Chapter 231 Deeds Revealed, The Dog Jumped Over The Wall In A Hurry

The nurse subconsciously reached out and grabbed the mobile phone in her trouser pocket, and suddenly remembered that she was shooting a video in a panic...

This video had not been cut off, it had been filming!

She quickly deleted the video.

Jean floated over, 'Oh? Still want to delete the video?'

She reached out and grabbed the nurse's fingers.

Graysen was also decisive, raised his hand and said. "Daisy, it shouldn't be a problem to check the phone. right?"

The nurse's index finger trembled slightly, and the more nervous her hand became, the slipperier her hand was. For some reason, her fingers were about to cramp, but she could not open the photo album.

There was finally a trace of panic in her eyes, "Ah, this, this may not be convenient, I usually like to take selfies..."

Lilly asked strangely, "It's just a selfie, what's the inconvenience? Auntie, don't you wear clothes when you take a selfie?"

Everyone, "..."

Well! Children are innocent...

Unexpectedly, the nurse followed Lilly's words with a look of embarrassment, "This... this is indeed the case..."

Everyone, "..."

Lilly's small face was solemn, and she directly exposed it, "No, Auntie, you just want to delete the video secretly. This video must be shameful."

Alice looked ugly, and directly took the nurse's mobile phone, and said coldly.

"It could be inconvenient if it is other people, but I think I could, since we are all women, I am concerned about my father-in-law. Daisy, you should be able to understand, right?"

A cruel look flashed in Daisy's eyes. I can grab such a cute girl with one hand!

However, just as her hand touched Lilly, she was turned upside down and fell out!

Daisy was stunned. She did not even know how she flew out. She felt her back hurt and curled up in pain.

"Ah..."

Alice and Graysen were stunned. Everyone's mouths opened in surprise.

Anthony originally wanted to ask Charlie to give money to the servants to seal Lilly's secret. But after thinking about it, if others asked those servants why they suddenly became rich, his action would prove Lilly was indeed strong. It was better not to seal it.

After Anthony figured it out, he saved hundreds of millions.

It took Graysen a while to return his senses. He looked at Anthony in astonishment.

Anthony said lightly, "Lilly is a little stronger than ordinary people. She practiced martial arts with her father. She is very talented."

Graysen's mouth twitched. Is she only a little strong?

However, it was barely understandable when Graysen thought about it. He knew that Lilly's father was Blake. Since it was God of Battle, it was not unusual that Lilly could throw people away.

Furthermore, the technique of the over-the-shoulder throw was mightier than the strength, and Daisy was relatively thin.

When Graysen was thinking, he saw Lilly yelling and rushing over, then stepped on Daisy.

"I hit! Hit! Hit!" Her expression was fierce but cute.

After Anthony and Graysen chatted, they bid farewell at the door.

Before leaving, Lilly lay on the car window and waved to Tanner. "Old Mr. Reed, get well soon!"

Tanner could not speak clearly, and his intelligence might not be as good as a child. He only waved to Lilly and murmured to himself.

Anthony told Graysen, "I'll ask someone to send the relevant rehabilitation training information."

The Reed family was so grateful that they watched Anthony's car leave before returning.

In the car, Jean suddenly remembered something. "Oh my god! Anthony forgot to seal Lilly's secret!"

When Lilly threw Daisy out just now, several servants saw the scene.

Pablo said calmly, "He doesn't need to do that."

Jean wondered. "Why?"

Lilly did not know what they were talking about. She scratched her foot and asked, "Why?"

Pablo explained, "If he gives the servants money, his action will prove Lilly's strength is real. There are two ways to cover up the truth in the world. One is to shut up people, and the other is to turn the truth into rumors."

When a matter was too exaggerated, no matter how those servants told others, no one would believe it. Instead, giving money would leave evidence.

As for Graysen, he would not tell others even if he felt something was wrong.

Jean suddenly realized. "That's true. Anthony's IQ is indeed better than others!"

Chapter 234 Smart Lilly

It turned out that Jeffrey was from the old era and was doing business in the city at that time. One day he passed a grocery store and fell in love with the owner's fiancée.

The owner was a young and clever man. In less than three months, his grocery store had become the best grocery store in the city. Since he was too busy, his fiancée came to help.

"His fiancée grew up with him since childhood. She came to help him. I was attracted to her the first time I saw her..."

The girl looked so beautiful and pure. So, Jeffrey suddenly had an idea. He always used dirty methods in his business. That night, he asked a gangster to sneak into the grocery store and mix rat poison into the ingredients.

Josh exclaimed in surprise, "Add rat poison!" It's crazy!

From the history he learned, many poor people in that period worked hard in exchange for ingredients, and the whole family depended on them to survive. But Jeffrey mixed rat poison in the ingredients!

The grocery store always sold many ingredients, especially when Jeffrey said the grocery store business was doing well. Jeffrey's action would kill many people!

Lilly frowned and asked, "Do you know you would kill many people?"

Jeffrey responded, "I know, but so what? Life was so hard in those days. Many people couldn't survive and wanted to commit suicide. I don't think it's a big deal!"

Lilly and the others were speechless.

Jeffrey did not care about it. To him, the life and death of others were like nothing.

The next day, sure enough, someone was poisoned because they used poisonous ingredients to make meals. It was not only one or two families. Several families had died, vomited, and were ill.

The police officers followed the clues to find the owner and arrested him. Because no evidence could be found, the police officers temporarily released the owner, but the family who were poisoned to death after eating poisonous food all came to him.

The grocery store owner felt desperate.

"He needed money, but no one dared to buy his ingredients anymore. At this time, I had an idea again," Jeffrey said, "I asked two people to pretend to be businessmen who bought ingredients and took that owner to dinner to discuss business."

Those two drank the grocery store owner unconscious. Then, Jeffrey took a contract and made the owner sign it.

Chapter 235 The Person Who Took Jean Away Back Then

When Daisy killed the first person, it was only out of revenge.

"After I killed him, I was very panicked. But that family was kind. They thought I was frightened by the old man's death and comforted me instead. The old man was already weak. I used a pillow to kill him. So they didn't notice the anomaly."

After the old man's burial, Daisy covered up her crime successfully!

Daisy was ecstatic and felt the joy of revenge. From then on, she began to embark on a road of no return.

The interrogator slapped the table and angrily said, "The employers treated you so well. Don't you feel any guilt?"

Daisy pursed her lips. What is guilt? They're so rich. They have the money to hire me to serve others. Why should I feel guilty?

The interrogator could see through Daisy's thoughts. He endured his anger and asked, "And then?"

Daisy answered, "Later, I became obsessed with it. At first, I only dared to abuse them, especially those demented old people who couldn't speak."

Soon, pure abuse could no longer make Daisy happy. Seeing those disgusting people who were so old and would soon die, she did not want to take care of them.

So, Daisy became crazy and tried to abuse them repeatedly. She found that if she performed better, got higher grades, and got more nursing certificates, those families would not doubt her.

She tried her best to make those families feel at ease and hand over their old people to her. She liked to control other people's lives, just like an addiction. Gradually, she became more dissatisfied with being happy alone. So, she found many friends with the same hobby.

The interrogators were shocked by her abnormality and could not help but say, "You're doing this job. Since you get this money, how can you blame others for ordering you? You don't have to do it if you don't like others ordering you!"

Daisy pouted. "But I can get a lot of money from this job..."

Jean’s memory of that period was blurred. She only remembered that person wearing a large hat with a wide brim. She dressed loosely and was pregnant.

“She took me to a dark road. Then, I got into the car, and the car drove for a long time. When I regained my senses, I was under a bridge.”

Jean aimlessly walked in a daze and then met Stephen.

Lilly was a little nervous and asked, “Who is that person?”

Jean pursed her lips. She looked at Lilly and answered, “You know her. It’s Winona Jackson.”

Lilly’s eyes widened. Aunt Winona again? Aunt Winona killed Ms. Ugly to be with Uncle Liam. And then she secretly sent Mommy away?

Jean said, “She covered her face. I only saw her at a glance, then followed her.”

If Lilly had not asked, Jean would not even remember it now.

“Why did she do that?” Lilly could not figure it out. Aunt Winona and Mommy have no hatred! Why did she hurt Mommy?

Jean shook her head. “I don’t know. She’s my sister-in-law. I remember that she was pretty good to me.”

Jean and Lilly looked at each other. Lilly immediately said, “Let’s find Daddy!”

Polly tilted its head and sang, “Daddy? Where is Daddy? Daddy, where did you go...”

Jean and Lilly suddenly remembered that Blake seemed to have gone to a meeting again. He was going to quit his job, but the other party refused.

Lilly said, “Then I’ll go find Uncle Anthony!”

Lilly put on her shoes and ran to the study. Anthony was working in the study when he saw Lilly running in. He immediately caught the cutie who rushed toward him.

Winona responded firmly, "Really!"

Lilly snorted. I have given you a chance. Since you don't want it, I'll teach you a lesson!

Lilly waved and muttered to Jean. Winona wanted to laugh seeing Lilly's soliloquies.

Suddenly, Winona heard a faint voice. "Really..."

Winona did not react and responded, "It's true! Why do you doubt me? I treated Jean well before."

Then, she heard a familiar voice again. "Yes, it's pretty good..."

Winona was taken aback and turned her head abruptly. She saw a woman in white with long hair floating straight behind her. The woman's face was pale, and she stared at Winona. It was Jean!

"Ah! Ghost!" Winona stood up in fright. She knocked her knee hard on the table and fell to the ground.

The prison guards were startled and shouted, "Be obedient!"

They could not see Jean because of Lilly's spell. Only Winona could see ghosts.

Chapter 238 Hannah, Do You Miss Your Mommy?

Winona had always said that she loved children and made those mistakes for the sake of children. But she did not mention Zachary, as if she had forgotten that she had a son. She was still selfish. Because in the Crawford family, the daughter could help her get everything, but the son could not. The Crawford family was strict with the son, and he needed to make money by himself.

The Crawford family could be his backing, background, and starting point, but not his treasury. Winona thought that a daughter was different. The girl was delicate and weak. So she did not need to work hard. Her dowry of marriage was also a large fortune.

Jean looked at Winona coldly. It was impossible for her not to hate Winona.

“Winona, you’ll have retribution, Jean said indifferently.

Anthony also stood up. “Lilly, let’s go.”

No need to ask anymore. It’s useless. I want to make Winona’s life in prison worse than death!

Seeing the murderous look in Anthony’s eyes, Winona panicked.

“Anthony! Don’t go! Let me meet Hannah, please!”

Lilly pouted. “Ms. Jackson, Mommy said you only think about yourself! We won’t allow you to see Hannah!”

Seeing that Anthony and Jean were indifferent, Winona turned her attention to Lilly.

Lilly nodded. Yes, Mommy understands me well!

Hannah was stunned. "I'm not sad! Dad said I could miss Mommy, but I shouldn't go to see her. Because she has done bad things, she has to be punished."

Lilly blinked as if she understood. Does it mean we can choose whether to miss or go to see Mommy?

"Wow, Hannah, you're getting smarter! You're awesome!" Lilly was happy because she figured it out.

After being praised by Lilly, Hannah also responded happily, "Really? I also think I have become smarter recently! Look at my brain! Has it grown up a little?"

Lilly pulled Hannah's hair. "How can I see your brain?"

Hannah said, "Then look at my head. Has my head grown a bit?"

Lilly looked at it carefully. "It seems to be!"

Hannah looked proud. "Call me Big Head Hannah from now on!"

The dim light from outside came in faintly. So Winona could adapt to the darkness and see the scene.

In the shared room, everyone got up with their hands and heads hanging down. Winona could not see their expressions. But the surrounding air became cold for no reason, and those people looked like zombies in the doomsday.

Winona seemed to be choked by someone. She wanted to scream but could not. Her eyes were full of panic.

What do they want to do? Did Anthony bribe everyone in my cell to hit me to death at night?

At this moment, someone took a step.

Creak! This time, it was not the sound of turning over but the sound of bones grinding.

They were silent while walking, and the sound of creaking continued.

Winona tried to scream again but still could not make a sound. She inadvertently looked at the feet of one of them and suddenly found that the person was tiptoeing, just like Jean in the daytime. She was walking with her thumbs!

Winona's pupils shrank sharply, and when she looked around, all the people were in this posture! Her eyes were full of fear, and at this moment, those people rushed over and bit her neck one by one!

"No! Don't come here... Don't..." Winona screamed and rolled over from the bed.

t

Suddenly, the zombie cellmates who had torn her flesh and blood stared at her. The cellmate closest to her slapped her face. "It's midnight! What are you screaming for? You're so noisy!"

Winona covered her face with tears in her eyes. "Sorry..."

Living here for so long, Winona had long obeyed her fierce cellmates.

Winona's apology was not forgiven, and a strong woman who slept in the best position shouted, "Drag her to the toilet! Close the door!"
