

The Princess to Eight Uncles Episode 1322

Chapter 1322 Queen Earthen

The cave was quiet. The woman got tied up, and the other end was on a dumbbell.

She stared at Lilly and said, "I am Queen Earthen."

The third god, who was in charge of the mountains, rivers, and earth, controlled and nurtured all living beings, Queen Earthen!

Lilly looked at Queen Earthen blankly.

Blake said that Emperor Eastmount and Emperor Greenbow rushed toward the Manifestation of God's Will to carve out a path, but they failed and fell.

Queen Earthen and King Earthid, who were supposed to be together, lost their whereabouts and did not appear.

Before today, Lilly had always been wary of those two people, especially King Earthid, the black-robed man.

Unexpectedly, she saw the last of the five gods, Queen Earthen!

"Why are you here?" Lilly was surprised and quickly wanted to untie her, but then paused and asked seriously, "You're not a bad person, are you?"

Queen Earthen was speechless. Who would admit that they were a bad person?

Queen Earthen looked to the side speechlessly, and then her eyes were attracted by the small ghost beast.

Lilly asked, "Why do you keep looking at it?"

The small ghost beast lay behind the stone and was alert.

Queen Earthen did not hide it. "It's fat! It's delicious!"

Lilly felt confused.

The small ghost beast looked thin and did not have much meat.

It was the size of a palm and was not enough for a bite. How could Queen Earthen say it was far?

Lilly did not know that the small ghost beast was Crawford Ancestor's soul contract beast. It was not a simple small ghost beast.

13

Queen Earthen got trapped here. All the edible ghost beasts around her had eaten. No ghost beast dared to come here anymore, and she had no way to leave this mountain col.

She was so hungry that she naturally wanted to eat a ghost beast when she saw it, let alone such a powerful small ghost beast.

She licked her lips, stared at the small ghost beast, and said, "One bite is worth ten..."

The small beast ghost was even more furious.

Lilly originally wanted to let Queen Earthen go but gave up after looking at Queen Earthen's shining eyes.

If Queen Earthen ate the small ghost beast, Lilly would have no way to explain it to Crawford Ancestor.

She saw it when Crawford Ancestor put down the small ghost beast, so she knew it was Crawford Ancestor's small ghost beast.

Lilly thought, then her eyes suddenly lit up, and she had an idea. "Let me take you away first!"

Judging from the looks of Queen Earthen, she must be good at eating. She was so ferocious. and could swallow up the groups of ghost beasts outside!

Carrying Queen Earthen is equivalent to a powerful ghost beast harvester... Uh, no, a strong backing!

Lilly put the dumbbell away, sat down obediently, and said, "Let's go!"

Queen Earthen was speechless. She felt that something was not right with Lilly.

Queen Earthen only snorted. "I can't leave."

She

got suppressed here and could never leave.

Lilly wondered. "Why?"

Queen Earthen pointed to the depths of the cave. "King Earthid stole the Nether Chain and locked me here."

Only then did Lilly understand the reason why Queen Earthen disappeared!

"He's too despicable!" Lilly clenched her fists and angrily said to the small ghost beast, "Let's go take a look"

The small ghost beast behind her hugged the stone tightly. I'll never go there!

|||

2/3

Queen Earthen pouted and stared at the small beast ghost as if staring at a piece of meat.

Then, she said, "There's no point in going."

Even with her strength, she could not break free from the chains. What could a child do?

Lilly thought for a moment and understood. Queen Earthen could not break free, and Lilly's current strength was even worse.

However, Blake said that only Emperor Greenbow could open the Nether Door. How did the chain stick out?

Lilly guessed something might tie to the end of the chain, just like she tied Queen Earthen to a dumbbell.

Or the Nether Door caught the chain, and the chain would get loosened as long as the Nether Door opened. Then, Queen Earthen could leave here!

Lilly thought about it and asked, "What if I go to Nether and untie the chain?"

Queen Earthen looked at Lilly, pondered, and said, "Okay!"

Lilly could not open it, but Emperor Greenbow could! Wherever Lilly was, Emperor Greenbow would be there.

The more Queen Earthen thought about it, the more feasible it became. She struggled to sit up and said, "You go find Emperor Greenbow."

Lilly nodded, then quickly shook her head. "Where should I find him?"

She did not even know where Emperor Greenbow was! Blake said that Emperor Greenbow went to reincarnation. What if Emperor Greenbow was still in the mortal world? What if he had not awakened yet?

"Forget it. Let me grab you something to eat first!" Lilly said.

Speaking of eating, Queen Earthen immediately stared at the small ghost beast.

The small ghost beast was angry. Don't look at me again!