Chapter 881 I'm Afraid My Sister Will Be Cheated Away

Old Mrs. Crawford saw that everyone had misunderstood, and quickly said, "It's my fault. I mean Lilly is amazing..."

A genius, a born champion!

Although this might not be very important to Lilly, which parent could deny the sense of accomplishment that their child was a genius?

After listening to Old Mrs. Crawford and Drake's description, everyone was shocked.

On the spot, he took out the four great classics, Sun Tzu's Art of War, gave Lilly a random test, and found that she really had a photographic memory!

"It's unprecedented..." Hannah was amazed, her eyes were full of envy, "Your brain...can you share half of it with me?"

She looked at Lilly's head, and was utterly jealous!

Josh slapped her on the head, "You think it's watermelon, can you share it?"

Hannah hugged her head.

Darn it... When God was spreading wisdom to the world, why did she hide at that time?

After the weekend, Lilly went to school with his three brothers and one sister.

Lilly carried a small school bag and took a deep breath...

She cherished her school days so much! Of course it was good to go to school, there were not so many realities that were deeply rooted in the hearts of the people.

At present, Lilly still had to go to the underworld to practice, at least the sacred tree must be returned to the Phantom Cat.

So she would not go back to Hallow County for the time being, Zachary and Hannah also transferred here, anyway, the brothers and sisters just wanted to get together.

The head teacher took the roster and said, "Tell me about yourself! Does this name mean anything?"

The other students sat down, only Lilly was still standing, and replied, "My mother gave me this name..."

It was not easy to come up with a name for it, and she did not want to give up the word 'Lily' that her mother chose. Uncle and the others have tried their best to give her a nice name.

“Lilies are 6-petaled flowers in a variety of shapes (trumpet, funnel, cup, bell, bowl or flat), sometimes nodding, sometimes with reflexed petals, atop stiff, unbranched stems clothed with linear to elliptic leaves. Lilies are also very resilient, and symbolizes purity.”

“My mother said that she hoped that I would be as adaptable and strong as the lilies, and sprout and grow quickly...”

The students who were a little noisy at the beginning couldn't help but wow when they heard that Lilly's name had this meaning.

Hallow County was in the south, and lilies were not common there, so it felt quite novel.

Only the head teacher nodded slightly, with an imperceptible contempt on the corner of his mouth, and then nodded routinely, “Very good, sit down!”

Most parents today had experienced ugly and old fashioned names back in their days, so when naming their children, they would choose some nice names this time around. This is especially true for parents in urban areas.

So in many cases, a child's family background could be told from the name alone. Of course, it was not absolute, but was accurate in most cases.

For a name like Lilly's... Which was named after a humble flower...

The head teacher felt that she could probably guess what family background she was from.

At the beginning of school, she would conduct family surveys for students, which simply asked about their situation.

If she remembered correctly, Lilly's grandmother said that they had just arrived in the county to buy a house.

Chapter 883 Biased Fairness

The head teacher glanced at the 'Battlefield Center' angrily. The child in her class was beaten with a black nose and a swollen face, crying loudly.

The other three were not from her class, they all surrounded Lilly, protecting her behind her!

She recognized Josh and Drake, both of them were top students, Drake came to pick up the textbooks from her, and the other one should be her older sister.

"Lilly! What's going on?!" The head teacher asked Lilly what happened with a straight face as soon as she came up.

Drake frowned.

"Ms. Montague, you..."

The surname of Lilly's class teacher was Sue.

She looked at Drake displeasedly, "I didn't ask you to speak!"

Although she liked students with good academic performance very much, as long as the grades were good, she could relax a little on other things.

However, it was a pity that Josh and Drake were not her students either.

Besides, she was still there, and it was not their place to say anything yet.

Ms. Montague looked at Lilly sternly, but the crying little boy on the side didn't dare to speak anymore, sobbing all the time.

Lilly was not afraid, and expressed it very clearly, "Peter Szell gave me a nickname, he called me Big Leek, and I told him to stop it, but he didn't listen! Then.."

Before she finished speaking, Ms. Montague said sharply, "It's wrong to call you a nickname, but do you think it's right to hit someone?"

"He gave you a nickname, you can tell him off nicely! However, it's wrong to fight! Go stand outside!"

Chapter 884 Are You Done? If No, I Shall Carry The Steel Bars Over

Lilly's guardians were called the first time she went to primary school.

Old Mrs. Crawford was even quite excited about it.

After all, there were really not many places where she could be used. It was a very lucky thing to be able to participate in the growth of the child.

The old lady and the old man went out immediately.

The uncles were all in a daze when they found out in the group chat.

Edward: What the hell? Asking to see her guardian? Our little ones were fighting? Are they done? (I shall carry some steel bars over if they are not... I don't mean anything, just to see if the school needs to be rebuilt)

Anthony: Please keep us posted about the situation at any time.

Jonas: Who fought with our Lilly? Male classmate or female classmate?

Max: Lilly definitely wouldn't bully her classmates, if she did, there must be some reason, the teacher just called and said Lilly was fighting? It seems that the classroom needs new changes, to install an automatic alarm system, and automatically record violations of violence...

Chapter 885 Although, I Still Envy Lilly's Family

At the moment in the school garden, several older brothers and sisters were absent from class because of Lilly.

Ms. Montague asked Lilly to stand as a punishment, but they naturally refused, so they brought Lilly to the small garden.

It did not matter if the teachers from other classes came, as long as the eldest brother Drake did not want to, even the teacher could not do anything with the children.

Drake was still very angry, "What kind of head teacher is this? It's not fair at all! Why don't you ask the boy to stand for punishment?"

Drake folded his arms, his small face was cold, "We'll talk about it later when my uncle is here."

At this moment, the gentle Drake really hoped that it was his uncle who came, and kicked Ms. Montague to the branch of a tree if she didn't agree with them.

Lilly was applying cold pool water on Hannah's face. The cold pool water was used for physical health and could also reduce swelling.

Drake said, "Next time, don't be impulsive."

For a girl, it was better for you not to use your hands and feet... If you want to do it, get Josh to do it.

Hannah's face hurt, her nose was blue and her eyes were swollen and she yelled, "Little trash, let me see him again next time, and hit him every time I see him!"

Zachary frowned, "When he sleeps tonight, he better keeps his eyes open!"

Ms. Montague almost laughed angrily.

Was she the teacher or were they the teacher!

Just as she was about to speak, old Mrs. Crawford said directly, "Ms. Montague, don't talk about those meaningless things. We are here to deal with the children's affairs, not to listen to your criticism."

"Why did the two children fight, and why did you say on the phone that it was our Lilly, who fought with Old Mrs. Crawford was still brooding, as if Ms. Montague had blamed Lilly for everything as soon as the call was connected.

After coming for so long, she didn't even figure out what happened!

She was getting impatient!

Did this person know how to be a teacher at all?

Ms. Montague opened her mouth.

-She was overwhelmed.

There were also parents who messed with her, but this was the first one with such an oppressive aura...

She even had an illusion that these two elders were not parents, but leaders...

Peter's mother saw it, and it was worth it!

How dare a parent talk back to a teacher?

She smiled and said quickly, "Ms. Montague, calm down, calm down..."

Chapter 887 Turn Your Head and Face the Principal

The live broadcast was live in the family group. As soon as old Mr. Crawford and Old Mrs. Crawford left the house, Blake searched for evidence that Ms. Montague accepted gifts and cash gifts from parents.

Anthony called a business leader of Hallow County on the spot – when he came last time, he invested in the industrial development of the entire county by the way.

Now Anthony was the sponsor of the entire county.

So he didn't dare to delay at all, and immediately found someone to find the top person in the county, and then found the education leader.

So old Mrs. Crawford and old Mr. Crawford had just brought the children home when the primary school principal's phone rang.

"What... There is such a thing!"

"We have expressly stipulated that corruption and bribery... Will definitely result in expulsion of teachers..."

"Is it really handled like this? Ms. Montague is too self-righteous!"

The principal stood, nodding on the phone, his face sullen.

He was criticized by his superiors.

The superior directly ordered him to investigate Ms. Montague immediately.

What kind of investigation was this? As soon as he hung up the phone, the evidence was sent to his mailbox!

When the school bell rang, the principal suppressed his anger and walked towards Class 1 (1).

Besides, Peter's mother, flattered Ms. Montague all afternoon.

"Is this how you are as a teacher?"

In the office, the principal was so angry that he slammed the documents on the desktop on Ms. Montague's head.

He was so angry that he couldn't hold back!

Ms. Montague quickly said, "Principal, those parents are just kind. The parents of the students often ask for dinner for the students, but I never promised..."

The principal sneered, "No? You nodded just now, and I saw it with my own eyes and said no?"

Ms. Montague, I just nodded politely..."

Slap!

The principal smashed the mobile phone in his hand on the table.

He was so angry that his chest heaved, and for a moment he was so angry that he lost his voice and couldn't speak.

The principal's office was very quiet, except for the beeping, beeping, beeping, and beeping of the printer.

Ms. Montague subconsciously glanced at the printer, but the printer was in the office, and she didn't know what it was printing, but she just felt restless and irritable when she heard the sound.

In the dead silence, the principal who drank a few sips of tea finally recovered his voice and said:

Ms. Montague only felt her head buzzing, and subconsciously picked up the photos and documents in her arms...

Looking at it, it was like falling into an ice cellar in an instant!

The picture on the photo was a picture of her eating with the parents of the students, and there was evidence of receiving bribes from the parents of the students...

"No, principal, listen to my explanation!" Ms. Montague said hastily, "It's not like what you see!"

"They must have fabricated it, the photos are all photoshopped!"

Impossible, she did things so discreetly, who would have got her photo!.

Evidence came out just after the report, it could not be so fast, so it must be photoshopped, fake...

The principal was too lazy to listen to her sophistry.

"As a teacher, you should know what the consequence is when you accept bribes from students parents," The principal picked up a document on the floor, which he just threw out in a fit of anger.

Thad to pick it up by myself, and I was even angrier when I thought about it.

So he furiously signed some documents and pushed them out, "This is your disciplinary document, Ms. Montague, pack up and go!"

"You are expelled from our school!"

Ms. Montague's mind buzzed, and it went blank for an instant!

The Central Primary School in Hallow County was the best primary school in the entire county, even if looking at several adjacent counties, it was ranked among the best.

It took her a lot of effort to get in...

There were numerous people who applied for this school and countless people fought their way into this school, and she was expelled like this?!

Chapter 890 Opinions About Lilly’s Parents

After Ms. Montague went back.

In the evening, she found her cousin and complained. She was crying and said that the principal was bullying.

She avoided the most important part and explained the reasons, focusing on the fact that she was treated unfairly, and how much she worked hard...

The cousin was so angry that she found the leader the next day, good guy, she was scolded directly and almost lost her job...

Then she realized the seriousness of the matter, her cousin didn’t tell her the truth!

So when Ms. Montague called to ask about the result, she was scolded by her cousin in turn, and even said cruel words about breaking up the relationship...

Ms. Montague felt distressed.

What was the matter!

How could such a small incident become such a big mess, causing her to lose her job?

It must be Lilly... Yes, it must be her!

Ms. Montague immediately called the Crawford family.

Old Mrs. Crawford just heard the voice of Ms. Montague, and hung up the phone without saying a word.

Ms. Montague was not reconciled. As the class teacher, every student would fill in the home address when the school started. She knew where Lilly lived.

She went straight to the door, but before she could see who opened the door, she saw a shadow rushing towards her, and she flew away with a word of 'fork out!
