

Eight Kickass 41

Chapter 41 Mara was arrested and pretended to be amnesia

The small spatula hit Mara on the head, causing her to reel.

As soon as Mara loosened her wrist, Lulu fell to the ground, and she staggered a few steps, almost being hit by a speeding car.

But because of this, he fell to the ground and broke his forehead.

The driver was so angry that he got out of the car and cursed: "You're courting death!"

David stepped forward quickly and hugged Lulu.

Lulu was scared silly.

Martin glanced at the small spatula on the ground.

This is specially brought by Ryan for Susie, and he plans to take her to make cold salad together, the kind that children play with.

It actually smashed Mara's head.

Susie grabbed her hand, a little uneasy: "Uncle, I seem to be a little too hard."

Uncle said that it is not allowed to show strength in front of others, oh no, great strength

She broke the precept.

Martin looked at Susie's disturbed little face, touched her head, and said, "It's okay, she deserved what she deserved."

Now I'm surrounded by people from the Murray family, so I'm not afraid.

In the distance, Mara lying on the ground tremblingly covered her head, trembling with pain.

Her head was buzzing, her head was bleeding, and when she stretched out her hand to touch her head, there was a hole in her head.

When he flew out, his forehead still hit a rock, and his forehead was also broken.

Mara took a deep breath and said in a crying voice, "David, I'm in so much pain. Hug me."

The Murray family, who were discussing in whispers, paused and looked at Mara speechlessly.

David usually doesn't talk much, but he speaks straight: "Are you okay? Hug you? I might as well hug a sow."

Alana said coldly: "Mara, the divorce between you and David is a foregone conclusion. Don't force me to tear your face apart. It will make you unable to stay in Los Angeles any longer."

Mara lowered her eyes to hide the grievance and indignation in her eyes!

She was like this, seriously injured, with blood all over her face!

Not only did they not care, but they wanted to keep her from getting along in Los Angeles?

Do you have a conscience?

Why do they have to force her to divorce David!

But things have gotten to this point, and it can't be undone.

Mara regretted it, if she knew she should not have listened to her mother's bad idea!

What Murray family will beg her to go back, what child can't live without mother!

She should have knelt at the door of the Murray family on the day she was kicked out and refused to leave!

Just when Mara regretted and was unwilling, a police car honked in the distance, and several police officers got out of the car and came straight to

Mara.

They shouted coldly: "Don't move! Mara, you are under arrest!"

Mara was stunned.

She was arrested? Are you mistaken, she was the one whose head was hit!

"Why did you catch me?"

The police officer took out the arrest warrant with a serious face: "Mara, you are suspected of killing May six years ago, the evidence is solid! Now you are arrested according to law!"

Mara was startled.

impossible!

There is no evidence for what happened six years ago, and it is even more impossible to find evidence now.

Are they lying to her?!

Mara made a surprised look and said, "What? What are you talking about, I don't know May."

The police officer sneered: "There is a human hand hidden in the statue in the central square in the west of the city, holding a piece of oiled paper. After technical analysis, we found your finger prints on the oiled paper!"

The police officer took out another document: "There is money wrapped in oil-skinned paper. After we investigated the serial numbers on the banknotes, we found that you took out the 20,000 yuan at an ATM machine six years ago! The evidence is convincing! Take it away!"

Mara's heart is cold, it's impossible, it's absolutely impossible!

It's been so long, how can I still find it!

Besides, the things in the statue are so secret, how did you find them?

Seeing that the police officer was about to handcuff her, Mara was anxious and didn't know what to do. Suddenly an idea flashed in her mind!

Mara was stunned and dazed, backed away again and again, and cried, "What are you talking about!"

"David, what the hell is going on here? How am I, how am I here?"

"I can't remember anything. David, David, it hurts so much! Hug me."

Everyone in the Murray family was speechless.

Amnesia? It doesn't look like it!

Susie tilted her head in doubt, and asked innocently: "What's the matter? Are you pretending to be stupid?"

"Why are you pretending to be stupid? Is it because you weren't stupid enough?"

Mara held back the anger in her heart, held her head trembling, and cried loudly:

"Ah. My head, I can't think of anything. Why am I here, why are you arresting me?"

"I don't know anything!"

The leading police officer said coldly: "We have seen too many people like you who pretend to have amnesia when you are caught! Don't think that you don't need to take legal responsibility if you lose your memory. Take it away!"

Two police officers went up and handcuffed Mara.

Mara cried: "David, David, save me! What happened, why am I here, why are the police officers arresting me!" –

"I didn't act, I really don't know!"

She cried helplessly and terrified. People who don't know about this acting really think she has amnesia.

Too bad it didn't help at all.

Regardless of amnesia or no amnesia, people must bear legal responsibility for the crimes they have committed!

Mara finally couldn't hold back until she was escorted into the police car.

She yelled: "David, David, I was wrong! Tell the police officer to let me go."

"Mom, Mom! Please, Lulu is still young, she can't live without me, Mom!"

With a click, the police officer directly closed the car door, and Mara yelled on the glass window without giving up.

Unfortunately, it was too late.

Buying a murderer to poison David, the crime of intentional homicide, at least started in ten years!

And David has filed for divorce, which means that she has nothing to do with the Murray family, and no one will come to rescue her after entering!

As for her mother?

As long as her mother doesn't make trouble, she can't count on it.

Mara was crying, tears were rushing down, desperate!

She couldn't figure out what went wrong. She had been fine all this time, so why was she suddenly discovered?!

outside the car.

A police officer is taking notes and presenting the document to David for his signature.

While asking: "How did the injury on the back of Mara's head come about?"

Martin said lightly: "There was a dispute just now, Mara wanted to take the child to commit suicide, David smashed it in a hurry."

The police officer nodded while recording: "What did you use to smash it? Don't be nervous, the prisoner was injured when he was arrested. We will record all of this."

Martin nodded in understanding, and said, "It was hit with a spatula."

Officer: "Which spatula?"

Such a small spatula, a child's toy, right?

Just this can smash people into that?

David firmly: "I'm sure."

Finally, the police officer who took the notes left with a small spatula.

Susie pursed her lips, stared blankly at the police car going away, and didn't speak for a long time.

Her little spatula. Caught and sent to jail!

Chapter 42 Can You Learn Not to Get Caught?

Mitch floated aside, glanced at her, and said, "Let's go, it's just a small spatula, it's dirty even if I don't take it away."

Susie pursed her lips, okay.

She didn't throw it away on purpose.

Seeing the sadness on Susie's face, the Murray family thought she was sad.

After all, arresting someone in front of the child does have a bad influence on the child, and Lulu was taken aside just now.

"Susie. Are you okay?" Alana hugged Susie distressedly.

Susie shook her head: "It's okay. If the old one doesn't go, the new one won't come."

David laughed.

There will be no new ones, and he will never find a second one in his life.

The matter finally came to an end, and David breathed a sigh of relief, feeling unprecedentedly relaxed.

"Go, Susie, I'll take you to eat."

Everyone didn't notice that the tree shadows in the small forest not far away shook slightly, and a black figure squirmed on the grass. When he raised his eyes, his face was covered with blood.

He stretched out his hand and scratched in the direction where the Murray family was. The back of the black and purple hand was covered with bloody streaks, like a ghost baby.

It was the first time the Murray family went camping together, and Craig didn't want to be spoiled by a Mara.

"What would Susie want to eat? I'll make it for you."

Holding a plate and wearing an apron, Paul gently touched Susie's head.

Susie smelled the aroma of barbecue, and swallowed hard, but the corners of her mouth sparkled.

"Anything is fine? A barbecue?" she asked.

Paul smiled: "Of course."

Alana just finished talking with David, pushed the wheelchair over, and said, "Just eat a bunch! You can't eat too much."

Susie's face collapsed: "Okay."

She reluctantly glanced at the oven next to her.

There are grilled chicken wings, grilled sausage, and grilled shrimp on top.

“Goodbye, roasted chicken legs.” Susie reluctantly said goodbye to the food:

. “Goodbye, grilled shrimp.”

“Goodbye, barbecue.”

That little face is really pitiful, making people laugh and helpless.

Paul said softly: “Mom, let her eat something, Ryan will be there when she gets angry.”

As soon as Alex heard Ryan, he immediately shook his head and shouted: “The ass is blooming!”

Ryan, who was walking towards the river to collect his fishing rod, suddenly staggered, slipped and fell on the grass.

Ass is about to bloom!

He stared at the parrot speechlessly.

The parrot flapped its wings: “Run, run!”

Susie giggled and ran with the parrot immediately

The cloudy and sunny days of children are as simple as closing and opening the curtains.

On the emerald green lawn, Susie ran in front, and the parrot chased behind.

Hamza and Wade sat cross-legged in the tent reading a book, while Zion was still slumped on the air mattress and playing with his mobile phone.

Shouting “Come on, idiot”.

Lulu was quiet. He didn't know whether he was crying too much or was just frightened. He fell asleep on the air mattress.

The picture is warm and beautiful, making people forget the unhappiness just now.

However, Mia soon came over.

“Susie, here’s the strawberry cake!” Mia said with a cute face, “My mother made it herself! It’s delicious, even better than the ones made outside!”

The whole family saw what happened just now, and Mia’s mother asked Mia to send cakes to inquire about it.

Mia smiled sweetly, there is no one in this world that she cannot subdue.

Especially she also brought strawberry cake, which no child can resist.

But Susie turned her head: “I don’t want to.”

Mia suddenly felt angry. She thought Susie was rude.

She couldn’t help biting her lips, with an aggrieved look on her face: “Susie, don’t you like me?”

Susie looked at her seriously and nodded vigorously: “Yes!”

Didn’t she say that last time?

Why can’t she remember it!

Mia has never been rejected so bluntly.

Tears welled up in his eyes immediately, as if Susie had bullied him.

Susie pursed her lips and ran away immediately!

Mia didn’t have a chance to play, and the crying choked in her throat, and she just felt very angry!

Susie ran to Alana and lay down on the grass with a big spread.

Alana laughed and said, “Susie, don’t lie on the ground, it’s cold!”

After that, she asked someone to bring the air mattress over, and Susie climbed up like a caterpillar with her little butt sticking out.

Alana said, “Sit still, I’ll get you something to eat.”

Alana felt that Susie must be hungry after running for a while, so she went to get her something.

Mitch finally gets his chance and floats aside.

“Juicy, class is on!”

When Susie heard it, she quickly covered her ears!

Micky is so wordy, every time I have free time, I have to give her lessons.

It's all about things she doesn't understand, which Mitch calls 'basic theory'.

However, the covered ears can still hear Mitch's chanting:

Hearing the interest, Susie's ears perked up immediately: "Witch? Then do I still need to learn witchcraft?"

"Who did you learn from, how do you know about witchcraft?"

Susie waved her hands again and again: "I don't want to learn! I will be arrested!"

When she went out with her father once before, she saw a psychopath. She said that she was a wizard praying for rain.

That movement, like a cramp, was finally caught.

Mitch was speechless, and said: "It's true that they are easily caught jumping like that, but advanced secret techniques often only require the simplest movement of fingers."

"Forget it and explain as you go. Next."

There are big question marks on Susie's small head.

Mitch said again: "You just need to know that you can cure your grandma's illness after you learn it well."

Susie immediately got up from the grass and sat upright, as obediently as a student.

Save grandma!

Mom said to take good care of grandma.

So she wants to learn this and save grandma!

So Susie began to be a good baby who listened carefully to the class.

Mitch curled his lips, thinking I can't cure you?

When she heard the curious one, Susie raised her hand again: "I know about divination."

It was also the last time she went out with her father, a blind uncle said to divination for her.

As a result, someone was chasing him, and the blind man ran very fast!

Her little face was full of confusion: “Micky, can you learn how not to get caught?”

Mitch was speechless.

Where the hell did Andrew take her? very messy.

“Susie, where did you and your father go?”

Susie tilted her head: “I don’t know! Dad said he was going to buy cigarettes and asked me to wait here.”

“Susie waited and waited. After waiting for a long time, my father didn’t come back. It was getting dark. In the end, it was the police uncle who sent me home.”

Mitch turned serious for a moment.

He understood that Andrew didn’t take her out, but wanted to abandon her.

Chapter 43 Micky Teaching

Mitch sneered, and asked speechlessly, “Are you really waiting there?”

Susie nodded: “Yes.”

She was standing there on the square floor tile, very obedient, not running around at all.

But Dad finally forgot about her.

When Susie said this, the smile on her little face gradually subsided, and she asked softly, “Dad wants to throw me away, right?”

In fact, she knew that when her father turned and left without turning his head, she knew that she seemed to be abandoned.

Dad doesn’t want her anymore.

She stood there for a long time, surrounded by many people, but she didn’t know where to go at all.

Mitch was speechless for a moment.

She is really a little fool.

“In the future, others don’t want you, and you don’t want him to know? Juicy, remember, the person who abandons you is never worthy of forgiveness, and he doesn’t deserve to make you sad.”

Susie nodded half understanding, and soon a smile appeared on her little face.

A child's face is like the weather, it changes when it changes.

Or maybe Susie has become stronger than before. With her uncles and grandparents who love her, she doesn't care about the pain before.

"Micky, then you teach Susie medical skills! Susie knows medical skills, so she won't be caught and can be on TV."

Mitch couldn't help but cover his face, can he be caught without saying anything!

"What TV?" he asked casually.

Susie immediately imitated the commercials on TV and recited them.

Mitch was speechless for a moment

Susie asked: "Isn't it hard? It's all on TV! By the way, Micky, what does it mean that you can't get hard?"

The corner of Mitch's mouth twitched, and he said foolishly, "It's just that the exercise is not in place."

Susie looked dazed.

This time not only the corners of Mitch's mouth twitched, but also his eyelids.

He said speechlessly: "What's so great. Did you know that those people were all arrested later?"

Susie froze.

If you learn this, you will be arrested too?

Micky's things are not serious, and he will be arrested for everything he learns.

But for grandma. She's going all out!

Seeing the expression on Susie's immature face, Mitch knew what she was thinking without even thinking about it.

He gave up on explaining.

"Medical skills are an important part of our country." Mitch began to teach directly.

Susie listened carefully, and Mitch talked for a long time.

When he turned around, he saw Susie asleep.

"Hoo. Hoo."

Mitch was speechless.

He taught loneliness.

Alana sat not far from Susie, looking cheerfully at the scenery, and then at Susie.

I saw Susie and the parrot whispering for a long time, and then fell asleep by herself. Her heart couldn't help being soft, and she whispered someone to carry Susie back to the tent.

Ryan came over lightly, and asked incredulously, "Are you asleep?"

This Susie was so much fun, she was talking just now, and then fell asleep in a blink of an eye.

Alana laughed and said, "Maybe I'm tired from running around just now.

On the other side, Lulu is having a barbecue with his father David.

She stared at the grilled wings for a long time, and Zion looked up during the game break, and laughed, "Still eating! I've played five rounds, and you're still eating."

Lulu snorted: "I want you to take care of it!"

As soon as the grilled wings were finished, Lulu immediately brought them over.

David frowned: "Don't eat too much."

Lulu turned his head: "I don't want it!"

With this twist, Ryan hugged the sleeping Susie.

Lulu was a little unhappy immediately, and watched the barbecue silently. Every time something was baked, she would grab two skewers first.

Susie didn't know how long she slept.

When I woke up in a daze, the sun was almost setting.

Suddenly a handful of skewers came over.

Lulu said, "Here you are."

Susie looked up in surprise, and took it happily.

"Thank you sister." She took a bite and said vaguely.

Lulu frowned: "I'm not getting it for you, I'll let you know if I can't eat that much!"

Susie nodded.

Lulu ran away. If you observe carefully, you will find that her previous unhappiness is gone, and she is still in a good mood.

Lawn in the distance.

Mia is holding a drawing board and drawing.

She has been drawing for almost a day.

She looked jealously at Susie and Lulu who were free in the distance and eating skewers.

They are also children, why can they have such fun.

Mia's mom carries a tray with a small pot of smoothie on it.

She said, "Mia, go deliver things with mom."

Mia put down the pen immediately, with a cute face: "Okay."

Seeing that he was ready to walk next to the Murray family.

Mia made an innocent and curious look: "Mom, what is this!"

Mia's mom said, "Smoothies."

Mia opened her eyes wide and looked confused: "Smoothie? Something cool?"

Mia's mother smiled, feeling that her daughter is innocent and lovely.

Zion didn't lift his head, he sneered: "What are you pretending to do? Disgusting."

It was not loud, but Mia heard it.

She suddenly felt a little embarrassed. She, she is not pretending.

"Mother."

Mia's mother ignored her, but said enthusiastically to the Murray family: "Hello! I just made some smoothies and soaked them in the lake water through the pot. The temperature is just right. I'll bring you some!"

Craig said lightly: "Thank you, but we don't like sweet things."

Mia's mother said with a smile: "I just saw, a few children eat a lot of barbecue, and they may cough at night, so let's eat some!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Mia: “Mia, give Lulu and Susie some past.”

Mia responded crisply, took two bowls of smoothies with a spoon, and said like a big sister, “Susie and Lulu, I’ve prepared them for you!”

Alana watched and couldn’t help but roll her eyes.

What a scheming mother, nurturing and teaching day and night, also taught such a child.

“Mrs. Lambert, thank you. My family Paul also made herbal tea dessert, no trouble.”

Mia’s mother didn’t feel embarrassed at all, and said with a smile: “It’s okay. I’ll put it here, you can eat it if you want!”

While several adults were talking, Mia brought a bowl of smoothies to Susie who was eating barbecue.

“Here, Susie.” Mia smiled sweetly.

Susie stopped, shook her head and said, “I don’t want to.”

After speaking, he wiped his mouth with a tissue, got up and prepared to run to Alana.

As a result, Mia suddenly groaned and fell to the ground, spilling the bowl of smoothie in her hand on herself.

Susie froze for a moment.

Everyone heard the sound and looked over.

Mia’s eyes turned red, and she said aggrievedly, “Susie, why did you push me?”

Susie was full of doubts.

Chapter 44 Susie teaches you to be a man

Susie pursed her lips and looked at Mia.

Although Mia and Stacy looked different, she couldn’t be more familiar with this expression now.

Her Stacy was like this every time, and every time her father would turn around and scold her.

Obviously she didn’t do anything!

Susie said directly: "I didn't push you, you fell it yourself."

Mia bit her lip, wiped her eyes sadly, rubbing the eye circles red, and said, "You didn't mean it, it's all my fault."

Susie pursed her lips. If it were any other child, they might all be fooled and not know what happened. But Susie is all too familiar with this.

She looked at Alana and said, "Grandma, I really didn't push people. I just stood up after eating the barbecue, and then Mia suddenly fell down."

Alana hugged Susie and replied affirmatively: "It's okay, grandma believes that you didn't push people. Maybe others can't tell whether it was intentional or not careful!"

She looked at Mia pointedly.

Susie blinked, thoughtful.

Mia's mother said embarrassingly, "I didn't pay attention to the children's fights."

She tried to fool it with a child's play.

But the Murray family wasn't used to her at all.

Alana said coldly: "So what? What are you trying to express? Do you want our Susie to apologize to you?"

"Or do you want us to misunderstand Susie, think she is bad, and then think Mia is good? Presumptuous!"

They leave their own children alone, protect other children, and then blame Susie in turn?

Alana's words are not polite at all!

Mia's mother's face turned aside. This is not over yet, and other members of the Murray family have also spoken.

Martin said coldly: "The person who framed Susie like this last time is still in prison."

Craig said with a stern face: "If you don't teach it well now, it will be fine when you grow up!"

Ryan's tone was light: "What are you thinking? Playing this kind of trick. Isn't it embarrassing?"

There are so many people in the Murray family, each mouthful of saliva can drown people.

Mia's mother's ears were red.

The Murray family is too aggressive, right?!

She admits that Mia wanted to show off and be liked so much that she accidentally messed it up.

But Mia is still young, there is nothing wrong with her starting point, and it is not wrong for them to be so aggressive!

Mia's mother forced a smile on her face: "Sorry Alana! I'm sorry. Everyone calm down, calm down."

Mia on the side also shed tears as she spoke, crying and saying:

"I was wrong. It's Mia's fault no matter what, so don't be angry."

She was sobbing and didn't dare to cry loudly, but she still apologized sensibly.

It looks so pitiful that people can't bear to blame that kind of thing.

But everyone in the Murray family was very uncomfortable!

What do you mean no matter what?

Just apologizing and dragging Susie?!

At this moment, Susie suddenly came over with a bowl of smoothie, and walked towards Mia cautiously.

The Murray family looked complicated, thinking that Susie was kindhearted and wanted to reconcile with Mia.

Mrs. Lambert felt that she had found the steps, and quickly said, "Oh, it's really unnecessary."

Mia also wiped her tears, and said generously, "It's okay, Susie."

The voice did not fall.

The bowl of smoothie in Susie's hand fell on Mia.

The red string on the wrist flashed a faint red light, and the smoothie splashed out and splashed on Mia's face.

Mia's words stopped abruptly!

Susie said sternly: “Hey, this is what Susie did on purpose! Just now you were careless.”

“This is ‘deliberate’ and careless, can you tell the difference now?”

It turned out that Susie had listened to what Alana said just now.

So I feel the need to explain myself.

Micky often said that practical teaching is easier to remember than theoretical teaching!

People in Mia are dumb!

When she splashed it on herself just now, she splashed a little skirt, but fortunately, she didn’t feel anything.

Her clothes are soaking through her chest now, and no one has ever treated her like this before!

Mia lost control and said, “How could you do this!”

Holding the bowl, Susie blinked innocently: “I’m teaching you!”

The Murray family were stunned.

Susie has a serious face, her big eyes are so clear that she can see the reflections of everyone, she is really explaining to Mia what is meant by ‘intentional’ and what is meant by ‘careless’.

They were all stunned. But I have to say it was beautifully done!

A smile appeared on Alana’s face, children are good, they can do whatever they want!

The little princess of her Murray family should be like this!

Mia’s mother hurriedly wiped Mia’s face and skirt. Mia felt aggrieved and burst into tears!

She cried and accused: “How can you do this, even if you teach me, you can’t do this.”

Susie saw that she was really crying this time, very sad and pitiful.

She just said, “I’m sorry!”

But she still felt that she was right.

I believe that in the future Mia will be able to distinguish what is intentional and what is careless.

Susie apologized, but Mia's mother couldn't blame her even if she wanted

She was a little annoyed in her heart, but she still had to force a smile, and said while patting Mia on the back, "It's okay. It's normal for children. Today we fight and tomorrow we are still good friends, right?"

Susie hesitated for a moment and said, "No, I don't want to be friends with her tomorrow either."

Mia's mother was speechless.

She looked at Alana with a stiff smile: "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry. Then I'll take Mia to change first."

Mia's mother hurried away with Mia.

How elegant she was when she first came, but how embarrassed she is now.

Mia clenched her fists tightly. Having never lost before, she was humiliated by Susie one after another, and she only felt that she hated Susie even more.

Susie looked at the back of Mia's mother, then at Alana.

She whispered, "Grandma, I really don't want to be friends with Mia."

Susie is not sure if this is good, will it cause trouble for grandma?

Alana took Susie's hand and gave her affirmation: "If you don't want to be friends with her, don't do it. We don't need to wrong ourselves to accommodate others. Susie did a great job today!"

Susie's eyes suddenly lit up, and she was so happy that she hugged Alana and kissed her.

Susie's voice was crisp and soft: "Thank you grandma!"

Alana's heart was broken, and looking at Susie, she felt that no matter how much she loved her, she couldn't cherish her enough.

"Let's go, I'll take you to pick raspberries!" The old man said happily like a child.

Seeing this scene, the Murray family felt relieved.

After Clara disappeared, Alana couldn't eat or sleep, and was so depressed that she couldn't support her body.

It wasn't long after Susie came that the color came back to her face.

Seeing the joy of the old and the young, I couldn't bear to disturb them.

Susie followed Alana to the woods and asked curiously, "Grandma, what is a raspberry?"

Alana said cheerfully, "It's a kind of wild fruit. My grandma was still in the countryside when she was a child. She often picked it and ate it. It's so sweet."

Susie's eyes lit up as soon as she heard 'it's so sweet'.

"Hurry up, grandma, hurry up!"

Susie dragged her hand, and immediately felt that it was wrong to hold her hand, and ran behind her to help her push the wheelchair.

Alana couldn't help laughing.

It's a pity that her legs can't stand up, otherwise it would be great to run on the grass with Susie.

Susie pushed Alana and soon reached the edge of the woods.

"Grandma, where are the raspberries?" Susie looked around.

Alana pointed to the bushes ahead: "Raspberries are usually hidden in the bushes, let's look for them!"

Suddenly, Alex, who was flying in front, flew up and threw himself into Susie's arms!

"There are little ghosts! There are little ghosts!"

The parrot screamed, flapping its wings in a panic.

The setting sun had already set on the top of the mountain, and the temperature of the lawn by the lake dropped and became a bit gloomy.

Alana didn't know why, but she couldn't help feeling nervous.

Chapter 45 Let's go back

Alana said decisively: "Susie, let's go back."

When Susie heard ghosts, she was not afraid at all.

Micky likes ghosts best.

Seeing Mitch drifting forward, Susie ran after her and said, “Grandma, just wait here for me!”

Alana looked at it, is it okay?

“Susie!” She chased after anxiously, while taking out her mobile phone to call Martin.

After crossing the border of the forest, it felt like the sky was getting dark.

Alana saw Susie in front just now, but she disappeared in the blink of an eye.

She was alone in the empty woods, and an unknown bird flew by, scaring Alana almost to tears.

“Susie! Susie!”

Alana yelled.

Suddenly the bushes rattled, and she looked nervously, only to see Susie came out with a ‘little ghost’ on her back..

The kid was covered in blood, and his drooping hands were black.

The clothes were still wet, and the hair was all covering the face.

It was really easy for Susie to carry him, so what Alana saw was the ‘little devil’ lightly stacked on Susie’s back.

“Susie.” Alana clutched her chest, her voice trembling.

Susie looked up in a daze, only to realize that Alana had also come in with a frightened look on her face.

She immediately dropped the ‘little ghost’ behind her, and the ‘little ghost’ hit the ground and let out a muffled groan.

Susie ignored the kid and ran over to hug Alana.

Alana thought she was scared, and was about to comfort her, but Susie coaxed her: “Grandma, be good, don’t be afraid! I’m here!”

Alana didn't feel anything at first, but when Susie did this, her eyes turned red.

"Susie, don't leave me behind!" Alana hugged her and said with sobs.

She was really scared, afraid that something might happen to Susie.

Susie blamed herself even more, and patted Alana: "It's my fault! Grandma, I'm sorry."

She promised her mother to take good care of grandma, but she left grandma behind just now.

When Martin arrived in a hurry, he saw two people hugging each other, the old and the young were still crying.

"What's going on?!" He hurried forward, and suddenly found the 'little devil' not far away, immediately protecting Alana and Susie.

The rest of the Murray family followed.

The parrot stood on a branch not far away, flapping its wings and quacking: "There are little ghosts, there are little ghosts!"

Martin squinted his eyes, stepped forward, poked the kid on the ground with his toes, and turned him over.

But I saw that it was not a brat, but a child.

"It's a little boy." Martin said, "Don't be afraid."

Alana grabbed Susie's hand and asked, "Little boy? Is he dead?"

Susie shook her head: "Not dead."

Just now she thought there was a ghost, but when she ran over to see it, it was a little boy.

Mitch said he wanted to save people, so she recited him, which scared grandma unexpectedly.

Martin knelt down, felt the little boy's pulse, and said, "It's true that he's not dead."

Michael frowned, "How can there be a child in this woods."

The brothers of the Murray family looked at the child on the ground. After all, they were not dead, so they tried to rescue them.

Ryan went up to check his breathing and pulse, and Michael called 911.

Mitch floats by, happy.

“Look, I only taught you medical skills in the morning, and now I have a practical case.” He said: “His case is very classic! I will teach you how to save it later.”

At this time Ryan said: “Okay, take him back first.”

Susie quickly asked, “Is he alive?”

Ryan picked up the little boy and said, “Still unconscious, but breathing and heartbeat are stable.”

A group of people walked towards the tent, waiting for the police car and ambulance to come. In this wilderness, no matter how good his medical skills are, Ryan can't see if there are internal injuries in the little boy.

It was getting dark, and the Mia family in the distance couldn't help being surprised when they saw a group of Murray family members coming back with flashlights holding something.

“What is it?” Mia's mother muttered.

Mia's dad said, “Looks like a kid.”

Mia's mother asked curiously. In the dark, they didn't see Susie sitting in the wheelchair with Alana, so they hurriedly asked, “Is something wrong with Susie?”

If so. That's great.

Mia's mother turned her eyes and said, “I'll go and have a look.”

Mia's father stopped her: “Don't think you have caused enough trouble? I'll go over there, you stay here.”

If something really happened to Susie of the Murray family, they'd have to check it out anyway.

Mia's dad walked by.

Mia stretched her neck, and Mia's mother couldn't see it, and she couldn't see it even more. But when she thought that something might have happened to Susie, she couldn't help being happy from the bottom of her heart.

But she also made a worried expression: “Mommy, is Susie okay?”

Mia's mother said, “It should be fine.”

I don't know how long I waited, but Mia's father came back in a hurry.

He whispered, "It's not Susie, it's another little boy! The clothes on that kid belong to Sdnchv."

Mia's mother was taken aback: "Sdnchv's? That child shouldn't be. Stevenson family."

Sdnchy has stopped making clothes for outsiders in recent years, and only focuses on making clothes for some big families.

They serve some nobles abroad, and only serve the Murray family, Stevenson family and Morton family in China.

Several of the Murray family's children are here, and the Morton family has no children, so the child must be from the Stevenson family.

The couple looked at each other, their eyes sparkling with excitement.

The Stevenson family's son was kidnapped.

The Stevenson family searched for a few days but couldn't find it. If they reported to the Stevenson family first, they said they had found it.

Chapter 46 Stevenson family young master

Mia's mother immediately said: "We will contact the Stevenson family now, saying that we have found the little prince!"

Mia's father said: "Are you stupid! Take credit from the Murray family?"

People who were discovered by the Murray family, they went to claim credit for their work, are they treating the Murray family and the Stevenson family as fools?

Mia's mother asked anxiously, "What should I do then?"

The Stevenson family and the Murray family are two of the Big Three in Los Angeles, and their families have a deep heritage. Compared with these two, their Lambert family is like a small fish and a giant shark.

Now they have a chance to curry favor, and they will feel bad if they can't do something.

Mia's father pondered and said, "Yes!"

In the past few days, the Stevenson family has been looking for the young master, and a phone number has been half-published.

Mia's father called and looked anxious: "Hello, Mr. Stevenson."

“I’m Jason Lambert. It’s like this. The little princess of the Murray family found your son while playing. Mr. Murray asked me to call you.”

After hanging up the phone, Mia’s mother couldn’t help admiring:

“Husband, you are so smart! This is a good rhetoric, and it will please the two families at once!”

Mia’s dad is smug.

Mia at the side felt that she had learned something again.

In the Murray family’s tent.

Ryan washed and changed the little boy’s face and finally got a good look at his face.

With a serious expression on his face, he dragged Martin outside.

Susie lay prone on the edge of the air mattress, staring at the little boy on the bed.

At this time Mitch is teaching Susie to save lives.

He was afraid that Susie would ask a lot of questions, so he immediately said a long spell. Mitch asked Susie after reading it in one breath, “Remember?”

Susie nodded affirmatively, “Remember!”

Mitch applauded, he is indeed a talented little guy.

“Then you recite it again.” He said: “The spell is a bit difficult to remember.”

Susie nodded, it’s not hard to remember!

What the hell!

The pronunciation is indeed similar, but how can this work!

As soon as he thought about it, Mitch felt the air around him faintly flowing-Susie’s spell really worked

The corner of Mitch’s mouth twitched.

On the side, Alana only listened to Susie muttering. Her eyes changed slightly, and she couldn’t help worrying.

Susie would often talk to herself into the air, or speak to Alex.

Occasionally I will mention Micky.

Alana didn't know why she always felt flustered.

She smiled calmly and asked, "What are you doing?"

Susie said, "I'm saving the children."-

Alana froze for a moment and became even more worried.

"Susie, can you tell me, who are you talking to?"

After a child suffered tragic abuse in childhood, he will split into another personality and see 'another little partner', which is a mental illness.

Susie nodded and said, "I'm talking to Mitch!"

Mitch said, "Cough. Susie, did I say not to mention me to others?"

Susie looked confused: "But grandma is not someone else."

Seeing Susie talking to herself again, Alana's heart sank.

Poor Susie, is she really mentally ill?

"Hey, now you have grandma, grandpa, and uncles. You're safe."

Alana was distressed and worried. She checked Susie's body some time ago, but she didn't have a mental health check.

She'll have to talk to them later!

Alana not only said, but also insisted on taking Susie away.

She suspected that Susie's 'onset' was caused by seeing the little boy covered in blood and awakening her bad memories from the past.

Susie struggled and said, "Grandma, wait, I have to save the children!"

Her eyes were full of doubts.

It's all right, what's wrong with grandma.

Alana said: "Don't worry, Susie, look, the doctor and the police are all here."

Susie looked up, and sure enough, she saw a few cars with flashing police lights coming in the distance, besides a few black cars.

It was the Stevenson family.

The Stevenson family looked anxious. Mia's parents had been waiting by the side of the road early in the morning, and said quickly, "Over there."

The two looked anxious, as if they were also participants.

But for some reason, the Stevenson family didn't even look at the two of them, and went directly to the Murray family tent.

Mia's father and Mia's mother looked awkward, always feeling a little ashamed.

Mia's mother said, "Why are you ignoring us?"

Mia's father said: "It should be anxious, it's okay, we will have a reason to visit the young master later."

"Now that the Murray family is over there, it's not easy for us to get over it, and it's easy to reveal our secrets."

The two whispered and went back to their camp.

A man with a cold and serious face walked up to the Murray family tent.

Susie was looking at the people in front of her curiously.

She asked quietly, "Micky, why is there a yellow light on them?"

Especially the middle-aged man in the lead, who almost blinded her little eyes.

Mitch explained: "These are people who have built their own merits. They have made a huge contribution, and they have been blessed with gold."

Susie understood, and asked again: "Then why is there still black death energy in the golden light?"

After studying for a period of time, Susie also got to know the air of death, just like Aunt Mara, who had a life on her hands, so she has the air of death on her body.

The uncle in front of him was both shining and lifeless, so strange.

Mitch said: "Because he also killed people, but he killed the bad guys."

Therefore, the tainted death energy could not get close, and was blocked by the golden light.

Susie suddenly realized. It means that the uncle in front of him is a good guy, the kind who specializes in beating bad guys.

At this moment, the middle-aged man had already walked over.

Rocky's face was stern, and children would often cry because of his fierce face, but the little girl in front of him not only didn't cry, but even grinned at him.

Susie greeted happily.

Rocky Stevenson gave a slight pause.

Chapter 47 Why me

Rocky has never seen her like this before, and her eyebrows and eyes always make him feel inexplicably familiar.

Rocky returned to his senses, nodded and said: "Hello." After a pause, he asked again: "You carried Ledger back?"

Susie nodded.

He looked at Susie in front of him with a flushed face, a little baby fat, big clear and bright eyes, and she nodded fiercely when she spoke, so cute.

Rocky couldn't help but take another look.

"Thank you, I will bring Ledger to thank you in person later." Although he is a child, Rocky still has a serious expression on his face.

A few men in black behind him entered the tent, and quickly carried the unconscious little boy out.

Rocky nodded to Martin, and was about to leave when Susie suddenly became anxious: "Uncle, you can't leave."

Susie was about to say something, but Mitch hurriedly told her a few words, and she just read it: "He's very sick, if he can't wake up, uncle must come to me."

Rocky nodded casually.

Obviously didn't listen to this sentence.

A four-year-old child, what can he do with her?

If Ledger really can't be saved, can she still save him?

Rocky walks away with Ledger.

Susie looked at the leaving convoy, her little face still couldn't help worrying.

Alana said: "Okay, let's go back too!"

Originally, I wanted to spend the night in the Wetland Park and take Susie to experience camping, the sky at night and the dewdrops in the morning.

But now that this happened, Alana always felt a little worried, thinking that Ledger would be kidnapped. Decided to go back first.

After discussing with the Murray family, they quickly packed their things and went back to the Murray family manor overnight.

Susie had already fallen asleep on the way.

The Mia family waited until the Murray family and Stevenson family were gone, and they packed up their things and left.

Mia's mother looked envious: "Hey, did you see that Susie just now! Mr. Stevenson actually smiled at her. I don't know where she got the good luck to meet the unconscious young master!"

Mia's father said: "Yes! The Stevenson family is different from the Murray family. The Murray family has three boys, and the Stevenson family has only one boy, Ledger. Hey, whoever can be married by Ledger in the future will be called luck."

Mia leaned on the safety seat and pretended to sleep, firmly remembering her parents' words in her heart.

She was very unbalanced in her heart, and she didn't know why Susie always had such good luck!

If she was also born in the Murray family, she would be so lucky.

Susie slept soundly and deeply.

In the dream, she actually dreamed of the 'little ghost' who was carried back by her.

'Little Ghost' was bloodied and stared at her blankly.

Susie woke up with a jolt.

She ran downstairs barefoot and shouted, "Grandma!"

Alana looked at it and said quickly, "Are you up? Why don't you wear shoes!"

Martin went to the company, and David and Michael went to the police station to deal with some follow-up matters.

The others went nowhere, only Jonathan was wearing a casual T-shirt and jeans, drinking coffee at the dining table.

He glanced at Susie's little feet and said, "Come here."

Susie was picked up by Jonathan and placed on a chair beside her.

Susie asked Alana: "Grandma, did the little boy wake up yesterday?"

Alana said: "I don't know yet. Wait, I'll call and ask."

Susie nodded.

Jonathan leaned back in the seat, pushed his gold-rimmed glasses, and chuckled, "Little guy, do you care about me so much?"

The baby he just got back from the Murray family is going to be tricked by other kids?

Susie looked at the uncle in front of her.

Uncle looks really good-looking, but he looks like a bad guy when he smiles!

She dreamed of the little boy and wondered if he was dead.

Jonathan chuckled, picked up the milk jug beside him casually, and poured a glass of milk for Susie.

Pushing a bowl of high soup noodles in front of him, he picked up a piece of bread.

"Have a meal."

His slender fingers tapped lightly on the table, signaling Susie to eat quickly.

Susie grumbled, she was really hungry, so she picked up a piece of bread and took a bite.

At this time Alana came back and said, "Susie, I called just now, and they said that Ledger is still awake."

Alana sighed softly.

More than just not waking up, I heard that he had apnea this morning and was sent to the emergency room.

On the other side, the top floor of a private hospital.

Rocky stood straight outside the emergency room door, pursing his lips and looking outside.

A woman was sitting next to him, she stood up after a while, and paced back and forth in front of the emergency room.

It was Ledger's mom, Lottie Miles.

Rocky paused for a moment, and comforted him a little strangely: "Don't worry, it's fine."

Lottie said angrily, "It was my son who was rescued inside, so why don't I worry?"

Rocky silently touched his nose.

At this time, the door of the operating room opened, and the doctor came out with serious eyes.

"Mr. Stevenson, we did our best."

Lottie's feet were weak, and Rocky immediately supported her, and couldn't help but put her in his arms.

Lottie asked tremblingly, "Impossible."

The doctor shook his head: "Please also prepare yourself mentally."

When it was first delivered, the examination showed excessive blood loss, and they had already given blood transfusion.

But I don't know why, although all the indicators have become normal, his breathing is getting weaker and weaker!

"We have done everything we can to check, but we can't find any reason. His face is black and blue, and he looks poisoned, but the test results show that he is not poisoned either."

"There is still weight loss for no reason. It was still 30kg when it was delivered last night, but it was only 25kg just now."

Lost 10 catties overnight, they pulled out all their hair and couldn't find out the reason!

Simply unheard of, never seen such a situation.

"If you don't want him to suffer, I suggest you take it home."

The doctor didn't want to say this, but he knew that the child would never be rescued.

Instead of being stuck with tubes all over your body and suffering, it's better to go back and walk clean.

Lottie burst into tears.

Rocky pursed his lips, Susie suddenly appeared in his mind.

Rocky seemed to have made up his mind, and said, "Go, take Ledger back!"

Lottie was completely hopeless.

Chapter 48 Find Susie and Rescue Ledger

The little boy was pushed out of the operating room.

His face was dark and his cheeks were sunken. He didn't look like a six or seven-year-old child at all.

Lottie choked up, "Ledger, Mommy will take you home."

If you don't rescue him, don't rescue him. Think about such a small person, with tubes all over his body, lying alone in the emergency room.

Really suffer.

The car drove out, and Rocky's car turned a corner, heading towards the Murray family.

Lottie hugged Ledger with a dead face, not even looking where the car drove.

Until a call came in, Rocky pressed the answer button, and Ravi's distraught voice came:

"Where did you take Ledger?!"

Rocky said calmly: "The doctor said Ledger can't be saved, I'll take him to the Murray family."

He said what Susie told him yesterday.

Ledger's grandma was even angrier after hearing what Rocky said: "What's the use of you looking for a little girl? What does a child know?] found a master, and bring Ledger back!"

Rocky frowned, his mother had looked for many masters, but in the end they all found out that those masters were deceitful.

Rocky said, “No need.”

Lottie beside the old lady’s loud voice could hear:

“No need! I told you to come back, did you hear that? This time I’m looking for Master Brien. No one else can ask for it. You don’t believe in Master Brien, you trust that little girl!”

Rocky said lightly: “Hang up

After that, he hung up the phone.

Lottie hugged Ledger tightly and asked, “Shall we go find Susie?”

Rocky asked her: “Do you trust her?”

If she doesn’t believe it. Then he turns the car around and takes Ledger home.

But she didn’t want to, Lottie said firmly: “I believe it!”

Just because the Ledger was carried back by the little girl.

Just because Ledger hadn’t shown signs of depression yesterday, Susie said she would go back to her.

On the other end, Ravi hung up the phone, so angry that he was about to vomit blood.

“Master Brien, look. Can you come with me to the Murray family?”

Next to Ravi, the old man politely refused.

She anxiously and helplessly relayed what Rocky said just now.

Only then did Master Brien say: “Okay.”

Ravi gratefully took Master Brien and rushed to the Murray family.

After Susie finished her breakfast, she kept looking out the door, absent- minded.

“Mitch, do you think that little boy is okay?”

The dream this morning really worried her too much. The ‘little ghost’ in the dream was silent and just stared at her like this.

Susie thought, if the 'little ghost' really died, would it become a ghost, staring at her every day in her dreams.

Mitch sat cross-legged and said casually:

“Want to know? Mitch taught you divination. Remember what Mitch taught you yesterday?”

Susie: “Remember.”

Mitch glances at her suspiciously.

Yesterday he fell asleep before he finished teaching her, remember what a fart.

He slowly taught Susie the basics, and Susie listened carefully, and Mitch didn't know if she understood or not.

“Now come and see for yourself, how is Ledger?”

Susie immediately turned her head to look left and right, but Susie squatted in front of the flower pot and said seriously, “Mmm, that's it.”

Mitch's mouth twitched: “What?”

Susie: “He's not dead yet, he's coming towards us!”

“There's an old liar. He's going to suffer! He might die.”

Susie: “Yeah! There's a reversal!”

Mitch's mouth twitches.

What? She has a reversal right now?

Mitch suddenly snorted and looked at Susie in astonishment.

Is it really what she said?

At this moment, the sound of a car engine came from outside the Murray family estate.

Susie stood up, patted her little butt, and ran outside.

The voices of Craig and Alana came faintly: “Mr. Stevenson. How is Ledger?”

“Susie is here, Ada goes to call Susie.”

Susie ran fast: “Grandma, I'm coming!”

Alana quickly supported her: “Slow down, why did you run out so quickly?”

Susie looked at Rocky, and the woman next to him holding Ledger.

The moment Lottie saw Susie, he felt like he was grasping at straws.

“Susie, please save Ledger.”

Lottie is completely panicked, Ledger is in her arms, and has not moved at all!

Susie ran into the house and said, “Come in!”

Rocky took the Ledger and followed Susie quickly.

Alana and Craig followed quickly.

When Susie entered the house, she ran to the kitchen, Mitch said, looking for a basin and Ledger’s clothes.

Ada hurriedly asked, “What are you looking for?”

Susie said: “I want to find an iron basin and a piece of clothing from Ledger.”

While speaking, she looked at Ledger.

A light appeared above his head.

Susie was taken aback, and asked quietly, “Mitch, what’s that on his head?”

Mitch said: “Before a person dies, this will appear on the top of his head. If the light goes out, the person will die.”

This kid, really can’t survive?

Chapter 49 The Bet

Susie only heard Mitch’s words: people die when light dies.

She was in a hurry and kept urging the adults to hurry up, trying to rescue Ledger before the light on Ledger’s head burned out.

Everything was finally ready. Just as Susie was about to start, a panting voice suddenly came from the door: “Stop!”

When Ravi arrived, he saw Ledger lying on the ground with a little girl preparing to cast a spell next to him, and he got angry immediately!

“Nonsense! What nonsense!”

Ravi was so angry that he took the crutch in his hand and directly knocked out what Susie was holding!

This scene happened so fast that everyone didn't recover, let alone that Ravi would hit someone with a cane.

Susie was hit on the back of her hand, she withdrew her hand in pain, and the things scattered all over the floor.

The back of my hand is red!

Susie burst into tears from the pain.

Lottie got anxious and said angrily, "Mom! What are you doing!"

She rushed up and stopped in front of Susie!

Rocky said coldly: "Get out!"

Behind Ravi, followed closely by Martin and an old man.

It turned out that when Ravi arrived, he happened to meet Martin who was coming back, so he came in unimpeded.

When Martin saw Ravi hit Susie with a cane, his face sank!

"I let you in because your grandson is here, not for you to beat Susie!"

Ravi was scolded by Martin, a young man, feeling uncomfortable in his heart, and impatient with Ledger, pretending he didn't hear it.

"Master Brien, hurry up, Ledger is here!"

Martin looked cold, and asked Ada to get the medicine box first.

Alana is very angry!

The Murray family is also unwilling to suffer at all!

"I asked you to apologize to my Susie!" Alana kicked up and kicked the slippers on her feet, hitting Ravi in the face.

She didn't expect to be so accurate, and everyone froze for a moment.

Ravi was slapped by the slipper and almost died of anger. What is the Murray family fussing about over such a trivial matter?

"You, Rocky, take Ledger and let's go!"

Who cares about being in the Murray family!

If her grandson wasn't here, she wouldn't have come.

Who knew that Rocky grabbed her by the collar and pulled it out, saying coldly, "You go!"

Ravi was so anxious that he lay down on the ground and said loudly: "Okay, very good! Come here! If you dare to drive me away today, don't recognize me as a mother!"

Ravi is making a lot of noise!

At this time, Master Brien shook his head with an inscrutable expression, and suddenly said, "It's too late.

Susie was also holding Rocky's hand, anxiously said: "Uncle, if you don't save him, it will be too late."

Master Brien frowned and glanced at Susie.

He said it was too late and she said it was too late, shameless at a young age.

As soon as Ravi heard it was too late, he hurriedly urged: "Master, please, save my grandson!"

Regardless of Rocky and Lottie's objections, she threatened with her own life and hugged Rocky and Lottie's feet to buy time for Master Brien.

Master Brien let out a long sigh: "For the sake of being so pitiful, I'll help you!"

Ravi was grateful and felt that his grandson was finally saved.

Master Brien was quick.

Mitch's mouth twitched at the sight of his movement.

Susie got a little angry and said loudly, "He's a liar!"

Ravi stared: "What do children know? Shut up!"

If the master can't save it, it's even more impossible for the little girl to be saved.

Who does she think she is, young, compared to a master like me?

Master Brien also said coldly: "The young master will wake up in five minutes."

Susie said: “He won’t wake up, what you did is useless.”

Alana didn’t want to get involved either.

Don’t worry about me, Susie has done enough.

“Susie, let’s go! Let them figure it out.”

Tears welled up in Susie’s eyes.

The world of children is very pure. When a small animal dies, they will be sad for a long time. It is difficult for them to accept the death of a “little friend”, let alone a person in front of them.

Susie looked at Lottie, looked at Rocky.

Lottie went all out!

She picked up Ravi on the ground and walked outside!

Ravi reprimanded angrily, and Lottie threw her out the door, and said angrily, “I’ve had enough of you! I’ll just leave my words here today, my son is in charge!”

Ravi’s chest rose and fell sharply, and his eyes turned black with anger. I was angry and wronged in my heart.

That’s her grandson too! She is wholeheartedly for the good of her grandson, what is wrong?

“You really want to see Ledger die!” Ravi cried.

Inside, Rocky also looked at Master Brien coldly: “You go out by yourself, or I invite you!”

Master Brien’s face was ugly!

“Hmph.” He snorted coldly.

Ravi cried in despair: “You are trying to kill Ledger! You are trying to kill my grandson.”

Rocky said coldly: “I believe Susie will save Ledger!”

Master Brien wanted to roll his eyes, trusting a brat, he thought they were crazy!

At this time, Martin looked at the time and said lightly, “Five minutes are up.”

Alana raised her eyebrows and said sarcastically, “Master, didn’t you say that people must wake up in five minutes?”

Master Brien's face changed instantly, and after seeing Susie's movements, "Nonsense!" Master Brien reprimanded with a straight face.

What he hates the most in his life is someone like Susie who pretends to know!

The disciple behind Master Brien was also indignant, and couldn't help saying: "That's right! That's it? If she can save Ledger, I'll eat shit on my head!"

Before the words were finished, something in the brazier suddenly made Master Brien's face stiff, and Wind's words stopped abruptly.

84 85%

Chapter 50 Yes, sure

This scene is too weird!

Only Susie, with a smile on her face, waved her hand at the little shirt, go back!" and said in a childlike voice, "Hurry up and go

The little shirt in the brazier suddenly fell again, fell into the brazier and burned.

Ledger, who was lying on the ground, moved his fingers imperceptibly.

Mitch quickly took out the notebook and flipped through it with a big head.

He was not mistaken, the light above his head was indeed dimmed, why did he come back again?

The crowd held their breath and stared at Ledger.

But after waiting for a long time but did not see Ledger wake up, Lottie collapsed on the ground, crying silently.

Master Brien breathed a sigh of relief, and said with a sneer: "Look? I'm really speechless. You can believe a child, it's a waste of time! If you just gave it to me, maybe everyone will be saved!"

After hearing his words, Ravi outside the door finally couldn't help rushing in, howling loudly:

"It's all you! You didn't listen to me! You killed my grandson!"

As she said, she grabbed the cane and threw it at Susie: "You pay for my grandson's life! You killed my grandson! I want you to be buried with my grandson!"

Subconsciously, Susie lifted her foot and kicked the crutch back, which hit Ravi on the head.

Ravi even cried and cursed.

Martin's face was cold, and he was about to ask the bodyguard to throw Ravi out!

Rocky yelled sharply, "Shut up!"

Ravi was taken aback, and then cried again: "How dare you kill me! The grandson is gone, and the son is not filial."

Master Brien stood aside, listening to the noise, feeling very satisfied from the bottom of his heart!

That's how it should be, who told them not to believe him?

What a joke, how could a brat save someone he couldn't even save!

If Susie really rescued Ledger, where would his face be when word got out!

At this moment, a faint voice sounded: "It's so noisy."

The cold and arrogant expression on Master Brien's face suddenly froze, and he looked aside in disbelief.

I saw Ledger supporting his body and sitting up weakly!

Susie said happily, "You're alive!"

Susie suddenly felt that Mitch was very powerful. It turned out that not everything Mitch taught was something that would be caught!

Lottie was stunned for a long time, trembling all over, eyes wide open, afraid that it was her own hallucination.

"Ledger. Ledger!" Trembling, Lottie touched Ledger's face.

Ledger tilted his head, the little guy didn't seem to like being touched by others, not even his own mother.

He has a cool expression, cold and cute, just like his father.

Ledger pursed his lips, looked around, and his eyes fell on Susie.

"Who are you?" he asked.

Susie smiled and said, "My name is Susie."

Ledger silently remembered her name – Susie.

Lottie choked up, “Susie, thank you.”

Ravi regained his senses from the astonishment, and crawled towards Ledger tremblingly: “My grandson, my good grandson! You are awake! As expected of my grandson, you are blessed with great fortune.”

The Murray family on the side sneered.

Martin said with a cold face: “Colt, see off!”

Rocky glanced at Ravi and said to Martin, “Sorry, I’ll take care of the housework when I get back.”

He didn’t say much, because he knew it would be useless to talk too much.

The Murray family is really angry.

Due to work reasons, Rocky has been on the front line all year round, and rarely pays attention to family affairs.

I didn’t know that my mother would be such a messy person, and for a while, I thought of Lottie’s neglect of me, and my heart was complicated.

“We will come to the door some other day to thank you!” Rocky said simply, then looked at Susie.

His eyes couldn’t help being soft, and he raised his hand to stroke Susie’s head.

“If Susie needs help with anything in the future, she can come to her uncle at any time.” Rocky paused: “No matter what!”

Lottie also wiped away tears and said, “Susie, thank you.”

The little guy had no idea how much he had done and how much he had received from the Stevenson family.

She just felt happy, waved her hand and said, “You’re welcome!”

Everyone couldn’t help laughing, even the stern-faced Martin couldn’t help softening his expression.

Rocky left with his family.

Master Brien was severely slapped in the face, and felt extremely ashamed, so he didn't say a word from the beginning to the end.

Seeing that the Stevenson family wanted to leave, they naturally followed suit.

Susie suddenly snorted: "I seem to have heard that someone said that you need to eat ten catties of shit."

Master Brien's face was as black as a pot, staring at Susie, with a look of reprimand from the elders: "You are so unreasonable at such a young age, do you really think you saved him?"

After finishing speaking, he hummed and left very unhappy.

Susie's face was strenuous, and her eyes were full of doubts.

She saved it! Otherwise, could they have saved him?

Susie finally knew why the police uncle wanted to arrest them.

The sky outside gradually cleared up, and the cold feeling in the living room disappeared.

Martin looked at Susie with a complicated expression.

Ledger was still weak, and Rocky held him with one arm and put him in the car.

Ravi hurriedly pushed Lottie away, wanting to follow.

Unexpectedly, Rocky rested his palm on the car door and looked at her coldly.

"I see that my mother is very healthy. I will clean up tomorrow and go back to my hometown!"

Ravi froze.

Rocky put an arm around Lottie's waist and led her into the car, closing the door.

The car sped away, leaving Ravi staring blankly.

Ravi was so angry that he saw Master Brien standing behind him, and quickly said, "Oh, let the master see the joke!"

Master Brien said lightly: "It's okay."

Ravi said: "Please get in the car."

Master Brien said, “No need.”

After all, he walked out on his own.

His apprentice, Wind, looked at Ravi and said loudly: “You Stevenson family are not being polite this time!”

“Do you think that little girl from the Murray family is really capable of rescuing your grandson?”

Ravi was taken aback: “What do you mean?”
