

Dungeon 721

Chapter 721 Raging Desert Shark

“What a powerful ability! It’s not an exaggeration to call him the number one prodigy of the entire Southern Desert Continent!” Zhuang Lang raised his hands and said excitedly as he watched Lu Benwei come back to life.

Lu Benwei used the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique to heal himself.

“Why do you have to submit to others? Isn’t it good to conquer the world like me?” Zhuang Lang’s hair was disheveled as he spoke in a relaxed manner.

“I told you, I’m just a nameless soldier. I’m not following anyone!” Lu Benwei said coldly.

“Clear Heart Slash Technique!”

Lu Benwei had sacrificed nearly 90 percent of his life force and obtained a substantial increase in combat strength just to survive one and a half moves from Zhuang Lang!

“Whoosh!”

Zhuang Lang held a long, serrated whip, shining with a cold light. The long whip shot out, piercing through the sky. Its speed was so fast that it was impossible to catch it with one’s eyes.

“Puff!”

Lu Benwei frowned as he dodged the attack. A large hole was pierced through his chest.

At the same time, he condensed a stream of adjudication power and slashed it vertically. The golden power of adjudication turned into a sword qi that was peerless and illuminated the sky.

Zhuang Lang moved the whip, causing the space to crack.

“Boom!”

The earth-shattering collision shattered the sword qi formed by the power of judgment. The serrated whip was also bounced in the air, cutting through the sky, and making a ghostly sound.

“Lu Hongyi, join me! The grudge between us can be written off. I’ll conquer the world with you!” Zhuang Lang said almost crazily, his thick hair dancing in the wind.

Lu Benwei frowned. Zhuang Lang had gone too far. The opponent was a level-90 king, so the Eye of Insight could not see through his abilities or attributes.

“Like you, slaughtering those innocent creatures?” Lu Benwei said coldly as he swung the Ancient Sword of Clarity and launched a devastating attack!

“Divine Sword of Destruction!”

The blade of the sword made a sonorous sound. The destructive sword light was like a great river surging on the mountain peaks, destroying everything and all kinds of laws in space.

“Cracking Kiss Bite!” Zhuang Lang shouted and swung his long whip.

A huge crack appeared in the sky, and its fangs crisscrossed as if it had been bitten by some ferocious creature. Then, it covered the sky.

“Boom!”

There was another shocking collision. The destructive sword light was endless, like a great river pouring down from the sky. It collided with the bite mark, shattering space after space, revealing the primitive vacuum.

The earth rumbled, and the bite mark emitted an extremely domineering power. It was like a black hole that swallowed the destructive sword light.

Lu Benwei was worried that he would be sucked into the primeval vacuum, so he stepped on Lightning Speed and pulled a large distance away.

“Bang!”

The sound of a huge explosion rang out. In the end, nothing was left. The world was covered in a vast expanse of white.

“What a powerful technique! It’s formed from the most tyrannical destructive power. Your strength is beyond my imagination!” Zhuang Lang exclaimed.

“If the two of us were to fight at the same level, I’d only be killed in an instant! Unfortunately, there are no ifs in this world!”

Zhuang Lang’s eyes suddenly widened in anger. He turned into a human figure and rushed forward.

“Boom!”

The long whip stabbed out, distorting the void, and destroying everything. The entire desert began to tremble, and endless sand dunes collapsed.

Lu Benwei stepped on Lightning Speed, and his speed had already reached the acme of perfection.

“Puff!”

The long whip was like a dragon in the sea, unstoppable.

Lu Benwei swung his sword to resist. At the same time, he let out a light shout and summoned Judgment, which turned into 81 divine weapons and swords to resist!

“Bang! Bang! Bang!”

One after another, the divine weapons turned into powder and scattered in the sky.

The long whip was like a hot knife through butter, wreaking havoc under the night sky.

“Puff!”

Lu Benwei’s chest was pierced through. His body trembled, feeling as if all his strength had been sucked away.

“Is this Zhuang Lang’s characteristic?”

He did not dare to be careless and swept his gaze across the ground. When he saw the dead body of the first captain, he immediately said, "As expected!"

Then, Lu Benwei pulled out the long whip that had entered his body with his right hand and used the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique to heal his injuries.

"Your talent is..." Lu Benwei said coldly.

"Mad Shark Hunter! There's also a talent that can suck the blood of the enemy and absorb strength! Am I right?"

Back in the Dragon Kingdom, Lu Benwei had once fought with a prodigy from the Hunter Special Combat Class of the Zhejiang Hunter University. The other party was a hidden class called Mad Shark. He felt that it was a thorny problem.

Now, Lu Benwei had encountered such an opponent once again, and it was a king tier!

Zhuang Lang licked his lips, revealing a mouthful of cold teeth. "That's right!"

Lu Benwei thought to himself, 'The environment of the Southern Desert Continent is different from the Dragon Kingdom, and the cultivation system is similar. Zhuang Lang should've completed his third-class change, but what did he change to?'

Lu Benwei and Zhuang Lang could not care less as they launched another attack.

Lu Benwei's body turned into a dragon-shaped curve as he raised his fist and punched out. As the punch blasted out, the void seemed to collapse. It was unstoppable and peerless.

Zhuang Lang was bloody and violent. His hair was disheveled, and he was dancing crazily.

"Boom! Boom! Boom!"

Every time the two of them exchanged blows, Lu Benwei would end up defeated. He circulated the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique to recover.

Zhuang Lang absorbed the flesh and blood of the corpses one after another, healing his minor injuries.

"If you want to slowly exhaust me to death through your heaven-defying recovery technique, you can give up as soon as possible! You'll be defeated sooner or later! Why don't you agree to follow me now? We'll conquer the world together." Zhuang Lang said earnestly, causing Lu Benwei to laugh.

"In the end, didn't I end up like these corpses on the ground, becoming your nourishment?"

"I told you, you're different from them!" Zhuang Lang was furious and shouted.

"Raging Desert Shark!"

"Rumble!"

The sand in the entire desert was trembling, turning into a sea of sand. Sometimes it rose and fell, and sometimes it was calm.

"Boom!"

One after another, angry sharks emerged from the sea of sand. Their bodies were as huge as mountains as they bit at Lu Benwei. They burst out with tyrannical strength, and each of them had extremely powerful strength!

Lu Benwei brandished the Ancient Sword of Clarity and used all his strength to resist.

Countless furious sharks, one after another, condensed again, endless.

It could even be said that every grain of sand in the desert was a violent and furious shark.

Chapter 722 Fusion of Ten Thousand Powers

Lu Benwei roared. The power of adjudication surged from all directions!

“Judgment!”

Lu Benwei released the effect to the maximum. 108,000 divine weapons and swords crossed the sky and slashed at the angry sharks one after another.

“Clang! Clang! Clang!”

The light from the power of adjudication was extremely bright. A large area of golden light appeared between heaven and earth as if it was a golden world.

One after another, the furious sharks were cut down. The sand and gravel were chaotic, and the rocks pierced through the air. This desert was about to be melted and evaporated.

“Boom!”

Lu Benwei soared into the sky, his body covered in blood.

“Raging Sand Waves!” Zhuang Lang roared and activated another terrifying skill!

The turbulent flow of sand filled the world. Every grain of sand turned into a peerless weapon that slashed down.

The sand that filled the sky danced wildly as if a star domain had turned around and was pressing down on the ground.

Lu Benwei was fearless, his expression cold to the extreme.

“Ten Thousand Lightning Killing Formation!”

This was Lu Benwei’s most tyrannical skill. Those who had seen him were all turned into charcoal. Now, Lu Benwei used it again to fight against Zhuang Lang’s skill!

“Rumble!”

Endless lightning bolts shot out and struck down from the nine heavens, blocking the sandstorm.

“I’ll help you too!”

Ji Han came out of nowhere and danced outside the sandstorm and the thunderstorm. She waved his hands, and all kinds of energy in the world were injected into the thunderstorm.

The elemental power of plants, the power of stars in the sky, and even the illusory power of space all turned into a kind of primordial chaotic power and poured into the thunderstorm.

“Rumble!”

The lightning became even more brilliant, drowning the world with destructive power.

Zhuang Lang was shocked. He did not understand why Lu Benwei would suddenly burst out with more power.

“Furious Sea Sand! Explode!”

His face was solemn as he waved his hands, and the area in front of him exploded.

Every grain of sand exploded like a star. Its power was unparalleled. The lightning carried endless killing intent, wanting to turn this place into nothingness! The violent storm spread out, cutting off the space and turning the world into a huge cage. The lightning shot into the sky, and the sea of lightning was endless. It kept expanding, and the entire space was shaking.

“Do you really think you can defeat me?”

The waves of the village are different and roaring, invincible. The turbulent flow of sand pierced through space and time.

The thunderstorm was still not extinguished. It shot out lightning that could destroy the nine heavens and ten lands. It shot into the sky and almost tore the sky apart.

“Rumble!”

In the shocking collision, Lu Benwei and Ji Han’s combined attack canceled out the sandstorm and survived.

Zhuang Lang was a little angry and his face was very ferocious.

“I’ve already given you a chance! You’re the one who didn’t cherish it!”

“Puff!”

A cold light flashed. It was too fast. It rushed over and tore Lu Benwei’s body apart.

The Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique was activated once again, and Lu Benwei recovered.

“Heh, if I can’t kill your body, I’ll shatter your soul.”

Zhuang Lang’s eyes were filled with ferocity as he took out a bell from his back.

“Ding, ding, ding!”

The bell vibrated quickly and made a crisp sound.

A terrifying golden light shot out at lightning speed toward Lu Benwei’s face.

Before they even came into contact, Lu Benwei felt like his head was about to explode. His sea of consciousness surged violently, setting off a storm. This was an attack that directly hit the soul. It was almost guaranteed to hit!

“Flying Snake’s Divine Might!”

Lu Benwei’s eyes turned into golden vertical pupils, and fine bronze snake scales grew from his forehead to his temples.

“Buzz!”

A bronze light flashed and shot out an invincible beam of light. The light beam shot out by the bell was also very terrifying, distorting the space.

“Boom!”

The two beams of divine light intertwined, stirring up an invisible killing intent.

Lu Benwei was almost hit and spat out a mouthful of blood as he flew back several meters.

Zhuang Lang’s situation was not any better than his. A trickle of blood flowed out from the corner of his mouth.

“You have a mental technique. This is too surprising! If you don’t work for me, we’ll meet again in the future, and you’ll endanger my life. I’ll kill you right now!” Zhuang Lang said coldly.

“Wild Sand Sacred Flame!”

“Boom!”

The entire desert was burning. Every grain of sand was a fire seed that pressed down on Lu Benwei.

“Holy Light Shield!”

“Boom!”

The moment the Holy Light Shield appeared, it was directly pierced through by the sand fire seed and turned into powder.

“Mountain Sea Seal!”

The great mountain and the great ocean appeared together and pressed down.

The sand in front of them was like a fire seed that penetrated through every pore. In an instant, the mountain collapsed, and the ocean evaporated.

“Me too! Ten thousand forces combine, and ten thousand techniques are invulnerable!”

Ji Han jumped out and waved her arms, making all the power in the world for Lu Benwei to use.

Lu Benwei activated the Mountain Sea Seal and various forces to press forward, colliding with the gravel fire seeds, causing ripples in the space.

However, a level-90 king was too terrifying. There was an insurmountable gap between Lu Benwei and him.

“It’s useless!” Zhuang Lang sneered.

“There is a heavenly chasm between you and the king. No matter how heaven-defying you are, you can’t cross it!”

“In that case, I’ll use a power that doesn’t belong to this world!” Lu Benwei said with a solemn expression.”

“Buzz!”

Lu Benwei released his divine sense and turned the Bronze Temple into the size of a small mountain.

“Hahaha! Are you going to lock yourself up and boil me to death?”

Zhuang Lang laughed, but his smile soon froze. He could tell that the Bronze Temple was extraordinary.

There were pictures of the sun, moon, stars, birds, insects, and beasts on the green copper wall. At this moment, under the raging sand sacred fire, an eternal glow flowed.

“Boom!”

The sacred Bronze Temple flew across the sky and smashed down.

“I don’t believe it,” Zhuang Lang sneered.

After saying that, he swung the long whip and smashed it over.

“Crack!”

The Bronze Temple broke through the layers of fire and shattered the whip. Under the mysterious Bronze Temple, everything was like paper.

“10,000 Strength Fusion!”

Ji Han waved her hand and summoned the power of all living things in the world. She turned them into primordial chaos power and poured it into Lu Benwei’s body.

Lu Benwei’s attributes experienced an unprecedented surge. The effect of the increase was even greater than the level-90 Clear Heart Slash Technique!

“Boom!”

The Bronze Temple’s divine might was unparalleled as it smashed down.

Zhuang Lang absorbed the power of all the corpses and attacked with an insufferably arrogant attack.

“Boom!”

Heaven and earth opened, and the sun and moon on the Bronze Temple rotated. Birds, insects, and monsters roared in the forest, erupting with terrifying divine power.

Chapter 723 Great Harvest

“Rumble!”

The Bronze Temple shook as if it wanted to collapse the entire universe. The rumbling sounds were endless.

At this moment, every inch of Zhuang Lang’s skin, muscles, and hair seemed to be pressed down by billions of tons of lead stones.

“Ah!”

He cried out with great effort, coughing up a mouthful of blood with every breath.

“Crazy! Sand! Chaos! Flow! Sand River!”

Zhuang Lang unleashed his strongest attack.

The sand flowed and formed rivers of sand, disrupting the control of time. The space was divided by rivers, creating a chaotic vortex that pressed straight forward.

Lu Benwei’s mind was calm as he tried his best to control the Bronze Temple, forcing it to fall forward.

“Rumble!”

The Bronze Temple let out a deafening sound as if the drums of the divine court were beating. It echoed throughout the nine heavens and ten lands for a long time.

“Buzz!”

The Bronze Temple shone with precious light. The sun, moon, and stars on it rotated, and birds, insects, and monsters roared in the forest.

Lu Benwei urged it forward. The river of sand hit the Bronze Temple and shattered, causing dust to explode.

“Ah!”

Zhuang Lang let out a miserable cry and coughed up a large mouthful of blood before flying backward.

His great art of slaughter had been shattered in the Bronze Temple with a single blow, leaving him completely dumbfounded.

“What, what is this artifact that has such power?” Zhuang Lang was shocked and lost his mind.

At this moment, the Bronze Temple was crashing down on him, making him feel uneasy.

“Trying to run?”

Lu Benwei’s expression was extremely cold. His muscles erupted with divine power as he activated the Bronze Temple and smashed it over.

“Boom!”

“Ah!”

Zhuang Lang let out a miserable scream. He was so heartbroken that he felt like his head was spinning and his internal organs and tendons had switched places.

“Run!”

Now, there was only one thought left in Zhuang Lang’s mind.

At this moment, the Bronze Temple rose into the air once again with a deafening sound. The space in all four directions had collapsed. It would take some time for it to recover.

Zhuang Lang shouted, “I’m going to kill you!”

He bared his fangs and brandished his claws as he bombarded the Bronze Temple.

“You really don’t know what’s good for you!” Lu Benwei sneered.

After saying that, he activated the Bronze Temple and pressed it down, unleashing a terrifying attack.

Zhuang Lang immediately regretted it. He felt as if the universe was pressing down on him.

“Run!”

He did not dare to hesitate anymore. He turned around and ran.

“Where are you running to? Flying Snake’s Divine Might!”

Lu Benwei released this invisible mental attack that hit Zhuang Lang, causing him to be in a daze.

The Bronze Temple crashed down steadily and smashed Zhuang Lang’s body into a pile of mud. An earthen yellow little person crawled out of his body. His figure was illusory as he fled.

“Soul origin?”

At level 90, the spirit attribute could turn into a physical body, becoming a second source of life.

Even if his body was shattered, his soul origin was still there. He could reconstruct his body and return to his peak state.

“Don’t even think about running!”

Lu Benwei’s pupils turned vertical, and fine snake scales grew from his forehead to his temples.

A bronze beam of light shot out at Zhuang Lang’s soul source.

“Ah!”

Zhuang Lang’s soul origin was shocked and flew faster in the air.

At this moment, a crisp ringing sound came from his exploded body.

“Soul, save me!”

The bell swayed, unleashing waves of vibration that dispersed the Flying Snake’s divine might.

Zhuang Lang’s soul source drilled into it, tore through the void, and escaped.

“Unfortunately, he escaped.” Lu Benwei sighed and put the Bronze Temple back into his glabella.

At this moment, the vast desert was shattered and riddled with holes. Some of the land had been pierced through and hot lava spewed out.

The sky was cloudless, and corpses were everywhere. The headquarters of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps had been uprooted, and no one was left.

“Hongyi, we won!”

Ji Han bounced up and down, happily showing her white teeth.

“Unfortunately, that person escaped. Who knows what kind of disaster he’ll create in the future,” Lu Benwei said worriedly.

“What’s there to be regretful about? You’ve successfully defeated him today. In the future, if he appears a hundred times, you can defeat him a hundred times!” Ji Han said loudly, shaking her head.

It had to be said that Ji Han played a part in defeating Zhuang Lang. The fusion of ten thousand powers and the power that transformed into chaos was simply heaven-defying.

Without Ji Han’s help, Lu Benwei would have drowned in the first wave of turbulent sand.

“Thank you, Ji Han!” Lu Benwei thanked her.

“What are you thanking me for? You saved me previously, so why are you being so polite to me?” Ji Han’s flawless face immediately turned red.

Lu Benwei glanced at the battlefield and said, “After so many years, the Pegasus Mercenary Corps has plundered the northern region and obtained their treasures. They must’ve hidden them somewhere. We’ve spent so much effort. We can’t return empty-handed.”

Ji Han’s eyes turned into stars. Then she lowered her head.

Lu Benwei smiled and did not say anything. He activated his Eye of Insight and quickly found a basement at the foot of the razed mountain.

Without any effort, Lu Benwei opened the entrance of the underground vault and entered it with Ji Han.

As expected!

This was the gathering place of the treasures plundered by the Pegasus Mercenary Corps. Gold, silver, and jewelry were dazzling, and there were countless divine materials and precious medicines.

“Ah, this is Great Luo Silver Essence, a top-notch divine material for making strength-type weapons! Wow! This was a Mandala Flower. Legend had it that it was transformed after the death of a thousand-year-old vicious Mandala Snake. One had to be careful when picking it, or else one might be poisoned and turn into a pool of blood. I can’t believe that this will be ours!”

After a while.

“Eh, why is it so cold here? So, it’s this Frost Ice Chalcedony. I didn’t expect the Pegasus Mercenary Corps to plunder such a large piece,” Ji Han said in shock, “Huh? Why is there a person on this Frost Ice Chalcedony?”

Lu Benwei immediately became alert and ran over. After taking a closer look, he realized that this was the culprit who caused all of this today, the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps.

At this moment, his body was wrapped in bandages. He was like a mummy as he lay on the Frost Ice Chalcedony to recuperate.

The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps was woken up by the two of them.

“Who are you?!” the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps roared in anger. As he was still seriously injured, his voice was a little hoarse.

After seeing their appearances clearly, the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps’ expression turned into fear again. “How could it be you? How did you barge in? Someone, come here quickly!”

Chapter 724 Return with a Full Harvest

The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps shouted. His body was like a maggot, wriggling back and forth on the Frost Ice Chalcedony.

“Stop shouting. The Pegasus Mercenary Corps has already been erased from this world!” Lu Benwei said coldly.

The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps calmed down and smiled noncommittally.

“Impossible. The Pegasus Mercenary Corps has been roaming the northern region for so many years.”

“If you don’t believe me, you can go take a look.”

Lu Benwei picked up the body and went outside.

The cold wind blew across the silent desert. Corpses littered the ground and were about to be drowned by the sandstorm.

The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps looked at this scene in disbelief. His lips were tightly pursed together.

“This, this is impossible. My father is a king tier. When he returns, he’ll tear the two of you into pieces!” The eyes of the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps turned red.

“Your father has long abandoned you.”

Lu Benwei’s big hand came out and grabbed a weapon from the sandstorm. It was Zhuang Lang’s serrated whip.

“How is that possible?”

The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps was completely stunned. His mind buzzed and his eyes were blank.

“Do you believe me now?” Ji Han raised her eyebrows proudly.

Lu Benwei threw him to the ground and stepped on his chest.

“Tell me the clue to the Red Phoenix divine medicine!”

“I, I really don’t know!” the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps said.

“After searching for so many years, there’s no clue at all?” Lu Benwei’s voice was very cold, and his tone was heavy.

Lu Benwei did not pity a domineering and evil person like him. He deserved it.

“I really don’t know.” The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps pursed his lips tightly.

‘I’ve asked a few people in succession, and they all gave the same answer. There might really be no clues,’ Lu Benwei thought to himself,

No, Lu Benwei obviously did not believe it.

“Are you guys just like headless flies running around in the northern wilderness? Will the power behind you agree?”

After saying that, Lu Benwei exerted a little strength under his feet.

The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps cried out in pain, “I’ll tell you!”

Lu Benwei let go of his foot and looked at him panting heavily.

“You, bring me down again,” The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps said hoarsely.

Lu Benwei did as he was told and brought him back into the basement.

The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps did not play any tricks. He found a map in a corner.

Ji Han leaned over and said angrily, “Do you think I’m a fool? This is clearly a map of the northern wilderness.”

“No, it’s not like that. Take a closer look,” the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps swallowed his saliva and said nervously.

Ji Han looked at the map again, and Lu Benwei looked over. On some of the old maps, some cities were marked by the Pegasus Mercenary Corps. Some of them are marked with crosses, and some of them are marked with rings.

“These are all the places we’ve explored. We’ve crossed out all the places where there’s no possibility of the Red Phoenix divine medicine,” the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps continued.

Lu Benwei nodded and looked at the map carefully. Then, he realized that Jiao City was also marked by a circle.

“Is Jiao City your target too?” Lu Benwei asked.

The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps nodded nervously.

Lu Benwei did not doubt it. After all, Jiao City was the trading location for the red pearls, and the rest was also the location of the red pearl mine.

“I’ve said everything I know. Can you let me go?” The young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps swallowed his saliva.

Ji Han looked at Lu Benwei for his opinion.

“Sure, but you must go somewhere with us first,” Lu Benwei said with a smile. His white teeth made the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps feel a chill down his spine.

Then, Lu Benwei swept away all the treasures in the underground vault like locusts, leaving nothing behind.

Moreover, he also found two strange pieces of godly metal in the treasure. One piece had the characteristic of becoming stronger when it met the strong and weaker when it met the weak. The other piece contained pure destruction energy.

“If these two pieces of godly metal are merged with the Ancient Sword of Clarity, will it allow him to obtain strange characteristics while leveling up?”

Without thinking much, Lu Benwei directly put the two pieces of strange godly metal into his bag.

...

The sky had just brightened, and the sun slowly rose, dispelling the wisps of cold air left behind by the night.

Lu Benwei dragged the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps and Ji Han back to Jiao City with a full load.

At the same time, everyone in the city was panicking.

“I didn’t expect that Lu Hongyi really went to the headquarters of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps.”

“Isn’t he afraid of being crushed to ashes?”

“The leader of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps, Zhuang Lang, is a king. Once he’s discovered, he won’t even have a chance to escape!”

Someone felt that it would not be so, so he said, “Perhaps little friend Lu wants to rely on the power of wisdom to disrupt the order of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps and avenge us.”

“It’s not like we have to fight Zhuang Lang?”

After saying that, someone immediately stood up and retorted, “Hurry up and get it!” That brat had an arrogant look on his face. He even used his brain. Even a sow would climb a tree!”

Then, someone else echoed, “That’s right. Are the other members of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps useless?”

“Although he defeated the captains of the fifth, sixth, and seventh teams, the remaining captains of the first, third, and fourth teams are also experts. Even if Zhuang Lang doesn’t make a move, the remaining people are enough to make him suffer.”

Lu Benwei’s supporters said, “Alright, don’t say anymore. Our little friend is doing this for our own good. You don’t want to be robbed by the Pegasus Mercenary Corps when you leave Jiao City right?”

Someone rolled his eyes and shrugged. “Forget it. If we go, we’ll anger the Pegasus Mercenary Corps again.”

“You’re right. If he summons the Pegasus Mercenary Corps again, we’ll still be the ones in trouble. I’m going to hide at my sister-in-law’s house.”

Just as everyone was in a heated discussion, a commotion suddenly came from the south gate of the city. “Lu Hongyi is back with the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps!”

This news spread like a ray of light in Jiao City.

The people of Jiao City seemed to have gone crazy as they gathered in the south of the city.

Lu Benwei dragged the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps like he was dragging a dead dog as he entered the city through the south gate.

Ji Han followed him. Her body was beautiful and moving, and her eyes were flowing with colorful light. She was simply a lovely person.

“I have uprooted the Pegasus Mercenary Corps. This is the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps.”

Chapter 725 Famous in the Northern Wilderness

Lu Benwei said loudly.

Let the natives of Jiao City and the merchants take revenge.

Meanwhile, the residents of Jiao City looked at each other with wide eyes.

“Did you really destroy the Pegasus Mercenary Corps?” someone asked weakly.

“Of course.” Lu Benwei smiled widely, revealing a mouthful of white teeth.

“Otherwise, how could I bring the young master of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps back?”

Everyone gasped. Someone asked, “The leader of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps, Zhuang Lang, is a level-90 king. You defeated him?”

Lu Benwei said directly, “You can say so, but unfortunately, I couldn’t kill him.”

“Boom!”

It was as if a bolt of lightning had struck the top of everyone’s heads. Their brains were about to explode.

Someone said in disbelief, “Zhuang Lang was really defeated?”

“Yes.”

Lu Benwei did not want to hide it from him. He had to be high-profile and become famous in the northern wilderness, or even the entire Southern Desert Continent. He had to find the Six-tailed Crocodile and the Imperial Baby as soon as possible.

Some people did not believe it and wanted to personally go to the camp of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps to check it out.

Lu Benwei ignored these people and chose an inn to stay in.

Ji Han was drinking tea in the room. The fragrance of flowers filled the entire room. This was a unique flower from the central region of the Southern Desert Continent, and it was very expensive.

It was the innkeeper who respected Lu Benwei and personally served tea and water.

“God, please enjoy. If you need anything, just tell me,” the innkeeper said respectfully.

Lu Benwei thanked him for his kindness and sent him out of the room.

“Hongyi, what do you plan to do next?”

Ji Han sat on the stool, shaking her feet as she looked at Lu Benwei with her black eyes.

Lu Benwei sat down and was about to pour a cup of tea. Ji Han handed over a teacup.

Lu Benwei thanked her and drank the tea. The moment the warm tea touched his mouth, a strange fragrance filled his mouth. Even after it entered his stomach, there was a lingering fragrance on his palate.

“Good tea!”

“Hey, I’m asking you a question.” Ji Han pouted in dissatisfaction.

Lu Benwei put down his teacup and said, “Don’t worry about me. What are you going to do next? Let me remind you that the forces behind the Pegasus Mercenary Corps will come looking for me.”

Ji Han shook her head and said unhappily, “Do you mean to chase me away?”

“That’s not what I meant!”

After a pause, Lu Benwei continued, “If you follow me in the future, you’ll suffer a lot. Your life might even be in danger. Think about where you’re going. I’ll send you there.”

“In the end, aren’t you still chasing me away?” Ji Han pouted.

“But other than the Ji Tribe, I have no relatives in this world. Where can I go?” Ji Han’s eyes were filled with tears.

“But you’re a girl. It’s not a good for you to follow a man.” Lu Benwei was helpless.

As soon as he finished speaking, Lu Benwei’s heart trembled. There was once a girl who stayed with him every day and had endless things to talk about. Now that he was in the outer realm and had no family, who knew when they would meet again?

“Am I not your servant?” Ji Han said pitifully.

Lu Benwei was speechless and asked about Ji Han’s background.

“Other than your father’s tribe, do you have any relatives on your mother’s side?”

“No, I don’t have. I was adopted by my father,” Ji Han answered straightforwardly.

“Huh?”

Lu Benwei opened his mouth slightly. This was the first time he had heard such a secret.

Ji Han supported her chin with one hand and fiddled with the tea set on the table with the other.

“I’ve known since I was young. I was ridiculed by the older children of the tribe as a child who was adopted. When I asked my father where my mother was, my father always stammered and avoided my eyes.”

Lu Benwei’s lips twitched. He knew that although the Ji Tribe looked carefree, they were meticulous.

Otherwise, she would not have gone deep into the vast wilderness alone and sacrificed her body to the Monster Ape. If Ji Han did not take the initiative to tell him, he might never know this secret.

“When this matter is over, I’ll bring you back to the Ji Tribe to take a look,” Lu Benwei said.

“Okay.”

...

A day passed.

A piece of news spread like a storm in Jiao City – the Pegasus Mercenary Corps had been annihilated!

“I went to the large camp of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps!”

“I saw the devastation everywhere. The mountains were uprooted, the earth sank, and some lava spewed out.”

“In the sandstorm, there were corpses everywhere. I almost thought that I had entered purgatory.”

“Who are those corpses?” someone asked.

“Who else could it be? They’re all those thieves from the Pegasus Mercenary Corps!”

“The first, third, and fourth team captains are all dead!”

The news spread like wildfire throughout the entire city.

Lu Benwei uprooting the Pegasus Mercenary Corps had spread throughout the city. However, some people still had some doubts. They personally went to the Pegasus Mercenary Corps’ camp to verify the truth.

Another three days passed.

The destruction of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps had been confirmed, and Jiao City was in an uproar!

“Little friend Lu is really a god. He defeated the Pegasus Mercenary Corps alone!”

“The leader of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps is a king tier. How did he do it? Could it be that the martial star from the sky has descended?”

“But no matter what, little friend Lu has taken care of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps. They are a scourge in the northern wilderness.”

For a time, Lu Benwei became a hero in the mouths of the people. At the same time, Lu Hongyi’s name spread throughout the entire northern wilderness.

The entire region was in an uproar!

“A young man who’s not even twenty years old defeated the Pegasus Mercenary Corps alone. Is this true?”

“It can’t be fake. The people in Jiao City have gone completely crazy!”

“What the hell? Who’s Lu Hongyi?”

For a time, the northern wilderness had a lot of opinions. Some people said that he was a disciple of an aristocratic family in a big country. He was extremely talented and had come to the northern wilderness to train.

Some people said that he was an ordinary person who had obtained the inheritance of a super expert. It was because of this super expert’s inheritance that he defeated the Pegasus Mercenary Corps.

Some people even said that Lu Hongyi was a ten-thousand-year-old monster who defeated Zhuang Lang.

All in all, Lu Hongyi’s name was well-known.

Lu Benwei did not need to worry. The name “Lu Hongyi” was known to the Six-tailed Crocodile and the Imperial Baby. When they were in the Dragon Kingdom, they had known the alias “Lu Hongyi”.

Chapter 726 Undercurrent

For the next few days, Jiao City became the center of public opinion in the northern wilderness.

Many people came to meet Lu Hongyi, who had eliminated the Pegasus Mercenary Corps.

However, what no one knew was that an undercurrent was surging in Jiao City.

On a moonlit night, a cold wind blew in the desert.

The windows of the inn room reflected the shadows of the trees.

Lu Benwei sat cross-legged on the bed, absorbing the power of the stars at night. A thin layer of black mist enveloped his body, and the dark bloodline flowed in his body, achieving a double the effect with half the effort.

“Buzz!”

Lu Benwei suddenly opened his eyes, and the light in his eyes was incomparably bright.

Then, it quickly dimmed and said to himself, "Still not working?"

He had been stuck at level 69 for a long time, unable to break through to level 70.

'What's going on?' Lu Benwei thought to himself.

Every time he felt that he was about to reach a bottleneck, he was just one step away from breaking through.

However, once he calmed down and focused on cultivation, the feeling of breaking through disappeared.

Lu Benwei thought for a long time, but he could not understand. He tried again and again.

"I don't believe that I can't cross the threshold of 69!"

"Bang!"

Lu Benwei's heart was about to explode, beating like a war drum. He circulated his dual bloodlines, and the power of the stars poured into his body. His body was covered in a layer of clear light.

"Dong! Dong! Boom!"

...

The beating of his heart was as dense as the sound of drums. All the guests in the inn were attracted by this noise.

"Who is breaking through?"

"It triggered a phenomenon. This is at the level of a king, right?"

Soon, they found that the noise came from Lu Benwei's room.

"What is the background of this kid?"

"The commotion caused by the breakthrough is so big?"

In Lu Benwei's room, there were times when light blazed, like stars evolving.

Occasionally, there would be a rumbling sound as a huge mountain rose from the ground. It was deafening and lasted for a long time.

Further back, there was the sound of raging waves. The raging waves hit the shore and rocks pierced through the air.

Everyone was shocked and their jaws dropped.

"What a terrifying commotion!"

"If I didn't know about little friend Lu's level beforehand, I'd have thought that he was breaking through to the king tier."

After a while, the commotion in Lu Benwei's room stopped, and a helpless sigh came.

The crowd outside looked at each other in dismay.

Ji Han opened Lu Benwei's door and asked with concern, "What's wrong?"

At this moment, Lu Benwei's upper body was naked, and bean-sized sweat adhered to his wheat-colored skin. At the same time, the entire room was filled with mist.

Lu Benwei raised his head and said indifferently, "It's nothing. Sorry for disturbing everyone's rest."

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief. "It's alright. Little friend Lu is too polite."

Suddenly, Lu Benwei's eyes flashed with a cold light, and a cold killing intent erupted.

"Chi!"

A cold arrow shot in from the window, emitting terrifying killing intent. Someone fainted on the spot.

Lu Benwei was furious. He put his palms together and stretched forward.

"Clang!"

An extremely holy shield blocked in the middle and collided with the cold arrow, creating dazzling sparks.

"Kacha!"

The cold arrow pierced through the Holy Light Shield and shot toward Lu Benwei. At the same time, the cold arrow shot out a vertical line toward Lu Benwei's forehead.

"Mental attack?"

Lu Benwei sneered as a vertical pupil appeared in his eyes.

"Flying Snake's Divine Might!"

Bronze divine light bloomed and collided with the vertical line. The space was shaken until ripples appeared. Some of them were so shocked that they spat out blood and lost their minds.

Lu Benwei snorted and took out the Ancient Sword of Clarity.

"Clang!"

A cold light drew a half-moon arc and blocked the cold arrow.

Without any explanation, Lu Benwei jumped out of the window and soared into the sky.

Under the moonlit night sky, the lights were dim. There was no suspicious figure in the entire Jiao City.

Lu Benwei's expression was cold as he activated his Eye of Insight and scanned around the city. There was still no suspicious person. Thus, he returned to the inn helplessly.

At this moment, the inn was in a mess. Many people were affected, and blood flowed out of their ears.

"I'll pay for these people's medical expenses."

Lu Benwei sighed and took out two gold bars from his storage ring. This was what he had plundered from the basement of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps.

The other party was here for Lu Benwei. These passersby were innocent, so he took care of their medical expenses.

“Brother Lu is really kind.”

The innkeeper flattered.

At this moment, Ji Han hurried downstairs with an anxious expression.

“How are you? Are you injured?”

“No, I’m not.” Lu Benwei shook his head.

“Who’s the other party?” Ji Han asked again.

“I don’t know, but he’s very strong.” As he spoke, Lu Benwei took out the arrow.

Ji Han focused her eyes and saw that the arrow was no different from an ordinary arrow. The arrowhead had a faint metallic luster.

The only difference was the arrow. The tail, which should have been a feather, was replaced by a piece of transparent leather.

“The opponent is able to add a mental attack to the arrow. He must be at least level 80!” Ji Han said in a deep voice.

As soon as she finished speaking, the patrol officers of Jiao City arrived.

The leader of the constables was a burly man with an unshaven beard. He was two meters tall, with a strong back and a stocky waist. His breathing was very heavy.

“Who’s Lu Hongyi?” The chief inspector’s voice was muffled, but it was very loud.

“Me!” Lu Benwei stood up.

The chief inspector looked down at the crowd and finally saw Lu Benwei.

Then he put on a smiling face. “So, it’s you. You’re really a good-looking talent.”

“Sir, is there something you need?” Lu Benwei asked.

Lu Benwei nodded and pulled out a stool to sit down. The chief inspector also sat down and asked some conventional questions.

“It seems like it’s only targeted at you. But don’t worry, we’ll get to the bottom of it!” the chief inspector told Lu Benwei sternly.

Then, he stared at the arrow in Lu Benwei’s hand. “Was this the arrow that attacked you?”

Lu Benwei nodded. "Yes, it has been added with mental power attacks. You must be careful when searching for the culprit."

"Alright." The chief inspector thanked Lu Benwei for his reminder and changed the topic.

"However, since this arrow is a murder weapon, we have to bring it back for further examination."

Lu Benwei did not refuse as this was also the rule of the police.

He handed the arrow to the chief inspector, and the other party revealed a simple and honest smile. "Alright, I won't disturb you anymore."

Just as he reached the door, he turned around and said, "By the way, my young friend Lu, my name is Xiong Hu. You can just call me Brother Xiong next time!"

Chapter 727 Storm

Xiong Hu left the inn. Lu Benwei kept staring at his back.

"What's wrong?" Ji Han asked in confusion.

"There's something wrong with Xiong Hu," Lu Benwei said slowly.

"Huh?"

Ji Han called out in surprise.

"How could you tell?"

Lu Benwei raised his eyebrows slightly. "He said that we'll meet again. If we meet again, it will definitely be after such a case. He's just an inspector. Could it be that he still hopes for this to happen?"

Time flew by, and the next day arrived.

Last night's incident had caused a lot of discussion, but it quickly dissipated.

In the afternoon, Lu Benwei heard a piece of news.

All the powerful families of the northern wilderness and the warriors of the tribes were coming to Jiao City!

"Why did they come to Jiao City?" Lu Benwei asked the waiter in the lobby of the inn.

The waiter raised the towel and threw it on his shoulder. "I'm not sure, but in any case, something big is about to happen."

Soon, a piece of news shocked the entire city. A vicious tribe was also coming to Jiao City!

In the early days of the Ji tribe, Lu Benwei knew that in the Southern Desert Continent, some places were ruled by fierce people.

It could even be said that two of the five dynasties in the Southern Desert Continent were established by the fierce.

"This is a world where thousands of tribes are fighting together." Lu Benwei sighed.

He wanted to see what kind of scene it would be like when a ferocious human interacted with it.

“Great Peacock Monarch, here!”

The sky darkened. An expert riding a gorgeous carriage descended from the sky to Jiao City.

“It’s the Great Peacock King!”

The people of Corner City were shocked.

Although they had long heard that a ferocious tribe was about to arrive, they did not expect a king to come.

It was said that the Great Peacock King was the leader of a royal family in the Liu Li Dynasty. He was powerful and mysterious.

Lu Benwei also went up to look at the honor of this fierce king.

An extremely gorgeous man walked down from the carriage. He was wearing a white silk dress, a crown on his head, a necklace, earrings, bracelets, and other decorations. The pearl gemstones were dazzling. There was a gorgeous peacock feather tail on its back, which was very flirtatious.

A few old servants of the vicious tribe followed behind him respectfully.

Lu Benwei was shocked. These old servants were only half a step away from reaching level 90. One could imagine the strength of this Great Peacock King.

Zhuo Qing and his son Zhuo Quan came out to welcome them. They said respectfully, “I’m honored to have the Great Peacock King here in this small city. Please forgive me for my lack of hospitality.”

The Great Peacock King laughed. “This is too sudden. I’m sorry for disturbing you.”

At this moment, a storm started to blow in Jiao City. An aura that seemed to come from the wilderness swept through every corner of the city, oppressing everyone until they could not raise their heads.

Then, the sky dimmed and was covered by a cloud of dark clouds.

Lu Benwei looked up. He discovered that the dark cloud was a ferocious shadow.

“Roar!”

The ferocious monster in the sky roared, and the entire ground shook. The residents of Jiao City suffered because of this, and many people knelt in pain.

The Great Peacock King leaped up. The curves of his body were very beautiful, but it brought along an invincible aura as he attacked the fierce shadow

“Boom!”

The wind and clouds in all directions dispersed, and the sky collapsed, revealing countless primeval void spaces that were like black holes in the sky above Jiao City.

After the fierce figure landed on the ground, it turned into a human figure.

The Great Peacock King waved his hand to repair the primeval void and returned to the ground.

Looking at the powerful monster, it was originally a violent black bear. Its fur was as hard as black diamonds and stood up. Now, it had turned into an old man with dry skin.

“Great Peacock King, you don’t have to be rough the moment you see me, do you?” the old man with disheveled hair and exposed chest said sinisterly.

“This is the territory of the human race. Since we’re guests, we should abide by the rules of the guests,” the Great Peacock King said.”

“What do you mean by oppressing the people of Jiao City?”

Someone in the crowd exclaimed, “Is this old man the old patriarch of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan?”

“It’s said that he had already reached level 94 when he was the previous clan leader. After so many years, he might be level 95 now, or even level 96.”

Lu Benwei was secretly speechless.

“This continent is indeed filled with experts. In just a few days, I’ve met one expert after another.”

At the king tier, different levels were different worlds. Level 91 could easily crush a level-90 king tier.

For a prodigy like Lu Benwei, sometimes a gaze could only turn him into a cloud of blood mist.

The reason why Lu Benwei was able to go back and forth with opponents of the king tier was because of the 100-fold amplification, the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique, and the Bronze Temple.

At the same time, the members of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan also offered their bodies. Their hair was disheveled, and their chests were exposed.

One of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan’s juniors had a very high opinion of himself. He walked brazenly, looking down on everything.

“Ant-like humans, why don’t you kneel and welcome me when you see me?”

After saying that, he stretched out his big hand and broke the legs of two innocent passers-by, kneeling on the ground.

“Are humans that weak? They are simply unable to withstand a single blow.” The young junior mocked.

The onlookers were all terrified.

The two people from before were level 70, and their combat strength could not be underestimated. However, they had been casually beaten into cripples.

“How detestable!” Many people clenched their fists and cursed.

“Heh, does the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan think that there’s no one left in the human race?” A loud shout came from the crowd. A nine-foot-long middle-aged man stepped forward and slapped the young junio!

“Puff!”

The Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan’s junior coughed up a large mouthful of blood and flew directly to the feet of the old man.

“General Hei Lang!” someone exclaimed and was immediately overjoyed.

The middle-aged man’s skin was dark, but his eyes were full of energy. He was furious and had an extremely majestic aura.

“So, it’s the general of the red pearl country,” the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan’s old clan leader’s gaze was malicious as he said coldly.

“What right do you have to hit my grandson?”

“Why did your grandson come to my city and attack my compatriots?” Hei Lang shouted.

“An ant-like person is worthy of your pity.” The old chief’s gaze was malicious, revealing a mouthful of yellow teeth.

“As the general of the Red Pearl Country, you injured my grandson. Are you trying to start a war with my clan?”

Hei Lang’s expression changed slightly.

Chapter 728 Dark Clouds

“Old fellow, you really have big words!”

Another cynical laugh came from the crowd.

A young man in his early twenties, wearing a short robe with bare arms, walked over with his hands behind his back.

“If you behave atrociously in the territory of our human race, you have to bear the consequences!”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan narrowed his eyes and said coldly, “A junior dares to criticize me?”

His grandson was beaten up. Now that he was being criticized by a junior, it made him very angry.

“Die!” The old chief opened his mouth and let out a demonic light that slashed at the young man like a sharp sword.

The cold wind howled with endless killing intent. However, when he condensed that sword, he felt like he was in an abyss.

“Humph!”

A cold snort sounded from behind the youth. The void was torn apart as a large hand reached out and chopped the sharp sword into pieces!

The void split open, forming a dimensional passageway. A majestic figure stepped out. With each step, the ground sank.

That person was wearing black gilded armor, and a black dragon clung to his shoulders. Its scales were spread out, revealing a majestic aura.

“It’s the heir of the Huqin Dynasty, Hu Wuwei, and the great general, Hu Bailie!”

“Oh my god, what’s wrong with Jiao City today? So many big shots have come!”

Cries of surprise rang out from the crowd.

Following that, wave after wave of powerhouses arrived. Some were driving war chariots, and the wheels rumbled as the drivers pulled them.

Some tore through the void and descended. The wind and clouds in the sky were unpredictable, and the undercurrents on the ground were surging. Everything was foretelling that something big was about to happen.

“Is there anyone from that faction?” Lu Benwei asked Ji Han.

Ji Han stood on her tiptoes and looked around.

“Not yet.”

Lu Benwei frowned. “That’s strange. Could it be that something else will happen in Jiao City?”

The force they were talking about was the mastermind behind the Pegasus Mercenary Corps.

Lu Benwei already knew who they were. They were the strongest force in the northern wilderness. They were known as the Mi Family, which had been passed down since ancient times.

The head of the Mi Family, Mi Wujin, was close to death and wanted to live forever. He secretly sponsored the Pegasus Mercenary Corps to rob the northern wilderness to find the whereabouts of the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

A voice came from behind Lu Benwei. It was the inspector of Jiao City, Xiong Hu.

He saw Lu Benwei and said, “Little friend Lu, we meet again.”

Lu Benwei secretly curled his lips and said politely, “Hello, Officer Xiong.”

“I told you, you don’t have to be so polite with me. Just call me Brother Xiong.”

Then, he sighed again. “With so many mighty figures here, we’re going to be busy again!”

At this moment, the human race and the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan were still arguing. However, as more people joined, the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan gradually lost his confidence. He brought his grandson to find an inn to stay in.

The Great Peacock King stepped forward to host the ceremony and said, “Please give me some face. Everyone knows the purpose of coming here. But I hope that everyone will rely on their own abilities and not play any tricks behind our backs. I, the Great Peacock King, hereby swear that once that thing recognizes all of us as its master, I will no longer fight for it.”

Ever since he stood up, no one had any objections. They followed the Great Peacock King and swore an oath.

Then, the various families began to occupy the inns and stay. Everything seemed so peaceful, but in the dark, there was a storm.

“What’s that thing they are talking about?” Lu Benwei was even more puzzled.

Xiong Hu chuckled and said, “What else could it be? It’s what you’re thinking!”

Lu Benwei’s heart skipped a beat as he looked up at Xiong Hu.

Xiong Hu raised his chin and chuckled. “It’s not going to be peaceful tonight. I must go back and arrange tonight’s mission for my subordinates!”

After saying that, he whistled and left Lu Benwei’s sight.

“What is Xiong Hu up to?”

“Don’t worry about him. Let’s talk about us first.” Ji Han pouted.

“What’s our next move?”

“Since everyone is here for the Red Phoenix divine medicine, we have to get involved.” Lu Benwei revealed his pearly white teeth.

“Huh? There are so many forces here. Are you sure we can succeed?” Ji Han tilted her head.

“What else? That’s what we wanted!”

...

That night, undercurrents surged.

Lu Benwei and Ji Han were in the same room.

Last night’s incident was still fresh in his mind. Lu Benwei was worried that she would fall asleep alone.

The soft moonlight shone through the window and into the room.

Ji Han was wrapped in a blanket, revealing only her flawless face. The hair on her forehead fell naturally, and with Ji Han’s breathing, it was like a willow branch in the spring breeze.

Lu Benwei heaved a sigh of relief.

After making sure that nothing had happened, he wrapped himself in the blanket on the ground and went to sleep.

The next morning, a roar of grief and indignation almost caused the sky of Jiao City to collapse.

Lu Benwei was jolted awake. He opened the window and saw a few divine rainbows streaking across the sky, heading toward an inn in the east of the city. It was where the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan stayed.

The roar of grief and indignation just now was also launched by the old patriarch of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan.

Soon after, he saw team after team of patrols heading to the inn in the east of the city.

Not long after, a shocking piece of news came.

The grandson of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was assassinated on his bed in his room!

This news was too shocking and quickly spread throughout the entire city.

Lu Benwei also knew about this news and frowned.

“The grandson of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan has extraordinary combat strength!”

‘Moreover, it was under the eyes of their clan leader. How could he be assassinated?’ Lu Benwei thought to himself.

“Unless the other party is terrifying to a certain level, they wouldn’t assassinate the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan so quietly!”

...

“It must be you!”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was the first to suspect the general of the Red Pearl Country, Hei Lang. Yesterday, he was the one who had a conflict with the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan.

“Damn it, stop slandering me!” Hei Lang was furious.

“I was at City Lord Zhuo’s house last night and didn’t go anywhere!”

“I can testify for General Hei Lang on this point.”

“That means that you humans are colluding with each other to commit crimes!”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was already blinded by anger and could not calm down at all.

“If you continue to slander us like this, don’t blame us for being rude!” Hei Lang said angrily.

“Ahhhhh! I’m so angry!”

Chapter 729 Upgraded

“Don’t think that just because you have more people, you can turn black into white!”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was so angry that he was delirious, and his hair was tied up.

At this moment, all the major powers were present.

Hu Bailie, the general of the Huqin Dynasty, snorted coldly.

“Humph! Reversing black and white? Why don’t you Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan show us some evidence?! Without evidence, you’re not allowed to behave atrociously in our human territory.”

The old chief was so angry that his entire body was trembling. He clenched his fists and dug his nails into his flesh, causing dark red blood to seep out.

“Since ancient times, you humans are only fit to be the servants of our vicious clans! You don’t even have the right to talk to my clan! Now that the world has changed, you’ve turned the tables!”

Someone sneered. “Old fart, if you miss that era, I can let you meet the people of that era!”

The tip of a needle against the tip of wheat!

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan had already been blinded by anger. He only wanted to find the murderer of his grandson.

Those powerful people from all walks of life were also arrogant, and they could not tolerate a single grain of sand in their eyes.

The smell of gunpowder at the scene was extremely strong. A spark was all it took to ignite the fire.

“Everyone, calm down!”

The Great Peacock King stood out. He had a crown on his head, and its feathers seemed to be inlaid with gems. He looked noble and overbearing.

“Regarding the death of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan’s grandson, I think we should leave it to the professionals. The old chief has lost a close relative, so it’s inevitable that he’s emotional. That depends on what that old fellow has to say.”

Someone sneered and stared at the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan.

The old chief finally calmed down and said, “Where are your city’s patrols?”

“Yes, yes!”

Xiong Hu jogged to the center of the crowd.

“Heroes from all walks of life, I’m the chief inspector of Jiao City, my name is Xiong Hu.”

After saying that, he nodded at Zhuo Qing.

“Officer Xiong, do you have any thoughts?” the Great Peacock King asked politely.

Xiong Hu raised his chin. “I just went in to check. Unfortunately, the first crime scene was destroyed by an old senior, so the clues I found were limited.”

As soon as he said this, some people began to gloat.

“Those from the fierce clan are really dumb. They don’t even know how to protect the scene at the first moment of murder.”

Xiong Hu smiled awkwardly. “However, may I ask if this is the weapon that killed the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan’s grandson?”

As he spoke, he took out a small magic formation from his back. There was an arrow sealed inside, but the tail was slightly different from ordinary arrows. It looked like the scales of some creature and was almost transparent.

This was the arrow that had attacked Lu Benwei the night before. Now, Xiong Hu had displayed it.

The pupils of the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan instantly constricted. "How did you get this?"

After saying that, it let out a low growl from its throat and an identical arrow appeared in its hand.

Xiong Hu hurriedly said, "Old Senior, please don't misunderstand! Please let me finish."

City Lord Zhuo Qing also stood up and advised, "Old senior, please calm down. Inspector Xiong still has something to say."

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said coldly, "Hurry up and tell me!"

"The night before your arrival, an elite of Jiao City was also attacked. The way they attacked him was the same as the old senior's beloved grandson."

"Is that person dead?" the old chief calmed down and asked.

"Not yet. He's still staying in an inn in Jiao City," Xiong Hu replied.

"Call that person over to me!"

"Yes, sir!"

At the same time, Lu Benwei closed his Eye of Insight.

"Xiong Hu is sincerely trying to drag me down with him, right?"

Ever since the incident, Lu Benwei had been leaning against the window to observe the movements outside.

"I keep feeling that Xiong Hu is very strange!" Ji Han put her hands on her hips and said indignantly.

Not long after, Xiong Hu knocked on their door.

Lu Benwei opened the door and saw Xiong Hu smiling like a fool. "Brother Lu, sorry to trouble you!"

"If you have anything, just say it. There's no need to beat around the bush," Lu Benwei said impatiently.

"Brother Lu, what are you saying?"

Xiong Hu's face was full of smiles.

"It's as if I'm brewing some huge conspiracy behind my back?"

Lu Benwei glared at him.

"Is there?" Xiong Hu touched his cheek.

"Cut the crap, lead the way!"

...

Soon, Xiong Hu brought Lu Benwei to the crime scene.

All the powerful figures were present, and there was a deep sense of oppression.

“Seniors, I’ve brought the person here,” Xiong Hu said resentfully.

Lu Benwei followed closely behind and looked at the surrounding powerhouses indifferently.

“I really don’t like this person!”

“I feel a little uncomfortable seeing him.”

A fat man with a face the size of a millstone said coldly.

“Am I forcing you to look at me?” Lu Benwei replied directly.

That person was stunned for a moment. He did not expect Lu Benwei to retort. He came from a large tribe in the northern wilderness and had just become a king.

The other powerhouses had not expected Lu Benwei to retaliate like this and were quite surprised. However, they soon succumbed to calmness.

“A level-69 brat dares to be so presumptuous in front of me.”

“Let’s go!” the person shouted coldly, releasing an extremely powerful pressure.

Lu Benwei sneered as he circulated his dual-origin bloodlines to resist the pressure.

“Chi!”

Suddenly, the world was bright and chaotic divine light was burning.

“There are two bloodlines in his body. This kid has some background!”

“However, these two bloodlines, one black and one white, belong to the power of light and darkness. To tame them is as difficult as ascending to the heavens. When did such a heaven’s pride appear in the Southern Desert Continent?”

Some of the powerful figures secretly transmitted their voices in shock.

The person who attacked Lu Benwei also sensed the mystery of Lu Benwei’s background and withdrew his pressure.

“Sorry for offending you!” he swallowed his saliva and said unwillingly.

Lu Benwei sneered. “You want to let it go just because you’ve offended me?”

“I was just testing you.” The man was instantly enraged.

“You’re not going overboard, are you?”

Lu Benwei’s eyes shone brightly as he silently activated Lightning Speed and One-click Speed Support.

“Pa!”

A dull slap sounded. Lu Benwei instantly arrived in front of that person and slapped his fat face.

That person’s fat and greasy face was like a wave, causing ripples on his skin.

Lu Benwei wiped his hands and said coldly, “I just slapped you. You won’t mind, right?”

“You!”

The muscles on the person’s body trembled as he stared at Lu Benwei with fiery eyes!

Chapter 730 Secret News

“What? Are you planning to kill me in front of so many people?” Lu Benwei licked his teeth and asked mockingly.

The other party’s heart sank, and he increasingly believed that Lu Benwei was a disciple from a large faction.

“An eye for an eye, don’t go too far!”

The fat man gritted his teeth and swallowed his anger. Only then did Lu Benwei give up.

He was not a disciple of a great force in the Southern Desert Continent. He was merely borrowing the influence of the crowd.

The heir of the Huqin Dynasty, Hu Wuwei, smacked his lips. “I’ve never heard of such a person in other dynasties.”

“Interesting.”

The Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan Leader came in front of Lu Benwei and asked, “You were attacked the night before yesterday. Can you tell me about the situation?”

Lu Benwei saw that the old man was quite polite, so he told him the truth about the situation the night before.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan frowned after hearing this. “Why did the other party find you first? What’s your name?”

Lu Benwei shrugged and said, “I’m just a nobody. Just call me Hongyi.”

He deliberately kept an eye out and did not say his surname.

Let those powerful people guess. However, if they wanted to find out more, they could do it with some effort.

“My grandson had the combat strength of level 80. Even if he was injured, he wasn’t someone that ordinary people can kill silently. How did you dodge the attack?” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan asked again.

“I just used a little trick,” Lu Benwei replied.

“Can you demonstrate it for us?”

Lu Benwei muttered in his heart, ‘This old b*stard still has the ability to test my strength. But this is good too. It will deter those who have evil intentions toward me.’

“Sure,” he said.

The Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan leader had already calmed down and said, “Then I’ll have to offend you!”

After saying that, he threw the arrow out, piercing through the air and making a ghostly wail.

Some people moved away.

“No way, is this old fart from the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan for real?”

“The other party only has level 69 combat strength. Can he block this attack?”

“Fierce is indeed fierce. Don’t use their brains at all.”

At this moment, the arrow pierced through the sky, emitting a sound of piercing through gold and cracking stones. The space in all directions shook, and countless cracks appeared.

Lu Benwei used the four buffing skills to strengthen his body. He circulated his dual bloodline and erupted with a blazing chaotic divine light. His body was like glass and had a divine glow.

“Clang!”

The Ancient Sword of Clarity released an undying aura.

After Lu Benwei ransacked the basement of the Pegasus Mercenary Corps, he obtained two pieces of godly metal.

Lu Benwei cast them into the Ancient Sword of Clarity. Not only did it leveled up, but it also obtained a characteristic.

“Immortal King!”

The will of the sword had been awakened and could assist Lu Benwei in battle.

“Buzz!”

The sword hummed and the sword slashed forward.

“Judgment!” Lu Benwei shouted.

The power of judgment transformed into 108,000 divine weapons and swords, emitting golden light as they slashed forward at the same time!

“Clang!”

The arrow pierced through the sky, piercing through gold and stone, shattering the void.

The Ancient Sword of Clarity was repelled, and the arrow flew straight ahead.

The divine weapons and swords formed by the power of judgment were incomparably sharp and slashed down with dominance!

“Clang! Clang! Clang!”

...

However, the attacks of the level-90 king were extremely fierce and unstoppable. Under the sharp arrows, the weapons were like paper.

However, the speed of the arrows also slowed down, proving that Lu Benwei’s attack was effective.

“Clang!”

The last divine weapon, sword, and arrow turned into dust together, exploding with a violent shock wave.

The various powerhouses waved their hands and activated their pressure to cancel out the heavy shockwaves.

“Monster!”

This was the only thought in everyone’s mind.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan pursed his lips tightly together. “Which sect does young friend come from to have such outstanding talent?”

“Just a nobody,” Lu Benwei still said the same thing.

When everyone heard this, the corners of their mouths twitched.

The Great Peacock King stood out, his feathers dancing in the air, looking extremely dazzling.

“A great storm is coming. If I find out who’s up to no good behind the scenes, I, the Great Peacock King, swear that I won’t spare him! Officer Xiong!”

“I’m here!” Xiong Hu immediately stood out.

“Report to me immediately if you find anything!”

“Yes, sir!”

The other powerhouses also expressed their stance. If they found the murderer, they would not let him off!

...

Nothing happened that night.

Ji Han sat in front of the table and supported her chin with her hand. “What do you think Xiong Hu is up to?”

Lu Benwei sighed and leaned against the windowpane.

The moonlight was gentle, and the bright night breeze blew into the room.

Xiong Hu was mysterious. Every time Lu Benwei saw his stupid and despicable face, he would always think of an old friend. The class of that old friend was similar to Xiong Hu's.

"It's been two months," Lu Benwei muttered to himself. He wondered how Lu Dayong, Jiang Xiuqin, Chu Yan, and his companions were doing.

"Puchi! Puchi!"

A strange sound came from outside the window.

Lu Benwei looked over and frowned. "Is the gate not allowing you to leave?"

"I'm being watched by countless people right now. It's easy to expose my whereabouts if I walk through the main door." Xiong Hu chuckled.

After saying that, he shook the wine bottle in his hand again, and in his other hand, he was still holding the roast chicken wrapped in lotus leaves.

"Chat?"

Lu Benwei rolled his eyes and moved his body away from the window.

Xiong Hu jumped down from the roof, bent his back, and entered Lu Benwei's room through the window. He did not stand on ceremony and pulled out a stool as soon as he entered the room. Soon, the room was filled with Xiong Hu's clicking sounds, and he did not forget to pour himself wine.

"Do you think this is a tavern?" Lu Benwei was a little speechless.

"I've been investigating the case for a day and I'm starving to death," Xiong Hu mumbled.

Lu Benwei sat down.

"What other clues can there be?" Xiong Hu replied.

"Find someone? Do you know who the murderer is?" Lu Benwei was a little surprised.

"Who else could it be? It's just that you offended that family!"

"You mean the Mi Family?"

"Other than them, who else could it be?" Xiong Wu gulped. "Guess why so many powerful people suddenly gathered here?"

Lu Benwei's heart skipped a beat. "Zhuang Lang? Why did he do that?"
