

Chapter 231

The nurse subconsciously reached out and grabbed the mobile phone in her trouser pocket, and suddenly remembered that she was shooting a video in a panic...

This video has not been cut off, it has been filming!

She quickly deleted the video.

Clara floated over: "Oh? Still want to delete the video?"

She reached up and grabbed the nurse's fingers.

Matthew was also decisive, raised his hand and said. "It shouldn't be a problem to check the phone, right?"

The nurse's index finger trembled slightly, and the more nervous his hand became, the slipperier his hand was. For some reason, his fingers were about to cramp, but he couldn't open the photo album.

There was finally a trace of panic in her eyes: "Ah, this, this may not be convenient, I usually like to take selfies..."

Susie asked strangely: "It's just a selfie. What's the inconvenience? Auntie, don't you wear clothes when you take a selfie?"

Unexpectedly, the nurse followed Susie's words with a look of embarrassment: "This... this is indeed the case..."

Everyone was speechless.

Susie's small face was solemn, and she directly exposed it: "No, Auntie, you just want to delete the video secretly. This video must be sheful."

Olivia looked ugly, and directly took the nurse's mobile phone, and said coldly:

"It's inconvenient for other people, I think I should. We are all women, you should understand?"

She wanted to grab the phone back, but was stopped by others.

Olivia clicked on the photo album, and the first thing she saw was a video, she clicked on it directly.

Only to hear the vicious voice of the nurse:

[Everyone, look at this old stupid ass, he is so old and demented that he doesn't understand anything, and he even wants to eat the nuts I spit out.]

[The old man is really dirty and disgusting!]

[Hey, I'm still too kind, I should have peed a little more just now. “]

Then there was her ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-laugh, full of malice and humiliation.

She is pictured spitting chewed nuts onto her slippers and grabbing a handful of sand to mix them in.

In the words, she also said that her slippers were dirty, and the old man would lick them clean later.

Olivia was trembling with anger, and Matthew felt his brain nuts buzzing, and a burst of anger rushed straight to his forehead!

In addition to this video, there are many more below!

The old man took a bath, and she took pictures of the old man unscrupulously, making fun of him while filming, telling everyone to see [how ugly the old guy is]...

To feed the old man, she deliberately poured the rice porridge soup into the old man's nose, laughed and photographed the old man who was choking and coughing and almost died.

Sleeping at night, the old man is not allowed to sleep. As soon as the old man closes his eyes, he is slapped to wake him up, and he is not let go until the old man is exhausted.

The more Olivia watched, the more she couldn't continue watching. A normal person would not be able to watch such a video of elder abuse, but she took pleasure in it.

Everyone in the Jones family was stunned, especially the servants. They got along with her day and night and always thought that she was an honest and kind-hearted person. Sometimes they would take over her to take care of the old man and persuade her to rest for a while.

Never expected that the devil was beside them!

Olivia was furious.

No wonder the old man was scared when he saw her at the beginning, and he was babbling that he didn't want her to take care of him.

They thought that everyone didn't understand what the old man wanted, so the old man lost his temper and advised him to listen to the nurse.

She even threatened him in desperation, saying that if she continued to make trouble, she would leave him alone!

Olivia regrets it so much now.

Matthew rushed forward angrily, and slapped the nurse in the face, sending her flying.

"Call the police! Call the police immediately!" He was so angry that his chest heaved.

Covering her face, she kept shouting, "I didn't do it on purpose, I really did, I didn't mean anything malicious, I..."

Susie sighed softly.

Why does this nurse aunt, and the previous nurse aunt named Zuri, say that there is no malice?

Did they misunderstand the word malicious?

Olivia cursed angrily: "The video evidence is here, you tell me it wasn't intentional or malicious?"

Matthew was so angry that he lost his demeanor and wished he could beat her up himself.

She was scared after all.

It's not just the old man's video on the phone!

still got more.....

To put it bluntly, taking these videos of the old man is abuse at best, and has not caused any personal injury. At most, she will lose her job, and at worst, she will be locked up for two or three years.

But more of those videos are not.

In addition to some videos she took before, there are also some videos sent by her group friends.

These videos are their special "hobbies". If they fall into the hands of the police, she and her group of friends will be shot!

She panicked, she couldn't pretend anymore, she knelt down and begged for mercy: "I was wrong, I was really wrong. I was just taught, I was not like this, please let me go!"

"I have two children and two elderly people at home, and my husband doesn't go to work. The whole family depends on me to support them. Mr. Chen, I, I, and I deserve to die! But my children's parents are innocent..."

"For the sake of my two poor children..."

Chapter 231 Matthew laughed angrily: "For the sake of your two children? Isn't it more pitiful for them to have a mother like you?"

"You also have parents and elderly people in your family, how could you do such a heartless thing!"

She looked remorseful: "I was wrong, I really know I was wrong, I was deceived by others, saying that a video can give you 10,000 yuan, I am just obsessed..."

In desperation, she made up an excuse.

Olivia gritted her teeth: "Isn't our Jones family not giving you enough?! Live-in care, others' best offer is 50,000 a month, our family will give you 100,000 a month!"

She looked resigned to beating and scolding, her eyes were filled with remorse, and she cried bitterly: "You are very good to me! It's because I am not human, I just want to see money, but I am really not that kind of perverted person, everything is Because of the buyer's request for video..."

However, no matter how much she cried and how she pretended to be pitiful, the Jones family showed no sign of softening their hearts. It seemed that they had to kill her!

The siren rang outside, and the officials arrived.

She knew that if she was caught, she would die for sure, so she stared at Susie suddenly and rushed towards Susie in a hurry!

It doesn't matter, if you die, you have to be a backer. She wants to grab this damned little thing, use her as a threat, and let them let her go!

What she didn't see was that Clara and Mitch, who were floating aside, looked at her sympathetically...

A trace of ruthlessness flashed in her eyes, such a soft and cute little thing, she could strangle it to death with one hand.....

However, just as her hand touched Susie, she heard a “ha”.

She was turned upside down in an instant, and fell out with a bang!

She was completely stunned, she didn’t know how she flew out, she just felt that her back was going to be broken, and she curled up into a ball in pain...

“ah—”

Both Olivia and Matthew were stunned.

Everyone’s mouths opened into an O shape. —

Martin pursed his lips, ready to send a message to Cielo to prepare the money to seal.

But after thinking about it, I paid the hush money. If the family and friends of these servants asked why they suddenly became rich, it would actually confirm that Susie was strong.

It’s better not to seal it.

After he figured it out, he saved hundreds of millions in an instant.

It took Matthew a while to recover, and he looked at Martin in surprise and questioning eyes.

Martin said lightly: “Susie’s strength is indeed

100,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000.

Matthew’s mouth twitched.

Is this just a little bit bigger?

But thinking about it, he could barely understand, he knew who Susie’s father was... Since it was the god of war, it’s not surprising that Susie could throw people away.

Just as he was thinking, he saw Susie yelling and rushing over, stepping on her.

Matthew suddenly twitched the corner of his mouth, well, looking at it this way, he seems to be no different from a normal child...

On the other hand, Alex also flew out when Susie rushed over, standing on the back of Grandpa Turtle and singing.

The old man in the wheelchair laughed.

Everyone was speechless.

When the police officer arrived, he saw such a picture, and the corner of his mouth twitched.

What style is this?!

Matthew explained the reason, and the police officer turned on the phone to check, and his scalp felt numb!

Her cell phone photo album is not only full of the process of her abusing the elderly, but there are even several videos of her suffocating to death the elderly being taken care of!

She wasn't in awe of life at all, instead she smiled strangely: [Look everyone, we're doing another one today! The old man hasn't been able to sleep well for several days, and I haven't fed him well, so he's already extremely weak! Laughing to death, these days the family members feel that the old man's death is approaching, so I will give him a ride... You see, now that he is dead, the family members will not suspect anything, haha.

The picture in the video is blurred, and the added picture is that Sister Li secretly filmed the crying scene of her family members. She pretended to cry on the side, but watching the video makes people feel that she is more like laughing...

"It's terrible!" The Jones family's servants diverted their attention from Susie's great strength, and they were horrified just listening to it.

Not one such video, but several!

It is most common to suffocate the elderly with a pillow and drown the old man's head in a basin. According to her, it is not easy to be discovered...

In addition to her own videos, she also has a lot of other people's videos on everything from cat slaughter to people...everything!

The police officer tracked down the clues and easily found the group she was in. It is no exaggeration to say that in a group of one hundred people, at least half of them are executioners.

Chapter 232

They have handled so many cases, and it is the first time that they feel the darkness and horror of human nature.

“Do you have anything else to say?!” the police officer snapped.

Her mind was buzzing, and she had only one thought: It’s over!

She regretted it, but it wasn’t that she regretted killing so many people, she just regretted why she was so careless this time and was caught!

She cried and begged for mercy, “Excuse me, police officer, please forgive me... I didn’t mean it, really, I don’t know why I took these pictures, I’m not normal.....”

Yes, she is mentally ill!

Mentally ill patients will not be sentenced!!

She immediately grinned and pretended to be crazy: “Hey, hey, come and catch me, come and catch me! Mom, I want candy... woo woo woo!”

The police took him away directly: “Whether you have a mental illness or not is not up to you!”

He sneered: “Besides, you just recorded your own evil from beginning to end. From this video, it can be concluded that you have not lost your ability to recognize and control yourself. Sentenced to death, believe it or not?”

No, she doesn’t understand! Why is she so unlucky all of a sudden??

Even the evidence that convicted her was recorded by herself? ? ?

“Help! Please, please... I still have two children...” In a panic, she begged Matthew for mercy.

She treats it as a joke when she kills others, and she doesn’t know how to be afraid until death really falls on her head.

Matthew was expressionless.

He will pay attention to this matter to the end, until these scumbags are all sentenced to death!

The police took her mobile phone and reported it while quickly collecting evidence—

This is a big case!

In order to prevent more people from being threatened with their lives, they must act secretly and quickly to catch this group of people!

At this moment, the people in the [Happy Family] group had no idea that she sent them all to the guillotine by herself...

Everyone looked at the person who was taken away, and they were horrified, complicated and afraid in their hearts, and they didn't recover for a long time!

Susie seemed to be dragging something and was struggling

Mitch took the net from her and said, "I'll do it."

He moved his fingers, and the net floated up by itself. Mitch sneered, "I mentioned it myself, are you moved?"

The black-hearted ghost who was struggling violently was speechless.

After such a thing happened, the Jones family didn't have any extra thoughts to entertain Martin and Susie, and Susie also caught the black-hearted ghost, so the mission was completed.

Susie picked up Grandpa Turtle from the lawn, patted it, and muttered, "Grandpa Turtle, I'm sorry just now! Susie was in such a hurry, I really couldn't find anything..."

She paused, and immediately added: "But I just thought of it! If there is another time, Susie loses her shoes, and I will never lose you again!"

It squinted its eyes half-closed, exhaled and retracted at the throat, and seemed to be very indifferent.

Alex saw that Susie picked up the turtle, and for some reason he whistled, "Yo, sir, are you back?"

The turtle was speechless.

It retracted its head immediately.

After Martin and Matthew spoke a few more words, they said goodbye at the door.

Before leaving, Susie lay on the car window and waved to the old man of the Jones family: "Get better soon!"

The old man can't speak clearly, and his intelligence may not be as good as that of a child nowadays, so he just waved his hands stupidly, and he didn't know what he was talking about.

Martin said to Matthew: "I will send someone over the relevant rehabilitation training methods."

The Jones family was very grateful, and watched Martin's car leave for a long time before returning.

in the car.

Clara realized it later, and hurriedly said: "Oh, my brother forgot to seal it!"

When Susie threw Sister Li into the air just now, several servants saw it.

Mitch said calmly, "No need to block it."

Clara was surprised: "Why?"

Susie didn't know what they were talking about, and while she was holding her little feet and playing with them, she followed the baby's voice and asked childishly, "Why?"

Mitch said: "Secretizing your mouth deliberately seems to be a real thing. There are two ways to cover up the truth in the world. One is to completely shut up people, and the other is to turn the truth into rumors."

When a matter is so exaggerated that ordinary people don't believe it, no matter how much those servants tell others, no one will believe it.

Instead, he sealed Qian's mouth and left "evidence" for nothing.

As for Matthew, he wouldn't talk nonsense even if he felt something was wrong.

Clara suddenly realized: "That's true, as expected of my elder brother, his brain is better than ordinary people."

Martin was asking Susie in a low voice, "What are you talking about?"

Susie tilted her head and said, "Mom said, as expected of my elder brother, his brain is better than ordinary people!"

Martin understood what it meant in an instant, and couldn't help but curl his lips slightly.

But seeing Susie suddenly raised her foot, she laughed: "Uncle, let me smell your stinky feet!"

Martin grabbed her little feet and scratched her little nose dotingly: "Naughty."

After capturing the black-hearted ghost home, the rest is the "judgment" process.

Surprisingly, the black-hearted ghost remained silent all the way appearing extremely honest.

The car returned to the Murray family, and Susie dragged the black-hearted ghost inside.

Clara hurriedly asked, "Honey, do you want to help?"

Susie waved her hand: "No need!"

Alex held the zipper of the pet bag in his mouth, unzipped it by himself, then poked his head out, stretched his wings and patted.

But it didn't fly, it just liked to follow Susie wagging its head.

At this moment, an accident happened!

The black-hearted ghost suddenly turned into a wave of evil spirit, as if he had suppressed all the anger, he rushed out from the opening of the spirit-binding net!

As soon as Mitch's eyes sharpened, he knew that he was not that honest.

However, to his surprise, the black-hearted ghost did not rush towards Susie, but instead rushed towards Alex who was shaking his head behind Susie!

Alex's eyes widened immediately, and he jumped up with a fright, and shouted, "Don't come here!!!"

"Why are you chasing me!"

The black-hearted ghost thinks very simply, it is more difficult to possess a person, and even if it is possessed, Susie and Mitch are useless.

It's better to be attached to the parrot by surprise-they are caught off guard, and he can fly away in no time!

But Blackheart underestimated Alex.

Chapter 233

This dead green parrot scurried to Mitch with a loud rattling sound!

Wait, aren't ordinary animals invisible to ghosts? How did it fly to Mitch?!

Just like that, the black-hearted ghost chased the parrot, but threw himself into the arms of Mitch instead.

Mitch was speechless.

The black-hearted ghost was speechless.

Clara was speechless.

Mitch sneered: "Run?"

Heixin's grimace turned green, and he said again and again: "Don't run away, don't run away..."

He looked at Susie and saw her open the spirit net.

The black-hearted ghost backed into the spirit-binding net aggrieved, feeling as if he had eaten shit.

night.

Susie finished her meal and was ready to go back to her room.

Wade had been waiting for a long time, and ran over with the camera: "Susie, are you back from catching ghosts again?"

In the afternoon, he saw her come back with something hey and hey, it must be a ghost.

On one side, Zion passed by 'inadvertently' and followed them slowly.

Susie was asking, "Brother, are you not afraid?"

Wade sneered: "When have I ever been scared?"

Susie couldn't help covering her mouth and sniggering, her brother's words were so funny that no one would believe them.

Zion couldn't help but tease: "You say this, do you believe it yourself?"

The three children muttered and squeezed their heads to Susie's room.

Lucy turned her head and looked at David pitifully: “Dad, I want to play in Susie’s room too!”

David said with a blank expression, “You can go as you please after finishing your homework.”

Lucy cried immediately: “Then why can he go!”

David: “Your brother doesn’t play games anymore, he can read books, how about you?”

Lucy was speechless.

She was very angry in her heart, and felt that her brother was unreliable and would not unite with her.

Now she can only suffer by herself.

In Susie’s room.

The black-hearted ghost was chained to the foot of the bed just like the previous flower-hearted ghosts.

Wade sets up the camera.

Zion moved two small benches.

In the camera screen, a creeping black figure suddenly appeared at the foot of the bed, and the “person” glanced towards the camera with dark and strange eyes.

Even though he was mentally prepared, Wade was still terrified, thinking that Zion was at the side, so he couldn’t hold back his screams!

But Zion stared at the camera screen very calmly.

Wade doubts life – is he not afraid??

Susie found a pack of puffs out of nowhere, sat on the small bench and tore open the package, and said, “Okay, let’s start talking!”

The black-hearted ghost was speechless.

Chapter 233 Long Response Time

Hey, how does this look like listening to a fairy tale?

Susie stuffed a puff into her mouth and said, “Tell me! What’s your name, where are you from, what’s your date of birth? How did you die?”

The little guy is really carefree, pure and happy.

She never thought about whether she could “judgment” and get some results. Anyway, with Master around, she just needs to obediently follow behind Master!

The black-hearted ghost looked at Mitch at the side, thinking he was unlucky, so he could only say one by one.

“I was dragged by five horses, and my head, hands and body were torn apart... my heart was also cut out...”

It wasn’t until this time that Zion came to his senses: Damn, the thing that was tied to the foot of the bed like a dog on a leash was actually a ghost!

very scary!!

Chapter 234 Clever Susre

It turned out that Jonah was doing business in the city at the time.

One day he passed a rice shop and fell in love with the fiancée of the owner of the rice shop.

The owner of the rice shop is a young man with a wide range of ideas. In less than three months, the rice shop has become the best rice shop in the area. Since he was too busy, his fiancée came to help.

“His fiancée grew up with him, and she came to help without any taboos. I was attracted to her the first time I saw her...”

The little girl looks so juicy, beautiful and full of aura, with a clean and pure aura all over her body.

Jonah’s mind suddenly changed.

In his own business, his methods are not clean.

That night, I found a gangster to climb into the rice shop and mix poison in every bag of rice.

Wade was surprised: “Add poison to the rice?!”

It’s crazy!

From the history he learned, many poor people in that period worked hard for a month in exchange for half a bag of rice, and the whole family depended on this bag of rice for their lives.

Jonah actually mixed poison in the rice!

You must know that the rice shop sells a lot of rice every day, especially when he said that the rice shop's business is still very good. Doesn't this mean killing people?

Susie frowned tightly, and asked, "You will kill many people, don't you know?"

Jonah said: "I know, but so what? Life was so hard in those days, how many people couldn't survive and wanted to commit suicide, I don't think it's a big deal!"

Susie and the others were speechless.

Jonah really doesn't care. To him, the life and death of others is like the life and death of ants, and he doesn't care.

The next day, sure enough, someone was poisoned to death because they ate rice mixed with poison.

And it's not just one or two families, several families have died, vomited, and injured.

The people from the police station followed the clues to find the owner of the rice shop and arrested the young man.

Because no evidence could be found, the owner of the rice shop was temporarily released, but the family members who were poisoned to death after eating the poisoned rice all came to the door.

The owner of the rice shop is in a state of desperation...

"He was in urgent need of money, and no one else dared to buy rice from him. At this time, I made a living..." Jonah said: "I found two people who pretended to be merchants who bought rice, and took the owner of the rice shop to dinner to discuss business.....

During the dinner, the two got the owner of the rice shop drunk and passed out, and then Jonah took the contract that had been written, and grabbed the owner of the rice shop.

Wade frowned and asked, "What's in the contract?"

Jonah said: “I wrote in the contract that he voluntarily transferred the rice shop to me, and at the same time sold Rose to me to pay off the debt.”

20.00%

Rose is his fiancée.

Anyway, the owner of the rice shop is short of money, and his mouth is blistered because he has to compensate those who died from eating poisoned rice.

So it is reasonable for him and his fiancée to pay off the debt!

The rice shop owner didn’t know what happened until Jonah brought someone to the door.

The more Susie listened, the angrier she became. When she got angry, she crushed the puffs in her hand: “And then?”

Jonah said, “And then I got my wish.”

The rice shop became his, and Rose was also taken into the house by him.

The owner of the rice shop wanted to fight him desperately, but he had someone secretly capture him, beat him half to death, and threw him into the river.

When Rose found out, she hanged herself in grief and indignation.

Jonah said: “I thought the owner of the rice shop died when he was thrown into the river. I didn’t expect him to be alive. He sneaked into my house in the middle of the night and arrested me while I was sleeping.”

Speaking of this, resentment floated in Jonah’s eyes, and he was full of evil spirit.

“That damned pariah, I don’t know where to get five very strong horses, tied in five directions...”

“Then tied my head, hands and feet to the horse, and as he threw the firecracker into the middle, the frightened horse galloped away in five directions.”

The force of that moment killed him just like that.

“I died so badly that I didn’t have a whole body! The firecrackers were thrown on me, and they nailed my soul in place...”

After his death, his heart was also cut out by the owner of the rice shop, put into a jar filled with black charcoal, and sunk into a cesspit, where it was left to turn black and stink.

In this way, he was forced to suffer day and night to be divided into five horses, died time and time again in fear and despair, and finally became an evil ghost—a black-hearted ghost.

Zion crossed his arms and snorted coldly: “Death is more than worthwhile!”

Wade also said: “Damn it!”

The black-hearted ghost said nothing, and asked, “I’ve said everything I need to say. You said I deserve to die, and I admit it too! Now that I’m done talking, can I go to hell?”

Holding the puffs, Susie said angrily, “Who told you to go to hell?”

The black-hearted ghost was stunned for a moment, and said happily: “Really? If you don’t let me go to hell, is that for me to be reborn?”

Mitch is holding a pen, writing something in the booklet.

Hearing this, he sneered: “Evil ghosts cannot be reincarnated.”

There is no need to go to hell. Ghosts who have been punished by hell still have a chance to be reincarnated in the end, and he is not worthy of a black-hearted ghost.

The black-hearted ghost resented: “Then what do you want! I’ve told you all, and you still won’t let me go!”

Susie was furious, and snorted: “We have said that, did you let you go after you said everything?”

The black-hearted ghost choked, and said dumbly: “No...”

Susie: “That’s it!”

The black-hearted ghost was speechless.

The black-hearted ghost was curious, and thought it would be beneficial to explain everything in detail.

“I ate you!” He flew into a rage and threw himself at Susie viciously!

However, before he broke through the net, he was slapped back by Mitch!

The black-hearted ghost was instantly photographed into a cloud of evil spirits, all of which were absorbed by the gourd!

Susie was stunned for a moment, and asked suspiciously, “Didn’t it count if I caught ghosts myself?”

Mitch raised his eyebrows, “Well... the black-hearted ghost died in the Internet, right?”

Susie nodded: “Yeah.”

Mitch: “You made this net, right?”

Susie: “Hmm...” I seem to understand what Master is going to say

Sure enough, Mitch said, “So, you killed him.”

Susie was speechless.

When the nurse initially killed the first person, it was just out of revenge.

“I just killed someone, and I was also very panicked. Who knew that the family was so kind. Seeing that I was panicking, they thought I was frightened by the death of the old man, and instead comforted me.”

“The old man is not very good. I used a pillow... so they didn’t notice the abnormality...”

With the cremation and burial of the old man, her crime of murder was completely buried!

She was ecstatic in her heart, and there was a kind of joy of revenge. From then on, she began to embark on a road of no return.

The interrogator slapped the table and scolded angrily: “The master treats you so well, don’t you feel guilty at all?!”

She pursed her lips, what was the guilt? They were so rich, they all had the money to hire her to serve others, so why should she feel guilty as a poor person.

Seeing her like this, the interrogator knew what she was thinking, and asked under pressure, “Continue!”

She said: “Later, I became obsessed with this kind...haha... At first, I only dared to abuse a little bit, especially those demented old people who can’t speak.”

Later, simple abuse could no longer make her feel happy. Seeing those disgusting old people who are so old and still want to take care of them?

What are they!

So again and again, she tried on the edge of madness, and found that as long as she performed better, had higher ratings, and got more nursing certificates, her family members would doubt her less.

0.00%

She tried her best to make the best face, so that those people could rest assured that the old man would be handed over to her, and then...

She likes the feeling of being able to control other people's lives, it's like an addiction, and gradually she becomes more and more dissatisfied, what's the point of being happy only by herself?

So I found a lot of like-minded friends...

The interrogators were all shocked by this abnormality, and couldn't help but said: "You are doing this job yourself, and since you get this kind of money, how can you blame others for ordering you? You don't like others ordering you, so you don't have to do it!"

She curled her lips, "It costs a lot of money to do this..."

The interrogator choked for a moment, too angry to speak.

The other person managed to remain calm, and said indifferently: "Apart from your like-minded friends, besides those in the [Happy Family] group, who else are there?"

She talked so much, her lips were a little dry, she smacked her lips, and muttered: "Is there any water to drink?"

The interrogator looked at her coldly.

She had no choice but to say: "No more... I only have this group, I like this group very much, they are like my family... They are nice to talk, humorous and interesting... So I have not changed the group."

Those words of making fun of people's lives were actually considered humorous and interesting by her.

The interrogator fell silent.

Fortunately, none of her "family" was left behind, and they were all arrested.

After two consecutive days of high-intensity arrests, brother departments from all over the country worked together to wipe out all the criminals in her group.

Those who were arrested almost hated Sister Li to death!

He was fine, but suddenly he was caught and thrown into prison!

Even the evidence of the crime was clearly given by her!

After being interrogated, she returned to the prison, and she saw her “family” from a distance...

She happily went up to meet her, and the other party recognized her, without saying a word, slapped her to the ground, stepped on her body and beat her hard!

She suddenly screamed again and again...

At night, the prison is colder than a normal residence.

She curled up on the bed, her eyes were so swollen that she couldn't open them.

She was almost beaten to death before she was assigned the current single room.

She was so thirsty, she couldn't get down from the pain, and she really wanted someone to wait on her.

At this time, the wind blew past, and the iron windows creaked. Sister Li fell into a drowsy sleep from exhaustion, and suddenly felt that someone was touching her head.

“Do you want me to take care of you...”

She opened her eyes in fright, and a bounce bounced up!

I saw an old woman standing by the bed, staring straight at her.

“You...” She has recorded so many videos and often secretly enjoys them, so she can recognize them at a glance—

This old woman was one of the ones she killed!

“Don't come here...” Sister Li suddenly panicked.

She was a little panicked when she was arrested, but after two days in prison, she knew that she would not escape the law anyway, so she didn't care.

But now, the old man who was drowned by her suddenly appeared in front of her, which made Sister Li feel terrified in her heart!

There were rustlings outside the iron fence, and soon, two old men climbed in from the iron fence!

“Come on... let’s take care of you...” they said ho ho ho.

She screamed and wanted to run, but as soon as her feet hit the ground, a dry hand reached out from under the bed and grabbed her ankle.

“Come down... I’ll help you step on your back!” The old man looked venomous.

She screamed, but her hoarse voice was actually just a silent roar, and no one heard it.

The next day, she died in the prison, with her eyes open, her body twisted into an unbelievable arc, and her death was horrific.

Just like Zuri in the corridor who was scared to death a few days ago.

There was an uproar in the public opinion for a while, but in the end, after the case was announced, everyone’s focus was on the case again, and they were all furious, and the whole network crusaded!

Chapter 235 The person who took Clara away

It wasn’t until they saw the final verdict that all the demons who had committed many crimes were shot, that people cheered and ran around telling each other.

[I heard that this matter was exposed by a person, who is a hero, come out and be worshiped by me!)

【Absolutely a handsome little brother with a sense of justice...】

【Happy! Very happy!】

Susie’s first Kindergarten term is coming to an end and summer vacation is just around the corner.

Alana’s legs are also getting better and stronger. Seeing that grandma is getting better and better, Susie thinks that grandma should be able to see her mother...

“By the way, Mom, how did you go to San Diego by yourself?” Susie suddenly thought of this question.

Clara was teasing Alex on her stomach, and said, “At that time, I was so sick that I lost my mind, so I just ran out...”

Susie tilted her head and asked the phone watch, “how do I get from here to San Diego?”

She said a lot, Susie just felt that her little brain was not enough to pretend: “It’s so complicated, I can’t even remember it, how do you remember it, Mom?”

Clara’s movements stopped suddenly.

That’s right, at that time she was so sick that she lost her mind, not to mention how to get to the train station or the airport, but how to get on the bus and the plane was a big problem!

Chapter 235 The person who took Clara away

If she made it to San Diego-that was impossible, with her body, she would die on the way.

Regarding this matter, why did she not have an impression?

Clara thought about it carefully, and suddenly her expression froze: “No... there was a person who sent me out, into the car...”

Thinking of that person, Clara’s face suddenly became ugly.

Clara’s memory of that period was vague, except that the man was wearing a big, big fisherman’s hat with a wide brim.

She dresses loosely and has a bulging stomach.

“She took me down a very dark road... Then I got into the car, and the car drove for a long time... When I slowly regained my senses, I found myself under a bridge hole.”

She walked in a daze, aimlessly, and then met Andrew.

Susie was a little nervous and asked, “Who is that person?”

Clara pursed her lips, looked at her and said, “You know, Mara...”

Susie’s eyes widened, it’s her again?

Mara killed the ugly aunt in order to be with her uncle.

And then secretly sent mom away?

Clara said: “Her hat covered her face. I only looked up and saw her face for a moment, and then I followed her.”

If Susie hadn’t asked, she wouldn’t even remember it now.

“Why did she do that?” Susie couldn’t figure it out.

Clara shook her head, “I don’t know.”

“She is my sister-in-law, and she can be regarded as my first sister-in-law... I remember that she was pretty good to me at ordinary times.”

Clara and Susie looked at each other, and Susie immediately said, “I’m going to find Dad!”

Alex tilted his head and said, “Dad is not here, where is Papa? Dad, where are we going...”

Oh, I remembered, Kellen seems to have gone to a “meeting” again these days.

It seems that they want to quit their jobs, but they don’t agree.

Susie said, “Then I’ll go find uncle!”

The little guy put on his shoes hastily and ran to the study.

Martin was working in the study, when he saw Susie running in, he opened his arms to catch Susie who was rushing towards him.

“What’s wrong?” he asked.

Susie said, “Uncle, Susie can’t understand one thing.”

Martin: “Huh? What’s the matter?”

The little guy can even catch ghosts, what other “big things” can stop her?

Susie said: “My mother was taken away by Mara before. Susie couldn’t figure it out. Mara and her mother had no grievances. Why did she do this?”

The smile on Martin’s face froze for an instant, and his eyes suddenly turned cold!

“Your mother said that Mara took her away?” Martin asked coldly.

Susie nodded.

Martin, stood up and said, “Just ask Mara yourself about this matter.”

His face was cold, and he had vaguely guessed why

The Murray family has eight sons, but Clara has only one daughter.

Chapter 236 If I Don't Tell the Truth, I'm Going Big

As the only girl in the Murray family, Clara has been spoiled by thousands of pampers. Before she disappeared that year, Mara gave birth in only a few days.

If Mara knew in advance that she was pregnant with a daughter, she might send Clara away because of this motive

In this way, her daughter will replace Clara and become the favorite of the Murray family!

But Martin couldn't believe it for such a simple reason, and Mara wasn't born yet...

The car quickly arrived at the prison.

Mara was sentenced to 25 years for intentional homicide with serious circumstances.

It can be said that this life is over.

Seeing Martin brought Susie to see her, she had a look of surprise in her eyes, and then she was ecstatic!

After she was locked up, no one from the Murray family came to see her, not even Lucy.

Now Martin brought Susie to see her... Is there a chance for her to plead for a reduced sentence or even release from prison??

She knew she was wrong, really knew she was wrong!

It was hard and tiring in prison, and there was no end in sight. This kind of punishment should be enough for her, right?

Can you take her away?

She promises that she will be a good wife and a mother in the future...

Mara's eyes turned red, and the handcuffs she was wearing jingled.

There are several situations in which people can meet in prison. One is a general interview. The family and the prisoner communicate with each other by phone through a glass.

The second is a special meeting. There is a special meeting room, and prison guards are watching.

Now Martin meeting Mara is a special meeting, so that Mara has unrealistic fantasies.

Martin said with a cold face, “Don’t shout those two words, our Murray family has nothing to do with you now.”

Mara burst into tears, feeling very upset in her heart, why is it all right?

She is Lucy’s own mother, and Lucy has the blood of the Murray family on her body, so she has something to do with the Murray family!

Martin saw Mara’s expression and knew that she was about to quibble.

He didn’t want to hear this, so he asked directly: “Mara, let me ask you, did you take Clara away?”

Mara, who was getting ready to speak, froze for a moment, and then looked stunned: “Brother, what are you talking about! How could I... how could I do such a thing!”

Susie sat on a big chair, folded her small hands on the table, rested her chin on the back of her hands, and tilted her head slightly to look at Mara.

“You’re lying!” she said, “Master said that when people tell a lie, th eyes turn to the right and their eyes flicker, so you are lying.”

Even a child like her can see it, who else is she trying to deceive!

Martin corrected in a low voice: “Now she’s just a strange aunt, a criminal.”

49.02%

Mara’s face suddenly became a little ugly...

So she was thinking too much. According to Martin’s attitude, the Murray family didn’t look like they would forgive her at all!

Susie changed her words and asked, “Aunt Mara, my mother didn’t mess with you, why did you hurt my mother?”

Mara pursed her lips and turned her head to the side: “I told you I didn’t harm your mother!”

Martin snapped coldly: “Mara! Are you still stubborn now?!”

Mara turned her head suddenly, her eyes flushed: “Why am I so stubborn? I haven’t done anything I haven’t done. Why should I say it’s me?”

Mara is also smart, knowing that if Martin had evidence, he wouldn’t ask her specifically.

She will only spend some money to make her life worse than death in prison!

She just refused to admit it, anyway, the Murray family will never find evidence.

Mara’s attitude was very firm, with despair in her eyes, and she smiled self-deprecatingly: “That’s right, why do you believe me now?”

“You see that I killed May, and you think that I am the biggest villain in the world. You can’t wait for any crime to be laid on my head, right?”

Martin was speechless when she saw that she was acting.

Clara gasped: “Susie, fuck her!”

Susie immediately obediently threatened: “Aunt Mara, if you don’t tell the truth, don’t blame me for making big moves!”

She bared her teeth and clenched her fists threateningly.

Clara was speechless. This is not a threat.

Mara froze.

She glanced at Martin quietly, but saw him looking at Susie. It seemed that it was really Susie’s big move?

What big tricks can a little kid have?

She subconsciously asked: “What big move...”

Susie folded her little hands and lowered her voice: “I’ll let my mother confront you.”

Mara was speechless.

Make Clara confront her??

It’s out of the picture, Clara is dead, how can I confront her?

Besides, Clara died of illness in the end, and she wasn't the one who killed her. Even if the bones were dug out and the top forensic doctor was called for an autopsy, it would be impossible to find evidence that she killed Clara!

Mara thought that Susie really had some big moves, but now she finally feels at ease.

Mara closed her eyes, and said forcefully, "Go away! I really didn't harm Clara back then, and I'm not afraid even if Clara comes back to life now."

Susie: "Really?"

Mara said firmly: "Really!"

Susie waved her hand and muttered, and Mara wanted to laugh seeing her talking.

Suddenly, another faint voice sounded: "Really..."

Mara didn't react for a while, and said, "It's true, it's true!"

She was about to ask if she had treated Clara badly before...

He heard a familiar voice faintly: "It's pretty good..."

Mara was taken aback for a moment, and turned her head abruptly!

I saw a woman dressed in white, with long hair hanging straight behind her head.

Her face was pale, and she lowered her eyes, staring straight at her.

This face...is it not Clara?!

"Ghost, ghost!" Mara stood up in fright, knocked her knee hard on the table, and fell to the ground all of a sudden!

The prison guard was taken aback and shouted sharply: "Be honest!"

They couldn't see Clara's, Susie's little spells, only Mara could see hell.

"She...she!" Mara was too flustered to speak.

Clara slowly raised her hand and floated towards Mara: "I died so badly... I died from cancer, you know..."

The corner of Mitch's mouth twitched.

Clara is visible for the first time, scary for the first time.

It was a hilarious thing to play with, my hair was neat just now, but now it's all messed up in front of my eyes.

Originally, the clothes showed a light blue floral skirt, but it changed into a long white skirt in a flash.

The tiptoe was even more straight, walking with the big toe, approaching Mara step by step.

Mara rolled her eyes and fainted from fright!

The prison guard patted Mara's face with his palm very unkindly, frowned and said, "Mara, wake up, don't pretend to be crazy!"

This woman, I heard that she once pretended to be crazy when she was arrested.

Come now?

A prison guard saw that she didn't look like she was pretending, but she fainted strangely.

I just feel that her acting skills are outstanding. Over the years, prisoners have been pretending to be sick, swallowing toothbrushes, razor blades and iron nails in order to go out. They have seen a lot.

The prison guard shook a small bottle at the tip of Mara's nose.

Poor Mara finally passed out, only to wake up again.

As soon as he opened his eyes, he saw Clara lying face to face in front of her, and the eyeballs creaked.

"You're awake!"

Mara screamed and backed away again and again: "You, you, you, don't come here! Go away, go away!"

The prison guard was speechless.

Sure enough, it was pretending!

They stood back to their positions and said blankly: "There are still ten minutes! Hurry up!"

As soon as Clara heard it, she immediately continued to amplify her moves.

"I had no grievances with you back then, why did you treat me like this?"

"Why did you do this to me? Why did you send me away when I was unconscious?"

“Do you know how much pain I had before I died? You see, my heart is so painful that it is twisted into a ball and this liver is so painful that it is hard!”

As Clara spoke, she took out her heart, liver, intestines

Mara almost fainted again, but unfortunately, the smell from the tip of her nose was still directed at her brain, so she couldn't faint at all.

“Don't come here.....” Seeing this shocking scene, she was about to collapse!

Clara grinned suddenly, and said fiercely: “Okay! If you don't tell me, I will die with regret! I will pull you down even if I die!”

“Come on! Die with me!”

Clara yelled and threw her arms out at Mara

Mara was so scared that she said everything

“I said, I said, I said!”

She was crying, her voice trembling: “I was pregnant with Lucy back then, I did a chromosome test in advance... I knew it was a girl...”

The girls of the Murray family are very valuable!

“The Murray family is all boys. If there is only one girl, it will become everyone's favorite...not just the little princess, but also, the Murray family has no daughters. A wizard told me that a family must have a boy.” There is a girl...”

“When there are only boys in the family, there must be a girl. If the girl is the only one at this time, then this girl is definitely lucky...”

The premise is that there can only be such a pearl in the family...

In other words, Clara must die before Lucy is born.

That's why she thought about sending Clara away—Clara was terminally ill, and during that time she had to be carefully cared for, even the air had to be sterile. She thought that if she sent Clara outside and threw it on the street, she would die for sure. up.

What's wrong with her?

She just wants to give her daughter the best in the world!

Chapter 237

Mara cried and said, “You won’t live long anyway! And Lucy will be born in a few days...”

“Before, I thought you were going to die if you stood up, but who knew it took a long time, I really can’t wait!”

o

“Clara, don’t blame me, okay? Lucy is also your niece! Lucy, the whole Murray family is fine, and I’m thinking about it for the Murray family! Don’t you want your brothers to be fine?”

People Are So Selfish For Themselves

Clara froze.

788 Vour her.

She really, really didn’t expect that Mara would get rid of her for such a ridiculous reason!

Susie’s eyes were full of shock, and the question that bothered her was solved just like that.

But she wasn’t happy at all.

Can people really be so selfish for their own selfish desires?

Listening to Mara’s words, Martin’s eyes were even more piercingly cold, and his whole body seemed to be frozen.

Mara knew that if she said this, she would never be able to get out, and it would not be easy in prison in the future.

She could only change the subject bluntly, and cried: “Forget it, it’s all my fault anyway. As a mother, I really just want to give the best to my children... Am I wrong?! I just I want to ask if Lucy is okay now?”

Speaking of Lucy, Mara’s eyes became even redder, and the mist of tears condensed into a ball, which slid down with a click.

“I don’t care about anything. Really! But I really miss Lucy, brother, please, can you let me see Lucy?”

Just let her see Lucy, and she will teach her not to cry and say that she wants to see her mother next time.

After going back and forth, Lucy will not forget her mother.

She has nothing now, and she will be in her 60s or 70s when she gets out of prison. At that time, she can't do anything but rely on Lucy.

So now we have to hold on to Lucy...

Mara keeps saying that she loves children, and she makes these mistakes for the sake of children.

But she never mentioned Zion, as if she had forgotten that she had a son.

After all, it's still selfish....

Because in the Murray family, the daughter can help her get everything, but the son can't. The son of the Murray family is very strict and needs to make money by himself.

The Murray family can be their backing, their background, their starting point, but not their treasury.

But Mara thinks that her daughter is different, she is delicate and weak, what effort is needed? Just lay down and win.

Taking ten thousand steps back, the dowry when you get married is also a large fortune...

Clara looked at Mara coldly, and said in her heart that it was impossible not to hate her.

"Mara, you will have retribution." She said quietly.

Martin also stood up: "Susie, let's go."

No need to ask anymore, it doesn't make sense.

He wants to make Mara's life in prison worse than death!

Seeing the murderous look in Martin's eyes, Mara panicked!

"Don't go!"

"Let me meet Lucy, please!"

o

Susie curled her lips and said, “Aunt Mara, Mom said you only think about beauty! You will never be allowed to see Lucy.”

“Susie, Susie, help Mara! Susie, Mara is wrong, you beg your uncle...”

“Susie, didn’t you always miss your mother when you first came here? Children will miss their mother! Lucy must also miss her... So you can’t be so selfish, you can’t make Lucy sad...”

Susie snorted: “Lucy didn’t miss you!”

Mara was taken aback, as if she had been stimulated by something, and said excitedly, “How is it possible? Lucy can’t be such a selfish and cold- blooded child!”

The daughter she gave everything for... she gave so much for her!

How could she miss her? How can you miss her!?

Doesn’t that mean that everything she did was a failure, even her education was a failure! ?

She cried bitterly: “You can’t do this! You are too selfish, you can’t implicate innocent children just to get revenge on me, Lucy is innocent, you can’t do this...”

Susie shook her head and said, “Auntie Mara, Lucy is fine now, it’s only after seeing you that something bad happens!”

Mara refused to believe it, and shook her head again and again: “How is it possible? You must have said something to her, you must have taught her behind her back, saying that mother doesn’t want her anymore, right!?”

Martin directly led Susie out and left without looking back.

O

The anklets in Mara’s hands were jingling, and she wanted to chase them out, but she was arrested!

The door closed, along with Mara’s desperate cries.

Mara is desperate and unwilling, why...why not let her see Lucy!?

Lucy was born to her, what right did they have to do that!

Lucy used to be unable to leave her mother for a moment, but now she has never even seen her...

Her Lucy would not be so selfish, they must have taught her, they are all villains, and it's all their fault...

Mara yelled and cried, and was taken down involuntarily.

When the iron gate was closed, Mara felt that the light of her world was also shut off, and her life was in darkness ever since!

in the car.

Susie asked: "Uncle, why is Aunt Mara like this? She likes girls but doesn't like Zion."

When I was in the Bishop family in San Diego, the original father, stepmother, grandparents, they all hoped that the stepmother would have a younger brother.

Once they asked her out of the blue whether the aunt was carrying a younger brother or a younger sister.

She subconsciously said something about her sister, but they got angry.

So Susie doesn't quite understand why Mara doesn't like Zion.

Martin said: "Because there are many boys in the Murray family, and the Murray family doesn't raise playboys, so the boys have to go out and work hard on their own when they reach the age of 18."

Susie was surprised: "The girl doesn't need it?"

Chapter 238 Lucy, Do You Miss Mom

Martin didn't answer, but asked her instead: "What does Susie think?"

Susie was very serious, and said very seriously: "You must work hard, everyone must work hard!"

"Susie needs to earn a lot of money, so my uncle won't have to work so hard in the future! Our family can play happily every day!"

Martin couldn't help laughing, the cold and murderous aura that Mara had angered just now was slowly calmed down.

"Okay!" He said, "Then I'll wait for you."

Susie nodded heavily: "Yeah!"

Suddenly she stretched out her finger again, “Uncle, pull the hook!”

Martin stretched out his hand, and Susie hooked his fingers, muttering: “Pull the hook, hang yourself, for a hundred years, don’t change!”

She thought for a while, and then said to herself: “No, why did the hook hang itself? Why is it only a hundred years?”

She wants to be with her family for eleven million years.

So the little guy said seriously again: “Pull the hook, stamp it, and it must not be changed for ten thousand years!”

Martin couldn’t help but let out a low laugh, the laughter seemed to come from the bottom of his heart, it was comfortable and pleasant.

As soon as he got back to the Murray family, Lucy ran out.

“Hey, where did you go? You left without saying a word!”

Susie looked at Martin, wondering if she should tell the truth.

Will Lucy miss her mother?

788

Visit her.

Martin looked at her with encouraging eyes, some things, as an adult, it was inconvenient for him to say.

I just heard Susie say: “Lucy, we’re going to see your mother.”

Lucy was taken aback.

Mother.....

She pursed her lips slightly and said oh.

Susie asked, “Lucy, do you miss your mother?”

Every baby misses his mother, right? Susie suddenly didn’t know, Lucy had such a mother, did she want it or not?

Just like what Mara said, if she thinks about it, if her uncle doesn’t let her see her mother, is that uncle wrong?

If you don’t want to, then it seems that Lucy is selfish again?

Susie shook her dizzy little head, she realized that she didn't seem to be that smart, and there were some things she couldn't think of even if she tried to break her little head.

But Lucy suddenly said: "I think, I miss my mother too."

Sometimes at night before going to bed, or right after waking up.

In the past, whether she opened her eyes or closed her eyes, her mother was always by her side.

Martin's heart sank slightly...

Susie was afraid that Lucy would be sad, so she quickly took her hand: "Lucy is not sad, you still have me! I will be responsible for you!"

The corner of Martin's mouth twitched.

H

The little guy has a round face and big round eyes, but his baby voice is very serious, not too cute.

but.....

"I'll take care of you' isn't how it's used." Martin couldn't help correcting.

Susie raised her little hand: "Uncle, don't talk!"

Didn't you see that she was persuading Lucy?

Martin was speechless.

Clara almost died laughing, she said: "Susie said this, it should mean that when she grows up, she will work hard to make money and help Lucy."

Susie nodded.

Yes, yes, mother still understands her.

Lucy was stunned, inexplicable: "I'm not sad!"

She continued: "Dad said, it's okay if you want to. It's normal for children to miss their mother, but they shouldn't see their mother."

"Because my mother has done bad things, she has to accept the punishment she deserves. People can't be lawless."

Susie blinked, as if she understood.

Missing my mother and going to see my mother, you can't just choose one!

"Wow, Lucy, you're getting smarter! I think you're great!" Susie was very happy because she figured it out.

Being praised by Susie, Lucy was overwhelmed, and she also said happily: "Really? I also think I have become smarter recently! Look at my brain, has it grown up a little?"

Susie pulled Lucy's hair: "It's impossible to see the brain!"

Lucy said, "Then look at my head, has it gotten bigger?"

Susie looked at it carefully: "It seems to be Ai!"

Lucy looked proud: "Please call me big head in the future!"

Susie: "Yeah! Big head Lucy!"

Lucy is happy.

Martin, Clara, and Mitch all twitched their mouths.

Children are still too naive.

She never knows how much she will regret it when she grows up...

The two little girls chattered, you lead me and I lead you, and ran happily towards the house.

Martin's eyes were soft.

After Susie came, did the child get overwhelmed...

That's good, we can have a companion for each other.

Back in the study, the smile on Martin's face gradually subsided.

He was about to make a phone call to ask someone to "take care of" Mara in prison.

But when the door creaked and was pushed open, Susie poked her head

"Uncle, are you planning to do something bad?" the little guy asked.

Martin cut off the phone and said, "No."

Clara curled her lips: “I don’t know him yet? He is definitely trying to shake people and teach Mara a lesson.”

Although she is also very angry.

But she didn’t want her elder brother to get unnecessary stains on his back because of Mara.

Clara said, “Susie, tell your uncle not to do stupid things.”

Retaliation, who said that people must be?

She alone can scare her to death!

Susie was picked up by Martin and was sitting on his lap. She raised her hand and touched Martin’s head vigorously: “Uncle, be good, don’t do stupid things.”

Martin looked at her helplessly: “And you know what uncle is going to do?”

Susie pointed to the side: “Mom said she doesn’t know you yet?”

Martin’s back was slightly stiff, and he asked silently, “Is your mother here now?”

In fact, when he was in prison just now, he was quite envious of Mara for a moment.

At least she could see Clara.

The person she is afraid of is the person they want to see but can’t see.

Susie suddenly stretched out her hand, squeezed her fingers to open Martin’s eyelids: “Hey, look, uncle.”

Martin was caught off guard, and his eyelids were suddenly stretched open.

In a blur, he suddenly noticed a person standing beside her, who was saying, “Susie, don’t poke your uncle’s eyes! If you can’t see it, you can’t see it. Didn’t your master say that our meeting will affect you...”

Before he finished speaking, he heard a deep voice: “Clara.”

Clara froze for a moment, looking at Martin.

“Can you see me?”

Five years later, the siblings met again.

Martin's throat seemed to be stuffed with a ball of cotton, and he didn't speak for a while, just looking at Clara like this.

The sister they have loved for half their lives has become a ghost now...

Thinking of this, Martin's heart still hurts.

Susie didn't know when she came to the door and closed it quietly.

Uncle and mother must have a lot to talk about. She is a sensible child, so she should be obedient and not quarrel with them at this time.

The little guy happily ran to find Alana.

"What's the matter Susie?" Seeing Susie running over, Alana asked again, panting, "What are you going to do? Tired us Susie like this?"

Susie exclaimed, "I'm busy!"

Busy going to kindergarten and catching ghosts.

I just coaxed Lucy, now I'm going to coax my uncle again!

Now she decided that she would start making money!

She has to be responsible for the whole family, so that my uncle doesn't have to go to work, and his health will get better and better!

"By the way, grandma, did uncle take his medicine on time?" The little man looked like a worried old woman.

Alana just thought it was funny: "Eat, your uncle seems to be getting better recently."

Martin used to have a very poor complexion – people who stay up late and suffer from insomnia for a long time, no matter how white their skin is, there will be a layer of dullness, which looks like a black face.

Chapter 239 Matás

But now Martin's complexion began to turn pale, and the change was a bit obvious. He started to go out to bask in the sun, trying to tan himself.

Susie nodded and said, "Yeah, that's good!"

They will all get better and better!

At night, the wind in the prison was blowing.

Mara feels that she is not good at all at the moment!

The prison lived in bunk, the kind where everyone lay on the same kang!

The cell she lived in was a 14-person room, and she was pushed to the last position, near the toilet. She really vomited to death.

Is this a place where people can stay? Now that the society is so developed, can't we improve the quality of living in prisons?!

There are so many people, and a few people snore and talk in sleep while sleeping, it's so noisy!

Mara couldn't sleep because of the daytime events, and now she is even more irritable when she hears the sound of snoring one after another.

The Murray family is too cold-blooded. She gave birth to Lucy and Zion to the Murray family. There is no credit but hard work!

Martin's look before he left... actually wanted to kill her!

How will she live in prison in the future?

It's hard work in the prison itself, not what outsiders think, coming in with food and shelter, and going for a stroll every day.

They have to work, such as screwing screws, sticking ballpoint pens...

Some small things that are very cheap on the market are actually produced by the prison production line.

very tired!

If Martin did something secretly, she could imagine that she would have endless work in the future, and she might be beaten, pressed on the head and drank urine...

The more Mara thought about it, the more aggrieved and indignant she became.

She just wanted to see her daughter, didn't she have this human right??

Just as she was thinking about it, there suddenly was letting out a slight creak...

Mara is used to it, breaking the prison, no matter how much anyone turns over, it will creak.

But the creaking sound didn't mean to stop, Mara opened her eyes irritably and looked...

Seeing this, she trembled in fright, and almost rose to heaven without being frightened.....

Chapter 240 Horror Prison

In the prison, the dim light outside came in faintly, so that Mara, who had adapted to the darkness, could clearly see the scene in front of her...

In a big shop, everyone got up, with their hands and heads hanging down, and their expressions could not be seen clearly.

But the surrounding air became gloomy and cold for no reason, and these standing "people" were like zombies in the doomsday.

Mara seemed to be choked by someone, and she wanted to scream, but she couldn't, her eyes were full of panic.

They, what do they want to do?!

Could it be that Martin bought everyone in her cell and wanted to beat her to death at night! ?

At this moment, someone took a step.

crunch...

This time it was not the sound of turning over, but the sound of bones grinding.

They were silent, one moved, and then another took another step, and the sound of creaking and creaking continued.

Clara tried to scream again, but still couldn't make a sound.

She inadvertently looked at the feet of one of them, and suddenly found that this person was walking on tiptoe, just like Clara during the day, walking with her thumb!

Mara's pupils shrank sharply, and when she looked around, all the dozen or so people in the dormitory were in this posture!

Her eyes were full of fear, and at this moment, those dozen people rushed over and bit her neck one by one!

“No! Don’t come here...don’t...”

Mara screamed and jumped out of bed.

Suddenly, the ‘zombie’ inmates who just tore her flesh and blood were all staring at her!

The inmate closest to her raised his hand and slapped her across the face:

“It’s the middle of the night, what’s the name of the ghost!? Die!”

Mara was slapped, covering her face with tears in her eyes.

“I’m not, I’m... sorry...”

After living here for so long, she has long been defeated by her inmates.

Mara’s apology was not forgiven, and a burly woman who slept in the best position said directly:

“Drag her to the bathroom! Close the door!”

The woman who had just slapped Mara immediately grabbed Mara’s hair and dragged her to the toilet.

“Ah...let go...!”

Mara’s scalp was in excruciating pain, and she kept cursing in her heart: It really is the lowest, dirty crime, with no quality at all!

If you don’t make sense, you will do it!

Boom!

The toilet door was closed, and a wire was pulled from the outside and tied tightly to the stone pillar.

Then the balcony door was also closed.

Mara was thrown in the narrow toilet like this, almost vomiting blood.

She also just came to her senses, she was dreaming just now.

It’s all Clara’s fault, for scaring her!

Mara looked around, the toilet was dirty and smelly, she was the one who did the cleaning after she came, but is she the kind of person who cleans the toilet?

So every time I dealt with it hastily, but now I can’t smoke myself.

I don't know who took a shit, but didn't flush it, and the water-soaked paper towels floated sparsely on the sewage.

“vomit.....”

Mara was so disgusted that she pressed the flush button, but the toilet seemed to be clogged, and the shit just wouldn't go down.

However, the toilet seat cover was removed, and there was no cover even if I wanted to!

“Open the door... open the door!” Mara yelled.

No one answered her.

Mara sat on the toilet angrily, wanting to cry.

How could she be so unlucky?

At this moment, a shadow flickered outside the door.

Mara quickly said, “Who is it? Let me out, please!”

The shadow didn't answer.

Silently, it seemed to be standing at the door of the bathroom.

Mara could only see a shadow, and the man was silent.

Chapter 240 Horror Prison

“Can you open the door for me...”

Mara thought he was the best talker in the cell, but the other party still stood at the door without saying a word.

Mara was suddenly frightened.

Standing at the door of the toilet without sleeping in the middle of the night??

“Who...who!” Mara cried out.

The man still didn't speak, but the bathroom door began to creak.

It's like the sound of fingernails scratching on the door panel...

Mara screamed in fright: “Come on, come on! Open the door!”

With this scream, the sound outside the door stopped abruptly.

The shadow is gone...

Mara was flustered, and carefully lay on the crack of the door, trying to see who was outside...

Suddenly, an eye slammed up and met her from the crack of the door!

Mara was so frightened that she fell into the toilet with a bang, her face turned pale, and she kept calling for help, but as if the toilet was isola from the outside world, she shouted so loudly that no one came.

“Dream, I must be dreaming...”

Mara got up from the toilet, vomited and had cramps in her stomach from the panic and nausea, and turned on the faucet to flush violently.

While washing and washing, I suddenly found that the water from the faucet flowed to the ground and turned red...

There was blood dripping from the ceiling.

Mara’s pupils shrank sharply, and she was too stiff to look up.

The voice sounded again.

Mara didn’t dare to move, tears were streaming down her face silently, and her whole body was shaking uncontrollably in panic...

Her forehead was itchy, and her bangs seemed to be drooping.

She couldn’t help but push it away with her hands, only to find that the bangs “grow” quickly, and she realized that it wasn’t her hair, but someone was hanging it upside down, slowly hanging down from the top

This is the “human” hair!

“Ahhhh-”

The next day, the inmates opened the door of the bathroom and found Mara curled up on the floor with feces and urine all over her body, and the stench was endless!

“Hey! Are you dead? Damn it’s so disgusting, if you’re not dead, hurry up and clean the toilet!”

As if frightened, Mara looked at her cellmate in horror, grabbed a towel and began to wipe the floor.

No one knows what she endured, and this was just the beginning.

In the future, she will spend the rest of her life in fear and regret... more painful than death!
