

Eight Uncles 103

Chapter 103 I'll Deal With Anyone Who Provoked My Family

Everyone was frightened by this sudden change. Nobody expected a black SUV to rush into a birthday banquet, so they could not react.

Blake looked at a figure in the crowd.

Lilly was wearing a white dress with two small braids. She had big eyes and looked cute.

When he saw her from a distance, she glared at the person blocking the way in anger. She was full of guard like a little beast as if she could throw someone away.

Heh, she's funny.

Lilly was also looking at Blake. Is he my Battle Daddy?

She struggled to raise her head and found Blake was tall, even taller than Anthony. She wondered if Blake would hit the door frame when he entered, and she suddenly wanted to see that scene.

The other people who were stunned came back to their senses.

A guest, who the MacNeil family regarded as VIP, hurried over to Blake and greeted respectfully, "Chief MacNeil!"

Everyone was in an uproar. God of Battle was here! The man who guarded Dudroinia, a hero respected by big shots!

Only then did Giuliana come to her senses. She strode forward excitedly with her cane and exaggeratedly shouted, "My dear grandson! You're finally back!"

Jerome was also excited with relief. "It's good to be back! Your grandma has been looking forward to you for a long time. She was restless when you didn't come back from the mission. She couldn't eat or sleep well..."

Giuliana wiped away her tears. "You've grown up! It's been more than ten years since you left, and I still remember when you were a child, I hugged and coaxed you..."

Tristan greeted him warmly, "Blake, you're back! Since you said you would celebrate Grandma's birthday and surprise Grandma, we've been looking forward to your return!"

They even I specially displayed this vase eyes flickered slightly. Isn't the Crawford family wealthy? I'll cheat them a few on both sides a pity." He threw him out. With a loud bang, Kevin knocked down several flower stands. The antique vases on the could not help but open on the ground in the yard. He coughed and spat out a mouthful of blood while Blake..." Kevin was horrified. Why Giuliana were also stunned, then subconsciously shouted, "No! he
