

Eight Uncles 1091

Chapter 1091 Trust Science if Metaphysics Didn't Work

When everyone rushed toward the King of Cities, Lilly was the last to move. She had been obedient and kept the pen of judgment a secret for a long time. The pen of judgment had always made her fall into danger when she wasn't powerful enough.

The King of Hell might doubt her if he saw her pen of judgment and her lack of strength. But this time, she wasn't holding back. "Kill!" She exclaimed with a childish voice.

Lilly leaped into the air and aimed the pen of judgment toward the King of Cities!

The pen of judgment directly flew toward the King of Cities' head with inertia!

The King of Cities was stunned. He hadn't dared to underestimate the pen of judgment!

He ignored the various hosts, took a few steps back, and raised his broadsword to block!

The pen of judgment brushed past the sword and stabbed into the King of Cities' head!

The King of Cities flew out and crashed against a large stone. He immediately spewed black blood out of his mouth.

Other ghosts cheered at the side.

Pablo and Jessie rushed toward it.

The pen of judgment directly penetrated the King of Cities' abdomen with the help of Jessie!

But the next second, the King of Cities stood up in the rolling smoke!

He held the pen of judgment in his hands with his face covered in black blood.

It turned out that the King of Cities activated all of his spirit energy to resist the pen of judgment!

That was also the reason why Pablo and Jessie were able to penetrate through his abdomen!

The King of Cities' face was covered in blood and a hole in his abdomen. All other ghosts desperately rushed toward the City King, exploding their own aura to stop the King of Cities.

The King of Cities shouted loudly and pulled out the pen of judgment while his whole body trembled.

"The pen of judgment is now mine!" The king of Cities exclaimed while tightly gripping the pen of judgment.

However, the pen of judgment had recognized it and couldn't be easily captured by the King of Cities.

It was struggling violently.

Blake whispered, "Lilly!"

Lilly understood without any further words. She controlled the pen of judgment and pulled it toward her!

It looked as if she was anxious to retrieve the pen of judgment.

The King of Cities sneered at them.

So this was their plan!

Pablo charged first while other ghosts entangled him. Then, the pen of judgment went out with all its strength?

Their hopes were all pinned on this pen.

It was a pity.

The King of Cities laughed and said, "It was still useful! The pen of judgment might kill me if I resisted half a second slower!"

"Unfortunately, I am winning this round!"

At the critical moment, he raised his sword again and blocked the pen of judgment.

With this action, the pen of judgment became his!

"You were that close to succeeding!"

The King of Cities laughed while using his spirit energy to control the pen of judgment.

He could let others go freely, but he must obtain the pen of judgment!

His power would instantly surpass the other nine palaces with the pen of judgment.

It was not an exaggeration to say that if, with the pen of judgment, he wouldn't be afraid of Emperor Prosper anymore!

Lilly fell backward while trying to control the pen of judgment.

“Let me help you!”

Tinkerbelle ran over. Although she wasn't helpful, every strength mattered!

Ms. Ugly and Ghost Bride also joined to help.

With the power of the pen of judgment, the King of Cities was gradually being pulled closer.

Blake suddenly leaped up and pressed a charm into the King of Cities' face!

The King of Cities was annoyed and said, “Do you think you can control me with just that little thing?!”

Blake seemed like such a weak person in his eyes at that moment and couldn't just stick whatever he wanted on his face!

The King of Cities directly swept away the charm.

The next moment, he saw something aimed at him.

A gunshot rang out.

The King of Cities was genuinely stunned.

Blake's speed was indeed beyond his expectations. The bullet directly penetrated his head.

The King of Cities didn't expect him to carry a gun.

How could this gun even kill him? He was not even from the Human Realm!

However, he saw an abnormal smile on Blake's face...

Chapter 1092 Self-Harm Style Killing

Blake looked at the King of Cities with a slightly morbid smile.

Then, he imitated a gun sound.

The next moment, the King of Cities' expression changed!

There was something that seemed to be exploding in his mind! It was powerful!

The King of Cities froze and couldn't move anymore. The pen of judgment was pulled away.

He couldn't help but hold his head and yell out. The next moment his head exploded. This time, it was true...

He crawled into the ground, and his body rapidly turned into dark energy...

“You despicable...”

His voice could be heard in the void.

The dark energy angrily exclaimed as he turned into sand, “I will take revenge one day...”

Lilly lifted the Hell Ruler Palace and snapped it directly. The dark energy was instantly sucked inside.

Inside the inner space of the Hell Ruler Palace, King Libra was lying weakly on the ground and was almost dead.

They treated him without humanity. They didn't give him food, and the living space was small. He could not even turn around.

A “cell” appeared when he thought about it. His room was even smaller.

The King of Cities was thrown in.

When the King of Cities discovered what was happening, he was locked in the Hell Ruler Palace. He couldn't even maintain his human form. He couldn't escape.

“Let me out! Damn it! I dared you to let me out. I'll teach you a lesson!” The King of Cities shouted.

King Libra immediately fell silent. He felt relieved when he saw King of Cities.

“Isn't this the King of Cities?” King Libra said with a sneer, “What a power you had! It's full of vitality!”

King of Cities looked closely. Wasn't that King Libra next door?

King Libra disappeared for a long time and was thought to die. But end up he was locked here by the little brat!

The King of Cities felt somehow better.

The King of Cities sneered and said, “I wondered who it was and turned to be such trash like you. So you've become a prisoner!”

King Libra laughed and said, “We're the same.”

Two of them fell silent.

**

Blake was completely drained as he saw the King of Cities stuck in the Hell Ruler Palace.

He whispered, "There's no need for tea time. You're not worth it."

Jean was speechless as she saw Blake's mouth remained tough.

Lilly let out a long sigh and almost fell to the ground.

Jean threw Blake away and tried to save Lilly. However, Pablo was quicker than her.

Jean let out a sigh of relief.

"Master, I am exhausted!" Lilly said while lying in Pablo's embrace.

Pablo was panting as well.

This plan was extremely dangerous, but at least it worked.

This matter had been completely solved.

"Take a nap," Pablo said.

After saying that, he sat directly on the ground, ignoring his white robe.

The other ghosts sat on the ground as well.

Blake looked up and felt something different from the gloomy sky.

He was also exhausted. He had used all of his energy to fire the gunshot.

Jean approached and asked, "Is everything fine?"

Blake replied, "All good. I'm just lamenting how quickly I was being thrown just now."

Jean became speechless.

The only tough place was definitely his mouth...

"It was really dangerous earlier." Jean sat on the ground and said.

She knew everyone was exhausted and had to rest for a while now.

Blake mumbled, "Yes."

The foolish ghost asked, "I still don't understand what happened with the gun."

The gun from the Human Realm couldn't cause any harm to the ghost. The person was even the King of Cities.

Blake remained silent.

He had made that gun long ago, and it only had one bullet.

Blake would do research with Lilly whenever they were free.

"Trust science if metaphysics didn't work."

In the end, they developed a gun. The bullet wasn't normal. The Little Hades made it.

Furthermore, Blake had gone all out and compressed his pressure on the bullet. His tendons and veins were all injured.

That's how he could explode the King of Cities' head.

Blake was carefully hidden the fact that he was injured. He wouldn't want anyone to be worried.

He even acted tough to prevent Lilly from worrying.

Jean suddenly looked at him.

They both fell silent.

"You..."

Blake was slightly stunned and shook his head.

Chapter 1093 Right in the Face

"Let's go" Pablo stood up with Lilly in his arms.

After Jessie found half its heads, all the ghosts returned to the jar of souls.

Blake frowned and said, "Go."

Jean asked, "What's the matter?"

Blake shook his head. He glanced at Pablo and found out he had a severe expression.

Jean remained silent. Now she was a ghost while Blake was mortal. They hurriedly left the place.

Lilly slept deeply in his master's embrace. She was exhausted and couldn't even open her eyes.

They weren't aware that someone was hiding in the dark.

King of Reincarnation stared at Blake fiercely.

The King of Reincarnation was different compared to the King of Cities. He was more calm and meticulous than him.

Everyone was tired after the fight with the King of Cities...

This was the best time for him to attack!

The King of Reincarnation was cleared that Blake was truly the Emperor Prosper. However, the soul hadn't returned.

He put on a human face mask. He had to be careful and leave a back way for himself.

However, just as he was ready to make his move, someone stopped him!

It was the King of Transformation!

Blake and others had left at the same time.

The King of Reincarnation was stunned.

The King of Transformation was much taller than the King of Reincarnation. He looked at him without expression and said, "King of Reincarnation, what are you doing?"

The King of Reincarnation replied, "You've mistaken me for someone else."

The King of Transformation said coldly, "My bad. From your lewd back and despicable aura, I thought you were the old bastard, King of Reincarnation."

The King of Reincarnation turned speechless.

The King of Reincarnation said grimly, "I have no grudges against you. Why are you ruining my plans?"

The King of Transformation replied, "Killing and robbing from the dark wasn't something good. Are you really not the King of Reincarnation?"

The King of Reincarnation was agitated.

He gave up as the King of Transformation didn't seem to leave.

The King of Transformation let out a cold laugh. He fell silent as he looked in the direction where Lilly and the others had gone. Ultimately, he couldn't help but follow them to provide protection.

The King of Reincarnation once again caught up with Lilly and others. Today was the best time to attack. It would have been troublesome if Emperor Prosper had returned to his palace. However, he saw the King of Transformation in the dark when he got closer.

At that moment, the King of Reincarnation knew he had no chance today.

He looked at the King of Transformation fiercely before leaving.

**

Jean carried Blake and stopped in front of a boundary.

"We can't go any further," Jean said.

Emperor Prosper, also known as Emperor Northin, ruled over the Northin Land. No one could enter here without his permission.

Blake said, "It's fine. Just relax and walk straight in."

Jean said, "I told you we can't enter. I tried it before..."

Before she could hear her words, she successfully entered the Northin Land.

"How did we just enter?" Jean said surprisingly.

The next moment, Pablo held Lilly and walked in.

Pablo still had the pet pack on the back. It was supposed to be in the Hell Ruler Palace, but he carried it because of Polly.

Polly was still asleep in the Underworld and woke up after entering Prosper City. Then he fell asleep again after exiting Prosper City.

Tortoise stepped on Pablo while chewing on something.

When they entered Northin Land, Polly still hadn't woken up.

Chapter 1094 Get To Know Me Again

Pablo had no time for this. He finally felt relieved after stepping into Northin Land.

At a certain moment earlier, Blake and Pablo felt something wrong.

Blake took a few divine elixirs and fed Lilly. He also swallowed some of it.

Blake swallowed some of it during the fight with the King of Cities. Or else, he couldn't summon the last pressure.

Every second mattered at that time. Blake didn't even have time to give divine elixirs to others. On the way to the Northin Land, he even swallowed a few more.

He felt anxious on the way for some reason and finally got to relax now.

Jean asked, "Are you okay now? Can you come down?"

She whispered, "It's weird for a woman to carry a man. It should be a man carrying a woman!"

But now she was a ghost.

Although the voice was faint, Blake still heard it.

He said, "Let me carry you next time."

At that moment, Lilly, who was sleeping on Pablo's shoulder, mumbled, "Mommy..."

Jean immediately threw Blake off and rushed toward Lilly.

"I am here..."

She touched Lilly and lamented how skinny she had become...

Lilly had lost a lot of weight.

Lilly was only three years old during their last met...

She had a pair of innocent big eyes and chubby cheeks.

But now, she had grown up and became Little Hades.

"You've worked hard, darling..." Jean said.

Blake was heartbroken while watching what was happening behind them...

“Sleep well, darling. When you wake up, you’ll be full of vigor...”

Blake remained silent and took a step forward. However, he immediately staggered a step, and his face turned pale.

Jean was startled and asked, “Is everything alright?”

Blake fell heavily on Jean and said, “I can’t walk.”

Jean was speechless.

Jean had no other choice and allowed Blake to lean on her.

Blake stretched his arm on her shoulder and said, “It’s fine. I just need you to help me like this.”

Two of them ended up hooked on each other’s shoulders.

“You’re good at everything except for your mouth,” Jean said, “You were not the same as earlier.”

Blake asked, “What was I like?”

Jean thought momentarily and said, “Cold, evil, charming...”

Blake turned speechless.

Blake asked, “What about now?”

Jean replied, “It’s hard to say for now...”

He could be careless and change drastically sometimes...

He could have smiled for the previous second and pulled out a gun in the next second. Jean could never forget Blake’s smile earlier...

Blake didn't say anything more.

Jean didn't know him anymore.

However, Blake remembered their promise in the past.

“Blake, if I forget everything, remember to find me...”

Because of these words, he had met Jean countless times. However, he was still alone in every life.

“Then get to know me again,” Blake said.

Jean was confused. All she could see was Blake with a smile.

For some reason, Jean felt her ears turn slightly warm.

She whispered, “How could I still feel warm if I was a ghost...”

Blake remained silent. It was difficult for him to speak while injured.

He felt pain from his tendons and veins every few seconds, making his face even paler...

The injuries were deep.

He didn't know if he could recover...

In this lifetime, he only had this mortal body.

Chapter 1095 A Palace Like Heaven

Lilly felt like she had slept for a long time.

She felt hunger and a complete lack of strength during her deep sleep.

She was so hungry...

She didn't even have the strength to wake up...

Why was she so hungry? In the Underworld, she didn't feel hunger. Could it be that she had returned to the Human Realm?

Lilly had those questions in her sleep.

She even locked the King of Cities in the Hell Ruler Palace. She couldn't be in the Human Realm!

Maybe all of this was a dream?

Lilly opened her eyes with this thought. She could only see that the sky was filled with bright stars and lights...

Something fluffy was rubbing against her face...

Polly waited impatiently for two days. Lilly had been sleeping the entire time.

Lilly suddenly opened her eyes when Polly was about to find the tortoise. Polly was scared.

Polly happily jumped toward her and said, "Darling, you're finally awake. I've been waiting for this moment for two days!"

Lilly gently said, "Polly, stop fooling around..."

Lilly felt even hunger and a lack of strength after she raised her hand. She almost cried from hunger.

"Are we back?" Lilly asked.

Polly nodded.

They had finally returned!

Lilly confusingly asked, "Did I never go out?"

Polly replied, "Yes!"

She had been sleeping the entire time after Master Belmont brought her back.

She felt somehow upset upon listening to these words.

Lilly mumbled, "I had such a long dream..."

Lilly dreamt that she went to the Underworld with Daddy to find Mommy and had eaten a delicious fish by the ice pond.

Then, they found Mommy at the Spirit Bridge.

Mommy was amazing. She still remembered Lilly after a few bowls of Madame Maya's soup.

Then, they engaged in a fight with the King of Cities. Everyone collaborated and ultimately defeated the King of Cities.

"So it was all a dream." Lilly sighed.

She had such a fantastic dream...

It was all fake. Lilly felt disappointed...

Polly was confused and asked, "What?"

Lilly shook her head.

“Wait a second, where is here?”

This wasn't her room, right?

Lilly looked around in confusion. This place was much larger.

Lilly lifted the gauze and stepped onto the ground.

A mysterious haze covered the bed. Lilly took a deep breath and felt refreshed. This wasn't haze. It felt more like a fairy spirit.

The carpet below her feet was incredibly soft.

Beyond that, there were layers of gauze. A lotus pond was beyond the fourth layer, with several goldfish swimming inside. Their tail was gorgeous.

Lilly went outside and was stunned.

This palace was built on a cliff. It wasn't strange to be built on a cliff, but the key was...

The cliff was floating!

Lilly saw floating mountains everywhere and waterfalls cascading down the cliffs. Unidentified flowers and trees also surrounded this place.

“Where is this?” Lilly was stunned.

Lilly felt like she couldn't even distinguish between reality and dream. How did she end up in a place like this?

Polly flew out and said, “Darling, what's wrong?”

Why was she so quiet after waking up?

Then he had to be quiet too...

Lilly walked out of the palace and found there was a bridge connected. On the other side of the bridge was an even bigger Jade Palace.

As she walked across the bridge, everything felt familiar. But she was clear that he had never been here before...

She secretly entered the Jade Palace and found out it was empty. However, she could hear voices outside.

Lilly walked through this luxurious place and saw many books and treasures, such as jade bottles and vases...

She felt like keeping one into the Hell Ruler Palace.

At that moment, a voice came from outside. "Mr. Blake, How could you even eat the rabbit? It was so cute!"

Lillu was stunned.

It was Mommy's voice!

Lilly felt happy and hurriedly ran toward the voice, but she was so hungry and caused her to stumble along the way.

Chapter 1096 Daddy and Mommy Were Still Here!

On the other side of the palace, lush forests and mountains could be seen. Everything was just gorgeous.

Blake and Jean sat on the lawn while Pablo meditated on a fountain nearby.

Harem spirit and ghost bride were busy catching something in the river.

Tinkerbell and Jessie were playing kite on the grass. Was it a kite? Lilly felt something weird when she looked at it.

Jean stirred the food in the pot and said, "You used such good ingredients for barbecuing. What are you thinking about? This rabbit would be tastier in braised."

"This braised rabbit will be perfectly cooked as Lilly wakes up."

Blake changed into a new outfit and skillfully cut the rabbits. Then, he passed a piece of the roasted rabbit meat to Jean and said, "Taste it?"

Jean eagerly took it and ate it. She said, "It's tasty! I had been drinking the tasteless Madame Maya's soup for so long in the Underworld!"

She could only add some chili to Madame Maya's soup when she wanted to eat buffalo wings.

Today, she finally got to eat some meat and was moved to tears.

Suddenly, they heard a voice from nowhere, "Mommy, Daddy..."

Jean turned her head and saw Lilly standing at the back door of the palace.

Jean immediately rushed toward Lilly and said, "What's wrong, Darling? Why are you awake? Don't cry..."

Blake also came over and asked gently, "What's wrong? Are you hungry?"

Lilly nodded.

She thought it was just a dream, but it wasn't.

She couldn't hold her tears anymore.

Daddy and Mommy were still here!

Blake said, "Eat some braised rabbit meat that Mommy prepared for you."

He reached out, intending to take Lilly from Jean.

However, Jean shifted her body and moved in another direction.

"Is Lilly hungry? You had become so skinny! Granny would be heartbroken if she saw you."

Jean was busy filling the bowl with the braised rabbit meat.

The rabbit meat was well seasoned, which made Lilly even hungrier.

Lilly took a big bite and instantly forgot about the sadness.

It was delicious, incredibly delicious!

In just a few moments, she had finished the entire bowl of meat.

She eagerly said, "Mommy, I want more!"

Jean enjoyed seeing her with such a good appetite and refilled her bowl.

Then, Lilly ate finished all the rabbit meat in the pot. She pitifully looked at the rabbit roasted by her Daddy.

Blake said, "Wait for a moment, please."

Indeed, it didn't take long. Blake sliced the meat and piled it up in Lilly's bowl.

Lilly has immersed herself in the world of food.

She forgot everything around her.

All she felt was having infinite power after eating the rabbit meat.

Her body gradually gained energy.

Jean felt like Lilly had gained weight, and her face turned pale to red.

She questioned herself, was it an illusion?

“How amazing. It’s like feeding a dying plant, and it instantly becomes plump...”

Blake was speechless.

Pablo appeared nowhere and saw Lilly. He couldn’t help but swallow his saliva repeatedly.

Harem spirit, ghost bride, and others gathered around after knowing Lilly was awake.

Lilly didn’t realize that everyone surrounded her until she finished all the food...

She was finally somewhat satiated. She licked her lips and looked up.

Why was everyone looking at her?

Wait a minute, did she finish all of the food?

Lilly said guilty, “Did you all not eat yet?”

Blake took a wet tissue and meticulously wiped Lilly’s face and hand.

Jean said, “Don’t be worried. There’s more.”

They suddenly heard a commotion from the forest.

The weakling spirit came out with something resembling a fawn on his shoulders.

Although he appeared more mature than before, his face remained frozen in youth. When he saw Lilly, he was stunned for a moment.

Then he said gently, “Darling is awake? Is there enough food to eat?”

He put the prey down and said, "Don't be worried. I will go and catch more for Lilly!" Demonic beasts in the Northin Land, "Is there no one to speak up for us?"

Chapter 1097 Cute Snackster

Lilly was finally full after satisfying her hunger.

She sat on the grass and curiously looked at the prey which Michael brought back.

"Is this a fawn? It doesn't seem like it..."

The weakling spirit laughed and said, "I didn't know what is it as well. I brought it back since it looks like it can be eaten."

Lilly was confused.

Harem spirit held a shrimp and said, "Yes, as long as it's edible!"

She was excited. After being a ghost, it had been a long time since she had such delicious food. She felt like she had entered a whole new world! Everything was edible here! Were they all ghosts now? What else couldn't they eat? Could they even get food poisoning?

So, everyone felt like they entered a new world with food everywhere. They even planned to grow some vegetables. While handling the prey, Blake asked, "How does Lilly want it to be cooked?"

Jean replied, "Let's stew it so everyone can eat it."

Two of them squatted by the river and prepared the food.

It would seem like they were in a barbaric land without a breathtaking scene around them.

Pablo looked at the fawn and said, "That's the Stellarnight Faun. A spirit beast from the Nether..."

The Sterllarnight Faun never expected it to end up as food after being brought back by Emperor in the past to reproduce.

Lilly asked, "What delicious food did my dad bring back in the past? I mean, what cute animals?"

Pablo laughed after listening to Lilly's words. He said, "There are many."

Who could have imagined that Emperor Prosper could transform this place into such a paradise? Anyone who came would be astounded.

The next moment, Lilly stood up and said, "Michael, let's find some animal to play with!"

It was such a magnificent celestial place at the Palace of Emperor Prosper. Forest, ponds, and waterfalls surrounded it...

It felt like paradise.

A flock of birds suddenly flew through the forest!

Lilly held up the Hell Ruler Palace and shouted, "Don't run away!"

The Pear Blossom was captured by the Hell Ruler Palace

Lilly said, "Little Beastie, let's follow me home!"

"Hello, Feral Fiend! You looked a little bit frail. Follow me home. My dad had really good medicine!"

"Wow! Master look! There's a plane! Wait, it's a roc?"

Lilly shouted, "Roc! Come down and play!"

Polly was even making a mess too.

"Little bird! Come home!"

"Relax, we are having the same ancestor!"

Pablo was anxiously watching this snackster messing out the entire place.

The beasts here would never be expected to enter the Hell Ruler Palace after staying here for thousands of years!

They entered the Hell Ruler Palace before they died.

Where could they go for justice?

In the end, Lilly returned fully loaded.

Every ghost was having such a good night. They had never been so satisfied with feasting after death.

"It's so delicious..." The ghost bride said, "I want to have some more tomorrow..."

The unlucky ghost said, "My stomach is about to burst..."

Jessie quickie covered his mouth and said, "Mr. Unlucky, please don't say that"

The unlucky ghost turned speechless.

Lilly touched her round belly and face.

If she returned like this, Granny wouldn't be worried.

Lilly was concerned about her Granny. It had been such a long time in the Underworld. Granny must be worried...

Regardless of the circumstances, she should have visited her Granny.

Chapter 1098 \"Celestia Fairy\"

Lilly had made up her mind and decided to tell her parent.

However, she found that her father was sitting on a cloudy while her mommy was on a soft couch.

“Daddy, Mommy?” Lilly asked confusingly.

Were they asleep?

She looked around and found out everyone was sleeping, either.

There was spirit energy flowing on them.

“So they are upgrading.” Lilly was surprised and said, “So you can upgrade by eating full?”

“How amazing! Master!”

Master was asleep too...

Was it really that magical?

Lilly grabbed the last piece of roast lamb leg, which cooked perfectly.

Although she was full, she felt like she could eat one more.

So full.

But why wasn't she like Father and the other ghosts if she was full?

Lilly confusedly collected all the ghosts into the jar of souls.

Lilly planted a poplar in the jar of souls.

She moved Master inside and hung him on the branch.

Only Mommy and Daddy remained on the lawn.

Lilly couldn't bear to disturb them. So she transferred them into the palace while they were still sleeping.

Then, Lilly said, "This home is nothing without me!"

Everything seemed to be muted in an instant.

Lilly crawled and lay down in front of her Mommy. She felt satisfied...

"Let's wait for Daddy and Mummy to wake up tomorrow, and we will visit Granny..."

She thought before sleeping.

Then, she fell asleep until dawn.

Lilly woke up and found that everything was still silent.

Mommy and Daddy were still asleep.

Lilly immediately said, "Mommy?"

She gently squeezed Jean's hand, but there wasn't any reaction.

Ghosts didn't breathe, so it seemed like nothing was wrong.

Lilly ran toward his father and opened his eyelids.

"He's not dead..."

Lilly sat and waited for a long time. Even Polly was asleep. Only Tortoise was awake. He was trying to grab some food and water...

The next moment, he was caught by Lilly.

"Mr. Tortoise, how long do you think Mommy and Daddy will sleep?"

Tortoise turned silent...

Tortoise ignored Lilly and retracted his hands, legs, and head.

Lilly whispered while putting Tortoise on the ground, "Still need a month?"

"That's too long!"

How long would it be in the Underworld?

Lilly pondered for a moment and said, "Then I'll go back first. Mr. Tortoise, help me to take care of them! Let me them know I am going to visit Granny if they woke up..."

Lilly stood up and started packing.

She even packed some treasures from his Daddy's palace...

Then she walked into the forest and said, "I'll bring some delicious fruit for Granny too..."

"Dad said this bamboo is good. I'll bring it for Grandpa..."

"I'll bring this beautiful flower for Aunt Lisa too..."

Unconsciously, Lilly walked across the boundary of the Palace of Emperor Prosper...

She had picked fruits, plants, and mushrooms along the way...

Lilly specifically picked the ones Daddy said were edible. She even caught a beast and intended to make some soup for Granny...

"All right, that's it!"

Just as Lilly was leaving, a voice suddenly said, "Stop!"

Lilly was stunned. Were there others here?

There was a girl wearing a traditional Chinese gown and walked toward her...

It was a blue dress, and her hair was tied up in double buns. She was gorgeous...

Unfortunately, her voice made people feel uneasy.

"Where did this little ghost come from? Who let you come here?"

The Celestia Fairy said, "This is the Palace of Emperor Prosper! Nobody can come in without my permission! Return all the things you have stolen!"

Chapter 1099 Daddy Hired a Guard?

Lilly frowned and said, "Who are you? Why are you being so rude to accuse me of stealing?"

The Celestia Fairy replied, "I am guarding this place when Emperor Prosper is away. Without his permission, no one is allowed to enter! You showed up here. Isn't it stealing?"

Lilly was stunned.

"Showing up here is stealing? If someone accidentally walks in this place, would that also be stealing?" She whispered.

The Celestia Fairy said coldly, "Yes!"

Lilly felt silent.

"So you are the guards here, right if you're guarding here?" Lilly asked.

But this question almost made Celestia Fairy lose her temper.

"I am not a guard! I am here for Emperor Prosper! Don't make me repeat. Hand over the things you stole and get out!"

Lilly felt frustrated. This girl was definitely a guard...

Lilly tried to explain, "I didn't steal anything. I was originally living here, and Emperor Prosper is my father."

However, the Celestia Fairy sneered after listening to her words. She summoned a Misty Cloudsword and slashed it toward Lilly!

Lilly was stunned and took a step back. She quickly summoned her purple sledgehammer and clashed with the Misty Cloudsword!

Lilly was flying away and barely managed to retreat within the boundary of the Palace of Emperor Prosper. Her weapon flew to another side.

The "Celestia Fairy staggered a few steps and crashed into a tree before stopping.

Lilly felt confident. At least she could fight against this person!

Lilly asked, "Who are you? You should ask for clarification since you are the guard here!"

The Celestia Fairy replied coldly, "You're lying. The daughter of Emperor Prosper was dead!"

Lilly felt silent.

The Celestia Fairy took a deep breath and said, "Now, I am his daughter!"

Lilly was confused.

Daddy's daughter? It was such nonsense!

Her daddy only had one daughter. When did he have another daughter?

Before Lilly could speak, the Celestia Fairy said, "Get out!"

Lilly felt something was wrong. Why did she have to leave?

Couldn't the Celestia Fairy enter by herself?

Lilly immediately understood. She noticed that the Celestia Fairy stood at a distance and couldn't take another step forward...

Lilly had an epiphany; the Celestia Fairy couldn't enter!

Lilly said, "Come over if you can!"

The Celestia Fairy was infuriated.

If she could enter, she wouldn't have been guarding the palace for thousands of years! For thousands of years, she had faithfully guarded the Northin Land.

She had even built her cave below the palace and cultivated herself for thousands of years. However, she could never enter the palace or cross its boundary...

But today, a little brat suddenly appeared, entered the palace, and even stole things inside!

The Celestia Fairy said coldly, "A young child like you is already a thief. Didn't your mother teach you any manners?"

Lilly instantly became angry. Lilly was still polite to her because she considered that she was the guard here.

But now, she dared to involve her mother. Lilly couldn't bear it anymore!

"Didn't you realize how dumb you are?" Lilly said.

"You said it yourself. Without Emperor Prosper's permission, no one could enter. But I'm already inside, and you can't come in. Isn't that enough to explain?"

The Celestia Fairy replied, "Who knows how you managed to get in? As long as Emperor Prosper is not back, you cannot enter!"

"Today, I will guard this place no matter what happens. You can't take away anything from here!"

Lilly was annoyed.

However, her Master had told her not to fight with others because of anger.

Lilly said, "Fine, you can keep guarding then!"

After saying that, she walked away without looking back.

The 'Celestia Fairy' was so angry. But she couldn't enter the palace.

She refused to believe that Lilly was the daughter of Emperor Prosper!

Her mother had once told her that she had seen Emperor Prosper's daughter before. Emperor Prosper tried to break through the three path restraints with his daughter, but unexpectedly, the rules almost collapsed!

Emperor Prosper's daughter was dead at that time.

That was why Emperor Prosper left the Northin Land...

She still remembered what her mother had said to her when she was young.

"Serene, remember this. You are the only daughter of Emperor Prosper..."

"I used to be a palace maid...I accidentally had an intimate night with Emperor Prosper and gave birth to you..."

"But Emperor Prosper has always loved her first daughter and ignored us..."

"You must recognize your father in the future!"

Serene remembered these words for years.

She had been guarding outside the palace just to find her dad.

But now, her dad hadn't returned, and a little brat had entered before her!

Serene had no idea how she had entered, but it must have been illegal!

Serene didn't believe that she was weaker compared to Lilly. It was just because Lilly was standing in the area of the palace.

Lilly should come out and face her if she dared to!

"I want to see how long you can hide!" Serene whispered.

There was a boundary in the Northin Land and the palace of Emperor Prosper.

The boundary was highly complicated and secured.

Serene sneered and said, "Do you think you can always be lucky and continue to enter?"

She was waiting for Lilly to scream in pain.

Serene waited for a long time. However, the expected screams never came.

She frowned and wanted to see how long can this little brat survive.

Lilly immediately went to see her parents after returning.

They were still asleep.

Lilly sighed and said, "How long do I need to wait..."

"A month, it's too long..."

Granny might have grown older by one to two years.

Lilly still remembered Granny's reminder before leaving. She reminded them to come back earlier.

Lilly felt upset. She had become calm after being stopped by Serene. She shouldn't have left alone; what if anything terrible had happened to her on the way?

It would only have let her parents become worried.

"Is there any way to return to Human Realm instantly?" Lilly thought to herself.

"Wait, it seems like there is such a way..."

Lilly felt like she had teleported before. It was even faster than a time machine.

Where was it...

As she thought about it, Lilly subconsciously returned to the room she woke up in on the first day.

She stood before a stone cabinet and tapped her foot on a familiar stone.

The next moment, a beam of light appeared!

Lilly felt blurred and dizzy. It felt like sitting on a roller coaster.

Luckily, it stopped after a short while.

She found herself in another familiar place. A mirror was placed on the dressing table.

The mirror was surprised when it saw Lilly's sudden appearance.
