Chapter 1071: What Invitation Letter?

There was a large town in front, and among the neighbouring areas, this place could already be considered the most bustling!

The largest inn of the city, the Phoenix Perching Inn. This was a place that the Queen had once dined in before, according to some legends...

As for this town, it was also called the Phoenix Rites Town.

At this time, the Phoenix Perching Inn was completely filled!

When Jun Mo Xie and Green Hunter walked in, there was only one table remaining. From the looks of it, another customer had left not long ago, and the table had just been cleared...

Over half the people in here had weapons hanging on their waist, and they were dressed like pugilist experts. Looking over with a single eye, Jun Mo Xie could not help but to open his mouth slightly with shock.

There were actually even a few Sky Xuan experts among this group and with a single look, he could spot at least three or four...

To the current Young Master Jun, the Sky Xuan realm was no longer worth anything much, to the point of being meaningless in his eyes. But in this world, a Sky Xuan expert was still a powerful hero of an area! To see a bunch of Sky Xuan experts together in once place could be said to be exceedingly rare...

But today, this seemingly secluded and small town actually had three or four Sky Xuan experts dining together in the same inn...

Furthermore, there were no troubles at all, and everyone was eating quietly, and drinking their own wine... there were completely no intentions to stir up any trouble.

Since when had these rowdy and hot blooded bunch of people become so law abiding?

Furthermore, there were two people among the few Sky Xuan experts who very obviously had some grudges between them. Just by the looks of hatred in their eyes, it was easy to see this much. The servants beside them were even more tensed, and they were nearly at the point of pulling their blades out at anytime. However, the two still held their rage in their hearts, and forcefully controlled themselves and the attitudes of their servants...

It was clear that none of them were willing to start a conflict here...

When has the pugilistic world... become so civilized?

At the very least, this scene caused Young Master Jun to be somewhat at a loss, unable to fathom the reason behind everything...

Jun Mo Xie and Green Hunter sat down, and a waiter quickly went forward to ask. "This Sir... and Madam, may I ask if the two of you have an invitation letter?"

"Invitation letter? What invitation letter?" Jun Mo Xie asked with a strange look on his face. What is going on today? Does one even need an invitation card to eat nowadays? What kind of nonsense was this!?

Compared to the bewildered Young Master Jun, the Snake Queen instead smiled shyly after being addressed as Madam...

"Ah... since Young Master does not have an invitation letter, you may place your orders now." The waiter nodded and bowed quickly before pulling out a menu...

But Young Master Jun became even more stumped at this. What was that? I can order because I don't have an invitation letter? Then does that mean that people with an invitation letter need not order?

Hm, an invitation letter... perhaps a rich person in this town is holding a birthday celebration today, and anyone who comes to this inn with an invitation letter would have their bill taken care of by the rich lord... that must be the case.

Truthfully, Young Master Jun's guess had indeed been quite close to the mark. However, he was extremely far off in the scale of this guess!

"Waiter, do you have a quieter area?" Jun Mo Xie looked at the noisy inn and said with furrowed brows.

"Apologies, Sir, our little inn is already filled..." The waiter bowed apologetically.

"We'll just sit here then." Green Hunter said in a light voice.

That single 'Madam' earlier had left her in such a sweet mood that she no longer bothered about these details...

"Fine then." Jun Mo Xie causally ordered a few light dishes and a jug of wine. The waiter pursed his mouth and brought the menu away with a perfunctory bow... He had seen that those two youngsters were dressed so well and had guessed that their status must not be ordinary. Normally, these kinds of guests were the favorite of all inns and restaurants. But who would have thought that the guy would end up only ordering such light and bland dishes...

How embarrassing ah, if I could bring a girl like that out... even if I blew all my life savings on a meal, it would be worth it... how cheap!

Who would have imagined that the world renowned Evil Monarch Young Master Jun Mo Xie would actually end up being called a cheap bastard by the waiter of a small inn...

Just at this time, the thunderous sounds of horse galloping rang out, stopping right in front of the inn! A few middle aged men entered, with a man and a woman between them. The man was a muscular fellow dressed in purple robes, and he took the lead and entered.

Jun Mo Xie furrowed his brows: yet another Sky Xuan expert! And it's even Sky Xuan peak! Just what was going on today?

"Lord Sima, I didn't expect that you would come! We were just in the middle of looking for a person to travel with us." Inside the inn, several people stood up and greeted him.

This Lord Sima smiled lightly and nodded. A few quick witted people hurriedly stood up and offered their table. Lord Sima did not take ceremony, and simply cupped his fists and thanked them before strutting over and sitting down.

The moment he sat down, he pulled out a palm sized red copper colored thing and slammed it on the table! As he took out the copper thing, he looked around the entire inn with an arrogant expression on his face.

As expected, the instant that copperish colored thing came out, everyone's eyes instantly turned onto him. Someone even said with an envious sigh: "Lord Sima is indeed Lord Sima, ah, to think that it's actually a red copper one! Hur hur, us brothers are really jealous ah."

Lord Sima smiled in a please manner and cupped his fists saying. "No no, this is just Lord Jun giving me some face. Truthfully, this Sima is not worthy of this Red Copper Invitation Letter ah!"

"You're being too modest, too modest! How could Lord Jun possibly send out the wrong invitation letter? For Lord Sima to receive a red copper one is only natural." The crowd replied.

"Haha... everyone is being too kind..." Lord Sima could not contain the proudness in his heart as he laughed happily.

The young girl that had come in with Lord Sima didn't say anything all the way, but her eyes were fixed on the dress that Green Hunter was wearing. Her face was filled with great reluctance, as if she wanted to swallow that dress using her eyes!

One had to say, that regardless of which era it was, clothes still held the most irresistible attraction to women!

Especially a beautiful long dress like the one that Green Hunter was wearing right now. With a single look, it would rouse up the desires in people's hearts. It was simple, but not lacking in elegance, gracefulness, but with restraint... although the colors were beautiful, it was not too dazzling!

This dress looked simple at first glance, but after seeing it properly just once, a person would fall into a daze because of it! If one examined it properly, they would discover that regardless of the style or color coordination, it was truly a perfect work of art!

Just by sitting there quietly, it gave off an aloof feeling, causing others to not dare to look at it!

There aren't any elaborate decorations on it, and only the soft waistband tied in a ribbon loop. Along the chest contours, there were faint dark lines that formed a phoenix pattern!

But it was exactly this kind of subtle detail that made the dress even more appealing!

Especially after wearing it, it caused the person to look like a fairy that had descended from the heavens, elegant and classy, lofty and out of reach!

Which lady would not want to wear such an outstanding dress?

The more she looked, the more her heart yearned for the dress, and she could not tear her eyes away. Her eyes were filled with a passionate greed, and finally, unable to hold back her desires, she turned around and whispered a few words into Lord Sima's ears.

That Lord Sima raised his head and turned around to look at Jun Mo Xie and Green Hunter's table. When he saw Green Hunter, this lofty Lord Sima could not help but to have a look of shock appear in his eyes!

When he first came in, he hadn't noticed or thought that such a rare beauty would actually appear in this kind of secluded place!

Although the two of them were dressed luxuriously and their weapons looked extraordinary, the two were just a pair of youngsters. In that moment, he could not help but feel somewhat tempted. From the looks of it, this pair should be the child of some high ranking court officials. Or perhaps, it's just a newly wed couple coming out to see the world...

But with his Sky Xuan peak cultivation, there really shouldn't be a single person in this entire area that could offend him!

"This Young Sir... this one is called Sima Shang, it's a pleasure to meet you." Although Lord Sima was cupping his fists and saying in a warm manner, he had an arrogant look on his face as if he were saying, 'I'm giving you a lot of face by talking to you'...

"Oh... Lord Sima, I wonder what is the matter?" Jun Mo Xie raised his head and said in a somewhat calm manner. Truthfully, Young Master Jun did not really wish to talk that much with such a small character in such a secluded place... Thus, he already felt that he was being very courteous and affable...

If he reported his status as the Evil Monarch, how would that simply be considered courteous and affable? This Lord Sima would probably be scared to the point where he fainted. And after waking up, he would even boast to everyone he knew about the encounter... If he could keep his memories in the next life, he would probably also continue boasting in the next life that the Evil Monarch had once spoken to him in a gentle and affectionate way...

But the problem now was that Sima Shang didn't know, so...

So right now, Lord Sima was feeling exceedingly uncomfortable in his heart. Who the hell is this rude kid? F*ck, who gave him that kind of arrogance? What kind of status do I have ah... I initiated a talk with him, and he actually dared to reply in a bored manner like that... as if it was only natural? Too f*cking cocky...

Not only this Lord Sima, everyone around him also raised their brows when they heard Jun Mo Xie's tone. This kid is surely a little too brave right? This is Sima Shang, ah! A peak Sky Xuan expert who is only one step away from the Spirit Xuan level. In just this area of a thousand li, who could afford to offend him? A mere kid like you actually dared to speak to him with that attitude! Looks like this kid is doomed this time...

Chapter 1072: You Won't Dare To Kill Me!

“Haha, I saw that Young Master’s weapon is extraordinary, and so had the thought of making a friend...” Sima Shang said with a light chuckle. “I wonder if Young Master... has an invitation letter?”

“Invitation letter? No. Do I have to have that thing?” Jun Mo Xie said in a somewhat annoyed manner. This fellow was an expert with Sky Xuan abilities. How was he so blind? Can’t he see that this Young Master cannot be bothered to talk to him?

So it’s a person without any invitation letter!

Sima Shang completely relaxed!

Since he doesn’t have an invitation letter and does not even seem to know what it meant to carry an invitation letter, that means that he is definitely a minor character! At the very least, he’s not the descendant of some great figure! In that case, this old master will not have anything to worry about!

Smirking lightly, he roared, “Damned foul mouthed little brat! How dare you talk to this old master like that? You don’t even have an invitation letter and you dare to act loftily in front of this daddy?! Fine then, this old master has taken a liking to the dress on that lass beside you. Tell her to take it off right now! Immediately!”

Those words were a little too overboard isn’t it?

Even the girl beside Sima Shang widened her eyes with shock. I only said that I liked that dress! You could have just asked them where she bought it from, and that would be enough. How could you talk like that!

To think that you even asked a young girl to take off her clothes in public? That means that you have not only taken a liking to the dress, but to the person as well! Are you hoping to get both the girl and the dress?

Truthfully, Sima Shang was exactly hoping for this. From the moment he laid eyes on that country toppling beauty, he already had the thought in his heart. It was just the he saw that the demeanor of the two youngsters was extraordinary, which was why he hadn't dared to move rashly and had instead used the excuse of 'befriending' to test them. When he found out that the two didn't have any invitation letters and didn't even know what the invitation letters meant...

At this time, the people who don't even know what the invitation letter was, were either bumpkins of commoners. In that moment, he decided that as long as he gave the two little fellows a good scare, they would definitely submit, and he could take the beauty with him to Tian Nan. With such a beauty by his side, he would certainly gain a great amount of face...

In fact, it wouldn't be a problem even if he killed that little gigolo. Even if that kid had some backing, it wouldn't be anything notable. With his status as a peak Sky Xuan expert, even if he killed a few people, it wouldn't mean anything to him...

Jun Mo Xie's face was instantly filled with killing intent as he raised his brows. He wasn't planning on creating any trouble, but trouble still came looking for him. Young Master Jun's eyes turned cold as he looked at that peak Sky Xuan Sima Shang. "Are you sure of those words?"

Sima Shang was a Sky Xuan expert, and naturally had great awareness. He could feel the shocking aura of the opponent, and some parts of his body even turned cold. But as he looked at the Red Copper Invitation Letter in his hand, his courage rose as he sneered. "Why? Little gigolo, do you have an opinion?"

Snorting coldly, he continued: "In this thousand li area of Tian Xiang, the words of I, Sima Shang, am the law! Do you dare to defy me?"

Jun Mo Xie laughed lightly as a dense killing intent appeared on his face. "The law? So the law around here is to demand for a lady to strip off her clothes in public! Today, I've truly gotten a huge eye opening experience!"

Green Hunter did not say anything from start to end, only sitting there with a slight smile, allowing Jun Mo Xie to handle the matter. If it was in the past, with her character, this 'Lord Sima' would have turned into a corpse by now. In fact, she would even kill her way to his family, wiping them out until blood flowed like a river!

But now that she had Jun Mo Xie by her side, although Green Hunter was still incredibly enraged, she did not display any emotions on the surface, allowing her man to handle everything. Simply because... I'm his woman now! Everything about me will be left up to him to decide!

At this time, the other Sky Xuan experts also stood up hesitantly. Towards Sima Shang's behaviour, all of them also felt somewhat uncomfortable. But because of the other's strength, they didn't dare to say much even though they were enraged. One of them cleared his throat and said, "Lord Sima, everyone is roaming the pugilistic world, and there's bound to be misunderstandings no matter what. Let's talk things over and forget about the unpleasant stuff with a laugh. Even if there's any serious disagreements, it's fine to just fight it out... but to force a girl to strip in public, is truly a little overboard."

Sima Shang shifted his eye and snorted coldly. "Oh, does that mean you're teaching me what to do now!?"

That Sky Xuan expert instantly felt a rush of anger in his chest. "Lord Sima is a peak Sky Xuan expert, and also a person who had received a Red Copper Invitation Letter. How could this one dare to say the words 'teaching'? However, all of us are here because of Lord Jun's invitation. If we were to cause trouble along the way, it would be bad if Lord Jun found out about it!"

"What kind of person is Lord Jun that he would care about this kind of minor matter?" Sima Shang snorted and said. But when the other person mentioned the name Lord Jun, his forceful stance softened considerably. However, he still did not intend to let the two small characters off. Especially this sweet looking girl who would cause a ball of fire to rise in anyone's hearts just by looking at her, let alone hugging her in their arms... And the best thing was that there wasn't any powerful faction backing her.

How could this kind of beauty be something that this little gigolo was worthy of possessing? Only I, Lord Sima am worthy of such a beautiful plaything...

Jun Mo Xie chuckled coldly. "Since you want my woman to take off her clothes... what are you waiting for? Come then!" Young Master Jun crossed his legs in a leisurely manner as he stretched out his hand. In an instant, a powerful suction force appeared from him!

Although this suction force was strong, it was only concentrated on Sima Shang alone. Even the people who were standing right beside him did not feel the slightest breeze.

Under the disbelieving eyes of the crowd, this peak Sky Xuan expert who had been acting so arrogantly was suddenly lifted helplessly into the air and pulled towards Jun Mo Xie!

A look of absolute terror appeared on Sima Shang's face, but he couldn't even utter a single word! Jun Mo Xie had already sealed off the space around him, stopping him from speaking. Even the hairs on his body were frozen on the spot!

The faces of the crowd instantly changed! Looking at Jun Mo Xie's outstretched hand and Sima Shang flying helplessly through the air, everyone felt as if they were hallucinating!

Telekinesis.... and the target being controlled was even a peak Sky Xuan expert! What kind of profound cultivation was that? This level of strength had already far surpassed the knowledge of the crowd long ago, and they completely had not even heard of such a mysterious technique!

Sima Shang who had been caught, instantly knew that he had smashed his foot against an iron board this time!

Although he still didn't know what kind of methods the other was using, but it was clear that such a character was definitely not someone that he could offend!

But even though he was feeling incredibly fearful in his heart, he was still confident in the trump card in his hands. With that trump card, he was sure that the other person would not hurt him! Because he was holding the invitation letter that the Evil Monarch himself had sent to him!

In this current era, not many people would dare to defy that legendary Evil Monarch!

Although this brat was powerful and had unfathomable cultivation, but even if he was a person from the three Holy Lands, he would still need to fear the Evil Monarch!

Sima Shang's body floated past the three tables between them, finally coming to a stop before Jun Mo Xie's table. When his feet touched the ground, Sima Shang instantly felt that he had regained his movement. The other party had clearly dismissed the strange suppression energy on him.

"This 'Lord Sima' whose words are the law around here... kneel down for me immediately!" Jun Mo Xie glanced over and in an instant, a terrifying aura crashed down!

Sima Shang felt like his body which had regained its movements had suddenly turned as heavy as if a mountain was set upon his shoulders. Without the ability to resist at all, his legs softened and he plopped down heavily onto the ground on both knees!

"Now, tell me... do you still want my woman to take off her clothes for you?" Jun Mo Xie used a foot and lifted up Sima Shang's chin, raising his head. Tapping the side of his shoe against that old greasy face, he asked with a disdainful expression.

Humiliation! Absolute humiliation!

But no one present found anything strange about this scene! The other party had such great power, so how would he be polite towards this Sima Shang who dared to be rude to his woman? Doing only this to him was rather merciful already...

"It was this little one who had eyes but failed to see Mt. Tai, speaking wrong! It is easy to kill, but there's no need to go overboard when the purpose has already been achieved. However, does Mister really dare to kill me!?" Sima Shang's face was completely pale, and sweat rolled down his face. However, he still grasped desperately to the life saving straw in his hand, and attempted to struggle against death.

"Even at this point, you think that I won't dare to kill you? I really wonder where your confidence comes from! For the sake of your guts alone, I'll send you off cleanly... the Yellow Springs is long and winding, have a good journey!"

Jun Mo Xie lifted his brows and said in a good humored manner as he looked at this Sima Shang. From the moment this fellow said he wanted his Qian Xun to take off her clothes, Jun Mo Xie had already sentenced him to death!

Young Master Jun truly did not know if there was anybody in this world that he didn't dare to kill! Even if the other party was the Nine Nether Fourteenth Young Master... as long as he could kill the person, he would kill. Not to mention a mere Sima Shang that was no stronger than a mere ant?

"You dare?! I'm a guest of Lord Jun! I have an invitation letter from Lord Jun! You cannot kill me!" Sima Shang could feel the growing killing intent from the other's body, and suddenly remembered that the latter didn't seem to know about the significance of the invitation letters. In a moment of panic, he cried out and gripped the bronze letter in his hand tightly...

Chapter 1073: Kill!

"A guest of Lord Jun?" Jun Mo Xie narrowed his eyes and furrowed his brows. "I wonder what kind of power and influence this Lord Jun has that I cannot kill his guests!?"

"The Evil Monarch!" Sima Shang howled in a hoarse voice. "I admit that you are indeed very strong! But even if you're stronger, can you be stronger than the Evil Monarch, Lord Jun Mo Xie?!"

"Evil Monarch... Lord Jun Mo Xie?" Jun Mo Xie was completely stunned as he rubbed his nose and turned around to look at Green Hunter. Seeing the look on his face, she could not help but to turn her head away and burst out laughing...

F*ck, this daddy is right here, but this fellow is using my name to threaten me?! And using his power and influence to force his own wife to strip...

This was no longer just a simple joke...

"The letter you're holding in your hand was sent by the Evil Monarch, Jun Mo Xie?" Jun Mo Xie's face turned rather unsightly.

"Indeed!" Sima Shang smirked proudly.

From the looks of it, although this fellow was strong, he still didn't dare to offend the Evil Monarch. Raising his head, he snorted. "Hurry and let me go! I'm a guest that Lord Evil Monarch invited fervently! I'm a person with a Red Copper Invitation Letter. Do you know what that means?"

Jun Mo Xie did not bother to respond, and only waved his hand. The red copper colored letter in Sima Shang's hand instantly floated up into his hand. After reading through it carefully, he could not help but shake his head with a bitter smile.

Green Hunter also turned her head over curiously. There was only one sentence on the invitation letter: On the 15th day of the sixth month, the Evil Monarch's reign will be established; the sovereign will descend, uniting the pugilistic world!

The Evil Monarch's faction establishment?

Jun Mo Xie furrowed his brows. In just an instant, he could already understand the situation!

This was undoubtedly Mei Xue Yan's work!

In this world, the person who could be said to understand Jun Mo Xie the most, was Mei Xue Yan!

From the looks of it, Mei Xue Yan must have already managed to raise the strength of everyone in Tian Fa to a suitably high level after she brought the Spirit Vein fragments back. Furthermore, she should have also ensured that the Jun Family's strength had reached a level where they could deal with any changes! If they still remained quiet like that and continued to stay in the shadows, it would be too much of a waste of heavenly treasures...

The most important thing was that it was now the crucial time when the War for Seizing the Heavens was about to happen. Announcing the establishment of their own faction at this timing was the most advantageous. The three Holy Lands would have to suffer humiliation, but would not dare to do anything, even needing to take extra effort to butter up to the Jun Family.

There was another reason: Jun Mo Xie was assumed to be in the Misty Illusory Manor right now. With the strength of the Misty Illusory Manor, how could their information network be lacking? How would they not suspect Jun Mo Xie's identity? How could they not investigate?

If the Evil Monarch suddenly came up with such a high profile event at this point, no matter how many suspicions there were about Jun Mo Xie's identity in the Misty Illusory Manor, they should not suspect that Mo Jun Ye would actually be Jun Mo Xie!

Apart from Jun Mo Xie, no one else would have those same miraculous abilities like him...

Since the Evil Monarch was still in the Xuan Xuan Continent and was announcing his establishment of a faction in such a high-key way, how would he appear in the Misty Illusory Manor?

This would be the biggest cover for Jun Mo Xie's infiltration mission!

In the entire Tian Fa Forest, only Mei Xue Yan had enough power even among the entire Jun Family to make such a decision on Jun Mo Xie's behalf!

On top of that, Mei Xue Yan was the only person who understood the pride in Jun Mo Xie's heart better than anyone else!

When they retreated into Tian Fa back then, it was because the Jun Family had been in danger of being hunted down by the three Holy Lands. It was a move done out of desperation and after being pushed into a corner! If Jun Mo Xie was expected to carry this shame all his life, it was impossible!

Jun Mo Xie might have been able to accept living under the protection of others for a moment, but he would not be able to endure a life of hiding in another's arms! The moment the situation in Tian Fa Forest became inverted, and they expected the Jun Family to be part of Tian Fa, that would be the day that their relationship would break down!

Because it was inevitable that Jun Mo Xie would one day start his own faction and become independent!

As a woman of the Jun Family and the number one Beast King of Tian Fa, Mei Xue Yan had also been deliberating over this matter for a long time. But in the end, she still made her decision!

After discussing extensively with the eight great Beast King seniors, Mei Xue Yan decided to establish the Evil Monarch Manor! And also put the entirety Tian Fa as part of the Evil Monarch Manor's power!

In other words, everything would belong to the Evil Monarch as the Lord!

That way, the new power will no longer be under the lead of the 'Jun Family', but under Jun Mo Xie! This decision was the best method to avoid any conflicts!

Because the revival of Tian Fa and the Xuan Beasts of Tian Fa had been the work of Jun Mo Xie alone!

Tian Fa's millions would depend on the success or failure of one person!

Those words were indeed the truth!

For Jun Mo Xie to be called the savior of Tian Fa Forest was fully deserving!

But this decision could only be made by Mei Xue Yan alone. Only her could do this!

No one else could, including Jun Mo Xie!

If it were Jun Mo Xie himself who proposed this, regardless of his original intentions, he would still be viewed as being ungrateful! Even if he did not request for Tian Fa Forest's support in his new faction, the Xuan Beasts of Tian Fa would still see him as a person who wanted to separate from them...

The only person suitable enough to do this was Mei Xue Yan!

Thus, Mei Xue Yan chose this time to announce the establishment of the Evil Monarch Manor. From the looks of things, even Jun Mo Xie himself did not know about this. However, this was a good thing for all sides! If Jun Mo Xie knew about it in advance, no matter what kind of reaction he gave, it would not be good...

But since everything had already been decided and the news had been announced to the entire continent, and the Jun Family and Tian Fa were also going to merge into one entity, there naturally needed to be a big enough ceremony!

As such, the entire matter had developed like this! Especially after Fatty Tang had heard about the matter and used his wealth to further boost this event up! Just like that, the matter of the establishment of the Evil Monarch Manor grew more and more dramatic, creating a storm throughout the entire continent!

Right now, even though the Evil Monarch Manor had not been established yet, its reputation and momentum was already unrivaled, to the point where it was even more exaggerated than the three Holy Lands!

The most ridiculous thing was that all this had been a result of a decision made at the last minute!

Who would have thought that before he knew it, he had become the Lord of one of the five strongest factions in this world! Furthermore, it was even one of the strongest one!

Tian Fa might still lack some true top tier experts like Saint Venerables and above...

However, their foundations were definitely the firmest! With a pill refining monster like Jun Mo Xie, he was confident that he would definitely be able to create the most powerful Saint Venerable army in a short time!

Jun Mo Xie sighed heavily. He could feel all the efforts that Mei Xue Yan had put in for him!

Mei Xue Yan could be said to have given up all her power and thrown away everything for him! She had even considered the finest details of his feelings.

To be able to find a person who truly understood every part of him, and go so far as to give up all she had for him... what else could he ask for in this life?

In that moment, even the killing intent in Jun Mo Xie's heart had disappeared, and he no longer wished to kill Sima Shang! Because right then, he could only feel a content and touching emotion!

"Fine then, taking into consideration of the Evil Monarch Manor's grand establishment, I will give you some face. You just said that it is easy to kill, but one should not go overboard when the purpose had been achieved, right? Fine then, you can kneel properly and kowtow nine times to my wife here, and admit your wrongs nine times. After that, you can scram." Jun Mo Xie raised his hand and casually threw the Red Copper Invitation Letter onto the table, causing it to be deeply embedded into the table, such that it was flushed perfectly with the surface.

"I was wrong?" Seeing that his threat had worked, Sima Shang instead grew bolder. "Now that you've offended the Evil Monarch, you still want me to kowtow?! If you let me go now, that would be the end of it. If not, hm hm..."

Waving his hands he said. "Even if you killed me to silence me, all of these people here are also going forth to congratulate Lord Jun. If Lord Jun finds out that you'd not only made things difficult for his guest, and even took their life, what do you think the result will be!? Your strength may be great, but are you stronger than the three Holy Lands?"

Sima Shang's goals had been lowered greatly by now. He could clearly tell that this person in front of him was someone he couldn't offend at any cost. He didn't dare to covet after the beauty anymore and only wished to retreat safely. But this place was still his old nest, and if he really kowtowed towards a young girl, begging for forgiveness, he would really lose all his face and standing in society...

"Pu..." The stone-faced Snake Queen finally could not bear it and burst out laughing. This matter was simply too amusing. "This Lord Sima, do you know what a fortunate thing it is for you to be able to keep your life today? To actually still want to keep your face as well? I originally didn't want to say anything at all, but you're simply..."

Sima Shang hardened his scalp and said stubbornly. "No matter who it is, they definitely need to give old man Evil Monarch some face! Although your cultivations are high, but... in the eyes of the Evil Monarch, you're still nothing!"

With these words, the killing intent in Jun Mo Xie's heart which had dissipated began to rise up again!

In this world, just how many people were similarly using his name as a flag to bully the weak?

I did not kill those people, but those people died because of me! If I do not remove such plagues, how will I be able to set my mind at ease!

“HAHA... what a ludicrous joke!” Jun Mo Xie raised his head to the sky and laughed as his killing intent burst out again. Sneering icily, he said, “To dare threaten this Seat and this Seat’s woman with my own name? Sima Shang, your dogsh*t guts are truly amazing ah...”

As he said that, he’d already stretched one hand out and gripped onto Sima Shang’s right shoulder. With a light squeeze, a terrifying sound of bones popping and shattering rang out. With just that light squeeze, a large part of Sima Shang’s bones on his right side had already been crushed!

However, this level of pain was actually unable to hide the shock and disbelief in his heart!

Sima Shang’s eyes widened and nearly popped out of his eye sockets!

To dare threaten this Seat and this Seat’s woman with my own name?!

What was the meaning of those words...

Chapter 1074: The Monarch Arrives tt Tian Nan!

It wasn’t that Sima Shang did not understand, but he did not dare to imagine! He only wished that time would stop in this instant!

The others were no fools as well, and they understood in an instant. In that moment, everyone’s faces turned pale as they looked at Jun Mo Xie with horror. This youth before them was actually the legendary... Evil Monarch?!

Right, according to the rumors, there were some that said that the Evil Monarch was actually Jun Mo Xie from the Jun Family of Tian Xiang. And that Third Young Master Jun was a youngster who haven't even reached 20 years of age... Apparently, this Evil Monarch was a handsome and intelligent young master with a pretty boy appearance...

Could this really be him?

At this time, Sima Shang screeched pathetically as the pain from his nerves and bones woke him up from his shock...

"Jun... Lord Jun... Old Master... spare... spare me... ah...." Sima Shang's body shook all over. Never in his wildest dreams would he have expected that his luck would be this bad!

He'd taken out the name of the Evil Monarch to bully others, but the person he'd been trying to bully was actually the Evil Monarch himself!

This kind of luck was truly too f*cking heaven defying...

Just how many bad deeds did his ancestors commit for him to be as unlucky as this ah...

Jun Mo Xie snorted coldly, not even paying attention Sima Shang's pleading. With a light kick, a bang rang out, and Sima Shang's petrified body was directly smashed backwards with a pathetic scream!

His 'flight path' was not completely straight, actually arching through the air as though he was a ball kicked by a famous football star. Curving spectacularly, his body flew out of the window and soared high into the sky before bursting apart like a firework, causing flesh and blood to rain down from the sky...

His entire body had burst into fragments at the same time, not leaving even a single complete bone.

This was the true meaning behind having one's body pounded to pieces and one's bones ground to powder!

“If anyone else dares to use the reputation of the Evil Monarch Manor to commit all kinds of crimes and bully the weak, they will follow the example of Sima Shang!” Jun Mo Xie said coldly. These people had not shown any intentions of colluding with Sima Shang in his villainy, and had even tried to stop him, so Jun Mo Xie would naturally not make things hard for them.

Everyone was as silent as cicadas in the winter. Some of the more timid ones even begun shivering in fear. Jun Mo Xie’s name had already resounded throughout the entire Xuan Xuan Continent, and nearly everyone already knew that this prince of the corrupted world was a world ending demon that killed without so much as blinking his eyes. En, it would be more accurate to say that this was a world ending Evil Monarch.

After seeing him in the flesh today, one had to say that indeed, to know a man by repute was not as good as meeting him face to face! His real person was even superior to his reputation!

Jun Mo Xie stood up slowly and smiled. “This Seat thanks everyone for your great efforts to prepare for the opening ceremony of the Evil Monarch Manor. May everyone have a safe journey! If we are fated to meet, we shall see each other again at Tian Nan.” After saying that, he took Green Hunter’s hand and looked coldly at the direction where Sima Shang had come from. “How’s the reputation of the faction that this Sima Shang comes from?”

“Replying to Lord Jun, the faction that Sima Shang belongs to is known to be evil and forceful. But because Sima Shang was already a peak Sky Xuan expert, no one could go against them!” The Sky Xuan expert who had stood out to stop Sima Shang earlier came out again and answered in a respectful manner.

“I see, so it’s a sinful and immoral tyrant who likes to bully others. In that case, there’s no need for them to exist anymore.” Jun Mo Xie said in a bland manner. Holding Green Hunter’s hand, he the pair disappeared in a flash.

Half a second later, a silver ingot flew through the sky and landed on the table that Jun Mo Xie had been sitting on a moment ago, landing softly without a sound...

The Evil Monarch!

The few Sky Xuan experts were so agitated that even their bodies shook!

Because not only had they seen the Evil Monarch personally, they'd even received an order from him!

"In that case, there's no need for them to exist anymore!" This sentence was undoubtedly an order for them!

Sima Shang's faction's end was already destined to be doomed, and they would naturally get to be the ones to destroy it! At the same time, the spoils would also go to them! That was the meaning in the Evil Monarch's words! This was already the equivalence of gifting them a great fortune!

An order by the Evil Monarch was already far superior to the imperial decree of any emperors in the world right now! From the moment the Evil Monarch said those words, the fate of Sima Shang's faction had already been decided!

If the faction that the Evil Monarch had described as 'a sinful and immoral tyrant' was still allowed to exist, wouldn't it be a slap on the Evil Monarch's face? And if that slap was jointly given to him by all of them... who would dare to do that?

It was likely that no one would be able to bear that result. Even the three Holy Lands would not dare!

Everyone's eyes grew bloodshot in that instant; if this matter was not accomplished, how would they face the Evil Monarch when they reached Tian Nan? If that happened... they might not even have the chance to meet him after they reached there...

Numerous pairs of red eyes turned towards the direction of Sima Shang's group. In that moment, those hulking guards all took a step backwards in fear! Especially the girl who had eyed the dress greedily—she directly collapsed weakly to the ground!

Who would have thought that this matter would escalate to this level because of a woman's love for clothes? How would she know that her entire family would be pushed into an endless abyss because of this matter?

So ladies, it's not a crime to like clothes, but do not demand for it forcefully... if your boyfriend ended up being forced to empty their life savings to get the clothes... then, it would be better to not have that dress...

In that moment, a wave of horse galloping sounds rang out. Look at him, as expected of the Evil Monarch ah! He even paid for a meal he ate at the inn, not willing to take any advantages... how noble and graceful ah...

To pay for one's food was a natural thing, but Young Master Jun paying for his meal had actually become a noble action...

How understanding and sympathetic of the commoner's hardships, ah...

How chivalrous and cool...

On that afternoon itself, Sima Shang's faction was directly flattened by the joint attacks of all the other factions, completely disappearing from this world!

All because the Evil Monarch had said: There's no reason for them to exist anymore...

The sudden arrival of this news caused Young Master Jun who had intended to stop by at Tian Xiang City for a moment to quickly dispel his thoughts...

Jun Mo Xie and Green Hunter hurried all the way without rest towards Tian Nan!

In order to move even faster, Young Master Jun even carried Green Hunter on his back. Revolving the Yin Yang Escape Art to its maximum speed, he charged forward as if he had mounted a cloud and was riding the mist...

As the sights of the clear waters came into view, they could finally see the outlines of Tian Nan!

Green Hunter's eyes had even become somewhat painful after being exposed to the fierce winds because of the speed they had been travelling at. Gasping with shock, she shook her head. "Brother-in-law, that speed of yours is truly too terrifying! Eldest Sister is also good with speed, but even Eldest Sister would probably be slower than you!"

Jun Mo Xie laughed aloud and dashed across the water. "What speed? Haha, lass, I'll let you see take a good look today!

I travelled across the North Sea in the morning and went to Cangwu in the evening;

The green snake hidden in my sleeves boosts my courage;

And so I recite loudly as I fly across Tian Nan lake!"

"This should be the so-called 'poem' right... Brother-in-law is still the most cultured, spouting such beautiful words as soon as you opened your mouth, how wonderful, ah!" Green Hunter said with a worshipful expression. "But the phrases are somewhat not right... Although I'm a green snake, but... I'm on your back, not in your sleeves..."

"Ah... haha..." Young Master Jun laughed awkwardly, his face somewhat red. It wasn't because the Snake Queen wasn't in his sleeves, it was because of her praise! Cultured? Was that considered a compliment?"

Although Young Master Jun's face was thick, there was still a limit to it. Even though this brother had plagiarized the poem and adapted it well, it isn't worthy enough to be called 'cultured' right...

After crossing Tian Nan lake and continuing forward for another day and night, Tian Nan finally came into view!

Jun Mo Xie was surprised to discover that the normally quiet Tian Nan City was suddenly filled with flags all over the place, as though there was a grand festival going on. At the same time, a loud bustling noise could be heard, as though it was the waves on a beach...

As he came closer, he could not help but to gasp with shock and rub his eyes a few times. He truly did not dare to believe the sight before his eyes...

There were at least tens of thousands of white tents pitched at the south of Tian Nan City, stretching for over a thousand li . It was as if a huge snowstorm had fallen on this grand festival...

On the other side, there was a gigantic tent with a tall flag fluttering in the wind above it! Just from the height of this tent, it seemed to be at least 50 zhang high! From the looks of it, the poles of the tent had been taken from a towering tree that reached into the skies!

Just this so-called 'flag pole' would probably have a base so heavy that even over 20 muscular men would not be able to lift together...

There were 16 large words ¹ on the flag, and each word was the size of a house, bright golden in color and dancing mightily in the wind!

When Young Master Jun saw those words, he nearly fell right out of the sky!

"The sovereign descends, Evil Monarch! Uniting the pugilistic world, for ages to come!

F*ck! Did another brother from Earth transcend over here? Such a slogan would cause anyone to think of the legendary Dongfang Sect Leader ¹Just thinking about it caused Young Master Jun to feel a breeze under his legs, and his chrysanthemum tightened unconsciously...

A distance away, countless members of the Evil Monarch Manor were dressed in different colored clothes and attending to the guests. There were people busy everywhere, as if the entire city was impoverished and were trying to earn money...

There were simply too many guests, and they came surging in wave by wave like a tsunami...

Before him, Jun Wu Yi was attending to the guests along with his wife. The two of them were filled with a light and cheerful happiness of spring, and their faces were wreathed in smiles.

Chapter 1075: Reunion!

In this period of time, the charity work that Jun Wu Yi was heading had grown incredibly smooth under the support of huge amounts of wealth. Countless orphaned children had all been taken in by them, providing them with food and lodging, as well as a place to belong. At the same time, the mental burden in his heart had also lessened greatly...

Han Yan Yao was also naturally very happy. The shadow that had been in her heart had already disappeared through the innocent smiles on these children's faces...

Her face was filled with happiness, and her belly was already bulging a little... from the looks of it, she was pregnant...

With a shua sound, Jun Mo Xie suddenly appeared before Jun Wu Yi and Han Yan Yao.

"Mo Xie!" Jun Wu Yi cried out with shock and joy after being stunned for a moment. After instructing the disciples beside him to bring the guests into the resting area, which was the huge white tent, he hurried over.

"You still want to play the fool!" Young Master Jun cried out in an exaggerated manner. "Who beat my Third Aunt's stomach until was swollen? This is simply too much bullying! This won't do,;I'll go and look for that person immediately! Who dares to bully a person of my Jun Family! Truly too intolerable! See if I don't fix that guy up!"

Han Yan Yao's face burned bright red, and she held her stomach with both hands, never letting go...

Young Master Jun's face was wreathed with worry. "Third Aunt, is it painful? Are you fine? Don't worry... I have the best medicine for pain... just tell me who it is! I'll go and give him a good beating! To dare to bully my Third Aunt... that fellow is too brave!"

Han Yan Yao's face was so hot that one could fry an egg on it, and she didn't know how to answer. She dug her feet into the ground, as if she was trying to burrow into it!

"Pa!" With a loud smacking sound, Jun Wu Yi's foot landed on Jun Mo Xie's butt as he scolded. "F*cking brat! Is your butt starting to itch now that you haven't been fixed for a long time? To actually cause trouble the moment you come back? It's one thing to joke around with me, but to ignore seniority and tease your Third Aunt... your wings have gotten hard huh..."

Third Master Jun had only been momentarily confused and had not been able to react at the start. This nephew of his was well accomplished in the field of medicine, so how would he not know about things like pregnancy? Even if he didn't know, he must have at least seen a pregnant women before. That little brat definitely had hidden meanings in his words. Not mentioning anything, if that kid saw that his family members had been bullied, he definitely wouldn't smile and behave this cheekily. Thus, how would Third Master Jun possibly be polite with this little fellow who was obviously messing around!

Jun Mo Xie yelped in pain and turned around clutched his bottom with a sly grin on his face. "Third Uncle, don't be angry, I haven't seen you all for so many days and was beginning to miss you... I was just joking with Third Aunt. If people within the family don't even make jokes, how would it be fun... En, if you're still angry, you can at most make fun of my wife in the future when I have children... I don't really mind..."

Jun Wu Yi's face turned slightly green as he raised his hand and began to wallop Jun Mo Xie. As he administered the beating, he panted heavily with every hit...

You brat naturally wouldn't mind, but can an elder like me do that? I'm considered from the older generation, and also somebody's husband... make fun of your wife? What nonsense is that?

Jun Mo Xie laughed aloud and pulled Green Hunter's hand as he ran away...

Apart from Third Master Jun, there truly seemed to be no one else who could chase this Evil Monarch around like a rabbit!

In the distance, the place which was originally the encampment area of the Evil Monarch Manor's outer region had now been changed into a stretch of pavilions... the walls were constructed with large green stones that were unusually simple and heavy. With just a glance, it looked deep and solemn with an aura as though it could swallow a person!

Before the door, Mei Xue Yan, Guan Qing Han, Dugu Xiao Yi, and Han Yan Meng were dressed in snow white dresses with a faint red waistbands around their hips, all standing there with gentle smiles waiting to receive him!

The eyes of the four girls were actually all filled with the same pining! The same fervent looks! They were all trying their best to control their emotions, and the eyes of the two little girls Dugu Xiao Yi and Han Yan Meng were already somewhat red...

They few of them had already received the news of Jun Mo Xie's return and had specially come here to welcome him...

Behind the window inside, Princess Ling Meng's tears also welled up in her eyes as she looked yearningly at Jun Mo Xie...

"Big brother Mo Xie!" Dugu Xiao Yi screamed and ran up, laughing and crying. The little lass skipped over from a distance away like a little sparrow. Jun Mo Xie had not even managed to recover from the sight of the four beauties when he felt a petite ball of fire jumping into his arms...

“How come you’re only back now! Wuwu... I was almost bored to death here... I even picked up mahjong to dispel my boredom but who would have thought that I would lose every single round! Even the money I’ve secretly hidden away is gone.... wu wu...”

Dugu Xiao Yi clung to him like an octopus, and rained her little fists on his chest. The more she spoke, the harder she cried. “... no one would let me win at all; it’s all your fault, all your fault! Why didn’t you come back earlier... if you were here, I wouldn’t have lost so badly...”

As she cried, she did not forget to wipe her little face on his chest...

Jun Mo Xie carried the cute little lass in his arms as sweat rolled down the back of his head. This lass, is she crying because she missed me or is she sadder about her hidden money?

Although he shook his head internally, he still consoled. “En, it’s all my fault, all my fault... How much did you lose? Count it all on me, later on, this hubby will return it to you double. If they don’t let you win in the future, I’ll help you take revenge...”

As he consoled her, Young Master Jun discovered another shocking matter. The two of them were practically sticking together right now, but he could see that in just these few days that they hadn’t seen other, this little lass had already turned into a grown lady... Her originally curvy body had become even more enchanting, enough to steal a person’s soul!

Just that short moment of hugging was already enough to cause a fire to burn in Young Master Jun’s heart. Although it was still not to the point where he was pitching a tent in his pants, it was still unavoidable that his blood was flowing somewhat faster...

Young Master Jun smiled happily and leaned towards Dugu Xiao Yi’s side and whispered into her ear. “Wow, I hadn’t expected that in just a few days, my little Xiao Yi has already become a grown lady... How are your culinary skills now? Do you know how to cook properly this time? At the very least, you should know how to cook raw grains into rice now right? Later on, I’ll get you to perform a little bit for me... this Elder brother is looking forward to cooking rice with you ah...”

“AH~~ you big baddy~~ shameless!” Dugu Xiao Yi instantly blushed a deep red when she heard Young Master Jun mentioning this matter again. How would she still remember to cry? Quickly jumping out of his arms, she escaped far away. At the same time, she could be heard crying out, “Little White, quickly, bite that shameless fellow for me!”

At the same time, Green Hunter had already dashed forward and was hugging Mei Xue Yan tightly.
“Eldest Sister... I’ve missed you...”

“Green Hunter?! ... It’s you!? ... It’s good as long as you’re back, it’s good as long as you’re back!
Everything will be fine now that you’d woken up...” Mei Xue Yan hugged Green Hunter in her arms as she said in an equally agitated manner...

The good sister that had previously been in a coma had suddenly returned to her... At this moment, Mei Xue Yan’s heart was bursting with happiness. Her sister had returned safe and sound, and her husband had come back as well; it was really an occasion of great joy for her...

Jun Mo Xie walked up to Guan Qing Han with a gentle smile. Guan Qing Han’s eyes were filled with joy as well, but her face was still as cold as ever...

However, Young Master Jun whose face was as thick as the city’s walls would definitely not fall for that. The two were already standing quite close initially. With two steps, he was already right up against her. Before she could resist, Young Master Jun laughed and said in a hair raising voice, “Qing Han... have you missed me?”

Guan Qing Han shuddered and could not help but to roll her eyes. This fellow, why did he have to say such gross stuff the moment he came back? Is such a question appropriate in front of others? Truly.. she didn’t know what to say at all....

“You’re back?” Guan Qing Han replied coldly.

“En, I’m back.” Jun Mo Xie nodded with an honest smile. All of a sudden, he leaned forward in whispered in her ear. “Qing Han... can I go and sleep in your room tonight? I’ve missed you so much in this period of time!”

Guan Qing Han’s ears instantly turned red and she suddenly remembered the night when they were last here at Tian Nan... Gritting her teeth, she scolded harshly: “Horrible pervert! Stupid lecher!” Her face burning bright red, she escaped as well...

Jun Mo Xie laughed aloud as he watched her running away. I'll let you give me a cold face all day long! See if I don't fix you up in the future...

"Hello, little lass Han, no, it should be 'bed warming lass'... kekeke, little sister Han, don't forget to prepare my room properly tonight and warm my blankets after taking off your clothes... I've waited a long time for this; you'd better live up to your words ah, it's already dragged on for such a long time. Since this Young Master is quite free anyway, let's just do it tonight..."

Han Yan Meng was about to skip over happily to greet him, but before she'd even come near him, she heard those same words and immediately fled like a little bird. This big baddy still hadn't forgotten about this?! My goodness...

Another one settled easily!

Jun Mo Xie breathed out a sigh of relief. From the looks of it, having a few wives was still truly quite tiring ah... The only way was to break up their joint camp and attack them one by one... That was the best way to attack...

To have four of them coming out to receive him at the same time, while he had another one right beside him... it wouldn't be appropriate no matter who he was intimate with first. Thus, Young Master Jun could only diffuse the situation first. As for the other matters... there were plenty of time for that. Right now, this was the best move...

Chapter 1076: Horrifying Strength Increase!

Only three of the beauties had been chased away, leaving behind the most difficult one... As he turned around, he spotted Mei Xue Yan and Green Hunter standing side by side, staring at him.

Green Hunter laughed cheekily and suddenly pushed Mei Xue Yan from behind. Caught by surprise, Mei Xue Yan stumbled forward. Although Green Hunter's push was unexpected, she hadn't used much strength. With Mei Xue Yan's cultivation, not to mention a light push like this, even if it had 10 times the force, she would not fall...

But the talented Young Master Jun would naturally not let such a good chance slip. His face instantly changing to a flustered expression. He took one step forward and held her tightly. With an 'anxious' and 'exceedingly worried' tone, he asked, "How are you, Xue Yan? Are you okay? Did you hurt yourself? What's wrong with you, Qian Xun, is there such a rough way of playing? See how I'll deal with you if Xue Yan is hurt..."

As he spoke, his hands did not stop 'examining' her everywhere for injuries... Mei Xue Yan's ears turned red, and it took her a great deal of effort to squirm out of his arms. By then, she was already panting slightly. All the words that she had planned on saying had been forgotten...

A peal of soft laughter could be heard from the side... turning around, the 'perpetrator' Green Hunter had already disappeared from the spot. A few beautiful faces could be seen peering sneakily through the flower bush nearby, as if they were watching an interesting show. When they saw Mei Xue Yan's piercing stare sweeping over, the laughing sounds instantly disappeared...

"You, ah, why are you stirring up trouble as soon as you're back? Stop messing around." Mei Xue Yan controlled her breath and said in a somewhat annoyed manner.

"Yes yes yes, I'll listen to my dear wife's words. If my precious wife doesn't want me to mess around, I won't mess around." Young Master Jun actually stopped in an extremely 'obedient' manner.

Mei Xue Yan's face turned red as she said coughed. "You... are you... satisfied... with this matter of establishing a faction?"

Jun Mo Xie immediately stopped his joking attitude and sighed heavily as he looked deeply at Mei Xue Yan, "Xue Yan... you've truly put in great cares for my sake..."

Mei Xue Yan smiled warmly. "The two of us are already so close; would I not know what is in your heart? Moreover, you've also mentioned to me before that you wished to be person who sets the law of the pugilistic world..." Blinking adorably, she revealed a playful smile. "Today, you already have that kind of power."

"The person who sets the law of the pugilistic world..." Jun Mo Xie mumbled and smiled. "The whole world shall submit under my rule!"

“In this world, there are only things that you cannot imagine, and nothing that you cannot accomplish. I trust that you can do it for sure!” Mei Xue Yan gazed warmly into his eyes.

Jun Mo Xie smiled faintly as he leaned closer to her. “My dear wife, let’s put those things for later... after we establish the Evil Monarch Manor, shouldn’t we enter the nuptial chamber first... before talking about the other stuff?”

How would Mei Xue Yan have expected that Young Master Jun would be able to switch topics so quickly? Completely talking about a different thing without even a blink of the eye! Unfortunately for him, great beauty Mei was not like Guan Qing Han, Dugu Xiao Yi, and the rest who only knew how to run away. Pinching the meaty area of his side, she twisted a full 360 degrees and growled. “So, how much have you gained from your trip to the Misty Illusory Manor?” She also changed the topic in an exceedingly skillful manner.

“Cough cough... that trip was quite smooth, all my objectives had been accomplished...” Jun Mo Xie laughed awkwardly and coughed dryly in a guilty manner. He had indeed obtained everything he wanted, with some unexpected gains on top of it. The only thing was one of the things he’d gained was somewhat awkward to say...

“You’re truly capable to even manage to get your hands on the Seven Colored Holy Fruit?” Mei Xue Yan watched his expression and asked slowly.

“Cough cough, I got it, I got it. With this Evil Monarch taking action personally, not to mention the Seven Colored Holy Fruit, even...”

“En... so you got your hands on the Rainbow Holy Tree as well?” Mei Xue Yan slowed down her words...

“Cough cough... I got it, I got it... that’s only to be expected. With this Evil Monarch acting personally, I naturally managed to get my hands on that too...”

“Then... the little beauty of the Misty Illusory Manor... did you get it too!?” Mei Xue Yan’s voice suddenly turned sharp, arriving like the force of thunder!

How intelligent was Mei Xue Yan? When she saw this fellow stammering and hesitating, she instantly knew that he was feeling guilty. But... what else could he be worried about? There was basically no need to think about that to know...

"Cough cough... I got it, I got it... this Young Master is handsome and talented, and would naturally be able to bag the beauty..." Young Master Jun nodded repeatedly as he boasted. Halfway through his words, he suddenly stopped and gasped. "Eh?!" His tongue was tied, and he immediately swallowed back the rest of his words. However, he'd already said what he should have said, and he had also said what he shouldn't have said...

Mei Xue Yan's expression instantly turned unkind. "So you've really gotten your hands on the beauty?"

"Ah... that... that... I've really gotten the beauty... I didn't actively chase any skirts, but since ancient times, it's always been the case where beauties cannot resist the charms of heroes..."

Young Master Jun lowered his head guiltily, as if he were a criminal being tried in court. He would have to bring Miao Xiao Miao out sooner or later, and Mei Xue Yan would find out about this in the end no matter what. At least now, he wouldn't have to wait until the very last minute to panic. Jun Mo Xie still understood the severity of this matter very well!

"It's always been the case where beauties cannot resist the charms of heroes huh... you're truly not being humble at all..." Mei Xue Yan's lips twitched helplessly as she sighed. "Speaking of which, when will you change this butterfly attracting character of yours..."

Her expression turned cold as she narrowed her eyes. "So you used those methods of yours to anger and drive them away just now, in order to speak to me about this?"

"I can't make any decisions on this matter as well! You'd better gather all of them together and tell it to them yourself." Mei Xue Yan said coldly. "I still have other matters to attend to; you had a long journey, go in and rest first..."

“Xue Yan... you...” Young Master Jun wanted to explain a little further, but before he could say anything, Mei Xue Yan had already disappeared...

How should he handle this now? Among all the girls, he felt that Mei Xue Yan should be considered one of the easiest to appease... But now, even she had overturned the vinegar vat and left...

As for the others, there seemed to be no point in even asking. Their reactions would definitely be the same or even worse!

“Mo Xie... my son...” Hearing the commotion, Dongfang Wen Xin came out of the door.

“Mother!” Jun Mo Xie’s eyes brightened and he hurriedly ran forward. This mother of his was undoubtedly his strongest supporter, always encouraging him to get a few more wives. If his mother could help him to talk to those girls...

Dongfang Wen Xin smiled and hugged him tightly, before examining him up and down. After getting a thorough look, she nodded happily. “You’re getting better and better looking, as expected of the son that I gave birth to...”

In that moment, Jun Mo Xie did not know if he should be laughing or crying. Was his mother praising him, or herself? How confusing, ah...

Following that, Old Master Jun also walked out slowly with a wide smile on his face...

After exchanging some words with his family, Jun Mo Xie finally had time to go over to Tian Fa Forest to check on the changes there.

It was one thing if he didn’t look, but the moment he looked, he received the shock of his life!

It was just a list of names, but it greatly shocked this Evil Monarch whose name resounded all over the world right now!

Ever since Mei Xue Yan came back, she'd been using all her effort to increase the strength of everyone in the Jun Family! Right now, Old Master Jun had already reached the Third level of the Saint realm, while Jun Wu Yi was even more shocking, directly reaching the Saint Emperor realm! Although Han Yan Yao was not as strong as Third Master Jun, she'd still reached the peak of the Saint realm, only one step away from the Saint Emperor realm.

Only Young Master Jun's mother Dongfang Wen Xin was comparatively weaker. Dongfang Wen Xin had never enjoyed cultivation, and her foundations were not good. But with the help of the pills and natural treasures, she'd still reached the First level of Venerable realm.

Guan Qing Han was a Third level Venerable. As Han Yan Meng had better talent and a stronger starting point, she had actually reached the peak of the Fourth level Venerable realm. As soon as she reached the right mental state, she would be able to breakthrough to the Saint realm at anytime.

As for the lass Dugu Xiao Yi, she was simply too lazy, and could never quiet her heart down to cultivate. Even with Mei Xue Yan's great efforts to stuff all kinds of pills to her, she'd only barely reached the First level Venerable realm. Right now, in the entire Jun Family, Dugu Xiao Yi and Dongfang Wen Xin's cultivation was the lowest...

Even Princess Ling Meng had already become a Second level Venerable...

But the one with the most shocking improvements was actually Jun Mo Xie's personal maid, the little loli Ke'er. This lass's talents were excellent, and her heart and mind was firm. In the past, she had already eaten quite a few of Young Master Jun's pills, and this time, she'd directly charged all the way to Second level Saint, even slightly better than Old Master Jun!

Such a shocking result had caused even the normally calm Young Master Jun to widen his mouth with disbelief...

After she finished raising the overall strength of the entire Jun Family, Mei Xue Yan gave the Heaven Destroyer and Spirit Devourer troops, as well as Jun Mo Xie's assassin team another round of upgrades...

If it weren't because their meridians had already reached a maximum limit, these people would have advanced even further!

After all, they'd already raised their strengths after pushing themselves to the limit before. In such a short time, their meridians hadn't managed to recover and get used to the vast changes. If they relied on pills and external help to breakthrough again, these people's meridians might end up exploding...

But even so, these 300 people had also obtained terrifying results after consuming some medicinal liquid that had been made by powder scraped off the top of the Spirit Vein fragments. Right now, there were over 70 people with Saint Emperor among the Heaven Destroyer and Spirit Devourer troop! For the Fourth level Saints, there were a total of 120. As for the rest, even the weakest had reached the standard of Third level Saints...

As for the old experts Solitary Eagle and Feng Juan Yun, they had already reached the Third level of the Saint Emperor realm! Leng Ao and Baili Luo Yun had also attained cultivation of Second level Saint Emperors!

Chapter 1077: Four Mothers Lecturing a Son, and Seven Countries Contending for Hegemony?

Among the entire Jun Family forces, only two people had not used the pills to raise their cultivation—Tian Can and Di Que!

Because Jun Mo Xie had once told them very sternly that as the foundations of their bodies were poor, it was best to raise their strengths using pills and natural treasures only after consuming a Marrow Cleansing Pill. That way, the effects of the pills would be maximized. Thus, those two little fellows had been left behind...

Truthfully, those two little fellows truly had great steadfastness of mind to endure, remaining unmoved even though the people around them were all advancing with the speed of a rocket. They continued to practice harshly, pushing themselves to the limit every day. It was as if the progress of the others did not affect them at all...

The one who had improved the most little Ke'er, but the person whose strength was raised the most was still Mei Xue Yan herself. After having her strength raised once again by the baptism of the Spirit

Vein, she had risen from the peak of the Third level of Saint Emperor realm all the way to First level Saint Venerable First! Although the number of levels she'd crossed was not that great, her strength had increased by a shocking amount!

With just the strength of the current Jun Family, it was already more than sufficient to stand stably at the peak of the world!

However, this alone was still not enough if they wanted to look disdainfully down at the rest of the world!

But if one considered the strength of the current Tian Fa Forest as well, it would be a completely different story!

After consuming the pills that Jun Mo Xie had given them, the eight senior Beast Kings had already recovered back to their peak strengths. With the addition of the Spirit Vein's help, they'd all charged all the way to the level of Second level Saint Venerable!

As for Big Bear and the other new generation Beast Kings, they had also reached the First level of Saint Emperor as well!

The several hundred Xuan Beasts that originally had the strength to transform into human form had also advanced greatly, reaching at least the Third level of the Saint realm. This was not just 10 or eight people... it was over 500 people!

However... the strength improvements had also stopped here...

Because, the Spirit Vein fragments that Mei Xue Yan had brought back had already been completely used up...

Apparently, there were still several thousand Xuan Beasts waiting for their turn in Tian Fa Forest...

From the looks of it, this strength is already sufficient to destroy... this world...

However, this upgrade was not without a price. All those that had advanced had all received a round of Heavenly Tribulation!

In this half a month, the entire Tian Fa Forest was filled with dense clouds and endless lightning... there would often be circumstances where tens of people were caught up in the same Heavenly Tribulation, greatly increasing its fearsomeness...

Each of them were struck by lightning so badly that their faces were grey and their hairs were fried. The more serious ones had even been smacked back into their original forms, with injuries all over their bodies... Even Big Bear had all his fat fried clean, nearly losing his life...

Apparently, this fellow had been overly exhausted after he brought his wife back, resulting in his essence being damaged...

Even though Jun Mo Xie had already cautioned them laboriously and given them all kinds of things to help them, two people from the Heaven Destroyer Team had unfortunately been killed by their Heavenly Tribulation... As for the Tian Fa Xuan Beasts, over 10 had their form and souls extinguished as well...

However, compared to the number that was successful in overcoming the Heavenly Tribulation, that was an insignificant number...

Taking the Thousand Evils and Ten Thousand Poisons Fruit that the Xuan Beasts had been relying on in the past to advance, the percentage of success was only two or three percent. Compared to now, the danger level of advancing could be said to be nearly nonexistent, with a never before seen high rate of success.

Jun Mo Xie's eyes nearly popped out of his head, and it was already a great accomplishment that he hadn't fallen off his chair... Mei Xue Yan had only brought back five, six pieces of fist sized Spirit Vein Fragments, but it had actually achieved such a splendid result! Perhaps splendid was not the right word for this. This result should be described with terrifying! Exceedingly shocking!

My goodness!

If the entire Spirit Vein was completely used up... wouldn't he be able to create a one million strong army of Saint Venerables?!

Jun Mo Xie nearly stopped breathing when he thought of that...

However, thinking about it was all there was to it. Young Master Jun would never do such a wasteful thing...

Before he could wake up from his shock and joy, Young Master Jun was directly grabbed up by Mei Xue Yan. Before the eyes of the entire forest, Mei Xue Yan carried Young Master Jun and pulled him all the way to a small hall.

This was a shared living hall surrounded by a few doors. This was a special residence made for the girls, for them to live together. They were all staying in different rooms, with a common hall in the middle.

This setup was rather similar to the structure that the Nine Nether First Young Master had left in Blizzard Silver City. A large common area, with many hallways which led to other rooms...

With a pu sound, Jun Mo Xie was thrown roughly onto a small stool before the table. When he looked up, he saw four beautiful faces looking intently at him, as if there were four mothers lecturing a son!

From the looks of it, the trial was about to begin!

Mei Xue Yan and Guan Qing Han sat in the middle, while Dugu Xiao Yi and Han Yan Meng sat at the two ends. En, looks like these girls have even determined their own positions internally...

But this matter doesn't seem to have anything to do with that lass Han Yan Meng? What is she to do?

As the four pairs of eyes bored into him, Young Master Jun could not help but to hiccup unnaturally.

This... what is going on? Are they getting ready to administer torture to force a confession?

Four pairs of eyes were locked coldly onto Jun Mo Xie, and even with Young Master Jun's strong will, he felt somewhat naked in front of them...

"Ai... this... this isn't right?" Young Master Jun attempted to struggle. "This... we're all family here, and we share the same blanket... we could have just talked about it privately on the bed... but what is this lass doing here as well?"

He was naturally referring to Han Yan Meng.

From the way he saw it, after he said those words, that lass Dugu Xiao Yi would probably not be affected, while Guan Qing Han would probably snort and leave given her personality. As for Han Yan Meng, she would most probably leave in rage as well...

If everything proceeded as he expected, he would only need to deal with Mei Xue Yan and Dugu Xiao Yi for now. That would be much simpler... Because, there was practically no need to deal with Dugu Xiao Yi at all. If other girls did not fall for her Jun Mo Xie, it would instead be more infuriating for her! Big brother Mo Xie is so outstanding, and you actually don't like him? What is wrong with you?

That would leave only Mei Xue Yan. It was difficult to clap with only one hand, so without any support, it would be easy to handle her...

But contrary to his expectations, although Guan Qing Han's face turned red, she did not move at all. As for Han Yan Meng, she only snorted lightly and raised her chin in defiance.

"En, I've neglected to tell you one thing just now." Mei Xue Yan said coldly. "Madam Han from the Blizzard Silver City had asked Third Uncle and Third Aunt to ask on their behalf, for a marriage between you and Second Young Miss Han Yan Meng... Grandfather and Mother have already agreed. With the agreement of the elders and the two sides' parents, the marriage agreement is already settled. Right now, Han Yan Meng is already a part of our Jun Family..."

Dugu Xiao Yi smiled proudly and nodded. "That's exactly what happened. Now, she even has to call me Elder Sister! That is the only condition I raised when Mother sought our opinion..."

Han Yan Meng's face turned red and she stared fiercely at Dugu Xiao Yi. "What are you so proud about? You're not even as old as I am; don't you feel any shame..."

Dugu Xiao Yi snorted and ignored her. "Our Jun Family's rule is that whoever entered here first is the bigger one! What does it have to do with age! In any case, this Young Lady is now your elder sister!" Han Yan Meng was completely speechless, and she stared angrily at Dugu Xiao Yi. From the looks of it, these two little lasses had quite a bit of quarrels between them.

"To think you have the face to call yourself Elder Sister. Which time did you not lose the most when we play mahjong? And to actually have the face to borrow money from me..." Han Yan Meng said disdainfully.

Dugu Xiao Yi gritted her teeth hatefully. "If I don't borrow some money... how would I recoup my losses? One would not necessarily lose every gamble. You damn lass, not even willing to help me win a little. I gave you such obvious hints every time... but you wouldn't give me any tiles..."

"You kicked my legs swollen everytime we play mahjong! Do you only know how to speak about others and not yourself?" Han Yan Meng rolled her eyes and turned around haughtily. At the same time, she took off her money pouch and shook it with a smirk on her face. A clear clinging sound rang out from inside, and Dugu Xiao Yi's eye immediately welled up with tears, as if she couldn't wait to snatch that pouch over...

Jun Mo Xie's eyes widened with shock...

So it wasn't just him attracting one outside... there was actually one more gained at home, and he was actually still the last to know! The orders of his parents? Marriage agreement? So this world was also such an imperfect world ah...

No wonder the four of them had come out together to welcome him when he came back. At that time, he thought that the Han lass was only joining in for fun...

"En, I almost forgot. Xiao Yi, go and call Qian Xun and Princess Ling Meng over here, and Ke'er as well. This matter concerns them as well, and they also have a right to know..." Mei Xue Yan wielded her authority and instructed in a calm manner.

“Order received!” Dugu Xiao Yi jumped up and walked off in a proud manner, as if she was a great general that had been sent off to the frontlines!

Jun Mo Xie’s sweat poured down his back. From the looks of it, this situation was no longer four mothers lecturing a son. Instead, it’d become seven countries contending for hegemony...

In a short time, all the girls had already gathered. When Green Hunter and the rest saw this strange scene, they could not help but to look at each other with some confusion. They completely could not understand the current situation.

“Sisters, I’m sure everyone knows by now that Mo Xie went out this time in consideration for all of our futures.” Mei Xue Yan said lightly. “Us Xuan cultivators would be able to enjoy an exceedingly long lifespan that could last for even a thousand years or 10,000 years once we reached the peak... However, the prime years of girls are limited, and it is easy for beauty to fade away. Even a country toppling beauty is not exempt from the withering effects of time... Mo Xie had went out this time precisely to find some miraculous spirit herbs that could help us retain our youth for a long time!”

As Mei Xue Yan spoke to here, the entire group gasped aloud.

Miraculous spirit herbs that could retain youth for a long time... do such fabled things actually exist for real!?

“Then... has he found them?” Dugu Xiao Yi was the most impatient, and she asked first, clearly anticipating the answer. This question of hers also reflected the hearts of the other girls.

Chapter 1078: What Happened Next?

“If he couldn’t find it, he probably wouldn’t have come back...” Mei Xue Yan said in a light voice. “However, there’s another matter that I need to tell everyone...”

Although Mei Xue Yan was speaking in a very formal manner, Jun Mo Xie still shot her a thankful glance when no one was looking...

Mei Xue Yan snorted coldly, ignoring him as she continued. "Us sisters have gone through many things together, and everyone had already accepted each other! Although it isn't anything strange for a man to have a few wives and concubines, there is still a limit that us girls can accept..."

Everyone nodded in agreement at this.

"But this time, although Mo Xie had found the spirit herbs, something that shouldn't have happened had still happened in that process..." Mei Xue Yan said coldly. "Without obtaining the approval and opinion of us sisters... he actually secretly... had some relations with the little princess of the Misty Illusory Manor, Miao Xiao Miao... Although this matter could be said to have happened as a result of many coincidences, but... the matter should not have been handled like that. It should have at least gone through a discussion with us..."

"Ah... so that's what happened..." Everyone widened their eyes with realization.

So this was the reason that everybody had been gathered together...

In simpler words, Young Master Jun had cheated outside...

The girls looked at each other, and they lowered their heads together. No one spoke first.

The first one to speak would be hated by Young Master Jun... but what should they do then? Besides, although they had been acknowledged by the Jun Family, they hadn't actually conducted the formal wedding ceremony...

Did they really have the qualifications to speak or be angry with him?

But one thing that cannot be denied was that the girls all felt a sour feeling in their hearts now...

At the same time, all of them scolded in their hearts. This fickle hearted fellow! There are so many beautiful flowers at home, but he still went out and picked up some wild grasses, attracting women everywhere... Is it really true that the flowers at one's own home are never as fragrant as those outside?!

Among all the girls, only Dugu Xiao Yi and Ke'er did not feel much about it. Dugu Xiao Yi only thought to herself: It doesn't seem to be a very great matter? My grandpa had tens of women, and my Second Uncle, Third Uncle also... isn't it a very normal thing for men to have many wives and concubines? Why is Big brother Mo Xie's face so troubled? What's the big deal about this!

Ke'er was even more exaggerated with her thoughts. Our Young Master is such an exceptional and talented person who is destined to be unrivalled in this world. It's a natural thing that girls will be attracted to him. If those girls outside didn't fall for him, they would be blind.

From the looks of it, these two lolitas did not even feel the slightest bit of jealousy. In fact, they seemed to be somewhat proud...

As for Princess Ling Meng, who was sitting in a corner with her head lowered, her heart was in a state of chaos right now. Why? Why was I also called here? These girls are all women that Jun Mo Xie had acknowledged, or his wives in name... he'd never even said that he'd accepted me before... What should I do? Should I leave immediately?

But after thinking like this for a long time, she could not bear to move her feet. Ai, even if I... thickened my face and stayed here a little longer, I can at least see him for a second longer...

The moment Mei Xue Yan finished with her words, she was greeted with a field of silence. Laughing bitterly, she said, "So what should we do? Everyone, you should at least say something right?"

The girls looked at each other, but still didn't say anything.

After a long time, Guan Qing Han coughed drly and spoke up first. "How is... the looks of that girl? And how's her character?" As she said that, she glanced at Jun Mo Xie. "Mo Xie is always very principled when it comes to such matters, and he likely wouldn't be moved just because of lust. I'm guessing that there's some other reasons in this? Why don't we let him tell us himself... We'll decide after hearing the entire story!"

“That is good too.” Everyone nodded.

A light smile appeared at the corner of Mei Xue Yan’s lips. The reason she’d called all the sisters together was precisely to help Jun Mo Xie resolve his problem. Everyone would know about this matter sooner or later, so now was as good a time as any to gather everybody together and reveal it. Furthermore, since everyone was here together, as long as one person said that she didn’t mind, the others would be unlikely to object as well.

No one would want to seem like a small minded and jealous woman in Jun Mo Xie’s eyes.

Moreover, they hadn’t even been married formally yet...

Mei Xue Yan’s move may seem strict and harsh, but it was actually the best method to resolve Jun Mo Xie’s current headache! What kind of intelligence did Jun Mo Xie have? He naturally could understand the reason behind this, which was why he was looking at Mei Xue Yan so gratefully...

However, Mei Xue Yan still rolled her eyes fiercely. At the same time, Young Master Jun heard a faint voice in his ear. “This is the only time! No more! Otherwise... you can forget about getting into the nuptial chamber in this lifetime!”

Jun Mo Xie shivered heavily as he heard this. This punishment was a little too harsh, ah? And this punishment seemed to be including everybody as well...

“The matter began like this...” Jun Mo Xie hurriedly explained. However, as he spoke, he felt somewhat uncomfortable... To narrate his love story with another girl in front of all his women... this feeling... was really too strange...

When they heard that Jun Mo Xie had been targeted by the Zhan Family in the Misty Illusory Manor, the girls were incredibly infuriated, hating that they couldn’t be there as well to beat those two little gigolos up ruthlessly... Naturally, when they heard that Miao Xiao Miao had stood out like that for him, they thought much better of her...

Only when they came to the part when the competition with the Zhan Family was concluded with his win, did they feel more appeased...

The numerous pairs of eyes grew colder as they stared at Jun Mo Xie. With you flaunting so much, displaying so much talent that no one could match... that Miao Xiao Miao is not blind either; it would be strange if she did not fancy you! What is this if it isn't actively seducing women and courting butterflies...

Towards the end, when they heard how Miao Xiao Miao's heart had been broken and she even spat out her heart's blood and fell into a coma because Jun Mo Xie had harshly rejected her, all of them sighed heavily with an 'ah' sound as a look of empathy appeared on their faces...

These girls could all understand this feeling very personally. If they were rejected like that when they loved him so deeply... at the same time, there was a high possibility of being married off to someone whom they didn't like as a marriage offering... they couldn't help but feel a shiver down their spines at the thought...

This was really a situation where they wouldn't have any hopes in life, ah...

By this point, the attitudes of all the girls had already changed. They even wanted to scream at Jun Mo Xie to quickly go and save Miao Xiao Miao and had already forgotten that this girl was their so-called "wild-flower". One had to say, girls were indeed emotional creatures...

When they heard that Jun Mo Xie had ultimately gone and saved Miao Xiao Miao, Guan Qing Han and the rest heaved a sigh of relief together... After that, they heard how Jun Mo Xie had met one of the four original disciples of the Nine Nether First Young Master... and at the birthday of the Manor Lord, Miao Xiao Miao had attracted a Heavenly Tribulation after eating a pill from him...

These events were all exceptionally shocking and the girls were kept on the edges of their seats...

Since it was such a precarious situation, in those circumstances where she was so incredibly touched, it would be strange if nothing happened between them...

After Miao Xiao Miao finally passed through the Heavenly Tribulation successfully, and the two of them entered the Spiritual Herbal Gardens the next day... As he spoke, the girls listened attentively as if they were listening to an interesting story...

Dugu Xiao Yi, Ke'er, and Han Yan Meng were hugging their knees cutely and listening with wide eyes. When Jun Mo Xie came to the end of his story, the three of them asked together. "What happened after that?"

Jun Mo Xie nearly fainted.

Mei Xue Yan, Guan Qing Han and the rest rolled their eyes and sighed. These three lasses, did they really think that they were listening to a story? This was a love rival from the outside ah! Although it was a very pitiable love rival...

But quite clearly, the thoughts of these girls were no longer on this topic or on Miao Xiao Miao. All of them were rather calm: the wood had already been crafted into a boat, and the uncooked rice had already been turned into white rice. What else could they say? They could only accept it. Fortunately... from Jun Mo Xie's words, this little sister Xiao Miao sounded like a pretty nice person whom they could get along with...

The cheating matter had basically already come to an end...

Jun Mo Xie sighed heavily, his heart still conflicted. You girls may be fine, but Miao Xiao Miao still doesn't know that I'm Jun Mo Xie... this is another emotional knot that I still need to resolve...

Right now, everyone was most concerned about another matter: "Mo Xie... does that mean that the Seven Colored Holy Fruits and the Exquisite Lotus are with you now?"

With those words, all their eyes shone brightly...

This was a miraculous thing of legends that could increase 500 years worth of Xuan Qi and retain a person's youth for 500 years ah...

When they thought of how they could live for longer while also retaining their youthful looks, even an icy girl like Guan Qing Han could not remain composed...

As long as it was a girl, there were none who would mind being pretty!

"Does that mean... that everybody has no opinions toward Miao Xiao Miao?" Mei Xue Yan seized the chance and asked.

At this point, no one could be bothered with Miao Xiao Miao... Besides... was there any use even if they were to object? Their man had already been split into so many portions; it wasn't a big deal with he was shared with one more person...

The most important thing right now, was... the Exquisite Lotus and the Seven Colored Holy Fruit...

"I do have them here..." Jun Mo Xie rubbed his nose and said. "However, an increase of 500 years of Xuan Qi and 500 years of youthfulness... those numbers are a bit off..."

"Are they off? Those numbers are passed down from the mouths of the old ancestors, so they might indeed be a bit inaccurate." Mei Xue Yan hesitated and said slowly. "How much are they off by? Is the real numbers 300 years? Or 200 years?"

"It's good even if it's 100 years..." Dugu Xiao Yi said excitedly. "I'll just eat one every 100 years... In any case, we have the tree..."

"It's not 200 years, nor is it 300 years..." Jun Mo Xie raised his hands. "It's this!"

"Only 10 years?" The girls felt somewhat disappointed. After so much effort, it was only 10 years? This... was too much of a blow! Still... even if it's 10 years, it was still better than nothing...

As the girls were comforting themselves, Jun Mo Xie's voice rang out. "Why are you all only counting downwards? This is not 10 years, nor 100 years... it's... 1,000 years!"

Chapter 1079: Live Together, Grow Old Together!

“WA...” A round of gasp echoed out, and Dugu Xiao Yi and Han Yan Meng directly jumped up!

One thousand years!

Such a heaven shocking good news caused all the girls to erupt with joy, and they nearly fainted from the excitement!

Eternal youth, and a thousand years of beauty!

Could this be a dream? Even if it's a dream, please let me dream a little longer, don't wake me up!

Since ancient times, beauties and famous generals did not grow to let the world see their heads of white

The merciless blades of time was what beauties like them feared and hated the most! It was undoubtedly the most terrifying thing in the world to them! If they could retain their youthful looks, even if it was for a short moment, countless women would pursue it with everything they have!

Things like cosmetics and beauty care products were designed to target this part of a woman's heart, which was why they could see so well...

Even if it was only a temporary cover, it was enough to make people go crazy over them, not to mention a magical thing like this which could maintain a person's youth and looks for a thousand years? This was something that all the girls in the world would die to get!

Even Mei Xue Yan also had a strangely agitated look in her eyes!

All seven girls sprang to their feet in an instant as they advanced towards Jun Mo Xie. All of them were rubbing their fists and rolling their sleeves up threateningly as they threatened, "Quickly hand over the stuff!"

Jun Mo Xie nearly peed his pants in fear as he backed up against the wall!

Who would have thought that these few girls would suddenly explode with such a powerful force...

This brother nearly passed out; so the lure of beauty and youth is actually so terrifying...

Cornered and threatened, Young Master Jun could only take out the previously prepared five sets of Seven Colored Holy Fruits. After that, he activated the Power of Wood in the Hongjun Pagoda and created another seven sets of fruits. Then, he reached into the Exquisite Lotus pond and pulled out a comparatively large piece of Exquisite Lotus Root...

"Everyone... my Queens... this little one only has this much; it's all presented before you... this little one does not dare to hide any for myself... please spare this little one ah..." Jun Mo Xie served the stuff up with tears in his eyes. From his pathetic form, it seemed as if he'd been robbed a hundred times...

Seven people, seven sets of the Holy Fruit. The huge piece of lotus root was also divided into seven portions, one for each person. The Exquisite Lotus root that Young Master Jun had taken out was truly large enough. Even after being cut into seven pieces, each piece was still over three times the size of the one at the Heaven Saint Palace. Not to mention the size, the effects of it were also vastly superior. For the stuff produced in the Hongjun Pagoda, how would it be of poor quality...

Looking at the irresistible temptation before them, the girls could not help but turn slightly short of breath as their faces grew red...

Guan Qing Han picked up one set and looked it over curiously before bringing it to her nose and sniffing deeply. After that, she looked at Jun Mo Xie in a queer manner and asked, "En, how come there's only this much? Mo Xie... aren't you eating any?"

“Ah, for the time being, I only have seven sets. There’s seven of you here, just enough for one set per person.” Jun Mo Xie replied as he shook his head internally. Does it matter... whether I eat or not? I’m not a girl, and I’m not afraid of growing old...

“Then...” An extremely complicated look appeared on Guan Qing Han’s face, and her jade-like hands trembled lightly. After a long time, she gritted her teeth and controlling herself forcefully, she placed the Seven Colored Holy Fruits and the Exquisite Lotus back onto the table. As the two items left her hand, one could clearly see the strong struggle in her eyes.

However, she still put the two miraculous treasures back down and step back two steps. Closing her eyes, she said with a somewhat pale face. “If you don’t eat... I won’t eat either!”

“Why?” Jun Mo Xie was truly shocked. When Guan Qing Han put down the Seven Colored Holy Fruits and the Exquisite Lotus, she had undoubtedly just completed an intense battle in her heart!

Anyone with eyes would be able to see how intense that internal struggle was! But Jun Mo Xie had not expected that Guan Qing Han would actually make such a choice!

“Why?...” Guan Qing Han’s color slowly returned to her face. However, her forehead was already lined with sweat. Sighing lethargically, she said, “We care about our appearance, but have you considered who it is for? A gentleman will die for the patron who recognizes his worth, and a girl will doll herself up for the man who loves her! The reason a girl wants to protect her beauty has always been for one reason... for the man she loves!”

Guan Qing Han looked deeply at Jun Mo Xie and said in a slow manner: “If you don’t eat it, you will inevitably grow old. Even if you’re not scared of aging, you will still grow old... At that time, even if we still have beauty enough to topple countries and cities, what is the meaning in that? Since you won’t eat, I will also refuse to eat! Let us grow old together then. I believe that that is also a very happy thing. Could it be that the words ‘living together to a ripe old age’ is only said for fun?”

“Qing Han!” Jun Mo Xie felt a heavy tremor in his heart, as if the oceans were flipping over!

He had never thought that the cold and proud Guan Qing Han would actually say such words!

This girl who looked so indifferent, actually held such extreme emotions!

For the sake of Jun Mo Xie, she was actually willing to let go of the chance for eternal youth! She would rather give up her country toppling beauty in order to accompany him and grow old...

"Sister Qing Han is right, I won't eat it either." This time, it was Han Yan Meng who said that. Following that, Dugu Xiao Yi, Ke'er, and the rest also placed their portions back on the table...

Jun Mo Xie felt a sour feeling on his nose, and he coughed lightly a few times to clear his emotions. Smiling lightly, he said, "Ah, you've all misunderstood me; when I said that I wasn't eating it, I meant it as I'm not eating it temporarily. There's only seven sets right now, but in just a short time, there will be a lot more of this stuff. The seven of you are just the lucky winners of this first harvest, that's all. Not mentioning the other stuff, we have a living Rainbow Holy Tree right now... Although it doesn't bear a lot of fruit, it's still enough for us to eat... not just us, Grandpa, Mother, Third Uncle, Third Aunt, and the rest will also get some. It's just a matter of sooner or later..."

"There's another matter... Third Aunt is pregnant now, and she cannot consume such stuff yet, in case there's an accident... Let's not tell her for now, until after the child is born... En, at that time, the second batch should be almost ready. We can use it as a present!"

"You baddie, why didn't you say so earlier? My heart was almost broken just now by having to let go of this thing. Who asked you big baddie to be a teensy bit more valuable than these spirit herbs..."

Dugu Xiao Yi pouted her mouth and complained. A second later, she laughed happily and beckoned to everyone. "Come come come, everyone, come and eat!" Elder sister Qing Han, you should eat quickly as well... From now on, you don't have to worry that there's nobody to appreciate your beauty anymore. Third Young Master Jun will be able to admire you till a ripe old age! However, the world will never see a single white hair on us beauties... HAHA..."

Guan Qing Han's face turned red, and she lowered her head deeply... However, her eyes were filled with happiness... She once again held the Seven Colored Holy Fruits and the Exquisite Lotus tightly in her hands...

“Alright, you should eat it quickly now.” Jun Mo Xie sighed heavily and said as he controlled his emotions. “I’ll protect you while you cultivate. Later on, the newly acquired energy will charge past the Xuan Qi barriers of your body. In other words, it will attract a lightning tribulation. At that time, we’ll gather together and go through it together.”

All the girls nodded their heads.

Dugu Xiao Yi, who could not wait, had already popped a fruit into her mouth...

Around half a day later...

That huge storm eye in the sky seemed to be telling everyone. There’s someone breaking through here! And, it’s not just one person...

Such a sight was incredibly shocking; who had ever seen so many people undergoing the Heavenly Tribulation together?

In that case, just how deep was the strength of this Evil Monarch Manor?

The Heavenly Tribulation lightning fell the entire afternoon, only dissipating when the sky was about to turn black... When the people in Tian Fa rushed to the site, they discovered to their shock that everything was perfectly peaceful...

If it was just peaceful, that would be fine. But there weren’t any traces of any lightning tribulation there at all...

This matter was truly shocking!

Such a phenomenon was incredibly difficult to explain. The only possible explanation was that the person undergoing the lightning tribulation, did not dodge any of the lightning strikes at all, facing the entire thing fully and also completely dissipating its might such that not even a single shred of it touched the ground.

The instant that this only plausible explanation was raised, it was immediately shot down. This explanation that seemed reasonable was simply too ridiculous and completely impossible!

No one in the world was capable of doing this since ancient times till now!

Even the creator of Xuan Qi cultivation, the Nine Nether First Young Master would likely not be able to do it!

However, apart from this 'ludicrous' explanation, was there any other way to explain this phenomenon?

On the seventh day of the sixth month, 1,000 li north of Tian Fa Forest...

As they looked at the endless span of dark clouds and the lightning that fell like rain, Miao Dao and Miao Jian's faces turned heavy. Miao Xiao Miao wore a simple dress and stood behind the two of them, looking curiously at the strange sight. Her expression was exceedingly calm.

Although Miao Xiao Miao was already at the Venerable realm, her understanding of Xuan cultivation was comparatively weak. Although the Heavenly Tribulation she had experienced that day was shockingly powerful and was fraught with dangers, all the risks had been borne by Jun Mo Xie alone! She could be said to have walked over a precipice as if strolling on a highway!

From what she knew, this Heavenly Tribulation was still not comparable to her Heavenly Tribulation that day. Thus, she naturally did not feel much about this...

But Miao Dao and Miao Jian was widely experienced. How could they not see the kind of danger in this lightning tribulation!

Miao Jian raised his eye and said in a heavy tone. "That is the direction that Tian Fa Forest is in! From my estimations, the Heavenly Tribulation should be taking place at the fringes of Tian Fa Forest. If I'm not wrong, someone powerful has broken through in Tian Fa Forest!"

Chapter 1080: Misty Illusory Manor's Plans

Miao Dao nodded heavily and sighed: "And looking at the scale of this, I'm afraid there's more than just one or two people undergoing the lightning tribulation together! From the direction that the lightning is striking, and the might of this storm, there should be at least three or more people this time."

Pausing for a moment, he laughed coldly. "Don't those people know that the lightning tribulation will become stronger the more people are involved? If it's not because they haven't failed yet, I would even say that those people are simply seeking death. Not mentioning the other stuff, just the might of that lightning tribulation is clearly already at the Saint Venerable level..."

"But to actually not fail despite such a powerful force, those people must have absolute confidence to think of using such an unwise method! Ah Jian, from the looks of it, this Tian Fa Forest's strength... exceeds even our initial estimations! If all of them manage to pass this Heavenly Tribulation, we'll have to reevaluate our strategy!"

Miao Jian's expression was also exceedingly ugly. "Dao, what should we do if the three Holy Lands choose to disregard the bigger picture this time?"

Miao Dao's face also turned ugly. Considering seriously for a moment, he said, "I believe that the three Holy Lands wouldn't really disregard the bigger picture. However, it's impossible for them to not create any hindrances. Their side is already irreconcilable with Jun Mo Xie's side, and their enmity can be said to be impossible to resolve. If not for the War for Seizing the Heavens being so close and their strength is already insufficient, they would have already attacked Jun Mo Xie's side long ago.

"So, although they would not go so far as to try to smash up this event, they would probably apply pressure in many areas, not allowing this Evil Monarch to have his way! The opening ceremony has an auspicious significance. If it doesn't start off well, the influence of the Evil Monarch would not be as great as predicted. At least, it wouldn't be as dazzling as the noontime's sun like now... So, if both sides began fighting, the consequences will undoubtedly be very serious! At that time, our positions could become very awkward. Especially now that we'd seen for ourselves the strength of Jun Mo Xie's side. The moment we make our choice, it would very possibly have a very far reaching effect on the future."

An old man drifted over lightly like a gust of wind, and stood beside the two with a slight smile. "There's no need to be overly worried about the actions of the three Holy Lands. After all, we will not be choosing to stand on the side of the three Holy Lands this time!" Pausing for a moment, he continued. "Of course, we won't be standing on the Evil Monarch's side either."

Miao Xiao Miao hesitated for a moment and said, "En, but I'm afraid it would be quite difficult to maintain a neutral position anymore. Furthermore, an action like urging the tiger to devour the wolf is not necessarily beneficial, right? If the two sides are really intent on vying for hegemony over the continent, our Misty Illusory Manor would undoubtedly need to choose a side for support. If we simply watched coldly from the side, it would only gain the displeasure of both sides. No matter which side comes out the victor in the end, it wouldn't be beneficial to the future development of our Misty Illusory Manor!"

Miao Xiao Miao naturally had her reason for speaking out, and her words were also very reasonable.

As the granddaughter of the Manor Lord, it was expected for her to know more of this kind of things. Although she knew that the Misty Illusory Manor could be considered to be self sufficient on the surface, but there was actually a considerable portion of resources which they still relied on the outside world for!

To get their hands on those resources, there was a need for them to have a certain amount of friendship with the main powers outside.

Previously, they had already worked with the three Holy Lands a few times and had built up a bit of relationship with them. The Seven Colored Holy Fruits that Qiao Ying had consumed was one such important trade.

The three Holy Lands had a monopoly on all those resources that the Misty Illusory Manor lacked. Although the Misty Illusory Manor was domineering, they could not ignore the outside world and live alone.

After all, although the three Holy Lands claimed to be separate from the worldly affairs, there were still countless large families with considerable strength that were affiliated with them!

When added together, the influence and things that they could affect were still extremely terrifying, enough to change the situation of the entire world outside!

And the will of these large and influential families could be completely controlled by the three Holy Lands. Thus, the ability to control the world was actually laying in the hands of the three Holy Lands. It was just that they had already become used to their position and no longer needed to use those powers. But if they decided to use these powers, it would result in a huge change in the world!

“Little lass Xiao Miao has worried overly. The points you mentioned are the core of the Misty Illusory Manor, so how would this old man not understand? Ultimately, it is naturally impossible to not choose a side.”

The old man looked at Miao Xiao Miao with praise as he smiled. “But for now, we don’t have to truly choose yet. Because, we will only be working with the side that wins in the end.”

There was still another sentence that the old man hadn’t said. Although it can’t be confirmed right now, but if Jun Mo Xie is Mo Jun Ye... There was a marriage agreement with the Misty Illusory Manor, but if he loses in this battle, the Misty Illusory Manor won’t choose him.

This matter concerned the ten thousand years future of the Misty Illusory Manor. It couldn’t be taken lightly and changed just because of personal feelings.

Miao Xiao Miao nodded in a somewhat confused manner. Although she had detected the contradictory words in the words of this Sixth Grandpa, she did not continue to pursue the topic. Because all along the way, she had sensed that these few elders seemed to be hiding something intentionally from her...

Miao Xiao Miao didn’t know what was going on, but she was not that interested in poking her nose into matters that were above her. Although she was the only granddaughter of the Manor Lord, she was still young. It wasn’t a big deal if the elders decide not to let her know about certain things. Besides, her main objective in this trip was to look for Jun Ye. That Evil Monarch fellow had nothing to do with her. It was better if they didn’t tell her; at least, she would get to travel leisurely without any troubles...

The Zhan Family’s Zhan Wu Yun had come with his brother Zhan Wu Feng and 12 other Saint level experts. At this time, they were standing silently behind him. Beside him, there were two Fourth level Saint Emperors who were here as his bodyguards. Although the combined strength of the two of them were not greater than Cao Guo Feng and the others when they worked together, it wasn't inferior by much either...

The lineup that the Zhan Family had sent out this time was already sufficient to sweep through this world unrivalled—under normal circumstances!

If it was not because it was the opening ceremony of the Evil Monarch Manor, and a strong showing was required, and if not for the other purposes of the Zhan Family, Zhan Wu Yun would not have sent out such a large force.

But when they saw the dense lightning clouds that stretched for a hundred li in the sky, all of their faces turned slightly green with fright. The look of fear in their eyes was extremely obvious, even though they were not the ones undergoing the lightning tribulation...

The ferocity of this Heavenly Tribulation was so great that their own lightning tribulations were not even one percent as strong as this!

And this exceedingly fearsome Heavenly Tribulation actually carried on for an entire afternoon!

Miao Dao and the rest had also stopped on this mountain a thousand li away, for the entire duration! Only when night descended did they finally return to their tents.

There were 21 people from the Misty Illusory Manor in this trip. The Miao Family had Miao Xiao Miao, Miao Dao, Miao Jian, and the Sixth Elder Miao Zhan; the Zhan Family had 17 people, including Zhan Wu Yun, Zhan Wu Feng, the two Saint Emperor guards, and 12 Saint experts. The only person of the younger generation from the Zhan Family was the previously third ranked and now first ranked youth, Zhan Yu Ting.

In the Zhan Family's Zhan Wu Yun's heart, this Evil Monarch Manor opening ceremony was nothing but a simple ceremony for formality's sake. It was a good opportunity for the young generation to broaden their views. Since the deaths of Zhan Yu Shu and Zhan Qing Feng had already become an unchangeable reality, they could only bring this Zhan Yu Ting, who had never seen the world, to come out and gain more experience. After all, he now carried the hope and future of the entire Zhan Family.

In a country of the blind, a one-eyed man would be king.

They had already arrived there early noon.

Although there was nothing very unique about this area, it was actually the place where the Misty Illusory Manor and the three Holy Lands joined up whenever they had to meet up and go somewhere together. For thousands of years, this had already become a habit.

So although the Misty Illusory Manor had already reached early, they were waiting for the other three forces.

“Grandpas, why aren’t we moving anymore? Isn’t there still a bit of distance till we reach there?” Miao Xiao Miao asked in a confused tone. They had rushed here like the speed of lightning all the way, so why did they suddenly stop? From the looks of it, there was still over a thousand li until they reached the Evil Monarch Manor. Although with their speed, this distance could be covered in just a few short days, it was still quite far away.

Along the way, whenever Miao Xiao Miao passed by a place with people, she would always ask about Mo Jun Ye, seeking to find his trial. However, it was destined that no one would know about this person who did not exist at all. Miao Xiao Miao had travelled with endless hope in her heart, but it grew into greater worry as she went along...

“Little lass, this is the first time you’ve been to Xuan Xuan Continent, and you naturally wouldn’t know. We’re waiting here for the three Holy Lands to meet up with them and go forward together.”

Miao Dao looked at Miao Xiao Miao and sighed lightly. Although the Manor Lord had mentioned some words to them, and there were even some biases in his words, but if this Tian Fa’s Evil Monarch’s faction was too weak, it would instead become a burden to the Misty Illusory Manor! At that time, Miao Xiao Miao’s love affair might have to be sacrificed...

Afterall, the happiness of a little girl was truly insignificant compared to the entire Misty Illusory Manor...

The only hope... was that Mo Jun Ye was not Jun Mo Xie! If that was the case, all the problems would be easily solved... the Misty Illusory Manor could continue working with the three Holy Lands, and they could force the Evil Monarch out of the game together. No matter what, that would be an easier choice than joining hands with the Evil Monarch Manor to destroy the three Holy Lands... And Miao Xiao Miao would also be able to obtain her happiness, while the Misty Illusory Manor would not lose their only legendary prodigy with the Free and Natural Physique...
