

Eight Kickass 201

Chapter 201

Outside the door, a woman in a red wedding dress bent over, as if she was going to peep quietly...

Zion poked his head out, right next to her face.

His breath was stagnant, and he jumped up suddenly, and then found that this was still a dream!

Zion was scared.

Now he is in the dark, the lights outside the corridor are dim, and there seem to be other voices.

Zion can't even tell whether he is in a dream or in reality now!

No matter who had a few nightmares in a row, he couldn't wake up. Zion couldn't hold back anymore.

He gritted his teeth, but instead of getting up to turn on the light and poking his head out like in his dream, he picked up the phone beside the bed and made a call.

Susie was sleeping soundly when suddenly the phone rang and she opened her eyes sleepily.

"Who is it?"

Susie didn't have Zion's number, she rubbed her eyes and looked cute.

I only heard Zion's voice from the opposite side: "You...can you come to my room?"

Susie: "Huh?"

Gradually she woke up and heard Zion's voice.

o

She immediately climbed out of bed and said. "Come on. I'll be here soon' I'm out of the room, I'm in the corridor..."

"I'm here, I'm ready to go to your door..."

Zion listened to the phone in a daze.

Susie didn't lose her temper when she was woken up, her voice was soft and sweet, as if she was afraid that he would be afraid, and she kept talking while walking with her phone and watch.

Her voice was soft and sweet on the phone, and soon her voice rang out from the corridor simultaneously. Immediately afterwards, the lights were turned on.

Zion suddenly closed his eyes, covered his eyes with his hands, and suddenly saw a Susie running towards him.

She ran fast, climbed onto the bed, and sat beside him: "Are you having nightmares again?"

Zion was silent for a while.

Susie reached out and patted him on the back: "Don't be afraid, don't be afraid!"

Zion pursed his lips and said in a muffled voice, "Don't you think it's ridiculous?"

Susie: "Huh? It's not funny. You're only seven years old. What's wrong with seven-year-olds being afraid? It's normal to wet the bed."

Zion was speechless.

The comfort is very good, don't comfort me next time.

O

Zion lay down sullenly, sideways facing the wall, as if he didn't want to talk to her.

But Susie patted him on the back, but he didn't refuse again.

Susie didn't care too much, she lay on the side and yawned, and fell asleep in a second.

Zion was speechless.

Fall asleep now?

Stop patting him on the back?

Maybe people are always vulnerable in the middle of the night. Zion turned over carefully, pursed his lips and looked at Susie in front of him.

The round little face, the pink nose, the pink face and the pink mouth, seem to be cute everywhere.

She also puts her hands under her face when she is asleep.

Zion muttered, closed his eyes and fell asleep.

With Susie by his side, he felt at ease like never before, and slept very soundly this time.

next morning.

Zion woke up first, only to see Susie sleeping in a big shape with her little feet still resting on his belly.

He frowned, poked her foot angrily, and pushed her foot away.

Unexpectedly, Susie showed no signs of being awakened, and turned her feet up again.

Zion was speechless.

Take her feet off again.

Susie, who was sleeping, seemed to be angry, and with a little effort, she placed her little feet on Zion's stomach.

Zion suddenly felt that he was stepped on by an elephant, and his eyes widened.

Susie woke up immediately, got up in a daze, rubbed her eyes and yawned: "What's the matter with you?"

Zion stared: "Did you grow up eating iron?"

It's just a foot, so heavy!

Susie was at a loss: "No, I grew up eating vegetables."

Zion was speechless.

Susie blinked blankly, she was right, when she was in San Diego, she didn't eat much meat, and if the Bishop family leftovers from each meal, they would be packed and taken home by the maid.

She will only leave unwanted vegetables for her...

Susie rubbed her face, stood up and stretched her waist: "I slept so comfortably, good morning~"

Zion walked out quickly, his face a little unnatural.

He couldn't let anyone know that he was scared in the middle of the night, so he called Susie over.

However, at this time, I saw that damned green-headed parrot rushing out and shouting loudly: "Come on, come on, people are gone, people are gone!"

Michael was the first to run over with a loud voice, "Where's Susie? Susie!"

With bare feet, Susie looked blankly: "I'm here..."

Everyone was stunned: "Why did you go to Zion's room?"

Susie said, "I am..."

As a result, I saw Zion's flushed ears, pursed his lips and turned his face away.

She said: "I sleepwalked here..."

Zion nodded: "It's sleepwalking here."

Everyone in the Murray family: Uh.

Alex flew onto Susie's shoulder, tilted his head slightly, and said with a quack: "I met someone when I was an egg, and he said that I will have fish in my dinner later—a liar."

Zion was speechless.

After breakfast, Zion finally admitted to Susie that he did see the dirty things, but it was only in his dream.

Susie snorted, "Is it just seeing the photos?"

On the road, if you see someone who died in an accident, don't join in the fun, you should leave immediately.

Because once you stay for a long time, you may be stared at by the dead, and the ghost will follow you home.

Susie heard from the master that someone once saw a person who died in a car accident on the road and was covered with a blue cloth.

But he looked more curiously, and the wind blew the blue cloth away, and he suddenly saw the dead man's face.

Later, he was entangled by the dead...

After hearing what Zion said, Susie scratched her head in confusion.

Zion just looked at the photo yesterday, so many people saw this photo...

Mitch's voice sounded: "Some people are entangled even when looking at the photos."

Susie was overjoyed: "You're back!"

Zion frowned, and saw that Susie was listening to someone seriously, and then said to him: "Looking at the photos will also bring bad luck, but fortunately, it's bad luck, not bad luck."

Zion: "Speechless."

Then there are so many people who saw the photo, everyone is unlucky?

It is simply nonsense.

Zion rolled his eyes and walked away.

Mitch said: "Susie, I chased that evil ghost for two days, but I couldn't catch him. He's too cunning..."

Susie asked: "So cunning, is it a cunning ghost?"

Mitch: "...you hit it off!"

Susie was elated immediately: "I'm awesome!"

The corner of Mitch's mouth twitched, and he continued: "That sly ghost is not simple, at least he has 'lived' for a hundred years. He doesn't possess living people, but only dead souls, so it's not easy to be caught."

Susie asked: "Possessed by a ghost, why not just eat the ghost?"

Mitch said: "This is where he is cunning. He keeps cultivating vile ghosts, and then let vile ghosts find people who match his birthday..."

Susie nodded and understood: "It means he hired a group of ghosts to work for him."

Mitch was speechless.

You are right to explain it this way.

This evil ghost is not only cunning but also powerful, the most troublesome thing is that now this evil ghost is eyeing Susie.

Mitch opened the booklet and saw a new line of big red characters appearing under Susie's name, and his heart became heavy again.....

Chapter 202 So He Was Participated?

There are no words in the heavenly book, which determines life and death, and the cause and effect of the past and present lives are all in it, knowing the future and clearing the past.

From the moment a person is born, everything is predetermined.

Looking at the thin booklet, which recorded all the destinies of all living beings, a new line of big red characters appeared under Susie's name:

Mental problems, can not rely on foreign aid.

Mitch is frowning, a three or four year old kid, what kind of psychological problems can he have?

But since it can appear in red font, it must be unusual.

Forget it, it can't give her any help...

That's a cunning ghost!

Susie was asking, "Why is that cunning ghost staring at us?"

At first it was Jonathan.

And now Zion.

Mitch shook his head: "He's not after Jonathan and Zion, he's just after you."

Susie was puzzled, so she came to her directly after staring at her!

What was Jonathan and Zion doing with her?

Susie decided to talk to the sly ghost.

Susie muttered, "Let me see where that cunning ghost is hiding!"

The little guy ran out and took down the tortoise that was basking in the sun on the rockery of the fountain in the garden outside.

Susie turned the turtle around.

The old tortoise was very calm, lying flat the whole time, with its four feet, tail and head stretched out of the turtle shell very relaxedly, squinting its eyes.

Alex stood aside, caught sight of the moment when its head turned, and immediately stretched his neck to nudge it.

Susie grabbed Alex and put it on her shoulder: “Alex, don’t make trouble!”

Mitch looked at Susie who was squatting in front of her and tossing the turtle. Her eyes are clear, without a trace of trouble.

Maybe...it’s not as serious as he thought, right?

Grandpa Turtle spun around on the ground and finally stopped.

Susie stretched out an index finger and gestured: “Grandpa Turtle, is that cunning ghost in San Diego?”

Grandpa Turtle didn’t speak, Alex shook his head, as if I understood everything: “It’s right!”

Susie: “Yeah, got it!”

Mitch was speechless.

He chased the Sly Ghost all the way, and the last place he disappeared was San Diego.

It seemed that this trip had to be made.

The next evening, Paul came back.

The smell of pastries wafted through the room, and Susie carried a small basket to pack them.

“One, two... five... ten... eleven.”

Kellen leaned against the console, holding the lid of the steamer in one hand.

“He eats so much,” he said.

Susie nodded: "Uncle said to eat 11."

Kellen curled his lips, Paul should be able to eat 11 at best, and made his baby work so hard to serve him himself.

Paul, who had just arrived at the kitchen door, couldn't help but smile, she remembered it clearly.

"Susie." His voice was warm and pleasant.

As soon as Susie turned her head, she saw Paul in a captain's uniform, her eyes lit up immediately.

"Wow, uncle is so handsome!"

Susie carried the basket and handed the pastries to Paul as if asking for credit: "Uncle, 11!"

A basket full.

Paul couldn't help hugging Susie up, and took out a beautiful little gift box: "Hey, a gift for you."

Susie wowed, she still has a present!

o

"Thank you uncle! Uncle is the best!" Susie hugged Paul's neck happily.

During the meal, Susie told Mitch that she was going to San Diego.

Alana immediately put down her chopsticks and refused without thinking: "No, you go alone? Isn't this a joke?"

Susie explained: "Not alone, Zion will go with me."

It's okay not to mention Zion, but when Zion is mentioned, the whole family has the same opinion: no.

Isn't it a joke that a child takes another child to go that far?

Zion sneered, begged him to go but he still didn't go!

Zion put down the bowl and chopsticks and went straight to the room.

Seeing that everyone disagreed, Susie said, "Please, agree quickly!"

She said the softest words with the most ferocious expression...

In the end it was Kellen who convinced the Murray family.

In the evening, Alana controlled the wheelchair to Susie's room: "Susie, this is the amulet passed down from my mother to me, you can wear it well!"

"Thank you!" Susie kissed Alana.

Susie warned again: "Don't be too anxious to stand up! Wait for your feet to react."

Alana patted her head lovingly and said, "Okay, okay!"

In fact, she couldn't wait any longer and wanted to run right away.

After a while, Martin came in with a box.

He put the box in front of Susie and opened it.

Susie let out a wow.

Inside the box is a sword, a compass...everything!

52.04%

11 37

Martin said silently, "I don't know what you need, so I just bought it."

If Cielo knew what he said, he would definitely complain, why would he just buy something?

These are all bought by him after searching all the auctions. Take the yellow talisman as an example. It was made by a certain mountain man himself step by step with a special wood pulp. It is said that it is not ordinary.

Just that stack of yellow talismans is more expensive than a stack of money.

Susie accepted it happily, these things were really timely for her.

Mitch tutted: "Thank you uncle."

After Martin left, other people came over one after another and brought Susie different things.

Zion sat on the sofa in Susie's room, immersed in the game, finally looked up, only to find that they were still delivering things.

The corner of his mouth twitched.

This is the real concern!

They regard Susie as a real family member, so the care they give is different.

It used to be fake when they whispered to him.

O

Tomorrow Susie was just going out, and they acted as if they were going to be apart for a long time.

Zion turned off his mobile phone annoyed, his expression was ugly. He's a pig to find an inexplicable excuse to come to Susie's room.

on was about to leave when he heard Susie, who was counting the presents, muttering:

"The amulet from grandma, this one belongs to Susie, and this one belongs to Zion."

"Uncle has prepared the sword."

Susie looked up and saw Zion standing there, and immediately hung the most beautiful one on his shoulder: "This one suits you!"

Zion took a closer look

Suddenly, they found that the things they gave Susie were double, and even the things David prepared included his two sets of clothes, which were neatly folded

Susie is putting these things into the suitcase In the suitcase, his things take up more than half of the space, while Susie's things are placed in a small corner

Zion was speechless

He also has a share?

Chapter 203 Not Serious Alex
San Diego International Airport.

Susie is holding a card with a cartoon hand-drawn flowchart on it – Kellen drew it.

It shows a big plane, then a transport truck, then a luggage conveyor belt, then...

Zion followed Susie boredly, fighting hard with his mobile phone in his hand.

“Come on!” He was wearing headphones, so he couldn’t hear his voice was super loud.

Passers-by looked back in surprise.

Susie quickly waved her hand: “I’m sorry, I’m sorry.”

While speaking, he took out a piece of bread from his satchel and stuffed it into Zion’s mouth.

He was still muttering, but there were no harsh words.

Susie went to get the luggage according to the hand-painted sign, and went to pick up Alex.

Alex came here with the pet consignment, a nanny-level pet consignment, and he was talking happily with another parrot at this time.

—It should be said that it is happy to say it unilaterally.

o

The other parrot is very good-looking, with beautiful pale yellow feathers and a smooth crown. There is a round red spot on the slanted cheeks behind the eyes, which looks like a little pink face.

“Did you just wake up too?” Alex spread his wings at the cockatiel.

The parrot ignored it.

Alex straightened up the feathers on his head again, putting out a beautiful crown, and said:

“Oh, the damn plane messed up my hair. I swear I’m going to fly when I get back, yes I swear.”

Susie whispered: “Alex...”

Alex showed his green glowing feathers again: “Why don’t you always talk? Can’t you talk?! My God! No, let me teach you!”

Susie was speechless.

Alex: “Hey, listen to me, you must be in love with me, if not... then I’ll figure it out.”

Susie: “Alex...”

Alex shook his feathers, leaned his head slightly forward, and leaned close to the parrot's cage: "I found that you are not suitable for dating, um... suitable for marriage."

The parrot finally couldn't take it anymore and said loudly, "I'm a male! You fool!"

Alex was speechless.

It immediately turned to look at Susie: "Let's go, let's go!"

Susie was speechless.

o

The surrounding staff suffocated their laughter, and finally couldn't help it anymore, very rude hahaha.

Susie felt so ashamed!

16 58%

She quickly grabbed Alex's cage, ran fast, and fled the scene.

To the outside of the hall.

With a "speechless" expression on Susie's face, she discussed seriously: "Alex, did you learn this from Lucy?"

Alex shook his head: "The secret must not be leaked!"

Susie hooked the bird cage on the suitcase, pulled the suitcase in one hand, and carried the unfinished cakes and fruits in the other, and walked out following the signs.

Zion followed behind with a mobile phone and a headset.

I didn't see it at all. There were a few "ordinary people" like secret agents mixed in the crowd. They wore glasses with a small camera on them.

On the other side, in the Murray family, Kellen has four computers in front of him, and each computer receives the surveillance images sent back from the front line in real time.

Craig said with a straight face: "Since I said let her be independent, what are you doing behind the scenes!"

He held the newspaper in his hand and looked serious, looking at Kellen's computer out of the corner of his eye.

Kellen didn't raise his head, and said, "Don't look at it."

Craig was speechless.

Kellen: "Besides, I'm on a surveillance mission with a spy, not just to shoot Susie."

Craig sneered: "If your lens center is shifted a little bit, I will believe you."

Alana pushed Craig away: "Get out of the way, you don't look at me."

Craig was speechless.

After all, it was lost.

Alana saw Susie walking in front with big and small bags in the picture, and Zion followed behind while playing games empty-handed.

He couldn't help saying angrily: "He actually asked Susie to carry the luggage!"

Kellen squinted at Zion in the picture and took out his phone.

Zion was fighting excitedly, and was about to knock down the enemy on the opposite side...

Suddenly, the screen of the phone went black.

Zion was stunned for a moment, and then became irritable the next moment: "Damn!"

When will I not drop the line, but this time will drop the line!

Susie stopped a taxi and asked anxiously, "Uncle, how much does it cost to go to the hotel next to the University City?"

The taxi driver stretched his neck to see Susie. Looking left and right, there were only two children and no adults.

He turned his eyes and said, "Five hundred yuan."

Susie was speechless.

She suspected that the driver uncle was cheating on her.

O

The little guy looked confused: "Uncle, is fifty yuan okay? I don't have any money."

BB IV 3 hers

The taxi driver was dumbfounded, no, let's not say whether he cheated or not.

Five hundred yuan, cut directly to fifty yuan, this kid is too powerful.

“250, the lowest price!” said the taxi driver.

Susie paused, her cute little face was serious: “Dad said, the working people are working hard, you can’t let you not make money! We won’t take your car, goodbye!”

Susie shook her head, looked at his face and said seriously: “Uncle, don’t drive at night, you will encounter ghosts if you walk too much at night.”

She was talking about seeing ghosts.

What the driver heard was another meaning, this kid, is he still cursing people?

“What do you mean?” He glared.

Susie didn’t say a word, and continued to walk forward with the suitcase.

If you want to cheat her of money, that’s impossible!

The driver was scolded by a child, and his face was very ugly. If he couldn’t take it, he opened the door and went down to teach Susie a lesson.

However, the door was only half opened when it was kicked in by a tall and strong man. The man gave the driver a hard look, and casually put his fist on his glass window.

The driver was so frightened that he didn’t dare to make a sound, and shrank his neck.

Susie pulled the suitcase and continued to move forward, and a taxi pulled up to the side of the road without a trace.

Susie probed and asked:

“Uncle, how much does it cost to go to the hotel next to the University City?”

The driver said in a muffled voice: “Our regular meter usually does not exceed one hundred.”

Susie’s eyes lit up, and she punched the watch.

Dad said, you have to take a decent car when you go out, and a car with a good meter is a decent car.

Susie opened the door and found that the driver had come down, and helped her lift the suitcase into the trunk.

Susie smiled and rolled her eyes: “Uncle, you are so kind! I counted, Uncle is going to be lucky! Get promoted and get rich and marry a wife!”

The driver was speechless.

Hehe, the little milk baby of the officer’s house can really talk!

After Susie got in the car and left, the tall and strong black-faced man also left quickly.

The black taxi driver looked at the taxi going away, and cursed in a low voice: “What a nasty kid! You’re the only one to die, your whole family is going to die!”

He took a mouthful of phlegm out of the car window and continued to solicit customers.

In the car, Susie took out her small satchel and took out a large wallet from it.

There are one red envelope after another in the wallet.

Zion hadn’t connected to the game for a long time, so he put his phone away in anger.

In a blink of an eye, he saw Susie counting the red envelopes, and he said speechlessly, “Do you still need the money?”

Susie was surprised: “Brother, don’t you need money?”

Zion said impatiently: “I mean it’s all card payment now, no one uses cash.”

Susie shook her head: “I like to pay with money, so I can see clearly how much money is missing.”

She will feel distressed when her wallet is out of money, and she will not waste money if she feels distressed.

Then she will save a lot of money and get richer and richer!

Zion pursed his lips indifferently, disdaining to look at it.

o

Susie stretched out her tender little hand, took the money back, and said, “Speechless, you don’t understand!”

Susie lay between the driver's seat and the passenger's seat, staring at the meter, only to see 89 displayed on the meter... and it changed to 96 in a sudden jump.

"Here we are," said the driver.

Susie suddenly wrinkled her face, her heart ached so much, she just moved forward a little bit, and changed from 89 to 96?

It's seven yuan more!

Then she can take these two steps!

Susie looked at the red envelope in her hand, and said with a embarrassed face:

"Uncle, can you step back a little?"

The driver said "Huh?" Did he drive too far? No!

He never parked so standard in the military headquarters.

He hurriedly asked: "Did I go too far? You can't back up, you will be photographed."

This car is not his. It doesn't matter if his car was fined, but the real driver can't be fined.

Susie shook her head: "No, I don't have that much money. Just 89 is just right!"

The driver was speechless.

"Little cutie, you will be charged in the future."

Susie was confused: "Huh?"

How to go back and add money?

The driver saw her cute appearance, and the child could actually bargain.

"I'll charge you eighty-five." He said softly.

Susie's eyes lit up: "Thank you uncle!"

After speaking, he took out a piece of one hundred yuan from the red envelope.

The corner of the driver's mouth twitched suddenly: "Aren't you rich?"

Susie was a little embarrassed, and said in a low voice, "Dad said, every penny saved is a penny."

The driver looked skeptical. Someone like their officer... really said such a thing??

On the other end, the corner of Kellen's mouth twitched as he looked at the picture: He wasn't, he didn't!

The driver helped Susie take down the suitcase, and helped her lift down the birdcage, watching Zion follow behind and still trying to connect to the mobile game.

He turned his head, stuffed the suitcase lever into Zion's hand, and hung the bags and birdcage on the suitcase lever.

As soon as Zion looked up, he found a lot of things in his hand.

Only then did he realize it later, remembering that Susie was carrying the luggage just now.

Susie stretched out her hand and said, "Brother, I'll get it, I'm strong!"

Susie didn't feel anything at all.

Zion patted her hand away, with a small face: "I let you take it, I will be tired and cry later, do I have to complain to my grandparents again?"

Chapter 204 Horror Corridor

He said stiffly, and quickly walked towards the hotel door with his suitcase.

Susie followed happily: "This is the hotel! We will stay here for two days."

Zion: "Oh."

Why does it sound familiar.

Susie said again: "Before I came here, I asked my father to reserve room 34008 in the hotel. It has two bedrooms and one living room! It's in the room next to the woman who jumped off the building."

Zion's feet stopped suddenly: "Why do we live here?"

Susie said blankly, "Otherwise, what are we doing here?"

It was supposed to catch female ghosts!

Zion took one look at the woman's death photo and was hooked.

Of course that sister had to be arrested.

Seeing that Zion's face seemed to turn pale, Susie asked, "Brother, are you afraid?"

Zion: “Nonsense...”

Susie: “Let’s go then.”

Susie tiptoed, registered at the front desk, and pulled Zion into the elevator: “Let’s go!”

The elevator went straight up all the way to the 34th floor.

This building is really tall, and the rooms are densely packed. There is almost no end to a long corridor.

Horror Comdor

Zion just glanced at it, and for some reason, he felt a chill creeping out of the pores all over his body.

Susie looked back and forth, and analyzed: “The corridor is too narrow and too long, and it is easy to raise a lot of ghosts.”

Zion was speechless.

Very good explanation, don’t say it next time.

Since it is not a star-rated hotel, and this floor is not entirely a hotel, but a chaotic public place for short-term and long-term rental, there is no carpet in the corridor.

When the suitcase was pulled over, the whole corridor felt the reverberation of rattling, spreading out layer by layer.

On both sides of the corridor, occasionally there is a room with the door open, and the tenant sits at the door to enjoy the shade, and when he sees their two children, he glances blankly.

Zion felt that the road was very long, and finally arrived at 34008. Susie took the room card and swiped to open the door.

The door opened, and there was a gust of cool wind, and the door next door slammed softly, and Zion’s scalp felt numb.

But Alex yelled and shouted: “It’s so cool~”

Zion’s heart was going to jump in his throat.

“Come in!” He was about to enter the door immediately, but unexpectedly the wind was too strong, and the door slammed shut.

expec

Susie went in, he didn't.

The wind swirled in the corridor and made a sound, and the door of the next room was 'closed, but Zion always felt that it would open in a second.

This is scarier than not entering the room!

"Susie! Open the door!"

Zion knocked on the door quickly.

The tenant who was enjoying the shade in the distance poked his head out, and combined with the wind, Zion became more and more frightened

At this moment, the door clicked, and Zion was overjoyed, and hurried to go in.

However, when he grabbed the doorknob and pushed it, he realized that the door hadn't opened!

That is to say...

The sound of the door opening was not from their room, but from the room next door.

92.09

Chapter 205 There Are Two People on the Air Conditioner

Zion subconsciously turned his head and looked at the door of the next room.

His reflex are was extremely long, and he watched the door creak and it opened back.

The convective wind was so strong that the door of their room was blown shut just now.

The door to the next room opened slowly, as if someone was slowly opening the door behind.

The door was a third of the way open and didn't move.

Zion froze, and the door froze motionless.

It was as if someone invisible was holding the doorknob, leaning against the door and looking at him.

Zion pushed the door hard again: "Susie, open the door..."

The door of the next door was still motionless, and there was a sound of wind, and I felt someone laughing in my ears—

Just laughing, not crying.

Don't be afraid of ghosts crying, just be afraid of ghosts laughing

Zion pushed harder, did this Susie do it on purpose?

At this moment, the door opened with difficulty, and Susie was out of breath, and said speechlessly, "Brother, the door opens to the outside!"

He pushed in so hard that she almost couldn't open it!

"Brother, you are too strong..." Susie said.

Zion didn't care so much, he hurried in.

Chapter 205 There Are Two People on the Air Conditioner

Maybe people will explode their potential when they are in a state of extreme fear.

Zion didn't even know how strong he pushed the door just now

After entering the room, his tense face finally relaxed, and he cursed incomprehensibly: "What's the design of this hotel that the door opens outward?"

The corridor is so narrow, if everyone opens the door to the outside, wouldn't anyone who wants to pass by be unable to leave.

Susie nodded: "Well, the design is very unreasonable."

It seems that the building was not designed for people to live in at the beginning...

Zion took a look around the room, and at a glance, the decoration is quite good, the walls are white, and there is an off-white sofa in the small living room. The curtains are double-layered. At this moment, the curtains are mainly closed, leaving only one layer White yarn.

The white gauze swayed gently with the wind, and a round coffee table was placed beside the cloud-shaped sofa, which made the creamy design look more clean and soft.

But Zion looked uncomfortable.

He casually sat down on the sofa and sank into it all at once.

He complained: “It looks like that, but in fact the decoration is too fake.”

A good sofa is soft but not collapsed, has good resilience, and the fabric surface is skin-friendly and comfortable.

Now this sofa sinks when sitting on it, and the cloth surface also has an indescribable discomfort. If you look carefully at the round coffee table in front of you, you can even see that it was painted with low-quality paint casually.

It’s really a very typical “photo deception”, just take a picture and look at it, but you don’t know it’s extremely uncomfortable until you really stay here.

Susie took out the things in the suitcase, first took out a pair of cute little yellow duck slippers, and put them on

Then I took out Zion’s slippers, two packs of sheets and quilts, two packs of clothes, one pack of “equipment”, one pack of towels, toothbrushes and other daily necessities, and a large pack of snacks..

Zion was dumbfounded, how could so many things be stuffed into such a small suitcase.

Susie ran around dragging her slippers, put her things away, and took the time to comfort her:

“Brother, hold on! If you feel slow, then we’ll go to the next door to check later.”

Zion was speechless.

Do you want to go to the next door to check?

‘Why?’ He was very puzzled.

Is there a female ghost that must be caught?

He couldn’t stay in the Murray family well, why did he have to come to catch ghosts.

Susie said: “If you don’t catch her, she will keep pestering you, and you will keep having nightmares, slowly getting weaker and weaker, even sick, and in a trance...”

She snapped her fingers and counted randomly.

Zion: “Stop!”

Susie: “Anyway, according to what Master said, you can’t hide no matter what.”

Zion: “So? Do you have to come and catch her? Can’t you just recruit her at home and then catch her?”

Susie snorted: “Why didn’t I think of this?”

Zion: “So let’s go back right now.”

Susie shook her head: “No.”

Zion covered his face and scratched his hair: “Why not?”

Susie: “The room fee is non-refundable, it will be a waste if you don’t stay.”

Zion: “I’ll give you the money!”

Susie still shook her head and said no: “If I take my brother’s money and don’t stay in the hotel that my father booked, then my father’s money will be wasted.”

At this time, Susie’s logic becomes clear.

Zion was speechless.

The little princess of the Murray family is actually haggling over the two- day room fee...

He calculated that the room fee for two days was 1,000 yuan, and he only earned 1,000 yuan if he had to practice with him for one day. C

He had earned money to support himself early on, knowing that it was not easy to make money, but because of this thousand dollars-he had reached a reunion with Susie.

Seeing Susie hurrying back and forth, he came over and grabbed her by the collar with a look of disgust on his face: “Go away, I’ll clean it up. Look at the mess you packed.”

Susie: “No mess!”

Zion snorted: “I don’t like people touching my things.

He took out his stuff and tidied up Susie’s stuff “by the way”.

Susie had nothing to do, so she ran to play with Alex.

“Then let’s go to the next room to see at night?” Susie asked while opening the birdcage.

Zion was not happy: “It can’t be during the daytime tomorrow.”

Susie shook her head: “Ghosts only come out at night!”

Zion was speechless.

Alex came out of the cage and walked around.

“It’s so cool.” It still repeated that sentence, but this time there were a few more sentences:

“There are people here, there are people here, there are people under the bed... oops, there are two people on the air conditioner!”

Zion was about to make the bed when his hair exploded instantly.

He took a step back, and immediately held back under Susie’s suspicious eyes, and walked to the bathroom with the washing things.

Alex: “Ah – there’s an auntie in the bathroom!”

Zion couldn’t take it anymore: “Shut up!”

Susie looked at it strangely, then turned to Alex and asked, “Where is anyone on the air conditioner?”

Alex: “Those two shameless ones who only wear shorts!”

Zion was speechless.

That’s the icon on the air conditioner!

Susie asked again: “There’s nothing under the bed either!”

Alex flew down and took out a business card from under the bed, on which was a young lady in cool clothes.

“Someone, someone!”

Zion walked towards the bathroom with a toothbrush and towel, and glanced at the flyer pasted on the bathroom door.

An aunt smiled and warmly reminded people to pay attention to fire and electricity.

So what does it say that there is an aunt in the bathroom? Is this what it is talking about?

But Susie didn’t see Zion blinking suddenly, looked at it intently, and said.

“Auntie really...”

Chapter 206

Zion was about to go to the bathroom to put towels, but when he heard Susie's words, he suddenly stopped, turned around and walked back.

Susie asked strangely, "Aren't you going to put a towel?"

Zion didn't change his face: "After thinking about it, let's make the bed first!"

Susie: "Oh..."

She watched the female ghost aunt in pajamas, with a towel on her shoulders, walked slowly into the room, and sat down by the bed.

"Hey, there's a new tenant here? Why are you two little guys alone?" the aunt chattered.

Susie looked in the direction of the bed, and responded obediently: "I'm sorry to bother you! We're only staying for two days, so we'll be leaving soon!"

Zion, who walked to the bedside, stopped abruptly, turned around and went to the bathroom: let's put the towels first!

Alex tilted his head, looking very confused: "Why are you back again?"

Zion didn't bother to pay attention to it.

Alex: "I see, you are afraid of ghosts."

Zion sneered: "There are no ghosts in this world."

Although he was frightened by the nightmare.

Although he came here with Susie, he just held the attitude of preferring to believe it or not. In essence, he still believes that there is no.....

Just thinking of this, an uncle came out of the bathroom.

Is he dreaming? Hallucination?

If it was Wade who saw the uncle at this moment, he would definitely jump three feet high and rush behind Susie screaming.

But Zion stood where he was, like a statue, with a dull expression on his face.

Besides this uncle, he also saw an aunt sitting by the bed.

There was no one in the room just now, where did the two of them come from?

If it was a ghost, how did he see them?

Zion didn't react at all...

The uncle glanced at him and complained dissatisfiedly: "A new tenant has come? Really, it's so noisy every day with people coming and going!"

Susie hurried to the side of the suitcase, took out the equipment Martin had prepared for him, and generously took out a wad of paper money.

"Sorry to bother you! We'll pay!"

Seeing Susie give the money, Zion finally reacted.

He shuddered, and the hairs all over his body stood on end.

"What are you doing!" He frowned.

Susie said: "Give them money and lend them a place to live."

With a stiff back, Zion walked over with one hand and one foot, and sat next to Susie like a robot.

Seeing the two ghosts staring at him, Zion quickly lowered his head to look at Susie.

"Why do you want to draw a circle?" He had nothing to say.

Susie explained: "Only by drawing circles can they get the money, otherwise the money will fly in the wind!"

Zion was speechless.

"Have you learned it?" Susie finally asked worriedly.

What is he learning this for??

"Okay, uncles and aunts, here is the rent for you!"

Aunt Ghost's face brightened. After so many years, a sensible person finally came!

Aunt Ghost and Uncle Ghost entered the circle, happily picking up money.

"Ah, what a sensible little girl! Come, come, I'll give you a place to live. Your uncle and I will live with the neighbors next door for two days!" Auntie smiled until her eyes rolled.

The uncle was in a better mood, and asked cheerfully, “If there is anything I can help you, please tell me!”

Zion: ...

Eye-opener.

The door to a new world has opened...

He was dumbfounded.

Susie thought for a while and asked, “Who lives next door now?”

The aunt and uncle who received the money were very cooperative and said, “Neighbor, are you talking about the original ghost or the tenant?”

Susie asked strangely, “The original ghost?”

This building is really not for people to live in.

288 Jou he

The uncle said: “This land was a mass grave before, but wasn’t this land planned later?”

Susie nodded.

The aunt said: “I don’t know how many people have been buried in this mass grave for hundreds of years. There are thousands of ghosts alone. Where can we go if we leave here?”

“Ghosts can’t leave, so no one took us all in. The big boss of this building means that after the building is completed, we will allocate a room to all the ghosts in this pit. The door will be opened to the outside, and the corridor will be open from the beginning. In the end, the yin qi is ventilated, and the rooms are also in accordance with the standards of the underworld...so most of the rooms here are very small.”

Susie was dumbfounded: “Then this will affect the living! And there are so many ghosts, will the big boss agree?”

Aunt Ghost said: “As long as the living people don’t live there all the time, people come and go in this building, and they won’t be affected if they live in this building for a short time. We lonely ghosts can’t ‘live’ all the time, and they will gradually dissipate after a long time.” Well, the big boss doesn’t live here anymore, so why does he disagree.”

“There are some young people who have just graduated. They don’t like the environment of the village in the city, and they can’t afford the rent in the community... So they live here for a few years. Now, that girl next door is it.”

Chapter 207

As soon as Susie heard it, she talked about the story she wanted to hear. Both of her little ears were pricked up, and she listened to the story carefully with her chin resting on her chin.

Aunt Ghost saw that she was cute, so she couldn’t help slowing down her voice and said: “The girl has lived here for three years, and she has some mental problems after living here for a long time.”

Susie nodded: “My father helped me investigate before I came here. There are a lot of people jumping off the building here.”

In other words, the female ghost who entangled Zion was not the first one.

Aunt Ghost nodded: “Yes, if you live here for a long time, if your life is not hard enough, you will be in a trance, depressed, depressed or something.”

There are bad guys in everyone, and there are ghosts, and there are many who take the opportunity to claim their lives.

“After the tenant dies, if a layman meets a layman and fails to pick up the deceased, the soul of the deceased will be trapped here, and he will become a servant of the original ghost.”

Susie suddenly realized: “So the one living next door is the original ghost and her trapped?”

Aunt Ghost and Uncle Ghost were surprised, how did she know?

Aunt Ghost said: “The girl next door usually doesn’t like to go out. She likes to stay at home and play games after getting off work. I heard that she often connects with a game training anchor...”

Zion was speechless.

Game sparring?

This person, could it be him??

o

Zion has no source, feeling cold sweat.

Susie asked: “Game sparring? My brother is that!”

Aunt Ghost glanced at Zion: “Is that so...”

“That girl, I don’t have any friends. She shares the rent with another girl, but the relationship is not very good.”

“In addition, the girl would sometimes bring her boyfriend back to spend the night, and the two often had conflicts.”

Zion was speechless.

This plot is a little familiar.

He remembered a sparring list that he often received in the middle of the night some time ago, and the other side often said that her roommate brought her boyfriend back for the night...

“And then?” Zion couldn’t help asking.

Aunt Ghost said: “Then there is no after!”

Zion was speechless.

He was just about to listen, there is no more!?

Aunt Ghost said: “When that girl jumped off the building, she ade a big commotion in the room. Her roommate was too scared to come back.”

“I heard that it was a boy who liked to play games together. The girl wore a red wedding dress before jumping off the building, and wrote the other’s name... But the two of them have never met, and I don’t know what happened after that.”

Aunt Ghost thought for a while, and added: “Oh yes, the boy in that game should be called Zion on, I think that’s the name written.”

Fuck, it can’t be, it can’t be such a coincidence...

The world is so big, why is it him?!

Zion froze in place as if struck by lightning.

Susie thanked Aunt Ghost and Uncle Ghost, and sent them out to watch them float away.

Then he said: “Okay, brother, let’s go to the next door and have a look?”

Aunt Ghost said just now that there is no one next door.

Zion was frightened: “Why don’t you forget it…”

Susie said strangely: “Brother, you’ve been acting strange since you just entered the door! What’s the matter?”

Zion’s eyes flickered slightly, but he finally confessed: “I was outside just now, and the door next door opened.”

Susie opened her eyes wide: “Why didn’t you say that just now?”

Zion pouted, turning his head away.

What is there to say?

Did you tell her to laugh at him for being cowardly?

But it’s different now, and now he’s really gone to hell!

Susie: “What’s the matter, you’re even weirder now.”

She stared at Zion, thinking he must have said something to him.

Zion was speechless for a moment, what should I say.

Said that in order to make money, he worked as a sparring anchor, and at the beginning, everyone knew that he was a child, so they told him to go home and find his mother?

Because he was a kid, he couldn’t get into any clubs, and he ended up being a wild sparring blogger… wearing a vest and pretending to be an adult?

And that female ghost next door is his sparring client??

“Nothing.” Zion pursed his lips and remained silent.

Susie counted quietly, and her little face became serious: “I counted, you are a bit dangerous. Is face more important than life?”

Zion was speechless.

He glared at Susie, wondering if she did it on purpose.

He pursed his lips and finally said, “I am Zion on.”

This time it was Susie’s turn to open her mouth, “How could you be that one.”

Zion was upset, took a piece of paper and wrote his name to explain.

Susie looked at him sympathetically: “No wonder she’s stalking you.”

Zion couldn’t accept it: “I’m just a child!”

He just played a game, just to earn some money to support himself.

As for?

Zion feels that now he has a psychological shadow on playing games...

Susie shook her head: “She doesn’t care, who told you to be dishonest?”

Zien thought about a question for the first time: Maybe he was really wrong...

Susie comforted: “But it’s okay, what she wrote on the red book is not your real name.”

So she could only cling to him and make him have nightmares.

If Zion’s name was really written, Zion wouldn’t be able to sit here properly now.

“Then what should I do?” Zion couldn’t help but grab his hair.

Before this, he had never expected such a thing.

I even doubt whether there are ghosts or not.

Susie looked at him and said seriously, “Don’t be afraid, I’m here!”

Zion was taken aback.

A small person, the top of his head was only as high as his shoulders.

There was a serious look in his eyes, which inexplicably made people feel at ease.

Zion was silent and said nothing more.

midnight

The whole hotel became quiet, so quiet that it seemed that it was not in the world.

In the long corridor, downlights are placed every two meters. The downlights are embedded in the ceiling, which is not very bright, and makes the corridor appear dim and blurry.

It even gives people the illusion that this is a road to hell...

Susie got her things ready, followed by Zion. Zion's face was tense, and his pupils shrank slightly as he looked at the closed door next door.

The ghost aunt just said that there is no one next door, so how did the door lock? He didn't hear the sound of the wind blowing the door just now...

"Susie, are you okay?" Zion looked at the long corridor, his heart raised his throat again.

Susie gave him an OK gesture: "It's okay~"

As soon as the words fell, the door of the next room creaked, and suddenly opened slowly...

Chapter 208 Hiding Under the Bed

The door next door opened slowly, and Zion stared at the door, petrified on the spot.

Susie took a look at him and suddenly found it very interesting.

When Wade sees the hell, his hair explodes instantly, his reaction is faster than lightning, he yells and runs away.

Hell. Zion is standing there like a statue.

Susie covered her mouth and smiled, "If ghosts can eat people, you must be the first to be eaten."

Zion didn't even bother to talk to her!

At this moment, Susie suddenly jumped beside Zion and bit his arm!

Zion was so scared that his hairs exploded.

"What are you doing!"

Her saliva was all over his arms, and Zion was speechless.

Susie glanced at the densely packed ghosts in the corridor, and was frightened by her whine, and all of them hid back.

She giggled and said, “Don’t be afraid, my saliva will ward off evil spirits!”

“Get lost!” Zion rolled his eyes.

Susie immediately said: “Okay, Susie is here!”

She grabbed her sword and ran in happily.

Zion was speechless.

This really ran away?

Unreliable sister!

Zion was a little annoyed, looking at the door, he decided not to go in.

Do not enter, absolutely do not enter! .

Just thinking about this, a faint sigh came from Zion’s ear: “You are here...”

Zion’s pupils shrank, and the reflex arc just reacted, and he ran away: “Susie...!!!!”

He took a quick step and ran into the next room.....

This is also a two-bedroom, one-living room. The sofa is a gray ordinary cotton and linen sofa. The layout of the room is very small. The sofa in the living room is facing the kitchen and bathroom. There is no TV or anything.

Next to the living room are two doors, one of which is closed tightly, and the other is wide open. The door is facing the main door, so as soon as you enter, you can see the red decoration in the room—

Big red sheets, quilts, pillows, a big red happy letter on the mirror above the dressing table, and two burnt candles left beside the mirror.

A pair of red high heels are placed at the end of the bed...

When the wind blows, it seems that you can still hear a faint sigh in your ears.

Zion only felt goosebumps all over his body one after another, his scalp was numb, and he didn’t dare to look back.

“Susie... where are you!” Zion whispered.

Suddenly a small head popped out from behind him: “I’m here!”

283 Next.

Zion froze, and asked angrily, “Why did it appear all of a sudden, and there was no sound at all!”

Susie seemed to have done something wrong, and said, “The last time I patted you on the shoulder, you were also angry...”

If you call him suddenly, he will be startled, and if you pat him on the shoulder, he will be scared to death.

Now that the probe comes out, my brother is still angry.

Hey, she is too difficult!

Zion asked, “Where have you been?”

Susie pointed to the kitchen: “I went to the kitchen to look and found two red eggs.”

She spread her two hands, holding two red eggs in each hand, red eggs that are necessary for wedding banquets in the country.

Zion immediately pushed her hand away: “Take it away!”

Susie looked around and put two eggs on the coffee table.

Suddenly, a red shadow floated outside the door.

Zion froze for a moment: “Susie, did you see it just now?”

Susie nodded: “I see, the young lady in the red wedding dress.”

She looked around cautiously. Aunt Ghost said just now that there are original ghosts in this room, but when she came in, there were no ghosts.

It was as if they were out hanging out.

The more he couldn’t see, the more nervous Zion became. He said: “No, let’s go back first, and come back at noon tomorrow...”

Before the words fell, I heard the sound of walking outside the corridor.

The sound came from far to near, and it was coming here.

Susie took Zion’s hand and ran into the house quickly: “Hide quickly!”

Zion watched Susie drag him into the room filled with red “festive”!

Zion protested: “Change to another room...”

Susie whispered, “It’s too late!”

Zion panicked inexplicably and was dragged by Susie to hide under the bed, and then Susie chanted a spell in front of them.

When Zion reacts, people are stupid!

Where is it bad to hide, hide under the female ghost's bed? !

Zion's hairs stood on end, and he was about to climb out, but a pair of red shoes suddenly appeared in front of him!

As the red shoes got closer and closer, a voice as hoarse as Donald Duck suddenly sounded: "Where did you hide..."

Zion's eyes widened, and the pair of red shoes dangled in front of his eyes, thinking about his feet strangely.

When a normal person walks, the soles of their feet are sure to stick to the floor, but now the owner of this pair of shoes is walking with his feet in mind.

Suddenly the pair of shoes stopped in front of him, and then, Zion saw the hair hanging down...as if someone was grabbing the edge of the bed and was about to look down at the bottom of the bed.

Zion froze on the spot, his breathing stopped.

Those few strands of hair hang down on the ground, more and more, you can guess that the head is getting closer and closer to the bottom of the bed...

51.65%

Zion rolled his eyes stiffly, looking at Susie as if asking for help.

Unexpectedly, Susie was counting the money!

Yes, it is counting money, but counting paper money...

Zion was about to cry, what time is it, and what money is there?

There was a creaking sound from the bed, and all the hair hanging down was piled up on the ground, and the top of the "person's" head could be seen.

Zion's breath stagnates, why is this head hanging down?

According to the normal situation, you should see half of the ear or half of the face first, how could it be the top of the head...

Zion was terrified, and shouted in his heart: Susie, save me, save me!

Susie seemed to hear the screams in his heart, she looked up and said, "Don't worry, he can't see us."

Zion was so startled that he hurriedly covered Susie's mouth, and Susie said, "Don't worry, he can't hear us either!"

Zion was speechless.

Didn't you see the "person" beside the bed paused for a moment, then continued to probe?!

Just when Zion thought that the "person" was about to see the bottom of the bed, he suddenly straightened up and sat on the edge of the bed.

Just as Zion breathed a sigh of relief, hurried footsteps sounded outside the door again.

11 42 D

This time, this "person" was wearing pink slippers, and said in a panicked voice after entering the door, "I'm sorry, I was delayed on the road just now..."

The voice of the person sitting on the bed was like grinding teeth, hoarse and unpleasant, and he reprimanded eerily: "I want you to buy something, and I have been grinding for half a night and didn't come back, saying, are you going to play somewhere with my money?" Already!"

The voice of the girl in the pink slippers was almost crying: "I didn't..."

Her response was a hard slap.

The girl in pink slippers was beaten and flew out.

It just rolled down on the edge of the bed, in front of Zion.

Chapter 209 Finding the Cly Ghost

The girl's face was almost pressed against Zion's. Zion's eyes widened, and he froze into a rock as if struck by lightning, motionless...

The female ghost in front of her was wearing a bright red dress!

Her face was also the one he saw in the group, it was the girl who jumped off the building—Petra!

The strange thing is that Petra didn't wear those big red high heels, but a pair of pink slippers

Fortunately, Petra didn't see him. She climbed up with a face full of fear, and was stepped on by the ghost in the red shoes again.

"I'm hungry, go cook for me!"

"I want to take a shower, run water for me immediately!"

Petra quickly got up and was about to go to the kitchen, but was called back again: "Are you told to turn on the water?"

She was going to the bathroom, but was called back again: "Didn't you hear me telling you to cook?"

Zion came back to his senses and couldn't help frowning.

Isn't this deliberately finding fault with bullying people, isn't it, bullying ghosts?

Petra screamed, and suddenly saw two red eggs on the coffee table, and quickly crawled to the side of the coffee table, and handed the red eggs to the ghost who beat her, and the ghost just cursed at her.

"Susie..." Zion turned back: "How did she get the egg?"

Aren't they ghosts? Zion remembered that Susie put two red eggs on the table just now... Then he realized that the eggs were not broken, how could they stand up!

Chapter 209 Finding the Sly Ghost

Sure enough, I heard Susie say: "I was ready just now. Don't move here."

Saying that she climbed out.

"Susie...!" Zion was startled.

Susie had crawled out, and it was quiet outside.

The very fierce ghost sat on the sofa and ate eggs.

The female ghost in pink slippers was sobbing while cooking something in the pot — there was no open flame, only the sound of tinkering with pots and pans, which seemed a little weird.

Without Susie around, Zion became tense again.

Before, he always felt that his sister was annoying, but now that Susie left, he couldn't do it anymore. He wished he could turn into a pendant and hang on Susie's body.

Zion subconsciously wanted to climb out, but at this moment, the ghost who was eating eggs stopped, and the pair of red shoes started walking again.

Then stop in front of him again.

Zion remembered the scene in the horror movie, and quickly held his breath, holding his breath until his face turned red, and he pinched his nose tightly.

Sure enough, the red shoes were gone.

Seeing the shoes go far away, Zion let go of his hand and took a deep breath, but a hoarse and sharp voice suddenly sounded in his ear: "I found you..."

Zion's back stiffened...

He turned his head stiffly, and saw a man who looked like a 40-50-year-old uncle lying beside him, his eyes were sunken, his skin was withered and yellow, as if he had been buried in the ground for a long time before he climbed up.

Seeing him, the male ghost pulled out a weird smile, revealing two gold teeth.

Zion was speechless.

Say Susie again.

She was struggling to run quickly in the room.

She shuttled back and forth, and invisible red ropes sealed the room in a mess.

The master said that if she worked hard alone, she would be able to defeat the cunning ghost.

Now the sly ghost is in this room, although she hid it well, but she discovered it.

First, the ghost aunt next door said that the ghost who originally lived here was a normal uncle. Normal uncles would not wear women's red high-heeled shoes, but the girl who jumped off the building wore high-heeled shoes on his feet.

Second, when the girl who jumped off the building died, she was wearing a red wedding dress and performed some kind of ceremony before she died. Logically, she should have become a vile ghost, but she was suppressed by another ghost.

Those who can suppress vile ghosts are either more vicious vile ghosts or evil ghosts.

40 62%

11 43 T

But the ghost aunt next door said that ordinary ghosts live in this room.

Since it is an ordinary ghost, how can it enslave the girl who jumped off the building?

Assume that the cunning ghost= x , the aborigine ghost uncle= y , and the girl who jumped off the building vile ghost= z .

So, x hid in y 's body, disguised as y

That is the meaning of $x=y$!

"I can count!" Susie thought happily, "I have learned Wade's ability."

She is amazing now!

Susie was thinking happily, just as she sealed the room with a beam net, she suddenly heard Zion scream

"Ghost!!"

As soon as the words fell, Susie saw Zion stand up abruptly, and with a bang, the bed was turned over by him.

Although the quality of the bed in the short-term rental house is not good, but Zion can turn the top of the bed, which is amazing.

Susie's small face was full of shock, watching Zion yelp, and ran to her side with a whoosh.

She couldn't help looking at Zion's head: "Do you have a long hair?"

Only then did Zion feel his brain nuts buzzing, he was so scared st now, he doesn't know how he ran out from under the bed now.

The siblings looked at the bed.

The bed board is a sparse row of skeletons, the board is very thin, and now one is broken, obviously it was broken by Zion's head.

11 42 D

The mattress is also a thin mattress, which may have allowed the Zion to turn over smoothly.

“It hurts...” Zion touched it and hissed.

Because of this movement, the female ghost in the kitchen came out, and the male ghost lying under the bed also floated up, staring straight at Zion.

His voice was as harsh as a grinding stone: “Who are you?”

Susie used invisibility, they didn’t see Susie.

Zion couldn’t help but grabbed Susie’s arm, his voice trembling: “Quick, make me invisible too.”

Susie helped him hide: “You hide aside.”

She has a red rope in her hand, so she is not afraid of fighting.

But Zion can’t, he has nothing, if he is caught by a ghost, he will be in trouble.

The Sly Ghost seemed to be aware of this too, and the moment Susie was about to make Zion invisible, he pounced on him!

Zion: “Damn!”

Why is it him again!

I saw the male ghost screaming sharply, his fingernails suddenly lengthened, and he pinched towards Zion.

Susie stood in front of Zion without thinking!

o

There was a hint of ferocity in the male ghost’s eyes. The judge must have gone after him. Unexpectedly, he is here!

A little doll, he could swallow it in one bite!

hiding the ghost

“Susie...” Zion’s pupils shrank.

In the next second, a flash of red light was seen, and the male ghost was sent flying out!

Zion:!!!

His annoying sister... so powerful! ?

The male ghost was sent flying, and looked at Susie in surprise.

He must have been careless just now, it doesn't count.

His eyes were solemn, his whole body was full of evil spirit, and he rushed towards Susie with a loud roar.

This time he is 100% serious. If he can't swallow this child in one bite, he will...

Just as he thought of this, a red light flashed, and the male ghost was sent flying out again, hitting the red net set up by Susie just now!

And Susie stood where she was, as if she didn't even move her fingers!

The male ghost looked at her in horror: "You...!"

This kid is a master, definitely a hidden master!

She blinked her eyes and asked, "Are you still here?"

The male ghost was speechless.

Susie: "If you don't come, I will come!"

The cunning ghost is hidden in this uncle's body, that is to say, he has many, many layers of skin, and he hides under layers of skin.

Susie didn't know how he'd done it, but he'd shown his feet, and now she was going to peel the sly from under the layers.

Susie rushed up fiercely, grabbed the male ghost's foot, and swung it vigorously while he was not paying attention—

She swung the male ghost on the ground like an onion.

The male ghost fought back angrily, and Susie immediately let go, but the male ghost was thrown out by the red rope again.

Chapter 210 So Susie a Heart Problems Are Here

Taking advantage of the male ghost's fall, Susie went up to grab him and swung him violently.

Mitch, who was hiding in the dark, was shocked. His little apprentice has learned a lot!

Not only did he learn well, but he was lucky enough not to be counterattacked by the cunning ghost.

Suddenly, with a pop, the male ghost seemed to be peeling off, and a black shadow flew out.

And Susie is holding a layer of "human skin" in her hand – the aboriginal ghost uncle who originally lived in this house.

"Ouch..." Uncle's voice was weak: "I can't do it anymore... This evil ghost is too hateful... He actually cut me in the middle and wore it as clothes..."

After Uncle finished saying this, he turned into a wisp of evil spirit and was absorbed.

Zion was stunned.

At this moment, he thought of all the characters in the game, and now they are all inferior to Susie...

"Sister..." Zion moved over, not even realizing that his address had changed.

Susie was out of breath and said, "Don't come over, stand asi

As soon as the sly ghost heard it, he immediately aimed at the air around Susie. He couldn't see Zion, so he could only guess the approximate location.

Then pounce on it!

Zion froze in shock...

Chapter 210 So Susie's Heart Problems Are Here

Zion was kicked out by Susie.

This was the first time Zion was kicked and he was so grateful that he burst into tears. His first move was to cover the yellow talisman on his forehead, and then he huddled in the corner, motionless.

The cunning ghost is good at escaping and hiding, and when he failed, he immediately hid again.

Susie snorted.

Does this cunning ghost have a magic weapon in his hand?

Can it disappear out of thin air?

Just as he was thinking, there was a creaking sound from another closed door, and a figure came out.

“Susie!” He snorted coldly and cursed, “Get out of here!”

Hearing this voice, Susie froze!

She looked over in a daze, only to see that it was Andrew-her adoptive father who came out!

“Dad...” Susie subconsciously wanted to call Dad, but shut up immediately.

Andrew sneered and said, “Now you are powerful, you have become the princess of the Murray family, and you have a powerful father, so you don’t even recognize me as a father, do you?!”

He approached Susie step by step: “I worked so hard to raise you, but how did you repay me? Not only did you not take me to the Murray family for the elderly, but also let your uncle send me to prison!”

“Without me, do you think you can be born and grow up to be three years old!”

Andrew stared at Susie with resentment in his eyes: “Don’t you know how to take in ghosts? Come on, take me in if you have the ability!”

Susie took a step back subconsciously.

At this moment, she inevitably thought of the days in the Bishop family.

After her mother passed away, she wanted to be hugged by her father, but was pushed away impatiently by her father.

She picked a beautiful flower in the garden, and happily took it to her father, but he threw it into the trash can.

And in the cold weather with heavy snow, he made her kneel in the yard, and almost beat her to death...

Mitch’s heart sank when he saw this.

It turned out that Susie's psychological problems were here.

That's right, she was only a three-year-old child, but her mother died at the age when she was most attached to her parents, and she was abused by her father.

Perhaps the days in the Murray family made her gradually forget the previous injuries, but after all, it is the shadow of her childhood, and the injuries she has suffered will not disappear.

The sly ghost was really cunning, as if he had come prepared, even Andrew's ghost was found.

The ghost of Andrew in front of him has not completely dissipated. Although it has been made into "clothes", it still has its own consciousness.

He was accusing Su with a look of resentment.

"I'm so miserable, it's all your fault!"

"Yes, I beat you! But which father doesn't beat the child? No matter how I am, I have the grace of nurturing you!"

He died so badly that he should have died, but he was dug out by Kellen and his ashes were thrown away.

After that, he will not have an afterlife, that is to say, he has no way to reincarnate, and can only fend for himself between the heaven and the earth, and in the end there is nothing left.

He is so miserable, but Susie is living so well, why?

Susie pursed her lips, shook her head and said, "No, I didn't do it!"

She plucked up her courage and looked at Andrew firmly: "It's because of you. There is no such thing as a father who will beat a child. You are lying."

Andrew was taken aback for a moment, and suddenly became furious: "How dare you talk back!"

Just like before he was alive, without saying a word, he grabbed something and threw it at Susie fiercely!

Susie was no longer forced to bear it as before, but avoided it deftly.

There was a layer of determination in her eyes, and she was no longer the child who let him beat him and didn't dare to fight back.

Andrew was even more angry when he saw Susie like this.

O

He yelled and rushed over: “I ate you!”

Mitch was sweating, wondering if Susie could kill Andrew and kill Andrew.

This may be the most difficult choice. Andrew is right in saying that he has somewhat nurtured Susie.

Should such a “father” be killed?

In the hearts of children, what do they think of such a father?

Mitch didn’t wait long, only to see Andrew pounce on him, and Susie raised her hand...

The red string on the wrist emitted a red light, and Andrew was sent flying!

Andrew screamed and fell heavily on the red net.

Susie has laid out a dense net in this room, no ghost can escape, everything depends on Susie’s choice.

Andrew spit blood from his mouth, looking miserable.

Susie stood not far away, looking at him without saying a word.

Andrew suddenly lost his mind, and smiled miserably: “Hehe... Susie has really grown up... she dared to hit me. Susie, I once loved you deeply, and you were my baby when you were just born...”

“Forget it, don’t talk about it, you can kill me. Kill me, you will be happy, right?”

“I’m happy to die in your hands.”

Andrew closed his eyes.

Others don’t understand Susie, doesn’t he?

Ever since she was a child, what she longed for most was to get his father’s love.

She absolutely can’t do it!
