

The Princess to Eight Uncles Episode 1311

Chapter 1311 Does This Situation Look Familiar?

Lilly was extremely worried.

“Crawford Ancestor, Uncle Cloud’s gun was stolen. This must be a significant setback, right?” Daddy had said that they dreaded nothing more than having their guns stolen. It was the gravest mistake and something they couldn’t tolerate. Dying on the battlefield was one thing, but having the weapon taken away is another matter entirely. It would definitely be mocked by comrades!

Crawford Ancestor seemed to be anxious as well. Perhaps we pushed Cloud too far. We might damage his self- esteem. Maybe we should reconsider...

However, what they didn’t expect was...

After Cloud’s gun had been snatched, he found it somewhat amusing. In all my years of combat experience, my gun had never been stolen before, even if I was asleep! Today is the first time that my gun has been stolen. Well, not exactly by a person, but by a ghost.

“If my comrades find out about this, I’ll probably be in big trouble, and they might tease me for a lifetime. Unfortunately, I could never return to those times. Cloud mumbled. Then he could not help but let out a faint smile.

The ghost lord was stunned upon seeing Cloud’s smile.

In the shadows, Lilly and Crawford Ancestor were stunned as well.

Lilly whispered, “Uncle Cloud seems deeply affected. His mental state isn’t normal!”

Crawford Ancestor said, “Cloud... can’t handle even such a little problem; what’s the point of his cultivation?”

Nevertheless, they sat still and continued to watch.

After Cloud realized that Lilly and Crawford’s ancestor had disappeared, he already knew they were going to test him again. They wanted to make me give up ghost cultivation and obediently go for reincarnation. Indeed, it did hurt me after my gun was taken away. So, I must get the gun back on my own!

At one moment, Cloud was smiling inexplicably. The next moment, Cloud threw the short blade in his hand at the ghost lord without warning.

Ghost lord effortlessly caught the short blade and said, "Do you really think..."

The next second was a loud gunshot!

Lilly jumped in surprise as she heard the sudden gunshot.

Ghost lord stared in disbelief at the bullet that had pierced his heart. He had not even had time to react before Cloud had seized the bag of holding from his waist.

At the next moment, he bound the ghost lord with three strikes.

The ghost lord was suppressed by the golden light in the gun and could not believe what had happened. How could such a novice ghost tie me up?

Cloud sneered and asked, "Do you really think I only have a gun?"

Cloud had a miniature gun in his hand that seemed like a keychain.

Lilly could not help but ask, "Crawford Ancestor, are you sure this is not a toy?"

Crawford Ancestor bristled and said, "That's a minigun, which is too small and very troublesome to reload. It is useless on the battlefield. However, it is a real anti-personnel weapon. With a maximum range of 120 meters and a velocity of 180 meters per second after firing, a shot to the heart is fatal enough."

Crawford Ancestor was stunned. What is this? Defeat ghost lord with a gun?

Ghost lord yelled, "You're such an incredulous scoundrel! Release me!"

Cloud chuckled innocently and said, "Shut your mouth."

The lord fell silent.

Cloud then opened the bag of holdings. He only wanted to retrieve his own gun. It is a gift from a comrade; I could not afford to lose it! However, the bag of holding had a lot of things, and I could not accurately retrieve my gun as it was not my own bag.

Cloud had no choice but to turn the bag of holding upside down and pour out its contents onto the ground.

Lilly and Crawford Ancestor watched in bewilderment and approached Cloud.

“Uncle Cloud, what are you doing?” Lilly asked.

Various items spilled out onto the ground, including clothing, provisions, half of a demonic beast, and Azurite gemstones.

Cloud rummaged through the pile and finally retrieved his own gun. Having been robbed once, I did not want to go through it again.

“Lilly, I am...”

Before Cloud could continue, Ghost lord was stunned as he saw Crawford’s ancestor. He quickly said, “Mr. Joseph, save me! He steals my belongings.”

Lilly sighed in exasperation and said, “Crawford Ancestor, does this situation look familiar to you?”

Crawford Ancestor fell into silence.

Lilly raised her hand and changed her outfit in a second. Then she said, “Stealing from you? From what I saw, it wasn’t quite like that.”

Ghost lord was stunned. Little Hades?

He immediately broke into a cold sweat. Just a moment ago, I arrogantly mentioned summoning Little Hades to force Cloud to return his stolen items. But now, Little Hades had arrived!

Chapter 1312 What Did You Really Mean?

The ghost lord fell silent as he was completely stunned.

“Ms. Hades!” The ghost lord, who had been tied up tightly, said this while trembling.

The ghost lord had been arrogant earlier, but now he felt quite intimidated.

“I’m not...” The ghost lord tried to explain but found himself at a loss for words. What could I actually explain?

Lilly asked, “Not what? Not human?”

The ghost lord hesitated, looking embarrassed.

On the other side, Cloud was still rummaging through the bag of holding.

“Wow, this bag of holding is amazing. I thought I had emptied it, but there are still things inside.”

“Wow, an azurite gemstone!”

Cloud had realized the value of azurite gemstones. They were definitely valuable, just like a bar of gold in the mortal world!

“There are actually two Azurite gemstones here, equivalent to two hundred million merit points.”

“Well, what else could I say? It is a gift for free!”

Cloud muttered to himself.

Crawford Ancestor also muttered, “Barely enough!”

Then he picked and chose like he was scavenging for treasure.

Crawford Ancestor said, “These two azurite gemstones are the only thing worth something here.”

“The demonic beast was half eaten. They’re not even fresh anymore!”

“These azurite gemstones have had their spirit energy completely extracted! They are no different from trash.”

“So overall, it’s just these two azurite gemstones that are valuable.”

Lilly could not help but frown. Uncle Cloud, Crawford Ancestor! Can you please respect me? I’m still making a judgment here, and you’re already dividing up the spoils?

The ghost lord pointed at Cloud and said, "You see! He is the one who stole my things, didn't he?"

Lilly clenched her fist and said, "Well..."

Cloud and Crawford Ancestors immediately put down what they were holding and sat down as if they were being obedient.

Cloud carefully gathered everything he had poured out and stuffed it into the Bag of Holding. He acted as if nothing had happened.

Lilly looked at the ghost lord and said, "I just saw you take his demonic beast and his gun. Do you have anything to say?"

The ghost lord felt guilty, but he looked indignant and said, "I didn't. It wasn't me. My bag of holding is still in his hands! Ms. Hades, you can't harbor him just because you are relatives, right?" Little Hades called him Uncle Cloud!

The ghost lord sneered. Little Hades would be blatantly favoring his relative and perverting justice if she judged Cloud!

Lilly frowned slightly. I feel like he is vaguely rogue! Why had I felt embarrassed earlier?

Sure enough, the ghost lord said, "Ms. Hades, can you see if I have the demonic beast and his gun now? I just came to have a look, But he attacked me and took away my bag of holding. He's even more egregious!" Things that hadn't been taken couldn't be considered stolen. They could just take their things back!

Lilly frowned and asked, "Are you sure this is your bag of holding?"

She pointed to the bag of holdings in Cloud's hand.

The ghost lord nodded firmly and said, "Yes!"

Upon hearing the ghost lord's words, Cloud frowned and casually turned the Bag of Holding inside out.

Cloud's gun fell out of the bag of holding.

"How could my gun be in your bag of holding? Isn't this considered stealing?"

The ghost lord fell silent. Then he stammered, “You just put it in there while I wasn’t looking! Anyway, you were trying to steal my things earlier! Ms. Hades can prove my words.”

Crawford Ancestor calmly said, “Oh? So, do you see any of your things in his hand? We just poured out the contents of your bag of holding to take a look. You’re the one acting unreasonably. Ms. Hades, he is more egregious here!”

Crawford Ancestor repeated the ghost lord’s previous words verbatim.

The ghost lord choked and said, “You guys just said these two azurite gemstones are valuable! You want to keep them for yourselves!”

Cloud chuckled and said, “No, these two azurite gemstones are indeed valuable. Are we not allowed to say that?”

Crawford Ancestor sneered and said, “Saying that means we want to keep them?”

Regardless of her position. Lilly out.

On the other hand, Crawford Ancestor angrily said, “Why should I steal your stones? Do you have any idea how much property I own? Stop saying nonsense!”

“I wouldn’t even bend down to pick them up if I saw them by the roadside!”

Crawford Ancestor’s words crushed the ghost lord beneath them.

The ghost lord instantly let out dark energy and looked utterly defeated.

“It’s not what I meant. Mr. Joseph. I meant that he stole from me, not you.”
The ghost lord spoke while pointing at Cloud.

Joseph said angrily, “Cloud is my grandson! Why does he even need your stones? Are you kidding me?”

The ghost lord was stunned upon listening to Joseph’s words. Did I just say something stupid? This is not what I really mean!

“Mr. Joseph, that’s not what I meant...”

Joseph said coldly, “So, what did you mean?”

The ghost lord hurriedly explained, "I didn't mean that."

Joseph said, "Cut the bullsh*t!"

The ghost lord pleaded, "Mr. Joseph, please spare me. I will do anything.

Joseph sneered, "Well, you're quite an interesting ghost!"

Cloud and Lilly both fell into silence. What does Joseph really mean?

The Princess to Eight Uncles Episode 1313

Chapter 1313 I Choose to Do So

The ghost lord repeatedly said, "I'll give you all my belongings... Please don't despise it."

Joseph sneered and said, "Well, I do despise it. From the start, Cloud had no intention of taking his things. He had taken the bag of holding just to find his gun! Although he mentioned the two azurite gemstones were valuable, he did not desire them! Moreover, I had absolute confidence in Cloud! He would never take someone else's belongings! Right now, I am sure he is just thinking about ensuring the ghost lord face the appropriate consequences for their actions instead of taking revenge.

The ghost lord dared not look at Joseph. I could feel that my possessions were truly useless in his eyes.

The ghost lord, who had been acting so stubborn just a moment ago, have turned into such harsh creatures now. I had nothing else to say. I just hoped that Joseph would accept my gift. Originally, I wanted to gaslight Little Hades with a tactic of confusion to avoid punishment. I am sure that Little Hades would want to avoid getting involved!

But at this moment, Lilly was staring at him coldly.

Under pressure from Joseph and Lilly, the ghost lord did not dare act unruly anymore or make random claims.

Feeling helpless, the ghost lord admitted, "I did indeed intend to steal his demonic beast and also his gun."

“But it’s common for things like this to happen here! Now, I could just return them to you; no big deal!”

“Ms. Hades, I hope you’ll consider the fact that I have a family and spare me this time. My kids still need me!”

The ghost lord played the pity card and spoke nonsense.

Lilly frowned and said, “Family? Where are they? At this point, you still dare to try and deceive me?”

The ghost lord stammered, “Well…” Why does Ms. Hades actually take my words seriously?

Lilly tossed the ghost lord’s bag of holdings to him, saying, “Count your belongings and see if anything is missing.”

The ghost lord hurriedly said, “Nothing’s missing.

Joseph’s face darkened, and he said, “Count it!”

The ghost lord nodded repeatedly and started counting. Indeed, apart from the gun, everything was there.

“Nothing is missing…”

Lilly nodded and said, “Alright, Dennis! Now, you will be judged for the crimes of killing ghosts and robbing them!”

She held a booklet in her hand and summoned the destiny pen with a wave.

“Dennis, you died earlier, awakened as a novice ghost ten years after death, and from then on, you committed one hundred and ninety-six cases of robbing, plundering, and killing.

Lilly frowned. I had expected conflicts among novice ghosts, but did not expect them to be this intense. One ghost lord had grown strong and killed over a hundred other novice ghosts. Although half of them were ordinary ghosts being murdered, there were still nearly a hundred cases of novice ghosts being killed!

Regaining her composure, Lilly looked at Dennis coldly and asked, “Do you have anything else to add?”

Dennis yelled, "I'm innocent! I fought back because they also wanted to rob me!"

Lilly turned to another page in the book and said emotionlessly. That's a separate issue."

The next page showed that the ghosts who had attacked Dennis numbered almost a hundred, and he had fought back and killed all of them.

Lilly pondered for a while. If Dennis had not fought back against all of them, he would not be able to stand here as a ghost lord. It was indeed a brutal conflict.

Dennis was stunned and could not say anything else.

Dennis could only keep pleading. "Ms. Hades, everyone acts this way here... Please be magnanimous."

Dennis had his own arrogance and begged for mercy.

In fact, he also knew that the law could not control where he belonged. But the law of the underworld is still useful. Although the king may be far away from us, if he really comes, we can only be obedient to be punished. I did not want to be sent to hell; I had just made it to the ghost lord!

However. Lilly had already written down the sentence, "Dennis will be sent to 18 levels of hell due to the seriousness of the crime committed by him."

Lilly seemed serious and remained emotionless.

Dennis was stunned and felt hopeless. How could Little Hades be so unreasonable and cruel?

Dennis shouted, "There are so many crimes here. You can't control everyone! Moreover, you're just being directed against me! It is unacceptable!"

Lilly closed the booklet and said, "Indeed, I can't control everyone, but I can choose to enforce the law. And I choose to do so."

Dennis fell silent.

However, just as Lilly waved her hand to send Dennis to hell.

Something unexpected happened!

The Princess to Eight Uncles Episode 1314

Chapter 1314 Forever Love

Dennis suddenly emitted a surge of bad aura that rushed straight towards Lilly!

Crawford Ancestor's face turned pale, and he yelled. "Lilly!"

Without thinking, he rushed over.

Cloud also instinctively rushed forward and wanted to shield Lilly.

Lilly was stunned and raised her hand to send both Crawford's ancestor and Cloud flying before rapidly retreating herself.

However, this bad aura was different from anything she had encountered before. It didn't seem like something an early state of ghost lore could produce. Even though Dennis had been bound the whole time, I could not evade the bad aura!

The bad aura had solidified into a substantial form and relentlessly pursued Lilly, closing in quickly!

Lilly was stunned and instinctively summoned the Hell Ruler Palace. However, the Hell Ruler Palace barely shielded her before the bad aura collided with it.

With a loud sound, the bad aura hit the Hell Ruler Palace, which in turn collided with Lilly herself. Lilly immediately spat out blood and tumbled to the side.

"Lilly!!" Crawford's ancestor yelled.

Cloud also wanted to rush over. However, Crawford's ancestor, who seemed to be worried, kicked him away.

"Don't make matters worse!"

Cloud rolled away to a distance, forced to watch helplessly. At this moment, I felt utterly powerless. Indeed, any attempt to intervene would only make things worse. It was agonizing to watch.

Cloud could not help but clench his fists.

Crawford Ancestor had no choice but to kick Cloud away to keep him from interfering. He was too anxious to save them all at once.

But just as Crawford Ancestor neared Lilly and was about to pick her up, the bad aura rapidly transformed into a swirling mass and charged at him.

Crawford Ancestor's face turned ashen. At that moment, he realized that this bad aura was beyond anything he had ever encountered. It was at the level of an Emperor's realm. We could not easily observe the true level of the ghost without any action. But we could certainly feel the power when it attacked.

"It's in the Emperor Realm!" Crawford's ancestor said. He felt somehow helpless. I am only in the late Hades Realm and have no means to contend with a ghost in the Emperor Realm.

Even if I were to break through to the half-step to the Emperor Realm now, I still would not be a match for this bad aura. Who on earth was this?

Crawford Ancestor did not have time to dwell on it. He lunged forward without any hesitation. It seemed that this was the end for me. It is such a pity that I will not be able to protect Lilly and Cloud anymore in the future.

Just as Crawford Ancestor was about to sacrifice himself with his last strength to resist the bad aura, Lilly stood up and stopped him.

"Crawford Ancestor, control yourself!"

Lilly was shocked by the situation. In reality, a sacrifice by Hell's rulers could indeed stop this bad aura. But what would be the point? I am also at the Emperor Realm! Although I had just advanced, I don't believe I would be killed so easily!

"Take Uncle Cloud and go!" Lilly gritted her teeth and said.

Lilly waved her hand, and Crawford Ancestor was flung away and landed on Cloud.

Lilly had not expected her throw to be so precise, but she did not have the energy to focus on that.

Then, Lilly picked up her purple sledgehammer and smashed it into the bad aura.

Dennis had long turned into a mud puddle, continuously emanating a bad aura. It was as though this bad aura had been lurking inside him all along.

In other words, Dennis was merely a vessel containing this bad aura.

Lilly pondered. Who on earth was responsible for this?

The dispersed bad aura quickly gathered again and surrounded Lilly. Lilly suddenly regretted not bringing a machete with her.

Lilly's only idea was to lure the bad aura away and flee. Fleeing is also considered to have some buffer time; as long as there is time, there will be opportunities!

Crawford Ancestor looked at Lilly, who was already surrounded by the bad aura.

The bad aura had a clear target, which was to kill Lilly. It didn't even bother Crawford, Ancestor, and Cloud, who were nearby.

"Crawford Ancestor, think of a solution quickly!" Cloud yelled, "Crawford Ancestor!"

Crawford Ancestor clenched his teeth and said, "Let's go!"

Cloud incredulously said, "What? Are we just going to leave Lilly like this?"

Crawford Ancestor replied angrily, "What else can we do? Beg for mercy?" This bad aura now disdains to kill us. However, it could capture us and use it as leverage against Lilly! Apart from not wanting to trouble Lilly any further, what else could we do?

Crawford Ancestor felt deeply aggrieved and helpless. As he left, he left behind a ghost beast to keep an eye on Lilly.

He had formed a soul contract with the ghost beast. Although it wasn't very powerful, he could see exactly what the ghost beast saw,

The Princess to Eight Uncles Episode 1315

Chapter 1315 I Know Who Are You

Crawford Ancestor and Cloud ran away and distanced themselves from the bad aura before stopping.

Cloud was angry but could not find the words to express his frustration.

Crawford Ancestor did not comfort Cloud. Instead, he kept sending out signals for help. There was nothing I could do alone. I must get someone to help! But most importantly, I needed to relay the information back to the underworld and let Blake and others know what had happened.

On the other hand, Lilly was desperately fighting. She had not expected the ambush to happen so suddenly. The surging bad aura had completely surrounded her.

A small ghost beast trembled while perched on a nearby branch, dutifully keeping watch over them.

Lilly's clothes were tattered, and she was barely holding on. She had been caught off guard, and her current condition made it difficult for her to counterattack. During the earlier struggle, I had not been able to grasp the situation clearly. But now....

"You're the one who was spying on me at the restaurant on the second floor! Wearing a black robe....."

The bad aura momentarily hesitated and then continued its relentless assault on Lilly.

Lilly had already summoned the pen of judgment. I would not summon the pen of judgment until it was absolutely necessary. Now I cannot think about it too much!

Then Lilly threw the pen of judgment toward the bad aura. The bad aura knocked back a golden light, only just retreated half a meter, and continued to chase Lilly again.

Lilly tried to piece together all the clues. This bad aura was different from the ordinary aura of a novice ghost, Even though I am in the Emperor Realm myself, this bad aura is different compared to the typical Emperor Realm aura. What was the difference?

As Lilly used the Pen of Judgment for the third time to break through the bad aura, a sudden realization struck her. This bad aura resembles the golden light I encountered astral projecting in the mortal world! My soul drifted to the back of the remote mountain village at that time. I met the golden light and the man there! Afterward, I even took the time to observe the differences between that golden light and the light I used for her cultivation.

Lilly had gradually understood that it was most likely the Holy Light. The bad aura in front of me actually looked somehow similar to Holy Light! But what set it apart was that the bad aura completely permeated the Holy Light.

Lilly blurted out, "It's Holy Light!"

Though the bad aura had no expression or emotions, Lilly could sense its shock.

Lilly was struck once again and coughed up blood for the second time. As she lay on the ground, she suddenly remembered....

"The man who had served me on New Year's."

"His compassionate face. His words about their imminent reunion."

Lilly pondered for a while.

"I know. I finally know who you are!" Lilly yelled.

Lilly dodged the fatal blow and stared directly at the surging bad aura.

Although it was just a concealed strand of bad aura, it kept growing stronger, and there was no discernible source.

So the person before her was....
