Chapter 571: Nine-character mantra and eight-door Dunjia!

The battle between Ye Fan and Bu Qianfan did not last long, nor did they do their best, because it was not worth it. The two were not enemies of life and death. There was no need to fight, discuss and exchange, explore each other's bottom, knowing it was enough. NS.

But even the moderate-intensity exchanges were exceptionally exciting and made the visitors talk about it.

Still that restaurant.

"It's over so soon?" Qu Xiantian asked with a smile, watching Ye Fan sit down and poured a bowl of wine.

"Just click and stop." Ye Fan smacked, "That's not bad."

Then, he nodded himself and said: "Bu Qianfan is indeed a great man, I still underestimate him a bit."

"How do you say?" Qu Xiantian's eyes flickered, he no longer expected to compare with Ye Fan, he still locked his goal as Bu Qianfan, and wanted to compete with Bu Qianfan.

"Like you, he broke through to the second stage of Transformation Realm; at the same time, his physical body was polished to the second stage of Master Heng Lian. This is better than you."

"After a brief discussion, I can perceive that Bu Qianfan also has a strong heritage."

Speaking of inheritance, Ye Fan thought of Murongxi and said: "That Murongxi inheritance is not simple, there is a secret method to enhance combat power."

Niu Dali said, "Isn't this the same as my madness talent, improve combat power!"

Ye Fan groaned: "It's not the same. The display of your mad talent will have a great burden on the body, and there are some sequelae, and the limit is three times the combat power. And the secret method used by Murongxi has no side effects, and it is far It's much more than triple the combat power."

Everyone thought it was unbelievable. There were martial arts to enhance combat power, but they were all three times as the limit, and they all had extremely strong side effects. They were used to fight desperately.

Murongxi's secret method can actually break three times the shackles, and there are no side effects.

That's awesome!

Niu vigorously flexed his hands, and said thieflly: "Brother Fan, this secret method is too rare, why don't you catch Murongxi alive and ask it out. It won't be a heavy hand that knocked him out with a punch."

"I let him go."

"what?"

"He is the son of one of the Four Saints of Great Xia, Lover, and he has a solid background."

Qu Xiantian and others suddenly realized.

There is a sage father, that is indeed daunting, unless you have to do it, you can't do it.

After eating and drinking, the group returned to the hotel.

Ye Fan had already planned to leave the Northern Wilderness, because the matter here had basically been resolved.

Originally came to the Northern Wilderness only for the super body refining secret method, but never thought that so many things had happened, it was time to leave.

The ability group and the Killing Fan Alliance have never appeared. Ye Fan estimated that they knew their power and gave up the action.

This night.

Ye Fan came to the top of a treasure mountain in the north city, breathed in and adjusted his breath. One hour later, his body condition was adjusted to the best level and he was ready to practice Tyrant Body Jue. Suddenly, the woods rustled.

—Huh.

A figure rushed out.

"Murong Huang."

"Brother Ye."

The visitor was Murong Huang, clasped his fists, and smiled: "Excuse me."

"It's okay."

Ye Fan nodded. He still had some good feelings for Murong Huang. He motioned Murong Huang to sit down and asked, "How is that guy Murongxi?"

"The injury is not light, but it's not a major problem. Just rest for a while." Murong Huang sighed: "That guy has been unwilling to subdue to others. He has come to Beihuang to get the inheritance soaring to the sky. He must be arrogant, Ye Forgive me, brother, thank you for your mercy."

"At the beginning, I was arrested by the Law Enforcement Hall in Beijing, and the love saint let me go without detaining me. This is also a kind of favor, and I remember it in my heart. Therefore, I opened my mind to Murong Xi."

Muronghuang nodded, and then his face was filled with surprise and envy, "How long has this been since Brother Ye has been so strong. I asked and learned about your record in the Northern Wilderness during this time, which really impressed me. ."

Ye Fan smiled and struggled for a moment. He couldn't help but ask: "Excuse me, the inheritance between you and Murongxi is not simple. The 'Fighting Technique' performed by Murongxi outside the city during the day can increase combat power by three times. ,Impressive."

Murong Huang knew that Ye Fan wanted to figure it out.

In fact, he did ask Ye Fan this time, so he was not prepared to conceal it and settle the confession.

"It is indeed a powerful inheritance."

"Can you tell me."

Ye Fan was full of enthusiasm, opened the wine he was carrying, and had a drink with Muronghuang.

Murong Huang said: "Murongxi and I came to Beihuang and accidentally discovered a cave. After entering, there are some training resources in it. The most important thing is the two horrible secrets."

"Nine-character mantra and Eight Dunjia."

Ye Fan was inexplicably alarmed. Hearing the name, he knew that it was not easy, I am absolutely afraid.

"I got the eight-door Dunjia inheritance, and Murongxi got the nine-character mantra inheritance, but... what we got is not complete."

"Oh?"

"Bamen Dunjia is suitable for body builders. The so-called Bamen refers to eight hidden acupuncture points in the human body, namely: Xiu, Sheng, Injury, Du, Jing, Death, Fright, and Kai."

Muronghuang explained in detail:

"Eight doors, every time one door is opened, the physical strength, strength, speed and other qualities will be fully enhanced. It is simply a secret method tailored for physical training."

"It's a pity that I currently only get two 'doors' opening methods, which are a quarter of the full eight-door Dunjia."

"Brother Ye, I can say with certainty that the complete Eight Doors Dunjia is the secret method of super-grade body repair!!"

Murong Huang's complexion turned red and was extremely excited.

Ye Fan was also shocked.

However, he believes that Bamen Dunjia and Ba Ti Jue are a level of physical training secrets.

"What about the nine-character mantra?"

"The nine-character mantra is for presence, soldier, battle, zhe, all, formation, column, forward, and action. Simply put, each word corresponds to a secret technique and has a different effect."

"It's just that Mu Rongxi is the same as me, and what he got is not complete. He only got the one-character cultivation method of the nine-character mantra, and that is the 'fighting tactics'."

"The effect of Douzi Jue is to increase combat power and strengthen strength; it is said that it can increase combat power up to 9 times."

Ye Fan almost spit out the old wine.

With his eyes wide open, he said in disbelief: "Up to 9 times the combat power, are you sure?"

Murong Huang said: "Indeed, it is said in the inheritance. Of course, this is the top-level effect that can only be achieved by comprehending the 'Fighting Word Jue' to the extreme."

"Amazing."

Ye Fan's mind became enthusiastic.

But he couldn't pull his face down and grab it. If he was known by the love saint, he would be embarrassed to meet in the future.

Murong Huang knew that Ye Fan coveted "Dou Zi Jue", but he didn't break it.

"Nine-character mantra, it seems that it is also a super secret method."

"That's natural."

"With two super-class secret methods, the master of the cave is definitely a powerful person. I don't know, in the cave, have you found an introduction about the master of the cave?"

Murong Huang shook his head, "No, to be precise, that inheritance cave is only one of them."

"There are a total of four inheritance caves, and each inheritance cave has a 1.8-door Dunjia and nine-character mantra cultivation method. It must be a complete secret technique to know what power it is!"

"Do you know where the remaining Inheritance Dongfu is?" Ye Fan rolled his eyes and said with a wicked smile: "Brother Murong, I don't think we can put the remaining inheritance into the bag without Murong Xi playing, then The guy is not good!"

Chapter 572: Visit the book saint, Ye Fan asked three times!

"Brother Murong, you see there will be wine in a month, take this opportunity, let's worship a man."

Ye Fan was eager to try.

Murong Huang smiled and said: "Brother Ye stay calm, don't lie to each other, I don't know where the three inheritance caves are."

Ye Fan hummed: "Bullshit, how can you not know, then how do you find the next inheritance? Is it possible that the achievement is so broken? Even if you don't know the specific location, there should be clues."

"There is a clue, it is the 'Two Sect' cultivation accomplishment that I will get; when Murongxi's 'Fighting Technique' is able to increase combat power by 6 times, there will be a guide."

"It's worthy of being a great power. I admire the mysterious and mysterious arrangement of the Lianzhuo."

Ye Fan was very sorry, drinking boring wine.

Murong Huang asked tentatively, "Brother Ye, worship the handle you just said..."

"Did I say it?"

"...?" Murong Huang's mouth twitched, "Brother Ye, you are too realistic."

Ye Fan shrugged his shoulders and sighed helplessly: "No way, it won't work if you don't show it, or you can share the "two-door" cultivation method with me, then let's worship it."

Muronghuang groaned: "That's not good. This is my trump card and cannot be shared yet. I will wait for the complete Eight Door Dunjia in the future, but I can share it with you two or three."

"Then wait, we will worship the handle again at that time." Ye Fan hummed a little song, carrying an empty jug down the mountain.

Muronghuang chased up and said, "Brother Ye, in fact, I came to you to inform me in advance. When I find the Inheritance Dongfu in the future, I invite you to go and help me."

Ye Fan stopped, wondering: "Why? There is still danger?"

"The heart of the people is unpredictable. Next time you discover the inheritance Dongfu, Murongxi may be prepared. It is not impossible to get rid of my exclusive inheritance. Because I have to find a strong helper. Brother Ye is the right person."

"Okay, I agree."

Ye Fan Zhengchou couldn't get in there anymore, Murong Huang was giving him a way, how could he disagree.

The Eight Men Dunjia and the Nine-Character Mantra, he didn't dare to say that he got the complete one. Ye Fan felt in his heart that he had to get a little bit no matter what.

These two super secrets will definitely shine in the future.

After parting with Murong Huang, Ye Fan didn't feel in the mood to practice anymore. When he returned to the hotel, he wrote a letter and left Beicheng overnight.

The next morning.

Everyone sees that Ye Fan hasn't gotten up for a long time. Luo Hong and Chaos came to call for people. They found that there was no response. The two noticed something was wrong, they broke the door forcibly, and saw the letter left by Ye Fan.

"Brother Fan asked us to act first and go to Dongcheng to meet Sister Tang, Qingyin and the others. He has something to do."

"If there is something that can't be together, the boss is getting more and more chicken thieves now." Chaos rolled his eyes.

Luo Hong smiled and said, "Okay, let's inform everyone."

After a while.

Everyone set off and left the North City.

at this time.

Ye Fan appeared in Luolongpo and came to the small bamboo house at the entrance. He was here to see the Book Sage.

"Senior Book Sage, the youngest son Ye Fan came to see you."

"Squeak."

A gust of wind passed and the door opened.

Ye Fan strode in and found that Shu Sheng was writing, did not look up at him or speak.

The book sage writes, open and close.

gradually.

A "potential" spread out, rippling, making Ye Fan feel a strong binding force.

At the same time, in this small house, it was as if the river was overwhelmed, and the air blasted loudly.

Ye Fan exclaimed.

Worthy of being a book saint.

This is the legend-

—The pen is like a ghost, and the fall of the pen is shocking.

"call."

At this time, everything returned to peace.

Ye Fan saw that there was a traditional Chinese character "Shi" on the rice paper.

Taking a look, a sharp air suddenly appeared on the paper.

"Great!"

Ye Fan clapped his hands and said in admiration: "The calligraphy of the predecessors has reached its peak. This word is enough to suppress everything."

The book sage laughed and said: "It won't be enough to suppress everything."

Putting down the pen, the book sage looked at Ye Fan and praised: "Yes, it is a legend. Your future achievements must be above me. What is the so-called coming to me this time?"

"three things."

"So much?" The Book Sage frowned immediately. The Book Sage Ye Fan wanted to drive him away, and said quickly: "The first thing, thanks to the Book Sage God's ingenuity, arranged for the Golden Bull to save me in the hands of Count Dante. "

"actually....."

The book sage silently said, "I never thought you would be * by Earl Dante. I think you would be killed by a headless horseman at Wanzang Mountain, so I arranged for the golden bull = enter Luolongpo."

"Unexpectedly, you took out the palm of the headless knight, but went to see Earl Dante and saved your life by accident. You can only say that you are very lucky!"

Ye Fan was dumbfounded.

Feelings are their own lives.

"Anyway, I still have to thank senior. By the way, senior also knows that there are headless knights in Wanzang Mountain?"

"Regardless of whether there are headless knights, there are headless soldiers."

"Headless soldier?"

"Don't talk about it." The Book Sage waved his hand and urged: "What are the remaining two things, hurry up and finish talking."

Ye Fan didn't ask, after all, his current strength was not enough to spy on the headless horseman's secret.

Maybe Shu Sheng stayed at Luolong Po because of the Headless Horseman?

This thought suddenly popped out of Ye Fan's mind.

"What is it?"

"Um, the second thing is that the kid is currently at the peak of the second stage of the transformation, but he has no clue when he is promoted to the third stage of the transformation. I hope seniors can give some pointers."

Shu Sheng pointed to the desk.

Ye Fan picked up the rice paper and folded it in his arms.

"What are you doing?"

"Senior didn't give me this writing."

The book sage couldn't laugh or cry, and hummed: "Forget it, you can take it. I have already answered the second question, and the third one is next."

"Um?"

Ye Fan looked blank.

Answered the second question?

What's the meaning!

However, Ye Fan was extremely wise, and soon realized that it must be the characters on rice paper.

Potential? !

Ye Fan's mind turned sharply.

For a moment, my mind flashed, and he said in surprise: "Senior, if you want to break through to the third level, the key lies in the development of 'potential'."

"Master Heng Lian's triple realm, the unity of nature and man, is actually a kind of 'potential'. Am I right?"

"Russ can be taught."

Shusheng admired it very much in his eyes, and it was really rare to realize the essence of it so quickly.

"The key point of the three levels of transformation is to condense your own 'potential'. Weapons have the 'potential' of weapons, such as the halberd you carry, and the 'potential' can be strong."

"The so-called 'power', according to ordinary people in the world, is the aura. A person's aura can suppress others. If the aura is strong enough, it becomes the aura."

"Every warrior has a momentum, but the momentum is too scattered; and what you have to do is to condense the scattered momentum into one piece."

"The area covered by this aura is called a field in a professional term."

"for example."

Shusheng's body vibrated, and a force covered the entire room.

Ye Fan only felt like he had fallen into the palm of Shusheng, with a feeling that he couldn't escape.

Wow!

The book sage converged and asked with a smile: "Do you feel it?"

"Um."

Ye Fan nodded heavily, sparks of excitement flashed in his eyes.

"The realm can be condensed by martial artists and body refiners; there are no superpowers."

"If Earl Dante owns the domain, the golden bull can't save you, it can suppress you instantly."

"However, the existence of Count Dante participating in the 'God Creation Project' should not be underestimated. The supernatural power is powerful and mysterious, and its destructive power is very strong."

The book sage reminded Ye Fan, the purpose is to let him not underestimate the "false god"; then, the book sage continued: "Speaking of the domain, different grandmaster giants have different domain sizes, strengths and weaknesses."

"For example, the big elder of the stone clan is a scum in the domain, otherwise the domain town would have been released to kill you."

"Senior, who is currently the largest in the martial arts realm, is the master of the Martial God Temple Hall Master Wu Shentong?"

"The martial arts world is Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon, and there are countless strong men, who dare to say that their domain is the largest and the strongest. However, the scope of the martial arts power is larger than mine, covering a radius of 100 meters!"

"On the North Wilderness side, the Qu family, Qu Xiantian's father, Qu Taixu, is an outstanding person, and his domain can cover a radius of 100 meters."

"You don't need to think about these for the time being, try to condense your own field, this can only rely on yourself, no one can help you. I hope you will succeed as soon as possible and be promoted to a great master!"

Ye Fan is very confident that it is only a matter of time before he becomes a great master, and he is looking forward to how big his field will be by then!

Shu Shengmi took a sip of tea and asked, "Now, can I say the third thing."

Suddenly, Ye Fan's face was serious, and he said solemnly: "Senior, I think there is a problem with my body, an extraordinary problem. I suspect...I have been genetically modified!!!"

Chapter 573: I have been transformed!

— I have been genetically modified!

The words shocked the book saint.

Ye Fan looked serious and said grimly: "Senior, I was conspired by a supernatural person to plant a heterogeneous gene cutting reagent; later, I convened a team to research and successfully developed a gene repair reagent."

"After I took it, the gene was indeed repaired, but... it was over repaired."

"I feel that my genes have been changed and my body is a little different, but I just can't find anything strange."

"However, the elder of the stone clan bombarded me with his life that day, and wanted to drag me to bury me. I actually felt that I couldn't bear the bombardment; but in the end I resisted it because..."

Ye Fan paused.

The Book Sage didn't bother and waited quietly.

Ye Fan seemed to feel the state at that time, and for a moment he said: "I found that I can absorb the qi."

"Absorb the qi?"

"Yes, it is to absorb other people's anger. At that time, the stone elder bombarded me, and suddenly there was a force that urged me to absorb the anger, which made me carry it down."

Shu Sheng frowned and asked: "Did you feel wrong? Did your body dissolve the qi?"

"Do not!"

Ye Fan shook his head, very firm.

"The physical body of Master Henglian can dissolve the qi, and my feeling is different from Master Henglian. It is definitely not dissolving, but absorbing."

"Then you absorb the qi, then what?"

"Then it dissipated." Ye Fan was puzzled. "This is something I've never had before. I got Dracaena in Wanzang Mountain, so I was reborn and my body strengthened; but this ability to absorb qi lies in me. Produced after swallowing gene repair reagents."

"So, I feel that I have been genetically modified, which makes me very depressed, and I dare not talk to my friends."

The book saint thoughtfully.

Ye Fan is very anxious. If he is really genetically modified, doesn't it mean that he is not a human being in the true sense.

Is it also a kind of ability to absorb qi?

This is Ye Fan's heart knot.

When I came to visit Shusheng, the first two questions were actually secondary. The main reason was this matter. He needed to talk to Shusheng.

"There is nothing wrong with your body, right?"

"That's not true. My current physical body is equivalent to the triple realm of Master Heng Lian, that is, I have not reached the unity of heaven and man; perhaps, I will be promoted to the great master, and I will be able to understand the unity of heaven and man, and then I will martial arts and physical training. , Have reached the current peak."

"Good thing."

The book sage stroked his beard and praised: "Sports and martial arts double cultivation, there are actually people walking this road, such as Ye Gong."

Ye Fan said: "Yes, my purpose in coming to Beihuang is to find a super body refining secret method, which Ye Gong told me; the sudden realm, I am afraid that some of the current training limits have been broken, half of my feet have gone out. ."

The book sage laughed and said: "Ye Gong is a pioneer, and there are many pioneers like him. Everyone is exploring and has different directions, but the goal is the same, which is to break the current limit of martial arts as soon as possible; because only in this way, In order to fight against the supernatural organization."

"Don't talk about these for the time being, when you are promoted to the Grand Master Giant, you will naturally learn more."

"Speaking of which, I personally think that it is a good thing for you to acquire the ability to 'absorb qi'. This is your hole card. If you can use this ability freely, then you will definitely be the overlord of the martial arts world in the future."

"It doesn't matter whether it has been genetically modified or not, whether or not this ability is a born ability, it is actually harmless."

"Do you know that the martial artist has been genetically modified, and the success rate and effect are better than ordinary people. This is also one of the reasons why the supernatural organization entered our great summer to counter some martial artists."

Ye Fan said, "I understand this."

Shu Shengdao: "Then you can imagine, is genetic modification understood as a means to assist the martial artist to cultivate and grow?"

"This..." Ye Fan didn't dare to answer rashly, sinking into thought.

"In fact, whether it is a supernatural organization, martial art, or physical training, they are all pursuing their own strength, but the way to gain strength is different."

"We don't need to be hostile. We are not hostile to the means of genetic modification. In a real sense, genetic modification is actually a big leap in technology. What we are hostile to is the supernatural organization, the wolf's ambition of this organization, trying to forcibly change mankind. Civilization, and even this kind of frenzied behavior that caused a * storm and brought world disasters!"

"Once, Fashen used as a representative to negotiate with the big figures of the supernatural organization. The negotiation involved a lot of content, one of which was peaceful coexistence and the maintenance of world peace. But the final negotiation result was not ideal. The big figures of the supernatural organization were very enthusiastic and thought To make the current technological civilization, leap into the spiritual civilization."

Ye Fan's heart moved, Sage Dugu, the strongest existence among the Four Sages of Great Xia, nicknamed Dugu seek defeat.

The book sage is a little excited and talks endlessly:

"The consequences of doing so will bring about world disasters. There will be countless deaths, and the whole world will be destroyed."

"Genetic modification requires genetic reagents to obtain the so-called divine power, and these genetic reagents are in the hands of the chaebols. At that time, the world will be turned into 'gods' by a few powerful people and ruled arbitrarily, and 90% of ordinary people cannot obtain genes. Reagents naturally become slaves."

"And our Daxia, the idea of the future civilization is to enter the cultivation civilization."

"Cultivating civilization?"

"Not bad." The book sage's eyes were full of longing. "Unlike genetic reagents, everyone can practice and gain strength through their own efforts. This is the right way to order."

Ye Fan was short of breath.

Cultivating civilization, that kind of situation appeared in his mind.

Global cultivation, how magnificent it should be, relying on one's own efforts to gain strength, for one thing, feel at ease, and secondly, not to disrupt order.

This is just like now, people earn wages through hard work.

The supernatural organization directly selects people to inject genetic reagents to create the so-called gods, which is completely disrupting social order.

As the Book Sage said, once this happens, it must be a worldwide catastrophe. I don't know how many people's fate will hang upside down.

now.

Ye Fan CIA really felt that Daxia's awe-inspiring righteousness is indeed the only major civilized country in the world that has been passed down for thousands of years.

Silently and quietly shoulder the responsibility of all mankind and the mission of all mankind.

For some reason, Ye Fan suddenly burst into tears.

The pioneers do not know whether the implementation of "Cultivation Civilization" will be successful. They can't see the results but still forge ahead, work silently, and actively explore. This is great, glorious, admirable and admired.

"Say a lot."

The book master laughed, drank a sip of tea, and said earnestly: "The reason for telling you this, I want you to understand that there should be no prejudices and knots, even if you are really genetically modified, but as long as your faith, Your Dao heart is firm, then there is no problem. In fact, I am quite envious of the ability you have obtained. It is simply the ultimate trump card for restraining the warrior. I hope that only you have it, not among the superpowers."

Taking a deep breath, Ye Fan bowed deeply.

"Thank you seniors for teaching."

"The ocean is wide with fish jumping, and the sky is high enough for birds to fly. Let's go, the world is so big and troubled times will arise. This is the age of your young people."

Get out of the bamboo house.

Ye Fan looked up at the sky with unprecedented passion.

Chapter 574: Defeated with confidence, Ye Fan's invincibility is stunning!

Ye Fan has unprecedented expectations and confidence in the way ahead, and he can't wait to speed up to the situation of practicing civilization immediately.

However, in the future, there will definitely be a collision between the cultivation civilization of Daxia and the * civilization of Eagle Country.

Who wins and loses will affect the development of the world and the destiny of mankind.

"These are still too far away for me, so I should keep my feet on the ground and walk my own way step by step."

Ye Fan muttered to himself.

Farewell to the book saint, he rushed to Dongcheng.

Two days later.

He reunited with everyone in Dongcheng.

After a long conversation, Ye Fan revealed something, but not much, which made Qu innately excited.

"My father also told me a little bit, but didn't elaborate. Now Brother Ye's words make me passionate."

"Concentrate on cultivation. When the East-West collision comes, there will definitely be a * storm that will affect the world. I hope that by that time, we will all have the ability to protect ourselves and make contributions."

Everyone touched their glasses and drank them all in one fell swoop.

Ye Fan asked: "Sao Qu, are you not going to leave the Northern Wilderness?"

"Leaving Beihuang is sure, but I have to make preparations. Brother Ye, are you leaving today?"

"Yes, I have a lot to do, and I can't take time."

"I wish you a smooth journey."

Parting is always sad.

Especially Qu Youer, unhappy.

Because of this, she didn't know when she would see Ye Fan!

People, it's best not to meet people who are too amazing too early in this life, otherwise they will be very sad.

Qu You'er lamented in her heart that Ye Fan is a dragon among people and does not belong to her; and she, because she has been with Ye Fan, her eyesight and spirit have become higher, and ordinary geniuses and evildoers are afraid to look down on it.

Very simple reason:

In the world, some girls are lucky enough to play with the rich second generation, and have seen some worlds, and naturally become arrogant and look down on ordinary men.

This is human nature.

It's not right or wrong.

At noon, Qu Youer watched Ye Fan leave the East City, feeling very bad.

She looked at Zhu Ying next to her and asked, "Why don't you follow Brother Fan?"

"What am I doing with him will be a burden." Zhu Ying was very free and easy, and smiled lightly: "I am a lone ranger, and what I pursue is the secret of martial arts. I will travel all over the famous mountains and rivers and dig out what I want to know. . When I have enough accumulation, I will go to Ye Fan and tell him the results of my hard work."

"Shao Qu, Miss Qu, I'm leaving too, goodbye."

Zhu Ying left, and once again embarked on a lonely but magnificent road of exploration.

Qu Youer was a little hesitant, she was very envious of Zhuying's own pursuit and belief.

"Little girl." Qu Xiantian rubbed her head and said with a smile: "Don't underestimate yourself, you are very good, your cultivation talent is not bad, but you are too lazy. From now on, practice hard and try to see Ye Fan next time. Make him look at it with admiration."

Qu Youer's eyes lit up and she smiled: "Brother, then teach me."

Qu Xiantian said: "The inheritance I got from the Innate Real Human is staged. Now I have broken through to the Second Layer of the Transformation Realm, and I can go to the Dongfu to open the second inheritance and see if there is a good fortune for you."

"Brother, it should not be too late, let's go quickly, I want to cultivate to the realm of grandmaster as soon as possible."

Seeing Qu Youer's ups and downs, Qu Xiantian smiled bitterly: "This girl! Alas, Ye Fan, you have hurt my sister."

...

Ye Fan's team is quite big.

Yue Liuli, Luo Hong, Chaos, Taotie, Yinglu, Tang Ying, Meng Qingyin, Hu Yanzhuo, Niu Dali and one of his younger brothers.

To Ye Fan's surprise, Taotie and Yingtong have also entered the realm of Master Heng Lian.

The two of them already had signs of breakthrough, and they also experienced a lot in the Northern Wilderness. In the past few days, the two of them have been ghostly and squeezed Hu Yanzhuo, and obtained a lot of training experience. The breakthrough is also reasonable.

This camp is strong and terrifying.

All Heng Lian masters and martial arts masters.

After traveling through the mountains and rivers for several days, Ye Fan finally saw the yellow sand, and he was about to leave the northern wilderness in front of him.

"Speed up, we have to rush to Beiliang City before it gets dark." Ye Fan shouted, and everyone quickened their pace.

Huhuhu!

Finally everyone rushed out of the forest, suddenly seeing a bright light.

But suddenly.

A sense of crisis that makes the scalp numb is coming.

"careful!"

Yue Liuli drank tenderly.

Everyone is not a simple generation, and immediately enters a fighting state; and Ye Fan, suddenly turned around, staring at the distant mountains and forests.

"Om!"

"Om!"

"Om!"

At this moment, three bright and hot beams burst out, setting off Sangu Hurricane.

Super cannon!

Three super cannons, which means that there are three ability groups ambushing here early.

"Rumble."

it's not finished yet.

On the other side of the mountains and forests, more than a dozen powerful martial arts appeared in the sky, smashing into the sky.

That is, Kill Fan Alliance.

Ye Fan sneered in his heart, thinking that the ability team and the Killing Alliance would retreat because of difficulties, but he didn't expect to ambush here and give him a fatal blow.

Do not!

To be precise, it was not for him, but for their team.

This is not only to kill Ye Fan, but also to kill Luo Hong and others.

"You are waiting for a big heart."

Ye Fan's face was cold, he took a step...it was such a step, and the situation suddenly changed.

The three thousand silver threads stood upright.

"hold head high!"

A dragon chant, earth-shaking.

Ye Fan's eyes burst out with divine light, there was no fear on his face, and he slapped a palm outrageously.

"puff!"

When this palm was shot, a big golden character appeared in the sky——

Potential!

In an instant, a domain force spread out, extinguishing all super cannons and martial arts.

Immediately afterwards.

All the flowers and trees in that mountain forest turned into fly ash, and the mountain forest turned into bare land.

The ability group and all the people in the killing alliance have all appeared.

"what!"

The screams of horror rushed into the sky, and the members of the three power teams were almost completely wiped out.

Only three team leaders managed to escape.

On the side of the Shafan Alliance, everyone flew out, blood spurting wildly.

So far.

It's all over.

The world is quiet.

Everyone was stunned, including Luo Hong and others; the hair was horrified and unbelievable.

The power of Ye Fan's palm is as horrible!

"impossible!"

Wu Lingjun yelled frantically, and roared with red eyes: "Ye Fan, you can't be so strong!"

This palm is amazing.

Wu Lingjun's psychological defense was almost destroyed, making him crazy and unacceptable.

actually.

This wasn't Ye Fan's strength, but the calligraphy of Book Sage, Ye Fan quietly used it.

If it weren't for a picture of the book saint, it would be really dangerous just now.

Ye Fan felt that the book saint gave himself this handwriting, I am afraid that this step was also expected.

This made Ye Fan admire the Book Sage even more.

At this moment, facing Wu Lingjun's doubts, Ye Fan certainly wouldn't explain.

He waved his sleeves, turned around, and left... leaving only an awesome back; and a group of people who were beaten with confidence.

This is worse than killing them.

Because it left a psychological shadow.

When I see Ye Fan in the future, even if I have to take a detour.

The endless yellow sand.

Ye Fan didn't go very far, he saw roaring bursts, and a group of armored convoys came galloping in.

The leading luxury armored car jumped off a big man, carrying three stars on his shoulders, and was a three-star warrior.

He was very respectful, clasped his fist and said:

"Master Ye, respect the order of the city lord of Beiliang, come to welcome Master Ye and you gentlemen into the city."

Chapter 575: Enter Beiliang City, go to Hongmen Banquet

"The order of Beiliang City Lord?!"

Ye Fan was slightly surprised, thinking again and again, and nodded: "Okay, everyone get in the car."

"Everyone, please."

The courtesy of the Samsung warlord is very thoughtful.

Rumbling.

The motorcade crossed three hundred miles of yellow sand, and finally saw a majestic giant city in the wind and sand.

There is a border giant city on the four borders of Daxia.

Unlike the secular cities, the giant border city was built in the same way as ancient cities, with tall and heavy walls.

The city wall of Beiliang City is 100 meters high and three meters thick. It is stronger than the Three Gorges Dam and can withstand bombing by conventional missiles.

The city is huge.

Eight hundred miles away! !

With four borders and four giant border cities, Daxia spent countless manpower, financial and material resources, and took thirty years to complete.

These are four indestructible fortresses.

The city gate is thirty meters wide and fifty meters high. It can pass through a gap.

However.

At this moment, the city gate was half open.

"Xiao Fan."

At this time, Tang Ying spoke. He was Bailonghou, the commander of the eastern border of Daxia, and he also owned a giant city.

No one here understands some of the rules of the giant city better than Tang Ying.

"The city gate is closed most of the time; and because the city gate is so heavy, it is not easy to open it every time."

"Generally speaking, opening a gap is enough to pass; now the city lord of Beiliang half-opens the city gate...remarkably, this is already an extremely grand treatment."

Ye Fan suddenly smiled and said: "It doesn't have to be the one who greeted me, sister, you are Bai Longhou, maybe it was the one who greeted you. As Master Hou, you are qualified to enjoy the etiquette of the half-open city gate."

Tang Ying gave a white glance and smiled without saying a word.

The three-star warlord waved in front and shouted: "Master Ye, the city gate can't be opened for a long time. Come in."

Everyone moved.

Tang Ying whispered: "Have you heard that, the Samsung War never called me Bai Longhou from the beginning to the end. It can be said that I just ignore it, only you are in my eyes. This shows that such a grand welcome etiquette is for you."

"NS!"

Ye Fan burst into foul language.

With a big hand, he grabbed the three-star warlord to his side, making the warlord's face pale.

Beiliang City is very concerned about the Northern Wilderness.

Firstly, the gathering was only three hundred miles away; secondly, in order to prevent riots in the Northern Wilderness, the above also instructed Beiliang City to stare at the Northern Wilderness, and once there was any trouble, troops could be sent to suppress it.

Therefore, Ye Fan's record in the Northern Wilderness, the leaders of Beiliang City are all clear.

This is ruthless!

The Samsung warlord asked in shock: "Master Ye is doing this, and if you haven't done enough, please let me know."

Ye Fan yelled: "This thing that you are blind, Bai Longhou is here, and you didn't even greet you. Why, do you look down on Bai Longhou in Beiliang? I cut Beiliang Hou Li Ce, do you want me? Kill the City Lord of Beiliang!"

Puff through.

The Samsung warlord was shocked directly.

Kneeling down, shouted: "The villain sees Bai Longhou, please Bai Longhou atonement, the villain didn't recognize it for a while."

Tang Ying knew that Ye Fan did not play cards according to common sense, in order to mess up the rhythm of Beiliang City Lord.

So, he cooperated with Ye Fan to continue acting.

"Before Liang Hou Li Ce was alive, he didn't dare to ignore me. You, a three-star warrior, don't pay attention to me. Is this the Bishop of Beiliang City?"

"No, no, no, Lord Hou calmed down. The villain didn't recognize it. Lord Hou, you are wearing women's clothing, not a uniform. I dazzled my eyes. Please Lord Hou atone for your sins!"

"A sentence can be revealed if you are fascinated, so what do you have to do with the rules. You can kneel at the gate of the city for a day and a night. If you dare not listen, please don't blame me Ye someone for being cruel."

After speaking, Ye Fan flew the warlord.

Huh!

At this moment, a burst of qi flew out, entwining the warlord, and dragged him away.

"Hahaha."

A loud laughter came, and everyone saw a man in Chinese clothes walking out of the city gate.

The master of Huajing double martial arts.

Ye Fan squinted slightly.

At the beginning, he was beheading Li Ce, the Northern Liang Hou, and Li Ce had only just broken through the second stage of the transformation; now Tang Ying is only the first stage of the transformation.

Unexpectedly, the city lord of Beiliang had such a realm, and he was full of vigor while walking. Obviously, he had a solid foundation and was not an ordinary grandmaster.

"Bailonghou, Mr. Ye, I am Bagu, the lord of Beiliang City. I would like to apologize to Lord Hou for the recklessness of my subordinates. Give him a hundred guts and dare not offend Lord Hou. It should be really dazzling. Now, please forgive me Hou Ye and Mr. Ye."

"This is not an example."

Tang Ying said lightly.

Ba Gu tilted his head and shouted: "What are you doing in a daze, don't roll over yet, thank you Lord Hou!"

"Thank you, Lord Hou, for your kindness, and thank Master Ye for being merciful." The Samsung warlord said in a controversial manner.

"Everyone, please."

Under the leadership of Ba Gu, everyone entered Beiliang City.

The environment of the Northern Wilderness is quite harsh.

The environment in Beiliang City can only be said to be inhabitable, and there are few high-rise buildings. After all, as a giant border city, considering the factors of being attacked, high-rise buildings are living targets.

Almost all the buildings in the city are retro buildings.

Although it lacks a sense of modernity, it has a sense of age and a kind of charm that travels to ancient times.

Ba Gu arranged Ye Fan and his party at the best inn in the city, saying that he would host a banquet in the city lord's mansion in the evening, and he would send someone to pick him up.

"This city lord is not easy, it is possible that even Li Ce was deceived by him at the beginning, I don't know he is so powerful." Ye Fan stood in front of the window, looking at the gray sky and said.

"Bagu must have something. We have to beware. I think the evening banquet is a grand feast." Tang Ying said solemnly.

Everyone looked at each other.

Meng Qingyin said, "Since it's a Hongmen Banquet, we won't go. Can Ba Gu force us to go."

Ye Fan smiled and said, "Qingyin, what you think is too simple. In Beiliang City, how can we not go to Bagu's site. Besides, we still need to use the military airport in Beiliang City to leave. Anyway, I have to deal with Ba Gu."

Tang Ying asked, "Xiao Fan, what are your plans?"

"The soldiers are here to cover the water and earth, but for the banquet tonight, I plan to go to the party alone, so you don't want to go."

"How can you do it, Brother Fan can't let you commit the risk alone. Together, we have great strength." Meng Qingyin squeezed the powder fist and said vowedly: "Our strength is not weak. If Ba Gu dares to mess around, absolutely Can't eat it and walk around."

"How about this."

Seeing Ye Fan's embarrassment, Tang Ying said: "I will accompany Xiaofan to the meeting, and you stay here. Although there are many people and powerful, sometimes it is not easy to move, and it may be overwhelmed."

Ye Fan said: "Just follow my sister. My sister is Bai Longhou, so I should go to the meeting. You stay here, be careful and don't slack off."

Time flies, and the moon rises into the sky.

Because it is the border, or perhaps it is set off by the endless yellow sandy land, the moon appears extraordinarily large and bright.

Although it is night, it can still be seen clearly.

Moonlight stretched out the figures of Ye Fan and Tang Ying, and they got into the shuttle bus and came to the lavish City Lord's Mansion.

"Master Hou, please come inside." The warlord cautiously led Ye Fan and the two into the city lord, winding around to the restaurant.

The restaurant is large and grand.

Ba Gu smiled and said: "Mr. Ye, Hou Ye, hurry up and take your seat, I have been waiting for a long time. Hey, why are you, the others?"

"They were a little tired on the journey in the Northern Wilderness, and they all rested. We are here enough."

"sit down."

Ba Gu didn't get entangled in this matter.

The wines and dishes are rich, the mountains and the sea are delicious, it is simply a Man-Han feast; the wine is also very precious, but it is the monkey wine.

Ye Fan had heard that this was a wine specially supplied to the troops. It was a special wine. He heard that it was very strong and had the effect of inspiring blood.

Many soldiers will bring a small bottle in battle to kill the enemy, drink it at critical moments, and greatly increase their combat power.

"Mr. Ye doesn't know if he knows the monkey wine. This is a 30-year-old monkey wine. It is very rare and full of potency. I have treasured it for many years. Today I have a feast for Mr. Ye and Lord Hou. I hope you will like it."

"Come on, serve wine!"

Ba Gu waved his hand.

The war will be the entourage, personally filled Tang Ying and Ye Fan, a violent gush out, making Ye Fan qi and blood surging.

This wine is amazing!

"My sister is hurt, so she won't drink it, give it to me, haha, I like it."

Ye Fan's words fell, and he poured down two bowls, blushing immediately, and his blood was boiling.

"readily!"

Upon seeing this, Ba Gu also poured two bowls.

The two of them pushed the cups and exchanged them, and it didn't take long before they drank a jar of monkey wine.

Ye Fan hiccuped and said, "Good wine, hahaha, it's really good wine. The first time I drank it so smoothly. City Lord, I'm a little bit on top. That's it for today. Let's go back to rest and come back tomorrow. "

Tang Ying helped Ye Fan to get up.

At this moment, the change came, and dozens of heavy murderous auras struck, first with a wave of broken crossbows.

"Humph."

Ye Fan sneered.

He hugged Tang Ying with one hand, and threw out a fist like lightning with the other. In the blink of an eye, he waved more than a dozen punches, all of which exploded.

"Little Xiao Xiao, come out for me!"

Ye Fan flicked his fingers, and the sword-like qi burst out, and suddenly there were some screams.

Apparently several people were shot to death.

"kill!"

Finally, the person in the dark couldn't help it, revealing his true colors.

This is a group of killers plus some luxurious men and women, the lineup is not simple, there are several masters and masters of horizontal training, and there is also a big brother with the duality of the realm.

"Rumble."

In an instant, martial arts came like a waterfall.

In the face of these attacks, Ye Fan slapped them all with a disdainful slap, slapped the group of killers to the ground, broke their bones, and lost their combat effectiveness.

All were scrapped in the blink of an eye, and the faces of the men and women in the Chinese clothes were shocked.

"How can it be so strong!"

A middle-aged man shouted, unbelievable, his eyes were full of unwillingness.

They dare not act rashly.

Ye Fan thought it was done, but suddenly a young man jumped out and shouted angrily: "Ye Fan, die for me!"

"Boom!"

There were three gunshots in a row.

Coming soon.

Three bullets hit Ye Fan's body impartially, and the young man smiled triumphantly.

However.

Next, everyone was shocked.

"Dang...Dangdang!"

Three bullets fell to the ground, making a clear metallic sound.

Ye Fan's body was safe and sound, but with three red spots, it was hot.

Ba Gu and others looked dull.

Carrying bullets physically?

Oh My God!

These people's heads were short-circuited, blank, and buzzing, thinking that Ye Fan was not a human at all, but a monster.

Chapter 576: Li Family Remnants

Carry bullets physically.

Even the bullets fired by ordinary pistols are amazing; if this is in the world, ordinary people must think that Ye Fan is a god.

Tang Ying in Ye Fan's arms was shocked, but more proud.

My good brother is so strong, how can I be unhappy as my sister.

"puff!"

Ye Fan pointed out, the two arms of the shooting boy were pierced and blood was dripping.

However, the young man clenched his teeth, his lips were bitten, and he didn't let out a painful cry.

"Have a backbone."

Ye Fan nodded secretly, and looked at the boy carefully, feeling that his appearance was a bit familiar.

Tang Ying thought of something and asked, "Boy, are you Li Ce's son?"

"Wonder girl, if you killed my father, I will kill you; and you, Ye Fan, if you killed my father with your own hands, I will also smash your corpse."

The boy's eyes were red and roaring.

Ye Fan suddenly realized.

It turned out that these were the Li family.

The Li family present was full of hatred. Originally, their Li family should be a prominent family.

Li Ce defeated Tang Ying, and there is still hope for the Duke in the future, then the Li family is the Daxia royal family!

What an honor it is.

However, everything was ruined by Ye Fan.

"what...!"

A man in power of the Li family roared unwillingly.

"Ye Fan, Patriarch and Tang Ying are fighting for life and death. It's up to you, why should you break the rules? If it weren't for you, Tang Ying would die. My Patriarch will not die."

Ye Fan snorted coldly: "Even if I don't kill Li Ce that day, I will kill him later. Because of Li Ce, he covets the position of the Duke of the Ye Royal Family. This is a capital crime."

The young Li Rong roared: "What does it matter to you to covet the position of the Duke of the Ye Royal Family? Are you a member of the Ye Royal Family!"

Not many people know Ye Fan's background.

The Li family is not clear.

"You are really right, I am the blood of the Ye Royal Family." Ye Fan's face was stern and his power was full.

The Li family felt choked.

Ye Fan is the young master of the Ye royal family?

how so!

At this moment, the resentment of the Li family was reduced a lot. As Ye Fan said, if Ye Fan didn't kill Li Ce that day, he would kill Li Ce later, and he still couldn't escape the fate of being beheaded.

"Puff."

The Li family collapsed on the ground, howling and crying.

"My Li family is dead!"

"Is my Li family destined to miss the position of the royal family? The Patriarch was killed, and we are incapable of revenge... Now, we can't even defend Beiliang City!"

Ye Fan's eyes flickered.

He turned to look at Ba Gu, but saw Ba Gu drinking on his own. It seemed that everything that happened had nothing to do with him.

"Mr. Ye is very confused, right? I will explain to you slowly."

Ba Gu put down the wine glass, put his hands together on the table, sat down with his breasts, and explained:

"Li Ce was beheaded, and Shangfeng did not send a big man as the commander of the Northern Wilderness. As the second person in the Northern Wilderness, I naturally have the mind to control the Northern Wilderness and become the master of the Northern Wilderness."

"I suppressed the Li family and became the lord of Beiliang City."

"Thinking of Li Ce's kindness to me, I did not rush to kill, and ordered the Li family to leave Beiliang City and never come back. The conditions of the Li family are that I create an opportunity for them to assassinate you!"

"So, when I send someone to pick you up to Beiliang City, there will be this so-called Hongmen Banquet."

"It's that simple."

With a smile on Ba Gu's face, he glanced at the Li family and said indifferently: "Li Rong, what I promised you has been done, and whether you can succeed in the assassination has nothing to do with me. I definitely won't be with Mr. Ye, Bai Longhou is enmity."

"So, hand over your fate to Mr. Ye. I will not interfere with Mr. Ye's disposal."

At this moment, the Li family's faces were ashamed.

At the same time, there is grief and anger.

Ba Gu used to be Li Ce's good brother, and his relationship with the Li family is as good as iron. Now he not only wants to drive the Li family out of Beiliang City, but also ignores their comfort.

Under Li Ce Jiuquan, you can't stand your eyes on!

However, the Li family did not dare to accuse Ba Gu, now Ba Gu controls everything in Beiliang City, and can destroy his Li family in one word.

And if you give your destiny to Ye Fan, it is also a death; since it is death everywhere, why bother to die!

"Ye Fan, you destroy my Li family, and I will die with you!" A man in power pulled off a pair, tied a human bomb, and rushed towards Ye Fan.

"I can't help myself."

Ye Fan displayed his Fantian Seal and instantly suppressed all the Li family members.

Tang Yingxiu frowned and stopped talking.

"The fight for power and profit is naturally very cruel, and Li Ce died, too. Do you Li family want to die for him?"

Ye Fan's voice was thunderous and deaf.

The Li family were dumbfounded.

"You didn't kneel down to beg for mercy, but you are spine and bloody; besides, you are a family of meritorious deeds after all, it is not appropriate to destroy you in this way, just like Daxia Guowei."

"I will give you a way to survive."

"That is, if my family moved into the Northern Wilderness Historic Sites, they would never leave the historic sites without my permission."

"Agree?"

Ye Fan's decision made Tang Ying very gratified, at least Ye Fan was not a cold-blooded, bloodthirsty person.

Ba Gu was very surprised, there was some haze between his eyebrows.

Ye Fan sneered in his heart, how could he be unclear about Ba Gu's abacus, that he wanted to use his hand to destroy the Li family and solve his serious problems.

How can you make Bagu wishful!

Besides, the iron and bones of the Li family made Ye Fan admire, especially the kid Li Rong, Ye Fanting admired.

"I don't have time to spend with you. I will give you ten seconds to give me an answer."

The Li family looked at each other.

In the end, everyone looked at Li Rong together; he was Li Ce's son, he became famous as a teenager, and he was already a vigorous warrior at the age of sixteen, with amazing talent.

He is the future hope of the Li family.

The Li family has determined that Li Rong is the head of the family, but Li Rong is still young, and his uncles temporarily assist him in managing the Li family.

However, Li Rong had to decide on the decision.

"Ye Fan!"

Two people popped out between Li Rong's teeth, saying word by word: "If you don't destroy my Li family, if you don't kill me, you will regret it. When I succeed in my cultivation, I will definitely kill you."

"Have aspirations." Ye Fan didn't care, and smiled: "I'm waiting for you to kill me. But I warn you, as well as all of you in the Li family, if you are wronged and indebted, you can just find me if you want revenge. If it affects innocent people around me, don't blame someone Ye for being cruel."

"I disdain to deal with other people!"

Li Rong snorted coldly, turned his head and took a deep look at Ba Gu, then shouted: "Let's go!"

"Leaving Beiliang City overnight, like a historic site in the Northern Wilderness."

"Yes!"

Li Rong had a leadership style, acted vigorously, and left with the Li family violently.

Bang bang bang.

At this time, applause rang and Ba Gu praised: "Mr. Ye is really compassionate and compassionate, admiring and admiring him."

"It's nothing, it's not as scheming as the city lord, I really admire it."

Ye Fan's sharp speech made Bagu's face startled; Tang Ying worried that Ye Fan and Bagu would have a conflict, and quickly changed the subject and said, "City Lord, we need to borrow the city's airport to leave Beiliang. I don't know if we can arrange it."

"Of course, it's a trivial matter. When do you leave?"

"Tomorrow morning."

"Okay, I will inform the airport. You will go directly to the airport tomorrow, and someone will meet you. Is there a plane? Do I need to arrange a fighter plane to take you away?"

"It's not necessary. A fighter plane will come to pick us up." After the words were closed, Tang Ying pulled La Yefan and said, "It's not early, we will go back to rest and leave."

"Walk slowly."

Watching Tang Ying and Ye Fan leave the restaurant, the smile on Ba Gu's face disappeared instantly, and coldness filled his entire face.

Huh.

An old man in black came out from the back of the restaurant with a very strong aura.

The old man said hoarsely: "Aba, calm down, can't move!"

Ba Gu took a deep breath, suppressed the anger in his heart, and asked: "Master, can't you even suppress Ye Fan?"

"I was going to make a shot, but Ye Fan's physical resistance to the bullet shocked me, and I did not act rashly. In the Northern Wilderness, Ye Fan bombed and killed the Stone Clan elder. Although the Stone Clan elder was seriously injured at the time, it was a desperate blow. , Very scary, Ye Fan can resist it, indicating that he has the power of a great master."

"I can use war soldiers to suppress! Ye Fan can carry ordinary bullets, but he can't resist bullets fired by advanced guns!!"

"That's even more troublesome, Ye Fan, Tang Ying, and the people in the inn, either the master or the master of horizontal training, are all mad, and Beiliang City will be in chaos. You may be punished by the superior, and the seat of the city lord will be shaken. This is not what I want. have witnessed."

Ba Gu gritted his teeth, very suffocated.

The old man comforted: "Aba, the task given to you by the organization is to control the Northern Wilderness. You don't need to think about other things."

Chapter 577: The ambition of the Zombie Organization

"This time in the Northern Wilderness, our organization suffered heavy losses, and three * sons died."

The old man lamented.

The Corpse Man organization has eight strongholds, and each stronghold has cultivated a "son of god", which is the facade of the stronghold.

Being beheaded three at once is a huge loss.

Ba grumbled: "Master, I heard that the first son of God has already transformed into the second peak of the realm?"

"good."

"How old is he, he is already so powerful, he is as enchanting as Ye Fan."

The old man smiled and said: "The first * son has only joined the organization for a few months, and he still has an identity, which will definitely shock you."

"Please also ask Master to make it clear."

"It's okay to tell you, the first divine son has another identity, he is the commander-in-chief of Daxia Southern Xinjiang, the champion Xue Guan!"

boom!

Ba Gu jumped up, his eyes widened, and his jaw dropped in disbelief.

"How can it be!"

"Why not?" The old man said with a gloomy smile: "A few months ago, the person in charge of the organization found Xue Guan and successfully instigated rebellion."

"Aba, so please relax and don't be afraid. The four major borders of Great Xia, southern Xinjiang has already been taken, and you will work harder on the Northern Wilderness side to get the title of the Northern Wilderness Commander and become the new Northern Wilderness. Hou. The organization has also told Xue Guan that he wants to play in the Great Xia Long Pavilion and recommend you. I think it can be done in all likelihood!"

Ba Gu was very excited.

Beilianghou, this is the title he dreams of.

"Master, I don't want to take Tang Ying tonight. He is Bai Longhou, the commander of the East Turks. If he catches it, then our organization will have taken the three major borders."

"inappropriate!"

The old man shook his head and said in a deep voice: "The risk is too great. Ye Fan is a variable. Once the purpose is revealed, the efforts of the organization are all in vain."

"The organization also clearly explained that Bai Longhou could not move for the time being, and Ye Fan was involved, and Ye Fan was involved in the Ye royal family, which was very complicated."

"The next goal of the organization is Nie Yun, the Seven Star Commander of the West."

Ba Gu touched his chin and said, "Nie Yun is the oldest of the four great masters. He is very Buddhist. He guards his own three-acre land. It is very difficult to counter Nie Yun."

The old man said: "There will be a way in the organization, we don't have to worry about it. Arrange the airport side, let Ye Fan and the others leave tomorrow morning. They are in Beiliang City, and I am always unsure."

...

Ye Fan and Tang Ying left the city lord's mansion.

Walking on the streets of the city, with the yellow sand and bright moon on your head, you can feel the antique atmosphere, which is unique.

"Xiao Fan, do you feel that there is still a breath in the restaurant."

Tang Ying couldn't help but speak.

Ye Fan said, "I felt it as soon as I entered the restaurant. It was a great and outstanding person, and it was Ba Gu's backing. Because of this, I didn't make a move; otherwise, Ba Gu would use me and use my temper to teach him a lesson."

"You are too courageous. This is someone's turf. No matter how strong the skill is, you can't hold the cannon." Tang Ying said angrily.

"Sister, I think there is a problem with Ba Gu, or that the people behind him are not good things."

Ye Fan stopped and thought about it: "Why didn't I arrange for a big and trusted person to sit here? This Bagu was formerly Li Ce's subordinate, and he was a bit too close to dominating the Northern Wilderness!"

Tang Ying shrugged her shoulders and said, "Who knows, there should be considerations above."

"Forget it, I don't want that much. Sister, I am going to go back to Changning and see Grandpa; then I will go to Nanling to see my sisters."

"Okay, okay, this is what I think."

...

The next morning.

Ye Fan and his party arrived at the airport. Three fighters landed, the main engine was in the middle, and the other two fighters were escorted.

"Sir."

A man jumped from the host and hurriedly came to Ye Fan, greeting respectfully.

"I am the person in charge of the Tianzun Hall branch of Beihai City, and my name is Qiao Hai."

"Okay, let's talk about it on the machine."

Not long after, three fighters broke through the air.

In the tower, Ba Gu looked at the sky and wanted to order his subordinates to shoot down the fighters, but finally held back.

Host.

As soon as Ye Fan sat down, Qiao Hai suddenly knelt down on one knee to him, "Respect for atonement!"

Chapter 578: Come to the North Sea, understand everything!

"how?"

Ye Fan picked up his eyelids.

Qiao Hai said with a bitter face: "The subordinates are incompetent and have messed up the branch of Beihai City. Now the branch is in crisis. I hope you can condescend to visit Beihai City."

"Fuck, why am I still thinking about it!" Ye Fan cursed, kicking Qiao Hai down.

Just now Qiao Hai blamed himself, thinking that this guy had a problem, and the plane was about to hit the mountain, and everyone was going to Huangquan together.

It turned out to be such a trivial matter.

Ye Fan sat down, "Go ahead, what's the matter?"

Qiao Haidao: "The subordinates have always been benevolent, and this has led to the gangsters underneath. He and the people on the Hokkaido Road are teaming up to kill me. He is in charge!"

"We have been fighting for a month, and my brothers died and injured a lot. If this continues, the power of the branch will be exhausted and it will be finished."

Ye Fan's mouth twitched, and he cursed: "It's really useless, even his subordinates can't manage well. I think you are a half-step master, can't this be solved?"

Qiao Hai smiled bitterly and said: "The anti-skeletal boy is also a half-step grandmaster, and there are some half-step grandmasters who joined together on the road, so I was suppressed."

"My lord, I know this little thing is not qualified to trouble you, but...I can't help it."

"I thought about asking other city branches for help, but the closest city to Beihai City is thousands of miles away, too far; and one city branch is not enough for reinforcements, and I will be laughed at. Instead of this, it is better to directly ask for help. Honor you, I am convinced to be punished by you. It is better than being laughed at by the heads of other branches. You say yes, hehe..."

"Hey you big head!"

Ye Fan kicked again and hummed: "Go and tell the captain to fly to Beihai City."

"You don't need to tell, it's flying to Beihai City."

Ye Fan: "..."

Qiao Hai jumped up and shouted: "Girls, all come in."

Suddenly.

A group of gorgeous beauties came in, a dozen or so, rounding Ye Fan's surroundings.

Qiao Haidao: "Your honor, enjoy it, I'm out, and I will call you when I'm in Beihai."

Here Qiao Hai opened the door to leave, suddenly Tang Ying and Meng Qingyin appeared outside the door.

Walked in.

Seeing Ye Fan among the women, the two were dumbfounded.

Damn it!

As soon as Ye Fan was about to explain, Tang Ying said: "Xiao Fan, okay you, I said you and Qiao Hai came to the box alone to do it, it turned out to be fun."

Meng Qingyin said bitterly, "Brother Fan, looking for so many at a time, is it enough to eat?"

"Hey, it's not what you think, listen to my explanation... eh, don't go!"

Seeing Tang Ying and Meng Qingyin leave dissatisfied, Ye Fan wanted to cry without tears; Qiao Hai escaped even more desperately.

...

Beihai City.

At the junction of the outskirts and the city, there is a building where the branch of Tianzun Hall is located.

now.

People gathered outside the building.

Divided into two batches.

Facing each other, the swords are drawn.

"Qiao Zhi, your old man, he was scared, and he didn't dare to come out, letting you be a brat! Huh!" The one who was speaking was a young man in his early thirties.

The young man's name is He Jian, the number two person in the Skills Division, second only to Qiao Hai.

The 18-year-old boy opposite He Jian was Qiao Hai's son Qiao Zhi. Although he was young, he was born with a sturdy back. Long Jinghu fierce, practice martial arts since childhood.

He glared at He Jian and said coldly: "You think you can overthrow my dad if you entangle some mobs. He Jian, don't be foolish about dreams. My dad has always been kind and always giving you opportunities, but you don't know how to cherish it."

"Give me a chance? Ridiculous."

"He Jian, my dad can reinforce the branches in the surrounding cities of Beihai City with a phone call, so he asked if you can fight it!"

Qiao Zhi's voice was loud and loud, neither humble nor overbearing.

"But my dad didn't do this. Doesn't this give you a chance? You don't know it, you think you are. My dad doesn't want to see you now, so I ask you to come forward, just ask you one last time, do you admit it? Know? Not guilty?"

He Jian's face sank.

This is indeed a place that has always been jealous, so he wants to fight quickly.

"He Jian, you don't need to be deceived by this kid. I have already received the news that Qiao Hai left Beihai City by a fighter plane, if he had escaped for his life."

A man speaks.

This is the realm of a big man on Beihai City Road, a half-step master, and many younger brothers under his command.

Another big shot also said: "Qiao Hai needs to move the rescuers and call. It is impossible to leave Beihai City personally. He is obviously escaping for his life. Poor boy, abandoned by his father, is still talking nonsense here."

He Jian's expression eased when he heard it.

He stared at Qiao Zhi and sneered coldly: "Qiao Zhi, I see it in the past. As long as you catch with your hands, I don't understand you; otherwise, don't blame me for being cruel."

"Hahaha."

Qiao Zhi couldn't stop laughing.

The eighteen or nineteen-year-old boy already has some demeanor, he said disdainfully: "He Jian, do you think I am a person who is greedy for life and fear of death?"

"To tell you the truth, my dad is indeed a rescuer, and he is a super god. He Jian, it is you who should be arrested, otherwise when the * comes, you will all be destroyed, without exception!"

"Toast, not eat or drink fine wine!" He Jian became impatient, looked at several Dao leaders, and said, "Go straight to the war, do you have any comments?"

"It should have been like this a long time ago."

Several bigwigs reached an agreement.

Suddenly, the battle started, the melee began, shouts of killing and screams were endless; the * breath swept the audience.

"Qiao Zhi child, you want to escape!"

"Hahaha, grandpa takes a step back and it's your grandson. He Jian, you are trying to kill yourself, you are done!"

Although Qiao Zhi is only a half-step inner strength warrior, he is a big difference from He Jian, but he is fearless.

puff!

As soon as he met, he was shot flying by He Jian, his bones were broken, and blood spurted out of his mouth.

He Jian sneered: "Boy, are you still crazy. You are a martial arts genius, but you are still too young to fight with me? You really can't help yourself."

"Three years. If I was born three years earlier, I would definitely become a half-step master, and I would kill you like an ant in the same realm."

"court death!"

He Jian was furious.

In a violent charge, he caught Qiao Zhi.

at this time.

A fighter plane broke through the air and attracted everyone's attention; the fighter plane landed on the roof of the building.

Qiao Hai rushed out and saw the scene below, his eyes were splitting; when he saw Qiao Zhi being caught by He Jian, he couldn't help but yelled, "He Jian, stop me!"

"Ha ha."

He Jian smiled cruelly, threw Qiao Zhi away, and then slammed Qiao Zhi into the air.

"Do not!"

Qiao Hai was hysterical and his eyes were red.

He just jumped downstairs and hugged the flying Qiao Zhi. The father and son fell freely and smashed to the ground.

Over 30 meters high, Qiao Hai and his son would die if they smashed them down.

Sudden.

A burst of qi rushed out of the host, holding Qiao Hai and his son to the ground steadily.

at the same time.

Ye Fan went out from the sky and wandered down.

"Let's let go, martial arts master!" He Jian exclaimed, his face changed drastically.

The battle stopped abruptly.

The gangsters on the road were also terrified.

Qiao Hai actually invited a martial arts master, no wonder Qiao Zhi said it was a great god!

"escape!"

Without even thinking about it, He Jian and several Dao gangsters fled frantically.

Ye Fan contemptuously, using his claws.

This paw covers the sky and the sun, covering several tens of meters vertically and horizontally, like the five-finger mountain of the Tathagata Buddha.

He Jian, who was running away, turned their heads and saw this scene, their souls flew down.

"Break it for me!"

With a loud shout and explosion, a person shot out from a distance, his fists burst like a rainbow, and the claws were blown to the ground.

Ye Fan Qinghu.

When the person appeared, He Jian and the others were overjoyed and knelt down together: "See the elders!"

"Get up."

The old grandmaster had a cold expression, looked at Ye Fan, and said solemnly: "They are all grandmasters, and they didn't fight well. This is the case. He Jian and the others are my subordinates. I will take them away."

Ye Fan smiled.

The old man twisted his brows, "What are you laughing at?"

"I laugh at you, the master of the first class, and dare to speak up in front of the deity. You want to protect them, it's not enough."

When the words fell, Ye Fan used 80% of his strength, and with a single tap, a blood hole appeared in the middle of the old man's forehead.

He fell straight in a pool of blood.

He Jian and the others were scared and stupid. This is the Grand Master, just like that?

Spike?

how so!

Ye Fan didn't care, he was just a bad old man, it didn't matter.

"Puff."

He Jian and others knelt down to Ye Fan, begging for mercy: "My lord, please forgive me..."

"do not talk."

Ye Fan didn't bother to listen, and slapped He Jian and several people into mash, solving everything.

Ye Fan didn't care about these ants.

When he came to Qiao Hai, Ye Fan showed Qiao Zhi the injury; Qiao Hai burst into tears, "Sir, it's useless, my son's internal organs have been shattered and he can't survive."

"Leave it to me, your son's background is pretty good, because of good luck."

"My son has been to the Northern Wilderness to experience some good luck, and his physical fitness is better than ordinary people."

Ye Fan nodded and brought Qiao Zhi to the lobby room. He found that Qiao Zhi should have swallowed a powerful medicine. Although he could not be reborn, he was very strong.

The medicinal power still remains in the flesh and blood.

Now Ye Fan is all aroused, and at the same time he uses Pei Yuan Shu to repair the internal organs.

This is just a life extension.

As to whether Qiao Zhi can survive, it depends on himself, Ye Fan is not a god, and his abilities are limited.

"If Qiao Zhi can wake up within a week, it means there is still a rescue."

"Really?"

Qiao Hai is grateful, hope is better than hopeless.

"I thanked a few prescriptions. If he wakes up, he will cook medicine for him."

After Ye Fan gave his explanation, he summoned Luo Hong, Chaos, Taotie, and Yingtu.

"Stay in Beihai City for a day, I now give you a task to go to several cities around Beihai City to see if there is a problem with the Tianzun Temple branch."

Luo Hong was puzzled by the four.

But I didn't ask too much, it is their bounden duty to obey orders.

Not long after, the four left Beihai City on their own fighter planes. Ye Fan looked at Tianji with deep eyes.

This evening.

Luo Hong's four came back, their faces were very ugly, and they came to report.

"Brother Fan, the city we went to is similar to Beihai City. The Tianzun Temple branch has been hit, and there are martial arts masters behind them."

"However, we are all calmed down, and the ghost master has also been beheaded."

"Okay!" Ye Fan nodded, almost as he expected, Ba Gu must control the cities around Beiliang City.

To be precise, it is not Ba Gu, but the forces behind him.

There are not many great masters, and Ye Fan naturally thought of the Corpse Human Organization.

"If this organization wants to control the Northern Wilderness area, Beiliang City is not enough. It has to spread to the hinterland and control the power in the city."

"Tsk tsk, my heart is so big!"

A playful smile appeared on Ye Fan's face. He didn't know what the corpse organization and Ba Gu knew that the power of several cities had been wiped out by him, so much effort was spent in vain, what kind of expression would it be!

Chapter 579: Returning to Changning, things are right and wrong?

The crisis in Beihai City and other surrounding cities is resolved, Ye Fan feels that as long as the corpse organization is smart, there will be no comeback.

In fact, just as Ye Fan thought.

This night.

Beiliang City, City Lord's Mansion.

Ba Gu urgently called his master to explain the annihilation of Beihai and other cities.

"Damn it!"

The old man was furious and said hoarsely: "I think Ye Fan must have done it. This is naked revenge."

Ba Gu gritted his teeth: "All the hard work for such a long time was in vain. Not only that, I have lost several masters."

"Master, what should I do now?"

"You can't act rashly." The old man shook his head and said in deep thought: "Ye Fan may have deliberately angered us. Once we go to war with him, a lot will be exposed."

"Then swallow so hard?"

"The momentary forbearance is for the overall situation. Those who make big things don't stick to the trivial. Don't worry, Ye Fan will not be proud of it for long. He has been targeted by the big figures in the organization, and he will surely die in the future."

"Master, what about Beihai and other cities? Do you want to arrange for the forces to pass?"

"There is no need for this." The old man ordered: "Fully manage and control Beiliang City. Xue Guan is recommending it. When you are canonized as the commander of the Northern Wilderness, you will be able to take down Beihai and other cities and want to spread inland and expand secretly. Site."

"Yes, Master!"

Ba Gu was in a daze, thinking that in the future he would control this world and become the Emperor of the Earth, and his excited body trembled.

...

The next day, early in the morning.

Ye Fan and others finally embarked on the road back to Qingzhou.

From Beihai to Qingzhou, the road is too far away, one in the south and the other in the north, across the entire Daxia.

Five full days...

Of course, during this period, Ye Fan and the others also landed midway, relaxing in the city, otherwise they would stay in the fighter plane, wouldn't it be suffocated.

this day.

The fighter plane arrived at Changning Airport.

"Finally back!" Walking out of the airport, Ye Fan looked at the blue sky and took a deep breath, feeling happy.

Ever since I left Changning, I went to Nanling, the provincial capital of Qingzhou, went to Tianzhou overlord, then went to the central capital, went to the Shiwan Mountain in Youzhou to the Miao Frontiers, went to the barren continent, and finally went to the Northern Wilderness...

During this time, too many things happened.

If it is written as a novel, at least a few million words can be written, and the story can be extremely exciting, maybe it can attract many readers.

Ye Fan decided that when he got old and had nothing to do, he would find an online writer to write his own legendary experience in his life into a novel, and publish it all over the world, using the energy of the Temple of Heaven to be included as a must-read novel subject for students.

Thinking about it, I feel bullish!

"Sir."

At this time, familiar words came from Zhao Qingmei.

Chairman of Changning Hongxiu Group.

"what?"

Seeing Zhao Qingmei, Ye Fan's eyes flashed and jokingly said, "Qingmei, do you have a partner?"

Zhao Qingmei flushed immediately.

"I can't hide anything from your superiors. I did talk about someone."

How can I hide it.

Before, Zhao Qingmei was still a complete body, and could not be called a woman; now...

The proper woman.

Ye Fan is the head of the Tianzun Palace, but he has no right to restrict his subordinates from falling in love. He smiled and said: "Good thing, I have a chance to introduce it. I really want to get to know him. What kind of handsome guy is that can win your favor."

Zhao Qingmei laughed, her eyes bent into crescents, and said sweetly: "No problem, although he is not as good as the nobleman, he is also a young man and a very good man."

Love is really poison.

Ye Fan sighed.

Zhao Qingmei controls the Changning branch, and his Hongxiu Group has a market value of tens of billions, so there is actually such a small woman.

Tang Ying said, "It's alright, let's talk about it when I go home."

"Everyone please."

Zhao Qingmei secretly looked at the people and felt the strength of the people. Knowing that these were either grand masters or horizontal training masters, she was shocked.

These are young people, all evildoers.

First came to Zhao Qingmei's residence-Mingyue Manor, and settled everyone in.

Subsequently.

Ye Fan and Tang Ying were going to the orphanage to see their grandfather Wu Changqing and the children, and Meng Qingyin followed.

After buying a lot of things in the mall, the three of them drove to the location of the orphanage, only to find...

Blank.

"What's going on!" Ye Fan's heart sank to the bottom, and the orphanage was gone. The land was flattened and surrounded, seemingly to be developed.

Tang Ying's face turned dark and worried: "It's a trivial matter that the orphanage is gone. The key is Grandpa and the children. I don't know what happened?"

Ye Fan immediately called Zhao Qingmei.

"Sir, what's the matter?"

"Why was the orphanage pushed? How about grandpa and the children? Don't you know about this? Didn't you pay attention to the orphanage during my absence? Don't listen to it?"

A series of reprimands made Zhao Qingmei silent, and she wanted to kneel down through her mobile phone.

Zhao Qingmei said in surprise: "Your honor, I went to the orphanage half a month ago and donated a lot of supplies. I did not pay attention to it in the past half month, because there are a lot of things, and some big changes have taken place in Changning. ."

"What's the meaning!"

"Changning's leadership team changed blood. The city chief, the chief of public security, and others who were familiar with before were all transferred. The new officials took office. The new city was the first to engage in economics and introduced many consortia for development. In addition, some companies in Changning also Facing a major test, some consortia made large-scale acquisitions and aggressively forced them. Even my Red Sleeve Group rushed to the impact."

"By the way, my elder sister Meng Meng Qingyi's Qingye Group is also facing a great crisis. For the past half month, my attention has been focused on helping the Qingye Group, so over there the orphanage..."

"okay."

Ye Fan interrupted Zhao Qingmei and said, "You should sort out the major events in Changning now, especially those related to your sister. You must sort them out perfectly. I'll go back to the manor to see it later."

"Yes!"

Ye Fan hung up the phone.

The next second, Zhao Qingmei called, and he asked, "What else is there?"

"My honour, I almost forgot. You'd better not go to the Qingye Group, and go to settle down. Your godmother, An Miaoyi, is in big trouble."

"boom!"

Ye Fan shook, then raged to the sky, mixed with traces of murderous aura.

An Miaoyi is his mother's best friend and his godmother; in Changning before, An Miaoyi treated him like a son.

Ye Fan tasted a bit of maternal love.

To An Miaoyi, Ye Fan actually regarded it as a real mother.

Who is the trouble with my mother!

Who dare!

"Sister, Qingyin, get in the car." Ye Fan greeted. Tang Ying and Meng Qingyin knew that the matter was urgent, so they didn't ask anything and rushed into the car.

Rumbling.

Ye Fan stomped on the accelerator and galloped away.

settle down.

In the lobby, many people.

In addition to the children of the An family, there are also some luxurious men and women, one by one with extraordinary temperament, with cold arrogance flowing between the eyebrows, obviously with a not simple background.

At this time, the An family's faces were full of joy, but An Miaoyi, who was sitting in the first seat as the head of the family, had an ugly face.

Next to An Miaoyi, there was a young man of twenty-seven and eighteen. He was very precious and said slowly: "Miaoyi, I brought so many friends to propose marriage today. It gave you and Anjia a lot of face, don't you still have to promise?"

After the youth had finished speaking, the following group of men and women talked proudly.

"Even in the capital, few families dare not to show the face of Big Brother Gu, and what to do for a small house!"

"An Miaoyi, Brother Gu is interested in you and marrying you as a concubine. That is your honour. You are still reluctant to push back and forth. It's a real death!"

"Pretending to be high-minded, I think it is trying to catch it. I quickly agreed and knelt down to offer Brother Gu a cup of tea. If you are a concubine, you should look like a concubine."

Listening to these unbearable words, An Miaoyi was extremely embarrassed, and her anger became short.

She, a woman in her forties, was regarded by a young man because she was out of public order and morals.

What is even more humiliating is that the young man wants to marry her as a concubine!

How could An Miaoyi agree.

For so many years, An Miaoyi has been lonely and has no idea of getting married, let alone being a concubine for a young man who can be her son.

But.

An Miaoyi dared not speak.

This young man named Gu Tao has a terrifying background. During this period of time, several consortia that came to Changning actually listened to Gu Tao.

With such energy, An Jia can't afford to offend.

An Miaoyi held back his anger and said cautiously: "Gu Shao, thank you for your favor. But I am an old woman, and my low status is really not worthy of Gu Shao; therefore, please let Gu Shao dispel this idea."

Gu Tao frowned.

Suddenly, the next younger brother jumped out and pointed at An Miaoyi and shouted: "It's really shameless, An Miaoyi, today you have to agree if you don't agree, otherwise, my family's Meda consortium will destroy the An's group!"

Chapter 580: Forcing An Miaoyi, Ye Fan is furious!

As soon as this remark came out, the An family's expression changed.

The Meda consortium is well-known throughout the country, with a market value of trillions, with its headquarters in the capital, and the existence of a giant.

In front of Meida, the Anshi Group is a baby that is vulnerable to an adult.

Before the An family could catch their breath, a woman came out and said coldly: "Count me, my family is the perfect consortium, and I am also very interested in the An Group."

This time, the An family was not as shocked as before.

Don't press your body when there are too many lice.

A Meida consortium can destroy the Anshi Group, and adding a perfect consortium is harmless.

"An Miaoyi, I'll give you a chance at last, do you agree or not?"

"Don't ask, just serve the tea."

The woman beckoned, and a servant came to An Miaoyi with a cup of tea.

This is forcing An Miaoyi to kneel down to serve Gu Tao tea.

An Miaoyi's face was flushed, flushed with anger, she gritted her teeth, her fists turned pale.

"You are too much!"

"I don't believe that there is no Wang Fa. My Anshi Group has been rooted in Changning for decades, and it involves all aspects. I want to see how you can destroy my Anshi Group."

These words drew laughter from men and women.

The woman sneered: "It's really a frog at the bottom of the well. We can also move around in the capital. Little Changning is nothing. If it weren't for Gu Shao who wanted you to agree to it willingly, we would have caught you long ago and forced you to be Gu Shao's woman! "

"Gu Shao, this woman is very dishonest. Please allow me to take her down. I have a thousand ways to train her. I can make her a good dog in ten and a half months."

An Miaoyi's face changed drastically.

"you dare!"

"I tell you, my son is very powerful, he has a lot of energy, and there are thousands of people under his hands. If you dare to move me, you will definitely not be able to eat!"

At this time, Gu Tao said, "Your son, aren't you unmarried? Where did you come from?"

I didn't expect Ye Fan to show up at the critical moment, but it didn't hurt. Even if Ye Fan had great energy, he was definitely not an opponent of the big men in Beijing.

Competition within Anjia is fierce.

The position of Patriarch was thought of by many people, and An Miaoyi and Ye Fan were resolved, so there would be no obstacles.

In fact, the An family is anxious for An Miaoyi to marry Gu Tao and leave with Gu Tao, so Anjia and the An Group are theirs.

But An Miaoyi didn't want to live or die, and now Ye Fan appeared again...

Things are getting more and more complicated.

At this moment, Gu Tao's face was slightly solemn, and he realized that Ye Fan's not easy, but he was confident. He looked at the black-robed old man who had been silent beside him, that was his personal bodyguard.

"You are An Miaoyin's godson? What is your name? Listen to An Miaoyi saying that you have great energy. Come, show it to me."

"Everything wants to know my name, ridiculous!" Ye Fan said contemptuously.

"Presumptuous!" The young master of the Mida Consortium shouted angrily, "Boy, dare to be disrespectful to Young Master Gu, you are dying!"

The daughter of the Perfect Consortium sneered: "What kind of dress, silver hair, thinks acting in a TV series, it's a secondary neurosis at first glance."

"An Miaoyi, your godson wouldn't be a fool, right?" The men and women roared, and everyone's faces were full of disdain and contempt.

An Miaoyi was uncertain.

Ye Fan's change was too great, if it hadn't changed her voice and those eyes, she hadn't recognized it.

"Xiao Fan, are you okay, why did you become like this? What's the matter with this hair?" An Miaoyi walked quickly, touched Ye Fan's silver hair, and frowned, "No, it's so soft, this color and luster. The texture doesn't seem to be dyed at all."

Ye Fan said, "Mom, hair is a trivial matter, not important. Tell me, why are they bothering you?"

An Miaoyi said angrily: "The guy named Gu Tao wanted to take me as his concubine; I disagree, the young master daughters of these consortiums will destroy the An's group; they also said that they would arrest me. Teach me..."

Speaking of this, An Miaoyi choked up.

As a woman, but also the always proud Anjia Patriarch and Chairman of the Anshi Group, Tianan Miaoyi's self-esteem and dignity have been trampled under the hood.

At this moment Ye Fan returned, with support, couldn't help sobbing.

Ye Fan suppressed the terrible anger in his heart, put his arms around An Miaoyi's shoulders, and comforted: "Mom, don't cry. I'm back, it's all right."

"fine?"

Gu Tao got up and sneered: "Where do you have the confidence to say it's okay!"

"Now I have changed my mind. I don't want to take An Miaoyi as a concubine. I want her to be a plaything; and the An's Group and Anjia will be destroyed for me."

The An family was struck by lightning, panic, and one by one began to beg for mercy.

"Gu Shao calmed down his anger, An Miaoyi and Ye Fan offended you. It has nothing to do with us. Ask Gu Shao to let Anjia go."

"Yes, Young Master Gu, I beg you to show mercy."

"An Miaoyi, immediately promised to be Gu Shao's woman, is it possible that you will cause Anjia to be destroyed, then you are the sinner of Anjia! And Ye Fan, you think you can jump in front of Gu Shao with a little energy! Shao Gu! It's a big man who came to the capital, what are you, you knelt down and kowtow to admit your mistakes, you will die by yourself, don't pull us!"

Ye Fan squinted at the An family, extremely disappointed, really lacking in backbone.

An Miaoyi was awakened by the words of the An family. No matter how strong Ye Fan is, how could he beat Gu Tao.

The Perfect Consortium and Meida Consortium alone were not something Ye Fan could contend.

"Xiao Fan, let's go." An Miaoyi pushed Ye Fan away and said anxiously: "I will take care of my affairs by myself, so you don't need to ask."

"mom....."

"You go quickly."

An Miaoyi pushed Ye Fan.

However, the young lady of the consortium blocked the gate and sneered one by one: "I want to leave after pretending, how can there be such a good thing!"

"stop fighting."

Suddenly, unexpectedly.

Gu Tao waved his hand, "Let's go."

The followers are all stunned, what does this mean.

Gu Tao walked past Ye Fan and teased: "Don't you have great energy, then I will give you time to gather your strength. I will come back at noon tomorrow and see what energy you dare to scream in front of me. ."

"Hope, you don't let me down."

Gu Taoyin laughed and left Anjia with his followers.

Ye Fan didn't stop it.

He needs to look at the materials prepared by Zhao Qingmei and figure out everything before deciding what to do with Gu Tao and those consortiums.

"Xiao Fan, you leave Changning quickly, don't take this muddy water trip."

An Miaoyi's words fell, and the An family gathered around, and said babblingly: "No, Ye Fan can't go!"

"Yes, Ye Fan is gone. Tomorrow Gu Tao will come and see no one, we will suffer when we settle down."

"An Miaoyi, you and Ye Fan provoke you to solve the problem by yourself, don't involve the family. Now, I hope you will call out the control of the An's group!"

Ye Fan raised his hand and slapped the man into the air, then swept the audience coldly.

"You remember it for me, the Anshi Group will always be controlled by my godmother, and it has nothing to do with you."

"Whoever does it anymore, don't blame me for not showing affection. Now you are going to * me, what should I do!"

The An family dared not say anything. After all, they all knew Ye Fan was a ruthless person and left in embarrassment.

An Miaoyi sighed, "Xiao Fan, it seems that you really don't plan to leave Changning."

Ye Fan smiled and said: "Mom, there are only a few consortia, I can still solve it, don't take it to heart. These days you should be harassed physically and mentally. You look haggard."

"Who said no."

"Mom, go get a good night's sleep, and I will see you at night."

Ye Fan sent An Miaoyi to his villa, and then left Anjia; Tang Ying and Meng Qingyin did not come in, but waited in the car.

Tang Ying said, "Among that group of young masters, there is a grand master, who is quite powerful. It seems to be the duality of the realm of transformation."

"Ok, I know."

Ye Fan had already noticed the black-robed man next to Gu Tao, but for him now, he can kill with just a few gestures, which is nothing to worry about.

Now, Ye Fan has to go to Qingye Group to take a look.

the other side.

In Gu Tao's car, the attendants were very puzzled.

"Brother Tao, why have to wait until tomorrow, you can win it just now."

"What do you know!"

Gu Tao played with the red wine glass, smiled at the corner of his mouth, and said jokingly: "If the cat catches the mouse, it won't eat it immediately. He will play with the mouse first."

"Wait until the mouse is desperate and on the verge of collapse, and then eat it, wouldn't it be more refreshing."

"Give him some time, let him prepare the strength, and finally found that in front of me, it is so vulnerable."

"Tsk tsk, it's wonderful to think about it!"

The classmates looked at each other, took a breath, and then gave a thumbs up: "Brother Tao, you are still smart!"

Gu Tao closed his eyes triumphantly, and said: "The Anshi Group is nothing, mainly the Red Sleeve Group. It is a stubborn problem, and I will find a way to solve it as soon as possible."

The daughter of the Perfect Consortium said: "Brother Tao, Hongxiu Group seems to value Aoba Group very much. We decided to use Aoba Group as a breakthrough point."
