

Eight Uncles 26

Chapter 26 Third Eye Activation

Tina had been proud of Cheryl since Cheryl won the national junior competition and was selected to join the National Art Council. She often mentioned it in front of outsiders.

She thought Cheryl was famous, and Lawrence from the National Art Council must remember Cheryl.

Nonetheless, she did not expect Lawrence did not recognize Cheryl at all.

Tina could not help but blush.

Cheryl was only a kid. She could not help asking, "Mr. Lambert, aren't you here to recruit students?"

"Yeah. What's wrong?"

"Then why haven't you recruited me yet?" Cheryl asked.

Hearing that, Lawrence was confused.

However, Tina was embarrassed.

"I'm sorry, little girl but I've just accepted a student just now," said Lawrence politely.

Hearing that, Tina was stunned. She forced a smile and asked, "Lily?"

Lawrence nodded and could not help smiling at the mention of Lily. "Yes! Lily is a very talented kid!"

After saying that, he nodded and left.

Tina could not believe it. She could not help but condemn. "The Crawford family really spent money..."

Cheryl was stunned.

Did Lily become Mr. Lambert's student?

Suddenly, Cheryl sobbed and ran away.

She hated Lily. Lawrence came here for her but Lily took it away.

Seeing that, Tina hurried to catch up

After bidding goodbye to Lawrence, Lily went back to her room. She then took a bath and changed into pink pajamas with two long rabbit ears, which made her look very cute.

Touching her forehead, Bettany asked, "Do you want Granny to accompany you to sleep?"

Holding the quilt, Lily shook her head. "It's okay. I can sleep alone."

Bettany stroked Lily's hair.

She is so independent.
