Chapter 1351: Various Public Displays of Affection (Part Fourteen)

Young Master Ming emerged from the cupboard, panting and drenched in sweat.

He sighed heavily.

'F*ck. Lu Yinan, how dare you expose me? Wearing split pants at five and losing my virginity at seventeen?'

Ming Ansheng adjusted his attire and straightened up. He entered the washroom. He was drenched in sweat so he had to take a shower.

The first thing he saw when he entered the washroom was Su Yue's pink lingerie on the sink. He smirked.

He suddenly remembered that his clothes were ditched in the washroom yesterday as well.

He gazed around the room but he didn't see it.

He needed to use the washroom when he was in the cupboard, but he had to hold it in. He walked over to the toilet bowl and bent over, opening the lid, his expression turning dark instantly.

His underwear was floating in the toilet bowl.

F*ck, f*ck, f*ck. He wouldn't be Ming Ansheng if he didn't take revenge.

Young Master Ming wanted to take revenge on Lu Yinan for all the punishment he had received from Su Yue.

'Ding dong.'

Suddenly, the doorbell rang.

Ming Ansheng knew that it was the housekeeper. He left the room and called, "Come back later."

Then he walked over hung the 'do not disturb' sign on the door.

...

The few of them still continued with their original plan and headed to the amusement park in N City.

It was Christmas day and the entire city had a cheery and festive atmosphere. There were large decorated Christmas trees at the entrance of the amusement park.

It was exceptionally crowded.

Xuxu became worried for Zhou Shuang. "Shuang, it's so crowded. You'd better not go in."

Lu Yinan nodded in agreement. "That's right. They can go ahead and we'll go somewhere else."

Yan Rusheng nodded immediately. "That's a good idea."

A large crowd would stare at them no matter where they went. It was embarrassing.

What more with a pregnant woman?

"Hateful," Zhou Shuang said contemptuously to Yan Rusheng.

She looked at the entrance and she herself knew the danger. Indeed, there were too many people; it wasn't suitable for a pregnant woman like her.

Zhou Shuang frowned when she realized it. "Alright then."

"Let's go. I'll take you somewhere else," Lu Yinan said, taking her hand.

Actually, he had no hidden motive. He did it plainly because it was too crowded, and he was afraid that he would lose her or be stuck in the crowd.

Zhou Shuang immediately retracted her hand when she saw his hand reaching for hers. She groaned, "I grew up here. Do I need you to take me around?"

Then she started off towards the large shopping mall situated opposite the amusement park.

Lu Yinan knew Zhou Shuang's temper. He had to use a soft approach towards her. He tucked his hands into his pockets and followed after her. "Alright, can you take me there then?"

Zhou Shuang looked askew at him and snorted. "I don't want to talk to you."

She increased her pace and Lu Yinan became worried. He was afraid that someone would bump into her or that she would slip and fall.

He caught up with her and grabbed her elbow, frowning. "Zhou Shuang, can you be more gentle?"

Zhou Shuang smiled coolly. "Yes, you men love a gentle woman. Once you piss them off, you won't know what hit you."

Then she rolled her eyes at him and shrugged his hand. She continued walking.

Lu Yinan followed closely behind her. He raised his eyebrow and asked with a smile, "Isn't it a known fact that timid women are more attractive to men?"

Chapter 1352: Various Public Displays of Affection (Part Fifteen)

Zhou Shuang rebuked in an unhappy note. "I don't want to attract you so I need not be gentle."

Both of them walked at a rapid pace. Lu Yinan was fine with it—he was a man after all. Although he wasn't a muscular man, he was decently fit.

But Zhou Shuang was panting heavily.

Lu Yinan amicably said, "Let's rest somewhere and have a drink, alright?"

He was always a gentleman to women, especially to Zhou Shuang.

Actually, he didn't have a problem with her if she didn't always have a bone to pick with him.

Zhou Shuang felt like there was no point being stubborn when he was being soft towards her. She pursed her lips and agreed.

"Let's go there for a short rest before continuing," Lu Yinan said, pointing at a nearby cafe.

"Whatever," Zhou Shuang replied, walking towards it.

Lu Yinan casually followed two steps behind her.

Because her tummy was so big, Zhou Shuang's body wobbled left and right. Lu Yinan went deep in thought as he watched her.

The woman was going to be pregnant for ten months, walk around with a huge belly, and risk suffering from post-natal depression and other ailments. Furthermore, her family wasn't short of money.

Why would she give you her children?

Even he felt exhausted just by looking at her.

"Lu Yinan, didn't you say that you want a drink? Why are you standing there?" Zhou Shuang shouted with a frown. She was already at the entrance of the cafe when she realized Lu Yinan was still far off.

Lu Yinan came to his senses and smiled.

His smile was bewitching. Zhou Shuang hurriedly averted her gaze.

"Let's go in." Lu Yinan grabbed her elbow and led her into the cafe.

The cafe was full.

"There are no seats," Zhou Shuang said dejectedly.

Lu Yinan replied, "There's another cafe nearby, let's take a look."

Zhou Shuang nodded and agreed. Then something crossed her mind. "Sissy Lu, give me a moment. I need to go to the washroom."

As she said that, she turned around and walked towards the washroom.

Lu Yinan stood rooted to the spot. She had used his nickname 'Sissy Lu' so naturally. Although he was now used to it... he still felt indignant that it had rolled off her tongue so easily.

Just then, two customers opposite him stood up and left. He walked over hurriedly and took the seats.

Zhou Shuang emerged from the washroom and washed her hands. She walked towards him as she swung her hands in an attempt to dry them.

She looked towards the entrance and suddenly a familiar male voice sounded from her right. "Hey, isn't that Zhou Shuang?"

Zhou Shuang stopped in her tracks and her face froze.

She turned in the direction of the voice. A tall man in a black casual attire was grinning at her as he walked over. He was holding hands with a woman in her thirties.

She was dressed sexily.

The handsome man had black hair.

Shock flashed across her eyes and she let her hands fall to her sides. She clenched her fists.

She smiled enchantingly. "Hey, Zhang Tianyu, you haven't gotten rid of her yet?"

Chapter 1353: Various Public Displays of Affection (Part Sixteen)

Zhou Shuang sized up the sexy woman standing beside him.

There was a contemptuous look in her eyes.

Zhang Tianyu stared at her and shook his head. " Tch, tch. Zhou Shuang, you're still as hateful as ever."

Before she could reply, he looked at her belly and added, "Who did you sleep with this time and even got you pregnant?"

His words were close to derogatory.

Zhou Shuang's expression darkened. "Scram."

She then moved to brush past the both of them.

The woman beside Zhang Tianyu suddenly looked at Zhou Shuang and smiled sweetly. "Aren't you Zhang Tianyu's ex-girlfriend?"

Her question was full of mockery.

Zhou Shuang was hot-tempered and direct. So when she heard her words, she stopped in her tracks and replied, "Yes, I recognize you. Aren't you Zhang Tianyu's new fling?"

The woman's expression darkened. Before she could reply, Zhou Shuang grinned wider and she said, "You must be pretty good in bed. But here's some advice: You should take it slow when you're so old. After all, you're no match for those maidens in their twenties. Look, even your crow's-feet are showing."

She started it, so don't blame her for being nasty.

Then she walked closer to the woman and stared at her breasts, her lips curling upwards in mockery. "Aunt, it's cold today. Make sure that your implants don't freeze."

The woman became even more furious.

Zhang Tianyu hugged her waist tightly and gritted his teeth as he glared at Zhou Shuang. "With a personality like yours, no wonder no man wants you. Serves you right."

Zhou Shuang rarely held her tongue, all the more towards her b*stard ex-boyfriend. "You scum, I hope you get AIDS next year."

“So what if I’m a scum? You still fell for me,” Zhang Tianyu sneered. “Who was the one who refused to let go of me, saying ‘Tianyu, don’t leave me. I love you, I really love you...’? You’re worse than me.”

Then his gaze shifted to her tummy. “How else would you get yourself pregnant? Could the father of your kids have ditched you as well?”

Zhou Shuang raised her eyebrow coolly. “How’s that any of your business?”

“Indeed, it’s none of my business,” Zhang Tianyu said, his face turning vicious. “Zhou Shuang, you did so many unscrupulous things to me. You think that I didn’t know it was you? I was expelled and couldn’t get a place anywhere else. But it seems like you’re no better, with a belly so huge and as fat as a pig.”

Zhou Shuang folded her arms and retorted, “I’m happy right now. Serves you right that you couldn’t get a place in school.”

Zhang Tianyu’s expression turned even more vicious. “Why are you so vile? Do you love me that much? You want me to remember you forever?”

Zhou Shuang smiled coolly. She pointed at the male washroom and said, “The washroom is there. Go in, pee, and have a good look at yourself. ‘I want you to remember me forever’? Please don’t horrify me.”

“You...” Zhang Tianyu was so agitated, he couldn’t find the words to talk back. He glared at her and eventually turned his gaze towards her belly. “You’re so immoral, your children will have deformities for sure.”

Zhou Shuang’s mocking smile disappeared and she glared coolly at him. “Zhang Tianyu, are you looking for death?”

How dare he curse her children!

Then she saw a vase on the small table beside her. She rushed over and grabbed it, preparing to smash it on his head.

Chapter 1354: Various Public Displays of Affection (Part Seventeen)

Suddenly, a tall figure rushed over and snatched the vase out of her hands.

The next moment, the vase smashed on Zhang Tianyu’s head, just as Zhou Shuang had wanted.

His head started bleeding immediately.

“Gosh, Lu Yinan.” Zhou Shuang covered her mouth in shock. After smashing the vase on Zhang Tianyu’s head, Lu Yinan grabbed onto his collar and rained fists on him.

It was too violent.

Was he trying to kill him?

Zhou Shuang became worried. She rushed over and held him back. “Lu Yinan, that’s enough. Stop it.”

Lu Yinan turned his head and frowned at her. "You're feeling sorry for this b*stard?"

"I'm worried about you." The words rolled off her tongue.

She realized that she had spoken too rashly, and she bowed her head in embarrassment.

But Lu Yinan continued punching the man.

After a while, a crowd formed around them, and the employees rushed over to intervene.

Lu Yinan was pinning Zhang Tianyu to the ground, not giving the latter a chance to speak.

"Who are you?" Zhang Tianyu finally asked, his mouth full of fresh blood, after his eyes met Lu Yinan's.

Lu Yinan raised his eyebrow. "I'm the father of the children in Zhou Shuang's belly. What do you think?"

Zhang Tianyu smiled coldly. "Are you blind?"

"You're the one who's blind," Lu Yinan bit back, slapping him hard. "The next time you see the mother of my children stay away from her."

Then he stood up gracefully.

As if he wasn't the one who was beating him up moments ago.

Lu Yinan took his handkerchief out from his pocket and wiped the blood off his hands. Then he rolled it into a ball and threw it at Zhang Tianyu's face. "What rotten luck."

He then turned towards the cafe employees and smiled. "I will compensate for all your losses."

Indeed, he was a refined and reasonable man.

The employees stared back at him and nodded hurriedly.

Zhang Tianyu had to be sent to the hospital. The employees called the cops and Lu Yinan stayed to assist in their investigations.

He then left with Zhou Shuang.

When they exited the cafe, Zhou Shuang frowned at Lu Yinan. "Sissy Lu, you were too violent just now."

He had shocked her to death. She was really worried that he would beat Zhang Tianyu to death.

The children in her belly were his flesh and blood. Of course, he would be furious when Zhang Tianyu cursed them.

"Are you blind?" Lu Yinan glared at her.

"You're the one who's blind," she bit back, glaring at him. "Why did you curse me with blindness?"

To think that she had thought that he was cool and masculine when he was beating him up just now. Now, they were back to square one.

Lu Yinan frowned. "Why would you fall for him if you weren't blind? The word 'scum' is written all over his face. Didn't you see it?"

So that was what he meant...

Zhou Shuang pursed her lips. "He's obviously handsome."

When she had first set her eyes on him, it was indeed because of his good looks. But looking at him now, she really wondered if she was blind back then.

What did she see in him?

"Look at my face." Lu Yinan pointed at his face, making her look at him.

"What?" Zhou Shuang obliged grudgingly, her eyes full of suspicion.

Lu Yinan smiled. "Don't you see the word 'handsome' written all over my face?"

Zhou Shuang was speechless.

Chapter 1355: Various Public Displays of Affection (Part Eighteen)

Is narcissism an innate male ability?

Why were all of them so narcissistic? Especially Yan Rusheng—he's pretentious too.

Comparatively, Lu Yinan seems pretty decent.

"Are you thinking that I'm not bad after all?"

Zhou Shuang became guilty. Did this fellow read minds? How did he know what she was thinking?

She bowed her head and tucked her hands into her pockets. She kicked the floor, blushing and too embarrassed to look at Lu Yinan.

"This one," Lu Yinan said, suddenly grabbing her arm and pointing at a dessert shop ahead.

Zhou Shuang looked over. The shop was an international chain. It had two well-known branches in the capital city.

She nodded in agreement.

"Let's go," Lu Yinan said, grabbing hold of Zhou Shuang's elbow in a natural movement.

Zhou Shuang looked down at it. He was grabbing the area below her elbow.

He wasn't holding her hand; he was more like... supporting her. She pursed her lips, a complicated smile on her face.

"Hey, watch out..."

Suddenly, a football rolled towards them. Lu Yinan quickly tightened his grip on her arm when he saw it coming.

At the same time, he lifted his foot and stepped on the ball, stopping it. Then he turned to look toward where it came from. Three children were looking at them from afar.

There were two boys and a girl who was considerably younger than the boys. She was standing between them.

They were all citizens of Country M. They had blond hair, blue eyes, and were all good-looking.

“Hi, kick the ball over,” the small girl suddenly shouted daringly.

She waved her hands at him.

Lu Yinan frowned. A playful smile formed on his lips. “Why?”

The boys, flanking the girl, folded their arms, trying to act like adults. They glared at him and said, “That’s our ball.”

Lu Yinan continued frowning at them. “Did you know, your ball almost hit someone.”

“I’m sorry,” the girl replied with a shrug. “But it wasn’t on purpose,” she said, shaking her head.

Seeing her petite figure, Lu Yinan couldn’t hold it in any longer. He smiled and placed the ball down, kicking it lightly. The ball stopped right in front of the three children.

One boy picked it up and the other rubbed the girl’s head tenderly. “Darling, let’s go.”

She nodded obediently. Hand in hand with the two boys, they left.

Lu Yinan became lost in thought as he watched the three children, one hand in his pocket and the other holding Zhou Shuang’s arm.

Zhou Shuang also stared awhile longer at the three cute children before averting her gaze. Then she realized that Lu Yinan was staring blankly in the direction that the kids left in. She pouted and commented, “Lu Yinan, I remember that you were pretty good at football in senior high school.”

Lu Yinan retracted his gaze and glanced at Zhou Shuang. He smirked smugly and said, “Just ‘pretty good’?”

His skills were superb!

He even took part in the national youth football competitions.

Zhou Shuang looked contemptuously at him. “Tch, it was just a small comment. You don’t have to make a big fuss out of it.”

Then she shrugged his hand off and walked towards the dessert shop.

Actually, she had wanted to do it a long time ago. She wasn’t old—she didn’t need anyone to support her!

Chapter 1356: Various Public Displays of Affection (Part Nineteen)

Lu Yinan didn't care about her shrugging his hand off. He was used to her attitude towards him—as though he was full of pricks.

He caught up with her in no time, asking, "Have you gone for a prenatal checkup recently?"

Zhou Shuang nodded, then suspiciously looked at the man beside her. "Yes, what do you want?"

Why would he suddenly ask her about it?

They had already entered the desserts shop. There was an empty seat and Zhou Shuang walked towards it, sitting down.

Lu Yinan followed after her with anxious feet. He sat opposite her and asked with a smile, "Did the doctor tell you their genders?"

His gaze turned to Zhou Shuang's belly, eyes full of anticipation.

Zhou Shuang nodded, blinking. "Yes, she did."

Here, doctors could disclose the baby's gender.

Lu Yinan became excited. "Are they boys or girls?"

Zhou Shuang rolled her eyes at him. "Why should I tell you?"

So he was concerned about the genders of his children. Could this fellow be prejudiced against a certain gender?

Hmph. So what if he is? They're her children—her love for them would be enough. They didn't need his love.

Lu Yinan was speechless.

Zhou Shuang saw that Lu Yinan was about to continue pestering her so she picked up the menu and gave her order to the waiter.

After she was done, she looked up at him. "What do you want to drink?"

"Anything." Lu Yinan couldn't sit still. He was eager to know the genders of his three children.

It'll be good if they were two boys and a girl, just like the three kids earlier. He didn't know if the kids they saw just now were siblings, but he really liked how the two boys took care of the little girl.

Zhou Shuang frowned. "There's no 'anything' on the menu."

Lu Yinan didn't feel like deciding on what he wanted to drink, so he waved the waiter off, saying, "I'll get the same drink as her."

The waiter nodded before leaving.

Lu Yinan asked her, "Do you prefer boys or girls?"

He was going to trick her into revealing their genders. Or else, he wouldn't be able to sleep tonight.

Zhou Shuang shook her head. "I don't like either of them."

Actually, she didn't take a liking to kids. They were too annoying.

As for her own children, that was a different story.

Lu Yinan smiled and said, "Many people in my family love kids. After giving birth, you can relax and leave it to them."

Zhou Shuang smiled coolly. "You wish. Don't try to trick me; I'm not that stupid. The three children are mine. I'm not giving them to your family."

Lu Yinan was speechless.

Why couldn't he get through to this hooligan?

Young Master Lu was at the end of his tether. He frowned and asked, "You're giving birth to three children. Who else will want you other than myself?"

Zhou Shuang looked at him, amused. "Why would I want someone to want me? I must see if I want him first."

"Are the children boys or girls?" Lu Yinan asked again.

If she still would not reveal it, he was going to force it out of her.

Zhou Shuang grinned. "You want to know?"

Lu Yinan became furious. "Of course."

But from the evil look on her face, he knew that she wasn't going to give in to him so easily.

"Then I won't tell you. Hahaha..." Zhou Shuang said, lifting her head and laughing exaggeratedly.

At that moment, their beverages and desserts arrived.

Lu Yinan clenched his fists, staring at Zhou Shuang's smug face.

How he wanted to splash the beverage on her face!

Chapter 1357: Various Public Displays of Affection (Part Twenty)

Then he picked up the glass because he was frustrated with the exchange he had with Zhou Shuang. He wanted to quench his thirst.

He gulped it down, before realizing something.

Zhou Shuang also picked up the glass, ready to drink from it.

"Zhou Shuang," Lu Yinan suddenly called, extending his hand to snatch the glass out of her hands at the same time.

Zhou Shuang frowned. "Lu Yinan, what are you doing?"

Why did he snatch her glass away?

"The weather is so cold and you're drinking an iced beverage?" Lu Yinan chided before waving a waitress over.

She smiled and walked over. "Sir, how may I help you?"

Lu Yinan replied, "I want a glass of hot mango milk."

He passed her the glass of beverage that he snatched from Zhou Shuang. "Pour this away."

It slightly startled the waitress, but she smiled and replied, "Sure, please give me a moment."

She took the glass from him.

Zhou Shuang became anxious. "Do not pour it away. Pass it to me."

She pointed at the waitress. In her anxiousness, she sounded commanding.

The waitress hesitated, at a loss of what to do. She didn't listen to Zhou Shuang. Instead, she looked over at Lu Yinan.

Her action was an obvious sign of Zhou Shuang's lack of authority. Hmph!

Refusing to be looked down upon, Zhou Shuang glared at Lu Yinan. "Sissy Lu, who gave you the right to pour my drink away?"

They had been conversing in Chinese, but this time, Zhou Shuang used English, and she raised her voice.

It was obvious that she wanted the waitress and everyone around them to despise him.

The expression on his handsome face darkened. He furrowed his eyebrows and gritted his teeth, warning the woman seated opposite him. "Hooligan, please use my name in front of outsiders."

Zhou Shuang snorted. "I refuse. Sissy Lu, Sissy Lu, Sissy Lu..."

Her voice turned louder with each word.

Lu Yinan was furious, but he smiled. Ignoring Zhou Shuang, he said to the waitress, "Ignore her. The mother of my children has a screw loose up here."

He pointed at his head, his meaning clear as day.

Then he waved her off. "Pour it away. It's fine."

Lu Yinan's words were like an imperial edict. The waitress nodded and left immediately.

Zhou Shuang stomped her foot. Lu Yinan spitefully lifted his glass with both hands and gulped it down.

Zhou Shuang looked over, furious. His smug look made her feel like ripping his face apart.

Suddenly, something crossed her mind. A sly look flashed across her eyes.

"Ahh..." Zhou Shuang suddenly exclaimed, holding her belly in pain. She frowned and gave a face of pain.

"What's wrong?" Lu Yinan anxiously placed down his glass and stood up immediately, rushing over to her side. He asked worriedly, "Where are you feeling unwell?"

Zhou Shuang suddenly smirked and grabbed his drink, placing the straw in her mouth and sucking furiously.

Her series of actions was seamless.

She gripped the glass tightly, drinking smugly as she looked at Lu Yinan.

Lu Yinan was dumbfounded!

Only Hooligan Zhou would go through so much trouble for a glass of beverages.

As he looked at Zhou Shuang's smug face, he got lost in thought before smiling and shaking his head helplessly.

Chapter 1358: His Proposal (Part One)

Forget it. Let her drink it if she wants to.

"It's winter and you're taking such a cold drink. Can the children take it?" Lu Yinan asked, frowning at her belly, worried about his children.

It worried him that she would catch a cold and she had to be careful about taking medication. At the end of the day, she'd be the one to suffer.

Zhou Shuang glared unhappily at him. "Lu Yinan, can you stop being so shameless? Are you only concerned about the children?"

Then she continued drinking.

Wasn't he worried that she and the children would catch a cold? All the more she was going to drink and make his heart ache even more. Hmph!

Actually, she knew her limits. Her body was so warm, surely her children wouldn't catch a cold.

Her tone seemed to have a hint of... jealousy?

Lu Yinan could hear the bitterness in her voice. Seeing her frustrated look, it seemed as though she was just trying to make things difficult for him?

As he thought about it, his lips curled upwards. He leaned back in his seat and lazily looked at her. "I want to care about you, but you don't want it."

Zhou Shuang realized that she had spoken without thinking. She blushed profusely.

She bowed her head and mumbled softly, "I didn't ask for your concern."

Is this hooligan blushing for real?

Lu Yinan stared at Zhou Shuang, who was almost hiding her head below the table. He confirmed that she was embarrassed and couldn't hold himself back from teasing her. "You drank my beverage. I used that same straw just now."

Actually, he had wanted to mention that from the start.

Suddenly, she stopped drinking. She peered up at him and he seemed to stare deep into her soul, making her nervous.

She hurriedly averted her gaze.

Lu Yinan observed her reaction, satisfied at seeing her blush.

Zhou Shuang felt his gaze on her and she felt very uneasy although she didn't meet his gaze.

Her face... was getting hotter.

'I've had enough,' Zhou Shuang thought. She met his gaze and said, "So what if you've used it before? We already kissed in the morning. You've never tasted my saliva before? Huh?"

Then she placed the straw in her mouth, pretending that it was of no issue to her.

Lu Yinan was speechless...

Hooligan Zhou Shuang was probably the only woman in the world who would continue acting like a hooligan while blushing profusely.

He shook his head, amused.

To cover her awkwardness, Zhou Shuang finished the beverage.

Then she put the glass down, picking up her fork and starting at the dessert.

Lu Yinan was on his phone. Zhou Shuang didn't know what he was looking at. It seemed to capture all his attention, and he even smiled occasionally, so he should be texting someone.

The image of him smiling while chatting with the beautiful blond woman yesterday subconsciously floated into her mind.

She dipped her fork into the last bit of dessert, opened her mouth, and stuffed it into her mouth. Her mouth was stuffed like a bun.

She chewed arduously.

"Shuang."

Suddenly, Lu Yinan called and looked up at her.

Zhou Shuang covered her mouth. Her eyeballs bulged and then she started coughing vigorously.

She was obviously choking.

Chapter 1359: His Proposal (Part Two)

Lu Yinan quickly passed her the glass of mango milk. "Slow down. I'm not fighting with you for any of this."

Zhou Shuang took the mango milk from him and gulped it down. The horrible feeling left after a while, and she stopped coughing.

Then she looked up and glared at him. "Are you looking for death? Why did you call me so chummily?"

Heck, Xuxu was the only one who called her that!

Did he think that they were close?

He almost made her choke to death.

Lu Yinan pressed his lips together, speechless.

He had thought that she had accidentally choked, but it turned out that it was because of the name he called her.

Lu Yinan thought for a while before asking in amusement. "We already have children, why do we have to be so distant?"

Zhou Shuang blushed again. She pressed her lips together and unhappily said, "Why did you call me?"

"Are the children boys or girls?" Lu Yinan asked again.

Looking at his anxious face, Zhou Shuang smiled. She then glared at him with serious eyes and said, "Whether you'll find out depends on your performance today."

She snorted and looked elsewhere.

Depend on his performance today...?

So he just had to treat her like a queen the whole day?

That was easy. Even if she would not tell him their genders, he would still follow her around. After all, she was carrying his children.

Old Master had already said that if he doesn't bring Zhou Shuang home for this New Year's, he could forget about going home as well. He could roam the streets for New Year's instead.

Young Master Lu nodded. "Sure."

He then smiled and asked her, "My Queen, do you need anything?"

Zhou Shuang tilted her chin up arrogantly, ignoring him...

In the amusement park... Yan Rusheng's frown never left.

On the other hand, Xuxu and Su Yue were having the time of their lives, especially Su Yue.

There were little kids everywhere. Almost everyone came with kids.

F*ck. He, the president of Flourish & Prosper, was standing in this amusement park, carrying two handbags.

Indeed. Miss Wen was worried that Su Yue would be exhausted, so she had passed Su Yue's bag to Young Master Yan.

"Third sister-in-law, I want to watch this."

Since the start, Su Yue had tried every ride that she could. She stopped at the entrance of the 9D movie theater.

She pointed at the entrance.

Before Xuxu could reply, Yan Rusheng frowned. "What's so nice about that? I'll buy it for you when we head back to the capital city."

He sounded extremely impatient. Xuxu knew that he had endured enough and her heart ached for him.

Her gaze swept across the entire area and she saw a cafe. She pointed at it and said to him, "Ah Sheng, you can sit at the cafe and wait for us."

Yan Rusheng could hear the heartache in her voice and he reached out to grab her waist. He gazed at her and said, "Wife, my heart aches for you too."

Then he kissed her on the lips like there was no one around.

This was obviously a public display of affection.

In actual fact, he was always engaging in public displays of affection. When he bought drinks, he insisted that they share one, so both of them would fight over it. It was the same for food.

They had various public displays of affection.

Of course... Yan Rusheng started everything.

Chapter 1360: His Proposal (Part Three)

Su Yue was speechless. She looked at Yan Rusheng contemptuously before turning to Xuxu and saying, "Third sister-in-law, you should go to the cafe with third brother for a rest. I can play by myself and I'll find you later."

She knew that Xuxu was tired as well. She didn't get any rest since they entered.

She was having a whale of a time, but she knew that third sister-in-law wasn't interested in these things. She was just accompanying her.

Xuxu shook her head. "No, it's too crowded."

Su Yue frowned. "Don't worry. I'm not a kid anymore. You and third brother can take a rest. I'll go have fun."

She said as she pushed Xuxu away.

Yan Rusheng said to Xuxu, "Let her play by herself. Let's take a rest."

Xuxu wanted to say something, but Yan Rusheng immediately waved Su Yue off. "Su Yue, be careful. Call us if anything happens."

Then he wrapped his arms around Xuxu and dragged her away.

Xuxu frowned. She complained, "Yan Rusheng, there are so many people. You're not worried about her?"

Yan Rusheng frowned as well. "She's much more mature now. She's an adult. She's no longer the same girl she was when we first met her. Didn't you realize?"

"That's true, but..." Xuxu sighed. "But I'm worried."

Indeed, worrying had become her habit.

With time, anything could turn into a habit.

Xuxu turned her head to look at Su Yue. She looked ecstatic as she bounded into the 9D movie theater.

"Wen Xuxu."

Suddenly, Yan Rusheng called her unhappily.

Xuxu retracted her gaze. "What?"

Yan Rusheng looked unhappy. He said to her, "I hope that you can spend more time with me."

Xuxu was dumbfounded...

This fellow, has he had enough?

She crudely asked, "Are you unable to take care of yourself?"

"Stupid woman, are you cursing me?" Yan Rusheng frowned. A dangerous aura emanated from him.

"Ahh..." Xuxu retracted her neck, rushing away from Yan Rusheng.

But Yan Rusheng refused to let her off. He caught up with her, hugging her waist and carried her bridal style, spinning her around.

Su Yue wasn't there. At that moment, it was just the both of them...

Xuxu felt awkward at first, but after spinning one round, she felt better.

The small children passing by were blowing bubbles. The bubbles flew towards them, adding to the romantic atmosphere.

Xuxu extended her hand to catch one and it disappeared. She then stretched her hand out to catch another one.

Yan Rusheng stared at the woman in his arms, spinning slower. He looked at her from his height, watching her with a deep gaze full of warmth and gentleness.

Xuxu started blushing. "Why... Why are you staring at me?"

Yan Rusheng replied, "Xuxu, let's elope."

Xuxu was dumbfounded.

Yan Rusheng softly warned, "You're not allowed to bring any more 'light bulbs' on our next honeymoon."

This fellow, he was still harping on this? Xuxu was angry yet amused. But when she looked at Yan Rusheng's handsome face, it filled her eyes with tenderness.

She hugged his neck with both arms, suddenly extending her neck and giving him a quick peck. "You haven't proposed to me yet. Hmph."

Yan Rusheng laughed when he heard her. His laughter was bright and hearty, gaining the attention of all the women passing by.
