

Eight Uncles 30

Chapter 30 A Big Slap on Winona's Face by a Poo Bag

Lilly grabbed a plastic bag.

It was the plastic bag that was used to contain Polly's feces. It was inappropriate to litter so, she kept the plastic bag in her backpack.

The female spirit stiffened, "You...don't tell me you're expecting me to attach on this thing?"

Are you serious? How did I end up like this?!

Lilly shook the plastic bag and said, "No, not dirty at all!"

There was a lump of feces in the bag. She then took out a napkin and folded it in half.

"Lilly, what are you doing?" Liam asked curiously.

Lilly looked, "Not much. I'm just helping the Ugly Aunty wipe her face."

In Lilly's drawings, she often gave inanimate objects names, like 'Uncle Grass' and 'Flower Lady'...

Liam thought Lilly was referring to the plastic bag and was amazed by her imagination.

Pablo said, "Soul-shifting is a difficult skill. It's incomparable to the activation of the Third Eye. How about you give it a try? It's okay if you fail.

Lilly nodded.

Pablo did some spells and pointed at the female spirit, "Go!"

"Shoo..."

In just a few seconds, the Female Spirit was attached to the plastic bag.

"..."

"Can you remember the spells?" Pablo asked.

Lilly tilted her head and looked extremely confused.

She stretched out her little fingers and counted the words.

So many words... A hundred in total! Master is so fast!

Pablo looked at her disappointedly, "If it's too much to remember, fine then..."

Before he had the chance to finish his words, the female spirit flew out of the plastic bag.

"Shoo..."

"Oh? She's out?" Lilly was confused.
