Chapter 541 - 541: Battle! Battle! Battle!(First Time Going Back On His Word)

The cat was furious. She endured the injuries on her body and used the Cloud Ruyi Shoes and Dancing Phoenix in the Nine Heavens at the same time. She dodged her hand again. At this time, Fang Zaitian blocked the attack of the black-robed man. The other people of the True Dragon Palace charged at the purple-robed woman to stop her.

Helpless, the purple-robed woman could only deal with them first.

Within the encirclement.

Purple Cat looked at the battle in front of him, looking for an opportunity to escape. This group of people was very vigilant, and their attention was on him. As long as they stayed still, they would not attack. Once they moved, the attacks from both sides would instantly kill him and prevent him from escaping.

He didn't want to use the small soul sword unless it was absolutely necessary, so he could only continue to wait.

Gilded Han's steward knew that the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse was of great importance and was related to a Creation Spirit Treasure. After pondering over it, he decided that even if he used the entire hook, as long as he obtained this treasure, not only would the First Prince not blame him, but he would also reward him handsomely. If he did not move, he would not be able to eat the bag afterward.

If the two of them hadn't appeared, the steward wouldn't have dared to attack the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. Now that the opportunity had come, he shouted, "All of you, attack! Help the lord of the True Dragon Palace take down this stinky rat!"

Gilded Han's men rushed forward like a swarm of bees and joined the battle. They rushed towards the purple cat. Their slogans were very bright, but their actions were practically zero. Regardless of the battle between the two sides, their goal was clear. They wanted to take down the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse.

Whether it was the Purple Myrtle Dragon King, Huo Tiangang, or Fang Zaitian, none of them would let Gilded Han's men succeed. Before they could reach the purple cat, they were stopped.

A chaotic battle broke out. It was even more chaotic than before. All kinds of ultimate skills were used. They wanted to kill everyone in one move and then rush up to catch the purple cat to get the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse from its mouth.

The eyes of the surrounding nobles and experts lit up. Gilded Han's steward had made a good start. He thought that he would not have a chance to get a Spiritual Treasure of Destiny after leaving him. He did not expect that an opportunity would appear. He followed suit and ordered his men to charge forward. He even entered the battlefield himself, causing the chaotic battle to escalate. More people were fighting on the streets.

With the purple cat as the center, a vacuum was formed within five steps. No one could get close. Once someone tried to go forward, they would be surrounded by everyone.

Looking at them, Zi Mao was happy. He decided not to escape. Holding the king bomb in his hand, he did not panic. He watched the fun. The Time Treasure Seeking Mouse in his mouth suddenly moved. The cat was very alert. This stinky mouse had woken up. Its face was fierce and it bit violently. It cried out in pain, "Buzz..."

"Meow!" Purple Cat meowed.

If you dare to move, I'll eat you immediately!

The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse didn't dare to move. The treasure it had just eaten was called the Soul Refining Pearl. It refined the soul and made it more pure. The effect was very strong. Although it wasn't a spirit treasure, it was more valuable than ordinary spirit treasures in the eyes of soul masters. Ning Jinchou had also obtained it by accident. He had planned to give this treasure to his father after returning from Gilded Han, but he didn't expect it to benefit him.

After eating it, the Soul Refining Pearl melted. The special power contained in it fused into the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse's body and refined its soul. It was in intense pain, as if it was being burned by the flames of hell. It screamed and hissed continuously from its mouth. It struggled desperately to alleviate the pain, but it was held by the purple cat. No matter how it moved, it could not break free.

It was also heavily injured, and its condition was even worse. As the pain in its soul increased, blood flowed out of its wound, dyeing its entire body red.

Purple Cat was suspicious. He felt the taste of blood in his mouth. He glanced at it from the corner of his eyes and wondered what was going on. It wasn't like he was eating it. Why would it hurt so much just by holding it in his mouth?

He didn't dare to be careless. He was afraid that the stinky rat would try to trick him and let him escape. Not only did he not let go, but he also bit even harder. His sharp teeth were tougher than black iron as he bit into its flesh.

The soul and body were both tormented, and the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse's will was getting weaker and weaker. Every time it was about to faint, it would be tortured to wake up. It was repeated over and over again, and it could not stop even if it wanted to. Under the circumstances where it did not know, as the Soul Refining Pearl melted and refined with a special power, the soul became stronger and purer...

The ground was littered with corpses. Everyone had gone crazy from the killing. They charged at the other party with bloodshot eyes. They only had one thought in mind, which was to kill them all and snatch the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny. However, they still left some attention on the purple cat to prevent it from escaping.

The huge commotion, coupled with the fact that many people from the various factions were in the western part of the city, caused more and more people to join in the battle, causing the chaotic battle to escalate once again.

Gilded Gold Han's guards, nobles, and rogue cultivators had already been eliminated. Those who had participated in the battle had almost all been killed or injured. The remaining people had taken advantage of the situation and retreated from the battle. Only then did they manage to save their lives.

Otherwise, they would have been like the corpses on the ground, riddled with holes. If they died, they would have been hit by saber qi and sword qi.

It was the same for the people of the True Dragon Palace. More than half of them were dead. Even Fang Zaitian was heavily injured, but he was still fighting with Huo Tiangang. The latter wasn't doing well either. His left arm was cut off, leaving only his right arm. It was obvious how fierce the battle was.

"Ah..." A shrill scream rang out without any warning. An ox demon with a towering demonic aura emitted a huge aura. With its pressure alone, it forcefully changed the surrounding aura. Its claws reached out roughly and pierced through the body of the Ziwei Dragon King. When it reached out again, it held a bleeding heart. It smiled malevolently and ate it. Blood flowed out from the corner of its mouth. It grabbed her shoulders and forcefully tore the Ziwei Dragon King into two halves.

Hearing the familiar screams, Huo Tiangang subconsciously turned around and saw this scene. He was scared out of his wits. Looking at the battle, the battle had escalated. The experts who were rarely seen in the battle jumped out one after another. They used all kinds of martial arts techniques and rushed towards the purple cat. They were blocked by the other people (demons).

If he wasn't injured, he could still fight at his peak, but now he could only retreat. No matter how unwilling he was, there was nothing he could do. Even if the Crown Prince gave a death order, he had to retreat now. Otherwise, he would lose his life here.

He slashed out fiercely and forced Fang Zaitian away. He mobilized the remaining internal strength and used his movement technique to the limit, rushing out.

Fang Zaitian wanted to chase after him, but he was seriously injured. He had just cut off Huo Tiangang's left arm, and his chest was slashed open by his knife. His internal organs could be seen, and it was so painful to move. He had been able to hold on until now because of his willpower. Seeing that Huo Tiangang had escaped, he looked on helplessly.

Looking at the battle in front of him again, his anger soared. The entire Fang family had died at the hands of the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. Now that the enemy was right in front of him, he did not even have the ability to take revenge. He felt aggrieved and clenched his fists tightly. His fingernails did not feel any pain when they dug into his flesh.

The remaining people of the True Dragon Palace left the battle. There were dozens of them when they first came, but now there were less than ten of them. They were all injured and stood behind him. A Green Dragon Envoy asked, "What about Milord?"

Without waiting for Fang Zaitian to reply, a terrifying palm force swept over like it was destroying rotten wood. Seeing this, he hurriedly shouted, "Retreat quickly!"

The group of people desperately used their movement techniques to escape.

However, there were still three people who were a step slower and were swallowed by the palm force.

Standing a hundred steps away and looking at the fierce battle in front of him,

Fang Zaitian suppressed his anger and asked, "Our people haven't arrived yet?"

"He should still be on his way!"

"This bunch of trash!"

The subordinates were silent, not knowing how to answer.

Looking at the battle, Fang Zaitian knew that by the time the other people of the True Dragon Palace arrived, the battle would have ended. If they delayed any longer, they might die here.

Revenge was very important. He also wanted the Creation Spiritual Treasure, but he did not have the ability to match it.

He took a deep breath, gritted his teeth, and made a difficult decision. "Let's

He turned around and left without even looking back. He was afraid that he would not be able to resist the temptation and stay again..

Chapter 542: Ji Xueyan's Kiss

The departure of Fang Zaitian and the others was like a drop of water. It did not cause any splashes. It did not affect the chaotic battlefield at all.

At the center of the chaotic battle.

Purple Cat remained where he was, not moving at all. The area within ten steps of him became a killing move. No one dared to take a step closer. Once someone stepped forward, the others would join forces to kill him.

The Cat's Eye spun and looked at the battle. It didn't look for a chance to escape. This group of people had profound cultivation and extraordinary skills. They were far more powerful than the small fries from before. Even the True Dragon Palace was kicked out, so the others couldn't escape. They couldn't escape anymore. When all the people hiding in the dark showed up, they could use the small soul swords to kill them all.

The cat frowned and looked confused. It lowered its head to look at the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse in its mouth. It could sense that there was a force moving around in this stinky mouse's body. Was it an illusion?

After following Zhang Ronghua for a long time, he had learned a lot of things and became more cautious. He would eliminate danger in the cradle in advance and not let himself fail.

He mocked in his heart. He still wanted to play tricks at this time?

He mobilized his internal strength and controlled his strength. He didn't bite it to death. He only wanted to cripple it and make the stinky rat obedient, but he neglected one point.

The Time Treasure-Seeking Rat had eaten the Soul Refining Pearl. The power of melting and the torture of refining the soul almost made the rat collapse. It had suffered such heavy injuries and even fought a huge battle. Its body and soul were both tortured. It was on the verge of death. It was only missing a chance. Its bite was like the last straw that could save its life. It sent the Time Treasure-seeking Rat to its death!

The purple cat didn't notice it either. Seeing that the stinky rat was quiet, its attention fell on the people in front of it. It was on high alert and prepared to use the small soul sword to kill them. If it sensed carefully, it would discover the strange behavior of the Time Treasure Seeking Rat.

Looking at these people, demons, and ghosts, the ox demon's expression was cold. His bell-sized eyes were blood-red and filled with killing intent. It was as if there was no end to these detestable ants. Just as he killed a batch, another batch jumped out. He was very angry! He had finally managed to stop the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. No matter what, he had to obtain the Numinous Treasure of Destiny. If he delayed any longer, the experts of the Imperial Court would arrive. If he could not obtain the treasure, he would die.

No longer hiding its strength, the bull trembled, and a black demonic aura shot out from its body, enveloping the area. The terrifying aura suppressed everything in its path.

Some of the weaker cultivators exploded and turned into a rain of blood. They were instantly killed. The remaining people looked as if they were facing a great enemy and subconsciously stopped. When they saw the cultivation that the ox demon had displayed, they were all shocked and instinctively moved closer, preparing to work together to fight against the ox demon and block its divine ability.

An enormous Devilox phantom that was more than a hundred feet tall appeared behind the ox demon, pushing its aura to the peak. It was like a supreme king, mighty and extraordinary. It coldly shouted, "Go to hell!"

He used his innate divine ability, Devilox Heaven Stomping, and he raised his right foot. Boundless demonic origin energy gathered under his foot, and he gave off destructive power as he stomped down. The massive Devilox shadow also stomped down with his right foot.

The heavens and earth collapsed as demonic light churned. A world-destroying power descended, sending out powerful aftershocks that enveloped these people in front of him, wanting to kill them in one strike.

The dozens of people were all shocked as if they were facing a great enemy.

Their expressions changed drastically, and their eyes were filled with fear. They could not believe that the ox demon had hidden so deeply.

He came back to his senses.

Without anyone's instructions, they worked together tacitly and used their martial techniques. They crazily circulated their internal strength and did not dare to hold back at all as they charged towards the huge foot that was stepping on them.

His voice soared into the sky. Sword light, saber light, palm force, fist intent, and so on all blasted onto it.

The ox demon mocked as if he was looking at a clown. "You trash want to stop this king?"

The giant foot stomped down violently, destroying all of their martial techniques. The powerful force rushed over and heavily injured them. They fell to the ground one after another and spat out blood arrows. Those with slightly weaker cultivation were directly killed. The giant foot did not stop and continued to stomp down under their terrifying gazes.

"No..."

Boom!

A world-destroying shockwave swept out, destroying the surrounding mansions and buildings, turning them into ruins. They could not be more dead.

The ox demon nodded in satisfaction as he retracted his foot. Now, no one stopped him. He stretched his neck and licked his lips with a ferocious expression. His cold gaze fell on Purple Cat. "It's your turn."

His feet landed on the ground, causing the ground to tremble. A loud thud was heard, and a violent demonic aura pressed down on Purple Cat like an avalanche.

When it was less than five steps away, the ox demon stopped. It could sense that two auras that were not weaker than its own had appeared and walked out from the darkness. One on the left and one on the right, they were like kings in the darkness. Wherever they passed by, the surrounding atmosphere became somber and heavy, as if they could not withstand this huge pressure. Grief and sobbing could be heard.

He quickly sized them up.

The two of them were wearing night clothes and covered their faces, only revealing their eyes. However, the person on the left gave it a very dangerous feeling, as if he was not human. He hid a power that made people's hearts palpitate. Once he erupted, it would definitely be earth-shattering and even more terrifying than the person on the right..

Chapter 543: Ji Xueyan's Kiss (2)

True Spirit? No! A beast? Not really! It was not a demon or a ghost. If it was, what was it that could not escape his senses?

Was that why he had this feeling?

It looked at the purple cat. It was only five steps away from the purple cat. It was as if the sky was blocking its path. It did not dare to move. Once it made a move, even if it was just a short step, what awaited it would be a supreme attack from the two of them!

If there was only one person, even if it was the black-robed man on the left, the ox demon believed that he could resist a little. Even if he was not a match for him, he could still retreat calmly. Now, he could only wait!

The two men in black and the ox demon formed a triangle and surrounded the purple cat. No one took the initiative to attack. They knew that once they attacked, the other two would stop them at the first moment. They might even join forces to kill them.

The purple cat was not panicking. It had a plan in mind. It held the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse in its mouth and stayed where it was, waiting for the opportunity to use the small soul sword to finish them off.

In the chaotic battle just now, Gilded Gold Han and the steward were all destroyed by the destructive airwaves. No one was spared. The entire building was reduced to ruins, revealing the silver and gold in the secret room. Silver and golden light flickered. In the pitch-black night, they were so eye-catching. At a glance, there were at least hundreds of thousands of taels, or even more.

However, the two people present, as well as the ox demon, treated money like dirt and did not even look at it.

The three of them looked at each other, and the atmosphere was in a stalemate. They were looking for the other party's flaws and timing to attack. They wanted to kill the other two with a lightning strike and snatch the Time Treasure -Seeking Mouse.

On the street.

Zhang Ronghua drove the Tianji Carriage towards Heavenly Earth. Chen Youcai and the others were probably impatient from waiting for so long. They would have to drink three cups of wine as punishment later. They came out from the corner and drove onto another street. A man with a broken arm, covered in blood and sharp claw marks on his chest, stumbled out of the darkness.

"Phew!"

He pulled the reins and stopped the carriage.

Five steps apart, their eyes met.

He quickly scanned the people in front of him. There was also the carriage, which was pulled by four Holy Heavenly Dragons. On the pillars on both sides of the carriage, there was a “Zhang” character carved on each side. Thinking of the news from the palace today and looking at the driver, Huo Tiangang guessed who it was. It was Zhang Ronghua, a doctor from the Ministry of Works!

He didn't expect to meet him here. They were both the Crown Prince's men, one in the open and one in the dark. There was no conflict of interest, and without the Crown Prince's orders, they wouldn't make a move. Just as he was about to leave in another direction and let Zhang Ronghua live, a golden light flashed and he jumped down from the carriage, blocking his way. “Where are you going, sir?” Zhang Ronghua teased.”

Huo Tiangang couldn't reveal his identity, and his injuries were still very serious. Even though he had taken a healing pill and temporarily stopped the bleeding, if he didn't treat it in time, the pain of his broken arm would definitely leave behind side effects. It might even hurt his origin. In a serious case, his cultivation would stop and he wouldn't be able to take a step forward. He said in a hoarse voice, “Move aside!”

Zhang Ronghua glanced around. It was so heavily injured. Then, he looked in the direction behind him. Zhang Ronghua guessed that the Time Treasure -Seeking Mouse had been captured. “Has the Creation Spiritual

Treasure appeared?” he asked tentatively. ” “Don't ask about things you shouldn't!”

“Do you really want to know?”

Huo Tiangang was furious. He was injured by Fang Zaitian, the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse was not taken, and the Ziwei Dragon King was dead. He was frustrated and worried that he had no place to vent. He did not want to fight, but since he insisted on making things difficult, he would teach Zhang Ronghua a lesson. He held the saber in his right hand and said with a ferocious expression, “Curiosity killed the cat? If I don't want to touch you, why do I have to be forced?”

Whoosh!

He charged forward with a gust of wind. He waved the saber in his hand, and the aura of a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood was added to the saber. He mobilized a little internal strength and slashed out

In his opinion, Zhang Ronghua was only at Zongshi realm 7-dan. Even if he was injured, taking him down would be as easy as cutting a melon.

The unparalleled saber light exploded with a huge might as it slashed down from the sky. It didn't want to kill him, but to teach him a lesson and beat him up to vent!

Zhang Ronghua smiled and pointed his finger. He didn't even use his cultivation, just using his physical strength to hit the saber light.

Kacha!

The terrifying finger force instantly broke the blade. Under Huo Tiangang's stunned and disbelieving gaze, his right hand formed a fist and punched his chest.

Puff!

The huge force transferred into his body and almost destroyed his internal organs. He spat out a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground. He cried out involuntarily, "You, you hid your cultivation!"

Zhang Ronghua walked over and stopped in front of him. He looked down and asked, "You know me?"

Thinking of the legend about him, Huo Tiangang understood everything that he didn't understand before. No wonder His Highness had never failed to get him to do anything. With such a high cultivation, there weren't many people who could stop him!

He wanted to send the news back to His Highness so that he could offset the punishment for failing the mission. However, he was in a dilemma. How could he convince him to let him go?

Directly reveal his identity? Even if he could return alive, His Highness would not let him off!

Kacha!

While he was still in a daze, Zhang Ronghua's right foot stomped down violently, breaking his remaining right palm and crushing it into meat paste. He shouted coldly, "Speak!"

Cold sweat flowed out, soaking Huo Tiangang's entire body. He endured the pain and shook his head in denial. "I don't know him!"

Zhang Ronghua laughed. Someone still dared to lie in front of him. "Since you know me, you should know about the Seven Segments Soul Destroying Hand."

"You, what do you want to do?"

Zhang Ronghua moved like lightning and grabbed the bones all over his body. After that, he withdrew his palm and looked at him coldly with his hands behind his back..

Chapter 544 Ji Xueyan's Kiss

Intense pain instantly came. His soul was being pulled, as if countless sledgehammers were smashing him. Then, he was thrown into a boiling pot of oil, pulled out, and hammered again and again, over and over again!

Huo Tiangang had heard of this torture method before, and after experiencing it for himself today, he almost collapsed. He gritted his teeth tightly.

No matter what, he could not reveal his identity, let alone let him know the secret of the Crown Prince! Otherwise, even if he turned into ashes, the Crown Prince would not let him off.

He continued to persevere and endure the torture that was worse than death...

After a while.

Huo Tiangang was tortured to the point where he still had one last breath left. He said with difficulty, "Give me a quick death!"

Zhang Ronghua didn't ask any more questions. This person was able to withstand the Seven Segments Soul Destroying Palm. His willpower was very strong. Even if he continued to interrogate him, he wouldn't get any useful information. He waved his hand and slashed. A sword qi fell and killed him.

He searched the corpse but found nothing.

The Phoenix Divine Fire struck down and burned the corpse. Then, it wiped away the traces of the battle in the surroundings. It looked in the direction behind it. Where was the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse?

Thinking of this, he decided to go over and take a look.

He found a place to park the Heaven's Secrets Carriage and left a secret mark on it. Even if he lost it, he would be able to find it. He instructed, "Wait here for me!"

He took out a set of night-traveling clothes and put them on. He covered his face, revealing only his eyes. He used his soul power to cover his entire body. He jumped into the darkness and rushed forward.

The two humans and one demon faced off for a while. They knew that they could not delay any longer. Otherwise, when the experts of the Imperial Court arrived, everyone would be finished.

The ox demon was the first to break the silence. He said fiercely, "The Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse must be obtained. The two of you will leave now. This king owes you a favor. If you need it in the future, I will definitely do my best to help!"

The two men in black were even more ruthless. They attacked directly and circulated their movement techniques to the extreme. As if they had teleported, they appeared in front of the purple cat and grabbed at the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse.

Before the purple cat could react, the stinky rat in its mouth was snatched away by them. The cat was also sent flying by the shockwave and smashed into the ruins at the side. Update by (n.:o.:.)v.:. e.:.l.:n.:e.: x.:t.:.

One person grabbed the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse's head, and the other grabbed its legs. They were afraid of killing it, so they didn't dare to pull it hard. The other hand circulated true essence and used a divine art to kill the other party.

They wanted to snatch the mouse, but they didn't notice that the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse was already dead. Firstly, this was a high-intensity battle, so they couldn't be distracted. Otherwise, if the opponent seized the opportunity, they would be injured or even lose their lives.

The ox demon was furious. The two black-robed men didn't care about martial virtue and attacked when it was unprepared. When it reacted, rich demonic qi churned wildly, carrying the anger of burning the heavens.

The ox's foot stomped on the ground, turning into an arrow string, leaving a huge gully behind. The ox demon phantom behind it charged forward as well.

It used its innate divine ability, the Ox Demon Trampling the Sky, and extreme power was added to its fist, enveloping the two of them and ruthlessly killing them.

The two black-robed men calmly shot out a beam of Quintessential Essence, sending the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse flying. Then, they used Quintessential Essence to protect it from being injured. At the same time, they struck out with their palms, blocking the ox demon's supreme fist light.

The three figures flashed and fought crazily. Powerful divine arts bombarded over, wishing they could take the other party's life. They also divided their attention to watch the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. They began an intense battle. Destructive waves of air were sent out continuously.

Under these waves, even though the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse was protected by their Zhen yuan (demon yuan), its corpse was still affected. Although the mouse was dead, its soul had not dissipated. After being tempered by the Soul Refining Pearl, even if it had not completely fused with the power, its soul had become pure and could still hold on for a while.

No one noticed that Purple Cat, who had been neglected, was sent flying by the shockwave from the fight between the two men in black.

She fell on the ruins and raised her little claws to wipe the blood from the corner of her mouth. Her eyes were fierce as she looked at them coldly. She took out the small soul sword from her Sumeru Pouch and shouted with killing intent, "Meow!"

He was saying, go to hell!

With a rough squeeze, he crushed the small soul sword in his hand.

Weng!

Time and space shook violently, as if it couldn't withstand this immense soul power. A terrifying pressure formed as the small soul sword shattered, transforming into a supreme giant sword that was hundreds of feet wide.

Just the aura it emitted was enough to suppress the ox demon and the two men in black to the ground, making them unable to move.

With unparalleled speed, it slashed down from the nine heavens. It was like a hot knife through butter, destroying everything and killing them.

Never in his wildest dreams would he have thought that the Purple Cat, who had always been neglected, would actually have a hidden weapon!

Looking at the incoming sword, the two men in black and the ox demon panicked. They struggled with all their might, changing their hand seals and using secret techniques, wanting to break through its aura suppression and escape.

But they were all eggs.

He tried all kinds of methods, but it was still useless. He couldn't even move, let alone break free. He could only watch as the giant soul sword slashed over and shouted in despair, "No!"

They were unwilling! No one knew the hardships and hard work he had put in to cultivate to his current realm. He had been on the verge of death countless times and had some opportunities to achieve his current achievements.

Now that the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse was right in front of him, he was only one step away from success. However, this short step had become the death of the King of Hell!

From the moment he stepped into cultivation, the scene from the past appeared in his mind like a movie. Finally, it froze as he powerlessly looked at the approaching huge soul sword...

Chapter 545 - 545: Ji Xueyan's Kiss

"Humph!" In the darkness, an old voice rang out. It sounded like thunder as it appeared in everyone's ears.

An old man wearing a green robe made of simple cloth that cost dozens of copper coins each. There were no embellishments on his clothes. He appeared in the center of the battlefield with his hands behind his back. He looked at the huge soul sword that was slashing over and said calmly, "This is the capital, not a foreign land! In this place, if you were a dragon, you had to coil up. If you were a tiger, you had to lie down. Even if a god or devil descended, they had to behave themselves."

He twisted his hands together and boundless soul power burst out. He used the Underworld King Realm Plate. Under his control, it condensed into a giant millstone. Green light appeared and spun crazily, bringing with it a terrifying killing force. Just the aura it emitted could destroy everything. He waved his hand and the millstone swept out, clashing with the giant soul sword.

Buzz...

Waves of air rushed out, one after another, spreading to the surroundings. In front of this destructive air wave, the two black-robed men and the ox demon were directly injured and lost their mobility. They fell to the ground, and the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse exploded and was directly destroyed. The remaining soul power scattered in all directions, filling the world!

The green-robed old man was acting tough and his words were loud and clear. He entered the stage with an invincible posture and attacked with all his strength. Facing suppression of giant soul sword, he used his soul power with all his might to block it. Cold sweat drenched him as if he had just been fished out of the water. He gritted his old teeth and almost broke them.

After an unknown period of time, no matter how powerful the giant soul sword was, it was still a little lacking when faced with a King realm soul master without the support of subsequent power. It dissipated in the air after exhausting the last bit of power.

“Phew!” The azure-robed old man withdrew his hand and let out a breath of turbid air. The hand hidden under his sleeve trembled violently as he cursed in his heart. Which old monster’s pet actually had such a treasure? It almost took his life.

Looking at the shattered corpse of the Time Treasure Seeking Mouse, he shook his head helplessly. In that situation just now, he could not be distracted at all. Otherwise, he would have died. How could he have the time to care about the stinky mouse?

Now that it was dead, where was the Creation Spiritual Treasure? Could it be hidden? Although it was a pity, it was fortunate that it did not fall into the hands of other factions.

He looked at the purple cat coldly. How dare you behave so atrociously in the capital? I’ll seal you up and wait for your master to come. Then, I’ll suppress him and lock him up in Nether Prison!”

The old hand reached out and grabbed at the purple cat.

The purple cat was fearless. When it used the small soul sword to deal with the threat in front of it, it was also giving Zhang Ronghua a position. Don't look at this old fellow as a King realm soul master. When he came, if he dared to bully the cat, all of them would die. With a mocking expression, it called out, "Meow!" What was he saying, old man, just you?

The purple cat was caught by the powerful suction force. When it was three steps away, an even more domineering aura came from the nine heavens. It was like a god suppressing everything. Everything in the world was subdued. A cold voice sounded, "Are you looking for me?"

A huge force came through the air and broke the suction force of the green-robed old man. He grabbed the purple cat and held it in his arms. He stroked its fur and took out a healing pill to feed it. He said, "He bullied you?"

"Meow!" Purple Cat shouted excitedly.

Moreover, it was this old fart who bullied the cat!

"Yes." Zhang Ronghua replied.

On the way here, Fei Tian noticed the appearance of the small soul sword, so he didn't hold back anymore. He rushed over, and this scene happened.

The green-robed old man was shocked. He didn't expect the cat's owner to be nearby. He looked up and saw a black-robed man wearing night clothes. Only his eyes were exposed. The aura he emitted was like the Great Sun Galaxy, shining brightly in the nine heavens. In front of him, he was so small that he couldn't even withstand a single attack.

He was on full alert as if he was facing a great enemy. He mobilized all his soul power and was prepared to attack at any time.

Zhang Ronghua walked down from the sky step by step. This world had been sealed by his soul power. No news could be spread out. He didn't have to worry about attracting other experts.

Under their terrified gazes, he stopped on the ground.

“You want to suppress us and imprison us in Nether Prison?”

The green-robed old man wanted to say no. He looked in the direction of the palace and then at the soul barrier around him. The world was sealed. No matter how big the commotion inside the barrier was, the outside world would not know. It was impossible to ask for help. He could only fight with his life on the line. “Yes, sir!”

“You?” asked Zhang Ronghua.

As soon as he finished his words, he turned into a golden light and disappeared from the spot. The old man in cyan looked as if he was facing a great enemy. He wanted to use his soul power to protect himself. However, before he could do anything, his chest felt like it was hit by ten thousand dragons. The terrifying force pierced through his body and he flew backward. He only stopped when he fell on the edge of the soul barrier. It was as if he had been seriously injured. With just one strike, he completely lost the ability to move. Blood flowed out uncontrollably. It was impossible for him to use his soul power to counterattack.

“That’s it?” Zhang Ronghua asked again.

Under his terrified gaze, his palm violently slapped out. His soul power transformed into a mountain, smashing the green-robed old man into meat paste. His soul scattered and he died completely.

He retracted his hand.

He turned around and looked at the two men in black and the ox demon. The two men and the demon were already scared silly when they met his gaze. Tonight’s chaotic battle had actually drawn out two King realm soul masters. The latter was even more terrifying. Killing an early stage King realm soul master was as easy as stepping on an ant. From beginning to end, it only took one move for the battle to end..

Chapter 546: Ji Xueyan’s Kiss

He wanted to escape, but his strength did not allow him to. He was also seriously injured. He begged for mercy, "Senior, please spare my life! I can't touch your pet, I can't believe you can ask it."

With a flick of his finger, three streaks of sword Qi slashed down, killing them all. Only the ox demon's corpse remained. He grabbed at the air and put away the ox demon's corpse.

Looking at the ruins in front of him and the shattered corpse of the Time Treasure -Seeking Mouse on the ground, he shook his head helplessly. After all, a Creation Spiritual Treasure was not fated!

Time and destiny cannot be forced.

His gaze landed on the shattered ruins of the Gilded Man. Gold and silver sparkled. There was really too much of it, and the visual impact brought about by the jewels was very great.

Zhang Ronghua smiled. He didn't come here in vain. He stepped forward and appeared on the ruins. He used the innate ability of the Kun Peng Transformation, Heaven and Earth. He waved his sleeve and released a huge suction force. In just a breath, the silver and gold were taken away, not leaving a single hair behind.

He put away his soul barrier and left with Purple Cat.

Feng Jingming was a great scholar of Evergreen Academy. He was very experienced and had an extraordinary cultivation. Some time ago, Evergreen Academy had used despicable methods to obtain the Righteous Righteousness from Jixia Academy, which had caused Evergreen Academy's reputation to darken even further. He was very dissatisfied with this. When he saw the disciples selected by the academy comprehend the Righteousness with this secret technique, he felt that it was very fragrant!

Reputation didn't matter. After all, the reputation of Changqing Academy wasn't something that had been ruined for a day or two. As long as it could increase the strength of the academy, a little reputation wasn't worth mentioning.

The higher-ups of Changqing Academy had decided to select a few highly respected people to be in charge of the cultivation of this batch of disciples who had comprehended the Righteousness Qi with the Righteous Bone Setting Secret Skill. He was one of them.

The problem that troubled Jixia Learning Palace also troubled them.

quality of ???????????? Righteous Qi comprehended through secret techniques was poor, the power was weak, and the cultivation was slow. This made them anxious. They had paid such a huge price to fight He Wenxuan. If they didn't gain anything, wouldn't they suffer a great loss?

The few of them discussed and studied how to solve this problem.

As expected of Changqing Academy. No one could compete with them in doing proper things. The first thing that came to mind was Jixia Academy. Since they were able to create the Righteous Bone-Setting Technique, they should have a way to solve this problem. Thus, they used underhanded methods to gather information. After suffering the loss from the previous time, Jixia Academy was very strict this time. As long as it involved the Righteous Bone-Setting Technique, they would not leave out a single word. They would bribe or promise...He had used all the methods he could, and all of them ended in failure.

This path would not work. He could only think of a way to solve it himself.

Therefore, he studied every day and worked overtime until very late every day to think of a way. Tonight, as usual, he left the school very late before returning home.

If he went back from the street outside the Gilded Han Gate, the journey would be shortened by one-third. When he arrived here, it was a while before Zhang Ronghua left. Looking at the ruins in front of him and the remnants of the terrifying aura, he was so scared that he broke out in cold sweat and his heart rose to his throat.

He reacted quickly and wanted to escape at the first moment. However, he stopped in his tracks. The battle had already ended and those people should have left. He thought of the Spiritual Treasure of Destiny and thought that it should be related to it.

He was secretly glad that he had worked overtime for a while. Otherwise, he would have been involved and would not even know how he died.

Just as he was about to leave, the green calabash hanging from his waist flickered with a spiritual light. This was his spiritual treasure, the Soul-absorbing Calabash. Seeing this, he stopped.

His old eyes rolled a few times, emitting a scorching light as he poured his internal strength into the Soul Catching Gourd.

After doing all of this, he tied the Soul-sucking Gourd to his waist and quickly left. Vigorous and powerful footsteps rang out. The higher-ups of the Scarlet Heaven Hall, as well as Xu Xing, had brought some people over. When they saw that he was alone, they quickly surrounded him.

Xu Xing stepped forward and looked at him with a sharp gaze. He saw that he was wearing the uniform of Changqing Academy and was a great scholar. He asked in a deep voice, "Where's the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse?"

Feng Jingming's face was cold, and he put on a stinking airs. He did not give him any face at all. "How can I know the Verident?"

"Is that so?"

Seeing that the people from the Scarlet Heaven Palace were not friendly and that their hands were on the hilt of their swords, ready to attack at any time, Feng Jingming cowered. A wise man would not fight when the odds were against him. He explained, "I just came out of the school and was about to go back when I happened to pass by here."

Xu Xing didn't believe his words and gave the order to continue surrounding. He brought people to check once. From the ruins in front of him and the remnant powerful aftershocks, a terrifying battle had erupted here before. The level was very high, especially the remnant soul power. It seemed to be left behind by a King Realm Spirit Master. It had already dissipated now. It seemed that the other party was already dead, and there were no other useful clues.

He was bewildered. To be able to kill a King realm soul master, he had to be at least a powerhouse of the same level. In front of such an old monster, a great scholar was not enough. From this, he deduced that what he said should be true.

He waved his hand and ordered, "Let him go! ""

In a corner, there was a bright carriage parked. It was the Tianji carriage. With a flash of golden light, a figure appeared. He took off his night clothes and changed into a black robe. There was a Five Dragon Spirit Taming Belt around his waist. He jumped and Zhang Ronghua sat on the carriage. He looked at Purple Cat and turned back to his original appearance. He opened the carriage and ordered, "Let's go in and rest first."

Purple Cat nodded and got into the carriage. It jumped on the soft couch and curled up.

Looking at the sky, Zhang Ronghua rubbed his nose. There was still half an hour before dawn. He drove the Heaven Secrets Chariot towards Heavenly Earth.

On the third floor, in a luxurious room..

Chapter 547: Ji Xueyan's Kiss

There were four people sitting there. They were Chen Youcai, Lu Zhantang, Zheng Fugui, and Ding Yi. There were dishes and wine on the table. It was already the second batch, and they had almost finished drinking. The main person was still not here.

Lu Zhantang chewed on some melon seeds and asked again, ""Chang Qing, why isn't Qing Lin here yet?"

Ding Yi threw a peanut into his mouth and repeated what he had just said to the three of them, ““When we parted, big brother told me to come first. He wanted to visit His Highness in the Eastern Palace and then make a trip to the Pei residence.”

“Did something delay you?”

Footsteps sounded from outside. The door opened and Zhang Ronghua walked in with a smile. He closed the door and explained, “You must be anxious from waiting until now, right? Punish yourself by drinking three cups!”

He took a clean wine glass and poured three glasses in a row before sitting on a chair.

“Brother, what happened?” Ding Yi asked.”

“I’m fine! He chatted with His Highness and Uncle Pei for a while longer.”

He looked at the dishes on the table and saw that they were almost done eating. He called Sister Lu over and asked her to change tables and arrange for a few girls to dance.

The food and wine arrived very quickly. After removing the original dishes and replacing them with new ones, Sister Lu lowered her posture and said with a smile, ““Milords, please wait for a moment. My young master has instructed that after Qing Lin arrives, Xue ‘er will perform a dance. She’s putting on makeup and will be done soon.”

“Thank him for me!” Zhang Ronghua said.”

Sister Lu tactfully retreated and closed the door.

There were no outsiders present. Everyone was one of their own. As soon as he arrived, the scene became lively. They drank and chatted, connecting and deepening their relationship.

Fifteen minutes later.

There was a knock on the door and Ning Xue's sweet voice came from outside, "May I come in?"

"Thanks to you, I have the honor of seeing the world's most beautiful woman tonight."

Zhang Ronghua smiled and said, "Come in."

The door opened and Ning Xue walked in with four young women. The people outside closed the door.

When he got close, he bowed respectfully. "What kind of dance would you like to see?" Ning Xue asked.

"The Moon!" Zhang Ronghua said.

Ning Xue nodded and stopped in the hall. Four women were playing the accompaniment. She held two pink ribbons in her hands and began to dance on the blanket.

The dance was beautiful, the people were beautiful, and the music was pleasing to the ear. Everyone watched with relish.

An hour later.

Zhang Ronghua waved his hand to let them out. Looking at the sky, it was already past midnight. He said, "It's getting late. Do you still want to continue?"

Ding Yi was the first to stand up and chuckled. "I'm not going back. I still have to cultivate the Gold Emperor Heaven Burning Art!"

He blinked his eyes teasingly.

“I have pills here. There are no side effects after eating them.”

Zheng Fugui shrunk his neck and hurriedly stood up. “Sister Mi is still waiting for me. I’ll leave first.”

“Brother Chen, Brother Lu, what about you guys?”

Chen Youcai waved his hand and pointed at his body. “Time waits for no man. I’m already old! If he was 20 years younger, he would definitely play with him to his heart’s content.”

After saying goodbye, he got up and left. “Go by yourself!” Zhang Ronghua said. Don’t delay tomorrow.”

“Yes.” Ding Yi responded and left the room.

They were the only ones left.

Zhang Ronghua poured Lu Zhantang a cup of wine and asked, “Any news?”

Lu Zhantang took a sip of wine, put down his glass, and said seriously, “Chen Jianyi was previously Bai Xilu’s subordinate. He failed in a certain mission, causing her to suffer a great loss. After being severely punished, he was abandoned.”

“They are still in contact?”

“No! Ever since that mission failed, he had been targeted for the past two to three years, and his life had been very difficult.”

“Thank you for your hard work.”

He didn't ask why. Smart people knew their limits and just did things well.

They chatted for a while.

The two of them stood up from their chairs and left the room. Zhang Ronghua called for Sister Lu to settle the bill. "How much?"

"Young Master has instructed that he will treat you to a meal today to celebrate your promotion!"

Huo Jingyun knew how to behave. He did not show his face and did everything flawlessly, but he was thinking too much if he wanted Zhang Ronghua to accept his kindness.

It was just some silver!

He took out a piece of silver, five hundred taels of silver, and handed it over. The food and wine were all small, and the big head was Ning Xue's appearance fee. It was almost the same.

If it were anyone else, even if they were to pay ten times the price, they would not be able to hire her!

Ning Xue's role was more to hold the fort and increase the reputation of Heavenly Earth.

The two separated at the door. Zhang Ronghua drove to his home in the Vermilion Bird Lane. He still had to go to the Ministry of Personnel to handle the transfer procedures tomorrow morning. According to the rules, he could go to court or not. It was up to him and he could rest for a while.

Back at the residence.

After parking the Heaven Fate Carriage, he carried the purple cat and walked towards the backyard. When he arrived, he glanced at Uncle Shi's room. It was dark, and it seemed like he was already asleep. He pushed open the door and entered the bedroom. He closed the door, lit the candle, pulled out a chair, and sat down.

“How’s your recovery?” Zhang Ronghua asked.”

“Meow!” Purple Cat meowed.

Moreover, he had not fully recovered.

“I’ll treat your injuries first.”“

He raised his palm and circulated the Black Yellow Heaven Opening Technique.

He mobilized the Black Yellow True Essence into its body to heal the purple cat. Golden light lit up the room. Under the abnormal effect of the Black Yellow True Essence, the purple cat’s injuries quickly recovered.

Thinking about the Creation Heart Technique, its healing effect was also very strong. Could he use it together?

He decided to give it a try. If it was possible, Purple Cat’s injuries could recover faster..

Chapter 548: Ji Xueyan’s Kiss

The true essence transformed into the creation true essence, controlling the speed and entering its body.

Under Zhang Ronghua’s gaze, the purple cat’s recovery speed increased by 30%. The two different types of vital essence perfectly fused together to heal it.

“Meow!” Purple Cat meowed comfortably.

Fifteen minutes later.

He retracted his palm and looked at the purple cat. All of its injuries had recovered.

“Alright,” said Zhang Ronghua with a smile.”

She jumped out of her arms and stood on the table. Purple Cat moved her body and did not feel uncomfortable at all. Her cultivation had also improved a little. It was 30% stronger than before and she had reached the critical point of breaking through.

It rubbed Zhang Ronghua’s palm affectionately and acted cute. Then, it stopped and sat on the table. It shouted fiercely and told what had happened. The cat was very angry. These bastards bullied the cat because they had more people. So many people surrounded it. If it wasn’t for the fear of using the small soul sword to kill the people in front of it and attract another wave, it would have killed them long ago. The reason why it waited until the end was to wait for the people who should come to catch them all.

After listening.

Zhang Ronghua frowned and frowned. Huo Tiangang and the Purple Myrtle Dragon King had appeared at the same time, which meant that they should be the Crown Prince’s men. The Crown Prince had sent out two experts with profound cultivation. It seemed that the Crown Prince had hidden a lot of power and secrets. No wonder when he saw him, he wanted to leave immediately. He didn’t make a move. He knew him, but he refused to say it. He endured the torture of the Seven Severing Soul Destroying Palm. It wasn’t that he didn’t want to, but he couldn’t!

Once he opened his mouth and admitted that he was the Crown Prince’s man, even if he didn’t kill him, the Crown Prince would kill him! The higher-ups had always hated those who leaked secrets, and they would never be lenient when killing them.

Moreover, in order to prevent Huo Tiangang from revealing the secret of his hidden cultivation, he would also get rid of him.

Everything that he couldn’t understand before was now clear.

Whose power was Gilded Han? How dare he have designs on the True Dragon Palace? He wanted to snatch the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse from them and find time to investigate this matter.

There was also the young man who was eaten by the Time Treasure-Seeking Mouse. According to Purple Cat, this person was dressed luxuriously and had an extraordinary aura. To be able to make Courtesan Belle accompany him, his identity was not simple.

The two men in black were the most confused. The elder in green should be from the palace. Even if he wasn't, he should be from the imperial court. The ox demon ignored the fact that there were many demons and ghosts that had infiltrated the capital. Even the Taotie had appeared. What was so strange about it? Whose people were these two?

At this moment.

Zhang Ronghua thought of Su Qiutang. The Spiritual Treasure of Fate was of great importance. With the strong desire they had shown, they could not just leave it alone. If one of them was one of their people, what about the other black-robed man? f(r)ee

As he continued to think about it, a flash of inspiration came to him. They were also very suspicious, and they were the intelligence forces of Grand Shang!

During this period of time, many people from Grand Shang had died at his hands. From his previous actions, it seemed that he was determined to obtain the Creation Spiritual Treasure. It was very likely that the higher-ups in the capital would personally make a move.

If his guesses were all correct, tonight's chaotic battle was really interesting. Those who died were probably people from the various large factions. Almost all of them were involved.

"Meow!" Purple Cat cried out.

Moreover, it was a pity that he did not obtain a Numinous Treasure of Destiny.

Zhang Ronghua smiled and reached out his palm to stroke its head. "You've already done your best."

He slapped the Five Dragon Spirit Taming Belt on his waist and took out the ox demon's corpse and placed it on the ground. As soon as it appeared, a powerful demonic aura rolled out, emitting a terrifying killing intent. The temperature instantly dropped to freezing point.

The purple cat's eyes were bright and burning as it looked at it. It stuck out its tongue and licked its mouth, looking as if it couldn't wait to eat it.

He mobilized the Black Yellow True Essence and struck it down, covering the corpse, expelling the demonic aura, and purifying its power. After a while, he stopped.

The ox demon's corpse had already been purified, and the demonic aura had also been expelled. There was less than 10% of its strength left, but it was extremely pure.

"Alright," said Zhang Ronghua.

"Meow!" Purple Cat cried out excitedly.

Jumping down from the table, his True Spirit light flashed and his body expanded until he was three meters tall. He opened his mouth and swallowed the corpse.

In a few breaths, his huge body shrunk again and returned to its original appearance. He lay on the ground and circulated his cultivation to refine and polish his body. Purple-red spiritual light flickered and lit up the room. One after another, it spread out in all directions. After refining, his cultivation advanced further and he broke through to the second level of the martial grandmaster realm. His body was also comparable to a martial grandmaster.

She opened her eyes and jumped up from the ground, cuddling Zhang Ronghua's palm intimately.

"Not bad!"

He took out some spirit liquid and put it into the teapot. He flipped his palm and the Phoenix Divine Fire rushed out.

He took out some spiritual tea and made two cups. He placed one cup in front of Purple Cat and licked the tea.

Holding the teacup and the tea lid, Zhang Ronghua was not in a hurry to drink the tea. He was thinking about how to deal with this batch of gold and silver. With his own channels, it was unrealistic to digest it. It seemed that he had to rely on Yang Hongling to use this batch of money and ask her to help him purchase some spirit herbs.

Having made up his mind, he was just about to take a sip of tea when he sensed a figure entering the residence from outside and rushing towards them. It was

Ji Xueyan..

Chapter 549: Ji Xueyan's Kiss

She looked at the sky and frowned. Why was she here so late at night? Could it be because of the Great Morning Sun Art? Wasn't it resolved?

With a wave of his hand, he dispersed the remaining demonic aura in the room and reminded, "She's here."

Purple Cat understood and used the Black Tortoise Spirit Technique, showing that his cultivation was at the sixth tier of the Grandmaster Realm. Very quickly.

Ji Xueyan appeared at the door. She stretched out her jade-like hand and knocked on the door. "Can I come in?"

Zhang Ronghua stood up from the chair and walked over. He opened the door and looked at the beautiful woman in front of him. She was wearing a moon -white short skirt, revealing most of her jade-like arms and legs below her knees. She was wearing a veil to cover her face. Her shapely eyebrows were relaxed, and there was a smile in the corner of her eyes. It seemed that things had worked out. She smiled and said,"Coming!"

"Yes." Ji Xueyan smiled and replied.

He moved aside and waited for her to enter before closing the door. Pointing at the chair opposite him, Zhang Ronghua said,""Sit!"

Ji Xueyan didn't stand on ceremony. After coming here so many times, the relationship between the two of them was extraordinary. She walked over and sat down on a chair. She lifted her hand and took off the veil on her face. She put it into the pouch at her waist, revealing her exquisite and beautiful face.

He took the teapot, poured a cup, and placed it in front of her.

"You haven't finished your spirit tea yet?" Ji Xueyan teased."

Zhang Ronghua smiled bitterly."

"Do you want it?" he asked.

"No need!" Ji Xueyan shook her head. If you want to drink tea, there are other types of spiritual tea."

The two of them took a sip of tea and put down their teacups.

Ji Xueyan smiled happily and contentedly."It's a success!"

"This is a good thing!"

“I have to thank you! If it wasn’t for you, I wouldn’t have succeeded on my own no matter how hard I tried.” f(r)eeweb(n)ovel

He immediately told her what had happened.

They parted ways at night. After daybreak, they hurriedly finished their breakfast and rushed back to Jixia Learning Palace. Among the dozen or so disciples who had comprehended the Righteous Spirit with the Righteous Bone-Setting Secret Techniaue, they chose two DeoDle with the fire attribute and taught them the Righteous Morning Sun Art. They had stayed in Jixia Learning Palace for the past few days to observe the changes in the two of them. Just this afternoon, good news came.

Hard work paid off. With the introduction of the Righteous Morning Sun Art, the speed of cultivating the fire attribute Righteousness Qi increased drastically. It was no different from ordinary people. The Righteousness Qi cultivated was of equal quality and powerful. This made her extremely excited. She immediately ordered to seal the news and find Principal Xu of the inner court to tell him the news.

After listening.

Principal Xu was equally excited, but this matter was of great importance. He called the two disciples over and personally examined them before he was relieved! Give the same order, don’t leak a word, or you’ll be severely punished.

The recent small actions of Changqing Academy had not been hidden from them. They were all under their control. After they left, they summoned the Vice Headmaster of the Inner Court, the Headmaster of the Outer Court, and the other high-ranking officials for a meeting. They bestowed a series of treasures on them, and named the disciple who cultivated the Righteous Bone Setting Secret Technique as the “ Jixia Hall “. Ji Xueyan was appointed as the Hall Master, and she was given full authority to take charge of this matter. She was to nurture her own direct descendants, increase her authority, and increase her speaking rights in preparation for taking over as the Jixia

Academy Lord in the future.

For this reason.

At that time, all the disciples of Jixia Hall would be able to comprehend Righteousness. Just thinking about it would be terrifying!

He raised his teacup and replaced the wine with tea.”

Ji Xueyan smiled from the bottom of her heart. She was really happy. She had always lived under the halo of her father. She had never relied on her own ability to gain the recognition of others like this. In front of outsiders, she displayed her coldness, nobility, and the dignity of the Big Sister. She could not express the joy in her heart.

Chapter 550 - 550: Ji Xueyan’s Kiss

Updated by B?X?0VEL.com

“Do you know?”

“With my status, it’s easy for me to pay attention to something.”

Ji Xueyan didn’t pick up the teacup. Instead, she patted the pouch on her waist and took out twelve dishes. These were all carefully prepared by her, but they were already cold. They were all home-cooked dishes on the table. Braised fish, scrambled eggs with tomatoes, boiled tofu...It was personally made, and he also had a bottle of Heavenly Jade Brew.

Facing his stunned gaze, she stroked her hair and said naturally, ““Double happiness, shouldn’t we celebrate?”

Her deep and beautiful eyes blinked mischievously.

Zhang Ronghua had never realized that she could be so cute. He was slightly stunned and smiled.”Good!”

“Meow!” Purple Cat barked in dissatisfaction.

Besides, the cat is so big. Have you guys forgotten about me?

“Hehe!” Ji Xueyan was really happy tonight. She was smiling a lot. From the moment she came in until now, she had been smiling.

She stretched out her jade-like hands and carried it over. She put her two jade-like legs together and placed them on her legs. Purple Cat’s two hind paws sank down, pressing down on her thin dress. She fell down and was tightly caught by her jade-like legs.

“Did you have fun at the Rich Lane?” he asked with a smile as he stroked his fur.”

Purple Cat raised his front paws and scratched the cat’s head. He was dumbfounded. The cat had been catching mice for the past few days. How could he have the time to play?

After thinking about it, she immediately understood and nodded heavily.

“Want to drink?”

Purple Cat replied.

Placing it on the table, Ji Xueyan activated her Zhen Yuan and covered the dishes on the table. She began to heat them up. After a dozen breaths, she retracted her hand. The dishes were already heated and were emitting steam. She took the wine pot and poured three cups. She placed one cup in front of Zhang Ronghua, one cup in front of Purple Cat, and the last cup was hers. She held the wine cup and smiled.”Fuck!”

Zhang Ronghua clinked his glass with hers. Just as the two of them were about to take back their glasses, Purple Cat cried out anxiously, “Meow!”

He was saying, wait for the cat!

He raised his little paw and held the wine glass in a comical manner. He raised it and clinked it with them. The two of them were amused and drank the wine in their glasses in one gulp.

He put down his wine glass.

Ji Xueyan picked up her chopsticks and picked up a large piece of beef, placing it in Zhang Ronghua's bowl. "Try my cooking."

"Alright." Zhang Ronghua ate the fish.

She was slightly inferior to Yang Hongling, who had only reached the level of perfection in the three realms and had just advanced not long ago. Thinking of her identity, she was quiet, well-educated, and elegant in the manor and Jixia Learning Palace. Not to mention cooking, she rarely even went to the kitchen, which was already not bad. He praised, "It's quite delicious!"

"If it's delicious, then eat more."

'Yes."

The two of them chatted as they ate, ignoring the purple cat. They drank a pot of Heavenly Jade Wine very quickly. Ji Xueyan took out another pot and drank seven or eight pots in the blink of an eye. People would inevitably want to drink more when they were happy, no matter how high their status was.

As the number of dishes on the table decreased, coupled with the excitement of the wine, the topic of conversation increased. In the end, they talked about the cultivation techniques of the Jixia Hall disciples.

Ji Xueyan sighed." The more power you have, the more people will be watching you. If you're one step away, someone will jump out and attack you. They can't wait to replace you.""

Zhang Ronghua knew that she was worried about the next cultivation method. Although the basic cultivation method of the fire attribute had been solved, it was just the beginning. The Haoran Righteousness Bone Setting had opened up a shortcut, which was different from the traditional understanding of the Haoran Qi. Although it had shortened the time and saved more energy, it seemed that the general Haoran Qi cultivation method and Divine Sense might not be suitable for them. They had to be like the Haoran Sun Art, where the martial arts or Divine Sense of the Haoran Qi had attributes, which was the most suitable. It wasn't that he couldn't cultivate, it was just that his progress was slow.

Putting all of this aside, he only had one fire-attribute cultivation technique. Even if he did not create all the cultivation techniques of the other attributes, he would at least have to gather the basic cultivation techniques of the five elements to allow most of the disciples to cultivate. "I've finished reading the third batch of Righteousness Qi cultivation techniques. If I have time, I'll send the fourth batch over."

Ji Xueyan's beautiful eyes lit up and she blurted out, "Really?"

He felt that it was inappropriate, as if he had been waiting for this sentence. He hurriedly explained, but it was obvious that he was very weak. "You're very busy now. Why don't we forget about it?"

Zhang Ronghua was too embarrassed to expose her. "Even if I'm busy, I can squeeze out a little."

"Yes." Ji Xueyan believed him.

She smiled shyly and lowered her head as if she was considering something. After a while, she patted the pouch on her waist again and took out the fourth batch of Righteousness Qi cultivation techniques. She put them on the ground, just as many as before.

"!!!" Zhang Ronghua was speechless.

She had already brought the cultivation technique over, yet she was still beating around the bush. She thought of a saying: behind every successful woman, there was a man who silently contributed. She seemed to be the man standing behind her.

He shook his head and stopped thinking about it.

He put away these cultivation techniques and took out the third batch of cultivation techniques for her.

“Thank you!” Ji Xueyan thanked him.

She did something that even she did not expect. Firstly, Zhang Ronghua had helped her too much during this period of time. First, it was the Righteous Bone Setting Technique, then the Righteous Morning Sun Technique. Now, she had to trouble him to create the remaining few attribute cultivation techniques.

Every time she came over, he did not sleep. He had been very busy, sleeping less than four hours a day. Sometimes, it was even shorter. He would wake up to attend the morning court. He had also succeeded in the Great Morning Sun Art and obtained the recognition of the higher-ups of Jixia Learning Palace. He had also become the Hall Master of Jixia Learning Palace. Other than that, she didn't even realize that Zhang Ronghua had walked into the depths of her heart. She didn't want to think about it even if she found it..
