

Dungeon 691

Chapter 691 Great Escape

"I, Lu Benwei, walk the world openly and aboveboard. I didn't do anything that goes against the heavens and reason," Lu Benwei replied loudly.

Shi Guang held a crimson spear in his hand and roared coldly. "Then come back with me. We'll clear your name!"

After saying that, the other party's spear was like a dragon coming out of its cave. It tore through the sky and swept across the world with waves of flames.

When Lu Benwei saw this, he laughed coldly. "You keep saying that you've proven my innocence, and now you're attacking me. What are you doing?"

Shi Guang responded with a sneer. He stabbed the spear with both hands at Lu Benwei and the other two, turning into a terrifying flame and emitting a deafening buzz.

"Hidden Dragon!"

Hu Wu's strange roar overturned mountains and seas. The earth dragon woke up from its hibernation and raised its head. The dragon's roar was loud and lifelike.

"Boom!"

The earth dragon struck out, piercing through the sky and clashing with the flames that covered the sky. In an instant, it collapsed, and flames rolled. The sky was covered in flames and ashes. A sandstorm was set off on the ground, sending sand and stones flying. It was like the end of the world.

"Puff!"

Hu Wu coughed up a large mouthful of blood, and his old injuries relapsed. "Oh my god, I'm going to die!"

"Old Hu, calm down. Let me do it!"

Lu Benwei swung his fists and threw out a galaxy in the sky.

"Go! Kill this monster!" Shi Guang roared.

Countless hunters charged forward, wanting to kill Lu Benwei and Hu Wu. Many of them were kept in the dark, but they obeyed orders.

Lu Benwei could not kill them, so he turned his Star Shattering Fist into a light screen and poured down like a waterfall, blocking everyone's attack.

"Old Hu, let's go!"

At the same time, an army entered the battlefield to capture Lu Benwei.

The enemy's commander had engaged in the most primitive and cruel physical battle with Lu Benwei. The moment their fists clashed, the world was opened and blood was spilled.

The people below were shocked. Lu Benwei's strength and physique could be said to be unparalleled. He was powerful to a certain extent and could fight people ten levels higher! However, he was also in a sorry state.

The other party had the determination to kill Lu Benwei, but Lu Benwei could not use his full strength!

In an unknown corner of Green Spirit City.

The believers of the God Welcoming Association gloated at this scene.

"Haha, I'll let you have a taste of being hunted down!" Nine Fingers laughed heartily.

After saying that, he looked at Gan Yan.

"Ten Fingers, Lord God didn't misjudge you. In just half a year, the nobles in the entire Hai Province have become our believers! The Lord God will reward you."

"This is what sinners should do." Gan Yan bowed slightly.

Nine Fingers suddenly frowned and said, "But I'm still very curious. How did you get the higher-ups to issue a nationwide arrest warrant? Are there people in the upper echelons who are our believers?"

Gan Yan licked his teeth and smiled meaningfully. "That's not true. I just sent a message to the higher-ups."

Nine Fingers was stunned. He pursed his lips and did not say anything else!

"Puff!"

Blood spurted out. Lu Benwei's body was almost pierced through, and the carotid artery on his neck was grazed. Blood gushed out like spring water!

"Lu Benwei, you're surrounded. Surrender quickly!" Shi Guang laughed coldly as he looked at Lu Benwei with eyes that were about to split open.

Just as he said, Lu Benwei was trapped in an inescapable net. There was nowhere to go! Lu Benwei's lips curled into a cold smile. "You want to capture me with this?"

As he spoke, he cast Lightning Speed on Hu Wu and the Six-tailed Crocodile. He whispered, "Hold on tight to me. The world is going to distort later."

One-click Speed Support!

Lu Benwei used Lightning Speed and used a speed boost. In a flash of lightning and thunder, he brought Hu Wu and the Six-tailed Crocodile across the spatial barrier and broke through the layers of seals.

"H-how is this possible?"

The hunters who came to arrest Lu Benwei all had their mouths agape, their jaws almost falling to the ground.

"Even if a king tier was here, he shouldn't be this fast, right? This is almost teleportation, right?"

In a trance, they could still see afterimages in the space.

Hu Wu was a little dumbfounded. His soul was almost stripped out by this extreme speed just now.

“Don’t be silly, let’s go!” Lu Benwei pondered and woke up the two people who were in a daze.

Hu Wu and the Six-tailed Crocodile responded with an “oh” before coming back to their senses.

Then, the wind started to form under their feet as if they had mastered the profound meaning of space. One step was enough to block tens of steps from the army behind them.

“Where are they heading?”

Some of the people who were chasing after them noticed the direction they had escaped in.

“Are they going to the outer realm?”

Shi Guang laughed coldly.

On the other side, the Six-tailed Crocodile laughed when he saw that he had escaped from the pursuit of an army. “Other than the heavens, no one can take me in!”

“Don’t be careless.” Lu Benwei’s expression was very solemn. “There are still enemies waiting for us in front!”

As expected, a light wheel shone from the front, illuminating everything in the world.

This was a very strange skill. The momentum of the river of time was declining, and Lu Benwei and the other two slowed down.

“Time Freeze!”

Lu Benwei’s pupils constricted rapidly.

He had seen this skill before in the hands of his opponent, and it had a terrifying effect. It even stopped the flow of time.

“Swoosh!”

Lu Benwei once again activated the One-click Speed Support, crossing the void and instantly disappearing from the spot.

A person’s figure appeared in the void, and the aura he emitted was extremely terrifying, causing people to involuntarily feel a chill down their spines.

“We have already sealed the space. You can’t escape!”

His eyes were like a furnace, burning with rage.

“I have a clear conscience. I’ve never wanted to escape!” Lu Benwei’s words fell from the sky and exploded in the ears of the crowd.

Shi Guang had also arrived, accompanied by thousands of soldiers and horses. They looked up at the sky aggressively.

“Lu Benwei, you colluded with the monsters and slaughtered your own people.” Shi Guang slandered Lu Benwei and announced Lu Benwei’s crimes in the sky above Green Spirit City!

Lu Benwei replied coldly, “Where’s the evidence?”

“The evidence is that many children have died at your hands!”

“Ridiculous!” Lu Benwei sneered. “This ridiculous thing can be used as evidence?”

The stone light flew into a rage out of humiliation, raising the spear and thrusting.

“Clang! Clang!”

Lu Benwei’s eyes were extremely cold. The Ancient Sword of Clarity hummed and exploded with immortal destructive power.

“Divine Sword of Destruction!”

The boundless sword light carried millions of destructive powers and swept in all directions, shattering the nine heavens and ten lands!

“Boom!”

The destructive sword light clashed with the flames, and the sky almost split open. Shi Guang’s expression changed instantly!

Chapter 692 Strong Reinforcements

The power of the sword was peerless. The immeasurably long destructive sword light destroyed the heavens, and the fire beam dissipated. The stone light could not withstand such a powerful attack, and its body almost split apart.

“Dragon Spear!”

Shi Guang roared and instantly stabilized his decline. Then, the spear in his hand emitted a divine light and transformed into a long dragon. The huge head was raised high and the dragon roared.

Lu Benwei’s eyes were cold as he shouted, “Judgment!”

He raised his hands high, and the power of judgment transformed into a heavenly scythe. It flickered with precious light as if it was made of gold.

This was the supreme truth of adjudication. The power of adjudication lingered and formed the most powerful weapon.

The scythe of judgment emitted a golden light, illuminating Lu Benwei with incomparable majesty and holiness. At this moment, he was like an angel who controlled life and death in the sky.

“Buzz!”

Lu Benwei waved his hands, and the peerless giant scythe cut through the world and slashed at the dragon’s head.

The spear was raised, and the dragon chanted. It reverberated between heaven and earth as it met the giant scythe.

“Boom!”

The giant scythe cut through the world and shattered the sky. The dragon’s head was cut off by it, and nothing existed anymore!

Shi Guang coughed out large mouthfuls of blood and retreated in defeat.

“Truly amazing! An unprecedented genius from ancient times to the present!”

The Time Magician appeared, wearing a monocle and a bronze pocket watch.

“What a pity! Such a proud prodigy is in cahoots with a monster.”

Lu Benwei stared at him and sneered. “You only saw what you saw, so you came to a conclusion and labeled me as a sinner?!”

“Then why did you run?” the other party questioned in a calm voice.

“I told you; you only saw what you saw,” Lu Benwei replied and attacked the other party.

The Time Magician opened his hands, and a magic book appeared in front of him.

“River of Time, Reversal!”

Time Magician is the rarest and most mysterious hidden class, master the time profound, the best in the world. Ever since the era of the class change, there were very few Time Magicians, but every one of them could become a powerhouse and guard a region.

“You’re the sand of time, Shi Laidong!” Hu Wu announced the other party’s name, and all the hair on his body stood on end.

In the long river of history, there were very few Time Magicians. Once it appeared, it would definitely cause a huge commotion and at the same time, obtain a large amount of resources.

Shi Laidong had grown up in this environment.

As the former director of the Law Enforcement Bureau of Hai Province, Hu Wu had naturally heard of his name.

Some people said that a Time Magician who had mastered time could fight a level-80 or 90 opponent.

“Shi Laidong is almost the new pillar of the Dragon Kingdom. There are even rumors that as long as he reaches level 90, he can be conferred the title of a pillar! We have to be careful.”

Lu Benwei was not afraid.

“Since you’re the next pillar of the Dragon Kingdom, you should know what’s right and wrong. I didn’t do it. I’ll go to the scene and use time magic to find out!”

After saying that, he used Lightning Speed and activated One-click Speed Support to break free from the shackles of time.

This was a strange phenomenon.

The sun and moon reversed, and birds, fish, and the river of time went back. Lu Benwei felt as if an invisible hand was grabbing him, wanting to put him back to the beginning.

At the same time, the hunter with Shi Laidong was ready to attack, unleashing one killing move after another, attacking Lu Benwei.

“You’re not even willing to save face. If a person like you becomes the pillar of the Dragon Kingdom, it’s simply an insult to the word ‘pillar of the country’!” Lu Benwei sneered.

This was a killing match, he wanted to kill Lu Benwei in a place of absolute danger.

Lu Benwei finally understood that it was not the God Welcoming Association who wanted to kill him but another force!

The eight great families? No, Lu Benwei shook his head. He and three of the eight great families had a blood feud. Both sides had long shed all pretenses of cordiality, so there was no need to hide it.

“Could it be an official? Yes, it’s definitely the government. Otherwise, with the dirty water of killing the students, it’s impossible to issue a nationwide arrest warrant for me!”

Lu Benwei was stunned. He did not understand why the other party had mobilized so many people to kill him, even colluding with the Welcoming God Association!

He was really angry. This kind of inexplicable injustice made him feel extremely aggrieved!

“Flying Snake’s Divine Might!”

Lu Benwei’s eyes lit up like a magic lamp, emitting a golden beam of light.

Behind him, there was a large snake with wings on its back. Its scales were dense, and its black light was shining, making people feel cold.

This was the projection of a real flying snake. His divine might was unparalleled. Many people’s hearts were beating fast, and they were shocked.

“Buzz!”

The flying snake’s vertical pupils opened, shooting out two bronze beams of light that swept into the crowd.

“Ah!”

Many people shouted and stopped using their skills. Then, they fell with blood flowing out of their seven orifices.

“Forbidden Spell, Golden Sword!”

Shi Laidong shouted, and the magic book became as dazzling as a heavenly book. It flipped continuously, and an inch-long golden sword appeared, illuminating the world with a buzzing sound.

Lu Benwei, Hu Wu, and the Six-tailed Crocodile’s expressions changed, becoming extremely solemn.

“Is this a skill? It can manifest a legendary weapon!” Hu Wu gasped.

Before the golden sword had even struck out, the sword intent that erupted almost tore the sky apart!

“We can’t let him slash out!” the crocodile had a bad premonition and shouted. It flew forward and spat out a string of demonic light.

“Demonic Light Destroys Rivers and Mountains!”

The world-destroying demonic light was terrifying and boundless. It pierced through the heavens and earth, one after another, endless. The sky was dazzling, and the entire city was shaking.

“Buzz!”

The golden sword trembled slightly, and the sword intent that erupted was extremely terrifying, shocking the ancient and dazzling the present.

It used the sword intent as a shield and easily cut the demonic light apart, dissipating into the world.

The Six-tailed Crocodile was dumbfounded. He had once used this peerless demonic light to heavily injure a Monster King, but he was unable to withstand a single blow from this golden sword.

“Hidden Dragon!”

Hu Wu shouted, and the earth trembled along with him. Many earth dragons came out of their caves and roamed between heaven and earth.

The golden sword continued to tremble, and the sword intent slashed the earth dragons one after another. Dust flew everywhere, covering the sky.

“This...”

The three of them were dumbfounded and gasped.

“This, this skill is too terrifying. This is just a slash of sword intent, and it can achieve such an effect?”

Shi Laidong was calm, but he said mockingly, “Lu Benwei, do you really think that you’re invincible just because you defeated a few kings of the eight great families with a divine item? How long have you been on this path, and you’re already delusional enough to think that you can be compared to someone who has been on this path for a lifetime?”

“Golden Sword, slash!”

The golden sword finally struck out with its peerless sharpness. The void collapsed wherever it reached, and everything in the world seemed to be unable to stop it!

Lu Benwei was about to block when he saw a familiar figure appear in front of him.

Chapter 693 Enemies of the World

“That’s enough. There’s no need to make things difficult for this child!”

That figure appeared, exuding an aura of authority without being angry. He waved his hand, and the elemental storm in the city began to riot. It shattered the vacuum and blocked the golden sword.

“Commander Chu!” Lu Benwei exclaimed as he recognized the person in front of him.

“Father!”

Chu Yan also flew over with tears in her eyes.

“Yanyan, Lu Benwei, I’m here.” Chu Tianxiong’s back was facing the two of them. In front of him, there were thousands of soldiers.

“Lu Benwei, Chu Yan, I’m here too.”

Li Tiancheng’s voice rang out as he rushed to Lu Benwei and Chu Yan’s side with his sword.

“Why are you guys here?” Lu Benwei was very grateful to the two of them. The Furious Dragon Legion had helped him too many times.

“I came as soon as I received the news,” Li Tiancheng said.

Lu Benwei understood and smiled bitterly in his heart. It seemed that the entire Dragon Kingdom knew that he, Lu Benwei, was a murderer who had colluded with monsters and slaughtered students.

‘Enemies of the world,’ Lu Benwei muttered in his heart.

“Chu Tianxiong, you’re here!”

Shi Laidong frowned and stared at Chu Tianxiong.

“I don’t understand. Why didn’t you investigate? Why did you mobilize so many people to kill a child?” Chu Tianxiong questioned.

“You already know.” Shi Laidong growled, his face filled with righteous indignation.

Chu Tianxiong laughed coldly. “My daughter is with Lu Benwei every day. Why isn’t she on the wanted list?”

Then, he narrowed his eyes and said, “The old masters sent you here. I don’t understand, how did Lu Benwei offend them?”

“Chu Tianxiong, you’ve overstepped your boundaries!” Shi Laidong’s face was no longer calm, but he shouted.

Chu Tianxiong’s eyes flashed with a bright light as he laughed, “As expected, I guessed it correctly. In that case, why don’t we be frank? If Lu Benwei really did something unforgivable, I’ll deal with him myself!”

When the Six-tailed Crocodile heard Chu Tianxiong’s words, the corners of his mouth twitched as he muttered to himself, ‘Impressive, you’re really noble.’

“You have no right to know!” Shi Laidong’s eyes twitched as he glared at Chu Tianxiong.

“Then you have no right to kill!” Chu Tianxiong said, his aura was peerless, suppressing everyone so much that they could not even lift their heads.

Shi Laidong was speechless.

“If you’re willing to protect a murderer who colluded with monsters and massacred students in front of so many commoners, I have nothing to say!”

Shi Laidong suddenly roared, his voice resounding throughout the entire city!

At the same time, many passersby and media in Green Spirit City were paying attention to this dispute. As soon as Shi Laidong’s words fell, a storm broke out in the entire city!

“Chu Tianxiong is standing with that murderer, how is this possible?”

“Even if you beat me to death, I won’t believe that Chu Tianxiong did this!”

“I heard that kid is Chu Tianxiong’s future son-in-law. Is Chu Tianxiong trying to cover up for a criminal?”

At the same time, various media outlets published news articles with shocking headlines.

“Shocking! Chu Tianxiong has betrayed us and is standing with the monsters!”

“Chu Tianxiong is biased and protective of his own people, not hesitating to make an enemy out of humans!”

At this moment, Shi Laidong’s lips curled into a smirk. “Chu Tianxiong, are you sure you want to be enemies with everyone in the world? Was it Lu Benwei, the monster, standing together?”

“I only stand by the truth!” Chu Tianxiong shouted and charged forward.

Shi Laidong moved as well, engaging in a grand showdown with Chu Tianxiong.

“Rumble!”

All kinds of elemental magic interweaved and shone in the sky.

Shi Laidong flipped the spell book, and the river of time turned into a chain of time, clashing with the power of various elements in the sky.

The hearts of the passersby and spectators below were beating wildly. The sky above Green Spirit City was changing unpredictably. At times, multicolored light shot out, and at other times, space shattered, revealing a dark primitive vacuum.

Chu Tianxiong was incomparably powerful, his divine might peerless, while Shi Laidong’s time magic was unfathomable. The two of them clashed, causing the heavens and the earth to tremble, creating a vacuum zone.

As the two fought, Shi Laidong came out. “Hurry up and kill Lu Benwei!”

“Child, run toward the outer region!” Chu Tianxiong said immediately, “I’ll help you find out the truth and prove your innocence!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the army arrived, and their numbers were extremely huge!

Li Tiancheng swung his sword diagonally, his sword intent overflowing. “Lu Benwei, you guys go first. I’ll help you block it!”

The sword energy swept across 30,000 miles, and the sword light chilled the 19 continents!

A huge golden colossus descended from the sky, stepping across the sky. It held the same longsword as Li Tiancheng's. It looked majestic, like a divine weapon.

The giant statue of the divine soldier and Li Tiancheng jointly blocked many strong monsters together. At the same time, they brandished the golden longsword in their hands and continuously slashed out shocking sword qi!

"Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!"

The domineering sword qi swept across the world. Each sword qi was as thick as a bucket, but it was incomparably sharp. It was like a flood dragon coming out of its hole. Its aura was like a huge mountain collapsing. It was invincible. Every attack seemed to be able to penetrate the sky!

The sky and the earth were trembling, and the peerless sword qi filled half of the sky. Li Tiancheng and the other man's bodies erupted with blazing divine light, overflowing with a fighting spirit and killing intent.

Countless hunters were struck by the sword aura and fell to the ground.

"Lu Benwei, I'll wait for you to come back!"

Chu Yan looked at Lu Benwei with a gaze as tender as the autumn water, and said goodbye!

"Everyone and I will help you figure out the truth! I'll return your innocence."

After saying that, she frowned and emitted a chilling aura.

"Elemental Storm: Bloom!"

Her face was stunning and could topple a country. She waved her arms and spiritual power flowed from her fingertips to control the elemental flowers in the world. They gathered into one and then bloomed in anger. It was like a great river flowing into the sea, gushing endlessly, drowning the enemies on one side.

However, there were too many enemies. They were as dense as locusts!

Lu Benwei was in a crisis where he was the enemy of the world!

At this moment, the other side of the sky was filled with the sounds of killing.

A group of people appeared. The one leading them was the vice commander of the Furious Dragon Legion, Golden Wolf!

"Lu Benwei, go ahead! We'll cover for you here!"

Guan Lou threw out a formation that could isolate space, trapping many people in an instant.

"Little friend Lu once risked his life to save us from danger. Now that he's in trouble, how can we sit idly by?"

Then, he instantly appeared in front of Lu Benwei and took out a small formation from his pocket.

"This is a formation I just created. It can allow you to contact us in the outer realm."

He paused for a moment before smiling bitterly.

A few more soldiers of the Furious Dragon Legion stepped forward and gave out some magic treasures to protect Lu Benwei in the outer realm.

Chapter 694 Fallen

Lu Benwei looked gratefully at the people in front of him. His lips were tightly pressed together, and his mouth opened and closed, not knowing what to say to express his gratitude.

The soldiers of the Furious Dragon Legion had risked being enemies with the entire world to send Lu Benwei off. This kind intention was a great thing!

“What are you still talking about? Let’s go! I’ll wait for you to come back and have a drink together!” Guan Lou said loudly.

“Good!”

Lu Benwei nodded solemnly.

He, Hu Wu, and the Six-tailed Crocodile flew toward the direction of the Great Wall without any explanation.

“Comrades, cover Lu Benwei and head to the outer realm!” Guan Lou shouted.

The soldiers of the Furious Dragon Legion roared and formed a human wall to protect Lu Benwei!

On the way back, Hu Wu let out a long sigh. “Little Lu, I’m sorry. If you hadn’t gotten involved in my matters, this wouldn’t have happened.”

“What do you mean? It’s just that it was planted long ago and it’s erupting today. However, I haven’t thought it through clearly yet. What did I do to offend the officials? Why did they not hesitate to join forces with the God Welcoming Association to deal with me?”

“I’m afraid it’s something that can topple the heavens,” Hu Wu said emotionally.

Lu Benwei was stunned. Then, he noticed a terrifying beam of light coming from the front.

“Be careful!”

Lu Benwei raised his fist to block the beam of light and then looked coldly ahead.

A few figures appeared, their armor flickering with a dark light.

“We’re the garrison of Green Spirit City Great Wall. Lu Benwei, you have committed a heinous crime and attempted to head to the outer realm. You’ll be executed immediately!” the leader of the garrison said indifferently.

“Get lost!”

Lu Benwei had nothing to say to this group of people. He swung his fists and struck out a galaxy to clash with those people.

In the distance, the elemental storm was chaotic, and the river of time was surging. The battle between Chu Tianxiong and Shi Laidong was still ongoing.

“Shi Laidong, you’ll be the pillar of the Dragon Kingdom in the future. Can’t you tell right from wrong? He didn’t make a mistake, but you want to kill him!”

Chu Tianxiong’s expression was extremely grave as he spoke coldly.

“Chu Tianxiong, I’m different from you!” Shi Laidong replied, his face pale.

His level was not as high as Chu Tianxiong’s. Even if he had the world’s most mysterious magic, it would be useless. Moreover, this was only because Chu Tianxiong had shown mercy, allowing them to fight. His brown hair danced in the wind, and his eyes were filled with hostility.

“I was trained by them. I must listen to their orders!”

At this moment, a deep voice sounded in his ear.

“Stop talking nonsense with Chu Tianxiong. Lu Benwei is trying to escape, and he’ll learn many secrets once he does. Kill him!”

“Yes, sir!” Shi Laidong said and looked in the direction Lu Benwei had fled.

At this moment, Lu Benwei had already dealt with the guards guarding the Great Wall and was only one step away from it.

The wind and clouds suddenly changed, and violent waves attacked. A small team of monsters appeared in front of everyone.

They were like sphinxes – humans with lion faces and wings on their backs. Their muscles were strong and muscular, like dragons.

“Haha, I didn’t expect the humans to be fighting among themselves.”

At the same time, Shi Laidong made his move.

“Time Intent, Eternal Sand!”

He suddenly shouted, causing the expressions of all the members of the Furious Dragon Legion to change drastically.

Time froze at this moment. Everyone was affected, including a peerless expert like Chu Tianxiong.

This was Shi Laidong’s powerful secret skill. The river of time became eternal at this moment.

What a powerful skill! There was a trace of the power of the law of time contained within the skill!” Chu Tianxiong sighed and reached out to block the attack!

“It’s useless!” Shi Laidong’s hair was thick, and his eyes were filled with killing intent.

The eternal river of time shattered like solid ice, turning into grains of sand that slowly attacked forward.

Everything in the world seemed to have been frozen. Wherever it went, everything around it turned into time gravel. The ethereal clouds in the sky, the invisible creatures in the air, the dust on the ground, and the blue sea water all turned into time gravel.

Everyone was terrified, afraid that they would be affected.

“Lu Benwei, dodge!” Chu Tianxiong roared.

“Annoying fellow, dodge him!” Chu Yan’s eyes were filled with tears as if she could see Lu Benwei being annihilated because of this.

At this moment, Lu Benwei and the sphinx began their battle. The time gravel spread out like a huge net toward him!

Lu Benwei’s pupils contracted rapidly. He could feel that he was rapidly aging, and all the functions of his body were dying.

“Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique!”

Lu Benwei shouted in a low voice. His voice was very old and weak.

The Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique was a self-healing forbidden technique that could allow one to achieve immortality!

However, he was not injured. Instead, time passed by quickly.

Lu Benwei’s hair turned from black to grey. In just a few seconds, wrinkles began to appear on his face, and his back became hunched.

“Big Brother!”

The Six-tailed Crocodile panicked. This skill was extremely strange. It could annihilate people silently!

Everyone was shocked and felt a chill run down their spines.

“Annoying fellow!” Chu Yan’s eyes were filled with tears as she watched Lu Benwei’s life force dissipate away rapidly.

“Hahaha! Lu Benwei, I told you that the world is big. It’s not just what you think!”

Shi Laidong smiled cruelly and proudly.

“Die with your secret!”

As soon as he finished speaking, a voice was heard.

“With sincerity, metal and stone can be split apart! Heavenly spirit, earth spirit, earth lord, show your spirit.”

It was Hu Wu! His body was trembling, and he said some irrelevant words in a trembling voice.

“Earth Roar!”

Suddenly, he roared and spat out a mouthful of black blood.

A strange scene happened. The time gravel was attracted by him and passed Lu Benwei, heading toward him.

A strange scene appeared on Lu Benwei's body again. The river of time reversed, and his body regained its vitality.

"No, no!"

Lu Benwei did not rejoice immediately. Instead, he pounced toward Hu Wu!

"No need!"

Hu Wu's voice had already become old and weak. The wrinkles on his face were like the growth rings of a tree.

"I don't have much time left. This way, dying of old age saves me the pain!"

Lu Benwei was shocked.

Hu Wu used a secret technique to attract the time gravel over to replace Lu Benwei!

"You can go! Dying in the Dragon Kingdom's transit can be considered as returning to the roots. Actually, I don't want to die in the outer realm! I'm a little excited to die on the sea of the Dragon Kingdom and still be able to see the beautiful women on the beach!"

This random man was joking until he died!

The light in his eyes gradually dimmed, and his skin began to disintegrate, turning into ashes that dissipated in the wind.

Chapter 695 Anger

"Haha! Without any effort, a human expert fell. This crusade was indeed the right choice."

The Sphinx smiled cruelly.

He continued, "Kid, quickly lead the way. Tell me where the teleportation center is. Otherwise, I'll smash your head!"

At this moment, Lu Benwei's heart was filled with grief and indignation.

He and Hu Wu were not considered best friends, and he had even tricked Lu Benwei a few times.

The most memorable time was when Hu Wu threw him into a deserted place. If Chu Yan had not picked him up later, Lu Benwei might not have interacted with Hu Wu again.

However, when he thought about how this middle-aged man had disappeared from his world forever, Lu Benwei's heart was filled with mixed feelings.

"How sad."

Lu Benwei still remembered his wish before he died. He even wanted to successfully retire and go to the beach to chat up beautiful young ladies. Now, everything had turned into dust.

“Hey, human brat, I’m talking to you!” the Sphinx said sternly, “If you perform well, we might be able to spare your life!”

Lu Benwei laughed out loud, then looked at them coldly. “Don’t you know how to be quiet at a funeral?”

The Sphinx was stunned for a moment, then said angrily, “Are you teaching me how to do things?”

“Boom!”

Lu Benwei raised his fist and punched the Sphinx into pieces!

The monsters and humans paled in horror. Was this Lu Benwei’s last attack? A punch that turned the body of a powerful Sphinx into a bloody paste was simply terrifying!

Lu Benwei looked back. He did not take the Sphinx clan in his eyes at all!

“Shi Laidong and the mastermind behind you! Also Gan Yan and the God Welcoming Association! I know you’re hiding in the dark!”

Lu Benwei’s voice was loud enough for everyone in the sky to hear.

“When I go to the Foreign Lands, the king will definitely return! When I return, I’ll settle the score with you one by one!”

With that, he punched out and smashed the body of the Sphinx into dust.

Shi Laidong coughed up a large mouthful of blood and weakly ordered, “Stop him.”

Eternal Sand was a forbidden secret skill. When he used it, he needed to divide the power of his soul origin, which made him extremely weak. Moreover, the fact that Lu Benwei’s death had been rewritten made him extremely angry!

“Lu Benwei must stay today!”

However, Lu Benwei stepped on the power of Lightning Speed. With the help of One-click Speed Support, it was as if he entered an uninhabited realm. How could ordinary people stop him?

Lu Benwei and the Six-tailed Crocodile fled toward the outer realm, venting their grief and indignation on the Sphinxes along the way.

Seeing how terrifying Lu Benwei was, the leader of the Sphinx Clan gritted his teeth and ordered, “Lads, he’s running toward the outer realm. If we retreat today, we’ll die. In the future, the glorious deeds of our clan will be recorded in the history of the monster race! Kill them!”

“Kill!”

The Sphinx Clan’s elites roared and charged toward the city.

Right at this moment, the leader of the Sphinx Clan shuddered violently as if a certain evil spirit was staring at him from a certain direction.

“Who is it?!”

He looked up and saw someone glaring at them from the other side of the sky!

That person's figure slowly appeared, and a majestic aura as a mountain covered the sky and earth.

"Furious Dragon Legion, Great Emperor!"

"What?!"

The soul of the leader of the Sphinx Clan was shaken, and he was extremely terrified.

"Chu Tianxiong, weren't you in Dragon City? Why are you here?"

"I'm not the only one here," Chu Tianxiong said in a low voice, "my brothers from the Furious Dragon Legion are here too!"

"Furious Dragon Legion, kill!"

The soldiers of the Furious Dragon Legion covered the sky and earth. They were wearing Furious Dragon Armor and were attacking the Sphinxes.

Their leader had suspected the monster at that time. Why did they choose to attack the humans today? Why didn't he join forces to kill that human just now?

A mountain smashed toward the leader of the Sphinx Clan, killing him here forever.

...

"Whoosh!"

On the ocean, there were endless blue waves.

The sea breeze carried a salty and moist smell and poured into Lu Benwei's pores.

Lu Benwei enjoyed the joy of being reborn, and his body and mind were greatly satisfied.

"Big Brother, are we really going to the Devil's Den?"

The crocodile carried Lu Benwei and swam in the ocean.

At first, Lu Benwei was surprised. The crocodile was a monster that evolved from a crocodile, and it could move freely on the sea.

"I'm going," Lu Benwei replied.

He was still worried about Lu Ziling. Why would she stay with the Imperial Destruction Clan?

The Six-tailed Crocodile did not say anything else and focused on carrying Lu Benwei toward the east.

The Imperial Baby suddenly could not stay any longer and flashed out of the Bronze Temple.

"What are you doing here?" Lu Benwei asked.

The Imperial Baby raised his head to look at the sky as if he was sensing something.

"Strange, there should be a country here! How did it become like this?" the Imperial Baby said in surprise.

Lu Benwei was stunned. He was not surprised that there were other human countries other than the Dragon Kingdom. This was the conclusion he had come to.

“Is it an ancient country like yours?” Lu Benwei asked.

“Of course, it’s our affiliated kingdom! They must pay tribute to us every year!” the Imperial Baby placed his hands on his waist and stuck out his small belly as he said proudly.

His words brought up the Imperial Baby’s sad matter, and his small mouth pouted.

“No, the Apocalypse Empire didn’t disappear! Imperial Mother and Father have ascended to heaven with their subjects!”

“Keep bragging. You want to ascend to heaven?”

As a monster, the Six-tailed Crocodile did not have any morals to restrain him, so he naturally did not know how to give in to a child.

The Imperial Baby was anxious. He stomped on the crocodile with all his might. The crocodile was in great pain and tried to swing his tail at the Imperial Baby. This resulted in Lu Benwei being drenched in seawater!

“You two, stop fooling around!”

Lu Benwei strode forward and rewarded each of them with a slap.

The Imperial Baby and the Six-tailed Crocodile instantly quieted down.

“You said that your mother and father brought their subjects to the sky. When did you know?”

The Imperial Baby was extraordinary. Lu Benwei had only interacted with that ancient mirror before. Back then, he was only ten months old and was sealed in a coffin by the Tianqi Empress using unconventional methods.

It could be said that his soul was growing day by day despite the passage of time. That was why he had such extraordinary strength.

“I’ve vaguely heard the nanny mention it. She said that we were leaving and that Little Haokai needed to be good.”

The Imperial Baby could not help but sob.

Chapter 696 Chief Executive

Lu Benwei sighed and patted the Imperial Baby’s head. Although he was a noble prince, he suffered greatly.

For thousands of years, he had been in a small coffin. It was a deep despair. It was dark all around, and he was the only one who could speak.

The Six-tailed Crocodile also realized that he had gone overboard with his words just now. He cursed himself in his heart. "Imperial Baby, I'm sorry!"

The Imperial Baby used his chubby little hand to wipe his tears. "It's okay. I've thought it through long ago. I must find my Imperial Mother and Father and ask them about it!"

"You want to settle the score with your parents?" the crocodile asked in surprise.

"Of course! They locked me up for so long. I want to teach them a lesson!" The Imperial Baby was stubborn.

The crocodile said, "This, this isn't good."

Lu Benwei sighed helplessly. He had not gone through the Imperial Baby's experience, so he could not say anything.

"Your parents must've something they can't say."

"Who cares!" The Imperial Baby curled his lips in disdain.

Gradually, a thin layer of fog rose from the sea.

The Great Overwatch Wall was blurred, disappearing from the place where the sky and the sea met.

Lu Benwei let out a long sigh of relief. After making sure that no one was chasing after him, he looked up at the sky and landed on the back of the crocodile.

The Imperial Baby sat beside him and looked at him in a daze.

Time passed quietly. The sun rose in the east and set in the west. The moon and stars rotated.

Gradually, Lu Benwei was a little hungry. He tore open a bag of potato chips and ate them. The soldiers of the Furious Dragon Legion gave him a lot of gifts, including a big gift pack of snacks.

"If only there was a song at this time."

Lu Benwei felt a little emotional.

"Brother, you should've said so earlier!"

Before Lu Benwei could respond, the Six-tailed Crocodile started singing.

"I'll be conquered by you just like this ~

"I wrote down your good road ~"

...

Lu Benwei was speechless.

The crocodile's singing was a little difficult to describe.

The Imperial Baby and he had goosebumps all over their bodies as they fell to the ground.

"Crocodile."

Lu Benwei interrupted the crocodile's performance.

"What's wrong, Big Brother?" the Six-tailed Crocodile stuck out his tongue excitedly, wanting to get Lu Benwei's praise.

"Shut up!"

When the crocodile heard this, he immediately shut his mouth and continued to move forward.

...

At night, the moon was bright, and the stars were sparse.

There was a huge horse farm fifty miles north of Dragon City. It was not open to the public and was only for the owner's use.

It was hard to imagine that there were still people who spent so much effort to take care of the horse farm in each era.

The grass was soft, and the horses in the stable neighed from time to time. A winding cobblestone path divided the horse track into two, leading to an exclusive small courtyard.

Wang Yiruo stepped on the cobblestone path and came to the main door of the exclusive courtyard.

"Bang!"

She pushed hard with both hands, and the door opened heavily. The lights in the villa were dim, and she could only see the outline of his five fingers.

"How many times have we reminded you to knock before coming in?"

A beam of light suddenly appeared in the room. There was a long square table in the middle of the hall, and a candle flame danced on a cross-shaped candlestick.

The light of the fire shone, and the outline of an old man was vaguely illuminated.

On his bronze face, there was a pair of sparkling eyes, as sharp as an eagle. His facial features were strong, and his angry hair was mixed with a few white hairs. He was not angry at all.

"What era is it? Aren't you afraid of burning down your horse farm?" Wang Yiruo said teasingly as she reached out to turn on the light behind the door.

"Yiruo, don't be rude!"

The old man growled and stopped Wang Yiruo.

It was too late. Wang Yiruo had already turned on the light switch. The hall suddenly lit up.

Wang Yiruo slowly exhaled and said, "So, you're not the only old man here."

The two sides of the long square table were filled with old people. They were much older than the old man who scolded Wang Yiruo at the beginning.

They had different forms. Some of them had skin as dry as cicada slough, and it seemed like they could fall off their bones with a light touch.

Some of them had skin as tender as a baby's. As they breathed, red lines spread on their faces. There were even many who looked like they had just walked out of an ice cellar. Their skin was frighteningly pale.

Wang Yiruo turned off the lights again, and a solemn expression appeared on her face.

"Gentlemen, why have you called me here?"

"Who gave you permission to release Chu Tianxiong?" the first elder asked.

Wang Yiruo pressed her chest with one hand and bowed slightly. "In reply to the Chief Executive, after my investigation, Chu Tianxiong didn't commit any major mistakes, so I let him go."

At this moment, an old man with skin as dry as tree bark spoke. His voice was filled with endless vicissitudes. "A private soldier who assisted a criminal to escape is a major crime. You let him go so easily?"

Wang Yi raised her hand and looked at the old man before bowing again.

"Replying to the former Chief Executive."

These were the chief executives of the Dragon Kingdom. They were high-ranking and powerful figures in the country.

Apart from the first elder, the rest of the group had already stepped down. Logically speaking, they were already buried. However, they used special magic and potions to successfully extend their lives.

Wang Yiruo continued, "According to my investigation, Lu Benwei, didn't commit any crime. Chu Tianxiong and the Furious Dragon Legion had privately mobilized their troops. They had only heard that a monster was about to launch a disaster, so they moved ahead of time."

"Nonsense!" The former chief executive was furious, and the muscles on his cheeks were trembling.

"The appearance of the monsters is just a coincidence!"

"Everything I've said is true," Wang Yiruo said, "If we continue to imprison them, I'm afraid we'll hurt the hearts of those people who are determined to eliminate the monsters!"

"Wang Yiruo, you're too impudent!" The former chief executive was so angry that his body began to tremble.

"Alright, stop arguing," A Chief Executive with skin as delicate as a baby said, "It's meaningless now."

The central hall fell silent again, and only the heavy breathing of the old people could be heard.

"Wang Yiruo, what do you think of Lu Benwei?" the Chief Executive, whose skin was as delicate as a baby, asked.

"I don't have any opinions. I'll punish him for going to the outer realm without permission."

Wang Yiruo bowed slightly. On the surface, she was very respectful to these people.

“But he’s in the outer realm now, so we can’t arrest him.”

“Just punish him for the crime of going to the outer realm without permission?” the Chief Executive, whose skin was dry, squinted and said, “That won’t do! Lu Benwei must die!”

His voice was very cold as he gave the death sentence to Lu Benwei, who was thousands of miles away.

Wang Yiruo bit her lips. “Chief Executive, what does he know that’s worthy of you mobilizing so many people?”

Chapter 697 Late Night Secret Chat

“You don’t have to worry about this! You just need to do what you need to do,” the Chief Executive said in a deep voice.

Other than him, many other chief executives also echoed. “Wang Yiruo, do what you should do. The great war is about to begin. If you don’t do this, there will be great trouble in the future.”

“But I need a reason.” Wang Yiruo was already a little impatient, but she did not show it on her face.

The group of old fellows opposite her had once made great contributions to the Dragon Kingdom. On the surface, Wang Yiruo still showed respect to them.

The air was terrifyingly quiet, so quiet that one could hear a pin drop.

The Chief Executive, whose skin was as delicate as a baby, said, “Wang Yiruo, this position will be yours in the future. At that time, you’ll know that our decision today is right.”

“Then tell me,” Wang Yiruo was impatient and asked with a hint of mockery at the corner of her mouth, “Could it be that he knows about the scam you set up? Since the era when all the people changed their classes, they have fooled the people of the Dragon Kingdom for a thousand years?”

As soon as she finished speaking, the atmosphere at the scene instantly became oppressive! In front of Wang Yiruo, dozens of pairs of angry eyes stared straight at her.

The old man who was the first to receive Wang Yiruo was now filled with shock and anger. He slammed the table and stood up.

“Yiruo, what are you talking about? How can you talk to the chief executives like that?”

The Chief Executive, whose skin was as dry as tree bark, roared angrily. Veins bulged on his forehead.

“Wang Yiruo, tell me what you know!”

Wang Yuanliang was very helpless.

Wang Yiruo no longer bowed, her beautiful face carrying a hint of ridicule.

“Are you afraid? Are you afraid that the world will find out that the era of class change is a complete scam?”

“Yiruo!” Wang Yuanliang roared in a low voice.

Many of the chief executives present let out a low roar as they glared at Wang Yiruo.

The Chief Executive, whose skin was as delicate as a baby's, was very calm.

"There's no need for everyone to be so excited. After all, Yiruo is one of us. It's only a matter of time before we find out about those things."

Finally, under his persuasion, everyone's emotions eased a little.

The delicate Chief Executive continued, "Wang Yiruo, since you know, you should know what to do, right? Lu Benwei must die! Before that, we have to make sure that he doesn't tell anyone this secret!"

"Let's get him back first!" A chief executive echoed. His eyes shone brightly as he looked at Wang Yiruo like a divine lamp.

"Isn't he in the outer realm now? We need to find him." Wang Yiruo yawned.

"Then send someone to the outer realm to bring him back!" the shriveled Chief Executive said in a low voice.

Wang Yiruo placed one hand on her waist and frowned slightly. "My old swan, the outer realm is so big. How do you want me to find him? It's easy for you to sit here and talk. He'll come back. Let's wait for him to come back!"

She slowly turned around and yawned. "It's getting late. Dear former chief executives, go to sleep."

"Yiruo!" Wang Yuanliang growled, wanting to stop Wang Yiruo.

"Bang!"

Wang Yiruo had already closed the door.

Wang Yuanliang sighed and stood up. "I'll go ask Yiruo to come back."

"No need!" the Chief Executive with delicate skin said. Then, he snorted coldly in a low voice and no longer had a pleasant expression. "Yuanliang, in the future, teach your daughter what rules are!"

"Understood." Wang Yuanliang bowed slightly.

"I have to admit that your daughter is better at management than you, but she's also out of your control!" the chief executive said in a low voice, with a hint of anger.

Wang Yuanliang bowed slightly. "I understand. I'll surrender some of my authority."

"There's no need for that," a Chief Executive with a voice as soft as a mosquito suddenly spoke.

He was in the center of everyone, and everyone around him nodded slightly. His status was obvious.

"No matter what, Wang Yiruo is on our side. She won't side with the eight great families, nor will she side with the God Welcoming Association. Her ability is also stronger than yours, Wang Yuanliang!"

Wang Yuanliang laughed awkwardly. Being belittled twice in a row made him feel very uncomfortable.

"Please continue." Wang Yuanliang smiled awkwardly.

The old man with a voice as soft as a mosquito slowly opened his eyes, and a bronze light flowed in his pupils.

“Just be a good sword-bearer. As for Lu Benwei, if she’s willing to solve it, let her solve it. If she’s unwilling, leave it to us!”

When Wang Yuanliang heard this, his pupils contracted rapidly. When he raised his head, all the previous chief executives had disappeared. He pursed his lips and left the courtyard.

The moon was bright, and the stars were sparse. The evening wind blew across the grassland. All the horses in the stable were asleep, and there were owls cooing from time to time.

“Come out, I know you haven’t left,” Wang Yuanliang said.

Wang Yiruo stepped on the cobblestone path in front of the courtyard and walked out from the corner.

“You were the one who waited for me. Shouldn’t you be the one looking for me?” Wang Yuanliang looked at her from the corner of his eyes and said coldly.

Wang Yiruo sneered.

After saying that, she stepped on the cobblestone path and walked out of the grassland.

“Wait!”

Seeing that Wang Yiruo had no intention of stopping, Wang Yuanliang called out to her.

“The first question. How did you know those secrets?”

Wang Yiruo rolled her eyes. “When I was young, I came to your study.”

“When you were young?” Wang Yuanliang blinked his eyes quickly, feeling a little disillusioned.

Then, he was stunned for a moment and said angrily, “So, you said that in front of the seniors today on purpose?”

“What else?”

“You, why are you doing this?! You’re trying to make me angry on purpose, aren’t you?” Wang Yuanliang was a little angry.

“Just because I didn’t follow your wishes and interfered with your marriage? Just because I let Yanyan...”

Yuanliang did not dare to continue. He could feel the intense anger burning in Wang Yiruo’s body.

“Wang Yuanliang, I respect you because you’re the Chief Executive of the Dragon Kingdom. It’s not because you’re my father!” Wang Yiruo said coldly. Her words were like needles stabbing into Wang Yuanliang’s heart.

“I’m doing things with you for the future of the Dragon Kingdom and the great cause of the country! Don’t think too highly of yourself!”

Chapter 698 Raging Sea and Wild Waves

Wang Yuanliang's muscles were throbbing, and his upper and lower lips were tightly pressed together. He panted heavily and only spoke after a long time, "Yiruo, I know I've let you down. But I'm doing this for our family and the Dragon Kingdom!"

"It's more for you, isn't it?" Wang Yiruo mocked.

Wang Yuanliang pursed his lips together.

"Forget it, forget it. After all, I was the one at fault first. Who asked Chu Tianxiong to really become a national pillar?"

Then, he slowly said, "You already know the secret, so Lu Benwei..."

"I refuse."

"Yiruo, you can't mess around on this matter! If the world knows these secrets, you also know the consequences!"

Wang Yiruo put one hand on her waist. "What kind of consequences? Rushing in and burning your horse farm? That's good too. I don't have to listen to your nagging. Every time I come, some old men look at me as if they have never seen a woman before."

After saying that, Wang Yiruo rubbed her arms and brushed away the goosebumps.

Wang Yuanliang was so angry that he could not speak. He had never been in such a sorry state before.

"Yiruo, you'll also be stationed here in the future. Letting the world know those secrets will not benefit you!"

Wang Yiruo nodded and smiled noncommittally. "Dad, are you stupid? Do you think someone like me will stay here forever like a living dead person?"

Wang Yuanliang looked at her in disbelief. "This is almost eternal life. What's not good about it?"

"Dad, what kind of person do you think Chu Tianxiong is?" Wang Yiruo asked without any reason.

Wang Yuanliang was stunned for a moment. After a long silence, he replied, "The pillar of the Dragon Kingdom, the great hero in the eyes of the world?"

"Yes, the man I like is a great hero. In the future, I'll be like a hero and die on the battlefield!" Wang Yiruo's eyes shone brighter than the sun.

"Want me to be like them like a living dead, to achieve the so-called immortality? I refuse!"

After saying that, she turned around and left, leaving behind a slender figure.

After a long time, Wang Yuanliang let out a deep sigh. The dispirited look in his eyes disappeared, and then a trace of malice flashed across his eyes.

"Lai Dong, send someone to the outer realm! Remember, you must bring Lu Benwei back!"

...

At the same time.

Lu Benwei opened his eyes and looked into the distance.

The Six-tailed Crocodile was also startled awake.

At the same time, the Imperial Baby also woke up and rubbed his sleepy eyes. "What's wrong?"

"Look ahead!"

Lu Benwei's brows were tightly furrowed, and his face was filled with solemnity.

The crocodile looked ahead and opened his mouth wide. "F*ck, this must be a joke!"

The Imperial Baby cried out, "Mommy, it's thunder. It's so terrifying!"

In the distance, between the night sky and the sea, an extremely wide thunderstorm was covering them. The area was so vast that it connected the two sides of the sea, and one could not see the end at a glance.

"Rumble!"

The thunder rumbled like a drum in the divine court. Lightning flashed, creating mountain-like waves.

Lu Benwei's eyelids twitched wildly as he sighed with emotion. "Humans are still too weak in the face of nature."

"Crocodile, quickly retreat."

The crocodile changed his direction without stopping, trying to get away from the thunderstorm.

"Rumble!"

A bolt of lightning struck straight at Lu Benwei. Its power was so great that it wanted to tear the space apart! Lu Benwei jumped up and swung his fists to unleash the Star Shattering Fist.

"Boom!"

The power of the thunderbolt was beyond Lu Benwei's imagination. It directly pierced through the entire galaxy.

"Not good!"

Lu Benwei was shocked and careless. He did not expect the power of this thunderbolt to be so great that it could even deflect the Star Shattering Fist!

"Holy Light Shield!"

Lu Benwei's hands and wrists were holding each other, and his palms were blooming like flowers. The Holy Light Shield blocked in front of him, blocking the lightning for Lu Benwei.

"Boom!"

Thunderbolt was like a hot knife through butter, shattering the Holy Light Shield in one blow.

"Puff!"

Lu Benwei's body was directly cut in half by the thunderbolt, revealing his bloody flesh and bones.

"What is this thing? Why is it so powerful?" the crocodile shouted, "Big Brother, are you alright?"

Lu Benwei circulated the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique and healed his injuries.

"I'm fine. This small injury is nothing!"

"Then what are we waiting for, Big Brother? Let's go!" the Six-tailed Crocodile advised.

The heavy rain poured down, and the strong wind howled, sweeping up waves that hit Lu Benwei and the Crocodile.

"Rumble!"

Another bolt of lightning struck at him. The lightning was a hundred times more dazzling than the previous one.

"Boom!"

Lu Benwei struck out another galaxy. The power this time was many times stronger than the previous galaxy.

"Heavenly Dog's Wrath!"

"Heavenly Dog Blade!"

"Sharp Blade!"

"Slaughter Halo!"

The four great amplification skills were used at the same time, and the power of heaven and earth poured into Lu Benwei's limbs and bones! He charged forward, wanting to capture the thunderbolt.

The crocodile's mouth was agape. "Big Brother, don't be so ridiculous, okay?"

The Imperial Baby grabbed the bone spikes protruding from the crocodile's body. The strong wind blew against him, and the waves crashed against him.

"You're testing yourself with the lightning. Can you consider our feelings?"

Lu Benwei blasted away the thunderbolt. His clothes were torn apart, revealing his healthy skin.

"Go into the Bronze Temple. I'll catch this thunderstorm and test myself," he said to the crocodile and the Imperial Baby.

The monster and the human flew into the sky, wanting to enter the Bronze Temple in Lu Benwei's spiritual world.

At this moment, a thunderbolt thicker than a hundred-year-old parasol tree struck them.

"Big Brother!"

The crocodile and the Imperial Baby were instantly drowned, and their voices gradually weakened.

“Oh no!”

Lu Benwei felt that something was wrong and charged through the lightning blocking his way. However, when he came out of the thunderbolt, he had already discovered that the crocodile and the Imperial Baby were gone.

“Crocodile! Imperial Baby!”

Lu Benwei roared and activated his Eye of Insight, wanting to find the whereabouts of the two of them.

“Uncle, I’m here!”

The Imperial Baby was swept away by the waves, and seawater poured into his stomach.

“I’m coming to save you!”

“Rumble!”

Lu Benwei had just moved when a bolt of lightning struck. In the end, it turned into a human figure and blocked Lu Benwei’s path.

“Get lost!”

Lu Benwei was both shocked and furious. His dual-origin bloodlines circulated in the blink of an eye, and his body emitted a dazzling chaotic divine light.

“Boom!”

The two of them punched each other at the same time, crushing the vacuum in an extremely brutal manner.

Chapter 699 Unknown Continent

“Boom!”

An earth-shattering explosion occurred.

Lu Benwei’s muscles were trembling. He was almost drained of his strength by the humanoid lightning.

He was secretly surprised. Very few people could make him feel disadvantaged in terms of strength when they were in a state of full firepower.

“Get lost!” Lu Benwei shouted, his hair dancing in the wind like a demon lord.

He pulled away and threw out a Star Shattering Fist. A river of stars spread out in the thunderstorm.

“Boom!”

The Star Shattering Fist and the thunderbolt resonated together, producing a deafening sound.

The earth-shattering collision caused the starlight to burn like the sun. The human-shaped lightning roared and made heart-wrenching sounds.

“Rumble!”

The sky and the sea trembled, and the aftershock spread to three thousand miles. If someone were here to watch, they would be shocked.

Lu Benwei's battle strength was unfathomable. Moreover, the humanoid lightning was able to unleash a power that was not inferior to a level-80 hunter.

The humanoid thunderbolt roared, and the Thunder White Tiger descended from the layers of clouds, roaring in the world.

Lu Benwei's eyes were extremely cold as he shouted, "Judgment!"

"Buzz!"

Heaven and earth began to tremble as he roared. A layer of golden light appeared above the white sea of lightning. The power of judgment transformed into 108,000 divine swords, slashing at the humanoid lightning!

At the same time, the Six-tailed Crocodile treaded on the waves and spat out a world-destroying demonic light. The destructive demonic light was terrifying and boundless. It pierced through the heavens and earth, one after another, endless.

"Buzz!"

108,000 divine swords slashed at the same time. The clouds were torn apart, and a vacuum was cut out in the sea.

"Boom!"

The human-shaped lightning roared, and the Thunder White Tiger roared as it charged forward. The three forces collided, and the world began to become erratic as if it was about to collapse.

"Rumble!"

Thunder that seemed to destroy the world tore through the clouds. A dragon appeared, and together with the humanoid lightning and the Thunder White Tiger, they attacked Lu Benwei and the Six-tailed Crocodile.

Lu Benwei's hair was all over his body, but his eyes were burning.

Green smoke rose from the crocodile's body, and his body was charred.

"Big Brother, I can't hold it anymore!" he said with difficulty.

Lu Benwei's expression was cold as he said calmly, "I'll take care of this. You go to the Imperial Baby first."

"Then you have to be careful, Big Brother." The crocodile's six tails merged into one, lashing out in the air, using the momentum to escape.

"Rumble!"

The moment he escaped the battle, the humanoid lightning and the Thunder White Tiger roared. They worked together to blast out a terrifying bolt of lightning. It was like a huge river running wildly, spreading in the sky and instantly drowning Lu Benwei.

“Big Brother!” the crocodile shouted, wanting to return to help Lu Benwei.

“I’m fine! You go save the Imperial Baby first,” Lu Benwei said with difficulty. His body had been hacked into pieces, revealing his white bones.

The crocodile gritted his teeth and turned to leave. Soon, he found the Imperial Baby.

Lu Benwei’s body was charred by the lightning, and there was not a single part of him that was fine. Fortunately, his injuries were not ordinary, and he could recover in a short time.

“Boom!”

Like the sound of drums in the divine court, another lightning creature descended. It was like a giant roc, with its wings spread out to a length of a thousand feet, covering half the sky.

“No way!”

The Six-tailed Crocodile’s heart was in his throat, and goosebumps rose all over his body. At the same time, his skin began to burn, and the paralyzing current spread throughout his body.

“Are they coming for us?” the crocodile shouted.

“Am I easy to bully? Demonic Light Destroys Rivers and Mountains!”

He flew into a rage and spat out a world-destroying demonic light. At this moment, the golden light on his body bloomed, flowing with strands of dazzling light.

The world rumbled. The destructive demonic light was terrifying and boundless. It pierced through the world one after another, wanting to evaporate the ocean.

The great roc flapped its wings, and the celestial heavens seemed to have been shaken down by it. Boundless lightning blazed incomparably brightly, raining down on the giant crocodile.

“Crocodile! Imperial Baby!” Lu Benwei shouted.

“Boom!”

At this moment, the humanoid lightning, the Thunder White Tiger, and the dragon let out a strange roar. They were like the representatives of heaven and earth, and the sea was also furious. It raised waves that were 10,000 feet high and slapped Lu Benwei.

“Mountain Sea Seal!”

“Rumble!”

Lu Benwei formed a mountain with his bare hands. It was majestic and endless.

“Boom!”

He hugged the mountain and moved forward, facing the boundless lightning and the monstrous waves!

The great roc also joined in. It spread its wings and covered the sky.

The world rumbled, and it lasted for a long time.

...

After countless days and nights, on a continent.

Lu Benwei slowly opened his eyes. He shook his head and spat out a mouthful of sand.

“Where’s this place?”

Lu Benwei looked around and felt that it was unbelievable.

This was an unknown land. The sand beneath him was rough and painful, like a broken glass bottle.

As far as his eyes could see, some cacti were growing tall.

Some crabs passed by him. When they saw Lu Benwei, they waved their crab claws at him.

Lu Benwei waved his hand and bounced them away. Then, he shook his head.

“My head hurts. Why am I here?” he muttered to himself and began to change into clean clothes from his storage ring.

“I vaguely remember that I fought to a draw with those lightning creatures. They retreated, but I fell unconscious and fell into the sea.”

After thinking for a while, Lu Benwei guessed that he might have been brought to this land by the ocean currents.

“Where’s the Six-tailed Crocodile? Where’s the Imperial Baby?”

Lu Benwei suddenly woke up and remembered that these two had disappeared. He walked around the coastline and searched for nearly half a day without finding any traces of the two. Lu Benwei immediately rushed over and was a little sad.

“Did they die in that thunderstorm? No, no, no!” Lu Benwei shook his head and interrupted this guess.

“Crocodiles are monsters. They can absorb the essence of the sun and moon to increase their battle prowess. As for Imperial Baby, he’s the prince of the Tianqi Empire. With a mysterious ancient mirror protecting him, there shouldn’t be too much of a problem.”

After a pause, Lu Benwei concluded. “They should’ve drifted to this land like me.”

He raised his head and looked into the depths of the earth.

“Let’s walk in first. We might run into each other.”

After saying that, he casually kicked away the shell by his feet and walked into the depths of the land.

Gradually, the geographical environment began to change.

Lu Benwei entered a desert. The violent wind carried the coarse sand and stone and hit Lu Benwei’s face.

Although it did not hurt him much, it was enough to make him worry. Moreover, he encountered many desert creatures along the way which attacked him without any explanation.

Chapter 700 A World of the Strong

“Rumble!”

Lu Benwei walked to a barren valley and occasionally saw some green plants stubbornly taking root in the stone peak.

The beast’s roar echoed in the valley. The mountains shook, and boulders and gravel rolled down.

“Buzz!”

The sky suddenly darkened.

Lu Benwei looked up and saw a huge demonic bird spreading its wings, covering the sky.

“Demonic beast? No, no, it’s a low-level monster! But it looks so ferocious. It’s simply terrifying!”

The monster bird’s cry pierced through gold and cracked rocks. The deafening sound was very terrifying. Its wings spread out, covering the sky and the sun. It was extremely huge.

“Boom!”

At this moment, a greenish-gray hand reached out from a valley in front of them and slapped the monster bird. The monster bird let out a cry and flapped its wings to block. Its feathers were as hard as metal, shining with a black light, sharp and frightening.

“Clang!”

The greenish-gray hand was unstoppable. It emitted a monstrous ferocious aura and smashed the monster bird into meat paste with one strike.

Then, a large greenish-gray hand reached out from that position. With two large hands supporting the mountain, a One-eyed Monster Man stood up from the valley. He was as tall as the mountain and was terrifyingly huge. He let out a heaven-shaking roar, roaring at the sun and moon, wanting to compete with heaven and earth.

At this moment, a Blood Wolf that was as huge as a bull and seemed to be made of blood appeared. It stood on the peak of the mountain and looked at the One-eyed Monster Man with disdain.

“Roar!”

The One-eyed Monster Man roared, causing the entire mountain range to tremble. He moved like a mountain and pounced toward the Blood Wolf.

“Howl!”

The Blood Wolf howled and jumped up, directly piercing through the One-eyed Monster Man’s head. Blood qi instantly surged into the sky and swept toward the surroundings.

Lu Benwei was stunned. "This is a world where the strong prey on the weak. Which monster royal family rules this continent?"

At this moment, the Blood Wolf noticed Lu Benwei and immediately pounced on him. Lu Benwei could not help but fight with him.

The battle did not last long. Lu Benwei directly blasted the Blood Wolf into meat paste, not leaving a corpse behind.

"What a powerful wolf. It's only level 50, but its battle prowess can rival a level-60 monster." Lu Benwei sighed and wiped the blood off his body.

Then, he continued to explore the valley. When he stopped in front of an oasis to rest, he discovered something that shocked him so much that he was speechless.

"This is a human bone?"

In front of him, there were a few white bones, and their appearances were no different from humans. At the same time, he also found a campfire, leather, and tents in the oasis, which shocked him greatly.

There were still humans outside the Dragon Kingdom. This was the conclusion he had long come to. However, seeing it with his own eyes was still quite shocking.

"Is there any human civilization on this monster land?" Lu Benwei muttered to himself, but he quickly dispelled this thought.

The age of these bones was already unknown. Moreover, in this continent where the strong preyed on the weak, it was very difficult for humans to survive!

"Let's rest for a night and take a look later."

At night, the mountains began to be restless again. All kinds of powerful monsters were mobilized, and a great battle began in this valley.

In the valley, clanging sounds could be heard from time to time. It was the sound of iron claws clashing.

"Humph!"

Another muffled groan resounded through the valley. An unknown monster had fallen.

Then, sparks flew in all directions in the sky. It turned out that two eagle monsters were fighting with iron swords in their claws.

Lu Benwei punched out, creating a galaxy in the sky. As expected, the two eagle monsters were killed by Lu Benwei.

"So noisy! If you want to fight, then get lost. Don't disturb my sleep!" Lu Benwei roared arrogantly in the valley.

The monsters stopped, and they could not help but feel a fire in their hearts. They temporarily stop fighting with the opponents in front of them and even joined forces to attack Lu Benwei.

Lu Benwei snorted coldly and raised his fist to kill the enemy.

“Boom!”

This battle was extremely difficult. The other party had combat strength that surpassed their level. Together, they formed a combat strength that could not be underestimated.

Lu Benwei opened his mouth and let out a shout. The power of judgment transformed into 108,000 swords that slashed toward the group of monsters!

“Puff! Puff! Puff!”

Blood rained down like rain, dyeing the valley red like a monster’s cave.

The monsters were terrified and ran away with their tails between their legs.

“Watch out in the future. Don’t involve me in the fight,” Lu Benwei said in the direction they had fled.

Suddenly, his stomach growled.

“I’m hungry from the fight.”

After saying that, he took out a box of compressed biscuits from his storage space. Just as he opened it and placed it in his mouth, his mouth closed again. These few days, he had been eating dry food, so much so that his mouth was numb.

Suddenly, he looked at the corpses of the monsters on the ground and a bold idea sprouted in his mind.

“In that case, why don’t we roast these monsters and eat them?”

After saying that, Lu Benwei did as he thought. He first tested the water with a bull and brought him back to the oasis.

Then, he used the Ancient Sword of Clarity to cut open the bull monster. He used the bones to set up a barbecue grill and started roasting it.

Not long after, the sizzling sound of oil bubbles breaking could be heard in the air, and the fragrance of the meat was mouth-watering.

Lu Benwei tried to take a bite. The outer layer was slightly charred, giving him a crispy texture. Then, the juice overflowed, almost making Lu Benwei’s tongue fragrant.

As far as he could remember, no one had ever eaten a monster. He did not expect that he would become the first person to eat it!

A warm current spread throughout his body. Lu Benwei was stunned for a moment and realized that his four-dimensional attributes had increased.

However, Lu Benwei found it strange. Logically speaking, there was no harm in eating the corpses of monsters. Why had not anyone eaten them before the Dragon Kingdom?

“Wow, you even dare to eat the Raging Inferno Bull like this. Aren’t you afraid of exploding and dying?”

A surprised voice suddenly came from behind him. Lu Benwei did not even think and replied, “I’m hungry.”

However, in the next second, he suddenly realized that something was wrong.

A girl about his age was wearing animal skin clothes. Her skin was bronze, and her long hair was tied up by a small bone. Her black eyes were staring at Lu Benwei.

“Human? Human?”

Lu Benwei was shocked. He did not sense any demonic beast aura from the girl.

“What else?” The girl rolled her eyes and her face darkened. “Alright, I’m a monster! Hand over all your prey!”

Lu Benwei was speechless and shocked.

“You, which country are you from?” Lu Benwei swallowed his saliva and asked.

The fur-clad girl snatched the meat from Lu Benwei’s hand and took a big bite. She said, “I’m not from any country. I’m from the Ji Tribe. My surname is Ji, and my name is Han.”
