

Chapter 14: What a thing! - My Poised and Elegant Seven Sisters

"Xiao Nan!"

Seeing the woman talking, Meng Qingyi shouted in surprise.

Li Xiaonan looked over, startled.

"Are you, Qingyi?"

"it's me."

Meng Qingyi walked over and saw the work card hanging on Li Xiaonan's neck. He was even more surprised, "Xiaonan, are you the director of the business department of the Red Sleeve Group? That's amazing."

Li Xiaonan looked proud.

"It's just so-so. It didn't take long to be promoted, and the salary was not high, only 30,000 yuan a month. With dividends and year-end bonuses, it would be 500,000 yuan a year."

"The annual salary is 500,000, which has already exceeded 99% of the beaters. This is not great, so how can it be called great?" Meng Qingyi gave a thumbs up.

At the same time, she was also very excited.

Because Li Xiaonan is her university classmate and roommate, the two have a good relationship when they were in college, but they developed separately after graduation and didn't have much contact.

Unexpectedly, Li Xiaonan would work for the Red Sleeve Group.

The business department is mainly involved in matching projects, and Li Xiaonan is the director. Isn't that...

"Qing Yi, what are you doing here?"

"I want to seek cooperation."

Li Xiaonan was stunned, "Have you started a company?"

Meng Qingyi said, "Well, do you know Qingye Group? That's a company I started."

For a moment, Li Xiaonan's eyes flashed gloomy.

"I've heard of Qingye Group. It turned out that you started it. Have you been selected as the Outstanding Young Female Entrepreneur of Changning six months ago?"

"Yes."

Li Xiaonan smiled and said without a smile: "When I heard the name Meng Qingyi, I thought it was the same name. I didn't care much. I didn't expect it to be you."

Meng Qingyi asked expectantly, "Xiaonan, what about cooperation?"

At the right time, Zhang Zhe mocked, "Meng Qingyi, don't be naive, how can Red Sleeve Group cooperate with your small broken company. You should wait for me to collapse, you can't change the ending!"

Meng Qingyi ignored Zhang Zhe and introduced himself: "Xiaonan, my Qingye Group is mainly engaged in landscape design business. Isn't a part of the big project in the hands of Hongxiu Group a landscape design? Can you help me match it up? one time?"

"Well..."

Li Xiaonan held a long ending.

Meng Qingyi's eyes were shining, but in the next second, Li Xiaonan suddenly changed her expression and coldly refused: "Sorry, I won't help you!"

"what?"

Meng Qingyi was stunned.

Zhang Zhe was originally worried about Li Xiaonan's help, but when he heard it, he sneered, "It's very happy, Director Li, if you are doing a good job, this kind of  shouldn't help."

Ye Fan didn't speak, but his eyes were extremely cold.

Meng Qingyi hadn't given up yet, and asked, "Xiaonan, our company is capable and can definitely complete the design task."

"This has nothing to do with the strength of your company."

"why?"

Li Xiaonan jokingly said, "I just can't understand you!"

Meng Qingyi shook her body like a giant hammer hitting her heart; she didn't want to believe it, and said with red eyes, "Xiao Nan, we were sisters in college..."

"To shut up!"

Li Xiaonan's face was savage, and he said hatefully, "Any sisters are fake. I'm just green leaves by your side, setting off you, and you have robbed you of all the scenery."

"Everything about me is taken away by you! I have a crush on the male * for three years, why should I be your licking dog! Why should the scholarship be yours! Why should all the good things fall on your head!"

"Meng Qingyi, everyone in the university thinks we are good sisters, but who knows that I have been living under your aura. You are a white swan, I am an ugly duckling, no one by your side will pay attention to me."

"I hate you, I wish you were down. Your company went bankrupt and I am too happy to be too late. How can I help you match up projects and cooperation? Don't dream!"

Li Xiaonan pointed at Meng Qingyi, grinning and said, "In the end, I won. I am now the director of the Hongxiu Group's business department; and you are about to become a beggar and even bear huge debts!"

Some words were heartily spoken.

Li Xiaonan finally vented his grievances over the years. Seeing Meng Qingyi's sad look, Li Xiaonan said playfully, "Of course, I can't give you a chance."

"Huh?" Zhang Zhe frowned.

"Xiaonan, I know you won't die, what chance?"

Li Xiaonan raised her mouth, walked towards Zhang Zhe, took his arm and said, "As long as you pay for Zhang Shao's sleep, take care of Zhang Shao and make Zhang Shao comfortable, I promise to help you match up."

Suddenly, Zhang Zhe was in full bloom.

He couldn't wait to hug Li Xiaonan for a few kisses. It's really a blessing from the sky. He took Li Xiaonan backhand and said gratefully, "Xiaonan, your idea is great. From now on we will be good friends. What's the matter? Just look for me."

"Zhang Shao is polite."

Li Xiaonan looked at Meng Qingyi and raised her chin, "Have you thought about it? Take advantage of the opportunity. If you miss this village, there will be no shop."

Meng Qingyi was not angry, but very sad. She didn't expect her relationship with Li Xiaonan to split like this.

"Xiao Fan, let's go."

"Why go, haven't talked about cooperation yet." Ye Fan said.

Li Xiaonan laughed and said sarcastically, "You are a fool, I am the director of the business department, I don't agree, can Meng Qingyi get cooperation?!"

Ye Fan glanced disdainfully, "What is the district director, the business department is not your turn to speak."

"You!" Li Xiaonan was ashamed, called the security guard, and said coldly, "These two guys are making trouble in the company, and they will be blasted out for me, so they are not allowed to step into the building!"

The security guards didn't think much.

Just as he was about to push people out, a group of leaders suddenly walked in outside.

Headed by Zhao Qingmei.

All the executives behind him are the department heads at worst.

When she saw Ye Fan, Zhao Qingmei's pupils contracted, and she walked over and asked, "What happened?"

In front of the chairman and a group of executives, Li Xiaonan respectfully said, "Zhao Dong, these two people came to the company to make trouble, and I asked the security guard to blast them out."

"What did you say!"

Zhao Qingmei's eyes opened wide.

Seeing the documents in Meng Qingyi's hand and finding that Zhang Zhe was also there, Zhao Qingmei immediately understood and slapped Li Xiaonan away.

"From now on, you will be fired, and Hongxiu Group and all its subsidiaries will never hire you; not only that, I will issue a notice that companies that cooperate with Hongxiu Group will not hire you either."

"get out."

Zhao Qingmei's remarks undoubtedly announced Li Xiaonan's death sentence.

Who in the Changning business community dares not to give Zhao Qingmei face? This is equivalent to that no company in Changning will hire her, and she will have no place in Changning.

"Chairman, why... Chairman, I'm not convinced!" Li Xiaonan screamed.

"I have to explain to you when I do something?"

Zhao Qingmei snorted coldly, and then squinted at Zhang Zhe, and said dissatisfied, "How can I explain that the Zhang family must not step into the Red Sleeve Mansion? What I say is just a breeze!"

The minister of building security stood up, sweating coldly.

"Zhao Dongxi's anger is my negligence."

Needless to say, the two security guards held Zhang Zhe and threw him out; Li Xiaonan was also bombed away, without even giving her a chance to pack her things.

Then, Zhao Qingmei stretched out her hand and smiled gently, "Miss Meng, I know you. We are outstanding young female entrepreneurs in Changning. I have always admired you. You want to talk about cooperation. Come to my office and I will talk to you. "

Meng Qingyi shook hands with Zhao Qingmei blankly.

Ye Fan poked her arm, "Sister, go ahead, I'll wait for you."

Meng Qingyi came to the office.

However, Zhao Qingmei was chatting with her about some daily routines. Ten minutes later, the secretary sent the contract; Zhao Qingmei quickly signed and sealed, and asked Meng Qingyi to sign.

Three minutes later.

Meng Qingyi walked out with the signed contract.

This is...

Have you reached a cooperation?

Moreover, it is the cooperation of full profit distribution, which is distributed in accordance with the contract, which is equivalent to Zhao Qingmei giving money for nothing...This is totally unreasonable.

Coming to the lobby on the first floor, Meng Qingyi looked at Ye Fan waiting in the reception area, and couldn't help but feel a little skeptical...

"Sister, are you done talking?"

"Xiaofan, please tell me honestly, do you and Dong Zhao know each other? Otherwise, how could the cooperation go so smoothly? The contract was signed directly, and the profit was still greatly given to me."

Meng Qingyi stared closely at Ye Fan's face, wanting to see something.

Ye Fan smiled freely and nodded: "Sister, you really got it right."

"Sure enough, you know Dong Zhao." Meng Qingyi puffed up and asked in confusion, "No, didn't you just come back yesterday? How did you know Dong Zhao?"

"I'm not familiar with it. I only met yesterday. To be precise, Zhao Qingmei is my subordinate, and I can make her..."

Before he finished speaking, Ye Fan's mouth was covered.

Meng Qingyi swept around nervously and turned around to stare at Ye Fan, "What the * is talking about, Zhao Dong is the richest man in Changning, you dare to say that she is your subordinate, and you are afraid that it is not a death if you are heard!"

"Sister, what I said is true."

"Dare to say it!" Meng Qingyi knocked on Ye Fan's forehead and hurriedly pulled Ye Fan out of the building.

She thought to herself, maybe Zhao Qingmei really appreciates her... She is a woman, and Zhao Qingmei is also a woman. She is very young and can be regarded as young and promising, so let's cherish it! Besides, her title of "Changning Outstanding Young Female Entrepreneur" is not imaginary.

And in Jinshan Group.

Zhang Zhe returned angrily, smashed into the chairman's office, and said angrily, "Dad, Zhao Qingmei, that bastard, told people to throw me out of the Red Sleeve Building, and also reached a cooperation with Meng Qingyi."

"What, what you said is true?"

"It's true!"

Zhang Tianlong's face was pale, he patted the table and cursed, "Zhao Qingmei, this stinky lady, take the wrong medicine, and somehow oppose me. I really think Zhang Tianlong is not a vegetarian!"

Zhang Zhe gritted his teeth and said, "Dad, now that Meng Qingyi has got the contract, Qingye Group has jumped out of the predicament. It's not easy to deal with."

"It's just a small cooperation, nothing can be decided."

"Dad, what are your ideas?"

"Meng Qingyi thought she would get out of the predicament when she got the contract. Haha, wait until she feels reborn, so she can't get up again."

Zhang Tianlong held the armrest of the sofa, his eyes cold.

"Let Meng Qingyi stay away for a few days, of course, don't be idle...There is also a woman, these are photos and information, you need to solve it, she is Meng Qingyi's younger sister."

"What a gentle beauty!"

Looking at the photos, Zhang Zhe throbbed and couldn't help but admired, and then enthusiastically said: "Dad, this is your daughter-in-law, it meets my mate selection criteria, and the professional Niucha is a master of Chinese medicine, it is perfect! "

...

After signing a contract with Hongxiu Group, Meng Qingyi devoted himself to busy work.

Ye Fan was bored in the company, so he came to "Medical Forest Street."

This long street gathers dozens of medical clinics, large and small, in Changning City, of which several are the most famous, and Sifan Medical Center is one of them.

The owner of the museum, Su Muyu, is promising as a young man.

A pair of jade hands wonderfully rejuvenate.

Su Muyu is recognized as the number one beauty in Changning's TCM circle, and there are even rumors that she is the chief master of TCM in Changning. The patients from the city next door came here admiringly, some did come to seek medical treatment, and some came to see the beauty of the beautiful master.

On the street, Ye Fan saw Sifan Medical Hall from a distance. It was so eye-catching that there was a group of people surrounding the door of the Medical Hall.

"There are so many people, it's a crowded place."

Ye Fan parked the car and walked towards the hospital.

Gradually he realized that something was wrong, and it seemed that those people were not seeking medical treatment, but watching the excitement.

problem occurs!

Ye Fan's eyelids twitched and squeezed to the front.

I was shocked to find that the hospital was in a mess. It was obviously smashed. Several employees sat on the ground crying.

"what happened?"

Ye Fan rushed in, suppressing his anger, and asked, "Who smashed the hospital, where is Master Su, where is she?"

A female employee cried and said: "Half an hour ago, a group of wicked people broke in, smashed it, and arrested the owner of the museum."

boom!

Ye Fan was furious.

At this moment, his ears moved, and he rushed out of the hospital like lightning.

His eyes swept coldly, and he stared at a car that was starting up instantly; Ye Fan kicked the stone by his feet, like a cannonball, blasting the car's tires.

"what!"

The people inside screamed in horror.

Just got out of the car and wanted to escape; Ye Fan had already come to him and stepped him on the ground with one foot.

"you again!"

This man was the wretched man who harassed Du Yue'e that day. When he faced Ye Fan again, he didn't have the courage to resist. He begged for mercy, "Big brother, don't beat me."

"You smashed the hospital?"

"Yes, it was Brother Xiong who brought us to beat up. I didn't do anything. I stayed and watched the wind... Please forgive me. I'm not beaten."

"My sister was also caught by Wang Xiong?"

"Yes."

Asshole stuff!

Ye Fan's eyes were sharp, and the strength on his feet couldn't help but increase.

"Oh...Brother, let go, my ribs are going to be broken... I'm just a little boy, follow orders... Go find Brother Xiong, don't beat me..."

"Where are the others?"

"The rose club in the eastern suburbs."

Ye Fan snorted coldly, kicked the wretched man into the car, got into the driving seat, and whizzed away.

Only a group of people stunned in front of the medical hall.
