

Eight Uncles 1311

Chapter 1311 Does This Situation Look Familiar?

Lilly was extremely worried.

“Crawford Ancestor, Uncle Cloud’s gun was stolen. This must be a significant setback, right?” Daddy had said that they dreaded nothing more than having their guns stolen. It was the gravest mistake and something they couldn’t tolerate. Dying on the battlefield was one thing, but having the weapon taken away is another matter entirely. It would definitely be mocked by comrades!

Crawford Ancestor seemed to be anxious as well. Perhaps we pushed Cloud too far. We might damage his self-esteem. Maybe we should reconsider...

However, what they didn’t expect was...

After Cloud’s gun had been snatched, he found it somewhat amusing. In all my years of combat experience, my gun had never been stolen before, even if I was asleep! Today is the first time that my gun has been stolen. Well, not exactly by a person, but by a ghost.

“If my comrades find out about this, I’ll probably be in big trouble, and they might tease me for a lifetime. Unfortunately, I could never return to those times. Cloud mumbled. Then he could not help but let out a faint smile.

The ghost lord was stunned upon seeing Cloud’s smile.

In the shadows, Lilly and Crawford Ancestor were stunned as well.

Lilly whispered, “Uncle Cloud seems deeply affected. His mental state isn’t normal!”

Crawford Ancestor said, “Cloud... can’t handle even such a little problem; what’s the point of his cultivation?”

Nevertheless, they sat still and continued to watch.

The ghost lord fell silent as he was completely stunned.

"Ms. Hades!" The ghost lord, who had been tied up tightly, said this while trembling.

The ghost lord had been arrogant earlier, but now he felt quite intimidated.

"I'm not..." The ghost lord tried to explain but found himself at a loss for words. What could I actually explain?

Lilly asked, "Not what? Not human?"

The ghost lord hesitated, looking embarrassed.

On the other side, Cloud was still rummaging through the bag of holding.

"Wow, this bag of holding is amazing. I thought I had emptied it, but there are still things inside."

"Wow, an azurite gemstone!"

Cloud had realized the value of azurite gemstones. They were definitely valuable, just like a bar of gold in the mortal world!

"There are actually two Azurite gemstones here, equivalent to two hundred million merit points."

"Well, what else could I say? It is a gift for free!"

Cloud muttered to himself.

Crawford Ancestor also muttered, "Barely enough!"

Then he picked and chose like he was scavenging for treasure.

Crawford Ancestor said, "These two azurite gemstones are the only thing worth something here."

The ghost lord repeatedly said, “I’ll give you all my belongings... Please don’t despise it.”

Joseph sneered and said, “Well, I do despise it. From the start, Cloud had no intention of taking his things. He had taken the bag of holding just to find his gun! Although he mentioned the two azurite gemstones were valuable, he did not desire them! Moreover, I had absolute confidence in Cloud! He would never take someone else’s belongings! Right now, I am sure he is just thinking about ensuring the ghost lord face the appropriate consequences for their actions instead of taking revenge.

The ghost lord dared not look at Joseph. I could feel that my possessions were truly useless in his eyes.

The ghost lord, who had been acting so stubborn just a moment ago, have turned into such harsh creatures now. I had nothing else to say. I just hoped that Joseph would accept my gift. Originally, I wanted to gaslight Little Hades with a tactic of confusion to avoid punishment. I am sure that Little Hades would want to avoid getting involved!

But at this moment, Lilly was staring at him coldly.

Under pressure from Joseph and Lilly, the ghost lord did not dare act unruly anymore or make random claims.

Feeling helpless, the ghost lord admitted, “I did indeed intend to steal his demonic beast and also his gun.”

Dennis suddenly emitted a surge of bad aura that rushed straight towards Lilly!

Crawford Ancestor's face turned pale, and he yelled. "Lilly!"

Without thinking, he rushed over.

Cloud also instinctively rushed forward and wanted to shield Lilly.

Lilly was stunned and raised her hand to send both Crawford's ancestor and Cloud flying before rapidly retreating herself.

However, this bad aura was different from anything she had encountered before. It didn't seem like something an early state of ghost lore could produce. Even though Dennis had been bound the whole time, I could not evade the bad aura!

The bad aura had solidified into a substantial form and relentlessly pursued Lilly, closing in quickly!

Lilly was stunned and instinctively summoned the Hell Ruler Palace. However, the Hell Ruler Palace barely shielded her before the bad aura collided with it.

With a loud sound, the bad aura hit the Hell Ruler Palace, which in turn collided with Lilly herself. Lilly immediately spat out blood and tumbled to the side.

"Lilly!!" Crawford's ancestor yelled.

Cloud also wanted to rush over. However, Crawford's ancestor, who seemed to be worried, kicked him away.

Crawford Ancestor and Cloud ran away and distanced themselves from the bad aura before stopping.

Cloud was angry but could not find the words to express his frustration.

Crawford Ancestor did not comfort Cloud. Instead, he kept sending out signals for help. There was nothing I could do alone. I must get someone to help! But most importantly, I needed to relay the information back to the underworld and let Blake and others know what had happened.

On the other hand, Lilly was desperately fighting. She had not expected the ambush to happen so suddenly. The surging bad aura had completely surrounded her.

A small ghost beast trembled while perched on a nearby branch, dutifully keeping watch over them.

Lilly's clothes were tattered, and she was barely holding on. She had been caught off guard, and her current condition made it difficult for her to counterattack. During the earlier struggle, I had not been able to grasp the situation clearly. But now....

Lilly already recognized who the person in front of her was.

She had clues from the old monk. She also got the Stone Scroll when Blake took her to Mount Cape.

The five gods of the underworld were Emperor Eastmount, Emperor Greenbow, Emperor Prosper, King Earthid, and Queen Earthen.

There was a betrayer among the five people, but something was strange. There were only five people, all of whom were top figures in the underworld, but they could not find the betrayer.

Lilly connected all the clues until she came up with the answer. It only took a moment.

"You're King Earthid, right?" Lilly said through gritted teeth.

The bad aura that prepared to penetrate her was stunned!

With this slight chance, Lilly finally escaped from the bad aura!

She stood in mid-air above the bad aura, unbelievable, and felt that everything was traceable.

Chapter 1317 Entering Mount Everest

Lilly felt pain all over her body, and her wounds kept bleeding.

Although she was in the underworld, she was not a ghost. She would bleed and feel pain. She had experienced many things before, but nothing was as painful as this time.

It was a pain in which bones and internal organs got crushed.

Lilly fell to the ground while panting continuously, and her chest hurt.

The original ghost lord Dennis was now only a puddle of burnt black. He was not soul dissipated but was like burnt black charcoal, and his body was as if dehydrated. At first glance, he looked like a mummy for thousands of years.

He remained motionless with his mouth wide open and was dead again.

It was the first time Lilly knew that ghosts could die again, not only in the soul dissipated but also in other ways.

Staring at Dennis' body, she always felt a little uneasy. It was an inexplicable intuition.

Lilly flew out a fireball. It was better and safer to burn Dennis's body.

Unexpectedly, the familiar bad aura appeared when the fire started to burn. This time, it was not a billowing bad aura but a wisp as thick as an arm.

Lilly directly used the pen of judgment. She would rather waste her spirit energy to eliminate it!

An inexplicable scream sounded in the void.

Those screams were very similar to the people, which were lower, noisy, and indescribably terrifying.

After eliminating the bad aura, Lilly breathed a sigh of relief. She rested for a while and looked at a tree not far away.

Chapter 1318 The Weirdness of Mount Everest

Ivan and the black-robed man entered Mount Everest one after another.

It did not take long before Crawford Ancestor and Cloud came. Crawford Ancestor was on full alert. Knowing that Lilly had stepped into Mount Everest, his heart had already sunk to the bottom.

Cloud asked, "What's wrong?"

He was very irritable. It was the first time since his death that he had been so helpless. He was like an ant watching an elephant fight and could do nothing!

He could not help anything or see everything.

Crawford Ancestor said, "Behind Mount Everest is Mount Cape. No novice ghost has ever been able to step into it. Even with my strength, I don't dare to step in easily. We must find her father as soon as possible! I'll go in first. You go find Blake with the unlucky ghost."

Cloud wanted to say something. But what else could he say?

Before leaving, Crawford Ancestor looked deeply at Cloud. "The situation is too critical. I can't protect you two, so I can only leave you temporarily. You must be careful."

Cloud immediately said, "Go find Lilly. Don't worry about me! I've been through many battles during my lifetime. I can protect myself!"

Crawford Ancestor was sad, but he could do nothing about it. Even though he did not want to let his great-great-grandchildren out of sight, he was the one who brought them out.

The unlucky ghost sighed while feeling anxious and helpless. "Let's go... Forget it. I'd better not follow you."

On the way here, Cloud fell twice and was hit in the face four times by branches. If it were not for Crawford Ancestor holding Cloud back, Cloud would not have come so quickly.

Cloud said, "Let's act separately. You can't protect me much. I'll

It was quiet all around before Lilly reacted. There was no ghost beast here.

There were the most ghost beasts on Mount Everest. It could not be because the ghost beast had not found this place. It only meant that even the ghost beast dared not approach this place!

Lilly looked around cautiously and was alert. She felt like something was watching her.

At this moment, the small ghost beast on her shoulder happened to wake up faintly, climbed up, and sat on Lilly's shoulder. It rubbed its eyes with a confused look.

Suddenly, the fur all over its body exploded.

The small ghost beast struggled desperately, and its legs were trembling. It was obvious that it wanted to run at the first moment, but its legs went weak and could not run.

Lilly whispered, "Be quiet!"

The small ghost beast hugged its head while its teeth chattered. After that, it got into Lilly's collar and covered itself.

Lilly did not have time to look at it because she heard the heartbeat.

Lilly turned around cautiously and slowly but still could not see anything. Even the eerie fog seemed to have disappeared.

The surrounding mountains and forests became clear, but this clarity made Lilly feel terrified. She heard someone approaching her but could not see where that person was.

Thump thump! The heartbeat was getting more violent!

Suddenly, Lilly's back stiffened. She covered the small ghost beast on her shoulders, turned around, and flew out the pen of judgment!

The small ghost beast wanted to escape, but it could not.

It buried its head in the fallen leaves, and its little tail raised to the sky.

Lilly stared at the small ghost beast and heard the heartbeat again. She did not dare to be careless. She would be doomed if the woman's target was not the small ghost beast but her.

So, she spread all her energy around and intuitively sensed the existence of strange women.

The pain in her head was getting worse. It was so painful that Lilly could hardly breathe.

She held on and forced herself to persevere. At the same time, her gaze never left the little ghost beast's tail.

She concentrated and spread her energy around.

The sound of that heartbeat seemed to drive her heartbeat. Her heartbeat resonated with that heartbeat. It made her feel very uncomfortable. Her brain and her chest seemed to be about to explode.

Hold on a little longer... Hold on for one more second...

Lilly kept cheering herself up. Suddenly, the world disappeared in her eyes and left only her thoughts!

Finally, she saw the air twisting inexplicably, and a woman's face appeared.

This time, Lilly could see it very clearly. The woman stared at the small ghost beast on the ground, opened her mouth wide, and wanted to bite at it terrifyingly.
