

Dungeon 741

Chapter 741 Apologize

Lu Benwei was about to return to the ground when suddenly, his hair stood on end.

A figure came from the distance and launched a storm of attacks at Lu Benwei. At the same time, a few more figures descended from the sky one after another, targeting the Bronze Temple.

When Xiong Hu saw this scene, he immediately cursed. "Damn it, they're all a bunch of shameless people!"

After saying that, he soared into the sky and separated two enemies for Lu Benwei.

"You're courting death!"

Lu Benwei was furious, causing the Bronze Temple to fall forward.

"Pa!"

Immediately, a person was slapped into a pulp, his flesh and blood flying everywhere! The others' necks immediately turned red.

Lu Benwei's divine power was inexhaustible, and he controlled the Bronze Temple to smash down in a direction.

This was an extremely terrifying attack. It directly made the world spin, and the person's internal organs toppled over. He died from the shock.

"Boom!"

A towering mountain appeared out of nowhere, its aura majestic and unstoppable. It pressed down on the Bronze Temple with the power to turn the world upside down!

However, the Bronze Temple possessed supreme divine might. With just a slight tremble, the mountain was shaken until huge rocks rolled down and collapsed.

Then, the Bronze Temple pierced through the mountain and smashed toward the attacker.

"I was wrong!" The man's face was filled with shock as he begged for mercy crazily.

Lu Benwei did not give him a chance. He waved his hands forward and the Bronze Temple struck out horizontally, smashing the person's flesh and bones apart, causing a palpitating fluctuation.

"Who else wants to die?!" Lu Benwei's eyes were bloodshot as he roared.

Many people were shocked and panted heavily. The remaining few extremely strong people also revealed strange expressions.

As for those who were eyeing the Bronze Temple, they were scared out of their wits and fled in panic.

Lu Benwei did not give them any chance. He shook the Bronze Temple and smashed it toward the group of people.

“Smash!”

Blood and flesh splattered everywhere. All kinds of people’s soul origin scattered and fled in all directions.

“Flying Snake’s Divine Might!”

Lu Benwei’s eyes shot out a beam of brass light that pierced through space, wanting to bury those people here forever.

“He’s too condescending!” Hu Bailie suddenly shouted coldly. A dark purple ray shot out from his eyes, directly dispelling Lu Benwei’s Flying Snake’s Divine Might.

“What do you want to do now?” Lu Benwei stared at Hu Bailie and said coldly.

“These are all heroes from various places. If you kill them, it will cause chaos everywhere!”

“Why did you come out and lecture me again?” Xiong Hu stepped forward to criticize the Bronze Temple, relying on its supreme might.

“How dare a small city’s chief inspector speak to me like this?”

Hu Bailie flipped his palm, trying to kill Xiong Hu.

“You dare?!” Lu Benwei shouted coldly and protected Xiong Hu with the Bronze Temple.

Hu Bailie’s face turned cold, and his eyelids twitched. “What do you want?”

“Xiong Hu is the chief inspector of Jiao City. If you kill him, the security of Jiao City will be in chaos!”

Lu Benwei imitated Hu Bailie’s words, a tooth for a tooth, and an eye for an eye.

“You!” Hu Bailie’s face turned red, and he became anxious.

At this time, the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan jumped out excitedly.

“Haha! This kid said it well! You should have slapped this guy in the face!”

Hu Bailie’s face turned even colder, and his lips were tightly pressed together.

“Great General Hu, why aren’t you saying anything?” The old chief’s face was full of a mocking smile, and he did not hide his sarcasm.

“If you want to deal with it, you’re intimidated by this copper thing again. You’re already so old, so don’t jump out and be a clown to make a scene.”

“Puff!”

Lu Benwei was amused by the old clan leader’s words and laughed out loud without hiding it.

“Great General Hu, when those people jumped out to snatch my things, why didn’t you come out to uphold justice?” Lu Benwei asked coldly.

“You’ve already asked this question once.” The old chief echoed.

“In my opinion, you’re clearly feeling sorry for little friend Lu and want to find an excuse to kill him! After seeing that little friend Lu has such a treasure, the killing intent in your heart can no longer be concealed.”

Hu Bailie’s neck bulged.

“You know very well whether you’re slandering me or not.” The old chief snorted coldly.

“If you want to prove that you really didn’t mean it, then apologize to little friend Lu!”

Hu Bailie was so angry that he wanted to vomit blood.

He was the great general of the Huqin Dynasty, a top existence in the Southern Desert Continent, and he had to apologize to an unknown junior. It was simply a great humiliation!

At this moment, the Bronze Temple trembled, and wisps of clear light fell. The sun, moon, and stars on the copper wall rotated, and birds and beasts roared in the forest. It was very extraordinary.

“What are you trying to do?!”

Hu Bailie was horrified. When the light faded, he was furious. He had seen how extraordinary the Bronze Temple was. Even its presence had forced him to retreat.

Lu Benwei’s lips curled into a cold smile, but he pretended to be innocent and said, “This thing has divinity. Sometimes, even I find it hard to read its mind.”

Hu Bailie gritted his teeth in anger, but when he saw the Bronze Temple hovering above Lu Benwei’s head, he felt his heart palpitate. Especially when the light swept over, he felt like his soul was about to be stolen away.

“S-Sorry!” Hu Bailie pursed his lips tightly.

“What did you say?” Lu Benwei listened attentively and asked.

Hu Bailie’s chest was filled with blood. He said, “Don’t go too far!”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said, “Why are you shouting so loudly? Just now, you were talking like a mosquito. Why are you so loud now?”

“Old fart, do you believe that I’ll chop you alive?” Hu Bailie roared.

At this moment, the Bronze Temple trembled and shot out a beam of light toward Hu Bailie. A terrifying scene happened. Hu Bailie’s soul was shaken out of his body.

In the next second, Hu Bailie’s soul felt the killing intent coming from all directions. He was scared out of his wits and immediately crawled back into his body.

“This, what’s going on with this?”

Everyone was shocked. To directly shake out a person’s soul source was truly too inconceivable and unheard of.

Lu Benwei was also shocked. He had never seen such a thing happen.

Hu Bailie's face was pale. It was the first time he had been so close to death.

"What, what kind of divine item is this?"

Then, Hu Bailie had no choice but to bite the bullet and say loudly, "I'm sorry. I was wrong."

"Sigh, that's right. If you admit your mistake, you're a good child!" the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said.

Hu Bailie was so angry that he wanted to vomit blood, but he had no other choice. He could only leave dejectedly when he saw the Bronze Temple hanging above Lu Benwei's head.

Chapter 742 A Big Gamble

Just as Hu Bailie was about to return to his original position, he heard the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan behind him say, "Little friend Lu, your bronze toy is so imposing. Take him to the imperial palace of the Huqin Dynasty one day! Let's see if it's the imperial palace of the Huqin Dynasty or if your bronze toy is more impressive!"

Lu Benwei almost laughed out loud. Hu Bailie almost fell to the ground.

"You two, just you wait!"

...

At this moment, the disputes on the battlefield had already stopped.

The rest were all top existences.

For example, the Huqin Dynasty, the Great Peacock King, the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan, and a few other large factions. Of course, there was also Lu Benwei.

The atmosphere at the scene was particularly anxious. Everyone was eyeing the Red Phoenix divine medicine covetously.

"Great Peacock King, you're the only one with a high moral standing among the people here," The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said.

Lu Benwei nodded and agreed with the old chief.

Many people nodded in agreement and said, "Great Peacock King, everyone respects you. Why don't you come up with an idea? If you think it's suitable, everyone can implement it together!"

"Since that's the case, then I'll be indebted to everyone's love."

The Great Peacock King walked to the center and spread out his feathers. They were colorful and dazzling.

"I have a good idea."

Everyone's eyes lit up and they leaned over to listen.

"How about we all make a gamble?"

“Big gamble?” Everyone was puzzled.

“Right now, the birth of the Red Phoenix divine medicine is probably just a few million pounds of red pearls.”

“Why don’t we do this? Everyone will take turns providing red pearls for the Red Phoenix divine medicine. Whoever can make the Red Phoenix divine medicine appear will be the winner.”

Hearing this, everyone looked at each other. It had to be said that this was indeed a way to stop the bloodshed and conflict. At the same time, it was a way to determine the ownership of the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

“What does everyone think?” the Great Peacock King asked.

“I have no objections!” the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said loudly.

The Great Peacock King looked at Lu Benwei. “Little friend Lu, what about you?”

Lu Benwei was a little worried, but at this moment, more than half of the people had agreed to the big gamble. He braced himself and said, “I have no objections either.”

“In that case, you may go first, young friend!” The Great Peacock King let Lu Benwei go first.

Lu Benwei came closer and looked up at the top of the tree.

The Great Peacock King’s idea was right. It required millions of pounds of red pearls for the Red Phoenix divine medicine to appear, but no one knew exactly how much.

Lu Benwei slowly let out a breath of turbid air and took out a million pounds of red pearls.

“A million pounds of red pearls and you want to obtain the Red Phoenix divine medicine? Isn’t that too whimsical?”

Someone sneered. It was the general of the Huqin Dynasty, Hu Bailie.

Lu Benwei could not be bothered with him. He infused the red pearl with blood essence into the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

Everyone was staring at the top of the tree.

“Kacha kacha!”

“Rumble!”

Thunder as thick as a bucket fell from the sky and robbed the Red Phoenix divine medicine. A crack about three fingers wide spread from the top of the golden egg to the bottom.

Some cracks could be seen faintly. The golden egg emitted a dazzling golden light, and a rich medicinal fragrance lingered around his nose.

Such a phenomenon had never happened before!

“What? This kid is going to succeed?” Hu Bailie almost fainted from anger.

“Haha, I’m finally going to see the Red Phoenix divine medicine. Little friend, your luck is not bad!” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan tapped Lu Benwei’s shoulder.

“Congratulations, little friend Lu.” The Great Peacock King came to congratulate him.

The phenomenon suddenly stopped, and the world returned to peace.

A Red Phoenix’s shadow was faintly discernible. The Phoenix Blood Tree was covered in flames. It was so huge that its branches and leaves covered all the mountains.

Layer after layer of cracks appeared on the golden egg. The Red Phoenix divine medicine seemed to be about to break out of the ground.

Everyone held their breaths and allowed time to pass.

One second, two seconds, three seconds...

The world was still peaceful, and the Red Phoenix divine medicine showed no signs of appearing.

“Hah! Looks like it still needs more red pearls!” Hu Bailie laughed. He was very happy that Lu Benwei did not succeed.

“It seems that about eight million pounds of red pearls is enough!”

One of them stepped forward and infused eight million pounds of red pearls into it. Soon, a shocking scene happened.

There was no phenomenon on the eggshell of the Red Phoenix divine medicine!

“What’s going on?”

Everyone was stunned.

“Continue!” the Great Peacock King gritted his teeth and said.

“In that case, I’ll go first!” The Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan’s old chief soared into the sky, holding 20 million pounds of red pearls in his hand.

“What? This old fellow has so many red pearls?” The general of the Huqin Dynasty, Hu Bailie, said angrily.

Many people panicked. They all estimated that the Red Phoenix divine medicine would only need millions of pounds of red pearls to appear.

Twenty million pounds was clearly beyond their expectations!

“Old fart, you tricked us!” Hu Bailie was furious.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan chuckled and said, “Who set you up? Is there a rule that limits the number of red pearls?”

“Get down here!” Hu Bailie could not contain his anger. He rushed into the sky, trying to stop the old chief.

“You dare?!”

Lu Benwei roared. With a wave of his hands, the Bronze Temple soared into the sky and protected the old chief.

“Haha! Brat, when the Red Phoenix divine medicine appears, this old man will give you half!” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan laughed loudly.

Hu Bailie was so angry that his hair stood on end.

However, when he sensed the divine might emanating from the Bronze Temple, he had no choice but to return to his original position.

“Ha, the Red Phoenix divine medicine is mine!”

The old chief fused 20 million pounds of red pearls into the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

At this moment, everyone’s hearts were in their throats as they stared straight at the top of the tree.

“Is the Red Phoenix divine medicine about to appear?”

Everyone hoped that the Red Phoenix divine medicine would be obtained by the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan.

At this moment, their feelings were very complicated.

A scene that left everyone speechless happened again. The Red Phoenix divine medicine remained indifferent.

“What’s going on?” Everyone was dumbfounded.

The 20 million pounds of red pearls seemed to have gone down the drain.

“Damn it, do I still need a large number of red pearls?” The Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan’s old chief cursed and swore. 20 million pounds of red pearls had gone down the drain, making him feel rather pained.

“Haha, old fart, the heavens have eyes and didn’t let you get the Red Phoenix divine medicine!” Hu Bailie laughed maniacally.

Then, he took out nearly 40 million pounds of red pearls.

“Since 20 million pounds aren’t enough, then 40 million pounds!”

The Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was so angry that they cursed. “You still say that I’m scheming? You hid a lot behind my back!”

Chapter 743 Bottomless Pit

“Haha, old fart, the heavens have eyes and didn’t let you get the Red Phoenix divine medicine!” Hu Bailie laughed maniacally.

Then, he took out nearly 40 million pounds of red pearls.

“Since 20 million pounds aren’t enough, then 40 million pounds!”

When the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan saw this, he was so angry that he cursed. “You still say that I’m scheming? You hid quite a number of red pearls behind my back!”

Hu Bailie sneered and put all 40 million pounds of red pearls into the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air.

However, there was still no movement from the Red Phoenix divine medicine. There were no signs of it appearing.

“What is going on?” Everyone was dumbfounded.

“I’ll give it a try!”

After saying that, he took out 50 million pounds of red pearls. When stacked together, they were even larger than a mountain.

“Heh, Great Peacock King, I didn’t expect that you with thick eyebrows and big eyes would do so many small tricks behind my back.” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan teased.

The Great Peacock King did not pay any attention to it but merged the 50 million pounds of red pearls into the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

There was still no movement, and everyone fell into a stalemate.

“What’s going on?” Everyone frowned, puzzled.

“Is there a possibility that the Red Phoenix divine medicine doesn’t like the Red Phoenix essence blood in the red pearls?” Lu Benwei suddenly said.

Everyone’s eyes lit up.

After saying that, someone refined five million pounds of red pearls on the spot and refined five hundred drops of Red Phoenix blood essence!

“Fall!”

Five hundred drops of Red Phoenix blood essence merged with one drop of that person’s blood essence, injecting them into the golden egg.

“Kacha kacha!”

The Red Phoenix divine medicine greedily absorbed the blood essence. The eggshell began to crack, and the huge phantom of the Red Phoenix appeared and disappeared. The phoenix’s cry was gentle, and its loud and clear voice shook the nine heavens and ten lands!

However, 500 drops of Red Phoenix’s blood essence were clearly not enough. If the Red Phoenix divine medicine wanted to be born, it needed more blood essence!

“Haha, as expected, young people’s brains work fast!”

When the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan saw this, he laughed loudly. His hair was disheveled, and he had an unruly and unrestrained manner.

After saying that, he took out another ten million pounds of red pearls and crushed them with his bare hands, melting them into a large ball of Red Phoenix's blood essence.

"Chi!"

The Red Phoenix's blood essence fused into the Red Phoenix divine medicine. The eggshell cracked, and the huge phantom of the Red Phoenix appeared from time to time. The phoenix's cry was gentle, and its loud and clear voice shook the nine heavens and ten lands!

At the same time, the flames on the Phoenix Blood Tree became even more intense as if they were going to burn the sky down.

Soon, the phenomenon stopped, and the world returned to silence.

Hu Bailie sneered. "You're so rich!"

"They can't compare to your dynasty." The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan narrowed his eyes and said with a bad expression.

"Ha, it's good that you know!"

Then, Hu Bailie refined the 50 million pounds of red pearls and fused them into the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

The Red Phoenix phantom on the Phoenix Blood Tree became even more solid. The wings spread out, and flames rolled around. The heavens were set ablaze.

Soon, the phenomenon stopped.

Hu Bailie was defeated and fell to the ground.

Next, the Great Peacock King also attacked.

The Red Phoenix divine medicine still had not appeared.

The other forces also took out their assets to obtain the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

However, the Red Phoenix divine medicine was like a bottomless pit, greedily sucking in the Red Phoenix's blood essence offered by all parties.

"Are you done?!" Hu Bailie was a little angry and said impatiently.

Some forces had no choice but to withdraw from this gamble because their assets had been emptied.

The Great Peacock King was also starting to struggle, and there was no more Red Phoenix's blood essence to refine.

"Little friend Lu, why didn't you make a move just now? Is there something wrong?" The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan suddenly asked.

Lu Benwei shook his head.

“Humph! Since you’re afraid, then go to the side and watch,” Hu Bailie shouted.

Lu Benwei’s expression immediately darkened.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan persuaded, “That old fellow is going through menopause. Don’t lower yourself to his level.”

As he spoke, he pulled Lu Benwei to the side and rubbed his fingertips. “Little friend, since you don’t want to go, then give me your red pearls.”

Lu Benwei did not know whether to laugh or cry. “Old Chief, it’s not that I don’t want to give it to you, but I feel an ominous premonition.”

“Oh?” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan lowered his voice. “Tell me!”

Lu Benwei nodded and voiced out his worries and guesses.

It was said that before Chi Huang died, he fought with a supreme martial artist for ten days and ten nights. In the end, he was defeated and died in the northern wilderness.

According to the rumors, after the Red Phoenix was defeated, the supreme martial artist cut open the Red Phoenix’s skin, causing blood to flow for 30,000 miles, dyeing the entire northern wilderness.

This was how the red pearl came about.

In addition, the Red Phoenix divine medicine was rumored to be the heart of the Red Phoenix!

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan sucked in a breath of cold air. This was the first time he had heard of this rumor, and he felt a chill down his spine.

“If the Red Phoenix divine medicine is the heart of the Red Phoenix, and it needs a large amount of red pearls to revive, which is also the blood essence of the Red Phoenix, then what do you think the Red Phoenix divine medicine is doing?” Lu Benwei slowly exhaled.

“Take revenge on Chi Huang?” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan sucked in a breath of cold air, and a chill ran down his spine.

“Of course, this is just my guess,” Lu Benwei said.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan narrowed his eyes. “But you’re not unreasonable when you say that you’re a fan!”

At this moment, Hu Bailie had a dispute with a powerful man.

“Hu Bailie, you’ve gone too far!” the man roared and started fighting with Hu Bailie.

“What’s wrong?” Lu Benwei asked Xiong Hu and the others.

“Hu Bailie didn’t abide by the bet and started to attack the other forces,” Ji Han said.

“This Hu Bailie!” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan glared. Did he really think that he could do whatever he wanted just because his mother country was powerful?”

“Boom!”

Hu Bailie tore the man in half, took his red pearls, and refined it into the Red Phoenix's blood essence.

"Hu Bailie, you're too impudent!"

The Great Peacock King was also furious.

"What, Great Peacock King, you also want to go against our Huqin Dynasty?" Hu Bailie had completely torn up his relationship.

"Hu Bailie, you sure have big words!" The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said, "Let's talk about it after you get out of this place!"

Then, he clashed with the Great Peacock King and Hu Bailie in an earth-shattering manner.

The three of them were at level 94, and the shockwaves produced by their collision collapsed the sky and the earth, shattering the void.

The Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan and the Great Peacock King joined forces to defeat Hu Bailie.

"Hu Bailie, I may not be your match in a one-on-one fight, but if I join hands with the Great Peacock King, you have no chance of winning!"

Chapter 744 Mi Family Leader

"Do you really think I'd be so impulsive?" Hu Bailie smiled.

"Come out!"

"Chi!"

The void was torn apart, and two arrows shot toward the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan and the Great Peacock King.

This was a thunderous attack, revealing its killing intent.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan grunted. His large hand turned into the size of a millstone and slapped forward.

"Boom!"

The sound of a landslide and a tsunami poured out, and the air crackled.

"Bang!"

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan slapped out two palms in succession, sending the two arrows flying.

"It's you!"

The old chief suddenly flew into a rage. His hair was disheveled. He found a transparent snake-like membrane on the two arrows.

"It was you and Hu Bailie who killed my grandson!" The eyes of the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan turned red.

On the ground, Lu Benwei's eyes were fixed on the void crack.

An old man crawled out from the crack. His body was covered in loose wrinkles, and brown age spots had grown on his skin. On his back was a dark purple bow and a sword in one hand.

"Mi Family Leader! It really is you!"

Lu Benwei's expression darkened.

"What did my grandson do to you that you want to kill him?!"

The eyes of the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan turned red.

Hu Bailie sneered. "If you want to blame someone, blame your grandson for being too arrogant when he entered the city that we have to teach him a lesson!"

"What? He has already paid the price for his actions!" The old chief's body was trembling. "Why do you still want him dead?! Kill them!"

After saying that, he turned into a huge war bear, his body as huge as a mountain.

As the bear paw struck out, all the fur on his body stood up, and his body crackled. All the bones in his body shook as if thunder was rumbling.

"Boom!"

The ferocious light was ten thousand feet long and shot straight into the sky. The majestic power was like a vast ocean pouring down.

"Go to hell and see your grandson!"

The Mi Family Leader swung his sword. His momentum pierced through and cracked rocks, shaking the sky.

At this moment, it was as if endless thunder was running in the sky. The sword light exploded and fell. The brilliance was dazzling and shocked people's souls.

At the same time, the Mi Family Leader's attack did not stop.

His pale hair was disheveled and fluttering in the wind. Under his loose skin, his muscles suddenly tensed up and an unparalleled force erupted.

"Kill them!"

He kept swinging his sword, slashing diagonally as if he was cleaving the heavens and earth.

Countless sword lights were like layers of mountains pressed down. The mountains moved in unison, launching a terrifying attack!

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan slapped out his bear paw. It was indestructible as it charged forward.

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

...

This was an extremely grand scene. The mountain-like attacks were shattered by the old chief one by one.

Every time he attacked, it was as if the sky and the earth had collapsed. The earth trembled three times and shook three times.

On the other side, the Great Peacock King was also engaged in a fierce battle with Hu Bailie.

“General Hu, what do you want?” the Great Peacock King asked sternly.

“Don’t you know what I want to do?”

Hu Bailie retorted, “We’re all here for the Red Phoenix divine medicine. There’s no need to put on airs!”

“But you should also abide by the rules!” the Great Peacock King said coldly.

“Whose rules are you following? The rules of the heavens or the rules of the earth?” Hu Bailie said shamelessly.

“You!” The Great Peacock King was so angry that his feathers were standing up.

“Thousand Feathers and Swords!”

Countless divine lights flew out of the Great Peacock King’s body, and finally condensed into a cold feather sword. The blade pointed up and lay horizontally in the air.

Murderous intent fell like rain, and the people watching the battle on the ground were shocked.

“Thousand Feathers Swords is the most brutal killing technique of the Great Peacock King!”

“General Hu might be finished!”

Every feather sword in the sky was refined from the Great Peacock King’s feathers. Each feather sword was emitting a blazing divine light, and killing intent fell like raindrops.

Everyone’s heart was pounding, and for a moment, they felt as if their souls were about to come out of their bodies.

Feather swords were everywhere in the sky. They emitted a brilliant divine light, and the world was covered in a vast expanse of whiteness.

The Great Peacock King had a strong body and flawless white feathers. His eyes were filled with killing intent.

Hu Bailie was intimidated by the Thousand Feathers and Swords, but he did not show any fear on his face.

He resisted the bone-piercing killing intent that was falling and said, “Great Peacock King, ordinary people are afraid of you, but I’m not!”

After he finished speaking, the endless void behind him began to collapse. There were black-purple void vortexes everywhere that could devour everything.

“The Huqin Dynasty is skilled in spatial energy?” Lu Benwei looked up at the sky and asked indifferently.

“Yes, all the direct descendants of the Huqin Dynasty have abilities related to space.”

“This Hu Bailie was also a talented heaven’s favorite,” Liu Qinghe said.

The sky was filled with sharp golden swords and deep void vortexes.

The white feather swords were extremely sharp, forming a terrifying sea of swords. It was boundless, and killing intent was everywhere.

The void vortexes kept spinning and colliding, revealing the primeval void. It was incomparably deep. One would feel as if one’s soul was being sucked into it with just a glance, unable to sit up.

“Slash!”

The Great Peacock King shouted and slashed at Hu Bailie with thousands of white feather swords.

This was an extremely terrifying scene. The countless feather swords were like dragons swimming out of the sea, slashing at a target. The attacks they emitted were terrifying.

“Explode!”

Hu Bailie waved his hands, and the void vortexes pressed forward like locusts, devouring the sky.

“Boom! Boom! Boom!”

...

The feather swords collided with the void vortex one after another, creating a huge commotion.

The void vortexes connected one after another, forming a terrifying inescapable net that blocked the feather sword’s attack like a shield.

In the sky, half of it was the brilliant light of the feather sword, and the other half was the dark void vortex, interweaving into a piece of soil.

In the distance, everyone watching the battle felt a chill run down their spines.

Although they were ten thousand meters above the ground, the piece of soil in the sky made people feel as if they had fallen into an ice cellar and had goosebumps all over the ground.

“If this was the outside world, I’m afraid countless cities would be affected.”

At this moment, a heartbroken roar sounded out, almost breaking everyone’s eardrums.

“What’s wrong?”

Everyone looked in the direction of the sound and realized that it was the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan coughing up blood.

“Senior!”

Lu Benwei immediately soared into the sky and went forward to check on the old chief’s situation.

Chapter 745 Three Against Three

Lu Benwei rushed forward to check on the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan. When he got close, he was shocked.

The old chief's right bear paw began to rot, and black smoke kept coming out. At the same time, the rotting area continued to expand, and in the blink of an eye, it had festered to his forearm.

"What's going on?"

As soon as he finished speaking, a hissing snake sound entered Lu Benwei's ears, causing his hair to stand on end.

"The Power of Adjudication!"

Lu Benwei roared and condensed his power of judgment into a divine weapon, slashing in a certain direction behind him!

"Bang!"

Sparks flew in all directions as the divine weapon struck something in the air.

A king cobra with a body as thick as a mountain appeared first. The dark purple scales on its body opened and closed as its snake tongue opened and closed, and its snake eyes shot out terrifying beams of light.

"This is the Mi Family Spirit, the Poison Devil Snake."

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan pursed his lips, his face pale.

"Old chief, don't speak first, save your strength." Lu Benwei persuaded.

"Lu Hongyi, we meet again."

The Mi Family Leader stuck out his dark purple tongue and licked his lips coldly.

Lu Benwei frowned and said, "It's really you!"

The people who had secretly attacked him in Jiao City were the Mi Family Leader and the Mi Family's spirit, the Poison Devil Snake!

"Last time, I was afraid of attracting attention, so I didn't kill you. It's such a pity that you escaped!" the Mi Family Leader said gloomily.

"Then why did you attack the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan the next day?" Lu Benwei asked coldly, "To muddy the waters?"

"Not bad!" The Mi Family Leader suddenly shouted.

"Then, the attack on the Huqin Dynasty on the third day was a self-directed act?" Lu Benwei asked coldly.

"Hmph, but the evidence has been found, so we have no choice but to direct a show ourselves to get rid of the suspicion."

The Mi Family Leader narrowed his eyes and glared at Xiong Hu.

Xiong Hu shuddered and scratched his head in embarrassment. "Basically, I've already found out that the Mi Family is behind this. However, I didn't expect you to work with the Huqin Dynasty."

"Hmph!" The Mi Family Leader snorted coldly. "I'll settle the score with you after I'm done with these two."

Xiong Hu laughed bitterly and watched the battle from the side.

"Little friend Lu, you go first. I'll block the two of them."

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan heavily coughed a few times, and black blood flowed out from the corner of his mouth.

"No, the two of us will join forces and kill them together!" The corners of Lu Benwei's mouth curled up, revealing a very cold smile.

"Humph!"

The Mi Family Leader smiled noncommittally. "What a joke, I've never seen such an arrogant junior until today!"

"Little friend Hong Yi..." The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan coughed up blood and said in a low voice, "You should leave first. This poison is difficult to deal with, and it's constantly disintegrating my life force. The Poison Devil Snake is an extremely troublesome thing. Even if you have that bronze toy with you, I'm afraid we're not their match."

"Old Senior, if I treat the poison, do you have the confidence to help me implicate the Mi Family Leader?" Lu Benwei asked in a low voice.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan shook his head. "It's useless. There's no cure for this poison."

The Mi Family Leader heard Lu Benwei whisper and smiled. "It's useless. There's no antidote for the poison of the Poison Devil Snake. Anyone who gets poisoned will only turn into a pool of blood and die."

"That might not be the case!" Lu Benwei smiled coldly.

"Buzz!"

Lu Benwei circulated the Holy Key Sage's light bloodline and was like a god of war, bathing in divine light.

"Chi!"

He squeezed out a drop of blood essence and let the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan consume it.

A strange scene happened. The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was bathed in a spring breeze, his body emitting divine splendor.

The rotten flesh and bones began to peel off, and a new body grew out.

“Haha!”

“Hongyi, your blood essence...!”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan erupted with power once again. His body was shining, and his eyes were like a lit divine lamp.

The Mi Family Leader watched this scene in disbelief.

“Is this the power of the bloodline? It can remove the poison and regenerate human flesh?”

He had no choice but to treat the two people in front of him again.

Lu Benwei said, “Old Chief, my bloodline is immune to all poisons. Leave the Poison Devil Snake to me!”

“Good!” the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said loudly, “I’ll leave the poison to you. I’ll kill the Mi Family Leader and avenge you and my grandson!”

“What a joke. You think you can go against me just because you’re immune to all poisons?” The spirit of the Mi Family, Poison Devil Snake, spoke in the human tongue and sneered.

Its body was extremely huge, like a copper pillar that could reach the sky. When it spoke in human language, its voice echoed throughout the nine heavens and ten lands.

As the spirit of the Mi Family, it was able to fight alongside the Mi Family Leader. Its strength was extraordinary.

The battle was about to start, and Lu Benwei circulated his state to the extreme.

Dual-origin bloodline!

Four great amplification skills!

Self-enlightenment incantation, 90 times increase in combat strength!

“Immortal King!”

Ancient Sword of Clarity summoned its own will and was awakened to assist Lu Benwei in the battle!

The other party was an extremely terrifying existence. Lu Benwei had to go all out.

“Star Shattering Fist!”

Lu Benwei swung his fists and threw out a galaxy in the sky.

Starlight fist rain rang out in unison, and the power of the stars interweaved, forming an inescapable net that blotted out the sky and covered the earth. It was dense and awe-inspiring, and it shot out strands of starlight that shook open the universe.

“Boom!”

The small universe exploded, and starlight fist rain shot out.

Such a powerful and peerlessly powerful attack, as a powerful spirit, it also felt extremely pressured.

The Poison Devil Snake faced the rain of fists and charged forward. As its body moved forward, the nine heavens and ten lands rumbled. Its giant tail swept over, and the sky seemed to be about to collapse. A majestic aura surged out.

“Boom!”

The starlight fist rain hit the Poison Devil Snake’s scales that were like divine iron, but it did not produce a single spark. It was as if it had disappeared into the darkness.

“Divine Sword of Destruction!”

Lu Benwei punched out. This was a variation of a move that could be executed without the help of the Ancient Sword of Clarity.

His hands opened and closed widely, transforming into a huge sword of destruction that could split the sky. The sword qi moved the sky!

“Boom!”

The destructive sword light was like a rainbow that pierced through the sky and earth. The aura of destructive power was everywhere.

The Poison Devil Snake shook its body, and its huge body covered the destructive sword light in an instant. The hardness of its body was shocking, and it directly turned Lu Benwei’s destructive move into nothingness.

Chapter 746 Poison Devil Snake

“Boom!”

The Poison Devil Snake shattered the destructive sword light, revealing its sharp edge. Its powerful strength was unmatched.

“Heh, do you really think that you’re so great just because you killed someone who just stepped into the king tier?”

The Poison Devil Snake spoke. The snake tongue kept flicking, looking very intimidating.

Lu Benwei’s expression was extremely cold as he said, “So what if I’m level 94? I can still fight you without being at a disadvantage!”

This was a form of confidence! The faces of the people watching the battle from afar all changed.

“You really don’t know the immensity of heaven and earth!”

As soon as he finished speaking, a terrifying demonic light shot out of its snake eyes and pierced through Lu Benwei’s body.

“Puff!”

Fresh blood splattered across the sky, and Lu Benwei’s body shattered into pieces.

“You really don’t know the immensity of heaven and earth, kid.” The Poison Devil Snake laughed softly. “Without the deterrence of your Bronze Temple, I could’ve killed you with a flip of my hand.”

The spectators in the distance also shook their heads.

“Without the protection of the Bronze Temple, this kid named Lu Hongyi has no chance of survival in front of the Poison Devil Snake.”

At this moment, a strange phenomenon occurred.

Tiny red threads appeared between Lu Benwei’s flying flesh and blood. They intertwined and formed a spider web of life. Some kind of terrifying magic power reorganized his flesh and blood, and he was reborn.

Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique! Lu Benwei was reborn and stood in the world again.

The Poison Devil Snake looked at this scene in disbelief, and then its eyes widened in anger. “What kind of power is this?”

Lu Benwei ignored him and called out coldly, “Slash!”

The will of the Ancient Sword of Clarity was awakened, and a boundless sword light burst out from the sword.

“Clang!”

The sword light slashed at the Poison Devil Snake, and the sword light swept across the nine heavens and ten lands.

The Poison Devil Snake let out a strange howl and opened its mouth to spit out a stream of devil flames. A large black mass poured out of its mouth like a waterfall.

The Ancient Sword of Clarity was wrapped in boundless sword light as it slashed forward. It was instantly covered by black flames. The scorching temperature was terrifying.

Even if it was just a wisp of the remaining warmth, Lu Benwei’s skin started to fester. There was a trace of poison hidden in the black flames, causing one’s body to rot!

Lu Benwei stepped on Lightning Speed and pulled some distance away.

Then, the Holy Key Sage’s bloodline of light and the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique worked together to catalyze the poison.

Sword radiance flashed in the sky as the Ancient Sword of Clarity slashed continuously. The boundless sword radiance was over ten thousand layers, slashing toward the Poison Devil Snake.

The black poisonous flames were endless and had the power to burn everything. In the end, all the sword lights were melted by the black poisonous flame, and the ancient sword retreated.

The Poison Devil Snake was extremely powerful, and a casual attack was difficult for Lu Benwei to deal with.

“What other methods do you have?”

Lu Benwei's expression was calm, but his heart was surging.

"The difference in strength is too great. My only chance of victory is the Bronze Temple. However, this giant reptile is wary of the power of the Bronze Temple and has been maintaining its distance. I have to find a way to get close to him!"

Thinking of this, Lu Benwei used Lightning Speed and tried to get close to the poisonous snake.

"You want to get close to me?"

The poisonous snake sneered and shook the space with its tail.

"Rumble!"

The void collapsed like a natural moat between Lu Benwei and him.

"Without the ability to cross the void, don't even think about crossing it!" The Poison Devil Snake mocked.

Lu Benwei sneered and summoned the Bronze Temple.

Seeing this, the Poison Devil Snake continued to boast shamelessly, "What, you're just a level-69 supporter, do you have the power to cross the void?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Lu Benwei activated his One-click Speed Support and flew through the void with the Bronze Temple above his head.

"What?"

The Poison Devil Snake's expression changed. It already witnessed the might of the Bronze Temple when it watched the earlier battle in secret.

It was like a palace where immortal kings lived, and it had supreme power.

"Poison Devil Flame!"

The Poison Devil Snake panicked. It opened its mouth and spat out a mouthful of demonic flames. It was like a continuous volcanic eruption. Black smoke billowed and miasma spread across the entire universe.

Lu Benwei held the Bronze Temple and charged forward in the sea of demonic flames. The bronze walls of the Bronze Temple glowed with divine light.

The sun, moon, and stars were engraved on it, and birds and beasts roared in the forest. It hovered above Lu Benwei's head and protected his body.

In the outside world, the poison devil flame burned fiercely, distorting the void. The Poison Devil Snake that erupted swept across the world, and the bodies of all kinds of creatures in the secret realm began to rot.

Lu Benwei's body released an undying chaotic divine light that blasted the Bronze Temple down!

"Kill them!"

The Poison Devil Snake's eyes were filled with rage, and a streak of purple light shot out.

Lu Benwei's hair instantly stood on end, feeling as if a disaster had descended.

"It's a mental attack!"

The moment before the fierce light arrived, he sensed the interest of this fierce light. Lu Benwei had a bad feeling. The soul attack of a level-94 king was enough to take his life!

"Flying Snake's Divine Might!"

From Lu Benwei's temple, dense bronze snake scales grew out. A beam of brass light shot out like lightning, resisting the purple ominous light.

"Buzz!"

An ear-piercing buzzing sound shook the sky. The purple light pierced through the attack.

Lu Benwei was fearless as he circulated the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique.

"Can your recovery technique repair the soul's origin?" the Poison Devil Snake asked sternly.

"Of course, not!"

Lu Benwei did not show any fear on his face.

Even though the Flying Snake's Divine Might had partially offset the damage from the purple light, he was still unable to withstand the soul attack of a level-94 king.

The death stigma that was sleeping in Lu Benwei's sea of consciousness woke up. It carried the incomplete spiritual stigma and hung above Lu Benwei's head.

"Buzz!"

The sky dimmed, and the aura of the incomplete death stigma even spread to the outside of the secret realm.

On the Phoenix Blood Tree, the flames that could burn the heavens were extinguished.

This was a scene that had never happened before when the Bronze Temple appeared in the world.

There were no clouds in the sky for hundreds of thousands of miles. The aura of death was extremely dense, oppressing everyone until they could not breathe. Under such heavy pressure, the ominous light dissipated as if it had never appeared.

Cold sweat was squeezed out of the scales on the body of the Poison Devil Snake, and its heart was pounding. "What kind of power is this?"

Lu Benwei did not respond.

When the Death Stigma appeared, it took away a large portion of his life force. His bones were aching.

A moment later, the Death Stigma returned to Lu Benwei's body with the incomplete Mental Stigma.

The pressure of death was lifted, and everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

Chapter 747 Mutation

Everyone took a deep breath. The scene just now was too terrifying.

Whether it was the Mi Family Leader, the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan, Hu Bailie, the Great Peacock King, or the people watching the battle from afar.

The moment the Death Stigma appeared, they were enveloped by the thick shadow of death.

The Poison Devil Snake's body was filled with battle strength. Its scales opened and closed, making rustling sounds.

"Who exactly are you?" The Poison Devil Snake was shocked.

Lu Benwei coldly replied, "The person who killed you!"

With that, the Ten Thousand Lightning Killing Formation was instantly activated!

The Poison Devil Snake was furious.

"Hiss hiss hiss!"

The sound of snakes could be heard everywhere in the sky, coming from all directions.

Countless snakes that were a few feet long crawled out of the void and crazily flicked their tongues. They revealed their killing intent and attacked Lu Benwei.

"Rumble!"

Above the nine heavens, lightning flashed.

"Ten Thousand Lightning Killing Formation!"

This was Lu Benwei's most tyrannical skill. The lightning carried the power of destruction as it fell from the sky to the earth. To contend against the Poison Devil Snake, he had used his full strength.

"Rumble!"

Endless bolts of lightning shot out and struck down from the sky, forming a terrifying electric net.

"I'll help you too!"

Ji Han soared into the sky. Her figure was graceful and beautiful. She waved her hands and injected all the energy in the world into the thunderstorm.

The elemental energy of the plants, the power of the stars, and even the remaining power of death all turned into a type of chaotic force that poured into the thunderstorm.

"Rumble!"

The lightning became even more brilliant, drowning the world with destructive power.

"Ten Thousand Power Fusion?" The Poison Devil Snake was furious.!

The combination of ten thousand powers was a unique talent. All kinds of power could be combined into the most chaotic force.

“Even so, you still want to kill me?”

The Poison Devil Snake roared, and the scales on its body exploded.

“Ten Thousand Snakes Hell Formation, Strangulation!”

Every snake in the space began to swim rapidly. They formed a snake-shaped vortex and attacked forward, wanting to kill Lu Benwei.

“Boom!”

The lightning was tens of thousands of feet tall, carrying an incomparably violent destructive power!

Wisps of chaos energy poured in. The lightning grew more and more intense, cutting off the space and turning this place into a huge cage.

“Kill them!”

Lu Benwei also roared and activated the Ten Thousand Lightning Killing Formation to attack.

The lightning shot into the sky, and the sea of lightning was endless. It kept expanding, and the entire space was shaking.

“Do you really think you can defeat me?”

The Poison Devil Snake let out a strange roar, its ferocity peerless.

The snakes danced wildly, piercing through space and time.

The thunderstorm was still not extinguished. It shot out lightning that could destroy the nine heavens and ten lands. It shot into the sky and almost tore the sky apart.

“Rumble!”

In the shocking collision, Lu Benwei and Ji Han’s joint attack canceled out the Poison Devil Snake’s attack and they survived.

The Poison Devil Snake was enraged, and its face was extremely ferocious.

“What a great humiliation! I, a level-94 king tier, can’t even kill you!”

At this moment, a loud rumble sounded. A change occurred!

The fire that had been extinguished by the Death Stigma started burning again.

The phoenix’s cry was gentle, and its loud and clear voice shook the nine heavens and ten lands.

Lu Benwei felt like his ears were about to burst. The terrifying temperature from the fire swept in all directions.

“What’s wrong?”

Lu Benwei was shocked. At the same time, he circulated the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique to resist the erosion of the high temperature.

On the ground, there was a prairie fire everywhere, and the terrifying temperature was suffocating.

Liu Qinghe protected Ji Han and Xiong Hu and hid.

The various powerhouses also distanced themselves from the Phoenix Blood Tree.

“Whoosh!”

A huge crimson phoenix phantom appeared and gradually became corporeal.

Only Lu Benwei, the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan, the Great Peacock King, Hu Bailie, the Mi Family Leader, and the Poison Devil Snake were left around the Phoenix Blood Tree.

“Is the Red Phoenix divine medicine about to be born?” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said in shock.

“Very likely!” The Great Peacock King said.

“Mi Family Leader, according to our agreement, we’ll split the Red Phoenix divine medicine equally!” Hu Bailie shouted.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan grunted. “Are you so sure that you’ll get it first?”

“Then let’s try!”

The two of them did not agree with each other and fought once.

Hu Bailie shook his body, and the space cracked open. Tens of thousands of beams of light shot out with unparalleled power.

The hair on the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan stood on end. His hair began to fall off, forming a huge ax in front of him.

The giant ax, which was thousands of meters long, slashed down toward Hu Bailie.

The terrifying killing intent was boundless, causing Lu Benwei and the Great Peacock King to feel a chill and retreat temporarily.

Hundreds of thousands of cracks in the void shot out terrifying light. The sky shook and drowned the old chief.

“Kacha kacha!”

At this moment, the golden egg cracked open. The cry of a phoenix shook the nine heavens. A small bird the size of a baby came out of it. Its feathers were bright red like cinnabar, and flames flowed out of it, like a ball of flames flying.

Its bright eyes were like two rubies, emitting a mysterious light. Its neck was slender and soft, like a swan, shining with a dazzling luster. Its mouth was like a sharp curved blade, emitting a strong aura from the corner of its mouth to its tail. Accompanying its birth was an extremely rich medicinal fragrance.

Lu Benwei took a sniff and felt refreshed. The fatigue from a long battle was instantly gone.

“Red Phoenix divine medicine!” everyone exclaimed.

They did not expect that the Red Phoenix divine medicine had really appeared.

“The Red Phoenix divine medicine is really like the Red Phoenix!”

Hu Bailie went crazy because he was the closest to the Red Phoenix! What he did not expect was that the Red Phoenix divine medicine was flying toward him as well!

Hu Bailie became crazier. He rushed toward the Red Phoenix divine medicine with all his might.

“I dare you!”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was anxious and rushed forward without caring about anything else.

“Senior! Wait!”

Lu Benwei suddenly stopped him.

“What’s wrong?” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was anxious.

At this moment, a tragic cry of pain came. The Red Phoenix divine medicine attacked Hu Bailie, tearing half of his body into pieces.

“Ah!”

Hu Bailie’s screams were unbearable. The remaining half of his body was covered in raging flames that could not be extinguished.

Everyone was shocked.

“What’s going on?”

Chapter 748 Revenge and Conspiracy

“What a great Red Phoenix divine medicine. What a temper!”

Hu Bailie was no longer crazy. He had calmed down.

The flames of the Red Phoenix divine medicine had an extremely high temperature, constantly burning his body.

Then, Hu Bailie went into the void and came out again. His body was brand new and heroic, and his eyes were bright.

“Void Regeneration!”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was speechless.

The phoenix cry shook the nine heavens. The Red Phoenix divine medicine attacked Hu Bailie again. Its phoenix claws were bent like a curved blade, shining with a cold light.

“Bang!”

Hu Bailie's body was chopped into pieces, revealing his white bones.

The speed of the Red Phoenix divine medicine was so fast that it made people speechless.

"Are you sure this is the Red Phoenix divine medicine and not the revival of the Red Phoenix?"

Everyone was terrified.

In the blink of an eye, Hu Bailie's body was pierced and torn into two. After all, that was a level-94 king tier.

Under the attack of the Red Phoenix divine medicine, he did not even have the chance to counterattack!

"Roar!"

Hu Bailie was furious and shouted, "I don't believe that a mere medicinal herb can rebel against the heavens."

The void crack opened its hands wide, and tens of thousands of lights rushed out, wanting to cover the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

The Red Phoenix divine medicine's eyes were cold. Its red wings shook and scattered the light that shot out from the void crack. It was too terrifying.

Hu Bailie had to admit defeat.

"Mi Family Leader, come and help me!"

In the distance, the Mi Family Leader stood with his hands behind his back and looked ahead indifferently.

Hu Bailie suddenly quivered and said angrily, "You dare to lie to me?"

"I can get the Red Phoenix divine medicine by myself. Why should I work with you?" the Mi Family Leader sneered.

"Stupid pig!"

Hu Bailie's eyes turned blood-red as he was ridiculed. "You're really tired of living!"

After saying that, he charged forward and launched a fierce attack on the Mi Family Leader.

The Mi Family Leader sneered and retreated a large distance.

Hu Bailie was about to give chase when a phoenix cry stopped him.

"B*stard!" Hu Bailie was furious. His body twisted strangely, and then he shook his hand, holding a long black and purple halberd.

"Void Halberd!" The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan shouted!

Hu Bailie held the Void Halberd in his hand and released a fierce aura that made people's hearts and souls tremble.

"This is...?" Lu Benwei's expression changed as he felt the might of the Void Halberd!

“This is the weapon of the first Great Emperor of the Huqin Dynasty. Legend has it that he chanced upon a piece of meteoric metal when he opened up the void. Not even an ordinary legendary weapon can compete with it!” the Great Peacock King explained.

“The Void Halberd has followed the first Great Emperor of the Huqin Dynasty for many years. It has its own will. Why would it follow Hu Bailie?” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan asked in puzzlement.

“No, this isn’t the Void Halberd!” The Great Peacock King frowned.

“Haha, of course this isn’t the Void Halberd. No one can master it except for the successive emperors of the Huqin Dynasty.”

Hu Bailie sneered.

“This is a piece of godly metal I obtained by chance. Its characteristics are 90% similar to the metal used to forge the Void Halberd.”

He held a blackish-purple halberd in one hand, and his killing intent soared into the sky. His body flickered with an ice-cold metallic luster, terrifying people’s souls.

“Boom!”

The halberd hummed and emitted terrifying fluctuations. It was as heavy as a mountain, and the void was about to collapse.

“Boom!”

Hu Bailie roared and finally made his move. His black hair danced in the wind, and his eyes shone with a cold light. He held the dark purple halberd in both hands and attacked the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

Everyone gasped.

“With a weapon as powerful as the Void Halberd, can Hu Bailie defeat the Red Phoenix divine medicine?”

“Rumble!”

The sound of muffled thunder swept across the sky. The halberd struck out, so heavy that it distorted the void.

The Crimson Phoenix Divine Medicine’s cry shook the nine heavens. When it spread its wings, flames that looked like a waterfall fell.

“Although the Red Phoenix divine medicine is a medicinal herb, it contains a wisp of the Red Phoenix’s divine sense. In addition to the looting of heaven and earth as well as the red pearl and the Red Phoenix’s blood essence that we sacrificed, it can be said that his strength is super terrifying.” Lu Benwei said.

“What?” The Great Peacock King frowned. “According to my observation, the Red Phoenix divine medicine’s current combat strength is above level 96. It’s not something we can fight against. Even if Hu Bailie has a weapon similar to the Void Halberd, he can only fight for a short time.”

As expected!

After exchanging a few moves with the Red Phoenix divine medicine, Hu Bailie showed a declining trend and retreated while fighting.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan asked, "But why did the Red Phoenix divine medicine attack Hu Bailie?"

Lu Benwei pondered for a moment and said, "I guess the Red Phoenix divine medicine will attack those who offered the Red Phoenix's blood essence and the red pearls."

"Little friend Lu, why do you say that?"

The Great Peacock King and the old chief frowned at the same time.

"Look!" Lu Benwei pointed at the battlefield in front of him.

Hu Bailie had been betrayed. The battle with the Red Phoenix divine medicine had been drawing closer to the Mi Family Leader. He hoped to drag the Mi Family Leader down with him.

The Mi Family Leader had his hands behind his back and looked calm.

Even when the Red Phoenix divine medicine passed by him, it did not show any hostility toward the Mi Family Leader.

However, to not be affected by the aftershocks of the battle, the Mi Family Leader would choose to dodge. However, he was much more relaxed than Hu Bailie.

The Great Peacock King and the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan had already seen through the clues in their hearts.

"As expected! So, the Red Phoenix divine medicine's target might be us?"

At this moment, Hu Bailie also noticed something and ran toward Lu Benwei and the other two.

"Motherf*cker, you b*stard!"

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was so angry that he cursed!

The Red Phoenix divine medicine let out a long cry and released a surging killing intent toward them.

"Not good, run!"

The Great Peacock King's face turned pale, and he fled with the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan.

"Haha! As expected, all of us here have suffered the revenge of the Red Phoenix divine medicine e!"

Hu Bailie gloated and fled together with the old chief and the Great Peacock King.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan spat. "Damn it, I really want to kill you now!"

Lu Benwei had only offered a few red pearls, which was ignored by the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

However, many people who stayed in the secret realm had offered up a million pounds of red pearls, and they were all targeted by the Red Phoenix divine medicine.

Immediately, screams of pain rang out from under the Phoenix Blood Tree. Some people had their hearts pierced by the sharp claws of the Red Phoenix divine medicine or were burned to ashes by the flames.

Blood flowed everywhere, and it was a tragic sight.

Chapter 749 Death Stigma

A mountain of corpses and a sea of blood.

Many factions were trapped in the secret realm like fish in a net or birds in a cage.

The Red Phoenix divine medicine had been revived and started a massacre.

“Puff!”

The Red Phoenix divine medicine possessed godly speed. In the blink of an eye, it tore a person into pieces.

The terrifyingly high temperature directly evaporated that person’s blood into blood essence, and in the end, nothing was left.

Before that person died, Lu Benwei knew that he was a level-92 king tier.

From this, it could be seen that the strength of the Red Phoenix divine medicine was terrifying to the point of being somewhat shocking. Even level-93 kings could not put up a fight.

Only level-94 kings like the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan, or the Great Peacock King would have the power to fight.

However, there was only one outcome in the battle with the Red Phoenix divine medicine, and that was to be defeated and flee.

“Ah!”

The sharp claws of the Red Phoenix divine medicine were like divine metal. A casual strike would tear through the void and pierce through a person’s chest.

Lu Benwei found Xiong Hu, Ji Han, Liu Qinghe, and his clansmen.

“Are you guys alright?” Lu Benwei asked with concern.

They did not offer the red pearl or the Red Phoenix’s blood essence to the Red Phoenix divine medicine, so they were not the Red Phoenix divine medicine’s targets.

However, its attack range was too wide. The scarlet-golden flames flowing in its feathers could increase the temperature and burn the world with just a casual flap of its wings.

“Rumble!”

As Lu Benwei spoke, one of them launched a thunderous attack.

The Red Phoenix divine medicine flapped its wings and slashed diagonally, releasing an attack with extremely warm flames.

Before it could even get close to that person, it had already turned him into ashes.

The Red Phoenix divine medicine's eyes revealed a trace of disdain. Then, it flapped its wings and continued to search for its target.

"The secret realm has been sealed. What should we do?" Xiong Hu said anxiously.

"We're temporarily safe, but this Red Phoenix divine medicine has its own intelligence. I don't know what it will do next."

Lu Benwei's expression was solemn as he stared at the Red Phoenix divine medicine in the sky.

"Is it possible that we'll die here?" Ji Han's face was a little pale as she panted heavily.

"According to my observation just now, someone wanted to forcefully break out of the secret realm but was seen through by the Red Phoenix divine medicine and was directly torn into pieces," Liu Qinghe said slowly, "It seems impossible to forcefully tear open the secret realm."

Lu Benwei suddenly frowned and said, "It's not impossible."

"No, tearing open the secret realm requires a huge price. Moreover, we must deal with the Red Phoenix divine medicine. How can we succeed?" Xiong Hu immediately felt that something was amiss.

Lu Benwei slowly exhaled. "Don't worry, I know what to do. When the time is right, you must run to me regardless of anything."

After saying that, Lu Benwei soared into the sky and found the Great Peacock King, the old chief, and Hu Bailie.

"What? You want the three of us to work together to tear open the secret realm?"

Hu Bailie immediately objected. It was better to kill him than to let him pee in the same pot as the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan.

The old chief also blew his beard and glared at him. "He wants me to cooperate with him? Unless the sky falls. However, I can help little friend Lu tear open the secret realm."

"According to my observation just now, forcefully tearing open the secret realm will attract the attention of the Red Phoenix divine medicine. We can only tear open the secret realm while resisting the Red Phoenix divine medicine. I'll take the Red Phoenix divine medicine," Lu Benwei said in a deep voice.

"What?!"

Hu Bailie smiled and said, "Do you really think that you can be invincible with that bronze toy of yours?"

"I don't know about it, but I can still easily deal with you," Lu Benwei retorted sarcastically.

"You!" Hu Bailie was furious.

Now, Lu Benwei only had the old chief and the Great Peacock King to protect him. He also had the Bronze Temple as his weapon. Hu Bailie could only swallow his anger.

"I won't disturb your good plan!"

Hu Bailie glared at him, then turned around and left.

"Little friend Lu, do we have to do this?" The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan frowned.

"There's no other way. Let's go all out," Lu Benwei said in a deep voice, "Otherwise, we will all die here."

"In that case, alright!" the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said and resolutely headed to the entrance of the secret realm.

He had turned into a bear that was as big as a mountain. His fur was black and had a cold metallic luster.

"Roar!"

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan roared. With one strike, the entire interior of the secret realm trembled!

"Me too!"

The Great Peacock King let out a strange cry and transformed into a huge peacock. Its feathers were white and flawless, and its feathers were flowing with colorful light, emitting immortal divine light.

"Bang!"

He and the old chief combined forces to attack. If the power of heaven and earth erupted, it would be terrifying.

"Rumble!"

There was a crack at the entrance of the secret realm, but it was not enough for people to pass through.

A phoenix cry rang out, causing the nine heavens to tremble.

The sky behind the Red Phoenix divine medicine was extremely red. Wherever it went, the sky above it began to burn as if doomsday had arrived.

However, at this moment, Lu Benwei was in the sky with his eyes closed. His consciousness entered the depths of his spiritual world and arrived in front of the Death Stigma

"I know you have a way to help me!" Lu Benwei said slowly.

After a long silence, a voice that did not belong to him came from his spiritual world. "Why do you think that I'll help you?"

"Then why did you choose me?" Lu Benwei replied calmly.

"..."

After a long silence, the voice continued, "Go. I'll help you when the time comes."

“Good!”

After saying that, Lu Benwei instantly raised his combat strength to its maximum.

Dual-origin bloodline! Four great amplification skills! Clear Heart Slash Technique!

Lu Benwei’s battle strength had increased tremendously. The Bronze Temple hovered above his head, exuding a majestic aura.

At this moment, his glabella flashed, and the incomplete Death Stigma entered the Bronze Temple along with the incomplete Spiritual Stigma.

Lu Benwei slowly opened his mouth and spat out a voice that did not belong to him.

“Ah, after so many years, I’m finally back.”

“Boom!”

A terrifying aura erupted from Lu Benwei’s body, and the power of death covered the sky and covered the earth.

The bones in his entire body crackled, and his temples and abdomen bulged up as if something was erupting.

“Roar!”

Lu Benwei opened his mouth and let out a roar, spitting out a shocking beam of death that shot toward the sky.

“Rumble!”

The beam of death pierced through the void and hit the universe. Countless stars exploded with terrifying power.

Chapter 750 Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique at its Great Completion

Everyone raised their heads, looking extremely shocked.

“This, this is a power that surpasses limits?” The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was shocked.

At this moment, Lu Benwei suddenly descended behind him.

The old chief’s heart sank. He could not help but have the urge to kneel.

Lu Benwei inserted his hands into the crack in the secret realm that the two of them had opened.

“Rumble!”

His hands opened and closed, and the entrance to the secret realm was completely opened. It was effortless!

The Great Peacock King and the old chief were both shocked. The two of them spent a lot of effort before they finally opened a little crack.

With a flip of his hand, Lu Benwei opened the entrance to the entire secret realm.

“How is this done?”

Both of them were shocked.

“You guys should leave quickly!”

With that, Lu Benwei immediately arrived in front of the Mi Family Leader. His face was extremely pale, and his hair stood on end. “You, who exactly are you?”

“Just a nobody.”

After saying that, Lu Benwei pointed his finger and pierced through the head of the Mi Family Leader. His soul origin did not even have the chance to escape!

The scales on the body of the Poison Devil Snake stood up and trembled. This was a sign of extreme fear as if he was going to fight Lu Benwei to the death.

“Poison Devil Flame!”

Lu Benwei smiled noncommittally and pointed again.

A terrifying ray of light pierced through its head, and blood spurted out.

Just like the Mi Family Leader, its blood essence did not even have the chance to escape.

At present, only the Red Phoenix divine medicine and Lu Benwei were left in this secret realm.

“Vile beast, still not bowing down?” Lu Benwei said coldly.

“I want to be resurrected!” The Red Phoenix divine medicine no longer concealed its identity.

It was formed by a wisp of Red Phoenix’s consciousness fragment! Everything it did was for the sake of resurrection!

“Ha, do you think you have the strength to fight me now?” Lu Benwei said lightly and then stretched out his hand.

In the next second, the Red Phoenix divine medicine appeared in his palm.

“You, how did you do it?”

The fiery feathers of the Red Phoenix divine medicine dimmed, and its body trembled.

At this moment, it was like a sparrow trapped in Lu Benwei’s palm.

“I’ll fight you!”

The Red Phoenix divine medicine flapped its wings and attacked fiercely, wanting to fight to the death with Lu Benwei.

Lu Benwei smiled slightly and directly clenched the Red Phoenix divine medicine tightly and consumed it.

“Boom!”

Suddenly, his body started burning.

The Red Phoenix divine medicine contained extremely dense life essence, which could help people live another life.

However, for Lu Benwei, it was used to increase the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique.

To reach the ninth tribulation, one would not die, nor would one’s soul be destroyed. The first step was to shatter one’s fleshly body and agility.

After that, the new body would undergo the lightning tribulation to reach the highest level of the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique.

It was also this step that stopped Lu Benwei from continuing to improve.

“Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique!”

“Rumble!”

This lightning tribulation was unprecedented. The moment the first thunderbolt appeared, the secret realm was shattered into pieces.

The sea of lightning was boundless, and the divine lightning was chaotic!

Outside the secret realm, everyone ran out. When they saw the Phoenix Blood Mountain collapse in an instant, they could not help but gape.

“What’s going to happen?”

“How did Phoenix Blood Mountain turn into dust in an instant?”

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan frowned. “I smell an extremely terrifying power. Even if a trace of this power overflows, it can destroy my body and soul.”

Everyone was confused, except for Ji Han, who put her palms together in front of her chest. “Hongyi, you must return safely.”

...

“Rumble!”

Endless thunder and lightning descended as if the world had just been split open.

In the vast sea of lightning, Lu Benwei was bathed in lightning. He condensed the life essence of the Red Phoenix divine medicine into a pill and spat it out.

Then, he allowed the lightning to strike his body.

“Rumble!”

The thunderbolt that was as thick as a mountain split Lu Benwei’s hair. Then, it was his skin, flesh, and bones.

“Puff!”

Blood bloomed one after another, then turned into wisps of blood qi and dissipated.

Lu Benwei’s bones were crystal clear, and divine light flowed out. He was banished to the void, like the edge of the universe, with countless dead stars.

“Rumble!”

A bolt of divine lightning struck down, shattering Lu Benwei’s physical body and leaving behind only a wisp of an ethereal soul.

The boundless divine light and lightning rushed toward him. The stars exploded and shattered.

This phenomenon was too terrifying. It was unheard of and unprecedented.

Lu Benwei did not resist and allowed the lightning to shatter his soul.

“Chi!”

The ethereal soul origin exploded and scattered.

The desolate edge of the universe returned to silence as if nothing had happened.

At this moment, the phenomenon unfolded. The entire border of the universe was set ablaze, wanting to burn it into ashes.

The Red Phoenix divine medicinal pill suddenly moved, searching for something in the vast universe.

First, it found a drop of blood, then a piece of bone, and a wisp of soul. It mixed all these and fused itself into it.

“Rumble!”

Lu Benwei reappeared. At this moment, the lightning tribulation erupted. Bolts of colorful lightning shot toward Lu Benwei’s new body.

“Bronze Temple!”

“Buzz!”

The Bronze Temple trembled and blocked Lu Benwei’s head. Endless lightning struck it, making clanging sounds. Strands of divine light overflowed and intertwined with all the tribulation lightning.

He was also undergoing a baptism!

“Rumble!”

The lightning suddenly became even more vigorous. Dragons, phoenixes, and other legendary tribulation lightning descended from the endless sky.

He also saw human-shaped lightning. Lu Benwei was shocked. He had seen these lightning tribulations before he came to the Southern Desert Continent.

“Could it be...”

Lu Benwei suddenly sensed something.

Suddenly, he narrowed his eyes, and divine light shone from them.

The piercing eye pierced through the river of time. It was the day before the storm.

Lu Benwei rode on the Six-tailed Crocodile and traveled with the Imperial Baby on the vast sea.

A bolt of tribulation lightning overflowed, passing through the river of time and hitting the vast sea. At that moment, Lu Benwei, the Six-tailed Crocodile, and the Imperial Baby panicked.

“Haha!”

Lu Benwei smiled bitterly. “So, it was all because of me.”

He wanted to travel through the river of time again and see things that happened a long time ago to answer the questions that had been plaguing him for so many years. However, soon, Lu Benwei felt exhausted.

“Your current strength doesn’t allow you to do so,” the Death Stigma said.
