Chapter 1051: Implicated By Her (Part Two)

The news of Su Yue asking for the military instructor's contact number remained the most popular topic on the forum.

"You even slept?" asked Bai Jing.

Su Yue nodded and replied, "Yup, I was too sleepy when he was preparing dinner. So I fell asleep while watching TV."

Bai Jing laid back on her bed, mulling over Su Yue's words. She muttered in response after a long while.

It was as if she had heaved a sigh of relief. On the other hand, it seemed as though she was feeling conflicted about it.

"Some people are just so annoying. Why do they post everything online?!" Su Yue turned off her phone and grumbled under her breath before pulling the blanket over her head. "Bai Jing, I'm sleeping. Good night," she said in a muffled voice.

"Okay," replied Bai Jing.

A short while later, Su Yue's breathing could be heard and Bai Jing turned to gaze at her. Her eyes filled with envy.

It had been a long time since she could fall asleep quickly.

She thought to herself, * 'Su Yue, I'm so envious of you.'*

The first few days, all the first-years were still grumbling and complaining about the training.

They began to turn a few shades darker. Those who were originally dark or tanned became even darker.

Within the next few days, Su Yue received at least twenty confessions from her seniors. Some did it face to face, while the rest gave her gifts.

Of course, she ignored every one of them.

Even some cheeky seniors ended up in a more pathetic state than the guy who had been drenched in soup.

So everybody used new adjectives to describe this new school belle: cold and arrogant.

Nobody talked to her except for Bai Jing. Not even the teachers.

Su Yue became the most popular and coveted figure in school. All the news articles about her were an instant hit.

Xuxu certainly heard the news since Su Yue had already caused a storm on online forums. She felt that Su Yue had plunged into the depths of trouble.

She must have made plenty of enemies.

How would she be able to ignore this matter? "Ah Sheng, I want to go to visit Yueyue today," said Xuxu.

"Don't worry. I've already informed the principal. He will contact me if anything happens," Yan Rusheng reassured Xuxu, "You should have expected that this might happen."

During the few short months at Flourish & Splendor, there were already countless boys who showed their interest in her.

Furthermore, she was in A University now.

He paused before adding on, "Let her try to settle the issues herself. She needs to learn. Anyway, you can't help much even if you head to school."

Xuxu knew that Yan Rusheng was right. Still, she couldn't help but worry. "But you know her personality."

"Don't worry okay?" Yan Rusheng lightly patted Xuxu's shoulders.

Xuxu pressed her lips. "Alright then."

Yan Rusheng smiled and walked to the wardrobe to get changed.

He glanced at Xuxu and said, "Let's have breakfast."

They left the bedroom.

"When is Su Yan coming back?" Xuxu suddenly asked.

"Soon, on the 28th," answered Yan Rusheng.

Xuxu nodded in response.

She was too worried for Su Yue that she regretted her decision to allow her to stay at the dormitory.

They could have rented an apartment and hired a person to take care of her.

She was just beginning to learn how to interact with people. And she was still new to the ways of the world as well.

Su Yue would talk to a person only if she liked the said person. It was too easy to offend a person in that way.

Xuxu's belly was enormous by then, and she would get breathless after walking up a few steps. She made a habit of supporting her belly with her hand for fear that her belly might drop if she didn't.

Chapter 1052: Implicated By Her (Part Three)

Yan Rusheng and Xuxu entered the dining room and was cheerfully greeted by Mu Li. "Come and have breakfast."

Xuxu ambled towards the seat that she usually occupied every day.

Yan Rusheng pulled the chair for her and she bent to sit.

Looking at how tough it was for Xuxu to walk, Yan Weihong spoke up. "When is the due date?"

His eyes were sparkling with anticipation as he spoke.

Xuxu replied, "15th of next month."

"Less than a month to go," quipped Yan Weihong. Although his tone sounded casual, a smile was playing around the corners of his mouth. He was eagerly anticipating the arrival of his grandchildren.

Xuxu nodded and began to drink her milk.

Mu Li turned to Yan Weihong and asked, "Have you decided on their names already?"

Yan Weihong curtly replied, "Yes."

"What are their names?" Mu Li inched enthusiastically towards Yan Weihong.

Yan Weihong glanced at her with a frown. "Just eat. You will know the names once they're born."

"Look at how smug you are," sneered Mu Li. She rolled her eyes and continued, "I might deny you the right to name our grandchildren."

There was silence.

Yan Weihong ignored her threat and glanced at Xuxu with a gentle smile. "Xuxu, I've taken the liberty of naming the boy. You can choose the name of the girl."

"It's okay." Xuxu smiled and rejected his offer. "Father, you can name both of them."

This future grandfather had been eagerly looking forward to seeing his grandchildren. He had been researching for names ever since Xuxu became pregnant.

How could she bear to deny a grandfather's joy and right of naming his grandchildren? It would be a huge sin.

"You do it." Yan Weihong sounded unyielding.

Xuxu was adamant on her decision too. "No, no. Father, please name them."

"In that case..." Yan Weihong blushed a little as he pressed on. "I... I have decided."

"Sure." Xuxu stifled a grin and nodded.

But Madam Mu Li wasn't as nice as Xuxu. She snorted in contempt. "Pretentious."

Yan Weihong glared at her as he blushed harder. "How am I suddenly pretentious? Eat your breakfast."

This old couple would always bicker every morning without fail.

Mu Li was always the one to cross Second Master Yan's boundaries.

This was the reason Xuxu had insisted on joining them for breakfast every morning in the dining room. She really enjoyed watching them bicker and arguing over trivial matters.

With them around, the atmosphere was always light-hearted.

After breakfast, Xuxu sent Yan Rusheng to the door as usual and watched as he drove off.

She leaned against the door, and was apparently lost in her thoughts.

"Xuxu... Someone is looking for you."

Mu Li shouted across the room.

"Okay, I'm coming," Xuxu responded and asked, "Who is it?"

"Zhou Shuang." Mu Li passed the phone to Xuxu.

Xuxu's face instantly lit up with a bright smile. She settled herself comfortably on the sofa before saying 'Hello'.

"Haven't you given birth already?" Zhou Shuang's voice still sounded energetic and lively as usual.

"Pfft." Xuxu chortled as she answered. "Don't you know that my due date is next month?"

Judging from how cheerful Zhou Shuang sounded, life in Country M seemed comfortable.

"I forgot." Zhou Shuang added, "Days slipped past and I have no idea of the dates."

"Go out and take more strolls. Don't just stay at home the entire day. You might end up as a fat ball after you've given birth," advised Xuxu.

Chapter 1053: Implicated By Her (Part Four)

Xuxu could nearly visualize the lifestyle Zhou Shuang was leading in Country M, and just like what she did when she was still in the country, it was surely staying at home the entire day.

Annoyed, Zhou Shuang answered, "Can't you at least say some pleasant words instead?"

"Why did you suddenly called me?" asked Xuxu.

"You're the one who's forgotten all about me, although you're always on my mind!" Zhou Shuang sounded upset and bitter.

Xuxu chuckled. "How are you now? How big is your belly?"

"I'll take a photo for you later. I've gained so much weight! It's so depressing." Zhou Shuang grumbled and then heavily sighed.

"It's normal to gain weight as long as the children are healthy. Keep in mind that you're carrying triplets," Xuxu gently said.

A thought struck her and she asked, "Lu Yinan went to Country M a few days ago. How was it with him?"

"Can we talk about something happy instead?" implored Zhou Shuang.

Xuxu sighed helplessly.

It seemed like they didn't have any progress at all. Yan Rusheng even reassured her that not every marriage began because the couple loved each other. He reminded Xuxu not to rule out any possibilities.

But it was simply a piece of useless advice!

Two close friends, separated by thousands of miles, chatted for more than an hour.

Zhou Shuang sent a photo after she hung up. She was three months along in her pregnancy, but she looked as though she was five months pregnant because of her triplets.

Life was indeed unpredictable.

Zhou Shuang and Lu Yinan were expecting triplets. Never in her wildest dreams would she have thought of that.

'Not every marriage began because of their love for each other, just like us...'

Xuxu mulled over Yan Rusheng's words and she trusted him one more time.

She sent Zhou Shuang's photo to Lu Yinan.

'Look at Shuang, her belly is so huge.'

At the hospital.

Lu Yinan had just attended to a patient when he received a notification. He was rather surprised to see that Wen Xuxu had sent him a text.

He clicked on it and was momentarily stumped for words.

"This hooligan's belly is so big now," muttered Lu Yinan.

Lu Yinan sighed wistfully to himself as he gazed at the screen. He slowly slumped back in his chair.

In the photo, Zhou Shuang was wearing a white nightdress as she stood on a weighing scale. Her originally flat tummy had ballooned drastically.

It was barely two months and her hair length were much longer than before.

This was the first time in his memory that he had seen Zhou Shuang with braids. In high school, her hair was much shorter than when she had just returned. She looked tomboyish, and she said anything that came to her mind.

And unfortunately, she offended Yan Rusheng and got labeled as a hooligan.

She must've had merely wanted to show Wen Xuxu her belly. Hence, she bowed her head and pulled her nightdress to reveal her bulging belly.

Nevertheless, he could still see a faint smile on her face, despite her head being lowered.

He went to her house in Country M and she was indeed well taken care of. She looked as if... she had forgotten all about him.

This was exactly why he was feeling so frustrated and furious.

Among all the women he had slept with, she was the only one who didn't seem to care. Other women would kill to have such a wonderful opportunity to hold on to him, except for her.

Chapter 1054: Implicated By Her (Part Five)

But this was also the exact reason Lu Yinan wanted to humiliate Zhou Shuang and teach her a lesson. He wanted to subdue her but due to his carelessness, it had only resulted in three children.

Lu Yinan thought gloomily as he lit a cigarette and began to smoke.

'Zhou Shuang, I didn't imagine that you were such a person. What is your motive for getting yourself pregnant?'

'Is it your first time being with a guy? You're such a loose woman. Who knows who the real father of the children is, anyway. They can't be mine.'

He was mulling over how he had gotten the news of Zhou Shuang being pregnant, and he had stormed off in a rage to look for her. Lu Yinan was suddenly very regretful of his actions and harsh accusations.

He had never been so regretful before.

He had been reflecting in the past few days and realized that he had gone overboard. But at that moment, his guilt and regret had culminated.

They might not have feelings for each other and were just ex-classmates. But hurtful words would have hurt an ordinary person's ego and pride.

That was why she had rushed to get an abortion on that same day.

Just like what Wen Xuxu had said, even if Zhou Shuang really aborted the children, what losses would he incur? Who wouldn't be able to afford the abortion fees?

Lu Yinan twiddled his phone in his hand absentmindedly. His cigarette burnt until the edge, and it had burnt his fingers.

He snapped to his senses and flicked the cigarette into the bin. He searched for Zhou Shuang's name on his phone. He still saved her name as 'hooligan'.

'Hooligan, come back and let's raise the children together.'

He deleted and retyped the words over and over again. It took him all of his courage and determination before he sent the text.

A pang of overwhelming guilt and regret towards Zhou Shuang were swallowing him alive.

She had been such a carefree and jovial woman and these three children would definitely turn her life upside down.

Even if he agreed to giving the children to Zhou Shuang, there was no way his family would agree.

What would Zhou Shuang do?

...

Yan Rusheng ended work and went to Su Yue's school on Xuxu's instructions. Xuxu wanted him to bring Su Yue out for a good meal.

It was already evening, and visitors and students were streaming in and out of the campus.

Yan Rusheng parked his car near the road and got down. He leaned against his car and called Su Yue.

Su Yue rushed to meet him, along with Bai Jing.

Yan Rusheng waved at them and Su Yue smiled brightly when she saw him. "Third Brother."

Yan Rusheng smiled and threw his phone back into the car.

"Where is third sister-in-law?" Su Yue peered inside and was disappointed that Xuxu wasn't there.

The two of them were extraordinarily close to each other and had always missed each other dearly. "Her belly is too enormous right now. She is giving birth in less than a month and it's too far a journey for her."

Su Yue's eyes lit up and excitedly grabbed Yan Rusheng's arm. "She is giving birth in less than a month?"

Su Yue was going to be an aunt!

Looking at how happy she looked, Yan Rusheng curled his lips unconsciously. He pinched her cheeks in an affectionate way. "Yes, yes. You're going to be an aunt in less than a month."

"That's great!" Su Yue happily proclaimed. She gazed at him, looking curious. "Then why are you here?"

Yan Rusheng's face faded a little and said, "Your third sister-in-law asked me to, and I have something I want to tell you too."

He glanced fleetingly at Bai Jing.

Bai Jing could tell that Yan Rusheng had reservations telling Su Yue stuff with her around.

Disappointment flitted past her eyes, but she still managed a smile. She softly said, "Su Yue, I'm going to the convenience store to buy some stuff. I'll settle dinner myself."

Chapter 1055: Implicated By Her (Part Six)

Bai Jing looked at Yan Rusheng and nodded politely before leaving. She strode in the direction of the convenience store.

"Hey, Bai..." Su Yue was about to call Bai Jing as her sudden departure had puzzled her.

Yan Rusheng cut across Su Yue. "Yueyue, I have something to tell you. It's only for your ears."

He felt that he had to be explicit so she wouldn't misunderstand him. Given her character, she always had these endless questions.

Su Yue nodded and looked away.

Yan Rusheng opened the car door and said to Su Yue, "Get in."

"Okay." Su Yue responded and entered the car. Yan Rusheng shut the door and went to the driver's seat.

He sped up and the car left the campus in no time.

Bai Jing, who had just reached the convenience store, turned around and caught a glimpse of the champagne-colored Bentley.

She looked forlorn as she stood on the spot.

"Bai Jing."

A man's voice disrupted Bai Jing, and it jolted her awake. She adjusted herself by bowing her head before turning around.

A man wearing a white shirt and black pants slowly strolled towards her. He was wearing gold-rimmed spectacles.

Bai Jing was trying to remember his face before speaking out. "Professor Zhao."

Zhao Zheng smiled as he went near Bai Jing. He adjusted his spectacles. "Isn't Su Yue with you?"

Bai Jing pressed her lips and answered, "Her third brother came and fetched her."

She paused before continuing. "Professor Zhao, I need to get some stuff. Goodbye."

Su Yue had warned her to ignore him if they crossed paths.

She also felt that Professor Zhao gave her an uncomfortable feeling.

Bai Jing was about to turn around.

"Bai Jing." Zhao Zheng stopped her.

Bai Jing turned and glanced at him. "Is there anything else?"

Zhao Zheng grinned and said, "Yan Rusheng, Xuxu and I were classmates in middle and high school. We were even in the same class, so our friendship goes way beyond."

He was trying to flaunt his friendship with Xuxu and Yan Rusheng.

It was indeed something to brag about. But the way he phrased it made people feel like mocking him instead.

Bai Jing responded, but her face remained deadpan.

Zhao Zheng quietly surveyed Bai Jing. An ambiguous smile appeared on his face and he spoke once again. "The previous time when we had dinner together, Xuxu mentioned about you and asked me if there was any way of helping you get into A University."

Bai Jing was startled and her eyes gleamed. But she remained mum.

"You and Su Yue has just started school. Please look for me if you need help. Su Yue may be able to look for the principal since Yan Rusheng knows him. But if it's you, it's a different story."

He sounded as if he was trying to drive a wedge between her and Su Yue.

A shard seemed to have pierced through Bai Jing's heart.

Chapter 1056: Implicated By Her (Part Seven)

'With Yan Rusheng as her brother, the principal will definitely take care of Su Yue. But if you were to look for the principal, that would be a different story...'

Bai Jing deliberated over Zhao Zheng's words and her mind wandered off to how Yan Rusheng had looked at her earlier on. It was as if though he had some misgivings about her.

She clenched her clothes tightly and lowered her head even more.

Zhao Zheng observed her every little movement and quietly smirked to himself.

"I have a lecture every Friday afternoon open to all students. If you are free, you can attend my lecture," said Zhao Zheng.

Bai Jing kept quiet and was lost in her own thoughts. Earlier on, she had rushed out excitedly with Su Yue to meet Yan Rusheng. But Yan Rusheng seemed to be rather cold to her and it had indeed made her quite upset.

But that didn't mean that she had to listen to this person who looked like he had an ulterior motive. She could tell that he was trying to sow discord between Su Yue and her.

Perhaps Yan Rusheng really had something private to tell Su Yue. Su Yue was his sister. Why should she be upset over such a matter?

Bai Jing consoled herself and that lifted her spirit. She smiled at Zhao Zheng. "Thank you for your concern. I'll get going."

She turned on her heel and hurried away.

Zhao Zheng watched as Bai Jing vanished out of sight and smirked to himself.

Su Yue noticed that Yan Rusheng didn't say a word after driving for some distance. So she broke the silence and asked, "Third Brother, what do you want to tell me?"

Didn't he mention that he had something to tell her? And others shouldn't overhear it?

Yan Rusheng glanced askew at her and smiled lightly. "I'll send you home."

"But I have training tomorrow," protested Su Yue, with a frown.

Yan Rusheng quipped, "I'll get the chauffeur to send you back after dinner."

"Okay," Su Yue agreed and muttered, "Why can't Bai Jing come along?"

Yan Rusheng heard her, but he didn't respond.

Xuxu had missed this little girl too much, and that was why he fetched her home for dinner. It would be a rushed trip for Yueyue.

There wasn't a need for Bai Jing to join them for a rushed dinner since the military training was too exhausting.

Su Yue fell asleep in the car and Yan Rusheng woke her up when they reached home.

She stretched herself sleepily, but completely woke up as soon as she saw that she was home. She pushed the door open and bolted for the house.

"Third sister-in-law!"

Her voice was clear and resounding, and she sounded so eager. It was as though they hadn't met in years. Yan Rusheng quietly chuckled to himself as he slowly strolled after her.

Xuxu was in the dining room when she heard Su Yue's voice. She instantly leaped to her feet. "Yueyue! Why are you back?"

She was initially overjoyed to see her, but after she scrutinized her from head to toe, she frowned as her heart ached for her. "You've become so tanned and you've lost so much weight."

She stood in front of Su Yue and gripped her wrist. She pulled her towards the table. "You haven't eaten dinner right? We are just about to start."

Young Master Yan—who was behind Su Yue—had been completely ignored by Xuxu. She didn't even glance at him.

He frowned and glared at Su Yue, feeling both envious and jealous. But he was actually smiling.

"Yueyue. You're home?"

Yan Weihong and Mu Li welcomed her with a warm smile on their faces.

Yan Weihong beckoned Su Yue to join them. "Join us for dinner."

Su Yue sat next to Xuxu and Mu Li surveyed her carefully. She too frowned and exclaimed, "It has only been less than a month and you've gotten so tanned already?"

Chapter 1057: Implicated By Her (Part Eight)

Su Yue grinned and cheekily replied, "Girls look cooler with a tan."

Xuxu didn't know what to say.

This girl had claimed that racing was cool, tattoos were cool and now getting tanned was cool as well...

Was she trying to idolize gangsters?

"Hurry up and eat." Xuxu pushed a bowl of soup towards Su Yue and scooped rice for her.

"I read the news about you asking for your instructor for his number." Mu Li's voice sounded from across the table. She smiled and praised Su Yue. "Little girl, you're really brave."

Yan Weihong immediately chided her. "You should concentrate on studying. You're still young, don't attempt to do these silly things again."

Mu Li shot him a murderous glare and raised her voice. "Luckily, she wasn't educated by an old-fashioned fogey. Your overly conservative mindset will hamper her growth."

And they started to bicker again.

Xuxu watched them in amusement as she shook her head helplessly.

They never failed to argue during meals.

Mu Li ignored Yan Weihong and inquisitively inched forward to Su Yue. "Yueyue, so what happened to you and the instructor?"

Xuxu didn't know what to say.

Could this middle-aged woman be more serious and act properly?

Su Yue pursed her lips. "It wasn't me who wanted his contact number. Someone else did, but no one dared to do it."

She spoke in a disapproving tone.

"Love needs courage." Madam Mu Li began to impart her knowledge to Su Yue. "Yueyue, if you meet a guy you like, be brave and profess your love. Don't hold back."

Upon hearing this, Yan Rusheng reluctantly looked at his mother. "Why didn't you teach that to our Miss Wen Xuxu when she was young?"

If she had, they wouldn't have taken such a tedious and arduous road.

Wen Xuxu was in love with him for so many years and he had been oblivious. If only Wen Xuxu had the courage to profess her love for him, perhaps he would have realized as well?

"Haha." Mu Li laughed grimly.

"Finish your food. There is never a peaceful meal with you around." Yan Weihong berated Mu Li as he looked at her in disdain.

Mu Li slammed her chopsticks on the table and said in a high-pitched voice, "So now you're complaining that I'm too noisy? Who was the one who said that he liked me chattering to him all day long and that my voice was as pleasant as a nightingale?"

Xuxu and Yan Rusheng were speechless.

Su Yue couldn't control herself and spat out a mouthful of soup. Luckily, she was able to cover her mouth in time. Otherwise, all the dishes would have been splashed over with her saliva and food.

Xuxu hastily passed her tissues to Su Yue.

Su Yue raised her head to look at Mu Li. "Second Uncle is lying to you. If you keep talking, it would be so annoying."

There was silence.

She had spoken unnecessary comments once again and added fuel to fire.

It exasperated Xuxu. How on earth would they be able to finish this meal in peace?

After dinner, Xuxu pulled Su Yue into her room. She opened her wardrobe and took out a bag of clothes. "Yueyue, these are the new clothes that your aunt and I have bought for you."

She then took out a pale blue floral dress and told Su Yue. "This is for Bai Jing. Pass it to her later."

Su Yue smiled happily. "Okay! She will be so happy."

Xuxu smiled and placed the dress back into the bag. She then led Su Yue to the bed and solemnly said, "Yueyue, even if you don't like a person, you can never splash them. Simply ignore them, do you understand?"

She gazed intently at her tanned face and began to brush her hair.

Su Yue frowned in protest. "They're so annoying and they keep pestering me."

"Tell your teachers then," suggested Xuxu.

She hesitated and paused for a moment. "Your way of dealing with them is too extreme. Ignore them in the future regardless of what they say. If you are really angry, tell your Third Brother instead so he can deal with them."

She had hit and splashed guys, although most guys wouldn't retaliate and hit a girl back. But what if someday she had a row with a girl?

If she hit a girl, she would definitely be at a disadvantage.

Xuxu felt the need to guide and advise her.

Su Yue was always receptive to Xuxu's advice and she obediently nodded as usual. "Okay."

Xuxu smiled in relief. "Are there many handsome boys in school?"

"They are not as handsome as Third Brother." Su Yue pondered for a moment before adding, "Not as handsome as the old man Uncle Ming as well."

The old man Uncle Ming.

This girl is someone who couldn't be offended at all. Xuxu chuckled before reminding her once more. "The military training will be very tough, remember to buy good and nutritious food for yourself. There are food stalls right at the entrance."

"Third sister-in-law, Third Brother mentioned that you're giving birth next month. Stop worrying about me," Su Yue reassured her as she tenderly rubbed her belly.

Her eyes were twinkling with excitement and she beamed with happiness.

Xuxu bit her lip and gazed at Su Yue's tiny face. "Yueyue, you're more sensible now."

Su Yue replied, "I'll go to the hospital and accompany you when you give birth."

Xuxu nodded. "Certainly."

...

Across A University, in a dark park with dense trees, a skinny girl was leaning against a tree trunk. Fear was etched on her face as she eyed the man who was leering at her.

The man drew dangerously close to her and his face was inches away from the girl.

"Your training ends next Monday and Tiantian is having her birthday celebration. Bring Miss Su along."

He drawled. His voice was chilly and commanding.

"We start lessons next week," Bai Jing answered as she averted her face. She was tightly clenching her jogging pants and her whole body was trembling in fear.

"You have lessons at night?" Lei Yong lifted his eyebrows as he questioned her. He sneered at her and continued, "Bai Jing, don't forget that all your school and daily expenses are paid for by the Lei family. And Tiantian is your mother's daughter."

Bai Jing tightened her grip. The last ounce of her resistance and pride had vanished.

She peered down in defeat and meekly answered, "I got it."

Her face was still turned away to avoid Lei Yong's gaze.

Lei Yong was livid and forcefully pinched Bai Jing's chin. He forced her to turn her face towards him and leered. "Why are you putting up this facade of nobility and purity?! Huh?"

He gritted his teeth before forcibly kissing Bai Jing.

Bai Jing struggled and writhed. Mustering all her strength, she pushed Lei Yong away. She hastily retreated in a fluster as she defensively covered her chest.

She was shivering badly with fear as she stared at Lei Yong.

"Second Brother, please don't do this." She shook her head and her voice was quivering so badly.

She retraced her footsteps as she spoke.

Lei Yong knew that she had given her promise and stopped his actions. He warned her, "If you don't settle Miss Su and the deal with Flourish & Prosper falls through, you will have to marry President Chen. This is a warning."

He deliberately paused and the corners of his mouth curled slyly. "Although he is divorced with two children, it's not beneath your status. You're considered lucky to marry someone like him based on your family background."

Bai Jing heard Lei Yong's threat and her eyes were filled with fear. "You have no right to force me."

Lei Yong sneered. "Say that to my face only when you're capable or powerful enough to resist."

He turned and marched away towards the entrance of the park.

Bai Jing watched as the tall figure slowly diminished out of her sight. Her heart gradually stopped pounding frantically.

She retreated and fumbled on a tree in the darkness and leaned against it for support.

It was a pitch-dark night and the darkness gave her an inexplicable abyss of fear.

'Say that to my face only when you're capable or powerful enough to resist...'

Bai Jing's hands were almost digging into the tree trunk in fury.

...

The chauffeur sent Su Yue to the dormitory and left only after she entered as what Xuxu had firmly instructed him.

Su Yue took out her keys and quietly opened the door, thinking Bai Jing might be asleep.

The lights were still on in their room and the temperature was constant. She glanced at Bai Jing's bed, but it was empty.

She closed the door and glanced at the direction of the bathroom. The door was shut and so she guessed that Bai Jing was inside.

Gushing water sounds were soon heard.

"Bai Jing, aren't you asleep?" Su Yue spoke.

Bai Jing responded and turned off the tap. Next, the sound of her rinsing her mouth was heard.

Su Yue had showered at home earlier. She strode across the room and placed the bag of clothes on the floor before changing into her pajamas.

When she was done, the bathroom door opened and Bai Jing came out.

It shocked Su Yue when she saw Bai Jing. "What happened to your mouth?"

Bai Jing's lip was bleeding and her lips were red.

She bent her head and dismissed it. "I'm fine. I accidentally fell in the shower just now and knocked myself."

She hastily replied and walked to her bed.

Su Yue noticed nothing amiss and smiled. "My third sister-in-law bought a dress for you. It's really beautiful."

She walked to the bag of clothes and took out the blue dress for Bai Jing.

Bai Jing stared at the dress in surprise. "You went back home?" asked Bai Jing.

"Yes, my third brother said that Third sister-in-law missed me and I missed her too," replied Su Yue.

She pointed at the bag and whined softly. "Third sister-in-law bought a load of clothes for me again. But it's all white and pink, so uncool."

She pressed her lips and sat down on the bed before lying down.

Bai Jing gazed at the bag and felt conflicted about it.

'My third brother said that Third sister-in-law missed me and I missed her too...'

'That little girl from the Yan family might be an illegitimate daughter but she is loved by all of them. Make sure you win her favor...'

'If you don't settle Miss Su, you will have to marry President Chen...'

Bai Jing was lost in her thoughts and laid on her bed in a daze.

Su Yue's sleepy voice sounded. "Bai Jing, I'm sleeping now. Good night."

She yawned and her voice and tone sounded completely at ease.

"Mm."

Bai Jing muttered in response after a long while.

...

After a few weeks, everyone's biological clock had been properly trained to wake up before 6 a.m. each morning, including Su Yue.

Chapter 1060: Implicated By Her (Part Eleven)

When she woke, she quickly changed and washed up.

They were basically tortured in the heat the whole morning. Their lunch break was only 20 minutes; not a minute more.

That day was the last day of military training, and they were still doing daily activities training.

The instructors of various groups selected a few members to bring out some quilts from the dormitory, and they taught everyone how to fold them.

The instructors demonstrated the folding of quilts, before making everyone practice once and ensuring that their end results looked exactly the same: a tofu-like stack.

"Line up in your usual arrangements. From front to back, all of you will fold it once. You only have one minute."

The instructors specified the rules in their booming voice.

Immediately, unhappy complaints were heard from the congregation. "One minute to fold it to this standard?"

The instructor's sharp gaze swept over them. "If you think that's too much, you can do it in 30 seconds."

"No, no, no. One minute is fine."

Because all of them had brought their own quilt, all of them were of varying sizes and materials. Their end product would definitely turn out differently.

The quilt that the instructor folded was made from pure cotton, so it looked better when they had folded it.

It was just one minute. Everyone knew that they would be done for the day after folding the quilt.

One after the other they folded, but the instructor did not look satisfied.

When it reached Bai Jing's turn, the instructor suddenly yelled, "All those who attempted just now, none of you passed. All of those who failed would have to run four rounds around the field later."

"Ahhh?"

The instructor's words caused a commotion.

Four rounds around the 400-meter track amounted to 1.6 kilometers. A 1.6 kilometer run after a long day of military training was simply a brutal corporal punishment.

Bai Jing clenched her fists, nervous. If she didn't do well, she would have to run 1.6 kilometers.

She squatted down and walked over to the quilt. She opened up the previously folded blanket and prepared herself.

"Wait."

Suddenly, a clear voice sounded from behind her.

Bai Jing turned around, confused. Su Yue was walking towards her.

When she reached her, Su Yue said to the instructor, "Sir, it's simply impossible to fold this quilt to your standard."

She said this in her arrogant Su Yue-attitude. She tilted up her chin and looked at him with neither inferiority or superiority.

Upon hearing her words, the congregation immediately agreed.

The instructor looked at her coldly. "Don't find excuses for your incompetence."

"Then why don't you fold this quilt for us," Su Yue said, pointing at the quilt.

In everyone's eyes, it seemed like an act of arrogance.

The instructor's expression got colder and colder. It scared Bai Jing, so she pulled at the bottom of Su Yue's pants. "Su Yue."

She thought, 'At worst, I'd just run 1.6 kilometers. I'll just be a little more tired.'

The instructor had a resolute expression. Perspiration trickled down the side of his face and he kept his silence.

Su Yue raised her eyebrows at him. "Instructor, are you scared?"

Then she continued, "If you can fold such corners with this quilt, and make it so flat, then I can, too."

The vein on the instructor's face popped. He still didn't acknowledge Su Yue, but his gaze swept over the entire group. He then commanded in a loud voice, "All of you in this group, run five rounds around the field."

"Ah?" All of their eyes widened. They cried, "We are already so tired, and we still have to run two kilometers?"

"You should thank this student for your extra round," the instructor snarled, pointing at Su Yue.

Just one line and Su Yue had become the butt of their criticism.

One by one, glares were targeted at Su Yue.
