

Eight Uncles 53

Chapter 53 Cheryl Made a Fool of Herself

The past year had seen Taylor Entertainment become a more well-known entertainment company.

Two of the four actresses with experience in the entertainment industry and two up-and-coming actors were from Taylor Entertainment.

Not to mention that the best actor of the year, Jonas Crawford, who had terminated his contract with his previous company, would attend the ceremony to formally sign with Taylor Entertainment...

The ceremony site had been swarmed with people since early in the morning, including fans and journalists from all over the world and various distinguished guests from upper-class society.

Anthony's car pulled up slowly and came to a halt at the venue's entrance.

Only then did Lilly realize there was a serious problem!

Her hair wasn't combed today, and it wasn't beautifully braided either!

Lilly rubbed her head and seized the car door as she uttered, "Uncle Anthony, I'm unable to step out of the car. My hair is a complete mess! Boohoo!"

Anthony was at a loss for words.

Her hair is a complete mess?

Only after a closer look did he notice that Lilly's head was uncombed like a bird's nest.

"Um, it's okay." Anthony stroked her hair, attempting to smooth out the unruly hair on top of her head.

It's a pity the hair couldn't be flattened at all.

He had actually made her hair messier by stroking it.

"Is it really all right?" Lilly asked, catching up with Anthony's silence.

She had seen many fairies, and they had lovely hair that even had butterflies in it.

Her hair, on the other hand, was like a bird's nest. Boohoo! She didn't want to be like this any longer.

Lilly's tiny face was scrunched up.

Regardless of their age, all girls wanted to look beautiful.

Anthony couldn't help but laugh. "Then I'll tie your hair for you."

Lilly kept nodding as she looked through her small satchel until she found two small rubber bands.

"Uncle Anthony, you need to tie two braids!"

Anthony nodded.

It's just two braids.

What about it is so difficult?
