

Eight Uncles 1091

Eight Uncles' Beloved Treasure (Lily)

Chapter 1091

When everyone rushed toward the King of Cities, Lilly was the last to move. She had been obedient and kept the pen of judgment a secret for a long time. The pen of judgment had always made her fall into danger when she wasn't powerful enough.

The King of Hell might doubt her if he saw her pen of judgment and her lack of strength. But this time, she wasn't holding back. "Kill!" She exclaimed with a childish voice.

Lilly leaped into the air and aimed the pen of judgment toward the King of Cities!

The pen of judgment directly flew toward the King of Cities' head with inertia!

The King of Cities was stunned. He hadn't dared to underestimate the pen of judgment!

He ignored the various hosts, took a few steps back, and raised his broadsword to block!

The pen of judgment brushed past the sword and stabbed into the King of Cities' head!

The King of Cities flew out and crashed against a large stone. He immediately spewed black blood out of his mouth.

Other ghosts cheered at the side.

Pablo and Jessie rushed toward it.

The pen of judgment directly penetrated the King of Cities' abdomen with the help of Jessie!

But the next second, the King of Cities stood up in the rolling smoke!

He held the pen of judgment in his hands with his face covered in black blood.

It turned out that the King of Cities activated all of his spirit energy to resist the pen of judgment!

Blake looked at the King of Cities with a slightly morbid smile.
Then, he imitated a gun sound.
The next moment, the King of Cities' expression changed!
There was something that seemed to be exploding in his mind! It was powerful!
The King of Cities froze and couldn't move anymore. The pen of judgment was pulled away.
He couldn't help but hold his head and yell out. The next moment his head exploded. This time, it was true...
He crawled into the ground, and his body rapidly turned into dark energy...
“You despicable...”
His voice could be heard in the void.
The dark energy angrily exclaimed as he turned into sand, “I will take revenge one day...”
Lilly lifted the Hell Ruler Palace and snapped it directly. The dark energy was instantly sucked inside.

Inside the inner space of the Hell Ruler Palace, King Libra was lying weakly on the ground and was almost dead.

They treated him without humanity. They didn't give him food, and the living space was small. He could not even turn around.

A "cell" appeared when he thought about it. His room was even smaller.

The King of Cities was thrown in.

When the King of Cities discovered what was happening, he was locked in the Hell Ruler Palace. He couldn't even maintain his human form. He couldn't escape.

"Let me out! Damn it! I dared you to let me out. I'll teach you a lesson!" The King of Cities shouted.

“Let’s go” Pablo stood up with Lilly in his arms.
After Jessie found half its heads, all the ghosts returned to the jar of souls.
Blake frowned and said, “Go.”
Jean asked, “What’s the matter?”
Blake shook his head. He glanced at Pablo and found out he had a severe expression.
Jean remained silent. Now she was a ghost while Blake was mortal. They hurriedly left the place.
Lilly slept deeply in his master’s embrace. She was exhausted and couldn’t even open her eyes.
They weren’t aware that someone was hiding in the dark.

Pablo had no time for this. He finally felt relieved after stepping into Northin Land.

At a certain moment earlier, Blake and Pablo felt something wrong.

Blake took a few divine elixirs and fed Lilly. He also swallowed some of it.

Blake swallowed some of it during the fight with the King of Cities. Or else, he couldn’t summon the last pressure.

Every second mattered at that time. Blake didn’t even have time to give divine elixirs to others. On the way to the Northin Land, he even swallowed a few more.

He felt anxious on the way for some reason and finally got to relax now.

Jean asked, “Are you okay now? Can you come down?”

She whispered, “It’s weird for a woman to carry a man. It should be a man carrying a woman!”

But now she was a ghost.

Although the voice was faint, Blake still heard it.

He said, “Let me carry you next time.”

At that moment, Lilly, who was sleeping on Pablo’s shoulder, mumbled, “Mommy...”

Jean immediately threw Blake off and rushed toward Lilly.

Chapter 1095

Lilly felt like she had slept for a long time.
She felt hunger and a complete lack of strength during her deep sleep.
She was so hungry...
She didn’t even have the strength to wake up...

Why was she so hungry? In the Underworld, she didn't feel hunger. Could it be that she had returned to the Human Realm?

Lilly had those questions in her sleep.

She even locked the King of Cities in the Hell Ruler Palace. She couldn't be in the Human Realm!

Maybe all of this was a dream?

Lilly opened her eyes with this thought. She could only see that the sky was filled with bright stars and lights...

Something fluffy was rubbing against her face...

Polly waited impatiently for two days. Lilly had been sleeping the entire time.

Lilly suddenly opened her eyes when Polly was about to find the tortoise. Polly was scared.

Polly happily jumped toward her and said, "Darling, you're finally awake. I've been waiting for this moment for two days!"

Lilly gently said, "Polly, stop fooling around..."

Lilly felt even hunger and a lack of strength after she raised her hand. She almost cried from hunger.

On the other side of the palace, lush forests and mountains could be seen. Everything was just gorgeous.

Blake and Jean sat on the lawn while Pablo meditated on a fountain nearby.

Harem spirit and ghost bride were busy catching something in the river.

Tinkerbell and Jessie were playing kite on the grass. Was it a kite? Lilly felt something weird when she looked at it.

Jean stirred the food in the pot and said, "You used such good ingredients for barbecuing. What are you thinking about? This rabbit would be tastier in braised."

"This braised rabbit will be perfectly cooked as Lilly wakes up."

Blake changed into a new outfit and skillfully cut the rabbits. Then, he passed a piece of the roasted rabbit meat to Jean and said, "Taste it?"

Jean eagerly took it and ate it. She said, "It's tasty! I had been drinking the tasteless Madame Maya's soup for so long in the Underworld!"

She could only add some chili to Madame Maya's soup when she wanted to eat buffalo wings.

Today, she finally got to eat some meat and was moved to tears.

Suddenly, they heard a voice from nowhere, "Mommy, Daddy..."

Jean turned her head and saw Lilly standing at the back door of the palace.

Jean immediately rushed toward Lilly and said, "What's wrong, Darling? Why are you awake? Don't cry..."

Blake also came over and asked gently, "What's wrong? Are you hungry?"

Lilly nodded.

Lilly was finally full after satisfying her hunger.

She sat on the grass and curiously looked at the prey which Michael brought back.

“Is this a fawn? It doesn’t seem like it...”

The weakling spirit laughed and said, “I didn’t know what is it as well. I brought it back since it looks like it can be eaten.”

Lilly was confused.

Harem spirit held a shrimp and said, “Yes, as long as it’s edible!”

She was excited. After being a ghost, it had been a long time since she had such delicious food. She felt like she had entered a whole new world! Everything was edible here! Were they all ghosts now? What else couldn’t they eat? Could they even get food poisoning?

So, everyone felt like they entered a new world with food everywhere. They even planned to grow some vegetables. While handling the prey, Blake asked, “How does Lilly want it to be cooked?”

Jean replied, “Let’s stew it so everyone can eat it.”

Two of them squatted by the river and prepared the food.

It would seem like they were in a barbaric land without a breathtaking scene around them.

Pablo looked at the fawn and said, “That’s the Stellarnight Faun. A spirit beast from the Nether...”

Lilly had made up her mind and decided to tell her parent.
However, she found that her father was sitting on a cloudy while her mommy was on a soft couch.

“Daddy, Mommy?” Lilly asked confusingly.

Were they asleep?

She looked around and found out everyone was sleeping, either.

There was spirit energy flowing on them.

“So they are upgrading.” Lilly was surprised and said, “So you can upgrade by eating full?”

“How amazing! Master!”

Master was asleep too...

Was it really that magical?

Lilly grabbed the last piece of roast lamb leg, which cooked perfectly.

Although she was full, she felt like she could eat one more.

So full.

But why wasn't she like Father and the other ghosts if she was full?

Lilly frowned and said, "Who are you? Why are you being so rude to accuse me of stealing?"

The Celestia Fairy replied, "I am guarding this place when Emperor Prosper is away. Without his permission, no one is allowed to enter! You showed up here. Isn't it stealing?"

Lilly was stunned.

"Showing up here is stealing? If someone accidentally walks in this place, would that also be stealing?" She whispered.

The Celestia Fairy said coldly, "Yes!"

Lilly felt silent.

"So you are the guards here, right if you're guarding here?" Lilly asked.

But this question almost made Celestia Fairy lose her temper.

"I am not a guard! I am here for Emperor Prosper! Don't make me repeat. Hand over the things you stole and get out!"

Lilly felt frustrated. This girl was definitely a guard...

Lilly tried to explain, "I didn't steal anything. I was originally living here, and Emperor Prosper is my father."

Lilly was annoyed.

However, her Master had told her not to fight with others because of anger.

Lilly said, "Fine, you can keep guarding then!"

After saying that, she walked away without looking back.

The 'Celestia Fairy' was so angry. But she couldn't enter the palace.

She refused to believe that Lilly was the daughter of Emperor Prosper!

Her mother had once told her that she had seen Emperor Prosper's daughter before. Emperor Prosper tried to break through the three path restraints with his daughter, but unexpectedly, the rules almost collapsed!

Emperor Prosper's daughter was dead at that time.

That was why Emperor Prosper left the Northin Land...

She still remembered what her mother had said to her when she was young.

"Serene, remember this. You are the only daughter of Emperor Prosper..."
