

Eight Uncles 1231

Chapter 1231 High Speed!

"Don't always hang out with harem spirit." Blake felt helpless, then paused and added, "Don't play with her!"

Jean shook her head. "That won't work. She's pretty and speaks nicely..."

As she spoke, she prepared to float upward and leave quickly. However, Blake held her hand and did not let go of her.

Jean turned back in confusion.

Blake smiled slyly. "I haven't answered your question yet."

Jean thought of the conversation and said quickly, "No need! I was only kidding!"

Blake's smile never diminished. "But I take it seriously. Let me think about it. Where should I kiss you?"

Jean felt desperate. Oh! Don't!

The first thought that came to Jean's mind was the side effects of Passionate Top-Up Ointment.

Combined with Blake's current words, she could not think of anything normal. She had read too many novels.

Usually, in this situation, something would happen between the male and female leads.

When Jean thought about the scenario, such as a one-night stand or ambiguous breathing sounds coming from the dim hotel room, she was frightened!

Jean made a countermeasure in an instant. Strike first!

She quickly kissed Blake's cheek and said as if coaxing a baby, "Okay, continue your cultivation! Be obedient!"

After she finished speaking, she wanted to run away again. Blake still did not let her go and suddenly felt unsatisfied.

He gulped unconsciously, and his gaze fell on Jean's lips.

Jean felt her heart beat faster.

After a while, Jean finally returned to her senses, and without stopping, she took the initiative again and quickly kissed lightly on Blake's lips.

"Okay!" Jean panicked. "Don't go too far!" After saying that, she fled in panic.

This time, Blake did not stop her. He only looked at the embarrassed Jean running away, then chuckled helplessly.

He stroked his lips gently and sighed.

Jean ran away from the discipline hall.

The harem spirit was guarding the intersection and immediately grabbed Jean. "How about it? Are you at high speed?"

Jean pressed her chest and was in shock. "Yes, I am!"

The harem spirit was surprised. "Wow, you act so fast!"

Jean could not tell what the harem spirit meant and looked puzzled.

The harem spirit looked at Jean suspiciously. "I meant the speed in love. Don't tell me that you meant the speed you ran out!"

Jean responded, "I did mean that."

The harem spirit poked Jean's forehead helplessly. "You're so timid!"

Jean refuted, "You can seduce him if you dare to."

The harem spirit choked.

...

Lilly did not know what had happened in the underworld. After dinner, she was still chatting with her cousins in the room before going to bed.

Matthan was chewing on his hands when Drake held him.

Drake had some obsessive-compulsive disorder. Seeing Matthan's hands were full of saliva, he forcibly pulled Matthan's hands away.

Matthan groaned and continued to chew his hands.

"Josh, this is for you!" Lilly took out a bag of holding and said, "It's a bag of holding. You can put things hundreds or thousands of times larger in it."

Lilly did not see the torn bag hanging on Josh's waist this time. Perhaps Josh became mature and stopped showing off.

The bag of holding was like a sachet bag. The patterns were ancient and complicated, and the craftsmanship was exquisite. Josh loved it only by looking at it.

Furthermore, it was a bag of holding made by the King of Styx. King of Styx was a man, so the bag of holding he made fit the temperament of a male.

Josh took it over happily and exclaimed while observing it, "It turns out this is the real bag of holding!"

His ghost generals could get new homes from their tattered sacks today.

Zachary pursed his lips and said nothing. He wanted it, but he would not say it!

Josh showed off to Zachary. "Hey, are you envious? Lilly gave it to me first!"

Zachary sneered. "Well, I'm older. I should let my younger brother receive the gift first."

Josh's smile suddenly froze.

Lilly handed another bag of holding to Zachary. "Zac, this is yours! I specially left a dark green one for you!"

Zachary liked green. He took it in surprise. Although Lilly did not give it to him first, she chose the color for him!

Josh and Zachary loved the bag of holding very much.

Josh coughed and pretended to ask casually, "By the way, Lilly, how big is this bag? Can it hold 20 ghosts?"

He secretly showed off. I caught 20 ghosts. Praise me!

Chapter 1232 Lilly Praises Them

Drake sat aside calmly and was speechless when he saw Josh show off.

Lilly was as generous as ever. "Wow! You caught 20 ghosts! That's awesome!"

She gave a thumbs up with a look of admiration. Josh felt satisfied!

Lilly added, "The space of this bag of holding is probably as big as our house."

She looked out the window and gestured. "The main building plus the garden. If we want to move, we can move many things into it. You can put in as many ghosts as you want!"

Josh was secretly surprised. It's so spacious! It's space-folding!

The sack bag he piled up with talismans was so shabby compared to the bag of holding!

Zachary said lightly, "Hmm, it'll be enough for my 30 ghosts."

Josh and Drake cursed in unison in their hearts. He acted so conspicuously!

Hannah looked at Lilly longingly. "Where's mine? Do I have a gift?"

Lilly started to take something out of the ring.

"This is an Energy Elixir!" Lilly handed the elixir to Hannah. "It can change your physique and increase your strength."

Lilly thought that was suitable for Hannah because Hannah often fought... Uh, she exercised a lot.

Hannah was pleasantly surprised and very satisfied with the gift!

Even if Lilly brought back gold, silver, jewelry, and delicacies, she would feel it was not as good as this little Energy Elixir.

Hannah swallowed the Energy Elixir without saying a word.

Lilly opened a bottle of spiritual spring and handed it to Hannah. "Hannah, slow down. Don't choke!"

Hannah drank half the bottle of water and felt a heat rush from her throat to her stomach, then rush through her blood!

She suddenly felt like she could knock a cow away with one punch! I'm so excited! I want to try it on someone!

Hannah was excitedly moving chairs, sofas, and tables.

"Wow! This chair is as light as cotton! Oh my god, I can even lift the sofa with one hand! And also the table! Whoever cleans the house in the future, I'll lift the table for them!"

The others were speechless.

Matthan could not sit still and wanted to play on Lilly's bed. Lilly picked up Matthan, put him on the bed, and let him roll.

Matthan lay down and played with his feet. He was quiet and well-behaved. He looked at his siblings as if he understood their conversation.

Drake raised his head inadvertently and glanced at Lilly casually. Then he said calmly, "Okay, it's time to sleep. We have to get up early to school tomorrow and have the final exam the day after tomorrow."

Hannah immediately wailed, not because the exam was difficult but because she could not skip class because of the exam.

Now, her grades were high. She could still climb over walls and fight against anyone, and her scores were good.

Drake ignored Hannah's wailing. After saying that, he should have stood up and walked out first to hint at others not to disturb Lilly's rest. But Drake unusually did not move. He took off his glasses and wiped them.

Lilly wondered. "Drake, are you myopic?"

Drake nodded. "It's not a problem. It's not deep."

He spent a long time reading, so he inevitably became myopic. Fortunately, he had always had good eyesight habits, so the glasses degree was low.

Lilly shook her head. "You still have to take care of your eyes!"

She seemed to be digging out her treasure chest and took out a little jade bottle.

"This is Vision Eye Drops! Drake, I'll apply it to you!"

Lilly ran out of bed, came to Drake, and pressed Drake to the sofa.

Drake sat down and looked at Lilly intently. The cute little girl had grown up to be a big girl.

When Drake pondered, Lilly held Drake's face and took the opportunity to squeeze it.

Lilly pinched Drake's solemn face and made him have a smiling expression. Then, she secretly laughed in her heart, but she looked normal on her surface.

Drake felt it was funny and asked jokingly, "Do I need to check before applying eye drops?"

"Uh, yes, you must check to see if you have eye boogers."

Drake was speechless. Josh and Hannah laughed unceremoniously.

Drake tapped Lilly's forehead and said, "You're so naughty. How dare you make fun of me."

Lilly giggled, took off the cap of the little jade bottle, and got closer to Drake's eyes.

"Don't move! Don't blink! Don't be nervous!"

Drake looked at the trembling little jade bottle in front of him speechlessly. You're the one who is nervous, Lilly!

He was about to say he could do it himself, but Lilly suddenly opened his eyelids.

Then, the contents of the little jade bottle poured down as if washing his eyes. Drake looked like shedding tears.

Hmm, Lilly is as generous as usual!

Chapter 1233 Future Heir to Crawford Holdings

Seeing Drake's embarrassment, Josh had been waiting for a long time and snapped photos with his phone.

Zachary also held up his phone and took videos.

Lilly quickly wiped Drake's face and said, "Sorry! My hands are shaking!"

Drake closed his eyes and said, "It's okay."

"Okay, I'll drop it on the other eye."

Drake worried she would open his eyelids again, so he held her hand when her fingers touched his eye sockets.

"Don't shake."

"Okay! I won't shake!"

Lilly still shook and poured many eye drops on Drake's other eye. That's fine! I still have a lot of this good stuff!

Lilly quickly straightened the little jade bottle. The contents of bottle one remained two-thirds.

The stuff in this bottle was good. It was the dew condensed from the stamens of a flower in the Nether.

Not only the Nether was inaccessible to ordinary people, but the flower was also an extremely hard-to-find treasure.

However, Lilly thought that the dew in the flower's stamens would not have much effect on the novice ghost, so she did not feel any distress.

Lilly closed it and handed it to Drake. "If your eyes feel uncomfortable in the future, take a drop."

Drake was wiping his face with a tissue. He nodded and took it. When his eyes opened, things in the room suddenly became clear.

Although his myopia was low before, he still felt a blurry feeling when looking at some distant things at night. Now, it was so clear as if he never had myopia.

Drake was surprised. The effect was so good! It had instant results! He no longer needed his glasses.

However, he was used to wearing glasses. Wearing glasses could hide some of his emotions and make him appear calmer.

Drake started working at Crawford Holdings and began to learn so that he could inherit the family business in the future.

With such a burden on Crawford Holdings, it was natural that someone had to shoulder it.

He still looked too immature as he was fifteen years old. He needed to wear glasses to look older but could replace them with anti-glare glasses.

"Go to bed early!" Drake could not help it for the first time and touched Lilly's head.

Even if Lilly only gave Drake impromptu eye drops, he was satisfied. But he heard Lilly say, "Wait a minute! I haven't given you your gift yet!"

Drake was slightly startled. "What?" Do I have a gift too?

He suddenly felt joy, but he hid it well.

Lilly took out a necklace made of immortal stone.

There was a thumb-sized pendant hanging on a black rope. Lilly made that pendant with an immortal stone.

She cut that from a large piece of immortal stone.

It was not that Lilly did not want to give more, but the immortal stone came with The Order. Drake was only a mortal and could not bear too much pressure.

"I carved this myself!" Lilly grinned. "Drake, what do you think this is?"

Drake held the necklace and looked at the pendant. He felt indescribably moved for some unknown reason.

It was like a father watching his little one grow up, and then she gave him gifts.

The stone looked smooth and round. Drake could see Lilly had carefully polished it. She carved a strange shape, and the lines were very rough.

"Is it a mythical animal?" Drake smiled and recognized it at a glance.

Lilly's eyes lit up. "Yes!"

Lilly felt satisfied. Her sculpting was vivid, but the unlucky ghost kept saying she did not make it well.

Hannah was surprised. "How do you know it's a mythical animal?"

She looked at the necklace with widened eyes. "Are you sure it's a mythical animal? One eye is bigger, and the other is smaller. The mouth takes up half of the face..."

Drake glared at Hannah, which was a warning.

Hannah immediately changed her words. "Although the mouth takes up half of the face, it looks like a mythical animal! Lilly's carving is lifelike!"

Lilly's mouth twitched. Hannah, I can see you're lying.

"Okay. Let's go to sleep." Drake stood up and was ready to hug Matthan and leave.

He faintly had the aura of a president, which looked calm and decisive.

Drake was leaving, so the others also had to go out.

Josh and Hannah were reluctant to leave. They had endless chats with Lilly!

Matthan, who focused on playing with his feet, complained, "Eh! Ah!"

You all have received your gifts. Where is mine? Matthan looked at Lilly and cried.

Chapter 1234 Elder Brother Like Father

Lilly heard Matthan crying and asked quickly, "What's wrong?"

Matthan reached out to Lilly with tears and shouted, "Lillillilli!"

Lilly took him and held him in her arms.

"Matt doesn't want to leave!" Lilly looked at Drake. "Drake, can Matt sleep with me?"

Drake, Josh, and Zachary said in unison, "No!"

Matthan choked.

Lilly was confused. "Why not? He cried and didn't want to leave..."

There were tears on Matthan's soft and tender face, and his eyes were reddish from crying. Lilly had never cared for a baby before, and Matthan was her little brother. She was naturally reluctant to let him go.

Drake looked calm. "He's a boy. How can he sleep with you?"

Josh echoed, "That's right! There are differences between boys and girls!"

Zachary nodded. "Agree!"

Hannah followed suit. "That's right. It's better not to sleep together."

She was a girl and wanted to sneak over and sleep with Lilly at night. Matthan would block her way!

Matthan suddenly felt aggrieved and burst into tears. He was only a baby. There was no difference between boys and girls! Babies had no gender!

The poor baby looked at Lilly whimpering. Lilly did not know what to do for a while.

Drake narrowed his eyes and told Matthan, "You can keep crying, but Granny will be here later."

As expected, Bettany was at the top of the Crawford family. As soon as Drake mentioned Bettany, Matthan stopped crying.

Lilly searched the ring and found a wind chime with a doll hanging underneath.

With a gentle shake, the wind chimes tinkled, crisp and pleasant.

Matthan's eyes lit up. His gift! Lilly's ring was indeed a treasure chest!

Lilly put the wind chime in his hand. "This is for you. Go to bed now! Don't cry!"

She kissed Matthan's face affectionately and rubbed it. Matthan held up the wind chime and smiled happily, the tears on his face not drying yet.

Drake hugged Matthan and said, "Lilly, go to sleep too!"

Everyone said good night to each other and went back to their rooms.

Matthan did not sleep with Bettany at night. Drake felt that Hugh and Bettany were old. Hugh always slept deeply at night, and he would not wake up even if Matthan cried at night. Bettany was the only one who had to suffer.

So Drake naturally took over taking care of Matthan at night.

After returning to the room, Matthan rang the wind chime happily, and his eyes were bright.

Drake put away the books on the bedside. The book titles were related to babies, such as Baby English Enlightenment, 6-Month Infant Puzzle Development, and Digital Enlightenment. He skillfully changed Matthan's diapers and pajamas, adjusted the heater to a suitable temperature, and used the humidifier.

Matthan's crib was next to Drake's bed.

"Stop playing. Go to sleep." Drake took away the wind chime.

Matthan wanted to protest again, but there was no one else there. He seemed afraid to mess with Drake and pouted.

Soon, Drake fed Matthan milk.

Matthan played all day and usually went to bed at nine o'clock. Today, he played too late and fell asleep after a while.

Drake covered Matthan with a quilt, took away the bottle, and let Matthan sleep on his side.

After turning off the lights, he moved closer to Matthan in case he woke up in time if there was any movement at midnight.

A teenager lived the life of a father ahead of time. The elder brother became like a father.

...

After Zachary and Josh returned to the room, they still compared each other on WhatsApp.

Josh took various photos of the bag of holding and sent them to Zachary. "Mine looks better! Bright blue is so lively! Your dark green is ugly!"

Zachary also took a photo and sent it to Josh. "Mature boys like this color. You're different."

Josh changed the topic. "Drake got two gifts! Vision Eye Drops and a necklace! That necklace isn't ordinary. I feel a strange pressure!"

Zachary replied, "That pressure is indeed different. I feel it's mysterious."

Josh said, "Drake looked happy when he received the necklace but still pretended to be calm! I want to see him be embarrassed! I even want to see his reaction when he sees ghosts! Drake has seen ghosts before, but he hasn't seen them afterward. It's strange. Is it because he has grown up? Others say that children only can see ghosts when they're young. I want to see Drake make a fool of himself! Hahaha, he looks calm but must be panicking!"

"I took a screenshot."

"Hey, you cheat! Do you dare to fight with me?"

"I sent the screenshot to Drake."

Josh was speechless.

Crawford Mansion fell silent while Hannah's door suddenly opened.

Chapter 1235 Back to School Again

Hannah poked her head to confirm nobody was around and quickly ran to Lilly's room with her pillow.

She knocked on the door gently and whispered, "Lilly, open the door."

Bettany did not allow Hannah to sleep with Lilly because Bettany worried Hannah would chat with Lilly at midnight and neither of them would sleep well.

When they were growing up, Bettany asked them to go to bed early, so Hannah had to sneak in.

The door opened quickly. Lilly said, "I knew you would sneak over here!"

Hannah grinned and quickly got into the room and closed the door.

Then, she threw herself onto Lilly's bed with a pillow and sighed in relief.

"Lilly, how many days are you staying here this time?" Hannah turned around and looked at Lilly.

Lilly relaxed, stretched out her arms, and closed her eyes. "I'll go back after the exam. There are still many things to do!"

I'm busy! Underworld can't live without me!

Hannah said, "Okay! Have you finished your review? It's okay if you don't do well in the exam! I'll give you extra lessons in the future."

Lilly opened her eyes and looked at Hannah suspiciously. "Are you sure you won't lead me the wrong way?"

Hannah said righteously, "Of course not! Even if I accidentally went wrong, I would be the first to lay underneath you to prevent you from falling in pain!"

"Haha!"

They laughed happily, which was somewhat different from the boys. Sisters could lie together on the bed and chat when they were young. After growing up, they might share secrets and worries they did not want to tell others. It was something that the brothers could not replace.

While chatting, Lilly fell asleep unconsciously.

Hannah was also sleepy but was reluctant to sleep. She wanted to listen to Lilly's stories about the underworld.

It talked about some strange cases of people going to Hell Ruler Palace after death, how to defeat the King of Cities, and how to attack the King of Judgment.

Hannah liked to hear Lilly fighting everyone in the underworld. She looked forward to it, but she was too sleepy.

Before falling asleep completely, Hannah randomly pulled the quilt for Lilly, covered her tightly, hugged her, and patted her. "Don't catch a cold..."

Hannah muttered and fell asleep. Unknowingly, she kicked the quilt aside and put her foot on Lilly.

It was cold and windy outside but was warm inside Crawford Mansion.

Lilly woke up in a daze and felt something lying on her face. When she opened her eyes, she found it was Hannah's palm.

"Get up..." Lilly pushed Hannah with her eyes closed.

Hannah turned around and said, "Give me five more minutes..."

Suddenly, the door opened, and Bettany's voice sounded, "It's time to get up! I told you not to look for Lilly at midnight. Neither of you can get up! What time did you go to bed last night?"

Hannah immediately turned over and sat up. "I'm up! Granny! I'm already up!"

She held her eyelids open.

Bettany glared at Hannah and Lilly and pretended to be serious. "Get up! I'll give you five minutes."

Hannah and Lilly rushed to change clothes and wash up, then went to school after eating.

Lilly sat in the classroom again and suddenly felt like she was in another world.

"Lilly! Wow, you're finally here! I thought you wouldn't come to the exam!" Luka was the first to run over and ask, "Do you still remember me?"

Lilly nodded. Her memory was good. She could remember many ghosts in the mortal world and the underworld, not to mention her classmates.

"Luka, good morning!" Lilly greeted.

Luka was immediately happy, and Summer also rushed over. "Lilly! You're back! Tomorrow is the exam!"

Vincent and Davis quickly gathered around. "Lilly, have you finished your review? Do you want us to teach you?"

Davis said, "Without you, we lack one member to play crazily!"

Luka refuted, "Nonsense! We're a hard-working group! How can you still be in the mood to have fun?"

Everyone was laughing and joking. The classmates were happy that Lilly was back.

Only Cheryl was a little unhappy. She was the group favorite in the class before. Even if she was not, at least everyone liked her. Since the incident with Lilly, everyone ignored her.

Cheryl bit her lips and did not dare to target Lilly. However, she felt sore, depressed, and unfair.

Eliana had not spent much time with Cheryl. The adults did not allow it and said that Cheryl had a bad character.

Eliana still could not help but say, "There are so many people surrounding Lilly as soon as she returns. It's noisy."

Cheryl said softly, "It's nothing."

Eliana glanced at Cheryl, while Cheryl said solemnly, "Only study is important! Let's read!"

Eliana was speechless.

Cheryl was studying hard.

Lilly had not been back for a semester. She did not study or come to school. The previous courses were simple and nothing. But she might not be able to keep up now.

Cheryl did not dare to provoke Lilly anymore. But she would do better than Lilly and surpass Lilly!

Chapter 1236 First in the Exam

Cheryl could not hold it back and deliberately went to the toilet to pass Lilly's class. As a result, she saw Lilly surrounded by classmates, which made her feel even more jealous.

Since Lilly exposed her at the school assembly last time, she had become the target of public criticism. Everyone in the class disliked her.

She became famous in school. Even the classmates in other classes disliked her.

It's all Lilly's fault! She's the favorite of the Crawford family. Even if she doesn't clarify it, it won't affect her. Why did she have to do that? Can't she leave me a way to survive?

Cheryl felt that her current life was very suffocating. When she went to school, others criticized her. Everyone thought Cheryl was scheming. She felt depressed every day, but she had to come to school.

Now, even if she got good scores on the exam, her classmates would not praise her. They would only sneer.

Cheryl felt lonely, depressed, and miserable. While struggling in such a vortex, she had a vague feeling that her life would never get back on track.

...

Lilly did not know how Cheryl felt and did not care about it. She studied seriously and cherished her days in class.

Her seriousness made the head teacher a little worried. Lilly had a good attitude toward studying, but no matter how talented she was, she could not afford to be absent from class for an entire semester.

If she failed to do well in the exam, she would become an example of a girl who could not achieve results without studying hard. She would feel frustrated until she lost her talent.

The head teacher could not help but remind her, "Lilly, it's good to study hard. The results sometimes aren't that important. I know you've worked very hard and seriously. It won't matter even if you don't pass the exam."

However, Lilly said solemnly, "I'll be the first in the class!"

The head teacher was speechless.

Luka sat behind Lilly and did not dare to say anything. Oh my god! The first? I'm already satisfied if I pass the exam!

Luka studied hard but never declared to be ranked first. Looking at the confident Lilly, Luka felt admired.

The head teacher patted Lilly's shoulder and said nothing. He felt Lilly was exaggerating. When the exam results came out, he should think about how to discuss with the Crawford family about Lilly's education.

Lilly's declaration spread in the school soon.

She had not been in school for a long time and was famous because of the last math competition, so there were many rumors about her.

Some said Lilly hired a famous teacher at home; some said she could not go out because of poor health; some even spread rumors that she had leukemia and took medicine and chemotherapy at home.

When Lilly said she wanted to be the first in the final exam, her words spread fast. No one was interested in what grades they could get on the exam. They all stared at Lilly.

Cheryl overheard about Lilly wherever she went. Josh even boasted about Lilly in the class, which irritated her.

That's annoying! Can't they be quiet? They distract me from studying!

Amidst all kinds of discussions, Lilly ushered in the final exam on the next day.

Although she had heard others talking about her, she was no longer afraid of other people's comments. After returning to the underworld, her experience as Hell Ruler in a few months had already trained her to be calm.

The two days of exams passed quickly.

The last two days of the final semester were the time for school teachers to correct exam papers and prepare for the holidays. The 1st-grade and 2nd-grade students were home, and the 3rd-grade students studied at school.

The results came out quickly, and the weirdest phenomenon in history occurred.

Everyone got their exam papers and glanced at them in a hurry. Those who used to have bad grades were no longer wailing, and those who used to do well in the exams were no longer showing off. They all stared at Lilly's results.

Finally, when Lilly's results came out, she was the first in the class!

Everyone was dumbfounded. Some cheered, some were shocked, but no one doubted it.

Since Lilly won first place in the national math competition, no one doubted her ability anymore. Everyone only felt amazing that Lilly could get first place in the exam!

The teacher also gave up on discussing with Lilly's family. At this moment, he wondered whether Lilly's IQ was higher than ordinary people's.

Lilly said modestly, "Because of my reasons, I can't come to school often, but I have always studied hard! My brother gives me tutoring. Whenever I have time, I'll do exercise books and homework. My brother also gave me extra homework, so I understood thoroughly every knowledge point. That's why I did well in the exam. Please don't learn from my bad habit of not attending class!"

Here was Luka's previous thought. Lilly can do well in exams even if she doesn't attend school, which means I can do the same! Tomorrow, I'll blow up the school!

After Luka heard that Lilly had done many exercise books and her brother even added extra homework for her, Luka immediately wiped out the previous idea. Sure enough, genius is born from hard work. I'm not a genius, so I can't bomb the school.

Chapter 1237 Drake Saw a Ghost

Once the results were out, there would be a closing ceremony, and the semester would be over.

Two conspicuous people appeared in the school. One was Josh, who always praised Lilly wherever he went. The other was Hannah, who always asked everyone she met, "Do you know who I am? I'm Lilly's sister!"

...

Cheryl could hear about Lilly wherever she went. Lilly had become a popular figure in the school.

Cheryl heard that Lilly got first place in the exam. Before the exam, Lilly made an arrogant statement that she would be the first in the exam. Cheryl was waiting to see Lilly fail in embarrassment but did not expect Lilly to get first place!

Looking at the pretty Lilly, who chatted and laughed with her classmates, Cheryl suddenly felt a sense of powerlessness.

This time, Cheryl failed to reach the top ten in the class.

She suddenly felt ridiculous that she was secretly competing with Lilly, but Lilly never took her seriously.

Moreover, the gap between Cheryl and Lilly was getting bigger. Cheryl looked at the dazzling Lilly and realized that she would never catch up with Lilly in this life.

Cheryl covered her face and started crying.

On the way home from school, Josh scrambled to help Lilly carry her school bag.

Zachary and Drake came to pick up Lilly and Hannah. As the children from the Crawford family, they were always the most eye-catching presence.

Cheryl grabbed the strap of her school bag tightly, bit her lips, and ran away. Although Lilly was excellent, she still hated Lilly!

After she graduated, she would no longer be in the same school as Lilly. She hoped she would not see Lilly again because Lilly was her nightmare.

Lilly weighed on her and made her breathless, and she would never be able to transcend Lilly.

Decades later, after Cheryl died, she came to Hell Ruler Palace and thought with sadness that she was finally free. Lilly had been her lifelong nightmare, and she no longer had to bear that pressure. But when she saw the King of Hell, she was stunned.

...

It got dark early in the north. Lilly and others passed a kindergarten on their way home in the car and suddenly saw a female teacher coming out of the kindergarten.

The female teacher looked tired, but she was happy. Lilly could see that she was still glad after getting off work.

"Lilly, what's wrong?" Josh followed Lilly's gaze.

Zachary glanced at the female teacher and squinted slightly. Josh said, "There's no ghost..."

When Lilly glanced at anyone, they would immediately suspect whether a ghost possessed the other person.

"Although there's no ghost, she has bad luck. Lilly, did your unlucky ghost go out to play?"

Lilly shook her head. Zachary said, "That's not bad luck. That's an unlucky charm."

Bad luck and unlucky charm were different.

The bad luck meant that the person had been unlucky for a long time due to his aura or his aura had been disturbed for a long time.

The unlucky charm was contagious and short-term. It depended on who passed it to the female teacher.

They whispered together, and Hannah tried to move closer. Although she could not join in, she liked to listen to it.

"Stop the car," Drake ordered calmly. The chauffeur stopped immediately.

"Let's go!" Lilly ran down with Josh and Zachary.

Hannah hurriedly shouted, "Wait for me!"

Only Drake and the chauffeur were in the car. Drake said, "Follow them. Drive over there and stop."

Drake pointed to the corner ahead. The female kindergarten teacher walked on that road.

Drake did not know where they were going, but there was a parking space on the roadside where the chauffeur could park and wait.

Lilly, Josh, Zachary, and Hannah quietly followed the female kindergarten teacher. They pretended to walk home from school.

The car passed them and the female teacher, then parked in the parking space in front.

The chauffeur said worriedly, "Mr. Drake, are you going to let them run around?"

Drake responded coldly, "Don't ask any questions."

The chauffeur felt a sense of oppression and quickly shut up.

Drake was looking at his siblings in the rearview mirror. They were getting closer. The female kindergarten teacher had already walked to the side of the car and looked back at Lilly and the others behind her.

She did not see Lilly and the others get out of the car. She thought it was dark, and no parents picked up the children. It was dangerous.

She was a little worried and could not help but slow down. She thought about walking slower to see which community the children were from and escort them by the way.

"It's strange. I've never seen these children before..." The female kindergarten teacher muttered.

Drake looked at her and saw the worry in her eyes.

She was a good teacher. He wondered why she had an unlucky charm.

While he was thinking about it, Drake suddenly felt something was wrong. Something was looking at him.

Drake subconsciously turned back and looked at the window near the roadside. As a result, he discovered that someone was lying on the window!

A man hid behind the car while staring at the female kindergarten teacher.

Drake could not see the man's face but found a male ghost head hanging from his body. The ghost stared upside down at Drake.

Seeing Drake, the ghost suddenly showed a scary smile.

Since the ghost was upside down, his eyes looked even weirder.

Drake's eyes widened.

Chapter 1238 Mom, Where Is Lilly?

Drake had not seen a ghost in a long time. He saw ghosts with Lilly several times when he was a child. He even picked up Lilly and ran away once.

He could show calmness since childhood, and so did now.

He looked away as if he had not seen anything, but his neck was stiff.

The ghost outside the window seemed a little confused.

So, the ghost stretched out from the host, hung his elongated body above the car roof, and penetrated the roof upside down to approach Drake.

Drake looked out of the car window but felt something hanging from the top of his head. When he reacted, he saw a bunch of greasy human hair hanging down, and then there was an upside-down face.

He was caught off guard and came face to face with the ghost, less than half an arm's length away.

"Hey..." The upside-down ghost grinned, and his whole face looked even weirder.

Drake's back was stiff. Even if he had seen a ghost before, he had never been so close to it. He could even smell the damp and cold pressure from it.

He lowered his eyes slightly and opened a book. He was so calm that his fingers did not tremble at all. Only the tense back of his hands betrayed his true feelings.

The ghost laughed and rushed toward Drake, but a bright light exploded and knocked him out!

A sharp scream sounded. Lilly, Josh, and Zachary, who had walked to the car, were stunned and subconsciously turned to look.

Josh and Zachary saw a stretched ghost that got ejected from the car.

The host, whom the ghost leaned over, was a wretched-looking man. He felt dizzy for no apparent reason and hurriedly crouched under the car.

Josh felt shocked and whispered, "Drake saw a ghost!"

Zachary frowned. "Shut up!"

Lilly took Josh and Zachary's hands and moved forward while whispering, "Let's go!"

Josh and Zachary continued to move forward as if nothing had happened.

However, they soon realized something was wrong. The female kindergarten teacher in front of them walked slower. When they passed her, she looked at them with concern.

They then understood that the female teacher thought they had no adults to pick them up and wanted to watch them return to the community.

So they could only pretend that they had just discovered their car and took a few steps back. "Hey, Drake is here."

When they got into the car, the female teacher was stunned for a moment, but when she saw the car start, she stopped paying attention.

At this moment, the man who focused on peeping the female teacher did not even realize that there was someone in the car he was hiding from, but even if he knew, he probably would not care.

The man adjusted his peaked cap and walked away from the other side.

The female teacher was relieved and continued heading toward the community.

Kindergarten should be an educational facility equipped in this property. The female kindergarten teacher entered the community soon after.

The car circled and returned to the opposite side of the community, stopped quietly, and waited.

"Lilly, will that man show up again?" Josh stared at the other side.

Lilly answered, "He will."

Drake opened the official website of the kindergarten, found the teacher lineup, and finally locked in a teacher.

"That teacher's name is Raven Berrycloth."

The surname was Berrycloth. That was a rare surname.

Lilly suddenly said, "Let's go home. Granny will worry us."

Josh felt confused. "Huh? Going back now?"

After spending a lot of time tracking, Josh was excited and looking forward to catching ghosts with Lilly, but Lilly suddenly wanted to go home.

Hannah followed them and came back in confusion. "Huh?"

What happened just now?

Drake told the chauffeur, "Drive home."

Without the siblings knowing, Drake still asked someone to pay attention to Raven's safety.

He did not know that when Lilly got close to Raven, she affixed Raven with a void good luck talisman.

...

Bettany stood in the doorway while craning her neck to look outside.

Hugh took Matthan with him and chattered, "Didn't Drake say something delayed them on the way? Why are you in a hurry? They'll be back soon."

Bettany angrily refuted, "You know nothing! How can I not be worried when the children haven't returned home?"

As soon as she finished speaking, she saw several cars entering from outside. Edward and Liam got off first, followed by Gilbert, who was already a director-level professor and expert. Behind them were Anthony and Lisa, who rushed back.

Jonas was away filming a movie. He had a tight schedule and could not come back. Bryson, a veteran captain, could not leave either. In addition to Cloud not going home all year round, the technology expert, Max, had also rushed back.

Whenever Lilly came home, the Crawford family tried their best to gather.

Hugh said, "Look, the children are back. Don't worry!"

Bettany rolled her eyes at him.

Can this be the same? These brats are old children! I meant the young ones!

"Mom, where's Lilly?" Max asked as soon as he came back.

Edward also shouted, "Lilly! I'm back!"

Gilbert said, "It's so quiet. Mom, Lilly hasn't come back yet?"

Anthony also glanced at the quiet main building behind Bettany and asked, "Didn't they finish school?"

Bettany felt a buzzing in her ears. Her sons kept asking her where Lilly was.

She glared at them and pointed to her mouth. "Lilly is in my mouth!"

Her sons were speechless.

Lisa looked over and saw Bettany's worried look. She immediately knew that Lilly had not come back.

Lisa did not want to piss off Bettany. So she transformed into a loving mother, happily picked up Matthan, and threw him into the air.

"Matt!" Lisa shouted in joy.

Matthan, who was in Hugh's arms before, was dumbfounded when he suddenly flew into the air.

Chapter 1239 Narrow-Minded Ghost

Bettany whipped Lisa with a feather duster while Lisa hugged Matthan tightly and ran away.

General and Bailey were a bit old. Dogs only had a lifespan of more than ten years. They lay on the lawn calmly and watched Lisa running around.

Lilly and others came back and saw Bettany chasing Lisa. Bettany already had gray hair, and Lisa still looked like she did when she was young.

Bettany could not run anymore, and Lisa looked like she was running very hard but slowed down intentionally.

"Granny! Aunt Lisa!" Lilly shouted.

People from the Crawford family instantly came out one after another.

"Lilly, you're back!"

"Hey, Lilly, look what I brought you!"

"Lilly, did you miss me?"

Anthony looked at Drake. "Where did you take Lilly?"

Drake replied briefly, "Something happened on the road."

There was no need to explain what happened, so Anthony did not ask any more questions.

Bettany felt relieved and asked with concern, "Lilly, are you hungry? Why did it take you so long to come back? I've been waiting for a long time."

Lilly hugged Bettany and said coquettishly, "Sorry, Granny!"

She wanted to say that she would never make Bettany wait again. But it was unrealistic. After a few days, she would return to the underworld, and Bettany still had to wait.

Jonas, Bryson, and Cloud could not join the reunion dinner after the final exam. Edward proudly sent the family photos to the family chat group.

Jonas replied, "The showing-off villain."

Bryson sent, "Hmph."

Cloud did not respond.

After eating, Josh still thought about that ghost and asked without fear, "Drake! Did the ghost get into the car to look for you? Were you scared to death?"

Zachary silently watched Josh seeking death. Josh added, "You must have panicked but still managed to stay calm! Right, Lilly? It's such a pity that I didn't see it..."

Maybe it was because he would not grow up. He became more naughty and teased Drake.

Drake said lightly, "All your pocket money will get deducted this month."

Josh froze. He had forgotten that Drake was in charge of his, Hannah's, and Zachary's pocket money. He regretted teasing Drake!

Josh immediately changed the topic. "Lilly, what kind of ghost is that?"

That was where Josh and Zachary still struggled. Their ability to catch ghosts was already potent. But they could only roughly guess the kind of malignant spirits based on the host's behavior or directly ask the ghosts.

They did not have Lilly's ability to see the essence of the malignant spirit at a glance. But they guessed the malignant spirit was probably related to voyeurism. After all, the man possessed by the malignant spirit was stalking the female teacher.

Lilly said, "That's a narrow-minded ghost."

Josh and Zachary felt puzzled upon hearing that.

The children were chatting in Lilly's room. They were reluctant to leave even after midnight. There used to be only a few children, but now Matthan, Lisa, Edward, and Max also joined them.

Bettany kept driving them away from Lilly's room, and Crawford Mansion finally became silent.

Catching ghosts was easy for Lilly, Josh, and Zachary now.

As soon as Lilly woke up the next day, she saw Josh and Zachary returning and eager to come in.

Josh looked excited. "Lilly! We've captured the narrow-minded ghost!"

Lilly was shocked. "Did you two stay up at midnight to catch a ghost?"

Josh said proudly, "That's right!"

Wasn't Lilly doing that before? Now we're inheriting Lilly's job!

Lilly's mouth twitched, and she asked the narrow-minded ghost. "Tell me. Where are you from? How did you die?"

Lilly casually sat down at the dressing table but carried the majesty of Hell Ruler. Even the pink dressing table had an inexplicable illusion of being a Hell Ruler Palace royal desk.

"Why did you possess your host? What does your host want to do by following Raven Berrycloth?"

The narrow-minded ghost stared at Lilly and smiled evilly.

Here isn't the Hell Ruler Palace. Does this kid think she's the King of Hell? How funny!

Chapter 1240 She Doesn't Know How to Interrogate

The narrow-minded ghost observed Lilly and others as if he did not bother to say anything.

Josh shook his head. "It's useless. We caught and kept interrogating him, but he didn't say anything! So we had to bring him back first. His host was squatting on the roadside outside the community and stared at the lights on a building."

Both Josh and Zachary guessed that the lighted house was Raven's home.

After Raven turned off the lights, that man recorded the time she turned off the lights on his phone. Zachary took a quick look when he caught the narrow-minded ghost.

"He opened a page of the address book. It contained Ms. Berrycloth's daily schedule."

Josh and Zachary had a tacit understanding and knocked the man unconscious. They found many photos of Raven on his phone. Those were all candid photos.

Josh said, "I originally wanted to delete it all, but that's criminal evidence..."

That man had bad intentions. So what if Josh deleted everything on his phone? Maybe that man had a backup on his computer.

What if they called the police and arrested him on the spot? How many days could he get detained? The police would release him in the end.

Zachary frowned. "So we still have to know what he wants to do and when he wants to commit the crime. Although it'll be risky, we'd better get him into prison."

Lilly nodded. That was indeed the case. Everyone looked at the narrow-minded ghost.

The narrow-minded ghost chuckled. "You guys continue."

I won't say anything! All women in the world are b*tches! It would be better if they were all destroyed! How could I possibly tell them anything?

"Hehe, you guys are powerful! But what can you do? Even if the King of Hell comes and throws me to hell, I won't be afraid!"

The narrow-minded ghost looked abnormal. Even after death, he still had a perverted temperament.

Lilly became solemn, and a pen suddenly appeared in her hand. It was the destiny pen used by Hell Ruler to change life and death!

Of course, there was no need to use the pen of judgment when judging a small malignant spirit.

With the destiny pen, Lilly's oppressive aura suddenly appeared. The narrow-minded ghost suddenly felt he was in the Hell Ruler Palace and felt shocked!

Is she the real King of Hell?

Suddenly, he laughed wildly. "It's so funny! King of Hell is a girl!"

The narrow-minded ghost stared at Lilly.

Josh was furious when he saw the narrow-minded ghost's disrespectful look. He was so angry that he wanted to beat him up, but Zachary held him back.

Lilly did not show any emotions. It was her first official trial in the mortal world since she returned to the throne.

"Are you not afraid at all?" Lilly looked at the narrow-minded ghost calmly.

The narrow-minded ghost showed a perverted and disdainful look. "My death process is no worse than hell. So I won't be afraid of real hell!"

...

Lilly waved. The destiny pen instantly hung above the narrow-minded ghost's head and crushed him with a killing momentum!

However, even though the narrow-minded ghost was deformed and about to be suppressed and dissipated into ashes, his eyes still shone with evil light while looking at Lilly mockingly.

Lilly took back her destiny pen and suddenly felt confused. Are there ghosts in this world who are not afraid of anything?

When she felt puzzled, Pablo appeared floating in the air.

"It's useless to press him. He doesn't want others to feel well when he doesn't," Pablo said calmly.

Lilly was surprised. "Master! Why are you here?"

Lilly suddenly stiffened when she saw Pablo and finally remembered what she had left behind.

She ran too fast without taking Pablo or Jean with her!

Lilly did not even dare to think about how Jean would complain when she went back. Forget it. Don't think about things that I don't dare to think about.

"Then what should we do?" Lilly was confused. "He's not afraid of anything."

Pablo said, "Human nature has weaknesses. A narrow-minded person is most afraid of seeing others living better than him. Especially the person he hates the most."

Pablo glared at the narrow-minded ghost coldly.

The narrow-minded ghost's expression changed slightly, then turned sinister and vicious, and he laughed. "Impossible! I destroyed her! There's no way she can live a better life than me! There will never be a man who can accept a woman like her! Women are the most despicable! They can never live a better life than me!"

Josh could not bear his anger anymore. "Your mother is also a woman. Don't you find it unpleasant to say that?"

The narrow-minded ghost was stunned, then giggled. "My mother is also a b*tch."

Josh was speechless.
