

Chapter 181 Kill him?

The girl's family looked gloomy, and their eyes gradually lost their luster.

Listening to the beeping sound of the phone, the girl dared not turn on the phone.

But if you don't open your phone and take a look, you will feel uncomfortable in your heart.

She closed her eyes and finally turned on the phone, without any hope in her heart.

However, he suddenly discovered that there were a lot of private messages in the background of his video platform, and there were more and more private messages.

All apologetic.

"What's going on?!" The girl was stunned.

Her parents also hurried over to look at it, and the family discovered that the public opinion had turned upside down at some point!

Crawling along the Internet to the original video, it turned out that the local police had issued a notice. The video blogger Stetson pretended to be a girl who fell into the water and published abusive remarks that endangered social and public order. He was sentenced to 15 days of detention.

And the girl's real account was also picked up. At this time, her daily video was full of apologetic voices.

The girl wept with joy, rekindling hope for the world!

As for Stetson, his account was blocked, so outraged netizens picked up his parents' phone number.

Stetson's parents were suddenly called crazy.

The relatives and friends around are also all kinds of "concern inquiries" and cynicism, and the two are so angry that they look for their son everywhere.

"I might as well kill him!" Stetson's dad yelled.

Stetson's mother sighed: "Go and call him back!"

It's okay if you don't say it, but he is even more annoyed if you say it: "What's the name? Tell him to come back? He won't be obedient unless you beat him into a fool."

The couple knew very well that their son was too shrewd since he was a child.

Too shrewd to go to school, always thinking about speculation to make a fortune.

The husband and wife were in fear all day long, because they were afraid that if he did something bad that would affect the family, I would come to settle the score.

But after all, he was his own son, and he couldn't let him go.

Stetson, who was in prison at this time, did not know these things.

Even if he was locked up, he didn't feel anything, isn't it just 15 days?

15 days out, he is another hero!

Now that he has figured out the flow routine, there are hotspots every day, as long as he grabs a hotspot and sings the opposite, it will be easy to get up.

In this environment, those who honestly shoot videos are idiots, and smart people just move them directly, which saves trouble and is easy to get angry.

Thinking of this, Stetson's eyes became more and more green, and he couldn't help laughing while lying on the bars.

At this time, the door jingled, and the two stood in front of the iron gate.

It was Kellen and Susie.

Stetson woke up instantly as if he had been doused with a bucket of cold water.

He stammered and asked, "You, what do you want to do?"

Kellen snorted coldly: "Don't be afraid, I'll have a friendly communication with you."

"Brother, why don't you be more ruthless." Stetson was crying, he couldn't bear his friendliness!

Susie finally met the scary uncle who chopped off his fingers. Subconsciously grasping the corner of Kellen's clothes.

She asked in a low voice, "Micky, isn't there a ghost on his head?"

But it's strange, this person has black air on him.

How can there be black air on a normal living person?

Mitch stared at Stetson and said, "Juicy, there is really a kind of ghost in the world. They are the souls of living people, but they are no different from ghosts."

Susie listened in a daze, vaguely understanding. "It means this uncle is a living ghost?"

Micky said silently, "That's right."

Susie asked again: "Mitch, if the living ghost is taken in, can this bad uncle still live?"

Mitch said: "Of course you won't survive if you accept it. I'll test you, how do you think we should deal with it?"

Susie thought for a while, and suddenly said, "Kill him?"

Kellen, who had just unscrewed the mineral water at the side, spit out a mouthful of water, "Ahem, good girl, don't talk nonsense!"

He had brought her here to see Stetson, not to kill.

Susie quickly covered her mouth.

His legs softened, and he knelt down with a thud: "Don't kill me."

Susie made an uh, "Do you believe me when I said I didn't mean that?"

Stetson complained wildly in his heart: I believe you are a big-headed ghost!

He cried and kowtowed, shouting words of forgiveness, and promised that he would not do it again when he went out.

Susie pursed her lips, not believing him at all.

"So what should I do?" She looked at Mitch sincerely and asked.

Mitch said: "Are you going to become a fool if you accept his black energy?"

Stetson immediately yelled, "HELP! HELP!! KILLER!"

Kellen couldn't help but twitched the corner of his mouth, and said speechlessly, "Call it, shout it ..."

Susie answered immediately, she understood this sentence!

"No one will come to rescue you even if you yell out your throat!" she said...

It was only then that Stetson felt belatedly that this child was not just the lady of the richest family, but that there might be a bigger identity behind

Stetson trembled, "Let me go."

It was Susie's first time catching a living soul, and she was a little hesitant.

People are not dead, should they really be arrested?

Mitch saw her hesitation and knew he was making things difficult for her.

However, just thinking this way, the little guy closed his eyes, as if cheering himself up, and said loudly: "Done!"

Susie thought very simply.

Before she came here, she had heard from her father what Stetson had done, and she just felt that if a person was still so bad in the future, he would do things that hurt others in order to make money.

So why not fix the problem now?

Besides, she didn't let him die, she just made him a fool..

So being stupid shouldn't be a bad thing.

Chapter 182 Live in a hotel, sleep in the middle of the bed

After Susie and Kellen left, Stetson became a lot more honest.

He almost asked questions and answered them, and ate when the time came, with a good attitude of pleading guilty.

Until the day he was released, when he saw his parents coming to pick him up, he seemed to have finally vented the grievances he had held back for a long time, accusing impatiently: "What's the use of you coming here now!"

If you are rich and powerful, just get him out, it's useless!

Stetson's mother tried hard to persuade: "Go back with your parents."

Stetson shook off his mother's hand and said angrily, "What can you do when you go back? Do you have hundreds of millions of property for me to inherit?"

Stetson's father was very angry, "Go! Let him go! I will treat him as my son from now on!!"

Stetson was about to speak when suddenly, an invisible black air flew out of him and drifted towards the parking lot.

Stetson burst into tears and threw himself into his dad's arms.

I saw Stetson's tears and snot streaming down his nose, his eyes became dull, and he didn't know how to wipe the snot off his mou....

Stetson's parents are stupid, good-looking people say they are stupid, it's too sudden.

PARKING LOT.

Stetson's soul floated towards Susie, and he understood what was happening, terrified and unwilling

"No, I don't want to die, I just figured out the traffic code." Stetson desperately floated out.

He can still make a fortune, this time he must be careful not to let others find him!

Mitch wrote down a few notes in the booklet, and said coldly: "You are bewildered. Although you are a human, you have become a ghost. I can't keep you!"

Stetson shouted: "Why do you arrest me! What qualifications do you have to judge me!"

Mitch closed the booklet, without a trace of human emotion on his pale face. he just said: "I am a judge, do you think I am qualified?"

Stetson regretted and was not reconciled. There are so many people in this world who are stalking traffic, why should he be targeted by the judge!

How is he so unlucky!

Even at this point Stetson still doesn't think there's anything wrong with him. Everyone likes money. What's wrong with him?

He didn't steal or rob, he earned it with his own cleverness!

Mitch waved his hand, and Stetson's soul screamed unwillingly, turning into black energy and being absorbed by the gourd.

Susie stared at the gourd, and could clearly feel the change of the gourd.

Micky said that the gourd is used to collect souls and calculate her merits, but she thinks the little gourd is also very powerful. For example, now, she seems to be able to feel the little gourd stretching, very happy.

Susie put down the gourd, looked at Stetson's parents walking away, and asked, "Dad, will uncle and aunt be very tired to take care of such a big child?"

Kellen drove out and said, "It's just a karma loop."

If he had been corrected since he was a child, he would not have the bitter fruit of today.

May passed quickly, and the Dragon Boat Festival was about to come. After dinner, Susie lay on the sofa on the first floor and called several uncles one by one.

"Hello. Uncle, are you still flying? Are you back for the holidays?"

After several months of retesting, Paul finally returned to the captain's position, and is now wearing a uniform, preparing for the next flight mission.

Hearing the soft voice of the little girl on the phone, he couldn't help but smile: "Return."

Susie said happily: "Okay, then I'll tick you off! Grandma and I are waiting for you?"

Paul couldn't help but laugh.

After hanging up the phone, Susie ticked the small notebook.

I saw eight stick figures drawn on the small book, and the first to third were all ticked.

Susie made another phone call.

"Hello, uncle. Are you back for the Dragon Boat Festival?"

Jonathan had just finished filming for a day, and now he was wearing a bathrobe, putting his glasses on and pushing them in front of the mirror. "Of course."

The white bathrobe was slightly opened, revealing his firm chest.

Susie immediately wrote down in the notebook: "Okay!"

Jonathan smiled lowly, "Remember?"

Susie: "Yeah!"

When she was about to hang up the phone, Susie suddenly asked, “Uncle, where are you now?”

Jonathan was sitting on the sofa, reading the news on a tablet, and said, “I’m at the hotel.”

Susie said: “Fourth uncle, remember to sleep in the middle of the bed at night.”

Jonathan looked suspicious.

“Why?” he asked.

Susie said: “Because there will be unclean aunts sleeping next to her.”

The corner of Jonathan’s mouth twitched, who did he think he was?

Although he has acted with many actresses, he keeps himself clean.

Jonathan teased: “Who taught you?”

Susie’s childish voice came: “Micky taught me! Micky said that when you are on a business trip, you must sleep all the beds in the hotel, and don’t leave too much space for those who are not full, otherwise ghosts will follow you in the middle of the night.” We slept together!”

Jonathan was taken aback for a moment, and then realized that the unclean aunt she was referring to was a female ghost.

He couldn’t help laughing, the low laughter came from the bottom of his heart, and he seemed extremely happy.

“Tsk. You can tell me bedtime stories?” Jonathan said, “That’s very good, don’t tell me next time.”

Susie: “Really!”

Hearing that the little guy was really anxious, Jonathan immediately said,. “Okay, got it, thank you Susie.”

Susie reminded her to remember a few words before hanging up the phone.

Jonathan finds it funny, a smile always on the corner of his mouth.

What if the bed is too big to sleep?

If you sleep in the middle, there will be a lot of space on both sides. Doesn’t it mean that there will be two female ghosts?

In this way, it would be good to sleep on one side, at least there is only one female ghost.

Jonathan didn't take this matter to heart, he just thought of her as a child.

In the hotel room, the clock on the wall chimed softly, pointing to 12 o'clock.

Jonathan put the tablet down, tugged at his nightgown casually, and went to bed to rest.

He is usually used to sleeping by the bed, because it is convenient to hold the mobile phone and turn off the night light, so he didn't think about it at this time, and moved a little to the middle after sleeping, and didn't move too much.

Whoever sleeps has to check to see if he is sleeping in the center of the bed.

In the dead of night, there was a slight snoring sound soon.

Jonathan rolled over, facing the vacant side of the bed.

In his sleep, he suddenly felt a little cold, and he didn't know what was touching his face.

He frowned slightly, and opened his eyes sleepily.

Chapter 183 Open your eyes

Jonathan opened his eyes, pupils constricted.

He didn't know when a woman slept next to him. Her face was too pale, she looked a little abnormal, her eyes were fixed on him, and she held hair in her hand to touch his face.

Seeing him wake up, the woman smiled softly: "You're awake~"

Jonathan shot up like a spring, he had never lost his composure before!

"Who are you?!" he snapped.

Although he was taken aback, he still didn't think in the direction of the ghost.

He has too many Soompis, sometimes he stays in a hotel, and sleeps until midnight when he hears the door being pried open-these are common occurrences.

But like now, this is the first one who breaks open the door without anyone noticing and is still lying beside him!

It's scary just thinking about it!

The female ghost slowly got up, sat on the bed and tore off her clothes, revealing her round shoulders, and said shyly, "Tonight, I'm yours."

Enduring the chill, Jonathan said coldly, "Get out!"

The female ghost stood up resentfully, with a grievance on her face.

"What's wrong with me?" She said: "I'm dead because of you, I'm already very pitiful, can't you feel sorry for me."

Jonathan frowned, feeling that this Soompi has some mental problems?

Since she was wearing a long skirt, he still didn't see anything unusual, until she floated straight from the bed to him, her feet didn't touch the ground, and her toes were hanging down.

female ghost?!

His scalp was numb, and he suddenly thought of the ghost story Susie told him before going to bed.

If the bed is not full of sleep, will it really attract ghosts?!

The female ghost raised her head faintly, and looked at him obsessively: "Why don't you talk! I have liked you since you debuted. Don't you remember me?"

How could Jonathan remember? No, it should be said that there was nothing he should remember at all.

Jonathan didn't even have any shoes on, resisting the urge to run wildly, he only had time to get his phone key and ran out of the room in a panic.

He walked in a hurry, the hotel with excellent privacy was very quiet, he was the only one running in the entire corridor.

But no matter how fast he walked, the female ghost was always floating by his side.

"What are you doing running so fast?"

"Are you afraid of me?"

The female ght became more and more resentful.

D

Jonathan pressed the elevator and went straight to the first floor.

The hotel lobby manager saw a figure in a nightgown hurried out, just stood up and said, "Hello, sir."

Jonathan was nowhere to be seen.

Lobby manager: "?"

Jonathan flew back to the Murray family overnight.

In the early morning, just after dawn, a layer of mist enveloped the city.

Jonathan's eyes were bloodshot, and the female ghost followed him all the way, thinking that at least she would disappear temporarily after the sun came out, right?

I didn't expect that she was still there!

Ghosts can come out during the day?

Jonathan just felt that he was cheated by the film and television dramas he had filmed in the past!

After finally returning to the Murray family manor, Jonathan no longer cared about his image, and ran towards the main building.

"Susie." He subconsciously called out.

Alana controlled the wheelchair and had just come down from the second floor.

A man with disheveled hair and a nightgown who could almost see his bare buttocks ran in.

She never thought that this was her son, after all, Jonathan was not like this usually.

Alana shiver with fright and stood up reflexively.

"Come on. Come on!"

Alana was startled and angry. An exhibitionist usually wears a nightgown. Does he lift the nightgown the next second?

20 22%

She's just an old lady, she's crazy!

Jonathan was taken aback for a moment, and quickly realized—

Alana actually stood up!

He said in astonishment: “Mom, you...

Alana: “Jonathan?”

Jonathan: “Mom, you don’t recognize me until now!”

Alana was speechless.

Without clothes, she really didn’t recognize it.

Alana couldn’t help but rolled her eyes, sat down on the wheelchair habitually, and said, “Why are you in such a state, there are some monsters chasing you behind.”

Jonathan temporarily forgot about the female ghost, pointing to her feet: “Mom, you just stood up.”

Alana babbled while controlling the wheelchair to go out: “What a fuss, it’s not normal for me to be able to stand up.”

Wait, stand up?

Alana also froze in astonishment.

Since she has been able to stand for most of her life, unlike some people who have been disabled for ten or twenty years and have not stood up, sometimes she doesn’t think there is any problem with this sentence under the habit of thinking.

Realizing that she could stand up now, Alana was stunned.

“I can stand up now.?”

Alana was holding on to the wheelchair, trembling and trying to stand up, but she didn’t know whether it was due to psychological factors or something, but she failed.

Jonathan hurried to help her up.

Alana’s discouragement may just be the potential of human beings to explode when they encounter danger.

Jonathan didn’t think so, and comforted: “Since I can stand up, it must be different from before, and I will definitely be able to stand up in the future.

Maybe I can go dancing with other old ladies. “He teased in a relaxed tone.

There was hope in Alana's eyes, and it suddenly occurred to her that she seemed to have kicked Craig two days ago.

She panicked and controlled the wheelchair to go to the elevator: "I'm going to find your father."

Jonathan breathed a sigh of relief, and suddenly heard a shy voice in his ear: "So you also have such a gentle side! I really love you more and more."

Jonathan actually forgot about the female ghost just now!

Jonathan ran upstairs in his hotel nightgown: "Susie."

Just as the female ghost was about to follow, she suddenly sensed something was wrong, her expression changed, and she hurriedly flew outside.

It disappeared quickly.

D

Martin passed by with a cup of coffee, frowned and said, "Susie hasn't gotten up yet, what the hell is that?"

Jonathan: "A million urgent things!"

Michael was holding a handbag, with a piece of bread in his mouth, he was in a hurry, and only said: "This look, hell!"

Jonathan was speechless.

Isn't it just hell?

As soon as Susie opened her eyes, she saw Jonathan standing in front of her.

"Uncle, why are you back? I'm not ready yet!"

Jonathan pressed his eyebrows: "Female ghost. The ghost story you told me last night. I really hit a ghost."

Susie looked at him suspiciously: "There is no female ghost!"

Jonathan immediately said, "It's normal for you not to see, she's here."

He was about to point to the side, but suddenly found that the female ghost was gone.

Jonathan looked back and forth in astonishment, but the female ghost was really gone.

Mitch immediately went out to check, came in after a while, and said, “It should have run away, and it ran pretty fast.”

He looked at Jonathan: “It should be an evil ghost.”

Susie asked. “Then what?”

Mitch’s eyes flickered slightly, what to do, since the evil ghost found Jonathan, of course it was the easiest way to catch the female ghost by letting him go out.

Susie crawled to the edge of the bed and stood up just to Jonathan’s chest.

“Uncle, lower your head.” She stood on tiptoe and stretched out her hand hard.

Jonathan bent down subconsciously.

Susie patted him on the head, and then her little hands patted his shoulders and legs from his head.

The invisible black air was blown away.

Jonathan only felt a lightness on his body, and he gradually calmed down.

The corner of his mouth twitched and he said, “Who taught you?”

Susie confessed Mitch very honestly, pointing to the side: “My master!”

Jonathan was speechless.

Martin told him about this, saying that Susie had a master by her side, perhaps a protector she fantasized about after being abused for a long time.

But there is another possibility, that is, this master really exists, otherwise how could Susie suddenly know Ryan’s phone number?

But Jonathan didn’t take it seriously at that time, and was more inclined to believe that Susie had a psychological problem, and there was a fight because Martin didn’t send Susie to see a psychiatrist.

Now, Jonathan subconsciously wanted to push the frame, but suddenly found that he didn’t even have his glasses.

Martin came in with a tablet, and said lightly, “Aren’t you awake yet? Check out the entertainment news in the morning and make sure you’re awake.”

Jonathan took the tablet subconsciously, and saw a line of bold and black fonts on it:

[Senior actor Jonathan’s character design collapsed]

The accompanying picture shows him running out of the hotel in his nightgown.

Just as he was thinking, his finger slid down, and a netizen really matched him with a picture.

Jonathan was speechless.

Chapter 184

The whole Internet was shocked, and they speculated about what happened to make Jonathan run out of the hotel regardless of his image, and he disappeared overnight.

Some say he was sleepwalking

Some say he must have been drunk.

Fans said that he was too involved in the film, because the film he is filming now is set up by a lunatic, and he is really dedicated!

So someone retorted: This is the hell.

Jonathan really wanted to reply: Your guess is really accurate.

Just considering his identity, he answered another call. Jonathan reluctantly clarified on Facebook:

[Sorry, my mother has been in poor health The situation changed suddenly last night, and I hurried home]

Jonathan remembered what happened in the morning, and he didn’t think he was lying

His mother can stand up, isn’t that considered a sudden change in the situation?

Alana just told Craig in a panic and surprise that she was able to stand up, and Craig said to go to the hospital for an examination immediately.

Alana picked up her phone, but suddenly saw several major platforms push a piece of news at the same time: `

【Actor Jonathan's mother is suspected to have passed away last night. 】

After Jonathan posted on Facebook, he didn't pay attention, but sincerely said to Susie:

“Susie, I was wrong, I shouldn't have disbelieved you last night.”

Susie smiled softly and cutely: “So? If you don't listen to Susie's words, you will suffer in front of your eyes!”

Jonathan: You're right!

During breakfast, Jonathan was beaten by Alana before he knew about the misunderstanding on the Internet.

Immediately went up to clarify another point, saying that my mother is fine, don't talk nonsense!

After dinner, Martin will take Alana and Craig to the hospital, and Kellen will take Susie and Lulu to kindergarten.

Jonathan's heart tightened: Then what should he do?

Thinking of that female ghost, the hairs on his arms stood up quietly.

He said, "Susie, uncle taught you to cut classes, do you want to learn?"

Kellen was speechless. How dare he lead his good daughter to be bad?

Kellen looked at Jonathan with an uneasy expression.

Susie pointed to the door of the main building and comforted, "Uncle, don't be nervous, as long as you don't step out of the house, you'll be fine! Stay at home and wait for me after school!" »

After that, he patted his head again.

Jonathan always felt like he was being treated like a child.

This time Jonathan didn't doubt anymore, Susie wouldn't let him step out the door, he didn't even go out the door at all.

However, at this time, he heard noises coming from outside the gate of the manor. Colt hurried in and said to Jonathan: "There are a few family members outside the gate who claim to be one of your fans. That fan died yesterday after jumping off the building. They want you to give an explanation. Don't know where they found the address here."

Jonathan's heart sank, thinking of the female ghost, he asked, "Where did you jump off the building?"

Colt said: "Last night at exactly 12 o'clock, I jumped off the 44th floor of the hotel."

It happened to be the hotel where Jonathan stayed last night.

"But this fan seems to have a problem. When he committed suicide, he wore a red dress and left a pair of red high-heeled shoes at the scene-the kind of red wedding shoes worn when he was married. Two red candles were lit on both sides of the vanity mirror, and last night she The last Facebook post before committing suicide was."

Colt found an account and clicked on it to show Jonathan.

I saw that the Facebook copy was: [Tonight, I am going to marry my brother.]

The accompanying picture is a girl with red makeup, she put herself and Jonathan together.

Jonathan squinted, staring at the photo.

Isn't this girl the same as the female ghost last night?

Could it be that last night, not just a female ghost slept next to him?

Colt was asking, "Do you want to go out and have a look?"

Jonathan refused without thinking: "You just go and solve it."

Susie told him all, why did he go to have that accident happen?

It's often like this in movies. The protagonist clearly told the supporting role not to go out, but the supporting role insisted on going out, and of course he died in the end.

So it is impossible for him to go out, even if he is starved to death and jumps off the second floor, he will never take half a step out of the main building!

Outside the Murray family manor, the parents of the girl who jumped off the building were crying and rolling on the ground.

"My child. You pay for my child."

Apart from the girl's parents, there were also relatives of their family, shouting one by one.

Colt came out, frowning and said: "Your child is gone, I express my sympathy. But this matter has nothing to do with our Murray family, please leave!"

The girl's family was taken aback, "What do you mean? You killed our child, so just leave it alone?"

Others also exploded: "What do you mean has nothing to do with you! Isn't it too unreasonable?"

Colt was very calm, slowly dissecting:

"Then may I ask, has your child ever contacted anyone in our family?"

They searched through their children's diaries, mobile phones, and Facebook, but they didn't see a reply from Jonathan, not even a reply from the official support group.

"But my daughter did die because of that Jonathan from your Murray family!" The father of the girl who jumped from the building gritted his teeth with a look of grief and indignation.

Colt looked at him and asked, "Excuse me, was Jonathan instigated by your child to jump off the building? Did she talk to Jonathon on the phone before jumping off the building?"

The girl's parents were speechless.

If there is no contact information, where can I get in touch? Isn't this a bully?

Chapter 185 There are always people in this world who always want
Colt asked again: "None? Has she met Jonathan? Has she had any contact?"

The girl's parents were speechless again.

Colt sneered: "I haven't contacted you online, I don't know each other in real life, I haven't met, I haven't had any contact with him. Your child jumped off the building and our family is responsible?"

If he fell to his death on the road, should he go to the government?

I went to the river to play in the water and drowned. Is it because the river flows through the earth?

If you choke to death after eating, do you blame the farmers for growing the food?

These words were indeed a bit indifferent, but facing some shameless rascals, if they hesitated or backed down, not only would they not be grateful, but they would bite them harder.

The girl's father smashed the mineral water bottle in his hand, and said loudly: "What's the use of talking so much! My child is already dead! It's not your child who died, you don't know the pain, do you?"

The words 'your children' immediately made Colt's eyes turn cold.

The group of relatives said, "Don't you want to take responsibility?"

“If our child hadn’t been chasing stars, she would have been obsessed with ghosts? If Jonathan hadn’t posted those photos and videos online all day, would she have been obsessed with ghosts? Would she have jumped off a building?”

“That’s right, it’s your responsibility anyway!”

“Tell Jonathan to come out! What, dare to seduce people outside, dare not come out to face something! Coward!”

The relatives of the girl’s family got angry and started throwing things one by one, smashing the flower pots and decorations in front of the Murray family’s door.

In the room, Jonathan controlled the monitor to check the situation at the door, and couldn’t help frowning.

How had the address of his home been leaked and these people had managed to find the Murray family estate?

Jonathan looked back and couldn’t figure out why.

He was sure that he had never told anyone about his home address, even in the contract with the film and television company, it was written about his own independent apartment outside.

Jonathan called Martin and Martin just said ‘I see’ and hung up.

Jonathan: “Three seconds, dare to say one more second.”

At the gate of the Murray family manor, Colt directly took out his phone to call the police.

“Hey, a group of thugs came to our house to make trouble and smashed a flower pot worth 5 million yuan, a hanger worth 4 million yuan, and a Juliet rose plant worth 6 million yuan at our door.”

The group of people suddenly fell silent.

Colt glanced at it and said, “There is also a pot of Sri Lankan cactus flowers worth 10 million yuan, which they are about to smash.”

A man wanted to smash the cactus in his hand, but he suddenly consciously put it down with a look of disbelief.

Just this broken cactus, worth 10 million?

Cactus flower and bird markets can be seen everywhere, and they have never seen a cactus worth more than a thousand yuan!

42.861

Everyone was very angry, but they didn't dare to smash it.

Colt hung up, connected seamlessly, and immediately dialed another one.

"Hey, someone leaked our home address, and he sold it to 17 people. If I remember correctly, it has constituted a crime of infringement of personal information, right? Well, sue him for me, our family is not short of money!"

"Has it caused any economic losses? Yes, it has caused our family to lose 5 million flower pots, 4 million hanging racks, and 6 million Juliet roses, totaling 15 million."

"Can it be sentenced? Three to seven years? We have five underage children in our family. They have seriously threatened the safety of our five children. We dare not send our children to school, which seriously delays their growth. So, please sue him for more than seven years!"

The rioters were speechless.

It almost exploded, how could they dare not send their children to school? Too much deception!

The girl's father turned red with anger: "Are you threatening someone?"

Colt hung up the phone and asked with no expression on his face, "No threat, just being factual! Do you have anything to add?"

What a joke, to be able to sit in the position of the butler of the Murray family, can there be no tricks?

Colt looked coldly at the group of rascals in front of him.

The troublemakers were speechless.

The girl's mother "passed out" on the spot, shouting: "My daughter died so pitifully!"

Their daughters are dead, the Murray family doesn't care about it, and they have to sue them in turn, it's unreasonable.

As he was yelling, the police came.

“Who’s making trouble?”

The relatives of the girl who jumped off the building saw it and retreated one after another.

The girl’s father was distraught: “You don’t care if they killed our daughter?”

A police officer with a dark face said directly: “More than 3 people have already gathered a crowd to make trouble. I have called the police. Can you leave?”

Unexpectedly, all the troublemakers were stunned: “Don’t leave! If they don’t give us an explanation today, we will definitely not leave!”

With so many of them, is it possible to catch them all? How do you say that. D!

Unexpectedly, the police officer said directly: “Take it away!”

A few police officers behind him immediately came up and took them away one by one.

Everyone was speechless.

Chapter 186 How surprising

Everyone was handcuffed away as if in a dream, one by one screaming, and the mother of the girl who jumped from the building was crying.

“The police are beating someone.” She yelled, “Help me!”

There was no sound at the back, it should be stuffed with a piece of cloth.

Colt squeezed the bow tie at the neckline, straightened it, and then walked back to the manor with steady steps. Gracefully as if nothing happened.

At this time his cell phone rang, he answered the phone and listened for a while, then said in surprise: “It’s her?”

On the phone, Martin said: “The information has been sent to you.”

Colt said, “Okay, I’ll take care of it!”

After hanging up the phone, Colt checked his phone and was speechless.

It never occurred to me that the address of the Murray family was leaked from that woman, it was too cheap to just drive her away in the first place.

Cherry! Why is this annoying woman still here?

Colt didn't want to see her at all, so he immediately called and went out.

“Hey. Go and help me deal with a person. The address was sent to your phone. What's killing you? What the fuck, our Murray family is innocent, how could we do these illegal things?”

After the female ghost left the Murray family, she stood at the overpass, looking at the passing cars.

Her eyes were red, and she sobbed softly: “I like my brother so much, I could die for him, why he still refuses to look at me.”

While mourning and weeping, suddenly she saw a woman walking by her.

The woman was carrying a large black plastic bag, which contained a lot of vegetables, which seemed to be purchased by a restaurant.

She put the black plastic bag on the ground, wiped off her sweat, and wiped away her tears.

Cherry felt that she was really pitiful. After being kicked out of the house by her ex-boyfriend, she could only work as a waiter in a hotel.

I thought that as a waiter in a hotel, I could see a lot of high-quality rich potential stocks, but I didn't expect to be bullied miserably.

For example, today, the back kitchen was short of a vegetable, so I gave her one hundred and asked her to go out and buy it.

What can a hundred buy? Not even a taxi is enough!

Cherry was full of resentment in her heart, wiped away her tears and sweat, and mustered up the courage to cheer herself up: “Cherry, don't be discouraged! You can do it! Come on.”

The female ghost on the side was speechless.

What a disgusting woman, though. This woman's eyes were blue and her soul was empty.

No matter how you look at it, it is a good object to possess.

Although the female ghost is an evil ghost, she can come out during the day, but ghosts are afraid of the sun, and she feels tired after being in the sun for a long time.

So he just attached himself to Cherry.

At this moment, she had no idea how much regret this decision would

After cheering herself up, Cherry went down the flyover with a big plastic bag.

When he finally returned to the hotel, he happened to meet the manager of the hotel going out. When he saw her, he stopped suddenly.

Cherry hastily greeted her shyly.

Manager Wang just nodded lightly and asked, “What have you done recently?”

Cherry was taken aback: “No, I’ve been working hard.”

Afterwards, Manager Wang made a phone call, and within two minutes, two men in black came in outside.

“Cherry?” the man in black asked as soon as he came up.

Cherry: “Ah. It’s me, what’s the matter?”

Could it be that the manager is inconvenient to care about her in public and ask someone to take her away? Dissatisfied with her being seen every day and being locked up at home every night for punishment?

The female ghost coiled on Cherry’s head felt buzzing!

Cherry’s eyes were stubborn: “Manager, even if you get my people, you still can’t get my heart!”

Unexpectedly, the man in black didn’t say a word, one grabbed her by the arm, and the other grabbed her by the hair – he was supposed to take her away by the head, but the man in black was caught by Cherry’s eyes and grabbed her directly, hair.

The manager straightened his clothes speechlessly, looked around, and said, “Did you see that? You can’t do things that break the law. Be a normal person!”

No way, Cherry was taken away after committing a crime?

“It’s unbelievable. She looks so innocent every day, so innocent that I am embarrassed. Over time, I thought she was really innocent.”

“What, you didn’t see that she would deliberately cling to any man she saw. This time it was something illegal. I guess it must be ‘working overtime’ at night to provide services.”

“I was finally taken away. I was annoyed to see her every day. When I brought back three or four catties of vegetables, my eyes would turn red and I would bite my lip tightly. I looked so wronged.”

“Acting all day long!”

On the other side, Cherry was pressed on her head and got into a black car. She quickly said, “Did you make a mistake? Why did you arrest me? I didn’t do anything!”

The man in black showed a document: “You are suspected of reselling other people’s private information, which has a wide impact, bad nature, and serious circumstances. You are now being prosecuted!”

Everyone in Cherry is stupid, no, the prosecution process is not like this.

This time Cherry didn’t even have time to react. She was taken to the police station and then to the detention center. Good guy, before she could react, she heard that she was going to be sentenced to seven years in prison and couldn’t run away.

What did she do? She did nothing! how so.

A scene could not help appearing in her mind: she was the tragic stand-in of the president, and the president’s Bai Yueguang had returned, and because of a misunderstanding, the president mercilessly sent her to prison. Three years later, the president regretted it.

The female ghost possessing Cherry felt that her IQ was being slowly swallowed up, and the black energy on her body also flowed out, as if the air was leaking, and all ran towards Cherry.

The female ghost suddenly woke up and wanted to leave Cherry immediately, but she was stuck tightly and couldn’t break free.

The female ghost regretted it. In a hurry, she opened her mouth with bright red lipstick and bit Cherry’s neck hard!

If you dare to swallow me, I will eat you first!

Cherry screamed suddenly, fell to the ground, rolled her eyes, and fell unconscious.

Chapter 187 Love Brain, Dogs Don't Eat It

The police officer in the detention center saw Cherry falling to the ground and foaming at the mouth, and hurriedly called the prison doctor.

After an examination, the prison doctor found that his head was bald.

“No problem, the heart is normal, the brain CT is normal, the blood test is normal. Everything is normal.”

There is none healthier than her.

Why would you foam at the mouth and roll your eyes?

Several prison guards looked at each other and understood.

One sneered and said, “Another one who deliberately pretended to be crazy in order to avoid responsibility? I caught one last time and pretended to have amnesia on the spot.”

The prison doctor nodded, and after a rigorous and responsible discussion and report, he finally decided that Cherry was pretending to be ill to avoid responsibility

The prison doctor woke her up, and then the prison guards pulled her back and kept her locked up.

Cherry was bitter, but she couldn't tell, her mouth and eyes were crooked now, but they thought she was faking it.

Why is she so pitiful?

No one saw that there was a female ghost lying on top of Cherry, cursing and vomiting.

“Damn, I'm disgusted to death!”

She was really unlucky to meet Cherry.

The female ghost suppressed the nausea and 'eat' the black energy on

Love Brain, Dogs Don't Eat It

Cherry's body, and finally left Cherry's body, and vomited all the black energy she had eaten.

The female ghost walked away with a grim look on her face.

Cherry was locked up in the detention center like this, and she would definitely not be able to escape for three to five years. The men and women in the prison were separated. At least in the past few years, she had no objects or opportunities to fantasize about.

Cherry looked at the sky outside the iron window, weeping silently, feeling that fate was unfair.

She was supposed to be the heartthrob heroine in the world, but it's been so long since she met her real son, a tyrant who truly loves her, spoils her, and would not even die for her.

A few days ago, it was just because I really had no money to pay the rent, and I just heard a few people say they were looking for the Murray family.

She had no choice but to tell them the address of the Murray family, and it was only a small charge of a few hundred.

She wasn't really trying to sell the address of the Murray family, she was just helping out, right?

I didn't expect to end up being locked up!

She is not reconciled. Is there something wrong with being kind?!

On the other side, the family members of the girl who jumped from the building returned to their place of residence, shouting angrily.

"What do you want me to say to be afraid of him? Put their home address on the Internet, and let netizens scold him to death!"

488 vou hers

"We don't care about this matter wherever we put it! Our child committed suicide because he was chasing stars. Doesn't Jonathan really need to be responsible?"

The girl's father nodded, thinking it made sense.

But when it came to who leaked the address of the Murray family, everyone hesitated again.

The girl's father stood up with red eyes and said, "I'll come!"

He held his cell phone with a determined look on his face.

What is he afraid of?

It's him who lost his daughter, it's him who is pitiful, that Jonathan and the Murray family, what have they lost?

Can rich people wantonly bully weak people like them?!

At this moment, someone ran in and said, "Wait, don't be impulsive!"

Panting, he said, "I just found out, the woman who sold us the address a few days ago, do you remember?"

The girl's father nods., that woman seems to be seriously ill, but the address given is true.

"I found out that the woman was sued by the Murray family and is now in prison for seven years."

As soon as these words came out, the girl's father withdrew his hand embarrassingly, but even more grief and indignation appeared on his face.

"It's a bully!" he said harshly.

Everyone cursed, but no one dared to think anymore.

Just kidding, that was seven years of detention!

Everyone only wants money, and the Murray family is the richest man, so rich, right? A casual 10-20 million is a huge amount of money for them.

At that time, these relatives will contribute their talents and efforts, and Delia's parents must each give hundreds of thousands, at least one hundred thousand, to express their gratitude.

But they just want money, they don't really want to put themselves in it.

Delia's mother's eyes were swollen from crying: "Should we just forget it like this? What about my Delia, will my Delia die in vain?"

She refused to admit that she didn't take care of it.

As parents, who wants their children to have accidents?

She and her father are busy with work, and they are all for their daughter.

There are thousands of mistakes, and it is the fault of those celebrities now, who always post those attractive photos and organize some national support meetings.

Their own daughter is obsessed with it, remembering Jonathan's birthday, height, weight and even preferences and moods. She has never cared about them so much!

They are her parents.

They worked hard to earn money for their daughter's education and living expenses.

The daughter cut down on food and clothing, and spent thousands of dollars on the star Jonathan every month.

Is this money wasted for nothing?

Delia's father slapped the table and said like he was mad, "I only know that my daughter's death is because of that Jonathan, this matter can't be left alone!"

After everyone's unanimous agreement, they finally decided to go outside Jonathan's company to make trouble!

They dare not mess with the Murray family.

But a film and television company must pay attention to the impact, right?

After Susie came back from school, she learned about the trouble caused by the girl who jumped off the building.

Mitch shook his head: "Some people always blame others for their faults. I am weak but I am justified, so I think 'I have lost my daughter', and others should sympathize with them, help them and even compensate them."

In this world, many people feel that they are 'poor', so they try their best to climb up, work hard, and work hard. These people are admirable.

But there are always a small number of people, when something happens to them, they always think that they are so pitiful, and others must help them, otherwise they cannot make up for their losses.

"What's even scarier is that they don't think it's wrong." Mitch sighs.

Susie asked, "Mitch, what are we going to do?"

Mitch said: “We can’t manage people’s affairs, and it’s not your business. You’re just a kid. We only need to take care of ghosts.”

Susie wondered: “So?”

Mitch: “So, take your uncle out for a walk and we’ll go fishing.”

There must be some connection between the girl in the red dress and jumping off the building after lighting a red candle, and the evil ghost.

It takes at least ten years for an evil ghost to ‘upgrade’ into an evil ghost. Even if many ghosts want to become evil ghosts, they cannot accept the process of repeated death and disappear during the period.

Those who can become evil ghosts have great obsessions.

Susie nodded, understood.

“Uncle, I’ll take you fishing!” she said.

Jonathan looked suspicious.

wher

Jonathan’s current film and television company is Holy Grail Entertainment.

Today is a cloudy day, and the dark clouds outside are very low, as if they are pressing down among the tall buildings.

Tiago sat in his boss chair, watching the incident with Jonathan with a headache.

[Actor Jonathan’s character design collapses]

“These people are really, taking advantage of people’s illness to kill people.”

Jonathan is a senior in the entertainment industry. Senior means high prestige, recognized acting skills and business ability.

Now that the breaking news of Jonathan’s [personal design collapsed] came out, it quickly attracted all the traffic. Naturally, there were people who were jealous and took advantage of the opportunity to make trouble, and wanted to take the opportunity to kill Jonathan.

“Oh.” Tiago sighed.

At this moment, an old lady in green clothes appeared silently by the window.

Tiago's mouth was open with fear, and that sigh turned into a scream.

He fell to the ground all of a sudden.

O

The old lady stared and said, "What's the name of the ghost?"

Only then did Tiago see clearly—the ghost in front of him is really fucking!

"Mom, why are you here?" Tiago saw a ghost for the second time.

The first time he went to ask Susie to call his mother back. And after so long, Tiago thought his mother was going to be reborn!

"Mom, what's the matter with you this time? Is there enough money to spend? If not, I'll burn some more every day." He got up and said.

The old lady said: "No, I'm the richest ghost down here now, and I can rebel if I have more. I just spent money to buy the road this time to come up to see you for five minutes."

Tiago was speechless.

"Mom, you almost scare me down to accompany you." Tiago said with a smile

The old lady scolded him and continued, "Didn't I ask you to help that little girl find her father last time? I told you that her father's surname is Morton. Why didn't you grasp it?"

Tiago rubbed his head: "Susie's father, it's not like we can find out."

The old lady said to herself: "That's right. But besides her father, the little girl's mother was also plotted by someone back then. I also inquired about it. I don't know how to plot it. You must seize the opportunity this time!"

Tiago: "Huh?"

These rich and powerful secrets are not something he can get involved in.

"Also, I inquired again, and I said that a star under your company will be in trouble, and you can take care of it to a higher level."

Tiago was a little speechless, what did his mother do down there, who did he win over, he could find out everything.

He nodded: "I know."

Chapter 188 Never leave without giving an explanation

Even if his mother didn't tell him, he would have defended Jonathan to the end.

His mother just doesn't trust him, Tiago thought sadly.

Unexpectedly, the old lady smiled and said: "The business is over, I'm going to pick up my old friend! This old lady is finally dead, and someone will dance with me in the future."

Tiago was full of doubts, and stared dumbfounded at his mother happily floating away.

At this moment, a small head poked out from the door of his office.

Tiago, who had just been scared to death by his mother, was almost scared to death by Susie.

"Hi. Uncle, how are you!" Susie greeted happily with a small pet bag on her back.

Tiago stroked his heart and said, "Susie, you scared me to death!"

Susie smiled, and took Jonathan's hand to enter the door.

"Susie, why are you free to come over today?" Tiago immediately asked someone to get the cake, and said, "Aren't you going to school today?"

Susie shook her head: "Uncle told me to skip class."

Jonathan: "What?"

Obviously she was the one who said to take him fishing. The result is to come to his company?

The door was pushed open again, and several employees came in with seven or eight small cakes of various kinds.

Since the employees read the last item in the employee handbook: Susie can't eat too sweet, doesn't like chocolate flavor, likes fruit cake, likes fruit candy.

50 orlly

They don't know why, and today they finally know.

Susie's eyes lit up, and she gave Tiago a thumbs up: "Uncle, you're going to gain weight, and you won't be able to button your clothes in the future!"

Does this mean that he has a bright future?

Tiago thanked him with a smile.

Susie dropped a piece of mini cake, sweet but not greasy, so delicious!

Tiago observed the situation and asked, "This is today?"

Jonathan was about to speak, but Susie stretched out her hand and said seriously, "My divination shows that uncle, you are going to be in trouble!"

Tiago was full of doubts.

At this moment, the assistant hurried in and said, "Someone is making trouble at the gate of the company."

Tiago looked at Susie in surprise.

Holy Grail Entertainment is downstairs.

Because of Jonathan's incident, there have been a lot of media and some fans who have come to stay with Jonathan near the building recently.

The family members of the girl who jumped from the building held four or five black and white banners, which read:

[Jonathan mutilated the girl!]

[Dare to act but dare not admit it, Jonathan is a scumbag!]

The nearby media, paparazzi, and some Internet celebrity bloggers flocked to take pictures and broadcast live.

Tiago saw this posture when he came out, and then looked at what was written on the banner, his face turned black.

"Where are the security guards? Get them out!" He said directly.

Hearing this, the mother of the girl who jumped from the building shouted, "You are so reckless! My poor daughter, you died a terrible death."

“Jonathan played with our daughter’s feelings, causing our daughter to jump off the building and die, but you didn’t give us an explanation and drove us away.”

“Are you going to keep our mouths shut? If we don’t give us an explanation today, we will never leave!”

A group of people shouted and asked Tiago to give an explanation angrily.

The onlookers of the media finally understood and were shocked.

Jonathan played with fans’ feelings, causing fans to jump off the building?!

Some Internet celebrities’ eyes lit up, and they immediately talked nonsense in the live broadcast room.

Tiago had a terrible headache, originally he didn’t want to make a fuss, Jonathan could only leave the crew without asking for leave as a ‘black spot’, but his mother’s sudden illness is justifiable.

Now there is another black spot of ‘playing with fans’ feelings’.

Suddenly, Susie ran into the front desk of the company, and soon came out again, running to the troublesome girl’s mother

She stuffed something into the girl’s mother’s hand and said, “Here, here you are!”

The girl’s mother was taken aback, looked at the roll of transparent glue in her hand, and subconsciously asked, “What are you doing?”

Susie said: “Don’t you want tape? Here it is!”

Everyone was speechless.

Chapter 189 Don’t Listen

The girl’s mother froze for a moment, and it took a while to react.

She said sadly, “What I want is an explanation, not an explanation!”

Looking at the little girl in front of her, she looked serious, pure and soft.

It messed up her rhythm!

A troubled relative next to him yelled, “What do you mean? Let a kid come out to fool us!”

“That’s right, you don’t take such a serious matter seriously! The bottom line is that you don’t take our dead children seriously!”

Girl's mother: "My poor Delia! I just want my Delia to live."

Susie was speechless.

The young lady who was about to die came back to life? You can't talk nonsense about this.

She was about to say something when Jonathan picked her up.

Jonathan said lightly: "Children, don't meddle in the affairs of adults."

What did Jonathan say to Tiago.

Tiago beckoned and asked someone to bring down a speaker and a microphone used by trainees for dancing.

He held the microphone, lest others would not hear it, and turned it up to the maximum.

"Hello?"

The microphone was too close to the sound generator, making a harsh sound, and everyone hurriedly covered their ears.

Tiago then said: "Can you hear it? Come on, tell me, what do you want me to say to you?"

He held the microphone in front of the crying girl's mother.

The girl's mother only knew that her daughter was gone, and she was going to make a fuss, and suddenly asked her to give an explanation, and she was dumbfounded for a while.

You can't just tell them to lose money. In this case, what will others think of them?

Don't others think they traded their dead daughters for money?

She stammered: "We just want an explanation and justice!"

Tiago said: "You lost your daughter, and I was very sad, so I didn't dare to look for you, for fear of making you even more sad. I didn't expect you to make trouble here."

"Do you want an explanation?" He reconfirmed: "You asked me to ask for an explanation? I'll give you an explanation right away, and you won't regret it when the time comes."

One of the family members of the troubled girl said loudly: “Stop talking nonsense! I want to see what tricks you guys are up to!”

Tiago asked someone to release the hotel’s video surveillance.

Time display: At 9:29 in the evening of the previous two days, Jonathan left the film crew and returned to the hotel.

Half an hour later, a girl checked into the hotel silently with two big bags, and went to the room on the 44th floor alone.

The last picture captured by peripheral surveillance was at 12 o’clock in the middle of the night, she jumped from the 44th floor.

Tiago said: “Did you see it? From Jonathan’s return to the hotel to your daughter’s accident, neither of them had any contact!”

1511%%

Internet celebrities and self-media focus on the girl’s parents.

The girl’s father said excitedly: “What are you guys? Don’t you admit it?”

Other relatives who made trouble immediately followed suit and yelled loudly: “What can the video show for a long time! What about the one before this?! Why didn’t your big star Jonathan play with our children’s feelings?”

“If you have the ability, you can show evidence video!”.

The girl’s relatives are sure that Jonathan can’t get the video because he has too many fans and he doesn’t know Delia.

Hearing that there seemed to be something else hidden, those cameras were aimed at Jonathan and Tiago again.

Jonathan pursed his lips and said lightly, “It really is.

His assistant immediately copied a copy of the video.

This is a collection of Jonathan being harassed. When he was filming in Los Angeles, a girl rushed into the crew and said she wanted to find Jonathan, but was driven away by security.

One time when Jonathan stayed in a hotel, the girl somehow got his room number and knocked on the door all night. Finally, he was taken away by the police.

After Jonathan left the hotel one time, the girl used some means to get the access card, entered Jonathan's room, ate what Jonathan had eaten, and slept on the bed that Jonathan had slept on. These are the ones she got from her own 'photograph check-in'.

Not to mention the installation of a tracker on Jonathan's car, the chartered car deliberately suppressing the car, and a series of serious violations of other people's privacy.

The girl was also taken to the police station several times for this reason.

"Sorry, I've never met her, but she's well-known among fans." Jonathan pushed the frame of his glasses.

The onlookers suddenly realized:

"With all due respect, her behavior is really disgusting! It's already broken the law!"

"I'm speechless. In the end, she was kidnapped with the moral of death? The girl's family is also the same. The death of her child is obviously her own fault. For the sake of money, she has to drag her daughter out again to extort money. No wonder she raised such a daughter."

"Yeah, it's all selfish to the extreme."

The girl's family members choked for a moment, and the girl's mother collapsed:

"No! It's not like this! My daughter is not like this!"

The girl's mother cried and said: "My daughter is very good, she will never do such a thing. You must have done something to make her do these things!"

The girl's father held back for a long time, and choked out a sentence: "Anyway, my daughter is no longer here, so you bullied my daughter to death and can't speak, so you can say everything?"

Even the girl's mother cried and shouted: "Besides, she tried so hard to see you, she is so pitiful, can't you see her?"

Maybe seeing her, her Delia won't jump off the building?

Jonathan said with no emotion in his voice, "Because she is pitiful, so I have to meet her and coax her? Is it because she is threatening to jump off the building, and I have to marry her?"

1121 D

The girl's mother said: "Isn't it okay? That's a life. Of course, what I'm talking about is that you can marry her in a fake way. You're a man anyway, and you won't lose anything."

Originally, they wanted to talk nonsense, create some unwarranted lace news for Jonathan, catch rumors, catch the attention, and stir up the topic.

Now it's no longer necessary, this will be reported directly, won't it be more explosive?

Immediately criticize each one.

Tiago said: "Okay, don't you believe it? This person has harassed our artistes many times, and we have called the police many times. These are all recorded by the police!"

However, the girl's parents and troublemakers all acted like you can say whatever you want, and if I don't listen, I won't listen.

What spent money to bribe the police, those evidences were forged.

If everyone is dead and still say such things, aren't you afraid of retribution?

What unless you bring us Delia back to life, is that you are cold-blooded and ruthless. say.

Among them, the girl's mother cried the most fiercely!

Hearing that Mitch, a ghost who is no longer bleeding, has high blood pressure!

Suddenly, Susie raised her head and looked upstairs.

On the seventh or eighth floor, there was a female ghost in a red wedding dress floating by the window, looking at Jonathan obsessively.

Susie tugged at Mitch's sleeve immediately, and whispered, "Micky!"

Mitch squinted, frowning puzzled.

This should be a vile ghost, not an evil ghost.

what happened?

He whispered: "Look, today I will teach you some countermeasures that do not follow common sense."

After finishing speaking, he stretched out his hand, and he patted the girl's mother's eyes.

The girl's mother was crying so hard that she lost her breath and lay down in the arms of an aunt.

She cried miserably, and when she raised her eyes, she saw a familiar figure standing on the bay window upstairs.

She hangs her hands, wearing a red wedding gown, and a pair of red high heels that don't fit her feet.

Pale face, bright red lipstick.

It was her daughter who jumped off the building and died a few days ago, Delia!

The pupils of the girl's mother constricted sharply, and the shrill cry in her throat instantly turned into a scream.

The mother of the girl who jumped off the building cried and shouted, and the audience could see that it would not end without giving them some money.

Just when everyone was angry, the mother of the girl who cried "fainted" suddenly screamed and kicked her legs back.

"do not come!"

Her face was full of horror.

Everyone looked in front of her, nothing!

"What is she doing?" Everyone asked.

Susie was hugged by Jonathan, looking down at the girl's mother who fell to the ground and screaming, she pursed her lips and asked, "Isn't she your daughter? Why are you afraid?"

These aunts and uncles have been crying for two days, especially this aunt, who cried from beginning to end every scene, Susie thought she would faint from crying.

So sad, she must love her daughter very much.

But now that Micky let her see her daughter, why did she react like this?

The girl's father was also taken aback by the girl's mother's scream, and quickly lowered his voice and asked, "What are you doing!"

The girl's mother's pupils dilated, and she kept shouting: "Delia. Delia."

The aunt next to her turned her eyes, and immediately patted her thigh and cried: "Oh, Mama Delia is so sad, it must be too much stimulation, and she has a mental problem!"

"It's broken, it's broken, shouldn't it be a cerebral hemorrhage? Why don't you send him to the hospital soon?"

788 Vouchers

Other relatives also said one after another: "That's right, hurry to the hospital!"

"Delia died because of your big star Jonathan. Now that everyone is gone, Delia's mother has become like this again."

All the relatives sighed in their hearts while talking. Mom Delia's move is too clever!

Because of their daughter's death, they were too stimulated to go to the hospital. This time, no matter what, they have to lose money!

This acting is so realistic!

No one knows, Delia's mother is not acting realistically, but is really scared to death.

Delia stood in front of her wearing those bright red high heels, her face was pale, and her voice was faint:

"Mom, what are you doing? You care about me so much, do you want to come down and stay with me?"

Delia's mother was so frightened that she seemed to be strangled by someone. She couldn't say anything except her dilated pupils and kicking her legs as if she was dying.

Delia's eyes sharpened, and she screamed suddenly: "What? You don't really care about me, why are you here to make trouble? Who allows you to embarrass my Jonathan!"

She stretched out her hands and pinched Delia's mother fiercely. Each finger was painted with bright red nail polish, and Delia's mother rolled her eyes in fright.

Holding her aunt in her arms, she saw that she was talented. This acting was so realistic that she panicked.

Delia's mother finally passed out, but now she is fine and woke up again.

As soon as she woke up, she saw her daughter lying in front of her, with her face pressed against her, her eyes wide open.

Delia's mother let out another scream from her throat. This scream was like the piercing sound of chalk sharply scratched on the blackboard, which made people's scalp tingle.

Delia grinned: "My good mother, didn't you just want me to come back to life after you have been making trouble these two days? Why are you so scared that you fainted when you see me now?"

Mom Delia: "Go away.!!"

Chapter 190

Delia's eyes darkened, and her tone was like a cold ice cube, and she said quietly: "Okay, I'll go. But what about my suicide note? Where did you hide my suicide note? Did you keep it on your body so that no one can see it?" Found it."

As she spoke, she reached for her mother's trouser pocket.

Delia's mother was frightened to death, as if she was crawling with bugs, she slapped desperately, at this time two things fell out of her pocket.

One was a folded piece of paper in a plastic bag, and the other was her cell phone.

The phone was knocked on the ground, and it was a coincidence that I didn't know what audio was turned on. I only heard the conversation between her and another person:

It was obviously Delia's mother's voice saying: "Aunt her, Delia is gone, she jumped off the building."

There was a whimper in the voice, which was consistent with the voice of Delia's mother in front of her.

The other person should be Delia's aunt, who quickly asked what was going on, and Delia's mother cried for a few minutes, during which there were other people talking and she explained what happened intermittently

"Delia jumped down from the 44th floor. The police asked me to identify it. Delia's suicide note stated that she heard that she would wear a wedding dress at 12 o'clock in the middle of the night, light a candle, and write her lover's name. After death, she could be with her. beside him."

Aunt Delia said angrily: "Who taught this! What about the man? Who is the man! This is not responsible?"

Delia's father's voice was on the side: "How can I be responsible? It is clearly written in the suicide note that she did it voluntarily, and the method was found online. My boyfriend doesn't know her at all."

A few people said a few more words, probably who is the man, the big star, Delia is so crazy and obsessed, and spends money every month to buy the products he endorses, to hit the charts and so on.

Aunt Delia became even more angry, and said loudly: "Is that all? Delia spends two to three thousand, three to four thousand a month, how many years has it been? Eighty thousand if not one hundred thousand? Call that man I will lose money!"

Delia's father said angrily, "What's the compensation? He didn't kill Delia."

What followed was a conversation between several people discussing how to extort money, roughly speaking about how difficult it is to raise a child to grow up, and it cost hundreds of thousands without a million.

In the end, Delia's parents also felt that it made sense. Why did they work so hard to raise their daughter, but in the end they lost everything, and the daughter's money was spent on Jonathan every month!

The daughter jumped off the building because she liked Jonathan so much, why is it not about Jonathan?

They have lost their daughter, so they can't lose their money, right? So no matter what you have to pay hundreds of millions, otherwise this matter will never end.

The recording stopped here.

The girl's parents and other troublesome relatives were all stunned. When were these words recorded!

Delia's mother was still full of fear, while Delia's father was stunned. He remembered that Delia had just died and her mother was so excited that she might accidentally tap on the phone while crying.

This is too coincidental.

Even if you accidentally record it, it shouldn't just happen to be played when the phone falls out.

It was as weird as if something was secretly manipulating it.

The troublemakers didn't know what was going on, they just felt chills on their necks.

Delia squatted next to the phone and sneered, "Mom, is this what you mean by loving me? I thought you were really heartbroken because you were making trouble."

On the side, Delia's father hurriedly put away the suicide note, but Delia waved her hand, and the red wedding dress slapped the suicide note away.

Everyone saw a gust of wind blowing, the plastic bag was opened, and the suicide note flew out.

The Truth About the Code Note

It was shot on the camera of the nearest live blogger.

When the blogger saw it, he immediately grabbed the suicide note and unfolded it.

Delia's father felt cold.

It was as if the fig leaf had been torn away, revealing their naked thoughts of asking for money, and for a moment he blushed, feeling ashamed, guilty and ashamed, with a hint of anger turning into anger.
