

Elegant SS 23

Chapter 23: Total collapse

-Kneel down and confess!

—Send you and wait on the road!

Arrogant and domineering.

The celebrities present, including the Zhang family, were all moved by it, especially Spike, who was inexplicably horrified, but they didn't know where they came from.

Ye Fan has only seven people, and there are more than seven hundred people in the Zhang family...

Ten times the difference!

Langya wouldn't believe that it was absolutely impossible for Ye Fan to fight with eight people.

"Kneel down!"

Suddenly, Ye Fan shouted.

The wind howled.

Zhang Tianlong's face turned pale, and in a daze he saw six grieving spirits rushing out of the six tablets, trying to lock his life.

what!

Zhang Tianlong screamed and fell to the ground.

"Big Brother!"

"Big Brother!"

"master!"

Zhang Tianhu, Zhang Tianbao, and the rest of the Zhang family surrounded them.

Surrounded by everyone, Zhang Tianlong finally calmed down.

He was ashamed and gloomy as black water, and gritted his teeth and shouted, "Ye Fan, this is my Zhang family, and you can't tolerate your presumptuousness."

"If we want our Zhang family to kneel down and confess, the six wild species are also worthy!"

"It's you who should kneel down, kowtow to plead guilty and then judge yourself, I will keep your whole body."

Faced with Zhang Tianlong's warning, Ye Fan did not fight back, but asked coldly, "Why did the orphanage burn down thirteen years ago?"

"Humph, do I need to explain to you when I do something?"

"I'm happy, what can you do."

Zhang Tianlong looked grim and laughed loudly.

"A group of wild species with no parents or mothers will die if they die. What a big deal!"

In an instant.

The temperature dropped sharply, and the murderous aura made all the people present like needles pierced like a knife.

Zhang Tianhu pushed his glasses, there was a bad omen in the dark, but he looked around and found nothing, thinking that he was worrying too much.

"What a wild species! If you die, it's not a big deal! In your eyes, those children are fate?"

"Is not it!"

Zhang Tianlong is arrogant,

Ye Fan squeezed his fist, how cold-blooded and ruthless he was to say such a thing, he was so angry that he laughed.

"why are you laughing?"

"I laughed at you for treating your child as a mustard, but I don't know that in my eyes, your Zhang family is also like a mustard, but a dust."

"Neurotic." Zhang Tianlong has lost his patience and has shown enough strength at this moment. The guests and celebrities have seen it, and the goal has been achieved.

So...

Ye Fan doesn't need to exist anymore.

Zhang Tianlong winked, Zhang Tianbao understood, he raised his hand and was about to give an order.

Sudden!

The earth trembled and roared.

Then, the world became dim!

In the dark, it was hundreds of helicopters hovering in the air, blocking the sun; at the same time, a group of tigers and wolves appeared outside the courtyard of the Zhang family.

Suddenly approaching, crushing the audience...

"what happened!"

Everyone, including Zhang's family, was amazed, feeling that the end of the world was coming.

Wow!

The doors of hundreds of helicopters opened, and dragons would descend along the ropes.

In the blink of an eye, the entire area where the Zhang family is located—on the villa, on the pavilions, on the courtyard wall...are all heavily armed figures standing there.

The entire Zhang family was surrounded!

This this...

Zhang Tianlong's lips were trembling, and he couldn't speak.

what's the situation?

Why did such fighters and soldiers suddenly come here?

Compared with Zhang's family and guest celebrities, the mercenaries such as Langya were even more horrified.

They are mercenaries who have been on the battlefield, and they feel the fierceness of this group of soldiers more directly than ordinary people.

Killing the sky, covering Washington!

This is a tiger and wolf division!

"Zhang Tianlong, I don't know if I have enough people? Now you think that Zhang family is in my eyes, is it a must?"

Ye Fan's voice spread everywhere.

Everyone woke up.

All eyes gathered in the middle of the yard, the tall young man...

Ye Fan!

It's him? He recruited these soldiers?

impossible!

The Zhang family did not believe it, but Langya was sweating like rain.

He finally understood why he felt anxious before. The reason is this. Ye Fan is not an ordinary person. The group of soldiers he recruited, roughly estimated...

Eight thousand people!

Langya smiled bitterly, originally thinking that the eight hundred members of the Zhang family were ten times as many as the eight members of Ye Fan; now, Ye Fan's eight thousand soldiers crushed the Zhang family ten times.

This contest...

Zhang family, lost!

Completely defeated!

The poor thing is that Zhang Tianlong and others still don't know it.

Hearing Zhang Tianlong's roar, Langya was helpless, but as an employer, he could not escape. This was the credibility and criterion of being a mercenary.

"Ye Fan, who are you scaring, you are the only yellow-haired boy who is also worthy of dispatching soldiers."

"Swish!"

Zhang Tianlong's words fell, and all the soldiers knelt down on one knee.

Shout loudly.

"See Tianzun!"

"See Tianzun!"

"See Tianzun!"

At the same time, Jiang Long bent and clasped his fists at Ye Fan, "Tianzun, please give your order. His subordinates are willing to slaughter Zhang's family and vent their anger for you."

boom.

At this moment, no one doubted anymore.

Eight thousand murderous intents are like knives, hanging brightly above the Zhang family's head, and can fall at any time.

The full house of guests quickly backed away and distanced themselves from Zhang's family, worrying about being affected; at the same time, they were also shocked.

Who is this Ye Fan?

In an instant, 8,000 soldiers and hundreds of fighters were recruited. This energy is probably comparable to the commander of the Changning Theater.

"master."

At this moment, Langya no longer hesitated and said apologetically to Zhang Tianlong, "The Langya mercenary group will immediately withdraw from the Zhang family and has no affiliation with the Zhang family anymore."

As Langya spoke, the two-hundred-man mercenary group quickly withdrew, and in the eyes of everyone's surprise, Qi Qi knelt down towards Ye Fan and bowed piously.

"Spike, you!"

Zhang Tianlong's face was purple and black.

But Langya ignored him and bowed to Ye Fan just like his subordinate mercenaries.

"Farewell to Tianzun!"

Langya's voice was loud and loud.

"Farewell to Tianzun!"

Two hundred mercenaries followed and shouted.

At this moment, there is only endless awe, admiration and worship in Langya's heart.

Ordinary people don't know that, as a mercenary, he naturally knows the name of Tianzun Temple, which is the world's number one power.

The name of Tianzun is like Lei Guaner.

Langya also guessed that the person next to Ye Fan must be the Dragon King; and the eight thousand soldiers who came here were eight thousand dragon generals.

The scariest thing is...

The Dragon King Battle Department will never disperse their actions. In other words, eight thousand dragons will appear here, and somewhere in Changning, there must be ninety-two dragon generals.

This is a force capable of destroying Changning.

Zhang family, what to resist!

Ye Fan glanced at the kneeling Langya and other mercenaries in the corner of the yard, and didn't care; his eyes swept across, and he said coldly, "You guys, are you going to fight against the deity?"

"No no no, my lord forgive me!"

"We were forced to come here, please be magnanimous."

The four-five-hundred **** quickly threw away the knives, guns and sticks in his hands, stating that he had nothing to do with Zhang Tianbao, and then, like the Spike Mercenary Corps, ran to the other corner of the yard and knelt on the ground holding his head.

In a short time.

The Zhang family's force was cut cleanly.

"You bastards!"

Zhang Tianbao was frightened and almost vomiting to learn.

At this time, Zhang Tianlong received a call from the secretary.

"Chairman, it's not good! Just now, all shareholders withdrew their capital, and the group's executives resigned. Thousands of loopholes and shortfalls occurred in its subsidiaries, large and small, and the group's capital was estimated to have shrunk by 8%. ten!"

"Patter!"

Zhang Tianlong's cell phone was hanging on the ground.

After shaking a few times, he opened his mouth and spouted a mouthful of blood

"puff!"

"Ye Fan! It's you! It's you!"

Zhang Tianlong pointed at Ye Fan, his eyes cracked, hysterical.
