Chapter 1061: Am I Gentle?

“Boohoo... You want me to treat this woman... sob... I’ll lose at least half of my life force...” Lord Holy Tree sobbed sorrowfully. “These are my savings of ten thousand over years... sob... Just burn me to death, I don’t want to live anymore, I don’t have any path of survival...”

“Cough... Even if you really do not have any path for survival... then I will still need you to only talk about it after you have treated her properly. You can’t speak as if you are releasing a fart ah, especially when it is someone like you, Lord Holy Tree...” Young Master Jun comforted. “Stop crying first... even if you want to commit suicide... Save her first, and make a couple of seeds, then you can commit suicide however you want...” ”

Is this still comforting?

Lord Holy Tree was so livid that he was practically about to have a battle to death with this shameless, despicable asshole! Do you even have any conscience?! If I fulfilled all your requests, then why do I still need to commit suicide for?!

“Relax, an Emperor is never short of hungry soldiers; you will not lose out in this exchange...” Young Master Jun chuckled, the Flame of Primal Chaos still burning in his right hand, and that soft, green ball of light appeared on his left hand again...

“Wah... Boohoo...” Seeing this green ball of light, that ‘Power that grows all wood’, Lord Holy Tree’s cries became even more sorrowful... If not for this thing, would I even fall into this pitiful state I’m currently in?

Great, now I’ve lost all my savings and still did not even get a single bite of this thing...

Furthermore, this thing can only speed up my growth, but it can’t accelerate the accumulation of my life blood essence ah... Even if you give me this entire green ball, I will also still be unable to produce that much life blood essence within a short period of time ah...

And you're saying that I won't lose out? If this exchange is completed, I'll really be completely bankrupt...

"F*ck! You're an old demon that has lived for ten thousands of years, why are you behaving like a girl. What are you crying for?!" Jun Mo Xie was getting impatient. This fellow had no halt in his crying, and he didn't even give a proper answer first. "You need to tell me whether you can do it or not first ah! If it's really impossible then I won't make it difficult for you. I'll definitely not make things difficult for a useless fellow..."

As he said this, he was randomly tossing and catching the Flame of Primal Chaos in his hand repeatedly...

"And you call this not making things difficult for me?... Then what is making things difficult for me?... Boohoo..." Lord Holy Tree, who was on the verge of breaking down, only felt that his life was too tragic... I can't even talk big... To think that this fellow actually brings a semi-corpse whose soul is almost completely shattered along with him... Whipping it out the moment I shoot my mouth off... What sort of crime is there in talking big...

This fellow before me has a murderous look in his eyes, his killing intent is oozing out. He says he is not going to make things difficult for me, but I'm clear that the moment I say that it is impossible, perhaps I'll turn into ashes the next instant... That black flame is truly too terrifying; it is definitely ten thousand percent the bane of my existence...

This... is there still justice?

How can there be such people in the world?

"Can you do it? Hurry up! Give me an answer! I don't have any time to waste; I'm in a rush!" The murderous look on Jun Mo Xie's face thickened. If this fellow is trying to dupe me and give me false hope... This Young Master will really burn you into a pile of charcoals to use for barbecuing meat...

"I can! I really can! I definitely can! I absolutely can!" Lord Holy Tree was so frightened he did not dare to cry anymore. He gave a crisp reply. He could already tell the killing intent in Jun Mo Xie's tone, so how could he dare to say no?

I'll have to make it work even if it costs me my life, ah...

Although it's so frustrating that I feel like committing suicide... But the problem has not reached such a hopeless state yet... Besides, who would want to die if you can stay alive, even if the price to pay this time is truly too massive...

"Then hurry up! Sobbing and crying, aren't you sick of it!" Jun Mo Xie realized that the 'stick' worked better than 'carrot' for this guy, so he used an even harsher tone. When dealing with someone like this, it was still necessary to apply further pressure...

"Old Master..." Lord Holy Tree looked at this demon with hidden bitterness and pleaded. "That Power that grows all wood... You must give it to me ah..."

"En. I'm not the same as you. This Master always keeps his words!" Jun Mo Xie replied.

"En... Thank you, Old Master." When Lord Holy Tree said this life, he felt truly aggrieved. This person before him had plundered him of all his savings, and he still had to thank him... What sort of logic was this?

After weighing the gains and losses, Lord Holy Tree unwillingly nodded his head and agreed...

"Ah!!! Ahhhhhhh!!!!" Turning around, Lord Holy Tree let out another mournful cry.

"What's wrong with you? Screaming all of a sudden! Did you get possessed?!" Jun Mo Xie was also astonished. What is this fellow up to now?!

"This... this... I don't want to live anymore... I really don't want to live anymore..." Pointing to the few seeds of the Holy Tree in the water, Lord Holy Tree was so angry he was about to explode. The seed only needed to be soaked for a short while. But because he was so engrossed in talking, feeling sad, and crying, he had completely forgotten about this matter...

Right now, the seed in there had absorbed ten times the amount of life blood essence needed... This seed was definitely going to grow healthy and strong, but Lord Holy Tree's heart was aching so much that he was on the verge of vomiting blood...

One woe doth tread upon another's heel!

I have really offended someone's ancestor, ah...

This disaster on top of another had practically sent Lord Holy Tree fainting from heartache...

He hurriedly fished the seed out of the water, only to realize that these originally wrinkly seeds were full and plump, and some areas were releasing bubbles, as if they were burping after a filling meal...

"I really..." Lord Holy Tree had the urge to toss this seed out and smash it into smithereens!

"Hm?!" Young Master Jun gave a warning sound at an appropriate timing.

Lord Holy Tree's body jerked as he slowly turned around, bowing slightly as he gave a pandering smile. "Old Master... Old Master, this seed is already... ready..."

"It's ready? Then I must check and inspect it! See if did you lack or cut any corners!" Jun Mo Xie did not hold back, quickly taking it over. Of course, he used his left hand and had kept away that ball of Power of Wood...

"Alright. Then you can start to save her." Young Master Jun said, raising a brow.

"Yes... Old Master!" Lord Holy Tree carefully picked up Green Hunter's body and placed her into the water.

Lord Holy Tree was feeling fed up again. If you are worried, you do it yourself?! What are you shouting for... Looking at how anxious you are. This woman is not your wife, but a lover that you have somewhere else... Don't get too gleeful, the time will come when the fire starts in your backyard...

After cursing and swearing mentally, Snake Queen Green Hunter's body was finally submerged into the water.

"Completely sinking inside the water like this... There isn't any problem, right? She still will need to breathe..." Jun Mo Xie asked, worried.

"Are you the one who knows or am I the one who knows?! Are you treating her or am I the one treating?!" Lord Holy Tree finally could no longer bear it and exploded, turning around and asking lividly. "Why don't you come and do it yourself?!"

"The f*ck?! You're rebelling now!" Young Master Jun practically jumped up and pointed at the other party's nose. "You have some balls, huh, try repeating that again?!"

"I... Old Master Old Master... You're my Old Master... I was wrong... I'm sorry..." Lord Holy Tree was shocked and remembered his own treacherous state, instantly losing all his gusto.

"So you are sorry! Hmph! If you cannot treat her, you can just wait to turn into charcoal! To even dare to yell at this Master... You are really gutsy huh..." Jun Mo Xie hollered menacingly, scowling fiercely.

When dealing with this sort people who bully others but give in to threats, you absolutely must be more threatening than him! And maintain the absolute upper hand!

Lord Holy Tree obediently gave his assurance. "I definitely will be able to treat her! Definitely! Please don't be so fierce, ah..." He regretted mentally. It's obvious from one look that this fellow is not one who is reasonable; why did I yell at him just now? I'm really digging my own grave...

Lord Holy Tree was already a little used to his own predicament...

“Hm? What did you say? Which part of me was fierce?! I was teaching you on how to be a decent person!” Young Master Jun said coldly.

“Yes, yes, Old Master, it was I who did not understand the great intentions behind your words!” Lord Holy Tree replied.

“Then you tell me, am I gentle?!” Young Master Jun asked in a weird tone.

“You are so gentle, ah...!” Lord Holy Tree was on the verge of tears again...

“Good, you continue to work hard!” Jun Mo Xie saved his hand and directed his consciousness to the interior of the Hongjun Pagoda. Right now, the most pressing matter was to use the Power of Wood at full force within the Hongjun Pagoda to make this seed germinate. To the point it could grow and bear the first batch of fruits. If he left this place only to find that this cowardly tree had duped him and gave him a useless seed that could not bear fruit, then it would really be bad...

After choosing a vast, empty space in the Hongjun Pagoda, he planted this seed into the central position of the ground... Then he controlled the dense Spiritual Qi in the Hongjun Pagoda to come over and infiltrate into the soil...

The soil in the Hongjun Pagoda was naturally incomparable to that in the outside world... It was all full of Spiritual Qi...

As expected, it did not take long for a small, green seedling to emerge from the soil. Then with a shake, it shot upwards with a whoosh...

It stood upright like a bamboo pole. Then, leaves began to grow on it...

Jun Mo Xie waved his left hand, and the Power of Wood went flying over to this tree, covering a small range. A small ball of pale green light instantly covered this small tree.

Jun Mo Xie did not dare to be too forceful in rushing the growth of this tree, afraid that it would ruin things. Young Master Jun understood the logic of spoiling things through excessive enthusiasm.

As expected, the moment the Power of Wood was infused into the small tree, it began to grow at a rapid speed that was clearly visible.

The leaves that were budding had begun to grow out with a whoosh. The trunk of the tree began to grow taller and thicker...

Chapter 1062: Growing the Rainbow Holy Tree!

It was only a duration of a couple of breaths, that little sapling had already grown to the thickness of a thigh, and six zhang tall. Jun Mo Xie smiled and the pale green light on his fingers suddenly vanished, replaced by a layer of deep green glow...

Pop! That Rainbow Holy Tree shot straight into the skies, twenty zhang in height, its trunk also instantly thickening. Its crown began to spread rapidly, like dark clouds that had suddenly gathered in the skies, filling up the entire heavens...

After another couple of breaths, it seemed that the sapling could no longer be called a 'sapling' anymore, because the trunk of this newly grown Rainbow Holy Tree was about four meters in diameter. Countless of nonagon leaves spread out, swaying gently, and the entire tree was emitting a faint rainbow glow...

Yet again, after a while, from amidst the densest part of its leaves and branches, a rich fragrance began to gently spread, small rainbow colored flowers sprouted, seven in a bunch. And there were seven such bunches on the entire tree!

Jun Mo Xie was shocked. "Isn't it only supposed to produce only two bunches every five hundred years? Why are there seven on this tree? Could the genes have mutated?!"

Just as he was pondering over this matter, the Rainbow Holy Tree that had been planted in the Hongjun Pagoda for less than a quarter of an hour began to bear fruit for the first time, under the effects of the dark green light.

The flower petals begin to wither at a visible speed, and the rainbow colored fruits hung on the branches. Forty-nine of them! It was really seven bunches!

In a blink of an eye, the entire Hongjun Pagoda was filled with its fragrance!

Jun Mo Xie only stopped infusing the Power of Wood after this. He didn't want to be kicked out by the Hongjun Pagoda like the previous time...

Carefully observing these Seven Colored Holy Fruit, it was exactly the same as the ones he had eaten before, with absolutely nothing odd about it... The only small difference was that the Seven Colored Holy Fruit that was grown here was two times the size of the ones he had eaten! Looked like the things grown within the Hongjun Pagoda was way better than in the outside world ah...

And one more thing is... Looks like the Lord Holy Tree did not try to play any tricks with me...

It's worth praising ah...

The way you treat me, I'll return it to you two folds! I still have some conscience!

Jun Mo Xie did not know that when Lord Holy Tree was a seed, he was only soaked in its senior's life blood essence for a short while, unlike this seed that had completely had its fill...

These were two different types of treatment!

To a Rainbow Holy Tree, this was the most natural foundations it could have! It could even be said that the Seven Colored Holy Fruit that Jun Mo Xie had in the Hongjun Pagoda was the Seven Colored Holy Fruit in its most perfect state...

Just when Young Master Jun heaved a sigh of relief, there was another change within the Hongjun Pagoda. From the Rainbow Holy Tree, a rainbow shot out, cutting across the vast space and connecting perfectly onto the Exquisite Lotus on the other end...

Then, this arch of rainbow just stayed between them, forming a literal rainbow bridge...

Jun Mo Xie could even vaguely sense that through the transmission between this rainbow bridge: the Exquisite Lotus and Rainbow Holy Tree were growing more quickly, complementing each other's growth...

This is great! This is really great!

Jun Mo Xie excitedly waved his fist, keeping the seven bunches of Seven Colored Holy Fruit on the tree. Then, he even added some enforcement to ensure that these fruits would not fall off before leaving.

Actually, Young Master Jun's acts was unnecessary. The Seven Colored Holy Fruit remaining on its branches had better effects than being harvested. And it would not fall unless it was forcibly plucked off...

"En? What is this?" Young Master Jun was originally feeling extremely pleased after settling the Rainbow Holy Tree, coupled with the matter with the Exquisite Lotus, but upon coming out, he seemed displeased again.

Snake Queen Green Hunter had already been fished out by Lord Holy Tree and was laying flat on the ground, still like sleeping beauty. She showed no signs of waking up. There was no difference from before. Even her breathing and condition did not experience any change. He couldn't help but raise a brow and scowled in displeasement.

"Old Master, Old Master, please calm down... This young lady is already healed, she really is alright already." Young Master Jun scoffed, practically scaring Holy Tree out of his wits. He quickly explained, "I really have treated her injuries already... If you don't believe it, you can check it thoroughly, I won't dare to lie to you even if I had a hundred guts ah..."

Towards the end, the Lord Holy Tree's tree voice was cracking a little, about to cry again.

Jun Mo Xie turned around to take a look, he couldn't help but feel startled. The pond that was brimming with life blood essence was already half gone... In fact, even more than half, there was only a shallow layer of it left, just barely covering the bottom of the pond... It looked like this spineless tree really put in great effort...

“Since you said you’ve treated her, why has she not woken up yet?” Jun Mo Xie walked over to Green Hunter, checking her pulse. To his delight, that blood essence of the Holy Tree really had amazing effects. Green Hunter’s pulse has already returned to normal, and there were no irregularities in her heart rate. And her breathing had also returned back to the normal state, smooth and steady. She only looked like she was in a deep sleep right now...

“Old Master... This... Young Madam of yours had sustained severe injuries. With that sort of injury, there is no way to salvage the situation, but I believe you used many divine treasures to create an environment that was similar to the ‘natal’ state, helping her secure the last bit of life that lasted till now. Although she has regained her life force because of my life blood essence, but because she has been asleep for too long, be it her spiritual, mental or physical state, she is in the most primordial state. Waking her suddenly will definitely put an enormous strain on her mind and body, if she is unable to take it, it will definitely cause irreversible damages...”

Lord Holy Tree said indignantly, “So she needs Old Master you to help her recuperate for some time. As long as she wakes up naturally from this deep slumber, all sorts of negative side effects will not exist...”

Lord Holy Tree was really aggrieved. He really was thinking for this sleeping beauty this time. To someone who was in a deep sleep for a few months, no matter how much effort the person taking care of her had put in, no matter what sort of environment they had arranged for her to recuperate in, it could not compare to her feeding herself to her fill!

Furthermore, she was someone who was recovering from such a severe injury, practically on the verge of dying! Feeding her a little bit of soup and water daily was already considered good enough... If she was really woken up suddenly, her five viscera and six bowels or basic bodily functions would not be able to take this strain! This was a process that needed to take place gradually...

Of course, the reason why Lord Holy Tree had made this arrangement was also out of consideration for himself. If this sleeping beauty’s body could not take the strain upon being woken up... Then he would not be falling short of turning into ashes...

So Lord Holy Tree really had no other choice.

“Oh. What you said makes sense... I understand it.” Jun Mo Xie naturally understood these logic. But he was confused due to his concern earlier, so it was unavoidable.

Young Master Jun may not be good guy and was definitely twisted and unreasonable most of the time, but he was still reasonable when it was time to be reasonable!

“Much thanks, much thanks... Thank you for your understanding...” Lord Holy Tree’s tears were brimming from his eyes. To get the approval from this robber right in front of him was truly too difficult...

“En. You have done very well in handling this matter. I’m very pleased. I will give you what I promised you. But I still have a question that I hope you will answer honestly. This Seven Colored Holy Fruit... Shouldn’t only bear as little as two bunches per five hundred years, right?” Jun Mo Xie asked, frowning as he looked at him.

Lord Holy Tree jolted. Then, it begin to perspire like a waterfall... This secret... How did he find out? Is he trying to trick me? Could he?

Then, taking another look at Jun Mo Xie’s confident expression, Lord Holy Tree ultimately did not dare to tell any lies. He decided to tell the truth and spill everything. “Yes, Old Master, you are truly sensitive to the finest details... But... Old Master, I have no choice but to do that, I also want to live, ah...”

Live?

Jun Mo Xie looked at Lord Holy Tree, a doubtful look in his eyes. What does the quantity of fruits bore... have to do with you living?

“Old Master... Everyone in the world will go through the four stages of life; this is something that is completely common and usual. In fact, all the living things also fall within these constraints!”

Lord Holy Tree said bitterly. “Take us trees for example. Although we live longer than humans, but we are also restrained by this fate. No matter what sort of spiritual seeds, king of the trees, even if I can live for ten thousand years, or even twenty thousand years, ultimately, there will be a day when I run out of life force, and I’ll eventually have to die...”

This was a fact; there were really not many living things that could escape from this fate. Jun Mo Xie nodded in agreement, indicating for him to continue speaking.

“As to the process for trees, I believe Old Master will definitely understand it, so I shall get straight to the point. Hoping to get the Seven Colored Holy Fruit, it’ll have to go through bearing flowers before forming fruits, and this is a process that is a huge strain! To us, it is like you humans bearing children... This is something that will hurt our vitality... Every Seven Colored Holy Fruit contains varying amount of life’s essence... And they are my savings for five hundred years, one of the basic requirements for bearing the Holy Fruit...

“If all these life’s essences are put into the growth of the fruits... then the entire process is the equivalent of using five hundred years of our longevity. Besides from growing a thicker body, and taller, there is essentially no benefit to us!”

Lord Holy Tree sighed a couple of times. “To be honest, us Rainbow Holy Tree, those who are under five thousand years, can bear seven bunches of fruit each time! And trees who are five thousand to ten thousand in age will be able to produce fourteen. It will increase by a fold for every five thousand years of age... But if it is maintained at this rate, then our longest lifespan will not exceed thirty thousand years before we completely vanish in this world...”

Chapter 1063: Nine Nether First Young Master’s Tree?

“Old Master... Since I had developed a conscious, I am also a living spirit in this world ah... I also wish to live for a few more years... Even though there is not much meaning living, but being alive is still living...”

Lord Holy Tree had a bleak and forlorn expression...

“So, after I understood this, I began to slowly reduce the quantity of Holy Fruits, until the current two bunches... The remaining bunches were refined into life blood essence to prolong my longevity... Then all gathered here... In preparation when my life gradually comes to an end, I can water myself in it and have that brief moment of breath when I’m at death’s door... But now, all my thousands of years of savings have turned into nothing and went to someone else...”

Lord Holy Tree pointed at that life blood essence pond bottom, which was almost visible. He really felt like crying... All these were the stocks I had been saving for thousands of years ah... Because of the arrival of you, this pestilence, I've used up ninety percent of it within such a short time...

"En... I see... Then you cannot be blamed for this." Jun Mo Xie said magnanimously. Whether Misty Illusory Manor got more or less was not his business... And now, he knew that the Rainbow Holy Tree in his Hongjun Pagoda was growing normally...

That was enough. Considering the matter on a more shameless level, all the Holy Tree's life blood essence that had been saved and stashed away by Lord Holy Tree for thousands of years was almost practically used up to save Green Hunter for him. It seemed that he was the one who had taken advantage of the Misty Illusory Manor!

If this fellow had been honestly bearing fruits normally... Then Green Hunter would really be done for this time... Thank goodness this tree played dirty ah...

"Now there is no big issue anymore. Let's chat. How did you come here? Where were you originally from?" Jun Mo Xie was really interested about what sort of place it was to be able to produce this sort of miraculous tree. Could it be... another unique space?

"That... Back then... I had only just begun to develop a conscious. I still did not dare to speak, or even make any noise..." A gloomy look took over Lord Holy Tree's face. "That day, a black-robed man suddenly appeared in my hometown... He walked around the forest, for some reason, he picked me... I also don't know where is my hometown..."

"But afterward, I had learnt that that black-robed man had a mighty reputation, called the 'Nine Nether First Young Master'!" Lord Holy Tree let out a sigh. "He did not care whether I agreed or not, simply uprooting me in a single grab without saying a single thing..."

"Uprooted you in a single grab... How big were you then?" Jun Mo Xie was a little shocked. This Holy Tree had already developed a consciousness... A tree with a consciousness... could it develop it in a short time? It would take at least two thousand years?"

A tree that had grown for two thousand years... Uprooting it in a single grab... so easily?

Jun Mo Xie pretended not to hear the part Lord Holy Tree mentioned the Nine Nether First Young Master not seeking his opinion. Which person in this world would ask a tree 'Do you agree? when trying to replant a tree.

If there was, it was either a retard or a moron. And the Nine Nether First Young Master didn't seem like either of the two...

"I was definitely thinner than now, and I was much skinnier... About eight people huddled together? That sort of thickness..." Lord Holy Tree said, a little embarrassed.

"Ah? A tree that is about the thickness of eight people huddled together... One person, uprooted it with a single hand? Are you for real?" Young Master Jun's eyes were completely widened. What sort of strength is that ah? This is a little too exaggerated?

"Of course it's real... he only used a single hand back then..." Lord Holy Tree let out a long sigh. "Because Lord First Young Master noticed that I grew the most upright, so he chose me from one look..."

"Um..." Jun Mo Xie rolled his eyes, speechless. What sort of selection method is this, it's too unconventional...

"Then I arrived here and put down my roots. The Nine Nether First Young Master had even personally gave me a name..." Lord Holy Tree said. "He said, you stand so straight, as if you are punished to stand still for being disobedient... From today onwards, you shall be called a tree that is punished to stand still..."

"A tree that is punished to stand still, it is really a creative name ah..." The corners of Jun Mo Xie's mouth twitched. This Nine Nether First Young Master was still a little humorous... Which tree in this world didn't stand? Were they all punished to stand still?

"Actually, I did not commit any offense; I had never commit any crimes before... So naturally I am not punished to stand still..." Lord Holy Tree explained innocently. "I actually also wish to lie down... But I can't lie down ah..."

“You actually wish to lie down? Should I get you a bed ah...” The corner of Jun Mo Xie’s lips twitched again.

He was really utterly defeated... A tree also wished to lie down...

“Alright, let’s not waste any more time, I’m in a rush... The ‘power that grows all wood’ that you wish for... Should I give it to you, so you can slowly digest it, or should I directly digest it for you?” Jun Mo Xie has completely lost interest in chatting with this ‘innocent’ tree.

Lord Holy Tree clearly hesitated for a while, as if he couldn’t make up his mind on which to pick. But he still could not conceal the happiness in his eyes.

He really did not expect that someone this unreasonable would keep his promises... He was so happy he almost laughed out loud.

“If I helped you digest... You will be able to see the benefits quickly... If you are to slowly absorb it bit by bit, maybe it will be able to help you resolve a crisis when needed...”

Jun Mo Xie gave a clear explanation. “These two proposals have their own benefits. I have already given you the suggestions, as to which choice to make, it is up to you to decide.”

Lord Holy Tree considered for a long time before finally gritting his teeth and saying, “I... I better choose to slowly digest it myself...” To him, it was no longer a pressing matter for increasing his growth... Because he no longer had large amounts of life blood essence to support himself, so that goal he had previously has already gone up in smoke... Perhaps everything needed to restart from the beginning...

But Young Master Jun had mentioned that the second proposal can help him ‘resolve’ a huge crisis for him, which caused him to waver... The wearing down of nature and whittling away by time, or even, the terrifying lightning tribulation when he developed a human form...

So Lord Holy Tree immediately chose the second proposal. Giving himself control over the pace, digesting it slowly like this to achieve the most perfect effects. This was more beneficial in the long run.

Slowly, Jun Mo Xie continued to increase the size of this ball of light to bigger than a soccer ball before coming to a stop. Then, he used the Art of Unlocking Heaven’s Fortune to coat this green ball with a milky white protective layer...

“When you want to use the Power of Wood, you only need to use a thin root to pierce through this layer and use as much as you wish. If you do not intend to use it all, then you can use spiritual qi to seal up this opening. If you carefully store it, it should be able to remain without any expiry.”

The gains from today were not small. Jun Mo Xie naturally would not be petty. This tree may be a little cowardly, but... he was very honest. And did not play any tricks. Since he treated Jun Mo Xie in a sincere manner, Jun Mo Xie naturally would not be stingy.

“Thank you! Thank you!... I really thank you this time!” Lord Holy Tree kept that ball of green light as if it were a treasure, agitated tears filling his eyes... He had never expected the other party to give so himself so much ‘power to grow all wood’ of his own accord...

This one was much bigger than the one he had used previously to tempt him earlier. And it was also much purer, so its effects naturally were greater! This had surpassed his expectations. He originally did not harbor any hopes that the other party would keep to his promise and give him the ‘power to grow all wood’. It would be good enough if he didn’t kill him...

With this amount of Power to Grow All Wood, if he used it appropriately, he could definitely replenish all that life blood essence in a short period of time. And there was also another great benefit: that layer of Spiritual Qi surrounding the Power to Grow all Wood was a magical type of energy that the Holy Tree had never seen before. Although it was not in large quantity, it was enough to open a new door for him...

In fact, in this world, only Mei Xue Yan had the opportunity to obtain this sort of Spirit Energy aside from Young Master Jun. To the Holy Tree, although he has suffered great losses today, but the opportunity today had unimaginable impacts in his future!

But this fellow was too honest, to say that 'I really thank you this time', which meant he was saying that all the thanks he had given previously were all fake...

Jun Mo Xie chuckled. He did not take it to heart. With his behavior earlier, if the other party really thanked him sincerely, then that person would really be a moron or an idiot. Young Master Jun carefully kept Green Hunter's body back into the Hongjun Pagoda and waved his hand, bidding farewell. Right now, he had more or less set his heart on speeding home now...

After gaining a great advantage, Lord Holy Tree reluctantly sent Jun Mo Xie to the door, suddenly tugging on his sleeves. He said, "Um... Old Master... Could you help me pass a message to these juniors of the Misty Illusory Manor?"

"What is it?" Jun Mo Xie turned around to look at him.

"Tell them: stop sending people to test some compatibility... Sending a person every hundred years, I'm about to lose it!" Lord Holy Tree said, as if he were really going to break down. "If they are not lacking the manpower, just let them send someone who can live for a longer time... That's fine too..."

"Oh?"

"I may just be a tree that is punished to stand still... but I also have human emotions and feelings... And they change a person every two, three hundred years... I had just gotten familiar with the previous person; we had yet to understand each other better, then they're changed away... This sort of feeling... is too unbearable..."

Lord Holy Tree was really at a loss. "A feeling like this was like... watching a friend leaving for a far away place suddenly, never to return... it was also like what you humans say, about the father watching his progeny die before himself... This sort of repeated torment... I really can no longer take it..."

Chapter 1064: Time to Leave...

Jun Mo Xie came to a sudden realization, and a sincere feeling of pity rose in his heart. The Holy Tree was the only living creature with a conscious in this space. The people from the Misty Illusory Manor that arrived all treat the Holy Tree respectfully, worshipping him like a God, and that was the most upsetting period of time for the Holy Tree for losing his old friend...

Finally getting familiar after a few hundred years, that person was at the end of his lifespan, with not much longer to live...

Something like this, if a human were to bear this mental torture... He'd have gone insane a long time ago...

Looks like this tree has already endured almost ten thousand years of this, at least fifty times of this similar painful experience...

No wonder his emotions were so unstable right now, as if he were going through menopause... It couldn't be helped... It was like a bride who had married fifty husbands but every all of them died halfway...

"I will help you relay the message." Jun Mo Xie nodded his head sincerely.

"Many thanks."

With a whoosh, Jun Mo Xie was sent flying out. Behind him, the branches of the Rainbow Holy Tree curled into a ball, its leaves rustling, its thick trunk was also vaguely shaking...

Although they did not spend a long time together, but the exhilarating feeling of opposing each other with equal harshness earlier was a first in Lord Holy Tree's entire life... Especially when he received a great benefit from Jun Mo Xie at the end... Of course, he had also forked out a lot, but Lord Holy Tree's naive and innocent child-like emotions were unable to accept Young Master Jun's departure...

The rustling of the branches and leaves were clearly his sobs...

Then there was a strong gust of wind and the entire towering figure of the Rainbow Holy Tree suddenly vanished completely...

“Jun Ye!”

From afar, Miao Xiao Miao’s elated cries could be heard. She came dashing over, quickly hugging Jun Mo Xie with such great force that they were practically about to merge into one...

Miao Xiao Miao was laughing happily when her tears suddenly begin to fall. Pressing herself into Jun Mo Xie’s chest, she began to sob. The tears instantly left a soaking wet patch on Jun Mo Xie’s clothes...

These were not only tears of fear that she had held back. It was also the tears of her delight and her happiness...

Although Jun Mo Xie was only gone for half a day, but during this short period of time, to Miao Xiao Miao, it was as if a few centuries... Miao Xiao Miao almost gave up all hope a couple of times. The loneliness of this wait was extremely tormenting to a young, teenage girl. If it was not for her firm belief that Jun Mo Xie would definitely return, Miao Xiao Miao may have broken down a long time ago...

Now, Jun Mo Xie had managed to return without a single scratch on him. How could she not be overjoyed at the turn of events...

“Don’t worry... I am fine, I’ve never been better.” Jun Mo Xie gently patted her back and comforted her gently.

From far away, Miao Huan Yu silently watched this couple that was in a tight embrace, feeling extremely heartened... Although the Holy Tree still did not pick a successor... but it was a father’s greatest joy to know that his daughter was in good hands...

Compared to this, nothing else was important!

The skies began to darken and it was time to leave the Spiritual Herbal Gardens. The three of them slowly walked to the entrance. Miao Jing Yun and the rest were already waiting there. Upon seeing the three of them, he excitedly began to ask about the matter of the next successor.

Miao Huan Yu sighed and told them all about it. Everyone was disappointed.

But Jun Mo Xie stepped out and mentioned the Holy Tree's request. Everyone fell into deep thoughts.

"... Even for us humans with short lifespans, we are unable to easily accept the parting of life and death, what more, a tree that has a conscious and long life? I believe this is undoubtedly an extreme torture to him, and besides, it is a painful experience that repeats itself again and again... You all are only concerned about the benefits of the Misty Illusory Manor, but have never considered for the Holy Tree's feelings... This is an unwise move."

Jun Mo Xie was very direct and unreasonable in his words. But this speech left everyone present silent.

Jun Mo Xie naturally would not convey the words as they were originally. He had slightly altered it too: The Holy Tree wishes that the current Lord of the Spiritual Herbal Gardens, Miao Huan Yu, can continue to remain, and if possible, for a long time...

In this way, the stability of the strength and position of the Miao Family was an irrefutable matter... Which was equivalent to Jun Mo Xie doing a huge favor for the Miao Family again...

"Selecting a person to take over is a troublesome matter; we had indeed thought of letting someone continue doing this job... but it's a pity, Huan Yu's physique is truly too weak. He is only past the level of a Spirit Xuan; even if he wished to do it for a long time, how long could he keep at it?" Miao Jing Yun furrowed his brows and said. "If it were not because of this, why would we let the Holy Tree select a compatible and suitable person within such a short span of time..."

"Lord Holy Tree naturally had made considerations for this aspect. He let me bring something out to pass to Uncle Miao." Jun Mo Xie gritted his teeth. Take it as for Miao Xiao Miao's sake, he absolutely mustn't see the power of the Miao Miao Family decline..."

Jun Mo Xie reached into his robes, as if he was trying to retrieve something. In fact, he had plucked a bunch of the Seven Colored Holy Fruit from the Hongjun Pagoda, and at the same time, converted three Heaven Extremes Pill into the purest form of Spiritual Qi and infused it into the flesh of the fruit. Then he also cut a small portion of the Exquisite Lotus and injected it in too, using the Power of Wood to fuse it all...

When he brought his hand out again, there were a bunch of Seven Colored Holy Fruit in his hands... All of them were ripened to the size of a peach, much bigger than those Seven Colored Holy Fruit that the Misty Illusory Manor was collecting. It was obvious that they were not like any other ordinary fruit!

“This is what Lord Holy Tree asked me to deliver. It is a bunch of divine grade Seven Colored Holy Fruit that can only be cultivated every 5000 years! After consuming this fruit, it will allow Uncle Miao to gain a thousand years of strength and longevity with no side effects...”

A thousand years of strength and longevity... It seemed that Jun Mo Xie had already taken down a peg... Just the Seven Colored Holy Fruit was already bigger than the bunch the Misty Illusory Manor had given Young Master Jun. And now, it was infused with the Exquisite Lotus. These two divine treasures were grown in the Hongjun Pagoda, so they were superior to the original ones by multiple folds. Just the combined effects of these two items could at the very least, increase one’s strength and longevity by a thousand years...

And these were merely the effects of the Holy Fruit and the Exquisite Lotus. The prolonged lifespan that came with advancement in the Xuan cultivation had yet to be included in the calculations...

Besides, there was still those three Heaven Extremes Pill. That was 180 years worth of purest Xuan Qi. It was sufficient to make Miao Huan Yu go straight to the peak levels of a Spirit Xuan. The combined effects of the two spiritual fruits was enough to make him rush straight through into the realm of a fourth level Venerable! And even with a chance of breaking through the Saint realm!

If everything went smoothly, the original longevity of Miao Huan Yu would be lengthened by almost a thousand years because of his Xuan cultivation. Coupled with the additional thousand years from the Holy Fruit... That was almost two thousand years worth of lifespan!

Everyone’s jaws dropped!

Such a heaven defying thing existed in this world!

The breathing of all the old men present became heavier instantly.

"I repeat again. This is what Lord Holy Tree specially designated for Uncle Miao!" Jun Mo Xie frowned. This bunch of old fogies are looking a little off ah, they wouldn't...

"Nonsense. Who doesn't know that it's for Huan Yu! We are all feeling agitated only! Are we really able to snatch it? Putting it in a bad way, even if we wish to snatch it, are you capable of holding us back? Is there a need for you to emphasize that Lord Holy Tree had specifically given it to your father-in-law?" A Venerable yelled, glaring as his nostrils flared angrily.

All the other old men also laughed embarrassed. They may make it sound pleasant, but they were all tempted. Afterall, it was a divine treasure that was capable of increasing one's strength and longevity by a thousand years. But upon hearing that this was what Holy Tree had specifically designated for the Lord of the Spiritual Herbal Gardens, none of them dared to snatch for it even if they had the guts...

This was a divine grade Seven Colored Holy Fruit that was produced every 5000 years ah... Who dared to snatch it? If this incurred the rage of the Lord Holy Tree... And he went on strike because of this, what do they do? Then wasn't the Spiritual Herbal Gardens done for?

Besides, the Holy Tree had handed this sort of heavenly treasure to Mo Jun Ye. Mo Jun Ye completely had the opportunity to hoard it for himself... But he didn't! What sort of broad-mindedness was this!

If they had developed other thoughts...

Wouldn't that make them worse than a beast? Not even comparable to a mere junior?

Miao Jing Yun's face was completely red, even his white beard was trembling... Amongst all those who are present here, he was the most delighted. His joy even surpassed that of Miao Huan Yu himself. After all, Miao Huan Yu is his son, and the son and father's hearts were linked. Miao Jing Yun's greatest concern had always been his son's health; today, this problem was solved just like this! Two thousand years, ah... That is sufficient...

Miao Xiao Miao was even more elated, laughing and skipping about excitedly. Tugging on her father's hands to spin around, like an innocent young girl. She did not know how else to express and vent the joy in her heart...

"Oh right, Lord Holy Tree also mentioned: the advancement from the effects of this divine grade Holy Fruit have no side effects on the body, but as the effects are too defiant of the natural order, they will definitely attract a Heavenly Tribulation. It would be best if you can find a place to temporarily hide from the Heavenly Tribulation first. Wait until the medicinal effects have been completely digested before coming out to go through the tribulations. That way, it can ensure that there will be no losses..." Jun Mo Xie reminded with a smile. The previous matter with Miao Xiao Miao mustn't have a repeat of itself.

"Right! Right! As expected, Lord Holy Tree is most considerate in his thoughts. I will have a way for this matter, all is taken care of! Hahaha!... Today is a joyous occasion..." Miao Jing Yun laughed happily, stroking his beard confidently and gleefully.

This sort of repulsive expression of arrogance and confidence made all the other experts who came in feeling extremely sour internally. What joyous occasion... It is a joyous occasion for your Miao Family... We didn't even get any gains, and not only did we not get it this time, it's likely that there is no hope for us for the next thousands of years... We can only drool... Is this a great joy? More like a great tragedy...

Miao Jing Yun personally kept the seven Holy Fruits away. Miao Dao and Miao Jian followed after him all the way, hurrying back to the Misty Illusory Manor through the passage that connected the Spiritual Herbal Gardens and the Misty Illusory Manor...

Delays may bring more unexpected changes or troubles. The best option now was to immediately let Miao Huan Yu go to where Old Ancestor Miao Qing Cheng was the moment they got back. Then let him completely digest the medicinal effects of the Seven Colored Holy Fruit... With the Old Ancestor around, allowing Miao Huan Yu to advance until he can safely face the Heavenly Tribulation... Wasn't that a simple feat?

In the midst of the joyous mood, Jun Mo Xie also mentioned his intentions to return to his hometown. The reason was simple but clear: he still had kin outside. If he intended to stay in the Misty Illusory Manor for a long time, he would ultimately have to bring them in...

Miao Huan Yu agreed quickly this time, giving a simple order of making it a quick trip, before disappearing... After all, the top priority right now was to let Miao Huan Yu successfully advance...

Chapter 1065: Opening of the Evil Monarch's Faction!

Just as he was about to leave the Misty Illusory Manor, Jun Mo Xie suddenly remembered something: the Nine Nether Fourteenth Young Master's Divine Tune!

This was a matter that fellow had once repeatedly reminded me to do. I had completely forgotten about it...

If I go out, and that fellow asks me about it, it would not be easy to answer...

There's no other way, I'll try to ask around and find out some news about it...

Wait... Jun Mo Xie aborted the idea. If I open my mouth and ask about it... Then if this things goes missing in the future, they'll definitely suspect me...

That Divine Tune of the Nine Nether Fourteenth Young Master was made from the Nine Nether Frost Blades... Which meant that... there would be the eerie aura from the Nine Nethers on it...

Taking out a Nine Nether Frost Blade from the Hongjun Pagoda, and confirming its aura, Jun Mo Xie's spiritual sense began to silently spread out.

Slowly hovering in the skies of the entire Misty Illusory Manor, actually sensing for that unique aura of the Nine Nethers. In a place that was full of holy aura like the Misty Illusory Manor, where the air was extremely clean and pure, this sort of nefarious aura should be rather easy to find...

And Jun Mo Xie's target was mostly focused on the Main Palace of the Misty Illusory Manor. After a thorough search, he finally discovered that there was a peculiar object that was sealed within the secret chamber of the Main Palace...

And the aura it gave off was the same as the Nine Nether Frost Blade...

Jun Mo Xie heaved a sigh of relief. The secret chamber of the Main Palace would definitely have tight security. But this was the case for most people. But for Jun Mo Xie, no matter how tight the security was, it was ineffective against him...

“Jun... Are you going to fetch Big Sister back this time?” Miao Xiao Miao was visibly anxious, rubbing the hem of her shirt as she hung her head low. “Will Big Sister be unwilling to come? If she comes... and finds out that you and I... Will she be angry at you?”

“She wouldn’t. She has good temper and is very gentle...” Jun Mo Xie comforted, laughing bitterly in his head. Those few ladies at home... none of them should be described with the words ‘gentle’... More like a bunch of tigress or vinegar jars... Although I have many gains this time, but the troublesome wave of jealousy is inevitable...

“Jun, don’t worry, I will definitely do my part and serve Big Sister properly... If she doesn’t accept me... Then I’ll kneel and beg her until she is willing to accept me...” Miao Xiao Miao garnered her courage and looked at Jun Mo Xie. “Jun... If Big Sister is unwilling to accept me... Don’t worry about me... And don’t try to speak up for me; let me handle this matter... Alright?”

Jun Mo Xie looked at her, feeling extremely perplexed. It looked like this silly lass imagined about his other wife whenever she had the free time. Imagining the situations she had to face in the future; how they were going to get along in the future, and even in the event that the other party was hostile towards her, how she would resolve it. And the starting and ending point of all these was all because of one reason and outcome: for himself! Because she loved him!

When faced with a woman that loved himself so deeply, a woman that moves him, Jun Mo Xie truly felt deeply moved. He suddenly asked. “Miao Miao... If I leave Misty Illusory Manor, never to return... Would you be willing to live in the outside world with me?”

“Never to return? How can that be?!” Miao Xiao Miao was shocked upon hearing these words. Then she looked at him for a while, her eyes wide opened, before silently saying. “I am yours... No matter where you are, I will follow, be it the end of the world, in heaven or hell, wherever you go, I’ll follow...” Miao Xiao Miao’s voice may be soft, but her resolve and determination were obvious!

Jun Mo Xie let out a low sigh, pulling her into his embrace as he muttered, “My love doesn’t abandon me, and I will not abandon my love!”

“My love doesn’t abandon me... I will not abandon my love...” Miao Xiao Miao’s eyes watered as she leaned against Jun Mo Xie’s chest as she mumbled. “Till the ends of the world, Heaven or Hell, life after life... Never to abandon or leave, following through life and death...”

Her petite body was trembling, but in every sentence, every word was enunciated extremely clearly... and exceptionally... would... as if she were using her heart and soul and everything to make this regretless vow that will never change, before the vast heaven and earth...

On that night, Miao Xiao Miao abandoned all her duties, taking the initiative to pull Jun Mo Xie into her chambers, tearfully joining her body with Jun Mo Xie as one, as if she were trying to melt herself into his body so that he could bring her along...

A woman’s instincts were exceptionally accurate. Whether Jun Mo Xie returned to the Misty Illusory Manor after today, the Great Prodigy Mo with the Free and Natural Physique, ‘Mo Jun Ye’, was destined to never appear in the world again!

Jun Mo Xie’s objectives for this trip had been accomplished, and he had significant gains from it. But he had ultimately been away from home for too long, especially when there was not much time left from the War for Seizing the Heavens. He truly wished to rush straight home. But right now, his heart was painfully heavy... Xiao Miao... Miao Miao... My woman, what should I do the next time we meet? What should you do? Mo Jun Ye is Jun Mo Xie, but Jun Mo Xie is not Mo Jun Ye!

The second day, before dawn broke, Jun Mo Xie had already gotten up. He left behind another bunch of Seven Colored Holy Fruit, and especially left a note. This bunch... was the top grade Seven Colored Holy Fruit that the Holy Tree had gifted Madam Miao. The effects were weaker than the one given to Miao Huan Yu, but it still required 2000 years to grow. This Seven Colored Holy Fruit could increase the longevity of the person eating it by a 1000 years, but did not have the effect of increasing their strength. Precisely because of this, even someone who does not have any cultivation foundations can safely consume it... This Seven Colored Holy Fruit may only have one effect, but it had much lesser restrictions, so it would easily tempt others to try and steal it. As there were many people present, he did not bring it out back then...

Then, Young Master Jun gently walked over the bed and landed a gentle kiss on Miao Xiao Miao’s face...

Before finally turning away to leave...

When Jun Mo Xie was talking down from Miao Xiao Miao's chamber, he clearly heard the discreet sound of two drops of tears landing on the pillow... Since she knew that she was about to part from her beloved, how could Miao Xiao Miao really remain asleep?

But she was unwilling to do anything that would affect her lover's decision... If he wished to go, then let him go with a peace of mind. After he left this place, he would belong to another woman, who was also bitterly waiting for him, a woman who also loved him deeply... I must not be so selfish to monopolize him and not let him go...

But the gripping pain in her heart had caused this wise, strong Princess of Misty Illusory Manor to bite tightly on her handkerchief...

Tears flowing down her face...

Jun... Come back soon... I'll wait for you!

I'll wait for you forever!

This heart will not change, and there will be no regrets!

When Cao Guo Feng and the other six Saint Emperors woke up in the morning, the seven of them discovered that they had gained 180 years worth of Xuan Qi out of nowhere!

This shocking change had practically pushed all these seven Saint Emperors to the level of a Saint Venerable! Especially Cao Guo Feng, who was the strongest amongst the seven—he went straight to the peak of a first level Saint Venerable...

This peculiar change left these seven involved parties baffled! This... was too bizarre? It had only been a night. And to be more exact, it was only the duration of a night of sleep. They had already breakthrough to Saint Venerable? And all seven of them brothers broke through together. Could another miracle happen in this Courtyard again...

They had originally intended to tail Jun Mo Xie after he went out, to protect him secretly. But after they had broken through, they were bound to face the lightning tribulations that came with it. So they had to give up their original plans and get through the tribulation safely first... It was not too late to go after that...

Saint Emperor Cao and the six other Saint Emperors went through the tribulations together, becoming an eternal, lasting legend in the Misty Illusory Manor!

What Jun Mo Xie didn't know was that the moment he stepped out of the Misty Illusory Manor, someone delivered an invitation letter into the headquarters of the Misty Illusory Manor.

Right now, that invitation letter was placed on the desk of the Misty Illusory Manor's Manor Lord, Miao Jing Yun's table.

This invitation letter was completely made from gold! On it, there were writings that were clearly carved by hand! The construction cost of this invitation letter alone was considerable!

And it was said that almost ten thousand copies of this invitation letter were sent out...

The words on it were not big, but they were bossy and domineering and insufferably arrogant!

And the contents inside were even more haughty—

“Fifteenth of June. The dragon amongst clouds, tiger amongst the winds; looking down at everything from high up with an indisputable dignity, Evil Monarch! Sincerely sending this invite, specially inviting the Misty Illusory Manor as my guest for the opening ceremony of my faction! Evil Monarch, Jun Mo Xie!”

Miao Jing Yun furrowed his brows deeply.

The Evil Monarch opening his faction meant that there was going to be another superpower that was above the secular powers asides from three Holy Lands and the Misty Illusory Manor! And this force was one that no one could ignore!

It was enough to affect the entire world!

It broke the balance of the four factions in the world that had existed throughout time!

This Evil Monarch Jun Mo Xie was truly outrageous and bold!

“This lad surnamed Jun is a little too haughty. Forget that he had been showing off his military strength and riding roughshod over people in the Xuan Xuan Continent. Now he is trying to open his own faction, and even sent an invitation letter to us, the Misty Illusory Manor? He truly doesn’t know the limits of his own strength!”

Miao Dao had an exceptionally bad expression on his face. “Who did he think he, Jun Mo Xie, is?! We, Misty Illusory Manor, are an existence that rules above Xuan Xuan Continent. What is he taking us for? We must go just because he has sent an invitation letter?! What a joke!”

Miao Jian was also furious. This little Evil Monarch who had just started to make a name for himself may have some strength and luck and a certain amount of forces. It was not uncommon for him to be dominating the secular world. But he actually was so bold to think of setting up his own faction and rule alongside with the originally few peak superpowers. This was a little overestimating his own capabilities. And to even send Misty Illusory Manor an invite. And wording was so distasteful... It truly was...

“According to the calender of Xuan Xuan Continent, what day is it today?” Miao Jing Yun slowly asked, still in deep thoughts.

“The third day of June!” Miao Dao replied affirmatively. “There is still three months’ time from the War for Seizing the Heavens on the third day of September!”

Although the Misty Illusory Manor had never been involved in the War for Seizing the Heavens, but they were extremely clear of the timing!

“Manor Lord, could it be that you mean that... we are going?” Miao Jian looked at Miao Jing Yun with an incredulous look.

Chapter 1066: Miao Jing Yun’s Suspicion!

“From the looks of it, we have no choice but to go!” Miao Jing Yun sighed and shook his head. “The purpose of this is naturally not because of that Evil Monarch’s so-called power and influence, but.. something else!”

He paused for a moment and continued. “That Evil Monarch had many conflicts with the three Holy Lands in the past, and their relationship is like fire and water, completely incompatible. Now that his wings have grown strong, he’s starting a sect in such a grand and showy manner... this move may seem arrogant, but I reckon it’s something that has been decided only after much consideration... Because, the War for Seizing the Heavens is about to begin! At such a time, the three Holy Lands would surely not dare to continue fighting against the Evil Monarch and will stop everything to prepare for the war. Only after repelling the outside threat can one deal with internal battles!

“One has to admit that this Jun brat chose a very good time for this!” Miao Jing Yun said with a faint smile. “So right now, no matter how much grandeur this Evil Monarch stirs up right now, the three Holy Lands would not dare to move any troops! Even if there was an exceedingly urgent problem, it would have to wait until after the War for Seizing the Heavens! That’s why this Evil Monarch Jun Mo Xie chose to establish his faction at this time! One could say that the timing was judged with complete perfection!

“Apart from this timing, if he stuck his head out at any other time, he would definitely receive the joint attack of the entire three Holy Lands! In fact, the Heaven Saint Palace might even interfere as well! After all, the effect of a new superpower in the Xuan Xuan Continent is a huge threat towards the original delicate power balance! This is not something that the peak powers would be willing to see! So although

I don't know what the exact situation is on the Evil Monarch's side in terms of cultivation strength, but their ability to fish in troubled waters is undoubtedly unrivalled in the world!

"Now that the Evil Monarch has started his own faction, the three Holy Lands will definitely send someone over as well! Because with the current strength of the three Holy Lands, they are definitely unable to deal with the War for Seizing the Heavens on their own. Therefore, they must contact Jun Mo Xie and ask him to send out his forces for the War for Seizing the Heavens! As for us, the reason we have to attend as well is because there's a need for us to understand the current power structure of the Xuan Xuan Continent, as well as the general strength of both sides! Though we cannot decide which faction to side with, staying neutral in the middle will only offend both sides, and the loss will be greater for us..."

Miao Jing Yun continued. "Based on the current situation alone, this matter may be an excellent time for the Evil Monarch. But to us, it's also a great chance to make a fortune! Because our Misty Illusory Manor is now in a position where we haven't decided who to side with... but before we make an official choice, we are an entity that both sides would not dare to offend. I believe that the two sides will definitely use all methods to try to pull us over. That will be an opportunity for us to make use of... Thus, this trip is one where we're going to gain lots of benefits; why wouldn't we go?"

With that explanation, Miao Dao and Miao Jian widened their eyes with realization. Although their cultivations were strong, they were not familiar with politics, so these kinds of things were difficult for them to see...

"There's another matter. I've been having a very strange feeling in my heart these past few days... Has Mo Jun Ye left already?" Miao Jing Yun suddenly shifted the topic to Mo Jun Ye halfway through his words.

"Yes, he left the Misty Illusory Manor early this morning." Miao Jian said.

"Hm..." Miao Jing Yun furrowed his brows and thought deeply for a moment. "This matter... will be headed by Sixth Uncle, and the Zhan Family will go as support... if you two want, you can go over and join in the fun as well."

"What fun is there in that... too pointless! Not going!" Miao Dao rejected directly.

“Hm, is there anything fun outside? Grandpa... the Evil Monarch is holding an opening ceremony? I want to take a look as well!” Miao Xiao Miao skipped over and said. After Jun Mo Xie left, Miao Xiao Miao immediately regretted that she hadn’t left with him. With her waiting here like this, when that Elder Sister came later... wouldn’t she blame her for putting on airs...

Truthfully, it was because Miao Xiao Miao already felt an empty feeling in her heart not even four hours after Mo Jun Ye left. She felt as if she’d lost her soul, and her entire body was uncomfortable as hell...

After sitting around uneasily for a long time, Miao Xiao Miao still decided to look for her grandpa and ask him to let her go out to look for Mo Jun Ye... but when she reached the door, she’d heard the news about the Evil Monarch. Seeing her chance, she quickly volunteered...

“You?” The three old fellows furrowed their brows together. With Miao Xiao Miao’s strength as a Second level Venerable, it was naturally sufficient for her to go anywhere in Xuan Xuan Continent. But this lass was overly innocent, and they were afraid that she would get tricked outside...

“Grandpa... let me go please...” Miao Xiao Miao latched herself onto her grandfather’s arm and whined. “I want to go that Jun Mo Xie who is supposedly an even greater genius than Mo Jun Ye... Hmph, I want to see just how formidable he is...”

In Miao Xiao Miao’s heart, Mo Jun Ye was the most outstanding person in the world. But in recent times, the fame of the Evil Monarch Jun Mo Xie, which was supposedly of around the same age as her, had already spread widely in the outside world, as if he were a god.

Before she was with Mo Jun Ye, Miao Xiao Miao did not think much of it at all. It’s none of my business even if he was more formidable! But now, she was completely unresigned to it! I don’t believe that there’s a man that’s more outstanding than my Jun Ye in this world!

If she went out, she could take the chance to let that dog fart Jun Mo Xie suffer a bit! At the same time, she could go and look for Mo Jun Ye. If she could go with him to meet that Elder Sister and display her sincerity... wouldn’t that be better?

“A genius that’s even more formidable than the Mo Jun Ye who has the Free and Natural Physique....” Miao Jing Yun narrowed his eyes as he sunk into deep thoughts. “Who knows if my guess... is right... I hope it’s wrong?”

He thought back to the words that old ancestor Miao Qing Cheng had said when he sent Miao Huan Yu into the underground space yesterday. "Is that kid who came last time.. still in the Misty Illusory Manor?"

Miao Jing Yun had answered promptly. "He's still here, but he requested today to go out, and I've already agreed. If ancestor wants to see him, I can bring him back anytime!"

Miao Qing Cheng shook his head heavily and said, "There's no need to trouble yourself with that. You need to form a good relationship with that kid and never let your guard down. Above all, you must not offend him..." After saying that, the old ancestor continued in a mysterious manner. "If not for him... that child Huan Yu, might not have the chance to come here..."

Although Miao Qing Cheng's voice was light, Miao Jing Yun had clearly heard his words, and he could scarcely believe his ears! Mo Jun Ye... the old ancestor's evaluation of him was actually so high!

Just why was that so?

Could it be that... even the Heaven ranked Seven Colored Holy Fruits that Huan Yu had obtained was something that the Holy Tree had given only because of that kid?

Miao Jing Yun was about to ask again, but Miao Qing Cheng was no longer interested to dwell on the topic... He only said another sentence. "The Misty Illusory Manor's danger is gone..." After that, he was dismissed...

Because of this sentence and Miao Jing Yun's suspicion, he'd sent the Zhan Family out this time for the opening ceremony of the Evil Monarch's faction... If his guess was right, the people from the Zhan Family would likely not return after going out this time...

Since they'd seriously offended Mo Jun Ye before...

Miao Jing Yun didn't dare to say too much and came out quietly...

Just as he reached the door, he happened to hear Miao Qing Cheng asking Miao Huan Yu something. After hearing that Mo Jun Ye had already become Miao Huan Yu's son-in-law, he suddenly roared with laughter saying, "So that's how it is! That's how it is! Hahaha..."

Miao Jing Yun's suspicion grew even heavier as he heard those words... the old ancestor's words seemed to have some meaning within them. But as for what that meaning was, he would have to find that out for himself. The main thing was undoubtedly that Mo Jun Ye!

The news of the investigations that had come in from the outside had truly shocked Miao Jing Yun greatly... The person Mo Jun Ye did not seem to exist in the outside world at all... If there were truly such a person, how could someone with that kind of talent be completely unknown?

Mo Jun Ye's obscurity had already exceeded the realms of a human... this person seemed to have jumped from a stone...

At this time, Miao Jing Yun suddenly had a very bold conjecture. What if the name Mo Jun Ye was fake? And his true identity was someone else? If that's the case, there was only one person who fit that level of talent and age!

Jun Mo Xie!

He'd considered this matter for an entire night!

So when Miao Xiao Miao proposed to go out and take a look, Miao Jing Yun could not help but to think about this again...

It's also good... to let Xiao Miao go and see!

"Alright! Since you want to go out and play so much, you can follow your Sixth Uncle out." Miao Jing Yun said with a faint smile. "The two of you, it looks like you can't avoid this trip... go with Xiao Miao and guard her."

“Grandpa is the best!” Miao Xiao Miao exclaimed with joy as she jumped up and gave Miao Jing Yun a kiss as she dashed away like a gust of wind to prepare...

Miao Dao and Miao Jian widened their eyes with some shock. Their responsibilities were originally to protect the Manor Lord. Although Miao Xiao Miao was the Manor Lord’s favourite, it wasn’t to the point where she would get such treatment.

“Originally, it should be the most suitable for Cao Guo Feng, Bai Qi Feng, and the rest to go. But as they’d only just broken through not long ago, they would most likely need to undergo their tribulation in these few days! There’s no other people I can trust...” Miao Jing Yun said in a low voice.

Miao Dao and Miao Jian looked at each other, not knowing the meaning in those words.

After that, Miao Jing Yun sent a voice transmission directly into their ears and secretly told them a sentence.

“This matter is confidential, and... I haven’t confirmed it as well... The two of you just need to keep this in mind... don’t even tell Xiao Miao or Sixth Uncle!” Miao Jing Yun said in a low voice. “The two of you just need to be aware of the possibility.”

Chapter 1067: Extreme Power!

“Yes!” Miao Dao and Miao Jian exchanged a glance and replied together.

“The Evil Monarch Manor’s opening ceremony is going to be held within the jungle outside Tian Nan City. With your speed, you should be able to reach there in at most five days by riding on our flying Xuan Beasts. It’ll be enough time as long as you set out before the fifth day of the sixth month. You shouldn’t turn up late, but there’s also no need to arrive early.” Miao Jing Yun instructed slowly.

“If that matter is truly verified... how should we proceed?” Miao Dao asked.

“Everything will wait until you return to the Misty Illusory Manor!” Miao Jing Yun said sternly. “Even if you really manage to verify it, you must not act rashly! The ancestor is wise and has great foresight; you must remember to not act rashly at all cost!”

“Yes!” The two replied together.

“Later, the two of you will personally go and inform the Zhan Family and make your own preparations...”

Just at this time, someone rushed in hurriedly and reported, “Manor Lord! Something weird has happened! That personal weapon belonging to the Nine Nether Fourteenth Young Master that had been kept in the secret chamber... has gone missing! The guards on duty had not discovered anything strange, and even the seven layered locks on the doors were completely fine. There aren’t any traces of any forced entry inside as well... but the item is missing, as if it’d just evaporated into thin air...

The messenger had a look of complete horror on his face. Even he himself would not have believed the words that’d just come out of his mouth. This matter was truly too ridiculously strange. But the truth was exactly like that!

“The Nine Nether Fourteenth Young Master’s personal weapon... is missing?” Miao Jing Yun actually didn’t fly into a rage. Instead, he sighed heavily and mumbled something to himself. After that, he raised his head and closed his eyes. A long time later, he said heavily, “Alright, you may go.”

When he opened his eyes again, his pupils that had always been filled with wisdom and confidence, were now wavering with doubt... Could it be that this world was really about to change?

This world could be said to have been peaceful for over 10,000 years now! Ever since the three Holy Lands and the Misty Illusory Manor was established, and with the addition of Tian Fa Forest as the fifth great land, there had never been any major wars!

But right now, this fine balance was going to be broken by force!

The Evil Monarch had, at such a stormy time, suddenly established his own faction! And the Nine Nether Fourteenth Young Master's weapon which had been stowed away carefully for many years, had gone missing...

What kind of omen was all this pointing to?

Today, Mo Jun Ye had left the Misty Illusory Manor!

And today, the Evil Monarch's invitation card had also arrived...

And on the same day, the "Divine Tune" that had been kept in the most secure area of the Misty Illusory Manor, went missing...

As he organized his thoughts, Miao Jing Yun suddenly began to laugh... truly interesting ah... Mo Jun Ye! Such far sightedness, such precise calculations... even if I want to underestimate you... it's impossible ah...

No wonder the old ancestor viewed you so highly! But... this old man will like to see how you answer to my granddaughter in the future! How you will answer to the Miao Family...

The most difficult debt to return in this world is the debt of gratitude. This brat owed so much debt of gratitude this time; I'll like to see how you pay it back!

Miao Jing Yun's guess was basically not wrong. But the only thing was that he had actually wronged Jun Mo Xie... Young Master Jun had only just left the Misty Illusory Manor, and he didn't know about the matter of the 'Evil Monarch Manor opening ceremony'...

Unfortunately, Miao Jing Yun had already pinned the matter onto his head!

"Manor Lord, since Old Sixth is going, why is there a need for the Zhan Family to go as well?" Miao Dao said after a short hesitation. "Even if... we're still giving this Evil Monarch too much face by attending the ceremony with such a great lineup..."

The 'Old Sixth' was actually of the same generation as Miao Dao and Miao Jian, whereas Miao Jing Yun was of a younger generation. Thus, Miao Jing Yun addressed him as "Sixth Uncle" while Miao Dao and Miao Jian directly called him "Old Sixth"...

"No... If my guesses are not wrong... the Zhan Family's party will end rather bloodily..." Miao Jing Yun said with a sly smile. "Dao, Jian, don't you think that the Zhan Family's share of power in the Misty Illusory Manor is a little too much now?"

"Manor Lord is wise." Miao Jian was completely convinced by him this time. The two of them had only known painstaking cultivation and did not have any deep understanding of such sinister measures. However, they could also sense the power of the Zhan Family and their obvious intentions to replace the Miao Jian at the top...

Furthermore, their small actions had become quite frequent...

From the looks of it, Miao Jing Yun had already hardened his heart this time to weaken the Zhan Family...

Compared to the calm in the Misty Illusory Manor, the three Holy Lands's side was so angered that they nearly exploded...

According to the news they received, the Evil Monarch Jun Mo Xie was going to set up a new manor at the edge of Tian Fa Forest and formally announce their positions as a new superpower of the Xuan Xuan Continent in a few days. In practically the same instant, the three Lords of the three Holy Lands all shattered their cups and flipped over their tables!

At the same time, their enraged howls rang out from different places, piercing through the heavens... These big characters that had always behaved loftily and looked down upon the world suddenly felt as if they'd been slapped harshly across their faces!

Too despicable!

Too arrogant!

But right now was the most crucial period right before the War for Seizing the Heavens, and they couldn't afford to start an internal fight. If there was anything that Jun Mo Xie was unhappy with, the latter could easily create troubles for them during the War for Seizing the Heavens... So although the three Holy Lands were all incredibly vexed, they could only act in contrast to their feelings, and go forth to congratulate the Evil Monarch on the establishment of his new faction!

Not only must they go, they have to arrive with great gifts, borne by people of status in their respective Holy Lands, to show their sincerity!

Despite clearly knowing that there was a disgusting fly in their food, they still had to pretend that they didn't see it and eat the food with satisfied smiles as if it was the most delicious food in the world...

To force others to such a level, wasn't that infuriating others to the point where they would vomit blood?

Not to mention the lofty experts of the three Holy Lands who had already been used to pushing the ordinary people of the three Holy Lands around!

But no matter what, with the War for Seizing the Heavens hanging as a sharp knife over their heads, they could only compromise as much as possible! No matter how unwilling they were in their hearts...

The various countries of the world, all the large families of the pugilistic world, all received the invitation letter from the Evil Monarch's faction. Even the powers in the remote Grasslands of the North also received an invitation!

The number of powers that were invited this time could be said to have encompassed the entire world! And every occupation!

Although the content of each invitation letter was the same, they were divided into five different types: Golden Yellow Invitation Letters, White Jade Invitation Letters, Platinum Invitation Letters, Red Copper Invitation Letters, and Black Iron Invitation Letters!

A total of five different colors!

For an invitation letter from the Evil Monarch, it's likely that no one who received it would dare to not attend!

This was a fellow who even dared to challenge the three Holy Lands and still came out ahead! Who would be willing to offend such a person? Receiving an invitation letter and not turning up? Wasn't that the same as saying they were sick of living? Not only must they go, they had to go even if they sold off all their property and bankrupted the family!

Thus, the Golden Yellow Invitation Letters which was the highest tier had become a mark of status in the pugilistic world! It was a form of glory to hold one of those!

Right now, anyone who possessed even a Platinum Invitation Letter would be deemed to be people with some status. As long as a person took one out in public, they would instantly draw many envious gazes!

As for White Jade Invitation Letters... that was an idol level thing. While it was not very rare, there were only very few people who had those.

As for the Red Copper Invitation Letters... they were things that only legendary characters could have...

The invitation letter sent out by the Evil Monarch had practically split the various powers of the world into five segments! It was easy to understand, and very orderly as well!

As the Evil Monarch's invitation was sent out, the wealthiest man in Xuan Xuan, Tang Yuan, and the "God of Wealth" of this world, immediately released a world shaking level announcement to support the Evil Monarch's Manor. And he directly used actions to demonstrate his firm support: Anyone who'd received the Evil Monarch's invitation would have all of their travel expenses including food and lodging taken care of by the Aristocratic Hall! And the time limit will last until they left Tian Nan!

This news truly shocked the entire world!

If all the invitation letters were counted together and the colors added up together, it would at least be in the tens of thousands! All those who received the invitation letters were all at least heroes and rulers of an area, or even kings of an entire country!

If each person brought along ten guards and servants with them, how many people would there be? It wouldn't be much even if the counting began from the hundred thousand mark!

Assuming that each person spent 10 silvers everyday on average, the expenses of a single day would still amount to millions of silvers! And this entire event would last at least 20 days!

Calculating like that, this owner of the Aristocratic Hall would, at the most conservative estimate, need to spend over 300 million silvers! This was an astronomical price no matter who it was!

And Tang Yuan, this God of Wealth, truly did not let down his reputation as the richest man in the world. He did not even furrow his brows at the mention of this terrifying figure, and simply moved his lips and agreed. It was as simple as though he had just let out a fart...

The fatty only felt a relaxed feeling and did not feel the slightest bit of worry!

Right now, gold and silver had become nothing but a bunch of meaningless numbers to Tang Yuan!

The Aristocratic Hall was still the same Aristocratic Hall and did not have anything different. That was because fatty had become lazy... He wasn't willing to run around everywhere like before. Thus, he'd only expanded the original Aristocratic Hall by 10 times! The amount of space it took was not that big, only slightly smaller than the Tian Xiang Imperial Palace..

The only thing was, the Aristocratic Hall still had an underground space which was not inferior to even the Zhan Family's underground space.

Right now, one could say that even if a common copper coin landed in Tang Yuan's hands, he could resell it for a ridiculous price of 10,000 gold if he so wished!

Because the God of Wealth said: that is the value of this coin!

Then, that would be its value!

It would have value even if it was worthless!

If you insisted that it had no value, that meant that you could not see the uniqueness of this coin...

Chapter 1068: Rich and Imposing!

According to legends, there were two newly rich lords from the villages who once came into Tian Xiang City carrying 5,000 silvers. They thought that they were rich and imposing, and did not lack money, and so they decided to go to the Aristocratic Hall to have some fun. When they reached there, they asked the guard at the door: "What can we do with 5,000 silvers here? How long could we play for?"

The guard looked at the two of them with pitiable glances and pointed at the distance. "See that? Go over there, and you will see a tea restaurant. After handing over 5,000 silvers, you can go to the first level and find a seat for yourself. You can enjoy a pot of tea there, but you need to remember, you can only sit there for at most one hour... after that, you can go..."

"I'll give you another word of advice; when you're drinking there, it's best to behave appropriately. Don't try to make any moves on the serving girls because they're beautiful... as long as the girl sits down, en, as long as their butt touches the chair, it doesn't matter if you have other requests or not... You won't be able to leave that door if you don't have 50,000 silvers..."

The two 'rich men' discussed for half a day before coming to a conclusion: 5,000 silvers is only enough to have a pot of tea in the Aristocratic Hall... nothing else. Even if they had money, it shouldn't be spent like that! Thus, they left in a crestfallen manner and saved the 5,000 silvers...

Later on, this little story became a joke that spread to the entire city. Many people were furious that the rich were so overbearing, completely not caring about the gap between the wealthy and the poor at all. However, those rich young masters who could afford to spend the money became even more eager! Not only were they not ashamed of themselves, they spent even more lavishly as if it were a badge of honour!

Are you an aristocrat?

Have you been to the Aristocratic Hall?

No?

Then what kind of aristocrat are you? F*ck!

Talk business?

Sure, let's go to the Aristocratic Hall.

What? You can't afford it?

You can't even afford to go to the Aristocratic Hall and you have the face to talk business with me? Forget it then, if there are any crisis in the business, are you even capable of covering the loss?!

Do you have anything that you won in an auction from the Aristocratic Hall?

No? Then you... are truly too laughable...

The Aristocratic Hall was a place that only the real aristocrats could afford to visit! Only the super rich had the qualifications to enter! Even if one entered the Aristocratic Hall and came out squeezed as dry as an old lemon that had been left out in the wind for a long time, one would at least still be capable of speaking on equal grounds as all the other upper class!

People who could enter the Aristocratic Hall were elites; people who stood at the peak, the best of the best!

This was the basic idea behind Young Master Jun's idea when he established the Aristocratic Hall! All the messages behind their advertisements were exactly this...

After Tang Yuan took over, he pushed this idea with greater effort, spreading it to the entire Xuan Xuan Continent! Then, when the name of the Evil Monarch became more resounding, the Aristocratic Hall's fame grew even higher as a result! And the prices of the things in the Aristocratic Hall seemed to be sitting on a rocket, shooting all the way into the skies!

But the higher the price became, the more people went!

This was a concept that the commoners and normal people could not understand at all...

To them, it was the legendary "brainless people effect"...

The spirit herbs that could no longer catch Young Master Jun's eyes would immediately be placed for auction at the Aristocratic Hall! Something that would normally be bought with just 2,000 gold would be impossible to buy at the Aristocratic Hall without at least 50,000 gold!

Why? This granddaddy is an aristocrat! This granddaddy is not auctioning spirit herbs, but a status! Do you understand?! To sell something for just one or two thousand gold? That would be disgracing the face of the aristocrats too much...

A pot of tea that costs 50 silver would not have anyone drinking it at all. But if it's raised to 500 silvers, the restaurant would be flooded with customers... if it's raised to 5,000 silvers, people would even need to place a reservation in advance to get a seat...

And the tea house was only one of the lowest earning businesses of the Aristocratic Hall. With just a single thought, fatty Tang's net worth could be said to have reached an absolutely terrifying level...

Money could enslave ghosts, and even summon the gods!

When one had accumulated enough money that even the heavens would be moved, one would still be a terrifying character even if they didn't have any physical strength!

The entire Xuan Xuan Continent was stirred up as all the large powers moved out. All of them were elites with great strength and influence! This was not just an invitation to attend the establishment of the Evil Monarch's faction. It was also a chance for everyone to showcase their abilities in front of the heroes of the world!

Who would dare to miss this chance?

The grand ceremony of the Evil Monarch had sent the whole continent into a buzz! From the three Holy Lands to the worldly families, to even the mighty pirates of the ocean, everyone began to move at the same time...

Even those who hadn't received an invitation were also fretting to look for a good gift to send over... If they could present a gift that was able to catch the eye of the Evil Monarch... they could ascend to the heavens in one move...

Whether it was those who had received an invitation or those who hadn't... at least two thirds of the people in the continent were wreaking their brains about the present!

No one would go forward empty handed, that was for sure. But what should they bring?

What should they give... that would help them to stand out in front of the Evil Monarch?

I heard that old fellow is an exceedingly unreasonable person... it's fine if the gift did not stand out, but if it is unsatisfactory... their lives might even become forfeit...

Thus, many newly rich families were constantly being targeted by theft, robberies, kidnapping etc...

They were not taking gold and silver, but rare and precious items...

There was a well known rich man who had good brothers in all corners of the world. But in this short period, his only son had actually been kidnapped twice by those 'familiar friends'... Furthermore, his family's treasury had been ransacked thoroughly by thieves and robbers...

After this, the rich man shattered all his mirrors... Whenever he wanted to take a look at his reflection, he could just go to the treasury room and use the smooth and empty floor as a mirror... the floor had been swept so cleanly that it was even clearer than the bronze mirrors...

It was possible to even count the number of hairs on his leg if he stood still...

But at this time, Young Master Jun did not have the slightest idea about the chaos in the world.

Right now, he was walking through the dense forest alone...

When he left the Misty Illusory Manor this time, he did not come out the way that he went in initially. The place where he'd come in from at the start was not far from the Dongfang Family, but Jun Mo Xie found that he was actually at a very foreign location this time. Although this place was also a dense forest that stretched as far as the eyes could see, it was very different from the original entrance!

The mountains in the distance did not appear familiar at all. The forest was exceedingly dense, and even Young Master Jun could not see far into the distance with his eyes...

But Jun Mo Xie was not anxious at all. As long as he was back in the Xuan Xuan Continent, he would eventually find his way home. At this moment, he simply chose a random direction and walked forward in a slow manner by himself.

There was truly no need to be anxious. He only needed to find a place where people lived, and he would be able to understand where he was. After determining his direction and travelling down at full speed, he would return to Tian Nan in at most a few days!

Besides, Young Master Jun had managed to feed Green Hunter a few mouthfuls of food ever since she'd been healed using the Holy Tree's life blood essence. Her pulse was also getting stronger, while her breathing was heavier. Her condition was improving rapidly, and she seemed like she would wake up at any time...

In this crucial period, how would Jun Mo Xie forget about Green Hunter while only caring to rush home? This poor girl had already been sleeping for a few months now...

In this period of time, Jun Mo Xie had also asked himself countless times: After having Guan Qing Han, he accepted Mei Xue Yan. After accepting Mei Xue Yan, he could not give up Guan Qing Han, and even accepted an additional Dugu Xiao Yi. And now, he'd also taken Miao Xiao Miao in...

Then, why couldn't he accept Green Hunter?

This was originally a world where men were in a dominant position, and it was common for a man to have many wives. Even the women saw it as an extremely normal thing. Then, could it be that he didn't dare to take up this responsibility?

Did he have to reject these smart and beautiful girls who loved him deeply to some common guy? Would they really be able to find happiness like that? No, if he did that, it would definitely not be a matter of happiness for them. They would only fall into an endless abyss, and he would never find peace within his conscience!

In that case, what am I afraid of? Who am I afraid of?

Back then, Guan Qing Han had been the target of public ridicule and scorn, but hadn't he still managed to face the problem and resolved it by force?! Could it be that he'd instead become more cowardly after experiencing all those things?

I am Jun Mo Xie!

The Monarch of all evils in this world!

Why should I care about the views of the world?

I do as I wish! That is sufficient!

As for the disdainful eyes of others...

Who the f*ck are they?

If they irritate this daddy, I'll annihilate their nine generations!

As his thoughts travelled here, Jun Mo Xie felt his body lighten considerably, and his mind felt more refreshed...

In that moment, he suddenly remembered the Jun Family's ancestral teachings: Having balls does not make you a man! It is the incomparably indomitable spirit which does!

He could not help but to roar aloud with laughter. "F*ck them! What a nice f*ck them, HAHAA..."

His vulgar laughter rose into the sky, sending the birds in the trees around him fleeing in panic...

All of a sudden, Jun Mo Xie clearly heard a weak moan from inside the Hongjun Pagoda...

Jun Mo Xie instantly recognized the source of the voice and gasped with surprise. His body shook lightly and suddenly disappeared from the forest, diving into the Hongjun Pagoda...

Inside the Hongjun Pagoda, Green Hunter was trying to prop her body up weakly as she looked around her surroundings with fear and confusion.

"You're awake?" Jun Mo Xie had already returned to his original appearance after he came out of the Misty Illusory Manor.

When he saw Green Hunter waking up, he quickly asked.

"You..." A look of joy appeared on her face. But in an instant, the look disappeared and she hung her head. "... Brother-in-law... where is this? How come I'm not dead?"

“With Brother-in-law here, how would you be allowed to die! This place is a secret location!” Jun Mo Xie said with a slight smile. But inside him, he felt a strange sour feeling in his heart. When Green Hunter awoke, her eyes had been filled with wild joy when she saw him. However, it’d turned immediately into a look of endless pain and regret. This silly girl had been so full of fear and suspicion when she saw this place, but the instant she saw him, all her fear had instantly turned into peace and calm!

It was as if it didn’t matter where this was. As long as he was here, everything would be fine...

Chapter 1069: Snake Queen Awakens

But Green Hunter had still forcefully controlled her overwhelming emotions and called him Brother-in-law!

Jun Mo Xie could hear how difficult and painful it was for her to call him that!

A look of disappointment appeared in her eyes...

She originally thought that she had already died, along with Jun Mo Xie...

When Zhan Mu Bai had unleashed that heaven shocking strike back then, Green Hunter didn’t even have a single shred of hope of living. However, she was sacrificing herself for Jun Mo Xie and sacrificing herself for her hopeless love...

When she saw that Jun Mo Xie was also with her in this strange world, she felt a little happy in her heart. Although she was letting down her Eldest Sister, she could now be with him... even if they were in the netherworld...

When she asked, “How am I still alive”, she’d hoped to hear Jun Mo Xie tell her that she’d already died. That would mean that the Jun Mo Xie in front of her was also... and that would also mean that she could be with him...

But now, she realized that her hopes had been dashed. She was actually still alive...

Since she was still alive, that meant that she would have to continue living while shouldering that hopeless love...

"How do you feel? Is it uncomfortable anywhere?" Jun Mo Xie helped her up in a somewhat anxious manner. Green Hunter had just woken up, and in this period of time, he'd fed her countless pills and natural treasures...

How would she feel?

"I'm fine... the only feeling I have now is... I'm so full..." Green Hunter examined her body and found that apart from her body being somewhat weak, the energy in her dantian was filled to an unimaginable extent. She felt that her cultivation had even improved drastically in this period of time while she was unconscious, and it'd even reached a previously unimaginable level...

If she had to say that point out an area that she felt uncomfortable about, it would be that she seemed to be too... full? She even seemed a little...

"Brother-in-law, how long have I been unconscious?" Green Hunter asked.

"You'd been unconscious for three months, eight days, and 12 hours." Jun Mo Xie thought for a moment and answered with surprising accuracy.

"Ah? So much time had already passed?" She exclaimed and stood up, only to find that her body was still somewhat frail and not completely capable of listening to her orders. Stumbling in a somewhat shocked manner, she asked, "Since I've been unconscious for such a long time... how... is this possible?"

Being in a coma did not mean death!

An unconscious person still needed to eat, drink, and... expel waste...

Furthermore, after being in such a long coma, her muscles and bones would definitely be stiff and weak, even displaying signs of atrophying... Such symptoms would appear for people who were unconscious for a few days, let alone a few months?

But she actually didn't feel anything strange at all... this in itself was the strangest thing!

"In these three months... who had been taking care of me?" Green Hunter lowered her head and asked.

"Erm... that... ah.... cough cough cough..." Young Master Jun rubbed his nose and said in a somewhat awkward manner. "This... I was the one who has been taking care of you..."

"You?" Green Hunter instantly blushed heavily. At the same time, she felt a strange sense of happiness in her heart. Even Green Hunter herself did not know why she had those thoughts.

Her snow-white face instantly flushed a deep red, all the way until her neck as she asked in a light voice. "Then... how did you take care of me?"

"I-I... that... this..." Jun Mo Xie stammered, not knowing what to say. "We're all family, there was no need to behave like strangers... It's exactly as what you imagined... en... in order to prevent your body from stiffening, I massaged your muscles, joints and veins everyday once in the morning and once at night... I also fed you food and gave you water three times a day... erm... also..."

As he spoke to her, Green Hunter had already grown embarrassed to a point where she was covering her face with her hands. Her body shook lightly as well. "And... what?"

No wonder she didn't feel much discomfort in her body... it turned out that he always helped her massage her body and fed her... Wouldn't that mean that he'd already... touched every single part of my body?

This lofty Snake Queen almost wished that she would fall into another coma at this time... this was simply too embarrassing...

“Cough cough cough... also... cough cough...” Jun Mo Xie coughed violently as if he had suddenly caught a deadly lung cancer. “You know... all humans have the three needs... when you were unconscious... this... that...”

Hearing this, Green Hunter made a slight sound of despair in her throat and her eyes rolled upwards, nearly fainting from the shame...

Jun Mo Xie cried out with shock, hurriedly running forward and catching her. After patting her back and pressing her acupoints, he managed to bring her back...

But this Snake Queen that’d woken up was the same as before, her entire body soft... she laid in Jun Mo Xie’s arms, refusing to raise her head no matter what...

So that was why I felt so full the moment I woke up... so he actually...

Ai, how should I continue living this life? How do I face all this?

All humans had their three needs... didn’t that mean that he had helped her... relieve all those needs... in other words, she had completely no secrets in front of him anymore? Didn’t that mean that he’d seen everything now? And even... the most embarrassing things had already been done...

This was an exceedingly awkward thing that even husbands and wives would not encounter...

T-this... was truly troublesome...

After a long and awkward silence, she realized that it was impossible to continue staying silent like that. In an attempt to find something to say, she asked, “Then... how did you... feed me?” Her voice was as light as a mosquito’s.

Young Master Jun groaned internally. Elder sister ah, you even managed to ask this question? Is there a need to be so detailed? How did I feed you? How else am I supposed to feed you? It can only... be done like that!

But since the girl had already asked like that, he had to answer her no matter what. Steeling his heart, he hardened his face and replied, "Just, like... mouth-to-mouth..."

"Ah..." Green Hunter instantly realized that she had asked a dumb question, and she turned her face away again...

"That... was all my fault." Young Master Jun consoled. "Erm... that... I will take responsibility..."

"No need!" Unexpectedly, the moment Jun Mo Xie said those words, Green Hunter turned around swiftly and said. "I don't need you to take responsibility! You... you are my Brother-in-law and will always be my Brother-in-law! In this life, you can only be my Brother-in-law! I will not allow you to let down Eldest Sister! Not mentioning whether Eldest Sister is agreeable or not, I will never agree!"

Jun Mo Xie had already prepared himself long ago for this kind of reaction from her. The Snake Queen had always been this kind of girl. Otherwise, there would not have been a situation where she had kept her feelings hidden from him for such a long time back then. All of that had been for him and Mei Xue Yan.

"You don't have a say in this matter!" Jun Mo Xie said forcefully. "Right now, you're already my woman! Where are you still thinking of running away to? Whether you agree or disagree, this matter is already decided!"

"No..." Green Hunter stood up swiftly. Her eyes were filled with tears, and her face was white.

"You have to accept it even if you don't want to!" Jun Mo Xie said with a cold face. "Since when do you have a say in this kind of thing! I'm the head of the house, and my word is final!"

"No... no... we can't do that! Eldest Sister will be sad..." Green Hunter shook her head violently and said with clenched teeth. "Brother-in-law... we can't do that... I can't let Eldest Sister down, and you especially must not disappoint her... please don't be like this... I'll promise to be your woman... but... I will never appear in front of others in that position... alright? Eldest Sister is a person who needs to keep her face... I... will never fight with Eldest Sister, never..."

“What nonsense are you speaking? I belong to all of you, what is there to fight about! This matter ends here! There’s no need to say anything more.” Jun Mo Xie said stubbornly. At the same time, he shook his head with a gentle sigh... “Qian Xun 1 ... I know you have great respect for your Eldest Sister, but... what kind of man did you take me for? Could it be that in your heart, I’m such a man who can’t take responsibility? If I’m really that kind of man, would I still be worth your sacrifices?”

Green Hunter’s tears flowed down her face, and she shook her head continuously. Her face was filled with joy, contentedness, as well as a deep guilt...

Jun Mo Xie sighed heavily. “Alright, let’s hurry back first. Everything will wait until after we return.”

Green Hunter nodded gently and did not say anything more...

Jun Mo Xie looked at her and thought to himself... it looked like this matter would still need Mei Xue Yan to handle personally.

Even Young Master Jun hadn’t imagined that Mei Xue Yan’s position had actually reached such an extreme level in Green Hunter’s heart!

But Jun Mo Xie had actually neglected one fact: Mei Xue Yan had propped up the entire Tian Fa alone for so many years. One could say that if not for her, Tian Fa would have already have its name removed as the Ferocious Land long ago!

In the hearts of the Xuan Beasts of Tian Fa, she could be said to be a motherly figure or a guardian angel! How could it be easy for such a level of respect that had been built up over so many long years to be broken?

Green Hunter arranged her feelings and began to examine her current Xuan Qi level. The moment she roused her Xuan Qi, her entire body felt as light as a sparrow. The discomfort of her old, severe injuries did not appear at all, and she felt even stronger than before she was hurt. In fact, her strength had at least doubled!

But as for what level she had reached exactly, she didn’t know as well. That was a profound level of strength that she had never reached, or even dared to imagine before!

During the period when she was hurt, Jun Mo Xie had fed her countless precious heavenly treasures and miraculous pills as if they were free. As she had been unconscious, she wasn't able to use her cultivation to circulate the medicinal energy in her body. As a result, all of the medicinal energy had been deposited inside her meridians...

More than three months of such an accumulation together with the life essence of the Holy Tree, how could that be underestimated? The Holy Tree's life essence was not only merely capable of fixing her soul and body. If not for that, even with Jun Mo Xie's meticulous care, there was no way that her body would have recovered so quickly the moment she woke up.

That was an extremely pure life essence energy! The Heaven's Root Water! In this world, it was something that only a Rainbow Holy Tree that had gained a consciousness could create ah...

Green Hunter... had absorbed the equivalence of several thousand years of life essence of the Holy Tree...

Chapter 1070: What Happened?

The only pity was that Jun Mo Xie had met the Holy Tree a little too late, so some of the medicinal energy in Green Hunter's body had still been wasted in the end. Still, the remaining medicinal energy was still quite substantial...

But if she could fully digest the full medicinal energy, the increase in her strength would only be able to be described with the word 'terrifying'...

"There seems to be a lot of medicinal energy in my body... I need to refine it!" Green Hunter looked at Jun Mo Xie with a smile. At this moment, her eyes were filled with love and gentleness...

Just from the amount of energy in her body, she could tell how much Jun Mo Xie had done for her. Even if she had a heart of ice, she could not help but to be moved...

This was all the heartfelt effort of her man...

“Sure! You can stay here and focus on cultivation. I will protect you!” Jun Mo Xie nodded.

This cultivation session of Green Hunter’s lasted for an entire day and night!

She maintained the same posture throughout, not moving at all. Only the spiritual qi around her moved in and out, wrapping around her body...

Every time the spiritual qi changed, it meant that Green Hunter had moved a step forward in her cultivation! After six times, the aura finally calmed down...

Right before the whole process ended, Jun Mo Xie melted down three Heaven Extremes Pill into liquid form and sent it into her mouth...

After that, her spiritual qi once again began to rise...

No matter how one broke through here, there was no need to worry about any dangers! Lightning tribulations had no way of detecting this place as well. After breaking through in here, she could go out, and the Hongjun Pagoda would directly absorb away the lightning tribulation, turn it into pure spiritual qi and store it away...

Thus, Jun Mo Xie prepared to let her breakthrough to the limit, where she could stand with the peak experts of the world!

For his own women, since he could let her reach a greater height, why wouldn’t he do it?

After the spiritual qi from the Heaven Extremes Pill weakened, Jun Mo Xie waved his hand, and the thick spiritual qi from the Hongjun Pagoda surged forward, condensing slowly into a golden jade fluid which he fed to Green Hunter...

The spiritual qi fluctuations this time was greatly different and were exceedingly violent! A painful look appeared on Green Hunter’s face and her meridians seemed to have swelled up... her veins could be seen clearly from under her skin...

Jun Mo Xie stretched his hand out unhurriedly and placed it against her back. After that, a wisp of incomparably pure spirit energy flowed through her body, helping her to dissolve the medicinal energy...

After a long time, Green Hunter finally woke up...

“You should go and take a good bath, there’s a little island over there... en, and here’s some clothes... I’ve prepared them specially for when you wake up. Later, when you come out again, we’ll get ready to receive the lightning tribulation...” Jun Mo Xie said with a faint smile. Knowing that she was shy, he exited the Hongjun Pagoda...

Green Hunter examined her body and felt the powerful pure spirit energy in her body. Looking at the direction that Jun Mo Xie had left in, she could not help but smile sillily in happiness. A few droplets of tears also fell from her eyes...

A short moment later, the sky was filled with tribulation clouds, and lightning fell continuously!

On the ground, Green Hunter laid in Jun Mo Xie’s arms, completely unharmed... the Hongjun Pagoda was truly reliable—or more accurately, it was greedy. All the lightning that fell around them was swallowed up cleanly, leaving nothing...

By the time everything ended, Jun Mo Xie carefully examined the Snake Queen’s strength, he found to his surprise: First level Saint Emperor!

One had to know that before Green Hunter was injured, she had only been a mere Superior Supreme, even worse than Miao Xiao Miao! But after everything, she had directly skipped over the four levels of the Venerable realm, the four levels of the Saint realm, and directly stepped into the Saint Emperor in one shot! Even compared to the previous Mei Xue Yan, she was not lacking too much!

After all, she had a thousand years worth of the Holy Tree's life essence more than Mei Xue Yan...

If one calculated in all the sub realms within each level, she had skipped over 30 levels in one go!

Such a level of improvement was something that could not be exaggerated even if it was described as 'ascending to the heavens with one step'!

Even Green Hunter herself could not help but to open her little mouth wide with disbelief after she found out about this. Saint Emperor? She was a Saint Emperor now? But she hadn't even heard about such a realm before...

On the noon of the next day, a man and a woman stepped into a little town on the north side of Tian Xiang Country.

The man was dressed fully in white shirt and white pants, and he looked handsome and refined. He was tall, with an elegant bearing. The girl was dressed in a light green dress, and she had a petite frame with a willowy waist. She seemed incredibly enchanting and was delicate and cute like a fairy...

Especially that dress on her—it was dreamy looking like a smoky peony, as if one was looking at a flower through a fog. It was completely impossible to see what kind of material it had been made of... As she walked along the road, it gave others a feeling as if she were riding atop a cloud!

These two were naturally the world renowned Evil Monarch, Jun Mo Xie, and the Snake Queen Green Hunter!

The dress that Green Hunter was wearing was one of the nine dresses that the Nine Nether First Young Master had given Young Master Jun back then! Only until now, did Young Master Jun have the chance to gift one of it to his woman!

The colors of the nine dresses were all different, and this was the only green colored one.

The moment Jun Mo Xie pulled it out, Green Hunter fell in love with it immediately and hurried to put it on.

Of course, after the Snake Queen put on this dress, her delicate features had become even more striking...

After passing through the tribulation, Green Hunter sternly warned Young Master Jun to not turn around. Then, she'd ran off to secretly deal with her 'all humans have three needs' problem...

This idiot, even if you want to feed me, there's no need to stuff me until I'm almost bursting...

If such a serious injury couldn't even take her life, but she ended up being stuffed to death by food... wouldn't that be a huge tragedy?!

The Snake Queen naturally did not know that Young Master Jun wasn't actually trying to toy with her on purpose... this fellow thought that all Xuan Beasts would have a big appetite. Take Big Bear for example, that appetite of that fellow... So after Green Hunter was healed, Young Master Jun had fed her according to half the portion that Big Bear would eat, afraid that she would be hungry...

Only when she could not eat anymore, did he stop... not to mention Green Hunter who suffered greatly, even Young Master Jun's mouth was tired from chewing so much. Kissing once was naturally a nice thing, but after a hundred kisses, and a thousand kisses in consecutive succession, it was a different story...

But if he said that out, he would probably end up suffering the relentless wrath of the girl.. You seem to be treating this lady as a pig, eh? And it's even enough food to feed quite a few pigs...

Following that, there were suddenly a few more things in the Hongjun Pagoda... a full five, six sets of snake skin! One had to know, that the Snake Queen would shed once after every breakthrough...

Naturally, the Snake Queen would not happily shed with Young Master Jun beside her... This was a result of her ascending too many ranks at once. If she molted every single time, she would end up shedding over 20 skins...

The Snake Queen was very embarrassed about this kind of thing, whereas Young Master Jun didn't seem to think anything of it... This brother already knows that you're the Snake Queen, and I've already begun treating you as my wife. Why would I mind it...

Besides, that Bai Suzhen from the New Legend of Madame White Snake 1 still ended up giving birth to a human baby... And my Qian Xun is much stronger than her... this brother doesn't mind at all...

Originally, Young Master Jun still wanted to let her eat the Seven Colored Holy Fruits and Exquisite Lotus. But Green Hunter had asked a single sentence: "Has Eldest Sister eaten tha yet?"

Young Master Jun naturally answered honestly; not yet. He'd only just gotten this stuff; if she'd already eaten it, that would be strange!

In the end, Green Hunter refused to eat, and even said that unless Mei Xue Yan ate first, she would not do so first!

This Snake Queen's insistence completely left Young Master Jun speechless. But at the same time, he felt happy for Mei Xue Yan!

All along the way, as long as there were places where people lived, he would see many Xuan experts rushing somewhere in a hurried manner. It was as if there was an extremely urgent matter that required all of them to handle.

Such a frequent occurrence was naturally not of the same batch!

Along the way, Jun Mo Xie had already seen seven, eight batches of people riding on swift horses and passing them by...

These powerful characters were all rushing off in anxious manners, while an indescribably fervent look could be seen in their eyes... On normal days, these people would at least pause to look at a great beauty like Green Hunter, or even whistle at her and say a few words...

But today, not a single person took the initiative to chat with her... At most, they would turn back to look at her after they'd rushed past her. But before they could even conceive any lustful thoughts, their horses had already bolted far into the distance... leaving behind a cloud of dust!

As a result, Snake Queen Green Hunter felt somewhat depressed... could it be that after she came out, her charm had dropped that much?

On the other hand, Jun Mo Xie thought of another possibility.

Could it be that something huge had happened recently? Or something that was about to happen?

Perhaps the War for Seizing the Heavens had started earlier?!

Otherwise, it would truly be hard to understand how these aristocratic families and strong experts of the pugilistic world were behaving so abnormally this time. From their behaviours, even if someone in their families had died, they wouldn't be running with such urgency!

This was simply too strange!

And because these people were rushing too quickly, he did not even have the chance to ask them what happened... Of course, Young Master Jun could forcibly stop them, but he didn't want to do that. As his cultivation improved, his heart had also become more calm. An action that was like bullying the weak was something that he was not interested in at all.

Still, even if there were any urgent matters, he only needed to find a place where he could get good information. In any case, it wasn't an urgent matter for him...
