naturally not a problem.

She nodded readily, “Okay”

“There’s no time like the present. Why don’t we do it at noon today! Where are you! I’ll pick you up, Ray said.

Sharon naturally had no objections, but she could not help but ask, “You and Edwin are friends. Is this going to affect your relationship!!

“I’m only helping you find a lawyer so that the lawsuit will be fair This will save everyone the time for the appeal in case anyone feels that the lawsuit is conducted unfairly. It’s beneficial for both parties, right?”

Hearing his words, Sharon felt much more relieved. It was noon. She chose a restaurant and had lunch with Ray.

When they were almost done eating, she gave Ray a contract. The terms of the contract stated that all future partnerships between Ray and Bisney Entertainment would be given a 20% discount on top of all the current conditions. This was a very high discount...

A trace of helplessness appeared on Ray's face. He knew that Sharon did this because she did not want to owe him a favor

Ray did not reject her. Instead, he signed the deal. He knew that a woman like Sharon would be chased away if he did not show respect to her in such situations.

After dinner, the two of them walked out together, Ray lowered his head to discuss some cooperation matters with her as they walked. Unexpectedly, a little kid ran past anxiously. Because he was in a hurry, he bumped into Sharon heavily.

Sharon was pushed back from the impact, and she was about to fall down the steps. In an emergency. Ray reached out and pulled her in. Sharon instinctively ran into his arms.

"Wow, it's so bold for you two to make out in public" Before Sharon could react, she heard some sarcastic words.
