Chapter 751 The Army Arrives at the City

Lu Benwei was helpless and gave up on this idea. He focused on resisting the lightning tribulations.

“Rumble!”

Endless lightning tribulations descended, wanting to kill Lu Benwei!

When the Nine Tribulations Regeneration Technique reached its great completion, one could achieve immortality! Other than time, no one could defeat Lu Benwei.

This was not allowed by the laws of heaven and earth. He had to strangle Lu Benwei in the cradle.

The lightning was endless, and the blazing radiance was boundless, wanting to drown the entire universe.

At the same time, regardless of whether it was the Southern Desert Continent, the Dragon Kingdom, or the Devil’s Den, the entire planet was covered in darkness. A bolt of lightning struck from the east of the continent to the west, piercing through the universe as if it wanted to pierce through the entire planet.

Everyone’s face paled in shock, and their entire body trembled.

“The world is about to change!”

This was what everyone thought.

At the other end of the universe, two supremes were looking at the depths of the lightning sea.

“It really is him!”

“We should’ve killed him in the cradle the moment he showed his edge.”

The figures of the two supreme martial artists appeared. One was black and the other was white, and their hair was long and loose. Their demonic might was peerless.

They were the two great ancestors of monsters – the Dark Primogenitor and the Light Primogenitor.

“Give the order to the clansmen on the blue planet to attack the Dragon Kingdom. That’s that kid’s home.”

“It’s time for us to personally lead the army. Time waits for no monsters,” Light Primogenitor said, “We must take back everything that belongs to us.”

“Let me test that kid first.”

After the Dark Primogenitor finished speaking, he stretched out an incomparably huge hand and instantly drowned the entire universe.

“Boom!”

A bolt of tribulation lightning struck over and directly tore apart the Dark Primogenitor’s large hand. He immediately withdrew his hand.

“Humph! We can’t kill him anymore. After this lightning tribulation, coupled with the legendary stigma providing him with great strength, we’re destined to fail!” The Dark Primogenitor snorted coldly, revealing a trace of unwillingness.

“Even if we fail, we still have to give it our all!”

At the edge of the universe, in the sea of lightning.

Lu Benwei struggled with all his might. His body was covered in blood, and his muscles were torn open several times. However, Lu Benwei blocked every wave of lightning tribulation.

“Kill them!”

Lu Benwei launched a counterattack and charged up into the sky.

“Rumble!”

A flash of an even bigger lightning struck down, like an immortal light. It instantly shattered Lu Benwei’s body and soul, and nothing existed anymore.

The Death Stigma said, “I allow you to die and return you to immortality.”

This was the power of immortality. Lu Benwei was reborn again and charged toward the nine heavens.

“Rumble!”

The world exploded. Lu Benwei’s body and soul were shattered again and again, turning into dust, but they were also resurrected again and again. He seemed to have mastered the power of the law of death.

However, the matter was far from over. The lightning as thick as a mountain struck down like a heavy downpour, launching the final attack.

Lu Benwei roared as his blood splattered in the sky and shattered again and again.

“Boom!”

A loud bang resounded through the universe, and the world finally fell silent.

At this moment, Lu Benwei’s long hair was loose, his eyes were shining, and his body was overflowing with threads of divine light.

The current Lu Benwei was very powerful. Even he himself did not know.

“Chi!”

He moved his hands, tore through the void, and crossed out. In an instant, he had returned to the Southern Desert Continent.

Even a level-93 magician with spatial power might not be able to cross such a long distance in the void.

In Jiao City, Ji Han was feeling bitter.

After coming out of the secret realm, they searched for Lu Benwei’s whereabouts for thousands of miles. Half a year had passed.

At first, people discussed Lu Benwei's identity. For some people, "Lu Hongyi" might be an old monster who had been reborn. Some people even said that Lu Hongyi was the son of a super family, and all the resources of the family for thousands of years were poured into him.

Ji Han sighed deeply. Only a few people knew about Lu Hongyi's background. That included her.

"Lu Hongyi isn't from our land."

Xiong Hu had told everyone this secret not long ago.

'Lu Hongyi, will you show up again?' Ji Han thought silently.

Not long after, the storm arrived in Jiao City.

Hu Bailie led an army of a million and sent troops to the Red Pearl Country. The reason given was extremely absurd. It turned out that the Red Pearl Country had concealed the secret of the Red Phoenix divine medicine, causing many people to lose their lives.

The Red Pearl Country was a small country and was powerless to resist. Very soon, the Red Pearl Country's army arrived at the city gates.

Jiao City was in danger.

"Hmph, what do you mean by asking for an explanation for the people who lost their lives? It's clearly for personal revenge!" Xiong Hu spat and was furious.

"Brother Xiong Hu, don't worry. With me around, they won't be able to turn the world upside down!" the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan said.

As soon as he finished speaking, Hu Bailie's voice exploded in the sky above Jiao City.

"Xiong Hu, and that old fart, come out and accept your death!"

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan carried a mountain-splitting ax and rushed into the sky.

"Hu Bailie, the grudge is between you and me. Why would you treat the lives of the people of the Red Pearl Country as a joke?"

Hu Bailie smiled and said, "They aren't citizens of our dynasty."

Such a cruel sentence made all the people in Jiao City tremble.

"Then you can try!"

As soon as the old chief finished speaking, more than ten Steel King Strange Strength Bears appeared behind him. They were the elites of the clan. Now that they had listened to the orders of the old tribe leader, they stood with the people of Jiao City.

At the same time, Hu Bailie was also half the murderer who killed the grandson of the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan. Now, everyone in the clan was holding their breath and vowed to make Hu Bailie bleed.

"Hmph, do you think I'm the only one here?"

Hu Bailie sneered. As he finished speaking, the void behind him split open, and dozens of kings crawled out.

There were no less than ten level-93 king tiers! This was the foundation of the empire, unfathomable!

Hu Bailie held the black and gold halberd in his hand, a cold smile on his face.

"Old fart, what do you have to fight me?"

The Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan's old chief's eyes were fiery red, and all the hair on his body stood on end.

"Not only you," Hu Bailie said arrogantly, "Lu Hongyi's accomplices will also need to die! I remember that there was a little girl with Lu Hongyi. Let her be a military prostitute in my army!"

"The rest of you, go to my Huqin Dynasty and become slaves!"

In Jiao City, Xiong Hu clenched his fists. "Hu Bailie is too much!"

A cold laugh suddenly came from the sky, and everyone shuddered.

Hu Bailie was shocked and looked up.

"Who is it?!"

Chapter 752 - 752 Forcing the Army to Retreat

"Lu Hongyi! You didn't die?!"

Hu Bailie could not contain his anger. He raised his head and looked up into the sky.

A crack appeared in the sky. Lu Benwei crossed the universe and descended upon the Southern Desert Continent.

The moment he appeared, everyone felt a deep sense of oppression. Hu Bailie's breath almost stopped.

"Not only did I not die, I even came back," Lu Benwei said lightly. His eyes were bright, and his body emitted a dazzling divine light as if an immortal king had arrived.

"General Hu, is he that kid called Lu Hongyi? Ruining our good things?" A level-93 king tier behind Hu Bailie asked.

"Yes."

Hu Bailie narrowed his eyes and took a deep breath. With his current level, he could not see through Lu Benwei's combat strength.

"This shouldn't be. No matter how great his fortune is, it's impossible for him to jump from level 69 to king tier," Hu Bailie muttered to himself as a bad feeling rose in his heart.

In the next second, the general beside him snorted coldly. He raised his spear and leaped up, attacking Lu Benwei in the sky.

Lu Benwei sneered and threw a punch.

"Boom!"

The stars shattered into pieces, and the power of the stars poured out endlessly. It covered the sky and earth, and nothing could stop it.

"Ah!"

The man roared, and the tip of his spear moved like a dragon and snake, striking the air and exploding with a thunder-like attack.

"Boom!"

Lu Benwei was already exclaiming that he was invincible.

After experiencing the baptism of the tribulation lightning of the laws of heaven and earth, just a punch from his physical body could shatter an asteroid.

The power of the stars was like a hot knife through butter. Nothing could stop it, and it directly drowned that person.

"Ah!"

The king of the Huqin Dynasty cried out in agony, his voice tearing at the heart.

Everyone looked at the vast sky.

Nothing! The general of the Huqin Dynasty's king had fallen!

"How is this possible?!"

The morale of the Huqin Dynasty army was unstable, and some of their eyelids twitched.

"I'll give you two choices," Lu Benwei stood on the peak and slowly said, "Retreat or die!"

Just as Lu Benwei finished speaking, a cold snort sounded.

"Humph! You want to force back the million-strong army of our Huqin Dynasty by yourself?"

Lu Benwei shook his head and said, "I don't want to kill indiscriminately."

"How arrogant!" another person shouted and rushed forward.

Following that, two-thirds of the king tiers from the Huqin Dynasty stepped out, forming an inescapable net that surrounded Lu Benwei.

"You should've refined the Red Phoenix divine medicine, right? Your blood essence must be a great tonic!"

A king of the Huqin Dynasty licked his teeth and revealed a greedy gaze.

Lu Benwei sighed and said, "Since you think so, I'll give it to you."

After saying that, he stabbed his own fingertip into the nirvana.

"Boom!"

Powerful fluctuations instantly erupted, sweeping across the four seas. Everyone's heart, liver, and spirit trembled, and they almost fainted from the shock.

Lu Benwei turned the drop of blood into a blood sword and struck. The blood sword swept across the world, causing a few people to be resentful and blood to splatter in the sky. They did not even have out.

The king who coveted Lu Benwei's blood died on the spot, and his body turned into a cloud of blood mist.

"What's going on?"

When the faces of the people from the Huqin Dynasty were splashed with blood, they finally reacted.

"Since you want my blood so badly, I'll give it to you. It depends on whether you can withstand it."

The blood sword swept across the world, causing a few people to be resentful and blood to splatter in the sky. They did not even have a chance to counterattack.

Everyone gasped.

Hu Bailie was even more shocked. "How is this possible? How can your level increase so much in such a short period?"

Lu Benwei looked at him faintly and said indifferently, "You... Come and die."

Everyone was shocked.

When Lu Benwei said this, his tone was very calm as if a god had sentenced a person to death.

Hu Bailie quivered for a moment before he braced himself and said, "Let's attack together. I can't do it. Is this kid going to defy the heavens?"

At this moment, the king of the Huqin Dynasty did not realize the seriousness of the matter. On the contrary, they were still holding back their anger.

If word got out that a junior had killed so many clansmen, it would be a disgrace to the Huqin Dynasty!

"Kill them!"

Their eyes were wide open with anger, and their bodies exploded with blood.

The people watching from Jiao City seemed to have seen a malicious ghost, and their bodies trembled non-stop.

Lu Benwei shook his body, and his body emitted a golden glow. A dense white fog rose, covering the sky and earth.

"Puff!"

In just a short moment of fighting with the Huqin Dynasty, a king died.

The corpse fell to the ground like autumn leaves. The others' expressions changed, and the killing intent in their eyes became even stronger.

"Kill them!"

Lu Benwei raised a hand, and the sky collapsed on the spot. The universe seemed to be cut apart, revealing the primitive void.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

The Huqin Dynasty had three more kings, and their blood splattered across the sky.

Currently, the Huqin Dynasty only had a few kings left.

Hu Bailie's body was trembling. He pressed his lips together tightly. "How did you do it?"

They had not seen each other for a few months. Lu Benwei had already grown to such a terrifying level. It was unprecedented and rare in ancient and modern times.

Seeing that Lu Benwei did not say anything, Hu Bailie's heart turned ashen. Finally, he slowly spat out one word, "Kill them!"

"Puff!"

Then, Hu Bailie raised his spear and jumped up, slashing at Lu Benwei. Lu Benwei sighed and gently waved his palm.

"Puff!"

Hu Bailie turned into a bloody mist on the spot. His soul did not even have a chance to escape before he was killed by Lu Benwei.

Everyone was terrified. The million-strong army of the Huqin Dynasty was without a leader.

"Thud!"

The soldiers wore heavy armor and knelt on the ground in unison. One could imagine how spectacular the scene would be if a million soldiers knelt on the ground together.

"Heavenly Deity, please spare us. We were only following orders."

Lu Benwei nodded and said in a low voice, "You guys can leave."

Everyone was surprised. Lu Benwei let them go. Thus, the million-strong army cried tears of joy and threw away their armor.

Many people came forward, expressing their desire to follow Lu Benwei. Lu Benwei ignored them and returned to Jiao City.

Other than the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan, the Great Peacock King and Liu Qinghe led their clansmen over to defend the city. However, they did not expect Lu Benwei to be one step ahead of him.

He had single-handedly killed an army and a million soldiers had thrown away their armor.

The Huqin Dynasty's top forces were also beaten up by Lu Benwei. Even given the dynasty another 20 years would not be enough to fill this gap.

Chapter 753 - 753 The Origin of the Bronze Temple

Everyone's expressions were very complicated.

Lu Benwei's current strength was unfathomable. As for the exact level, it was difficult for everyone to guess.

Xiong Hu watched as Lu Benwei battled the kings of the Huqin Dynasty and said, "This kid might have already reached the level of an ultimate king!"

Ultimate king!

It was an unattainable existence. It was said that to reach this level, one had to sacrifice everything and start from scratch. If one was not careful, one's body and soul would be destroyed.

As for Lu Benwei, in just half a year, he had encountered some great fortuitous events. He had risen from level 69 to this level.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan and the Great Peacock King were filled with emotions. Half a year ago, they were still Lu Benwei's seniors, but now, the two of them were somewhat unapproachable to him.

Lu Benwei looked at the crowd with complicated expressions and revealed a row of white teeth. "Why are you all looking at me like that? Don't you welcome me back?"

Everyone was stunned for a moment, then laughed heartily.

"You brat!"

Xiong Hu immediately took a step forward and punched Lu Benwei's chest.

"What does the Red Phoenix divine medicine taste like?"

Lu Benwei scratched his head and said, "To be honest, I can't remember clearly."

"Do you still remember that after we left the secret realm, Phoenix Blood Mountain disappeared? Where have you been?" Liu Qinghe asked curiously.

"The universe above the nine heavens."

Everyone was shocked. To them, the universe was still an unfamiliar word.

Only a few of the former who were at the peak soared straight into the universe and recorded the appearance of the universe. The book said that the universe was a boundless land.

It was tens of thousands of times larger than the Southern Desert Continent. The starry sky was vast and boundless, with stars decorating it. Those seniors said that the stars were as numerous as the sand in the Southern Desert Continent, but most of them were dead stars. What awaited them was endless coldness.

Ji Han blinked her black gem-like eyes. "Not long after the collapse of the Phoenix Blood Mountain, the Southern Desert Continent was shrouded in darkness for a month."

Lu Benwei nodded and did not hide anything.

When everyone heard this, they sucked in a breath of cold air and realized how terrifying Lu Benwei was.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan and the Great Peacock King looked at each other and smiled bitterly.

"Little friend Lu," the Great Peacock King stood up and called out to Lu Benwei before pausing.

"Great Peacock King, please speak."

The Great Peacock King heaved a sigh of relief. "I found a book in the library at home. I think little friend Lu will be interested."

After saying that, he waved his hand and took out an ancient book.

Lu Benwei took it and looked at it carefully.

The ancient book had been well maintained. It had been through a long time, but the paper was a little yellow.

Lu Benwei looked at the large words on the cover of the ancient book and was slightly surprised.

"Southern Desert Chronicle."

Lu Benwei was about to open it to look when he was stopped by the Great Peacock King.

"Little friend Lu, wait a moment. The incidents recorded in this ancient book are too important. I hope that young friend Lu can read it privately."

Lu Benwei nodded and followed the Great Peacock King's words.

Xiong Hu whistled. "It wasn't easy for us to escape death. Let's go drink!"

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan was delighted and shouted, "Let's go, let's drink."

Late that night, an inn in Jiao City was brightly lit and noisy.

However, no one dared to disturb them. This was because the inn was filled with big shots.

At Lu Benwei's table, empty wine jars could be seen.

In the first half of the night, everyone was drinking happily.

Xiong Hu wanted to spar with Lu Benwei, but he fell asleep before midnight.

The old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan laughed loudly. "Xiong Hu, you can't do it. In terms of drinking, you must be from our Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan!"

After saying that, he and Lu Benwei started playing rock-paper-scissors and drinking.

After drinking thirty jars of wine, the old chief of the Steel King Strange Strength Bear Clan also collapsed.

Only the non-alcoholic Great Peacock King and Lu Benwei were left in the inn.

"Little friend Lu?" the Great Peacock King called softly.

Lu Benwei understood and took out the ancient book that the Great Peacock King had given him. The first page shocked Lu Benwei.

"The Southern Desert Continent is a divine land that fell from the heavens?"

"Yes!" the Great Peacock King answered.

"It's not just this ancient book. There are records and many rumors that prove that the Southern Desert Continent is a divine land that fell from the sky."

"Little friend Lu, you aren't from the Southern Desert Continent, right?" the Great Peacock King asked again.

Lu Benwei's expression sank, but then he relaxed. "That's right, I came from a country called the Dragon Kingdom, separated from the Southern Desert Continent by a vast ocean."

The Great Peacock King nodded. "There's a rumor that there are countries outside the Southern Desert Continent. I didn't expect it to be true. Then it seems that the contents recorded in this ancient book are 99% true."

Lu Benwei flipped a page and realized that the records in the ancient book were in reverse.

The next page recorded the time when the divine land descended before the Southern Desert Continent began to have records. That was about three thousand years ago.

In terms of time, it was in the same spacetime as the Apocalypse Empire. Lu Benwei was surprised. What happened three thousand years ago?

Flipping to the third page, after the divine land descended, it turned into the Southern Desert Continent. Due to its unique characteristics, it welcomed great competition among all countries.

The more Lu Benwei read what happened next, the more shocked he became. Something told him that 3,000 years ago, a disaster that affected the entire world had descended. All countries were searching for a solution.

The Southern Desert Continent had a magical characteristic that allowed them to avoid disasters and became the target of conflict.

The battle between the Red Phoenix and a certain supreme martial artist happened here. The combat strength of humans 3,000 years ago was even more heaven-defying than now!

This was Lu Benwei's conclusion.

Then, the ancient book recorded a phenomenon that was even grander than the descent of the divine land in the Southern Desert Continent – the arrival of the Bronze Temple.

According to the ancient book, the Bronze Temple descended upon the world, and a massive rift appeared in the sky. When it appeared, any stigma would start to tremble.

At that time, all the stigmata in the world were attracted by the Bronze Temple. They turned into human forms and knelt to submit. It took eighty-one days and nights before they dissipated.

"Oh my god!"

Lu Benwei was so shocked that he could not speak.

"The background of the Bronze Temple is so great?"

Lu Benwei continued reading.

Some five-mark and six-mark stigmata were unwilling to leave and wanted to enter the inner parts of the Bronze Temple. However, they were rejected.

"The six-mark stigma can't enter the inner parts of the Bronze Temple? Then what about those stigmata from before?"

Lu Benwei's head was filled with questions.
