Chapter 1081: Staying Overnight At His Place (Part Five)

Just like what Xuxu had said, Yan Rusheng loved Su Yue and was very concerned about her. He just didn't show it.

"Third Brother, where is Third sister-in-law?" asked Su Yue.

Yan Rusheng softly answered, "She is asleep."

Su Yue responded with an 'oh' and spoke in a whisper. "I shall not disturb her."

"Okay." Yan Rusheng sharply instructed, "Don't go anywhere else and listen to Ming Ansheng."

Su Yue nodded. "Okay."

Su Yue ended the call with Yan Rusheng. She hugged her knees, looking as though she was deep in thought.

Ming Ansheng sized her up and curiously asked, "What is on your mind?"

"Third sister-in-law has given birth. What presents should I get for them?" Su Yue asked Ming Ansheng.

Ming Ansheng was speechless.

How unpredictable could she be?

"Hurry, I need to send you back," said Ming Ansheng.

Su Yue refused. "I'm not going back tonight. I want to visit the babies and third sister-in-law tomorrow morning."

She had decided.

She then repeated once more in her mind.

She peered at Ming Ansheng with a guilty expression. "I know it has been tiring looking for me this afternoon."

"It's not tiring. Just don't let us worry by running away in the future," Ming Ansheng spoke gently. "No matter what happens, you can always look for me."

He was so relieved to have found her. It didn't matter no matter how tiring it was.

"Okay," Su Yue promised him and bowed her head.

Ming Ansheng smiled. "If you don't want to go back, then you should take a shower now."

"Okay." Su Yue stood up to go to the bathroom. She furrowed her eyebrows after some time. "But I don't have clothes."

That... was a problem indeed. Ming Ansheng replied, "Wear my clothes. You can wash your clothes tonight, and by tomorrow it'll be dry."

The next second, he began to visualize how Su Yue would look like in his shirt.

That scene...

Cough, cough . Ming Ansheng, stop it!

He should have gotten her pajamas when he bought the bedroom slippers for her.

Young Master Ming, how could you think of buying pajamas for her? What are you trying to do?

Ming Ansheng decided on a t-shirt for her. After some serious contemplation, he chose a black one for Su Yue.

Su Yue entered the bathroom and soon, the sound of gushing water could be heard.

Ming Ansheng had left the office before the afternoon, and there was a huge pile of work waiting for him. However, he was in no mood to do anything.

He sat on the couch and began to switch TV channels absentmindedly.

Seconds and minutes went by.

"Uncle Ming, where is your hairdryer?"

Su Yue's hair was wet, and she was standing outside the bathroom. She had shouted from across the room.

Instinctively, Ming Ansheng turned his head.

At that moment, he felt that his world was spinning and his body was tightening.

Su Yue was wearing his black T-shirt and it ended slightly above her knees. Although her skirts or shorts were shorter, it was still a different feeling.

It was very loose on her, but she was so sexy and attractive that he feared he might have a nosebleed.

Especially Su Yue's long and fair legs.

She stood there, rubbing her hair with a towel. Her huge eyes were blinking innocently at Ming Ansheng, and she looked so pure.

It entranced Ming Ansheng for some time before he snapped to his senses. He averted his eyes hastily and answered, "I'll go get it."

Chapter 1082: Staying Overnight at His Place (Part Six)

Ming Ansheng stood up and strode across to his room.

He walked out of his room with the hairdryer and strode to Su Yue.

Ming Ansheng had left the living room furtively after switching off the TV while Su Yue was drying her hair.

There was only a dim light left in the living room, and she turned to glance at Ming Ansheng's room. He had closed his door.

Did he fall asleep?

Su Yue blinked her eyes, looking puzzled. She strode over and knocked on his door. "Uncle Ming, are you asleep?"

"Yeah," Ming Ansheng replied softly. "You can sleep in the other room."

"Okay, goodnight," replied Su Yue.

Without another word, she spun around and went to the room opposite his.

There was hardly any furniture in the room. Just a bed and a bedside drawer.

The bedsheets were sky blue and it was tucked in neatly.

Su Yue surveyed the entire room before walking to the door. She couldn't help but throw another glance at Ming Ansheng's room for the last time before shutting the door.

She walked to the bed and smelled the blanket before lying down.

There was a faint, pleasant scent on the blanket, and Su Yue closed her eyes and breathed in. Unknowingly, a blissful smile appeared on her face.

For some strange reason, she was feeling contented and blissful.

'Those gossips are unimportant since those people are merely strangers. Why do you have to care about their opinions?'

'Someone is waiting for you to light up his life...'

So did his annoying fiancé light up his life?

Su Yue stared at the ceiling, lost in thoughts. Her mind was racing with everything Ming Ansheng had said to her earlier on.

After a while, she became frustrated, and she shook her head violently to stop herself from thinking.

'Beauty is in the eye of the beholder' her third sister-in-law had told her before. Regardless of how annoying and hateful a person might be, he or she would be perfect in the eyes of his or her lover.

So, this was most probably true for Uncle Ming.

Su Yue sleepily thought to herself.

Just when she was about to fall asleep, she heard the door opening. But she was too tired to bother with it.

Ming Ansheng had opened his door gently and gazed intently at the door opposite of his.

He leaned against the door frame with his hands deep in his pockets. His gaze was intense.

"Sigh!"

After a long while, Ming Ansheng sighed deeply and helplessly. He straightened his back and walked to the bathroom.

He switched on the bathroom lights and the first thing that greeted his eyes was Su Yue's dirty clothes. He couldn't help but smile affectionately.

Ming Ansheng walked across and picked up Su Yue's clothes. He felt the clothes, and it was like what he had imagined.

He bent his head and sniffed it.

Suddenly, he realized what he was doing and jerked the clothes away.

'Cough... cough.'

He coughed a few times, apparently stunned by his actions. 'What an awkward moment,' he thought to himself as he glanced at the door in guilt.

It was such a warm day and she had worn the clothes for the entire day. What other smell could there be besides the stench of perspiration?

He had sniffed it. Was he being... perverted?

Ming Ansheng violently shook his head to wake himself up. He took Su Yue's clothes to the basin and turned on the tap.

He submerged her white T-shirt in water and poured detergent on it. He then began to wash it.

He was scrubbing it, pouring all his concentration on it.

He was scrubbing every single part of the T-shirt.

Chapter 1083: Third Master Has Transformed Into a Super Dad (Part One)

Su Yue wore a white T-shirt and a pair of white pants in the afternoon. It seemed to diminish in size while being submerged in water.

Ming Ansheng looked at her clothes with an exceedingly gentle expression in his eyes.

His gentleness was an instinctive reaction.

Ming Ansheng used half an hour just to wash her clothes.

He felt happy and blissful doing anything for her since he loved Yueyue.

After washing the clothes, he wrung it dry and hung it at his balcony. He placed them with his clothes before resting against the wall with his arms folded.

As he admired the clothes, he couldn't help but feel that it was a perfect and harmonious combination.

...

After an exhausting day, Su Yue slept through the night. When she woke up after 8 a.m., she gazed around the room, looking confused. It took her some time before she recalled that she didn't return to her dormitory and had slept over at Ming Ansheng's place.

She got out of bed and left the room.

Evidently, someone was cooking in the kitchen, judging by the frying sounds. She hastened her footsteps.

Ming Ansheng had an apron around him and he was frying eggs.

He beamed at the sight of Su Yue. "Are you awake?"

"Yup." Su Yue smiled and leaned against the door frame. Seeing how skilled and experienced Ming Ansheng looked as he fried the egg, she exclaimed, "Uncle Ming, you look so skilled and awesome when you cook!"

Ming Ansheng chuckled. "Go and wash up."

"Okay!"

Su Yue bounded for the bathroom.

Ming Ansheng spun around and caught a glimpse of her before she closed the door.

'This would be perfect,' as he thought to himself.

"Uncle Ming." Su Yue came out of the bathroom as she brushed her teeth. Her mouth was full of toothpaste and foam.

"Huh?" Ming Ansheng cast a glance at Su Yue and saw her holding a toothbrush.

That... that was his toothbrush!

This little lass! How could she simply use any toothbrush?

Didn't she have any general knowledge?

Su Yue didn't notice the change in Ming Ansheng's facial expression. "Where are my clothes?"

"I've washed it. I'll get them for you." Ming Ansheng turned off the stove and walked to the balcony.

Su Yue received the clothes and seemed surprised. "Uncle Ming, did you wash them for me?"

She raised her face and peered at Ming Ansheng, looking visibly touched.

"I threw them into the washing machine." Ming Ansheng shoved the clothes into Su Yue's outstretched hands without a second look. He walked back to the kitchen.

Su Yue replied with an 'oh'.

She sounded slightly disappointed. But she didn't realize it, not even Ming Ansheng.

After breakfast, Ming Ansheng sent Su Yue to the City Women and Children's Hospital.

"Third sister-in-law!" The door burst open and Su Yue sprinted towards Xuxu.

"Yueyue!" Xuxu sat upright, looking excited and overjoyed.

Xuxu was stabbed with a sharp twinge of pain and she winced before lying back down.

Su Yue reached Xuxu and she held her hands tightly. She sounded excited and emotional as she cried, "Third sister-in-law, where are the babies?!"

Xuxu smiled and replied, "In the newborn nursery room."

Xuxu still looked a little pale, and Su Yue's heart ached at the sight of her. "Was it painful giving birth?"

Xuxu smiled and said, "Silly girl, of course, it's painful."

This little girl was still quite ignorant about most general worldly stuff.

Su Yue frowned. "Then I don't want to give birth in the future."

Ming Ansheng was speechless.

Didn't she brag that she wasn't afraid of pain?

"Yueyue, I want to tell you to ignore what others say." Xuxu gently patted Su Yue's hands.

Chapter 1084: Third Master Has Transformed Into a Super Dad (Part Two)

Xuxu continued to dish advice and consoled Su Yue. "We can't control others or their opinions. But we can change our mindset and perspectives. It's good to keep our emotions in check and sometimes, we need to control our temper."

Young Master Yan glanced at Xuxu; his wife was serving 'chicken soup for the soul' once more.

But his wife's advice really helped every time.

Especially this little lass.

"All right, I got it. I won't let Third sister-in-law worry in the future." Su Yue nodded and continued, "They are just jealous of me."

Xuxu smiled in relief. "It's good that you understand."

When she heard Bai Jing yesterday, she was so afraid that Su Yue might do something drastic, given her extreme mindset and personality.

She still needed to spend more time with her to make sure that the word 'illegitimate child' won't affect her. She wanted to bring Su Yue out of her traumatic childhood back in Country Y.

"Oh, yeah." Su Yue suddenly thought of something and she turned to Ming Ansheng. "Uncle Ming, give me my phone."

Her clothes didn't have any pockets, and she had to hold on to her phone for the entire afternoon yesterday.

She found it too troublesome, so she put it inside Ming Ansheng's pocket that morning.

Ming Ansheng took out Su Yue's phone and passed it to her.

"I need to call Bai Jing. She will be overjoyed to know that you have given birth." Su Yue received her phone and dialed Bai Jing's number with a smile.

Su Yue saw how happy Su Yue was and her gaze became profound.

This pure and innocent girl was too naïve. If she treated someone as her friend, she would pour her entire heart and trust that person completely.

Fortunately, Bai Jing was quite an honest girl, if not...

Sigh!

Nevertheless, she still felt that being too innocent and naïve wasn't such a good thing.

"Bai Jing says she will visit you after school."

Su Yue informed Xuxu happily after she hung up.

Xuxu smiled and asked, "Do you want to go back to school with her later?"

Su Yue bowed her head and pursed her lips. She hesitated before nodding. "All right then."

Xuxu knew that she wouldn't be able to change her mindset at once. "Remember this, they are jealous of you. That's why they will think of different ways to attack you so you will leave on your own accord."

"I will," Su Yue agreed, nodding.

They continued chatting and Ming Ansheng casually surveyed the room. Then his eyes landed on Yan Rusheng and he teased him with a grin. "Third Yan, you're finally a father. When are you planning a get-together?"

Yan Rusheng glanced at him and casually quipped, "Do you feel especially pressured right now?"

Although his expression was impassive, he sounded exceedingly smug.

"Why should I feel pressured?" Ming Ansheng shrugged and grinned. "Shouldn't Lu Yinan be the one pressured instead?"

"That's true." Yan Rusheng chuckled. "But once he settles that hooligan, he would be fine. As for you..."

Ming Ansheng appeared unconcerned as he retorted, "I can settle down any time. It's just a matter of getting married and having a child."

Unconsciously, he fleetingly glanced at Su Yue. It was too swift for anyone to notice.

Yan Rusheng grinned without denying his comment.

That was indeed true for Ming Ansheng. It was just a matter of marriage and having kids.

"I'm going to visit the two little ones," said Ming Ansheng.

Su Yue jumped to her feet and excitedly said, "Me too! Me too!"

She really wanted to visit the babies.

Ming Ansheng smiled and turned around and Yan Rusheng led the way.

Chapter 1085: Third Master Has Transformed Into a Super Dad (Part Three)

Xuxu's children were the only two babies in the nursery room, and they were both fast asleep.

Su Yue and Ming Ansheng gazed at them through a glass window.

"They're so tiny." Su Yue pressed her face against the window as she watched them with a huge smile. Immense adoration for them was etched on her face.

"All newborn babies are tiny." Ming Ansheng cast her a glance and pressed on. "Besides that, they are twins, so they tend to be smaller."

Su Yue raised her head and eyed Ming Ansheng doubtfully. "Why do you know so much?"

Ming Ansheng quipped, "This is just general knowledge."

"Oh." Su Yue nodded and mumbled under her breath. "Why do men have to know about this kind of general knowledge?"

Ming Ansheng was speechless.

He really wanted to say that any man who married this dumb fool would need to be brilliant and capable.

She knew nothing.

Ming Ansheng left after a short while as there were urgent company matters he had to settle.

Su Yue stayed to accompany Xuxu.

Mu Li and Yan Weihong arrived shortly and they brought tonic soup for Xuxu. It was supposedly good for stimulating lactation.

Mu Li poured the soup for Xuxu while Yan Rusheng fed her.

Xuxu can feed herself, but Yan Rusheng insisted on feeding her.

"Xuxu. I have decided on their names."

Yan Weihong spoke as Xuxu was drinking the soup.

Everyone's attention turned towards him.

Yan Weihong smiled and said, "The girl will be called Yan Wenxin and the boy Yan Nuoxing. What do you think?"

Xuxu's eyes sparkled happily when she heard the names. "Great!"

She instantly liked the names.

"Yan Wenxin, soft and gentle." She elaborated on the meaning behind the names that Yan Weihong had chosen. "Yan Nuoxing. To do what one has promised."

Their names were simple and meaningful, and easy to interpret and read.

She loved these two names.

Yan Weihong smiled and nodded. "Yeah."

Xuxu glanced at Yan Weihong with a look of adoration. "Father, the names are brilliant."

"Haha." Yan Weihong chortled loudly and turned slightly red.

Mu Li sounded jealous as she cast him a contemptuous look. "He has been flipping the dictionary for half a year. If he doesn't come up with a good name, shouldn't he be sacked as a grandfather?"

Sacked as a grandfather?

The corners of Xuxu's mouth twitched involuntarily and she was dumbfounded.

Yan Rusheng chuckled, looking amused. "You want to change the children's grandfather?"

Mu Li's words had hardened Yan Weihong's expression. At Yan Rusheng's words, he was practically fuming.

Mu Li stretched her hands and slapped Yan Rusheng's shoulders. "Wretched son!"

She turned to glance at Yan Weihong. "How about their nicknames?"

Yan Weihong frowned, looking annoyed. "You can decide if you want to. Stop beating around the bush."

"As their grandfather, you've already decided on their names. As their grandmother, do I need an excuse to decide on their nicknames?!" Mu Li taunted him and looked at Xuxu. "The girl can be called 'Meowmeow' and the boy will be 'Woofwoof'. What do you think?"

Xuxu and Yan Rusheng were speechless.

"Don't you get it?" Professor Mu began to explain. "In the olden days, they like to give nicknames such as cat and dog for their children. They sound foolish so that it would be easier to bring up the child."

Yan Rusheng was speechless.

F*ck. Those are the nicknames for ordinary children. He was the high-and-mighty President. A President!

Did she ever hear the nicknames of a President's child being addressed as a dog or a cat?

Xuxu finished her soup and Yan Rusheng passed her tissues to wipe her mouth.

"I'm going to visit the children." Yan Weihong turned around and marched away.

Chapter 1086: Third Master Has Transformed Into a Super Dad (Part Four)

Yan Weihong had no wish to be in the same room with this ridiculous woman.

He upset and miffed Mu Li. "Yan Weihong, what do you mean by this?"

Yan Weihong ignored her, walked to the entrance and opened the door.

"Xuxu, what do you think?" Mu Li turned around to face Xuxu with a smile.

She didn't need that old man's consent; her son and daughter-in-law would do.

"I can accept Meowmeow, but Woofwoof is..." Xuxu rejected her suggestion in a tactful manner as she didn't want to offend Mu Li. "It's a little tacky."

A little tacky? It's extremely tacky!

Mu Li didn't insist on her way and she fell silent as she deliberated. "Let's call him 'Yangyang' then."

There was a long pause.

Yangyang—a sheep?

Professor Mu seemed to have set her mind on naming her grandchildren after animals so Xuxu gave in. She grinned weakly and nodded. "All right... all right then."

A sheep sounded better than a dog.

"It's decided then." Mu Li sounded pleased. "Meowmeow and Yangyang."

She repeated several times and even mispronounced the nicknames.

Xuxu was speechless. Mu Li couldn't even pronounce the names she had thought of.

"Meowmeow and Yangyang don't sound cool at all," Su Yue interjected suddenly.

Xuxu's mouth twitched. "Then what should we call them?"

She seemed to find everything uncool. Should their nicknames be 'thug' or 'gangster'?

Su Yue shook her head and answered, "I don't know."

"Ah Sheng, go back to the office." Xuxu ended the conversation as it wasn't really that important to her. She glanced at Yan Rusheng and said, "Yan Rusheng you didn't go to work yesterday and I know you're really busy."

Paramount had sent so many of their people over. If he wasn't around, she couldn't help but worry.

On the bright side, Su Yan was at the company and he had postponed his work trip.

Yan Rusheng quipped, "Just one more day."

She had suffered so much. It was only right for him to keep her company.

"Go ahead. I don't need you here. Father and Mother are both here. And I have Yueyue as well." Xuxu nudged Yan Rusheng as she said.

Mu Li urged him as well. "Third Yan, if you're busy then just go. You can come back in the evening to accompany Xuxu."

"Hmmm..." Yan Rusheng was quite reluctant. "I'll go back now."

It was true that there were many company matters that he had to settle. Still, nothing was more important than Xuxu.

"Go. Hurry." Xuxu waved her hands at him.

Su Yue stayed by Xuxu's side the entire day.

Yan Rusheng rushed back to the hospital after he ended work. The elevator was crowded, and Yan Rusheng had to wait by the side—waiting for the people in the elevator to exit.

"Third brother!"

A familiar voice sounded behind him.

Yan Rusheng turned around and saw Bai Jing. He nodded to acknowledge her.

Bai Jing walked up to him and they entered the elevator one after another. Yan Rusheng pressed the button.

More people streamed in.

Yan Rusheng and Bai Jing stood together.

Yan Rusheng stuffed his hands inside his pockets. He looked confident and cold as usual.

Bai Jing bent her head and glanced at Yan Rusheng's long legs in secret. Her eyes then darted to his well-polished leather shoes.

The light scent he was wearing seemed to assail her nostrils.

Her heart was wildly pounding.

'Bai Jing, don't let your imagination run wild! You'll sink even deeper,' Bai Jing thought desperately to herself.

Bai Jing denied those tempting thoughts and warned herself sternly.

Chapter 1087: Third Master Has Transformed Into a Super Dad (Part Five)

The elevator doors opened.

"We're here," Yan Rusheng said to Bai Jing in a plain voice before stepping out.

Bai Jing followed after. She watched his back-view and pressed her lips together, the corners of her mouth twitching upwards.

"Don't cry, little one. Let Aunt carry you."

Su Yue's voice could be heard from outside the room. Yan Rusheng smiled and pushed open the door.

In the room, Xuxu was breastfeeding one twin. Mu Li was sitting by her bedside, teaching her how to do it.

Xuxu had just started breastfeeding, so the baby in her arms was having a hard time.

Su Yue was carrying the other twin in her arms. She paced around the room, pacifying the baby.

She stole those lines from television shows.

"Ah Sheng, you're here," Xuxu greeted, lifting her head. Then she smiled at Bai Jing. "Bai Jing."

Bai Jing nodded at Xuxu and smiled. "Congratulations, Third sister-in-law."

Then she walked over to her.

"Thank you," Xuxu replied.

"Bai Jing, Bai Jing. Come over quickly," Su Yue said, waving her over. She was sitting on the stool. "Come, take a look at my niece."

Bai Jing changed direction and walked towards Su Yue instead.

She stood before her, looking down at the baby in Su Yue's arms. The baby had black, sparkling eyes.

Bai Jing smiled unknowingly. She bent over and grabbed onto the baby's small hand. "Her hand is so tiny, she's so cute."

"Exactly," Su Yue said. "Uncle Ming said that all babies are born this small. Plus, Yangyang and Meowmeow are twins, so they're especially tiny."

Xuxu smiled when she heard it. "Ming Ansheng know quite a bit about this."

Su Yue looked over. "He said that this is common knowledge."

Xuxu nodded. "That's true."

"Isn't she really cute?" Su Yue couldn't tear herself away from her little niece.

"Yup," Bai Jing agreed, nodding. Then she stood up and chided Su Yue with a frown. "Su Yue, you gave me a fright yesterday. Don't do that again, okay?"

Su Yue pursed her lips. "I'm sorry."

She then grabbed Bai Jing's arm and pulled it gently.

Bai Jing continued, "Ignore those people in the future."

She then broke into a smile.

Seeing Bai Jing smile, Su Yue knew that she wasn't angry anymore. She grinned. "I've got it."

She brought her attention back to Meowmeow before sending her over to Xuxu for breastfeeding.

Mu Li carried Yan Nuoxing away as Su Yue stuffed Meowmeow into Xuxu's arms. Xuxu looked at her chest before looking up at Mu Li with a frown. "This can't possibly be enough to feed the twins."

Mu Li replied, "You definitely still have to breastfeed them. If you aren't able to produce more milk, your children will have a hard time."

Xuxu became worried. "What do I do then?"

'How could the babies go without breast milk?'

Mu Li looked at Yan Rusheng. "Yan Rusheng, I'll leave this to you. Whether your children have milk to drink tomorrow, it depends on you."

She was rather vague about it.

But Yan Rusheng was smart enough to read her mind. He smirked and replied, "I won't let you down."

Xuxu was speechless.

Chapter 1088: Third Master Has Transformed Into a Super Dad (Part Six)

'I've had enough of these two! They didn't bother holding their tongues in front of two 18-year-old girls.'

"Did you hear that, my wife?" Yan Rusheng said, raising his eyebrows playfully at Xuxu. "For the sake of feeding our children, you have to be obedient tonight."

He looked at Xuxu, his gaze full of tenderness.

And his smile, it was reserved solely for her.

It made him look so attractive.

She felt so comfortable and at ease.

She envied Third sister-in-law for being able to have a man who could give her a sense of security and endless amounts of love.

To her, he was like a god—way out of her reach.

She stared at Yan Rusheng dreamily.

"Bai Jing."

Su Yue called out to her suddenly. Bai Jing snapped out of it and hurriedly retracted her gaze. Her eyes flashed with guilt, she then looked at Su Yue, acting calm and collected. "Yes?"

"Do you think my Third Brother is indecent too?"

She had seen her staring at Yan Rusheng earlier, so she thought Bai Jing was secretly criticizing him.

Xuxu was speechless.

'This lass, so she knew 'indecent'.'

'She must've learned some things online, but she definitely didn't know much.'

Xuxu glared at Yan Rusheng, then said to Su Yue, "Yueyue, let your Third Brother take you and Bai Jing out for dinner."

"Okay." Su Yue nodded. She turned to Bai Jing and said, "Bai Jing, let's go, then we'll head back to school."

Bai Jing was a little startled to hear that. "You're going back to school today?"

"Yup." Su Yue nodded and added, "I'm visiting Third sister-in-law again during the weekends. Do you want to tag along?"

"I'll let you know..." Bai Jing hung her head and hesitated.

Xuxu could tell that she didn't dare to agree immediately. The Lei family must've limited her freedom.

Bai Jing's hesitation didn't slip past Xuxu, but she remained silent.

Bai Jing continued, "I'll let you know closer to the date itself. I'll join you if I have nothing on."

It overjoyed Su Yue. "That's great."

"I'll order delivery," Yan Rusheng said. He didn't feel like going downstairs.

After watching her give birth and going through the grueling process with her, he wanted to spend as much time as possible with Xuxu.

Even if it were just a mere second, he would take it.

Xuxu frowned. "No, I can't eat that food."

She had to eat light because she had to breastfeed.

So if they were to eat here, it would definitely tempt her.

"Okay then," Yan Rusheng agreed, his heart aching. "Darling, I'll bring you on a trip after your one-month confinement is over."

"Third Yan, are you done?" Mu Li couldn't stand watching her son acting so mushy in front of so many people. She frowned with contempt and continued, "You're a grown man, could you behave like one?"

Yan Rusheng nodded in understanding. "Mm. I understand. A woman's jealousy is regardless of age."

Xuxu was speechless.

"You rascal," Mu Li chided, punching Yan Rusheng on the shoulder. Then she rushed him, saying, "Quickly bring them out for dinner, then arrange for someone to send them back."

Yan Rusheng nodded and looked at Su Yue.

Su Yue immediately held Bai Jing's hand in hers and walked towards Yan Rusheng. She looked at Xuxu, then the twins.

She thought for a moment before suggesting, "Third Brother, Bai Jing and I can settle our own dinner. You don't have to bring us."

Chapter 1089: Third Master Has Transformed Into a Super Dad (Part Seven)

"It's okay. I'll bring you guys there," Yan Rusheng said plainly. "I have to eat too, anyway."

Immediately, he bounded for the door of the main lobby.

"Oh." Su Yue followed behind Yan Rusheng, hand in hand with Bai Jing.

The hospital was located in the city area, so the entire vicinity was filled with restaurants, ranging from small to large or even high-class to normal ones.

Yan Rusheng walked along the road and swept his gaze over the area. He looked at Su Yue and Bai Jing and asked, "What do you both want to eat?"

Without waiting for a reply, he added, "I think all the restaurants sell chicken wings!"

If not, this little lass would definitely mention her beloved chicken wings.

Su Yue pressed her lips together, not saying anything.

"I'm fine with anything," Bai Jing replied suddenly. Her voice was still soft, but clear.

She looked at Yan Rusheng and smiled faintly.

"Then let's go there," Yan Rusheng suggested, pointing at a restaurant across the road. The restaurant looked pretty decent.

"Mm," Bai Jing agreed and nodded.

Although it was a mere reply, it seemed like it took her a lot of courage.

They crossed the zebra-crossing with Yan Rusheng leading the way.

Su Yue and Bai Jing followed behind him. Yan Rusheng looked like an adult bringing two kids out.

Yan Rusheng was recognizable anywhere he went. The moment he entered, a young waiter recognized him immediately, his eyes brightening.

“Third Master,” he greeted almost uncontrollably.

Yan Rusheng walked straight into the inner section of the restaurant. It was the peak lunch period, and since the restaurant was situated directly opposite the hospital, it was packed.

Everyone started taking out their phones to sneak a picture of Yan Rusheng.

Given Yan Rusheng’s status, to outsiders—as much as he didn’t want to admit it—he was considered a celebrity.

Naturally, everyone would try to ask him for an autograph or picture. People would crowd around him whenever he was around.

Yan Rusheng bowed his head and frowned. He stuffed his hands into his tuxedo pockets and followed the waiter to the second floor.

Of course, he wouldn’t have his meal in the main area and allow them to take photos of him.

“Isn’t my Third Brother just like a celebrity?”

Seeing the commotion that Yan Rusheng had caused, Su Yue whispered in Bai Jing’s ear.

“Mm.” Bai Jing nodded. She then sneaked a glance at Yan Rusheng.

Adoration and admiration filled her eyes as she smiled uncontrollably.

Su Yue kept her gaze on Yan Rusheng the entire time. “Do you wish for a boyfriend who’s as handsome as my Third Brother in the future?”

She turned to look at Bai Jing.

Bai Jing flushed red. “Su Yue, what are you talking about?”

“Mm...” Su Yue pursed her lips. “You seem very shy whenever it comes to this topic.”

Who wouldn’t be shy?

Bai Jing stared at Su Yue for quite some time before replying plainly, “That’s because you know nothing about it.”

She then quickened her pace and caught up with Yan Rusheng.

“Does that mean she knows a lot?” Su Yue asked to herself, blinking as she watched Bai Jing walk away. After recovering from her stupor, she chased after her. “Do you like someone? Who is it?”

She asked excitedly.

By that point, they were already directly behind Yan Rusheng. Su Yue had asked so loudly, so Bai Jing's face flushed red once again. She pinched Su Yue's arm with all her might and warned her sternly, "Don't jump to conclusions. There's nothing of that sort."

Su Yue frowned in pain. But seeing Bai Jing's embarrassment, she decided to let the matter rest.

They followed Yan Rusheng into a private room.

It wasn't big, but it luxuriously furnished. Yan Rusheng randomly picked a seat and sat down. Naturally, Su Yue sat beside him.

Bai Jing walked to the other side of Yan Rusheng and pulled out the chair, sitting on it.

Her actions looked natural and it looked like she had picked a seat randomly, so nobody took notice.

The waiter passed Yan Rusheng a menu.

Yan Rusheng didn't take it from him. Instead, he leaned against his seat lazily and said, "You girls can order whatever you want."

He was with two young girls, so obviously he didn't know what to order.

"Bai Jing, why don't you order," Su Yue suggested, pushing the menu to Bai Jing.

Bai Jing shook her head. "You go ahead, I'm fine with anything."

Then she pushed it back to Su Yue.

It was just a few dishes, so Su Yue didn't bother disagreeing. She took the menu and flipped it open, quickly ordering a few dishes.

Of course, she didn't forget about her chicken wings.

As Yan Rusheng had mentioned, most restaurants had chicken wings on the menu.

"I'm done," Su Yue declared, passing the ordering form to the waiter.

Yan Rusheng looked over at Bai Jing. Void of any expression, he asked, "Bai Jing, are you sure you don't want to order anything?"

His tone was casual.

Bai Jing pressed her tips together in a smile and shook her head. "I'm fine with whatever Su Yue orders."

Yan Rusheng said nothing else.

The waiter took the ordering form from Su Yue and ran through the list of orders before leaving the room.

"Third Brother." Su Yue suddenly grinned at Yan Rusheng.

It confused Yan Rusheng. "Mm."

Su Yue asked with a smile, "Do you feel super blissful right now?"

Yan Rusheng picked up the teacup and drank coolly. He smiled but kept his silence.

That was an obvious answer. He was feeling super happy.

Su Yue said, "The twins will be as smart and pretty as Third sister-in-law for sure."

Yan Rusheng's expression darkened. ' Why couldn't they be like him?'

"The girl should be as virtuous and beautiful as Third sister-in-law, whereas the boy should be... as wise and responsible as Third Brother. That would be perfect."

Bai Jing suddenly interjected from the other end of the table. Her voice was calm and clear, though not loud.

Yan Rusheng said nothing when he heard it. He gave Su Yue a look, which seemed to suggest: 'Bai Jing is more eloquent than you.'

It served the dishes in the midst of their conversation.

Yan Rusheng picked up his chopsticks and gave Su Yue a piece of cabbage.

He kept quiet throughout the entire meal, other than taking food for Su Yue once in a while. Su Yue enjoyed her special treatment; she was used to it.

Bai Jing, on the other hand, felt a surge of envy when she saw Yan Rusheng passing food to Su Yue.

Su Yue was really blessed; even more so than her third sister-in-law.

"Bai Jing, help yourself to the chicken wings."

When the chicken wings were served, Su Yue took two of them for Bai Jing.

Bai Jing pressed her lips together in a tight smile. She was still feeling a pang of jealousy.

She bowed her head and chided herself. Why couldn't she control her emotions? Life was predestined from birth, so why was she envious of others?

She had a loving father. Although they weren't very well-to-do, he never failed to spoil her like his little princess.

'Bai Jing, don't entertain foolish ideas.'

Deep down, she was clear that some things were simply impossible. If she didn't put an end to her extravagant wishes, it would lead her to a point of no redemption.

After the meal, Yan Rusheng arranged for a chauffeur to take Bai Jing and Su Yue back to the university.

Yan Rusheng returned to the ward. Mu Li had already left, so he was alone with Xuxu.
