

Chapter 211 Overcoming Psychological Problems

Susie approached Andrew step by step, slowly but firmly.

There was a slight hint of complacency on the corner of Andrew's mouth.

However, in the next second, Susie grabbed his ankle and slammed him on the net!

It was just one blow, but the force was so great..

Andrew never expected that Susie could really do it!

"I'm your father!" He was angry and surprised.

Susie shook her head firmly: "No, you are not my father. My father's name is Kellen, not Andrew!"

She grabbed Andrew again and slammed him to the ground.

Andrew couldn't stand it at all, he yelled and threw himself at Susie.

Susie immediately let go of him, but Andrew, who was jumping over, was sent flying by the red rope.

Andrew, who was blown away, turned into a layer of skin before he even landed on the ground. The Sly Ghost slid out again and hid immediately.

Left alone, Andrew lay weakly on the ground, muttering: "I am your father...I am your father....."

He is not reconciled...not reconciled!

Obviously he is the son-in-law of the Murray family and Susie's father, all the glory and wealth belong to him...

But he fell into a situation where he couldn't even reincarnate!

Anna

11

Andrew turned into evil spirit in unwillingness, but Susie did not accept this evil spirit.

In the end, he disappeared into the world, and there was no such person as Andrew in the world ever since.

Susie stood where she was, without speaking for a long time, but her heart felt relaxed and confident like never before.

Mitch breathed a sigh of relief, knowing that the psychological problem was over.

Before he knew it, the little guy had become so strong... Mitch was very pleased.

And Zion was stunned again.

His sister is a ruthless person, even the original father dared to beat her!

It took Susie a long time to move. She walked slowly in the room and said to herself, "You are the only one left now...Sly, where are you?"

After losing two layers of "skin" in a row, he should show his true colors this time, right?

Susie dragged the sword in her hand, knocking this, knocking that.

Inexplicably, Zion thought of the killer dragging a chainsaw to find someone in the movie, and couldn't help but get excited, and his goosebumps exploded.

On the other side, the girl who jumped from the building stand at the door of the kitchen stood stiffly, unable to speak, her eyes hurting.

The cunning ghost restrained her, secretly trying to get into her body.

The girl who jumped off the building was Petra. Because she liked playing games as a training partner, she was lonely and socially afraid, and she was finally bewitched and jumped off the building.

The sly ghost knew very well that in Susie's eyes, Petra was innocent.

He can't escape now, he can only pretend to be Petra, and sneak away when Susie lets her go...

However, at the next moment, a sword flew over suddenly, Susie grabbed his wrist fiercely and threw him out!

"Found you!" Susie grabbed the broom and stared at Sly.

The Sly Ghost immediately tries to hide again, Susie throws a wad of spells

It turned out that what she had just counted was not paper money, but yellow talismans, and Zion misread it in the dim environment under the bed.

The sly ghost resisted fiercely, Susie saw that the yellow talisman could not hold back, she pulled out a few more nets, and even threw the evil ghost out of the gourd!

Zion is in a trance, Susie actually has a helper?

The three evil ghosts fought together.

The sly ghost has lived for hundreds of years. He was already powerful, but he was injured by the red rope rebounding twice. Now he is evenly matched with the two evil ghosts.

Susie ran up immediately, stretched out her hand when she saw the opportunity, and waved her sword in front of him.

As long as the sly ghost accidentally hits her, he will be counterattacked by the red rope.

The power of the red rope is terrifying. Just now, the sly ghost was seriously injured after being beaten for two rounds, let alone now, he was directly crushed and beaten...

He wanted to avoid Susie, but found that Susie was all in front of him.

The sly ghost said in grief and indignation: "You are unreasonable!"

Susie replied immediately: "I don't! Why should I be reasonable?"

The sly ghost was speechless.

Finally, the Sly Ghost was nailed to the net with three swords.

Susie wrapped the Sly Man like a pastry, making sure he couldn't run away even if he wanted to.

Zion approached Susie, and only then did he see the true face of the cunning ghost.

A thin male with sunken eye sockets and prominent cheekbones.

With braids and a red robe, he looked like a medieval man.

Susie said: "Auntie, he has something good on him, look for it quickly."

Without further ado, Playa Ghost went up to check it out, and said, "Good stuff? What good stuff does he have?"

The cunning ghost who was tightly bound was full of grief and anger, and said angrily in a high-pitched voice: “Get out!”

He felt a great humiliation!

There has never been such a brazen...!

Seeing this scene, the coward subconsciously clamped his knees...

Aunt Playa is checking something weird!

She meant to find a magic weapon for the cunning ghost to “invisible”!

Playa Ghost rummaged while shaking his head: “Don’t worry, I’m not interested in you!”

The sly ghost was speechless.

Playa Ghost’s eyes lit up, and in the arms of the cunning ghost, he found a piece of black lacquer, which was round and looked like jade.

“Found it!” She took out the black jade and handed it to Susie.

Susie looked at it, but didn’t see anything, so she could only put it away temporarily

The sly ghost was in despair.

I only heard Susie ask: “Tell me, how did you die, and how do you know me?”

He turned his head aggrieved: “If you want to kill or cut at will, I will never...”

Susie stretched out her wrist: “Ha!”

The sly ghost turned his head subconsciously, and as a result, he touched Susie’s wrist, and his face was swollen from being beaten by the red rope.

He gritted his teeth: “I am absolutely...”

Susie suddenly held his head and slammed into the red rope.

A red light flashed.

o

This time the sly ghost was shaved and disheveled, and everyone was frightened

“I said!” The sly ghost was aggrieved!

Chapter 211 Overcoming Psychological Problems

Had I known this earlier, what was he resisting?

There is nothing more useless!

“I was born in 1844. My father gave birth but did not support me. I couldn’t even get enough to eat. In order to make a living, I chose to sell myself.”

Susie asked blankly, “How?”

Playa ghost coughed involuntarily: “Baby, you can’t ask this...”

Chapter 212 Death of the Sly Ghost

The more you don’t ask questions, the more curious Susie becomes.

She asked strangely, “Why can’t you ask?”

Playboy: “Children can’t ask.”

788 you he

Susie: “Why can’t children ask? Can adults ask? Will you tell me when I grow up?”

The flower-hearted ghost cleared his throat.

The coward quickly shifted his gaze: “And then?”

The sly ghost suddenly stopped, as if thinking of something bad, with a depressed expression on his face.

The Playa Ghost asked strangely: “What? Did you die before it even started?”

The sly ghost was speechless.

The coward said speechlessly, “You can shut up.”

Playa ghost giggled, but shut up anyway.

The sly ghost was aggrieved for a while, and then said: “No.”

At the beginning, what he wanted was to have enough food and clothing, but gradually he became dissatisfied, so he used tricks to become the “caretaker” of the princess’ pillow.

“There are many people who want to be next to the princess, and there are always people who want to squeeze me out. So I lied that my dick has grown longer.”

Playboy: “Isn’t it true, does the princess believe this kind of lie?”

Cowards are strange too,

Susie really didn’t understand.

Zion also looked puzzled and bewildered.

He said that the first few days were fine, and he asked to turn off the lights, but the princess could not see.

But after a long time, the princess became suspicious again.

Playa ghost really wanted to ask what made the princess suspicious, whether the size was wrong or the texture was wrong...but he looked at Susie and held back.

The sly ghost continued: “I’m afraid that the princess will beat me to death if she finds out. In the queen’s harem, no one will ask me if I’m beaten to death.”

So in order to hide it from the past, he tried to kill a sheep to get the skin, stuffed it with shredded tobacco, and put the leather on himself.

The philandering ghost and the cowardly ghost felt horrified as ghosts. when they heard this.

The cunning ghost said: “That’s it, I made up a lie, and I have to lie one by one to make up the lie...”

He is skinny and shorter than everyone else, so he likes to make up for it more and more in some ways.

“My power is getting bigger and bigger, from killing sheep at the beginning to killing people at the end.”

Just for that piece of skin, to make up for the lie.

“I am good at sweet talk, the princess dotes on me very much, but more and more people died because of me, which attracted the king’s attention.”

The sly ghost panicked and quickly filled the well where the corpse was buried.

Later, he was still suspicious. In order to hide, he cut off the face of the murdered person and pasted it on his own face to disguise.

His face was stinky, so he tried his best to cover it with incense.

His face was rotten, so he lied that he was allergic to hay fever.

After hiding like this for seven days, the emperor didn't find him, but the well was dug up...

"The emperor was furious. If he couldn't find me, Long Yan was even more furious. He summoned everyone and looked for them one by one."

"My face can't be used anymore, so I had to burn it, and I disguised myself as a maid again."

"I was also suspected after disguising as a maid. I cruelly caught a cat and scratched my face..."

After being caught in the face, he still couldn't escape, and the circle of arrest was getting tighter and tighter.

"Finally, I found the palace of the concubine. In a hurry, I threw the oil lamp on, and a big fire broke out. I burned my face and there cruelly."

Playboys and cowardly ghosts are speechless.

This is a tough guy.

May I ask who can be so cruel that he burns his face and body?

After the sly ghost burned himself, after all, the level of medical treatment was limited in that era, he died in the end-he died of a serious infection.

He escaped cunningly several times, but he still couldn't escape in the end. He really didn't get anything and made himself miserable.

The cunning ghost gritted his teeth: "If I had known this, I might as well die. Maybe the princess could kill me directly..."

It is not likely that more than ten years after his death, he kept repeating the fear and painstaking efforts of cunning escape, tired, tormented and tortured repeatedly.

Susie shook her head: "Who can blame this?"

The Sly Ghost was silent.

Susie thought for a while, then asked, "Then how did you find me?"

The sly ghost was scared of being beaten by the red rope, and this time he didn't hesitate, and said directly: "You have taken a few evil ghosts, I will always hear the wind."

Other evil ghosts who heard Susie's vicious name tried to hide as much as possible, but he was different. He felt that Susie must have some kind of magic weapon because she was so powerful.

He has "lived" to the present, nearly two hundred years.

"A hundred years ago, I accidentally obtained black jade. Black jade is very powerful. It can hide my aura so that no one can find me..."

This allowed him to survive so many years and become stronger and stronger.

But just like the mistakes he made in his lifetime, the cunning ghost is more and more dissatisfied with his current toughness, and puts his mind on Susie, coveting the magic weapon on Susie.

How did he know that the person he provoked was not an ordinary person.

"It's over, it's up to you, just don't torture me."

Chapter 213 Death of the Sly Ghost

Sly Ghost closed his eyes.

Susie was in a dilemma, he didn't take the initiative to attack her, and the red rope would not take the initiative to attack either.

But she can't accept the sly ghost!

Susie pinched the gourd and whispered, "Can you collect ghosts yourself?"

Lucy was speechless.

Susie sighed: "It's really useless, you just know how to eat."

Susie held the black jade and looked at it for a while, but she didn't see any difference.

She had no choice but to ignore the sly ghost for the time being, and looked at Petra, the girl who jumped off the building and stood silently aside.

"How did you die?" Susie asked softly.

Zion followed and looked over...

The sly ghost's eyes flickered, and he suddenly remembered that when he was hit by the red rope just now, it seemed that the red rope would only attack when he voluntarily bumped into it.

Could it be that this little doll is not as powerful as he thought?

The sly ghost worked hard quietly. As long as he breaks free, he immediately runs away.

Before escaping, he will sneak up on Susie again and throw Petra on Susie to see if his guess is right!

However, he didn't notice that the black jade held by Susie was being swallowed and absorbed by the gourd...

o

Asked how Petra died, Zion quietly pricked up his ears.

Petra sighed, and looked at Zion speechlessly: "How did I know that the master who played games with me was actually a primary school student."

Fortunately, she was still obsessed with him, and was bewitched by the sly ghost in the end, so she jumped off the building and died.

"I became a vile ghost after I died, but I was enslaved by him..."

Petra looked at the sly ghost in fear, and continued, "I know he wants to use me to trick Zion, so when you first came, I wanted to scare you away."

Petra felt aggrieved, knowing that when Zion and Susie first arrived, she was still worried, so she deliberately opened the door slowly...

Who knew that Zion was actually a child of seven or eight years old!

She was stunned on the spot, standing by the door and staring at Zion blankly.

And Zion was also stunned, staring at her for a long time before being frightened and shouting Susie...

Even now, Zion's fear reflex arc hadn't caught on.

He asked very calmly: "Then you said 'you are here' at the door just now?"

Petra nods.

She was summoned by the cunning ghost to go shopping.

When I came back and saw that Zion hadn't left, and even wanted to enter the house, I was anxious to scare him away.

Who knew he ran in instead!

As long as he doesn't attack, Susie can't do anything to him.

If he got the gourd and the red string, the Sly Ghost would look at Zion with green lights in his eyes.

"Today is your death day!"

When he gets the magic weapon, he will be the first to kill her!

The cunning ghost rushed towards Zion with a smile.

In desperation, Susie instinctively threw the gourd out: "Go!"

The sly ghost dismisses it, who is it to frighten?

However, in the next second, the gourd suddenly became the size of a palm and was crushed on his head!

The sly ghost couldn't even move, and felt that his soul and body were being torn apart.

He was shocked and begged for mercy: "Susie, I was wrong, please forgive me!"

Calabash didn't give him a chance to speak and crushed him directly. The sly ghost finally lost his soul and was absorbed by the gourd.

The gourd returned to the size of a fingernail and fell to the ground.

Susie's eyes widened: "Little gourd, you really know how to catch ghosts by yourself!"

She happily picked up the gourd, spit a little, and polished it with her clothes.

Lucy was speechless.

Zion was speechless.

Petra was attacked by the red rope, her soul was about to dissipate, and she was speechless.

Susie sent her away, and looked around the house now, it was empty.

"Let's go, it's over!" Susie yawned and went back to the next room with a relaxed expression.

This time she is a little stronger than last time!

You must tell Master when you go back!

“Go to bed early, we’ll go home tomorrow...” Susie said in a daze, extremely sleepy.

Zion was in a daze the whole time, and he didn’t realize it until he also lay down and was about to fall asleep.

“It’s scary!” He grabbed his little quilt tightly...

On the other hand, the ghost aunt and uncle who gave up the room to Susie and Zion are strolling in the ghost city.

There’s a road in San Diego, and there’s an unfinished building at the end of the road.

A long time ago, this was an old airport. During the war, the enemy dropped bombs and killed many people. Later, when the enemy occupied this place, they killed many people intensively. Therefore, it became a famous ghost field in San Diego.

Of course, these are just legends among old San Diego people, and no one has ever seen them.

But what people don’t know is that this is indeed a ghost market for ghosts...

One or two o’clock in the middle of the night is the busiest time for the ghost market

Aunt Ghost and Uncle Ghost had money, so they went around happily and bought a lot of tributes.

“Should I take a taxi back? Carrying so many things, it’s tiring to float back ”

Uncle Ghost agrees

They stood on the side of the road and waited for the bus

Let’s talk about the black car driver who tried to cheat Susie of 500 yuan at the airport

He didn’t receive the order today, so he was unlucky. For some reason, the higher-ups started to check

As a result, he ran for a day without earning a penny, and even paid hundreds of dollars for gas.

He was in a very bad mood at this time and was driving home.

As a result, he saw a middle-aged couple on the side of the road carrying a lot of things and waving to him.

“Hey, in the middle of the night, where did he come back from, with so many things in his hand!”

The driver of the black car stopped the car, only to hear the middle aged man ask: “How much does it cost to go to the hotel?”

The driver of the black car was overjoyed, he didn’t expect to get an order when he was ready to go home.

Whatever you say must be slaughtered.

Ghosts

He frowned and said, “I’m going home. If I send you there, I’ll have to make a big detour. Can you go for five hundred yuan? If I go, I’ll pull you. If I don’t go, I’ll go back to sleep!”

Uncle Ghost and Aunt Ghost looked at each other.

Five hundred yuan, so cheap!

The paper money that Susie burned for them was 10,000 yuan each!

Aunt Ghost said, “It happens that I have some change, let’s go!”

The black car driver was ecstatic in his heart, there are still such stupid people these days!

The driver was very happy, humming a song and chattering: “Where did you go?”

Aunt Ghost laughed and said, “I went to play and bought some things by the way.”

The driver didn’t react until now, shook his head and said: “You are not young people, you still go to the night show like young people!”

Uncle Ghost said in a muffled voice: “It’s been a long time since I came out, so it’s okay to play for a while.”

The driver of the black car gave a hey hey and gave a thumbs up: “You still know how to play!”

There was a wretched smile in his eyes, and he looked up at the rearview mirror.

Looking at it this way, I almost didn't get scared to death.

In the back seat, the middle-aged couple stared straight at him. Both of them had pale faces. The key point was that they had no expression at all, as if they had been dead for a long time.

Yes, people who have been dead for a long time.

The driver of the black car suddenly remembered the place where the couple boarded the car just now. There was no night market there!

There are no bars waiting for night shows!

He slammed on the brakes, and the car screeched to a stop!

Uncle Ghost rolled his eyes dumbly, looking out at the road: "Why did it stop suddenly?"

The driver of the black car was drenched in cold sweat and stammered, "Traffic lights..."

Aunt Ghost glanced suspiciously, is it a traffic light? It's still far from the intersection.

"Hey, could it be that you've been dead for so long that your eyes are gone?" Aunt Ghost muttered in a low voice.

Uncle Ghost approached very considerately: "Let me take a look for you."

Aunt Ghost took out the eyeballs and handed them to him.

The two of them got very close, behind the seat, they had already carefully avoided the sight of the driver of the black car.

o

But the driver of the black car was almost scared to death. He really couldn't see it from the rearview mirror.

However, his car is a bit unscrupulous.

In the back seat, he surreptitiously installed tiny cameras.

Sometimes he pulls some good-looking girls, or girls in short skirts, and he can spy on them through his mobile phone...

Tap your phone to take photos and videos.

He and other like-minded drivers pulled a small group and shared these beautiful scenery every day.

They used to be so excited about it, but at this moment, it has become his nightmare.

In the camera footage, one could clearly see the middle-aged woman gouging out her eyeballs.

The middle-aged man wiped it carefully.

Then put it back on for her.

The driver of the black car felt as if he had fallen into the water. His whole body was soaked in sweat, and his face was still dripping with sweat.

At this time, the middle-aged woman stretched her neck and said, "Is the traffic light so long?"

Black car driver: "My car seems to be broken..."

Uncle Ghost couldn't help frowning, what a broken car!

Aunt Ghost is okay, she looked at it: "It's not far from the hotel, let's go for a while!"

Uncle Ghost nodded, took out five banknotes and handed them to the driver of the black car.

The black car driver's fingers trembled when he took the money for the first time.

If you look closely, they don't look like normal people when they walk, their feet don't touch the ground, and they float.

The driver of the black car tremblingly looked at the money in his hand, and sure enough, it was counterfeit money.

The driver of the black car did not know how he got home.

It was only later that he got seriously ill and burned the camera in the back seat.

Even the group that shared the candid video has quit, and the spirit has been depressed a lot, and I live in fear every day...

Before Susie left the next day, she made a hole under the big stone tablet between the two buildings of the hotel and put something in it.

Zion asked: "This is?"

Susie said: “This way there won’t be so many people jumping off the building.”

There are too many ghosts here, each with its own fate, even if all the ghosts are wiped out, her gourd will be full, right?

But Susie thinks it’s not good.

Put that thing down, even if someone jumped off the building, the soul will not be trapped here, nor will it be enslaved by other ghosts.

Zion asked: “Aren’t you afraid that others will dig it up?”

Susie affirmed: “No.”

Zion was puzzled: “Why not?”

Susie: “If I say no, I won’t. You don’t understand.”

Zion was speechless.

Susie clapped her hands, then patted off the dust on her pants, and pulled the suitcase full of energy: “Go home!”

Zion pursed his lips, and took the suitcase very consciously this time.

Murray family

Alana waited at the gate of the manor for a long time, and asked anxiously, “Why haven’t you come back yet?”

“I said at the beginning, don’t let the two of them go by themselves, what if something happens to the two children?”

“Especially Zion, a little bastard, his sister is sold and he is probably still addicted to the game!”

Martin and Kellen are both eye-catching.

Only two minutes later, they were counted down by Alana for two rounds.

Just then, a car drove into the Murray family estate.

Zion got out of the car first, then quickly ran across the other side, opened the door and stretched out his hand.

Susie jumped into Zion’s arms, and Zion quickly hugged her down.

“It’s too heavy, you should eat less in the future!” Zion said with dist.

Then he ran to the trunk of the car and took the suitcase down.

Zion was dragging the suitcase, with large and small bags hanging on his arm, and holding Susie's half-eaten small cake and half bottle of milk in his hand.

Chapter 214 Zion's Transformation

"Still hungry?" Zion asked, "Be patient, grandma will definitely be cooking."

Alana and Michael have the same shocked face.

Michael asked blankly, "This is Zion?"

Could it be that he was possessed by a ghost??

788 Voucher.

Alana was also surprised, Zion had only been out with Susie for two days, and he seemed like a different person when he came back?

I didn't see him addicted to games, and he took the initiative to take care of his sister...

"The kid won't be stimulated?" Alana muttered.

Kellen hooked his lips, isn't that what it is.

Susie ran over and threw herself into Alana's arms: "Grandma!"

Kellen was speechless.

Fortunately, after hugging Alana, Susie threw herself into Kellen's arms, and hugged Martin and Michael again.

After entering the door, he hugged Craig, Wade, Hamza...

Even Alex and Grandpa Turtle hugged him.

"Let's eat!"

om

With a kind face on his face, Alana took out Susie's favorite dishe or the warming cabinet.

Craig kept his serious face and asked, "How's it going in San Diego?"

It's good, you have to experience life.

223 Muchon,

At such a young age, what kind of life can you experience if you go out for two days.

Can Zion be changed?

Craig watched Zion put the dish in front of him with a sullen expression.

Craig was about to reprimand, but saw Zion peel off the shell of the prawns and put the prawns into Susie's bowl.

Said at the same time: "That's not it! Go out for a walk when you have time!"

It's still the same look of beating up.

While peeling the prawns for Susie, he didn't forget to complain: "Are you still eating after eating so much?"

He said dislike in his mouth, but his hands were very honest, and he never stopped peeling the shrimp!

o

Zion went out for a trip and came back, people have changed.

Peel shrimp for my sister while eating.

After dinner, I also play games with my sister.

Originally, he was addicted to the game all the time, but now he came back for most of the night, and he didn't see him take the phone.

Even very dandy, asking David to pay for living expenses——

You know, Zion never asks his family for money, and looks like he wants to draw a line with his family.

Everyone in the Murray family understands that once Zion starts asking the family for money, it means that he has really changed.

People from the Murray family look at me and I look at you.

Craig thought the bastard was cured? Going out with Susie for two days, will it be cured? ?

Alana: Still her Susie is amazing!

Michael: this kid is definitely possessed by a ghost!

Wade: Assuming Zion is possessed by a ghost, is he x or y?

o

night.

Wade is fully armed, prepared his big iron basin that can detect where ghosts are, and took his ghost camera that can be called the invention of the last century.

Wade realized that his equipment was still too little, and he had to work hard to invent more in the future....

Susie heard a knock on the door, and when she opened the door, she saw Wade's funny face.

"What are you doing?" Susie asked in surprise.

Wade: "Don't talk, just follow me!"

He took Susie's hand and ran quickly to Zion's room.

The door to Zion's room had been reinstalled, and it wasn't locked like it used to be.

With a click, Wade opened the door and went in.

Susie said in a daze, "It's impolite to enter other people's rooms without knocking!"

Wade: "Shhh..."

If you want to catch ghosts, do you care if he is polite or not?

The room was quiet, there was the sound of water splashing in the bathroom, and Zion was taking a shower.

Wade was a little nervous, he stammered and said, "Don't move here, I'll force him out!"

What on earth is he going to do?

Zion is taking a shower, why force him out? ?

Wade quietly touched the door of the bathroom and opened it violently.

Wade yelled: "Kill you, kill you! Come out!"

J

Zion looked terrified, he was still naked, but the door was slammed open.

Zion was furious: "Who! Who the hell attacked me!"

A big iron basin flew over and hit him on the head.

Zion slipped and sat on the ground, only feeling the humming of brain nuts.

fu*k!

The bathroom was in a mess.

Zion cursed and got into a fight with Wade.

Wade: "Susie! Help! This ghost is getting mad! Come and help me!"

Susie hurriedly ran in, but then Zion's distraught voice sounded: "Susie, don't come in!"

She suddenly got one foot stuck in the air, is she going to go in or not? ?

After a while.

Zion wore a bathrobe and was wounded.

Wade's eyes were blackened.

They stared at each other, one sitting on the edge of the bed and the other on the sofa.

Susie looked confused: "What are you doing?"

Zion said angrily: "Wade said that I was possessed by a ghost! I would really appreciate it!"

Wade grinned in pain, not to be outdone: "Who made you behave so abnormally? Huh? You actually peeled prawns for your sister during dinner! Pick up food for her, and play with her Barbie doll after dinner!"

This is what you can do." What happened?"

Zion was dumbfounded for a moment.

Wade was also very annoyed, thinking that Zion was possessed by a ghost, he was worried, and wanted to help him exorcise the ghost.

As a result, his face was swollen.

Susie finally figured out what was going on.

It turned out that Wade thought Zion was possessed by a ghost!

Her little face was speechless, looking at her two brothers was like looking at two idiots.

Chapter 215

“Zion is not possessed by a ghost.” Susie said, “Wade, you made a mistake!”

Wade still didn’t believe it: “It’s like a different person after going out for two days, how is it possible?”

Zion gritted his teeth: “Can’t I change?”

Wade: “I don’t believe it.”

Zion: “Stupid!”

Susie: “Stop making noise!”

She had no choice but to hold the potion, rub the medicine on Zion awkwardly, and put a band-aid on Wade.

Susie said softly: “Zion, don’t be angry, Wade is also worried about you. If it were someone else, he might run away.”

Zion snorted.

Susie said again: “Who told Zion that you used to be a bad boy?”

27 174

Zion said nothing, lay down on the bed with a cold sneer, and closed his eyes.

Everyone said he was a bad boy.

“Have you ever seen that bad boy earn money to support himself?” He was too lazy to say.

Susie sat on the side and asked, “Why is that?”

Zion was silent for a while, and then said: “When my sister was not born, both father and mother were fine.”

Although the relationship between parents does not seem to be as good as others, at least they are together.

“But after my sister was born, everything changed.”

He heard his mother and grandma arguing, saying that his mother had tricked his father into having him.

I also heard that my parents are going to divorce.

They were noisy, no one asked his opinion, and even regarded him as air.

Dad doesn't come home.

Mom began to spoil her sister crazily.

Susie asked sympathetically, “What happened next?”

Zion snorted, “The first time I met my sister, she cried as soon as I touched her face. My mother was very angry, so she turned around and slapped me.”

“Later, as long as I was close to my sister, my mother would tell me to go out.”

There are many more times like this.

When he was a child, he saw his mother doting on his sister so much, so he tried to please her, but every time her sister cried, her mother would blame him.

Wade was surprised, what else is going on?

Zion said lightly: “When my sister is crying, my mother can hold her and stay up all night, but when I was sick, she didn't even look at me.”

“Whatever my sister wants, just cry a little bit. What do I want, my mother said, why do you want this or that? Don't you think it's not enough to make me mess up? Can you be more sensible?”

Gradually he realized that he was redundant.

It was wrong for him to ask for it.

“One night it was raining and I was woken up and I went to close the window.”

“The window is not easy to close. I was weak at the time, and it fell down when I pulled hard.”

Zion’s room is on the second floor, but the first floor of the Murray family is high, so it is still very dangerous to fall from the second floor to the first floor.

Zion fell down with a bang, and couldn’t get up for a long time. He cried and called his mother, but no one could hear him.

It was raining heavily, and the servants were far away from the main building. Grandpa couldn’t be shaken after falling asleep, and grima went to the nursing home.

Martin works overtime in the company all the year round, and his father is also on the construction site, seldom coming back.

Not to mention the other uncles, who were either busy with work or caved in the small apartment they bought, and seldom returned to the Maarav tamaly manor time. He has never been better, right?

Susie hugged Zion without saying a word.

“Brother, don’t be afraid.” She patted Zion, like two poor little children who depended on each other for life: “I was like this before, but it got better later.”

“Grandpa, grandma, uncle, they just don’t know, they didn’t mean it.”

“So, can you forgive them?”

Zion pursed his lips, his eyes blushed slightly.

Chapter 16 Alana’s Accident

Zion’s eyes turned red quietly, and he felt how pitiful he looked, so he pushed Susie away.

Wade also remembered that when she was very young, Mara had a big fight with her grandma once.

It was probably when Lucy was born, and it happened to be when Aunt Clara disappeared and Grandma got seriously ill and just got into a wheelchair.

He only remembered that Zion locked the door and refused to eat, and grandma brought the meal upstairs, but Mara said that grandma spoiled Zion.

Then she said that she can educate her own children, and a qualified mother-in-law should not interfere in the affairs of her daughter-in-law’s family.

At that time, grandma moved to a nursing home and never came back- Wade remembers that at first grandma would come home after recuperation, and then she was paralyzed and unable to get up in bed.

“I seem to have knocked on your door, but you didn’t open the door and told me to leave.” Wade frowned.

He really didn’t know that Zion was injured when he fell from the second floor. Mara said that he just had a cold and was squeamish, and he lost his temper on purpose to compete with Lucy for favor.

She forbade her family to intervene.

Zion rolled his eyes and looked impatient: “Why did I open the door? If you really cared about me, you would break the door and come in, and you didn’t care!”

Wade opened his mouth.

At that time, my uncle said, Zion has a mother, no matter what, he is the

216 Alana’s Accident

biological child of Mara, and Mara will not ignore it.

Wade deeply felt that it made sense, after all, how much he wanted to have a mother at that time, and he felt that having a mother was good.

Wade pursed his lips, snorted, and said stubbornly, “You still have a mother, we don’t.”

Zion: “I’d rather not have that.”

Wade was speechless.

Susie took the potion and comforted Zion while applying it: “Okay! Don’t say any more!”

“Zion, if you don’t want to forgive, then don’t forgive! Only forgive when you think you can forgive, okay?”

Susie’s lovely voice is full of inexplicable warmth, chattering like Alana:

“The sadness in the past is like a big monster. Now the monster has been defeated, and every day will be super good in the future.”

“Father said that no matter how fine the sunlight is, you have to learn to collect it!”

Susie was very optimistic, and while talking, she seriously applied the medicine to him.

Zion remained silent, and let out a snort from his nostrils...

He glanced in the mirror inadvertently, and was dumbfounded

“Is this how you applied medicine to me?”

I saw that his face was covered with red potion, and his hair was still messed up because of the fight with Wade.

At a glance, it looks like a ghost!

Wade groaned, and jumped up from the sofa reflexively: “I just said you have a ghost?!”

Zion was speechless.

The two quarreled for a while, and although they were scolding each other for being stupid, they seemed to be closer than before.

Before going to bed, Susie lay on the bed and poked Grandpa Turtle lying under the bed.

“Grandpa Turtle, why don’t you need to take a test to be someone else’s parents?”

“Lucy, Wade and Hamza all have exams, so why don’t mom and dad have exams?”

People like Mara, and her dad in the Bishop family, are obviously moms and dads who failed exams.

Parents who fail the exam are not allowed to have babies.

But why not?

Grandpa Turtle lay on the ground with his head, limbs and tail stretched out.

No more parrots nagging his head at night, he is very relaxed.

It’s just that it can’t answer Susie’s question. Even if it can answer, all it can say is that it doesn’t know...

After the festival, Paul and the others returned to their posts.

After putting the kids on the school bus, Alana took a break.

She exercised her legs more diligently, wishing she could stand up immediately.

39 73%

But the strange thing is that she has been exercising hard these days, but her legs are getting weaker and weaker.

He just stood up now when he suddenly fell to the ground with a bang, hitting his head on the stone bricks of the garden.

The Murray family suddenly panicked.

Susie learned that Alana had fallen and was taken to the hospital when she got out of school.

She hurried to the hospital with Kellen, and asked anxiously on the way: “Grandma was injured and went to the hospital, why didn’t you tell me?”

Kellen was flying, but steady, and said, “You’re going to school.”

What else can a small child do?

Susie asked again: “Why did grandma fall down?”

Kellen said: “I fell while exercising and walking.”

Susie was taken aback, and quickly asked, “Has grandma been exercising?”

Kellen hummed, only to see Susie in the back seat get angry.

He asked strangely: “Why?”

Susie’s cheeks were puffed up and her lips were drawn into a straight line.

“I told Zion when we got on the plane, grandma can’t exercise hard, you don’t listen to me!”

That’s when Kellen remembered it.

The little guy did say it, but at that time everyone was thinking about the two children who went out independently, and the experts said that once they could stand up, they should exercise as soon as possible to stimulate the muscles and nerves.

Alana was also immersed in the excitement of being able to stand up, so everyone really forgot what Susie said.

Kellen said: “It should have nothing to do with this? The experts in the nursing home said that if you can stand up, you should walk more.”

Susie became even angrier immediately: “I’m the expert!”

Kellen was speechless.

He only thought Susie was talking nonsense in a hurry.

In the past, Susie was indeed giving Alana a massage, but Alana has been unable to stand up for five years, and it is obvious that massage cannot recover.

“Be quiet when you go to the hospital later.” Kellen only warned.

In the hospital, Alana was lying on the bed with a white cloth wrapped around her head, and had just finished the operation.

She slammed her head on the stone bricks of the garden, and suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

I haven’t woken up since the surgery.

Susie grabbed Alana’s hand and shouted, “Grandma...”

Several doctors came in, one of them was not wearing a white coat, but he was discussing the condition with the doctors.

Seeing Susie, he frowned and said, “Family, please go out. Didn’t you say not to disturb the patient? The patient needs to rest now.”

Susie stared at the half-grey doctor in front of her.

He was talking to other doctors: “Alana has been doing rehabilitation in our nursing home. She was able to stand up suddenly a few days ago. which shows that our rehabilitation is effective”

“I asked her to work hard to recover, maybe she was too anxious, which led to the wrestling ”

The other doctors nodded. “The brain CT showed that she had cerebral hemorrhage ”

The gray-bearded doctor nodded: “Yes, it’s an old problem. But now she’s out of danger I understand her condition. Now she just needs to rest and can’t be woken up.”

o

Susie confronts the old expert

Seeing Susie’s puzzled expression, Kellen asked, “What’s wrong?”

Susie shook her head and said, “This grandpa is wrong.”

The master said that if grandma’s legs can stand up, she needs to massage correctly first, so that the meridians can slowly recover.

At this time, you must not stand up in a hurry. When the time is right, you can walk more after massaging for a period of time.

This expert grandfather was not right.

Now that grandma is in a coma, Susie thinks that grandma should be called up, but the expert grandpa said that she can't call?

When it's time to rest, ask grandma to walk more, but when it's time to wake up grandma, let grandma sleep.

Susie felt that the expert grandpa was not right about anything.

Hearing Susie's words, the old expert looked over and frowned.

But what a child can understand, it seems that he is too stingy to care about a child.

The doctor in the department said: "But she has been two hours after the operation, so she can be woken up."

Chapter 217

Old expert: "Alana has been recuperating in our nursing home for five years, do you know better than us?"

Doctor in the department: "Uh."

o

Veteran expert: "She is in a special situation. She had a cerebral hemorrhage five years ago, because she was woken up too early and her intracranial pressure was too high..."

He continued to analyze the condition with the doctors, holding one hand behind his back and raising the other hand to point, looking like a big boss.

Susie pursed her lips, leaned on Alana's side, and yelled softly, "Grandma, grandma, wake up!"

Now the old expert completely lost his face, and said to the doctor in the department: "I said you can't disturb the patient, can't you hear me? Call the family members out, don't listen to the doctor's orders, and mess around!"

Kellen looked up and said lightly, "Why don't I invite you out?"

The old expert frowned: "What do you mean?"

Kellen's identity has not been disclosed, but he heard that he is the son-in-law of the Murray family, and now he lives and boards in the Murray family.

So I look down on Kellen.

Kellen sneered: "My daughter's voice is not as loud as yours. If you really can't make noise, you should go out!"

The old expert was pissed off by his words, and said, "We are discussing the condition, and it's all for the good of Alana!"

Kellen pointed to the door: "Can't we discuss the illness in the doctor's office?"

The old expert choked and was completely speechless.

Kellen didn't bother to talk to him.

Although Susie said that she was the expert when he was in the car, he didn't take it seriously.

But he could still tell clearly what was going on in front of him.

At this time, Ryan arrived. He is a doctor in the oncology department. He returned to his post after placing Alana, and he has just finished his work.

When Ryan saw Susie, he suddenly remembered what she said a few days ago that grandma should not be allowed to move.

Seeing the old expert, he asked, "Is my mother's fall caused by improper training or too frequent training?"

Braxton, the gray-bearded expert, was immediately upset again.

What's the meaning!

To say that the training was improper, wouldn't that mean questioning him?

Their nursing home is the leader in rehabilitation in China, and he is an expert among experts, so he dares to question him.

If it wasn't for their nursing home for the past five years, they thought Alana would have recovered to this level?

If Ryan wasn't from the Murray family, Braxton would have reprimanded him.

Braxton said: "Alana had a cerebral hemorrhage before, which caused her to be paralyzed in bed, right? You should also know how serious her condition was at that time, and the hospital was helpless, so she was sent to our nursing home."

Ryan was speechless.

The expert continued: “After five years of rehabilitation training, Alana, who was paralyzed in bed, can sit up. A few days ago, even her legs showed signs of improvement, and she will be able to stand up soon without any accidents!”

“It is 99.99% impossible for a patient like Alana to stand up, but why can she stand up?”

Susie interjected, “It’s because I massage grandma’s legs every day!”

Braxton was speechless immediately, this kid is too naive!

“You can stand up by pressing your legs? Ridiculous!” he said with a straight face.

Susie asked: “That’s right! Do you want to say that it is all thanks to you that grandma can stand up? You can say it directly if you want to say, why do you ask why, and why are you not allowed to tell the truth?” ...not honest at all.”

Braxton was speechless.

He said angrily: “Alana can stand up, which shows that our rehabilitation plan is correct! It is safe and effective! What do you know, kid?”

Susie snorted: “What do you know, old man? Anyway, I’m going to wake up my grandma.”

Braxton is extremely angry.

Ryan looked at the time and tried to ease the atmosphere: “It’s been two hours since the surgery, you can try to wake it up.”

Seeing that no one listened to him, Braxton couldn’t help sneering: “Surgeries like craniocerebral injury and cerebral hemorrhage should wait a day or two after the operation, and the patient will naturally wake up. You can wake up now. If there is any problem later, you Don’t be begging me.”

Susie even got stuck with him and said, “I don’t ask you!”

Braxton was speechless.

Everyone was silent, or trying to smooth things over. The old expert was a bit stubborn, but the words were indeed not very pleasant

Braxton didn’t let up, he hated it when people questioned him, especially now that he was a kid.

The adults Ryan and Kellen didn't care about it!

Call it, it's better that when Alana wakes up, the situation suddenly becomes bad, and some of them regret it!

He was about to shake his sleeves and leave, but saw Alana move, and slowly opened his eyes.

Braxton waited for Alana to become manic Generally, the intracranial pressure is too high after brain surgery, and the patient will have a manic performance

But Alana's lips moved "My little baby, you are here

Susie was so happy, she leaned against Alana "If Susie doesn't come, grandma will sleep for a long time?"

Alana smiled weakly "I'm worrying you, I'm old and useless, I can fall when I walk "

Susie shook her head "No, it's because grandma can't exercise Grandma is not good, she is not obedient at all

Alana laughed "Yes, yes"

Susie "When grandma comes home from the hospital, I can no loer walk and exercise "

Alana nodded

Braxton was speechless

How can you talk so well?

Isn't this a slap in the face?

He said that there would be problems waking Alana up now, and the conversation turned out to be so gentle.

He frowned and said, "Look carefully, Alana's current situation is too abnormal, and she will definitely suddenly pressurize later."

Alana was like this five years ago. After waking up, the intracranial pressure increased, and the person became agitated again, which led to another bleeding and eventually paralysis.

This time will be no exception!

Gentle now, wait, in less than five minutes, absolutely manic.

Braxton was going to leave, but in the end he couldn't let it go, chatting with the young doctors.

Five minutes passed.

Ten minutes passed.

Alana was still talking to Susie – mostly Susie said she was listening, telling funny things about Kindergarten

The eyes of the doctors are a bit strange:

Didn't you say that people will be manic in five minutes?

People are not good...

It's a slap in the face, isn't it?

The old expert Braxton's face suddenly became extremely ugly, and he couldn't get off the stage at all!

He forcefully broke: "This is a very abnormal performance, everyone should pay attention."

All the doctors: scratching their toes in embarrassment, due to the name of an old expert, it is inconvenient to say anything, so they nodded repeatedly.

But children don't care so much!

Susie asked directly: "My grandma is fine, which means that what you said is wrong."

Braxton suppressed his anger: "It's fine now, but it doesn't mean it will be fine later!"

He was unhappy, and Susie was even more unhappy. She said, "Are you expecting my grandma to be bad?"

Braxton said hastily: "Nonsense! How could I expect the old lady to be bad? For medical matters, it's a common thing to rescue him one second and the next!"

In fact, only he knew clearly.

Susie said, "But what you said is all wrong."

Braxton laughed angrily: "What do you know? Do you know what medicine is? What I said is all wrong. Is it possible that what you say as a child can still be right?!"

Susie's eyes were firm, she nodded and said, "Well, that's right!"

Braxton was speechless.

Susie: “Any questions?”

Braxton was speechless.

Susie: “At least I can make grandma stand up, grandpa, you can’t.”

Chapter 218

Braxton laughed angrily: “Absurd! If you can make Alana stand up, I will call you my ancestor in the next generation.”

He’s her grandson, okay?!

Susie was shocked and refused: “No, I don’t have any money for you.”

This old man is too bad.

Grandma can’t be cured, so let’s just talk nonsense, but she still wants to steal her money!

I don’t know if Susie was worried, and subconsciously covered the satchel in her arms.

Braxton was speechless.

Everyone suffocated their laughter, enduring it too hard.

Except for Alana’s attending doctor, most of the others who came to make the ward rounds were young residents or interns.

At this moment, they all pretended to take notes in their notebooks...

The well-known dean at home and abroad, the old expert who has published dozens of papers, seems not as authoritative as they imagined!

Braxton was ashamed, so he could only grit his teeth and endure, looking at Ryan, waiting for Ryan to give him a step down.

After all, they have been taking care of Alana these past few years, thanks to the Murray family!

Others who don’t study medicine don’t know, Ryan should understand how much credit they have made, right?

But I heard Ryan say: “Braxton, go back and rest first, I will take care of my mother, don’t worry about it.”

Braxton was instantly enraged.

People invited him to come and he didn't come, so Alana has this face, and now Ryan actually issued an order to evict the guest?

"If you don't listen to advice, you will suffer sooner or later!"

He dropped a word, shook his hand angrily and left.

Susie muttered: "Don't come again."

Braxton came again during the evening rounds.

O

Next to him was an assistant, holding something in his hand, as if he was about to go back.

Seeing that Alana was half lying down and Craig was feeding her liquid food, he frowned again and said:

"Why did you just eat? She is older and recovers slowly. It is best to eat tomorrow."

Susie held a small fan to cool the fish porridge, and said, "Grandma is hungry, so she has to eat."

Braxton: "Nonsense! Alana has undergone such a major operation, what should I do if she reacts after eating?!"

"Also, you should exercise immediately after you recover and leave the hospital. The sooner you exercise, the more likely you will stand up! I hope you can listen to it, and don't let a child who doesn't understand anything ruin Alana."

He paused and added: "Alana is a patient I've been taking care of for five years. I'm telling you this in a responsible manner. If it were someone else, I would have left long ago."

Everyone in the Murray family was speechless.

Braxton continued: "I'm a straightforward person. What can I say? I think you should stop spoiling the child. Can she be responsible if something goes wrong?"

Susie opened her mouth and saw this old man with a gray beard.

Why does this grandpa always have an urge to talk back when he speaks?

Could it be that she is as rebellious as Zion?

Susie felt guilty because she felt “rebellious”, and said weakly, “I can take responsibility.”

The old expert sneered, she dared to say that she was responsible even though she didn’t believe in herself.

The little princess of the Murray family is really spoiled.

Instead, it was him, the Murray family would thank him for being so conscientious today.

Braxton was about to continue to say something, but didn’t want Ryan to put the case down, so he frowned and said, “Braxton, I will be responsible for my mother.”

Martin also raised his head from the computer screen: “Don’t bother yourself.”

Michael peeled the fruit and stared: “I wish my mother well in every word!”

Craig looked solemn: “Braxton, I did trouble you in the past, but our Susie doesn’t know everything.”

Alana’s voice was weak: “I believe in Susie.”

What’s going on with the Murray family?

It turned out that after Braxton left in the afternoon, Martin and Michael came one after another.

Susie said sincerely that she could make grandma stand up. She had been helping grandma massage her legs before, and she only needed a massage.

She also said that she would make grandma dance.

At first Michael disagreed, Craig and Ryan hesitated, but Martin_ddd directly, saying that he believed Susie.

Alana thought of the master next to Susie...and silently agreed.

So what if her baby cured her? She’d like it-it wasn’t much better anyway.

Only then did we have the unity in front of us.

Braxton looked at the Murray family, who were ignorant like children, and felt that he had punched the cotton with a punch that was completely useless, and he was extremely depressed.

He waved his hands sadly.

Make it clear that they took care of Alana in the nursing home for the past five years. Alana can stand up today and stand up because of their painstaking care and treatment, okay?

Now it's not his fault that Alana wrestled, why did they all change their faces!

"Okay, we don't care about Alana from now on, just do what

Braxton turned away.

you like!"

Martin lowered his eyes slightly, and said to Cielo, "Pay off the nursing home bill."

"Also, recouping investments in nursing homes and endowment programs."

Braxton, who hadn't gone far, heard these words.

Chapter 219 Withdrawing the donation, Braxton is in a state of des
Braxton was struck by lightning. In the past five years, because Alana has been recovering in the nursing home, the nursing home has been very prosperous in the past few years.

For infrastructure, the Murray family will donate as much as they say.

No matter what medical equipment is missing, they will pay without saying a word.

Including funding for scientific research, expenditures for training talents... these are all donated by the Murray family.

Life has been so good that Braxton has swollen...

But after thinking about it, Braxton's attitude hardened again.

Those who come to the nursing home are rich, not bad for the Murray family.

Don't donate if you don't donate, some people are rushing to donate to him!

He is a recognized authoritative expert in the field of rehabilitation, and many wealthy patients come to him with their connections.

Alana is indeed the richest patient in the nursing home, but by no means the most distinguished patient—

After all, there are many powerful and powerful patients!

The Murray family is just waiting to regret it!

Braxton finally left without looking back. When he got to the elevator, he looked back to see if anyone from the Murray family was chasing him.

In the end he was disappointed.

The more Braxton thought about it, the more angry he became. He said to the assistant who was carrying things with a straight face, “Pay attention and see how Alana is doing tomorrow. If they come to me tomorrow, they will say that I don’t have time!”

Assistant: “Good Dean.”

In the VIP ward.

Michael complained: “Your money in the past few years has been wasted. I have never seen such an attitude of taking other people’s money with a straight face!”

It’s true that Alana has been doing rehabilitation in the nursing home for the past few years, but the Murray family gave a lot of money, which is enough to build two more nursing homes of the same size.

Martin said lightly: “It’s not completely in vain.”

The treatment of the nursing home has increased, attracting many capable talents, who have made outstanding contributions in the field of rehabilitation and recuperation.

Many patients have benefited from it, and Martin thinks it is not in vain.

Besides, what is that money to the Murray family?

The more painful thing should be Braxton, the Murray family took back the donation, but it’s not just as simple as taking back...

Michael snorted, “I’m not as high as you.”

Martin didn’t explain anything further.

Susie tilted her head, humming while pinching the plaything.

Michael spat out a mouthful of water.

O

Everyone was also dumbfounded.

Kellen stroked his forehead: “Who did you learn from?”

Michael said angrily: “I said back then not to let her play with that bird!”

Susie said loudly, “It’s not about the birds!”

Alana: Help... the wound is about to collapse from laughter...

Ryan: “Susie, don’t sing this anymore”

Susie wondered: “Why?”

Ryan knew that once he answered, Susie would definitely have 100,000 reasons, so he asked instead: “Who did you learn this sentence from?”

Susie: “I heard my classmates singing it!”

Michael: “Uh, I misunderstood that bird, whoever told it to look like a serious bird.”

Alex sneezed at home.

The happy time is always short-lived. In the blink of an eye, it was ten o’clock in the evening. Susie was extremely sleepy, but she was still lying beside Alana’s bed, holding her eyelids with her fingers.

Kellen whispered: “Go, I’ll take you home first.”

Susie shook her head: “No, I want to guard grandma.”

There are wandering spirits wandering around in the hospital. When people enter the hospital, they will be haggard even if they are not sick. This is the reason.

She wants to guard grandma and keep ghosts away.

Alana slept soundly that night, without any discomfort, and did not wake up every two hours like other patients.

She didn’t even wake up from the doctor’s rounds.

the next day.

Back at his nursing home office, Braxton asked, “How was Alana last night?”

The assistant replied: “I asked, Alana was in a coma last night, and she didn’t wake up during the doctor’s rounds.”

His classmate in the hospital said that he didn't wake up once in the whole night, which was just a literal meaning, but the assistant misunderstood and automatically distorted the meaning of the classmate, thinking that it was inconvenient for him to say that it was actually Alana who had been in a coma all night.

Braxton was overjoyed from the bottom of his heart, and his face was even more "as expected", and he asked again: "Rescued? Has it been pushed into the ICU?"

The assistant shook his head: "It seems not."

Braxton sneered.

deserve it!

See, within a long time, they will come to beg him – five years ago, Alana did not wake up for seven days with a cerebral hemorrhage, but then he woke him up.

Braxton crossed his legs, waiting for the Murray family to come to him.

However, the Murray family did not wait.

Instead, I waited for a lot of Party A and Party B who came to return and refund.

The parties who returned the goods were several large pharmacies.

They said that the pills produced by the nursing home were expensive and not effective, and they couldn't sell two boxes a year, but the nursing home had asked them to stock up on two.

Twenty million is not a small amount, and the major pharmacies demanded that the nursing home lose money!

Party B is an equipment and equipment company that is stationed in the nursing home and provides inspection and maintenance of testing equipment.

These are talents who are proficient in testing and mastering technology.

At this time, the requirements are: the equipment is not donated, they come with the equipment, and the free is the support of talents... The nursing home is required to pay a total of 30 million for equipment wear and tear, and 20 million for personnel training.

Or improve the treatment of these expatriate personnel, and give them a salary of more than 10,000 a month!

In addition to these, there are also companies that originally agreed to invest and donate to the nursing home, but suddenly said no.

Braxton didn't wait for help from the Murray family, and he was in a state of desperation...

"The Murray family did it on purpose!" Braxton gritted his teeth, angrily.

All sponsors and donations ran overnight.

The large prescriptions that have been purchased all say that they will be refunded.

He doesn't even believe that the Murray family didn't do anything behind the scenes!

Braxton was furious.

There are so many people begging him for rehabilitation. The Murray family has been donating and investing in him before, and they are also begging him.

As a result, now that Alana fell, they blamed him for it.

Then all the credit for the past is not counted?

It's so hard to recognize people!

"Businessmen are a bunch of bastards!"

Braxton himself cursed under his breath in the office.

There's always someone who can kill the Murray family! It's not like there's nothing better than the Murray family!

Braxton flicked through the address book angrily, trying to find someone powerful enough to overwhelm the Murray family...

At this moment, the assistant opened the door and came in, saying, "Dean, Mr. Knight's father will be discharged from the hospital today, please ask someone to make an appointment with us."

Braxton was overjoyed, he really did whatever he wanted, God help me!

Mr. Knight's family background is not inferior to the Murray family, and his overseas assets are even more powerful than the Murray family! Mr. Knight's father suffered hemiplegia due to a brain stroke some time ago, and he was treated in the hospital for a period of time.

After the treatment is over, they will enter the rehabilitation stage, and all the hospitals that do rehabilitation are not as famous as their nursing homes, so they will definitely come here in the end.

Braxton stood up immediately: “Are they here?”

The assistant said: “Not yet, they are going through the discharge procedures today.”

Braxton nodded: “I understand, I will pick it up in person. By the way, is the paper on terahertz activation of cells and treatment of hemiplegic brain finished?”

The assistant hesitated: “There are still some documents to check...”

Braxton patted him on the shoulder: “Young man, be active in doing things, don’t procrastinate. I trust you and leave it to you all the time. No one else has this opportunity. Do you think you will be worse in the future?”

The assistant quickly said: “I know the dean, but the literature is not easy to check.”

Terahertz activates cells, treats hemiplegic brain...these have no theoretical basis and cannot be found.

Braxton said: “If there is no literature, don’t check it, ask the laboratory to do the data, what we have to do is to create a precedent, use terahertz technology to benefit patients and mankind – in the future, when others write such papers, we will It’s their literature!”

The assistant nodded repeatedly and boasted fiercely, and Braxton went out satisfied.

The aunt sweeping the floor at the door saw the two of them walking away, so she muttered: “Dream!”

She was with Alana in the hospital, pinching her legs.

Alana’s voice was still weak, and she said distressedly: “Okay, Susie, take a rest now! This is hard work for you.”

Susie shook her head: “It’s not hard! Grandma is even harder.”

Alana's face was full of relief, it's still her baby who loves others!

Susie squeezed her hand and said softly, "Grandma, go to sleep!"

Alana nodded and slowly closed her eyes.

Susie sang softly: "Sleep sleep~ my dear baby..."

After a song was sung, a laughing voice suddenly sounded outside: "Hey, such an obedient granddaughter!"

Susie turned her head and took a look, only to see an old woman sitting on the sofa outside.

She looked at the sleeping Alana, ran out lightly, and whispered, "Grandma, you can't be here!"

The old woman gave Susie a surprised look, then stood up with her cane, and said:

"Hey, I know, I know, I died here before, and my husband next door is going to be discharged from the hospital today, and I'm about to leave too, so I just came in to have a look."

Susie snorted and watched her float out the door, just in time to see the patient next door sitting in a wheelchair and being pushed out.

His mouth and eyes were crooked, saliva fell uncontrollably, and his right hand and right foot were shaking non-stop.

A nurse pushed him, and the others were supposed to go through formalities or something. The nurse glanced at the drooling old man with disgust in his eyes.

The old man was wearing a drool bag, his cloudy eyes showed a trace of sadness.

The old grandma floated aside, wanting to wipe his saliva over and over again, but it was a pity that people and ghosts were not connected, so she had no choice but to give up.

"That's how the nurse is. If you have a few sincerities, you still want someone to wipe your saliva all the time..."

"You just want to tell your son to change someone, but you can't say anything. Besides, it must be good to change someone..."

The old lady sighed, her tone was also very sad and helpless.

Seeing that Alana was in a deep sleep, Susie didn't forget to gently close the door of the ward inside before going out.

"Grandpa, let me help you.

She took the towel from the old man's hand and wiped it for him.

It's a pity that after wiping for half a minute, his saliva fell again,

The old man struggled to say something, but couldn't speak.

Just in front of someone was talking and walking over, the nurse hurriedly picked up the towel, with a conscientious look on his face: "Hey, I'll come, I'll come, kid, hurry back!"

Susie looked at her: "Auntie, it's wrong for you to do this, you just bully grandpa and can't talk."

The nurse frowned, looked at the end of the corridor guiltily, and saw that there was no adult around Susie.

She immediately whispered: "You don't mind my business! Let me go into your room!"

She relied on Susie as a child, with a fierce look in her eyes, threatening directly!

Susie was speechless.

The old lady glared at the nurse, and quickly said to Susie: "Little girl, don't pay attention to her. This person is hypocritical, bad and good at pretending. She has deceived many people. Others think she is a good person, even my son didn't realize it." !"

At first the old man lost his temper, and when he saw the nurse came, he lost his temper.

The doctor said that many hemiplegic patients are like this. They can't accept their current situation and lose their temper.

So her son didn't notice it, and the old man gradually became desperate, his eyes went dark.

Susie said, "I'll help you tell uncle."

When the nurse heard this, she was startled and angry, and reached out to push Susie: “Go in, don’t make trouble!”

Susie threw a backhand over the shoulder, throwing the nurse out!

This loud noise startled people from inside and outside to rush over

Several nurses thought that the old man had fallen, and asked repeatedly: “What’s going on?”

The old man was speechless, and there were no other witnesses around.

The nurse’s head was buzzing from the fall, the severe pain can be irritating, she pointed at Susie angrily: “She pushed me!”

Everyone looked at Susie, and then at the nurse who flew one meter away.

Can’t it?

Seeing that Susie didn’t say a word, the old grandma hurriedly said, “Hurry up and say it’s not you! Don’t worry about being honest and dishonest at a time like this, you know?”

Susie blinked and said hesitantly, “It’s not me...”

The nurse panicked: “It’s you!”

A nurse said: “Did you read it wrong? She is so young and can’t push you!”

The nurse named Zuri was stunned for a moment, and quickly suppressed the grievance in his heart and scratched his head: “I’m sorry, I just saw a figure running over, but I didn’t see it clearly, so I flew out.”

“It’s only now that I see clearly that it’s a child. Hey, it’s all my fault. I stayed up all night with the old man last night, so I got confused...”
