

Eight Uncles 95

Chapter 95 The Aggrieved Rebecca

Anthony found a nearby coffee shop and asked for a private room.

He would satisfy Lilly no matter what she wanted to do, and he never doubted her whether it made sense.

Anthony sat down at the side, but he suddenly felt dizzy. He immediately took out a bottle of medicine secretly to eat pills.

Lilly frowned. What happened to Uncle Anthony? He hid it well, but I still saw it.

Pablo said, "Your Uncle Anthony isn't in good health. Lilly, settle the matter first. I'll talk about it when we go back."

Lilly had no choice but to greet Rebecca, "Hello, Aunty! My name is Lilly."

Rebecca felt weird. The adult took medicine while the kid chatted with her. She asked, "Hello, Lilly. What do you want from me?"

Lilly became serious. "Aunty, I'm here to help you catch..."

Pablo immediately covered her mouth. "Don't say to catch ghosts! Just say you come to get rid of her bad luck!"

Lilly took a breath, then continued, "I'm here to help you get rid of bad luck!"

Rebecca was speechless. Are they frauds? But this little girl looks so young!

She also looked at Anthony. Even this guy doesn't look like a liar.

Rebecca said, "Uh, it doesn't matter. I'm fine..."

Lilly asked, "Aunty Rebecca, do you feel tired recently that you can't do what you want?"

The people in cities always had such a wasn't going well? Your face is dull, your dark circles are worse, and you can't eat well. You feel your back is heavy as if that. She wondered how Lilly knew about her

Isn't she a liar?

"Yes, it's already April, and the room temperature is normal at night, but I was crazy. It was so hot, but she put on you

said, "I write novels at night, so I'm more small, it only has three rooms. My mother-in-law lives in one room, I asked, "That's why you sleep

obey your husband and not refuse conveyed Pablo's question to Rebecca. "Why did you obey don't want to argue with him. My children sleep with us too, and they'll feel hot if I turn on the heater."

Because of

had been writing books for several years and had earned some money. After deducting the family expenses, she saved several hundred million as she sold copyrighted novels and made them into villa, but her mother-in-law, Elliot, disagreed. Elliot said the current house was well-lived, and Rebecca needed to save the money for her grandchildren. Elliot even emphasized that money was not Rebecca's alone, and Rebecca were all my husband's relatives and had many ideas. They forgot it was me who wanted to buy it! We a fancy to a house type just now. It was more than 200 square meters with a total price of 2 million. She thought it was not expensive, and the bigger, the better. She could use a room as a study, and thought it was too expensive. She said Rebecca should buy a 140-square-meter house, and there were also four-bedroom units. The two children each reserved a room, Elliot lived in a room, and Rebecca and Harry lived in a room. Lydia even said Rebecca as there were all speculated by real estate.

Rebecca to buy a resettlement

"I want a study space! I write novels full-time and need a quiet environment, but Aunt Lydia said I'm making trouble! As for the resettlement and didn't think about me at all. I wondered if it was me buying a house. Actually, after we bought a house, I should save money and not

and