

Eight Uncles 1081

Chapter 1081

King of Cities' fingertips were like five sharp blades directly aimed at Blake's abdomen.

The weakest spot is his abdomen!

He tried to gut Blake.

The parents of this little brat cannot die so easily. He wanted to let him watch his parents covered in blood with their intestines flowing out...

It would definitely hurt this little brat's heart!

He wanted to kill them and left a nightmare on this little brat.

In case she left a way out...

He made her remember that moment forever. She couldn't escape from failure.

A cruel smile appeared on the face of the King of Cities. He slashed it fiercely!

The King of Cities felt a shock in his wrist. His hand almost broke.

His face appeared unbelievably.

How could a mortal body be so assertive?

Blake looked at him without expression and said, "You're brave."

He released all his power learned from the ice pond. In an instant, The king of Cities was forced to retreat!

The immense pressure crushed the King of Cities. He was forced to kneel down!

Chapter 1082

King of Cities was secretly glad that no other ghost had what he said.
Suddenly, Lilly said, "Did you mention that you would kill yourself if someone saved me this time?"
King of Cities was shocked.
No way! How did she know it?
Lilly smiled and said, "Do you wonder how I know it? Unfortunately, I won't tell you."
Then, she shouted childishly, "Eighty!"
King of Cities was startled. Lilly wasn't joking this time.
The purple sledgehammer crashed down like a titan and aimed toward his head!

He instinctively reacted and tried to fight back.

However, he saw Blake's eyes slightly squinted...

He lifted his hand, which was originally peeling sweet potatoes.

King of Cities was speechless.

He forcibly took a hit and nearly spat out blood.

Lilly said with dissatisfaction, "No, you have to resist."

King of Cities instantly turned angry. Who did she think she was?

But he saw Blake's gaze.

King of Cities couldn't help but pick up his sword and said resentfully, "Alright..."

Lilly instantly swung the purple sledgehammer toward King of Cities!

In Madame Maya's Courtyard.

Lilly asked, "Daddy, why didn't we lock the King of Cities in the Hell Ruler Palace?"

Blake shook his head and said, "You'll never know how he will fight back."

If they had really locked the King of Cities up, he would have done anything to fight back.

Blake already used all his power only to stop the King of Cities...

He felt like bursting out from spirit energy since he hadn't used the elixir field.

But now, he felt exhausted.

He had to find a way to upgrade a second time in a quick manner.

King of Cities was not ordinary too.

Blake said, "Let's leave today."

Lilly was confused.

Jean was dazed and instinctively asked, "Shall I leave too?"

Pablo shook his head and said, "You had registered in the Book of Reincarnation. You cannot return."

Pablo couldn't figure out what was happening even though he was the judge in charge of Jean's reincarnation.

Jean had been here for a while and even treated Madame Maya's soup as plain water.

The next moment, Lilly ran over to Madame Maya and said, "Granny Madame, let me help you!"

Madame Maya turned speechless.

They were just odd...

However, she was Little Hades. How could Madame Maya dare to reject her?

Madame Maya said, "Alright, I'll rest for a moment."

Lilly immediately said, "Thank you, Granny Madame!"

Then, she turned her head and looked at Elsa.

Polly said aggressively, "Hey, do you want to reincarnate? Just tell us your story! Then, you can go straight to your next mother's home!"

Elsa fell silent.

She had no choice and said, "I became a joke after Simon and Chole married."

"I thought I could find another simp easily, but in the end, only Simon loved me..."

Lilly was in the Underworld and had no idea what would happen next. Initially, she also thought that Drake would settle down the simp.

But she never expected that Elsa would die.

She was curious.

How did this gold digger end up here?

Chapter 1084

The ghosts were gathered around Madame Maya's stall.

The first group were the gossip enthusiasts, such as the harem spirit, ghost bride, and others.

The second group was the ghost behind who were preparing to reincarnate.

Everyone was interested in the story.

Jean was curious as she heard the story.

A gold digger forced her groom to buy a luxury car during the wedding, and the groom left and married another woman.

What an interesting story!

She sat on the chair, holding Lilly, and picked up the bowl of Madame Maya's soup to drink.

Lilly tried to drink it too. However, she ended up with her mouth stuck with spiritual spring from her daddy.

Lilly asked, "How did you die?"

She had the aura of Ruler of Hell while sitting in this realm of the Underworld.

Elsa replied, "I was killed by a slap..."

A slap to death?

Lilly asked, "Did you succeed?"

Lilly looked at Elsa and found out that was an umbilical cord behind her...

It indicated that she had experienced a miscarriage and the baby ghost should have gone to be reincarnated.

It was odd because baby ghost would usually follow their mother since they do not have the chance to see the world...

Harem spirit whispered, "All men are bad!"

Based on Simon's behavior, it would also be reasonable if something happened in the hotel. He was such a simp.

However, Elsa said, "That's the problem!"

She said, "I don't know what's wrong with me. He used to love me a lot, but now I had stripped naked before him. He actually took a step back!"

Elsa would never forget Simon's shocked expression. It was like seeing a monster.

That night, Simon ran away from the hotel even without changing out of his pajamas. He would rather sleep on the streets instead of sleeping with her!

Elsa was mad and tried everything she could for several days. However, Simon never gave her a chance.

Elsa gritted her teeth and said, "I couldn't force him on the street. So I tried a different method. I said I won't do anything to him, just wanted to accompany him..."

After a few days. Elsa finally got a chance. She gets him drunk and can talk with him on the street.

"What made me mad was when he was drunk, he said that Chloe had come to him like this before..."

"I managed to carry him back to the hotel, but he kept shouting about Chloe in his mouth..."

Chapter 1085

That night, she "succeeded," but not completely.

Simon was completely drunk and not able to do anything else.

As soon as the harem spirit heard this, she turned to tell the ghost bride, "Now you know, A drunk man can't do anything! Those who talk about drunkenness leading to lust are excuses!"

The ghost bride covered her face and said, "What do you mean..."

The harem spirit was about to say something else but was punched by the weakling spirit.

She muttered and remained silent.

Elsa continued to say, "Simon was completely drunk. He couldn't remember anything when he woke up the next day. He only remembers the scene which I set up."

Two of them woke up naked in the bed. It was hard to explain what happened.

Simon appeared regretful and admitted he made a mistake.

These words made Elsa feel even more upset. She felt like staying with her was a mistake.

What made her even angrier was that nothing actually happened. So, Elsa had to figure out another way out with another person. After one week, she was finally pregnant.

“I found Simon and told him the news, and the baby was his, which conceived on that night...”

“Simon was stunned. His first reaction was to ask me to get rid of the baby! He even tells me to remain quiet, especially not letting Chloe know!”

Furthermore, Simon said he would collect trash for the abortion since he was broke.

Elsa was infuriated.

Lilly couldn't understand and asked her father, "Why do people act so foolishly? The result is so obvious!"

Mrs. Pierce clearly did not believe that Elsa was having Simon's baby.

Lilly also felt that if Elsa was really having Simon's baby, Mrs. Pierce wouldn't treat her well either.

Why would Elsa still do something like this and even tried to harm Chloe's baby? Did she think that the Preston family would let her go freely?

It was such a simple answer if really thought about it...

Blake calmly said, "People are greedy, the cost also mattered."

The more a person invested in something, the more unwilling they were to give up.

They thought that they already made it so far, they better make it to the end.

Elsa continued to say, "I finally had an opportunity. I saw Chloe went to the hospital alone..."

How could she miss such a good opportunity? She couldn't bear it when she saw Chloe's smile and belly.

At that time, Elsa was five months pregnant while Chloe was already seven months pregnant. Chloe's belly was huge and inconvenient to move around.

Elsa was more flexible than Chloe.

When Chloe passed by the stairs, Elsa suddenly bumped into her from the dark!

Chloe staggered a few steps and almost fall about to roll down the stairs...

"That b*tch was really lucky. Someone was tired of waiting for the elevator and took the stairs, he immediately saved Chloe."

Elsa was mad and wanted to try again. She couldn't let such a good opportunity slip away.

Elsa begged, "Let me pass please, as long as we all keep quiet, Ruler of Hell won't find it out..."

Lilly seemed to be serious.

"Well, what a coincidence."

She tossed the Hell Ruler Palace outside, and it instantly became larger.

Elsa looked up and saw the board which wrote "Hell Ruler Palace" hanging above.

Lilly rushed inside and sat on the Ruler of Hell's seat. She appeared severe and cold.

"I am the Ruler of Hell!"

Elsa instantly turned confused.

“Grim Reapers, Behemoth, and Leviathan come out!” Lilly shouted.

A gust of gloomy wind blew, and a green light flashed as four of them appeared.

Everyone was confused and had no idea what was going on. Everything happened suddenly!

Even Lilly herself was confused at this moment.

How did she end up in the Ruler of Hell’s seat?

Initially, she felt that Elsa was abominable, she couldn’t just pass Spirit Bridge because the Ruler of Hell wasn’t aware of it.

In the re-cooked pot of Madame Maya's soup, a sudden burst of fragrance filled the air.

Madame Maya stared at the soup confusingly. She had been cooking the soup for hundreds of years. The soup was tasteless and colorless, reflecting the various states of the ghosts who drank it.

But now, Madame Maya's soup smelled delicious.

Madame Maya suddenly saw the original appearance of humans from the faint mist.

The moment of transition between death and rebirth...

Madame Maya felt relieved, and the soup seemed to be changed.

Those who were deep in love were not afraid of life or death. All things in the world could not escape the influence of emotions.

A bowl of Madame Maya's soup allowed them to forget everything in the past life...

Madame Maya couldn't control herself and recook the soup a few times. However, the soup tasted the same as the first pot.

Madame Maya returned to her position and gave the ghost spirits a bowl of soup.

All the ghost spirits fell silent after drinking Madame Maya's soup, no matter how many thoughts and reluctance were in their mind.

They instantly became numb and jumped down the Cliff of Reincarnation without any expression.

Madame Maya whispered, "So, the previous batches of soup lacked quality control. Jean was right..."

No matter how strong her soup was, there was occasionally someone who drank seven or eight bowls of soup and couldn't forget their memories...

Blake's face turned gloomy.

All of them instantly became alert.

Pablo coldly asked, "King of Cities, what do you want?"

The King of Cities had been unhappy regarding his attitude

Pablo had been just a small judge and had dared to disrespect the King of Cities. The King of Cities really hated him and wanted to kill him first.

But now, there's Emperor Prosper beside him...

King of Cities remember what King of Reincarnation mentioned earlier. Emperor Prosper or whatever, it was not confirmed yet.

King of Cities said, "Did I say anything? I just sensed the return of the King of Hell. That's why I am here! I want to check on it."

"It's such an important matter to our Underworld about the return of the King of Hell. So, I am here to make sure everything is fine!"

Lilly suddenly exclaimed, "Wow..."

King of Cities was confused.

Lilly pointed at the King of Cities and said, "Mom, his skin is so well-maintained, not even a single beard hair grows."

Jean also exclaimed, "It's even whiter than my dead uncle's face. He would definitely be the skincare influencer if he were in the Human Realm!"

The King of Cities' palm struck Blake.

Blake had already gathered all the spirit energy stored in his elixir field and converted it into power earlier.

Blake's only power that could compete with the King of Cities wasn't considered a true power.

The mighty pressure ruthlessly crashed toward the King of Cities!

The King of Cities instantly froze.

However, Blake knew this pressure could only block King of Cities for a while unless his body could continuously generate spirit energy.

"Lilly!" Blake shouted.

Lilly had already summoned her purple sledgehammer and shouted, "Coming!"

The purple sledgehammer struck like thunder and struck the King of Cities!

Pablo had also summoned his pen of justice and aimed for the King of Cities' forehead!

Jessie, Harem Spirit, Unlucky Ghost, and others all rushed toward the King of Cities...

The King of Cities felt shocked but quickly remained calm.
