Chapter 941: Doesn't Enjoy Poking Her Head in Random Affairs

If this was the case, then Zhou Shuang must be crazy. She must be completely out of her mind.

Yan Rusheng certainly knew what Lu Yinan was thinking of. He calmly analyzed it, and he said, "Lu Yinan, I would suggest that you shouldn't be too rash about this matter. Zhou Shuang's personality might be unlikeable, but she isn't someone so scheming. Don't ruin everything because of a moment of rashness."

Lu Yinan sneered coldly. "If a woman was pregnant with your child, would you be able to sit here calmly?"

He tugged at his collar and breathed deeply. He put his hands on his waist.

Yan Rusheng placed his pen down and settled comfortably against his chair. He replied, "My woman is carrying my children and I cherish her like a precious gem. I want to put her in my mouth like how I would protect a treasure, but I fear that she might melt. I'm also afraid that I would freeze her if I hold her in my hand."

The corners of his mouth morphed into a smirk, and he looked smug.

"Hmph!" Lu Yinan snorted. "That's only because that woman is Wen Xuxu."

If it was some other woman, given his character, he might have sent the woman to the operating table by now.

"You and me... how can we be compared?" Yan Rusheng surveyed Lu Yinan with disdain. "I'm a loyal husband, and I've only slept with Wen Xuxu before. How can you compare yourself to me?"

He proudly raised his chin.

Lu Yinan almost spat out blood at his remarks, and he had a sudden urge to hurl the ashtray at him.

He corrected, "The women I sleep with must undergo an inspection first before taking a shower to disinfect. I'm a clean man."

Yan Rusheng waved his hands to dismiss his claims. "In reality, you slept with plenty of women."

It has nothing to do with being clean.

He doesn't want to argue with him anymore and pressed on. "So what you mind is not the children but their mother."

Lu Yinan frowned, stumped for words.

Because he was right, he doesn't mind having children. In a family like his, he would love to have as many as he could. But the prerequisite is that he needed to be a willing party, and he needed to plan ahead.

He doesn't want to become a father overnight as though he was being schemed.

The woman who would bear his children in the future could be someone he doesn't have any feelings with, but he could never tolerate someone whom he hated.

He hated that female hooligan so much that he would make a detour if ever they would cross paths. How could he possibly want her to have his children?

Yan Rusheng saw that Lu Yinan had clammed up and he paused for a moment. "Actually that night, you weren't even sure yourself. Both of you weren't sure, but the fact remains you've entered her room. This isn't entirely her fault, too. These accidents are so common. As long as you handle it appropriately, it isn't a big deal."

"Third Yan, did Wen Xuxu brainwash you?" Lu Yinan turned stony-faced as he warily sized him up. "Did she ask you to convey all these?"

Yan Rusheng smirked. "You think too much. My Xuxu doesn't enjoy poking her head in any random affairs."

He concluded with a smug look on his face.

Lu Yinan cast him a long, dirty look. "It really isn't easy for a man to be like you."

Yan Rusheng grinned and replied, "If you can be like me, it means that you have succeeded."

Lu Yinan had nothing left to say.

Indeed, Yan Rusheng was a winner in life.

His career was progressing well, and he had a happy marriage with Wen Xuxu. And their children are on the way.

Most importantly, it's the latter. That's what everyone wanted in life. He admitted that he wanted that, too.

But why hadn't he found someone to marry? Was it because he hadn't met the right one?

Chapter 942: Many Things to Do!

Why didn't Ming Ansheng marry his fiancée after being engaged for so long? The reason was he didn't love Tang Feiling.

After a while, he spoke again. "Carry on with your work. I'll get going."

He turned around and strode out of the room.

Yan Rusheng quietly watched as Lu Yinan left the room.

"Eh, isn't this Brother Lu?"

Lu Yinan bumped into Xin Yanting outside the office. She was holding a green folder while she was on her way to look for Yan Rusheng.

Pleasantly surprised, she warmly called out to him.

Lu Yinan grunted moodily in response and continued to walk in big strides.

"Hey, what's wrong with you?" shouted Xin Yanting after she noticed that something was amiss.

Lu Yinan ignored her and carried on walking out of the President's office.

"What happened?" Xin Yanting muttered under her breath as she watched Lu Yinan disappear from her sight. She turned around and knocked on Yan Rusheng's door.

"General Manager Xin, are you looking for President?" Qiao Jian hurried towards her with a smile.

On Xin Yanting's first day of work, Qiao Jian had stopped her from using the office next door. Hence, until now, Xin Yanting was still hostile towards him. She would always wear a frown when she saw him.

"Yes. Is there a need to report to you?" Xin Yanting replied haughtily and raised her chin.

Qiao Jian smiled and replied, "General Manager Xin, you're mistaken. I'll inform President."

He turned around and began to knock on Yan Rusheng's office.

Yan Rusheng's deep voice sounded. "Enter."

Qiao Jian pushed the door. "President..."

Xin Yanting interrupted him by swinging the door open. She rushed in.

"General Manager Xin." Qiao Jian scuttled after her for fear of incurring Yan Rusheng's wrath.

The President had instructed him that no one was to enter his office without his permission.

He followed behind Xin Yanting and Yan Rusheng threw him a swift glance. Qiao Jian stopped in his tracks and turned to leave.

"Yan Rusheng." After Qiao Jian left, Xin Yanting stormed towards Yan Rusheng and bent to peer at him.

Yan Rusheng pushed his chair back to extend the distance between them.

He furrowed his eyebrows, barely concealing his dislike for her. "General Manager Xin, what happened?"

Xin Yanting overlooked the way he retreated from her. Even if he retreated, all she had to do was take a step forward.

Xin Yanting walked forward once more and stared at him, looking indignant. "Why do I have to use so much effort to enter your office every time?"

"Knocking on the door is a basic courtesy," Yan Rusheng lightly replied and carried on to stop Xin Yanting from talking. "However, it's my right to decide if I want to see you even if you wish to see me."

"You!" Xin Yanting angrily pointed at Yan Rusheng and was about to throw a fit. Her mind was racing and her eyes flickered to and fro as an idea struck her. She changed her attitude and began to whine sweetly. "Can't you be more gentle with me?"

Yan Rusheng's mouth twitched and he coldly responded, "General Manager Xin, I've just eaten."

He might puke at this rate.

Xin Yanting continued to pout. "But I haven't eaten. I wanted to have a meal with you."

Yan Rusheng was speechless.

There was no way he could communicate with this shameless and thick-skinned.

He snarled, "General Manager Xin, can you please leave if there is nothing else? I have many things to do."

Chapter 943: Bothering Him Every Day

He knew that Xin Yanting wouldn't leave so easily and so he shouted, "Qiao Jian!"

The moment Yan Rusheng shouted for Qiao Jian, Xin Yanting knew what was coming.

She spoke shrilly once more, and then she glared at Yan Rusheng. "Don't you want my 30% shares?"

Yan Rusheng tightly clenched his fists at the mention of the shares. His expression darkened. "General Manager Xin, I think I should call President Jiang. I need a replacement as I can't function at work with you bothering me every day."

He rose and rounded his desk with his phone in his hand.

Xin Yanting was anxious. "Alright then. I'll leave now. Don't call my mom."

She bolted for the door after she had turned around.

Yan Rusheng placed his phone down after Xin Yanting vanished from sight. A streak of cold gleam flashed across his eyes.

'Don't you want my 30% shares.'

...

The corridors of the hospital were silent that night. Xuxu reached Bai Lisong's ward and gently pushed the door.

Su Yue and Bai Jing were sitting on the couch as they shared a phone. They were watching a video while Bai Lisong laid fast asleep.

She carefully trod towards them and Su Yue raised her head. She beamed at Xuxu and whispered, "Third sister-in-law."

Xuxu put a finger on her mouth to hush her as she cast a look at Bai Lisong.

Bai Jing's eyes looked swollen. It seemed like she had been crying the entire day.

Xuxu's heart sank a little as she walked over. She placed the food on the table and whispered to Bai Jing, "I brought dinner for you. Eat something first."

Bai Jing rejected her offer. "I don't feel like eating."

She lowered her head and her fingers fidgeted.

“Third sister-in-law, she hasn’t eaten anything the entire day.” Su Yue pouted. She felt sorry for Bai Jing.

Xuxu sat down beside Bai Jing and gently gripped her shoulders. “You need to eat, if not how would you take care of your father?” advised Xuxu.

“Daddy...” Bai Jing softly sobbed. “Dad lost his appetite because of the pain.”

Xuxu’s eyes began to glisten, and she firmly said, “He will recover eventually. You should eat or else your father will get worried.”

She stretched her hand to open the food containers. She brought it to Bai Jing.

Bai Jing stole a glance at the white rice, and her tears fell into it.

Su Yue hastily pulled some tissues to wipe them away. “Don’t cry. My third sister-in-law is right. If you won’t eat, your dad will be sad.”

Su Yue and Xuxu continued to console Bai Jing, and they managed to persuade her when she finally nodded. The girl held the food container.

Xuxu passed her a pair of chopsticks.

Bai Jing ate the rice without touching the rest of the dishes.

No matter how Su Yue offered.

Xuxu understood how hard it was to eat when a person has no appetite, so she didn’t force Bai Jing to eat a lot. It was okay as long as she still ate and doesn’t harm her own health.

Seeing her father in such a state, she was filled with an overwhelming sadness. Hence, they shouldn’t rush her.

Bai Jing placed the container down after a few mouthfuls and glanced at Bai Lisong. She softly heaved a sigh of relief upon seeing her father sound asleep.

She peered at her own hands with a frown, looking low-spirited.

Chapter 944: What Did You Say to Her?!

“Third sister-in-law, Third Brother is here.”

Su Yue caught a glimpse of Yan Rusheng as his tall form appeared at the door. She informed Wen Xuxu first instead of directly addressing Yan Rusheng.

Bai Jing raised her head as well as Yan Rusheng strode towards them. Her raven-black eyes were glistening.

Yan Rusheng stood and surveyed the food containers. He knew that Bai Jing barely touched her food judging from the leftovers.

He glanced at Bai Jing. "If you get hungry in the middle of the night, you can call and ask for food delivery."

His eyes didn't linger on Bai Jing and darted to Xuxu. "When did you arrive?"

Xuxu replied, "A short while ago."

She rose and rounded the table. When she reached Yan Rusheng, both of them glanced at Bai Lisong at the same time.

He was still asleep, but he had knitted his eyebrows together. It must have been hard to get over the pain even while he was fast asleep.

Yan Rusheng left after a short while.

Xuxu grabbed her bag and held Su Yue's hand. Su Yue followed her out of the door before halting. She whispered, "Third sister-in-law, can I stay with Bai Jing?"

Bai Jing was trailing behind them and interjected before Xuxu could answer. She said, "Su Yue, go home first. I don't need you to accompany me. I'm fine."

Xuxu nodded in agreement. "Yes. Yueyue, why don't you come back tomorrow?"

They had hired a male caregiver to take care of Bai Lisong during the night. With a girl around, it wouldn't be so convenient.

Su Yue obediently nodded. "Alright then."

She glanced at Bai Jing once more. "I'll head here tomorrow with Brother Qi Lei."

Bai Jing pressed her lips in a straight line, and it seemed like she had no objection.

Xuxu tightened her grip on Su Yue's hand after she had seen that Yan Rusheng already reached the corner. She had guessed that he came over as soon as he had gotten off from work without having dinner. She said to Su Yue, "Let's go."

Su Yue waved at Bai Jing.

Bai Jing stood at the door and watched them walk to Yan Rusheng.

Su Yue said something to Yan Rusheng, and all the while he had a tender smile on his face.

It was a smile that could melt ice—it was so warm and gentle.

...

They were about to walk out of the elevator when Yan Rusheng's phone rang. He glanced at the screen and picked up the call when he saw that it was Lu Yinan. "Hello."

He suddenly paused in his tracks and glanced at Xuxu.

It puzzled Xuxu when Yan Rusheng passed her the phone. "Lu Yinan is looking for you."

'Why is Lu Yinan looking for me?' Xuxu thought to herself. Xuxu received the phone and answered.

Lu Yinan sounded impatient and irritated over the phone. "Did Zhou Shuang look for you? Do you know where is she now?"

'So he was calling to look for Zhou Shuang!'

'But why is this fellow frantically looking for Zhou Shuang?'

"I was with her in the afternoon. After lunch, she went back home," Xuxu answered. "What's wrong?"

Lu Yinan replied, "I know. I met her this afternoon."

"She didn't look for me since then." A thought struck Xuxu and she began to get anxious. "What did you say to her?"

They had already informed the Lu family of Zhou Shuang's pregnancy. It must be the reason Lu Yinan was looking for her.

Chapter 945: Lu Family's Punishment!

Both of them were like enemies, and they would definitely quarrel the moment they meet.

It frustrated Lu Yinan. He impatiently replied, "Alright, I'm hanging up now."

Xuxu opened her mouth but before she could get her words out—the call had ended.

She furrowed her eyebrows, looking worried. The day was getting dark, where could Zhou Shuang be?

She passed the phone back to Yan Rusheng and took out hers. She tried calling Zhou Shuang, but she had shut down her phone.

"They must have quarreled this afternoon." Xuxu was worried stiff. "Lu Yinan must have said something to aggravate her."

She knew Zhou Shuang very well. Lu Yinan must have provoked and agitated her. That was why she had turned off her phone and left without a word. But it wasn't something usually she would do.

Yan Rusheng said, "Don't worry. Let's go to the car first."

He held her hand and pulled her closer to him. Su Yue followed like a little tail behind them.

Yan Rusheng ignited the car engine while Xuxu carried on calling Zhou Shuang. She tried sending her texts but there wasn't any reply.

She dialed Lu Yinan's number.

"Hello."

When Lu Yinan answered, Xuxu impatiently asked, "Lu Yinan, what did you say to Zhou Shuang this afternoon?!"

"I'm very frustrated now," Lu Yinan answered. He sounded irritated.

"If anything were to happen to Zhou Shuang—"

Xuxu didn't get to finish her sentence when Lu Yinan abruptly hung up. She was livid. "What kind of man is he? No sense of responsibility at all!"

She rarely lost her temper, and she rarely criticized someone so harshly.

Yan Rusheng knew that she was really worried for Zhou Shuang.

He deliberated for a moment before dialing Lu Yinan's number.

"Third Yan, did Wen Xuxu ask you to call me?" Lu Yinan sounded as irritated as before. "I'm really in no mood to talk. Stop bothering me."

"Lu Yinan, where are you now?" asked Yan Rusheng.

"Home," curtly replied Lu Yinan.

Yan Rusheng hung up, changed direction, and drove to Lu Yinan's house.

The Lu family stayed a short distance from the Jiang family in the same area. The Lu mansion was luxurious, grand and brightly lit.

But the atmosphere was strangely quiet and subdued.

The butler saw Yan Rusheng and immediately opened the courtyard gates. He courteously greeted them, "Third Young Master, Third Madam Yan."

Xuxu politely nodded at the butler and closely followed behind Yan Rusheng.

Su Yue remained in the car.

"Get lost! If you can't find her, then don't come back!"

Xuxu and Yan Rusheng had just reached the entrance when they heard Old Master Lu's deafening roar. It seemed to shake the entire mansion.

Xuxu badly trembled that she instinctively stopped dead in her tracks.

"It's alright." Yan Rusheng stretched his hand to hold her tightly. He smiled. "Grandfather Lu might be happy to see you."

Xuxu pressed her lips and followed Yan Rusheng inside.

There wasn't a servant in sight. Old Master Lu stood in the center of the living room with a walking stick and was bellowing at Lu Yinan, who had his head bowed.

The walking stick wasn't to aid the old man. Instead, it was for the old master to carry out the Lu family's punishment.

Only Yan Rusheng knew that.

When Yan Rusheng saw the walking stick in the old man's hand, his eyes narrowed warily. He understood how livid Old Master Lu must have been.

Lu Yinan's parents, including his aunts and uncles, stood silently around them. Apparently, no one dared to stop Old Master Lu.

If anyone dared to, they would definitely be implicated.

"I'm asking you to look for her!" The old man raised his walking stick once more and hit Lu Yinan's arm with force.

Chapter 946: He Can't Do Anything to You

Lu Yinan's mother was watching anxiously from the side, crying as her husband held on to her.

Witnessing such a scene, Xuxu hurried forward in shock. "Grandfather Lu."

Everyone turned to look at Xuxu when they heard her voice, including Old Master Lu.

"Xuxu. Third Yan. Why are both of you here?"

He asked as he put down his walking stick. A surprised look was evident on his face.

Xuxu smiled. "We came over to look for Lu Yinan. Zhou Shuang is looking for him."

The entire Lu family heaved a huge sigh of relief.

Xuxu was literally Lu Yinan's savior. If she didn't appear, Old Master Lu might have already beaten him to death or perhaps peeled a layer of his skin off.

"You found her?" Old Master Lu's eyes were sparkling. He continued, "Didn't this chap say she was missing?"

The older generation placed paramount emphasis on their future descendants.

He never met up with Zhou Shuang before, but he still sounded concerned about the woman's well-being and her whereabouts. He would naturally feel that way for she was expecting Lu Yinan's children.

Xuxu hesitated briefly before lying. "Yeah, we just found her. Don't be so worried."

"Lass, tell me all about it. What happened exactly?" Old Master Lu grabbed Xuxu's hand and led her to the sofa.

He then glanced at the remaining family members and continued, "All of you listen well. Listen to the trouble that this foolish chap had caused."

"Errr..." Xuxu became awkward as the corners of her mouth twitched.

"Yinan, come with me. I'll put medicine for you." Lu Yinan's mother dabbed at her eyes and closed in on him.

"Nobody can leave!" Old Master Lu bellowed with a fierce glare.

Lu Yinan's mother dropped his hand as if she had just touched a hot iron.

"Speak," Old Master Lu commanded Xuxu.

Xuxu peered at Lu Yinan, at a loss for words. What was she supposed to say?

Yan Rusheng pressed his lips, trying his best not to laugh.

Old Master Lu saw Xuxu, who remained quiet, glanced at Lu Yinan. He said, "Just speak your mind, you don't have to spare a thought for him. Neither do you need to fear him. With Third Yan around, he can't do anything to you."

Yan Rusheng secretly approved of the old man's words. He was absolutely right!

With him, with Yan Rusheng around, no one could do anything to Wen Xuxu.

"It happened during my sister Su Yue's birthday party. Lu Yinan and Zhou Shuang had a drink too much. So... in the end..."

"I heard that this chap kept bullying the girl?"

"Er..." Xuxu raised her head to glance at Lu Yinan.

Lu Yinan furrowed his eyebrows, feeling indignant.

She really had no inkling on how to answer his question. And if she were to nod, Lu Yinan would have to endure another beating.

She glanced over to the left and saw how Lu Yinan's mother had cast her a pleading look.

She understood that his mother was feeling sorry for her son. So she let Lu Yinan escape the punishment for tonight. Besides, she needed to know what had happened between him and Zhou Shuang earlier that afternoon.

She turned towards to face Old Master Lu. "They merely bickered whenever they meet. There wasn't any real bullying involved. They were just fooling around."

Lu Yinan's mother breathed easy once more.

Old Master Lu retracted his murderous gaze from Lu Yinan and tugged at Xuxu's arm once more. "Xuxu, tell me more about that girl's family."

Since the old man was asking about her background and family, he must have intended for Zhou Shuang to marry into their family.

She overlooked Zhou Shuang's willingness to get married since the question wasn't anything private. Xuxu honestly answered, "Her mother is a diplomat, and her father has his own business. Both of her parents are in Country M."

Elite Doting Marriage: Crafty Husband, Aloof Cute Wife

Chapter 947: Lu Yinan, You've Gone Too Far!

"Oh, a diplomat." Old Master Lu nodded in satisfaction. "Her family background is pretty good, so I expect that they had brought their children up well!"

Lu Yinan snorted upon hearing this remark. "Mm, not too bad, good at spewing profanities."

Old Master Lu looked up and yelled at him, "Shut up!"

It dumbfounded Xuxu.

She deliberated before smiling at Old Master Lu and explained, "Grandfather Lu, it's better for the two to talk over it. No point getting all worked up here. If they can't come to an agreement, then nothing will work out. Why don't you let Lu Yinan meet up with Zhou Shuang first? Let them sit down and talk it over calmly, okay?"

Her words made sense and Old Master Lu nodded in agreement. "Alright, then let the girl know that as long as she's willing, she'll marry into the Lu family in an impressive wedding."

It dumbfounded Xuxu.

They were already at the era in which one could freely choose to marry, okay?

No more arranged marriages, alright?!

"Xuxu, please let the lady know that she has nothing to fear because Lu Yinan has no say in this," said Old Master Lu with a pat on her shoulder. He then walked Xuxu to the door.

He looked pleasant, a far cry from his earlier imposing demeanor.

Xuxu gave a silly smile. "Okay, okay, I got it."

Just how desperate was this Old Master yearning for grandchildren of his own?

"Now, the eldest already had children, the second one will get married soon, and Third Yan is next. Next time, when Third Yan has children—"

Grandmother used to be like this too.

Xuxu's expression fell at the thought of Wang Daqin. She spun around and ran after Yan Rusheng and Lu Yinan.

When they got into the car, the old master was still standing at the door, looking at them with anticipation.

Suddenly, Xuxu thought of playing as a matchmaker to bring Lu Yinan and Zhou Shuang together—in an attempt to complete the old man's wish of having great grandchildren.

She had thought of it mainly because when grandmother left without a word it had left her with many regrets.

However, this thought merely flashed across her mind.

She inwardly laughed. Marriage was not as simple as getting a matchmaker to bring two people together.

What was more important were the feelings of both parties—whether both of them could get along or not.

Yan Rusheng started the car engine. Lu Yinan sat at the front passenger seat while Xuxu and Su Yue sat behind.

When the car drove to an intersection, Xuxu looked at Lu Yinan and asked, “Lu Yinan, what did you say to Zhou Shuang when you saw her this afternoon? What have you done to upset her that she had to turn off her cellphone?”

Lu Yinan answered in an annoyed tone. “What has this got to do with me?”

Xuxu saw Lu Yinan’s attitude and her voice turned cold. “For your information, she had no intention to keep the baby.”

If it wasn’t because the ultrasound revealed that she was expecting triplets, she would have signed the papers that day for a procedure.

Lu Yinan sneered. “Ha, if she had no intention to keep the baby, then why did she make this matter known to everyone?”

“Lu Yinan, you’ve gone too far.” Xuxu’s face fell. She snapped, “Do you really think Zhou Shuang was plotting to marry into the Lu family? Although her family is less well-to-do than yours, she still has enough to spend even if she doesn’t work for the rest of her life. Would she need to scheme against you? You think you’re so good-looking?”

Lu Yinan felt crossed when he heard those words. He flew into a rage out of humiliation and turned back to glare at Wen Xuxu. “Wen Xuxu!”

Before Yan Rusheng had the chance to speak, Xuxu coldly snorted. “What I said was true. Even if you don’t want the baby, you shouldn’t have spoken to her so harshly. You’re a man, don’t you think you should bear the responsibility as well?”

Elite Doting Marriage: Crafty Husband, Aloof Cute Wife

Chapter 948: I Saw Sister Hooligan!

Lu Yinan fell silent.

Xuxu’s anger also gradually diminished and had recomposed herself. “She’s a woman, after all. Have you spared a thought for her feelings when this all happened?”

She paused for a moment before she continued. “The truth is, you have nothing to lose. Anyone could afford that small amount of procedure fee, and you could shrink back from your responsibilities without a second thought. But the amount of pain she has to go through and the immense damage done to her body would be something you could never comprehend. It’s best you lower down your pride and calmly talk it over with her. You won’t stand to lose anything.”

Lu Yinan continued to remain silent.

Yan Rusheng took a peek at Lu Yinan, who appeared to be examining his own conscience, and he laughed. He turned back to look at Xuxu. “Wife, your ‘Chicken Soup for the Soul’ is so marvelous.”

Xuxu threw him a fierce glare. “Shut up.”

They couldn't find Zhou Shuang anywhere and no one knew where she was. Yet he was still in the mood to joke with her.

She added, "Knowing Zhou Shuang, if you really said something nasty to her, she would most likely visit the hospital herself for an abortion."

When such words were said, not only Lu Yinan but Yan Rusheng also started to feel anxious.

Yan Rusheng said, "Let's check out the hospitals."

Xuxu knitted her eyebrows. "There're so many hospitals in the Capital City. Which one do we start with?"

"She had already gone missing for the entire afternoon, could she have already..." Lu Yinan opened his eyes wide in fear. He didn't have the courage to think further.

Xuxu snorted as she thought, 'He finally knows what fear and worry are!' Xuxu looked at Lu Yinan and uttered, "If it wasn't because she was pregnant with triplets, she would have gone ahead with the procedure when we were at the hospital earlier this morning. Did you really think she wanted you to find out?"

After a brief pause to observe Lu Yinan's expression, she continued, "I think it was my mother who informed your family about this matter. She thought that maybe if Zhou Shuang terminated her pregnancy, it would be a pity since she's carrying triplets."

It shocked Lu Yinan. "Aunt Mu Li was the one who told them?"

'How could he have assumed that Zhou Shuang was the one who told his family members? What was wrong with these men? Why were they all so opinionated?'

They thought they were all in high demand that everyone couldn't wait to flock to them?

Xuxu knitted her eyebrows and sounded annoyed. "Yes, Zhou Shuang couldn't decide for she was scared and worried. Thus, I suggested that she spoke to my mother for advice. I didn't expect that she would spill the beans to your family."

Yan Rusheng nodded and added, "Mm, this is indeed Mu Li's style."

He paused as a thought flashed past his mind. He then offered a gloomily look at Lu Yinan. "But how did you manage to make triplets?"

It was clear from his tone he was feeling indignant.

He was already proud of his achievements of having twins he felt valiant and spirited amongst his circle of friends. But his smugness didn't live long when this chap overtook his achievements with three triplets.

It dumbfounded Xuxu.

Indeed, like mother like son!

Lu Yinan was feeling a little pleased in his heart. "Ha, I can easily make a national soccer team."

Xuxu was speechless.

'Crap! Hanging around these young masters can really ruin one's moral values.'

The most important thing now is to look for Zhou Shuang, and to hunt her down, okay?

"Third sister-in-law, I think I saw sister hooligan."

Su Yue, who was clutching her cellphone and had kept silent throughout, suddenly exclaimed.

Hearing this, everyone got excited and Xuxu leaned closer to Su Yue. "Where's she?"

Lu Yinan also eagerly turned back.

Su Yue pointed to the screen on her phone and said, "Police station."

She removed her earphones after that and showed her phone to everyone.

Chapter 949: I'm Really Not Selling My Kidneys!

'At around 4 in the afternoon, XX Police Station raided an unlicensed gynecology clinic. The clinic was also suspected of being involved in the black market organ trade. The police had arrested a few suspects spotted on the scene, as well as some who had just signed a contract to sell their organs...'

When Xuxu saw the news footage, she spotted a familiar figure from the screen. She immediately recognized the person to be Zhou Shuang even when the picture was pixilated.

The corners of her mouth involuntarily twitched.

'Tch. Is this fellow born on an inauspicious day?'

How could she go to an illegal hospital for an abortion and end up being arrested? Her organs should still be intact since she was still walking around with ease.

At least... she could set her mind at ease.

Yan Rusheng was laughing so hard that his sides almost split. He found it hard to drive.

Xuxu knitted her eye and instructed, "Go to XX police station."

Yan Rusheng uttered 'oh' in between laughs.

On the other hand, Lu Yinan's good-looking face turned as dark as the bottom of a saucepan. "She's not only average looking with a bad temper but outright dumb as well."

Did he also find it hilarious and wanted to laugh?

'Zhou Shuang, have you got a pig's brain? There are so many hospitals in the Capital City. Why did you have to go to an underground hospital? You're really—'

'But thank goodness!'

'Huh?' His own thoughts startled Lu Yinan. With a frown, he asked himself, 'Why thank goodness?'

...

At XX Police Station.

Zhou Shuang was trying her best to explain to the police officer why she was at the underground hospital. "I was really there for another type of operation and went in by mistake."

No one encountered such issues during an abortion, yet her attempted procedure led her to the police station. What rotten luck!

"Is Zhou Shuang your name?" asked a police officer. He pointed to a signature at the bottom of a document.

Zhou Shuang nodded. "Yes, it's me."

The police officer then pointed to the content of the document and explained, "This is the contract to the selling of kidneys. Have a good look."

It dumbfounded Zhou Shuang. She didn't look at the content of the document when she signed it. She felt lousy then and only wanted for them to do the procedure as quick as possible so she wouldn't have anything to do with the jerk Lu Yinan afterward.

She explained further, "My dear police officer, I have two latest iPhone in my bag."

She unzipped her bag and searched for the said phone as she spoke. "There are many more at home and I can give it to you as a gift if you want. So why would I need to sell my kidneys?"

'Eh? Where're my phones?'

Zhou Shuang rummaged through her bag but she could not find her phones.

She turned back and looked at the doctor in a white robe who was kneeling on the floor. Something came into her mind, so she grabbed hold of the police officer's arm. She said, "They must have stolen my phones while I was in the hospital."

The police officer shoved her hand off. "Don't quibble further. I'm trying to protect you so you better come to your senses."

Zhou Shuang was feeling helpless. "Brother, I'm really not selling my kidneys. I am rich and not in lack."

She searched for her purse but... she couldn't find it, too.

'Oh my god!' What sins had she committed in her past life?

To be so down in luck in this life.

Xuxu stood at the door and witnessed Zhou Shuang giving all she could to explain to the police officer. She laughed until her stomach hurt.

Lu Yinan's face turned black. He looked at Zhou Shuang with disdain.

Were there anymore dumb and idiotic women in the world?

How could she not realize that they stole her purse and phones? What other items were in her bag?
How could she not sense it?

If their three babies were born, he wondered if they would inherit the dumb woman's low IQ.

Zhou Shuang supported her forehead with her palm to calm herself down before she continued to explain to the police officer. "There's really no need for me to sell my kidneys. Lend me your cellphone so I could make a call to my friend. You'll be in for a shock."

"Little girl, stop boasting. Call your family members to bail you instead." The police officer added, "Don't be so foolish next time. You're still so young, it's not that difficult to get a job and support yourself. Your parents gave you your body, and you're finished if you were to sell your organs."

'Slam.' Zhou Shuang felt anxious. She slammed the table in fury and yelled at the police officer. "I already told you I didn't sell my kidneys. I wasn't selling!"

'Damn it.' Today had already been a very frustrating day, and yet she had herself arrested and scorned by the police for being a lazy bum who sold her kidneys for money. It was really an insult to her.

The police officer was not someone to trifle with. Seeing her arrogant behavior, he too slammed his hand on the table before pointing at Zhou Shuang. "Why are you yelling?!"

Witnessing this situation, Xuxu hurried over. "Officer."

A few police officer had heard her voice, and they all spun their heads to look at the door at the same time. Upon seeing Yan Rusheng's presence, they were visibly startled.

They hadn't met Yan Rusheng in person, but they had frequently seen him on the media and newspapers.

"Oh, isn't he—isn't he—" A police officer fixed his gaze on Yan Rusheng. He stuttered in shock. "Third Young Master."

Yan Rusheng strode over and pointed at Zhou Shuang before saying, "She's my friend."

It surprised the police officer. "She's Third Master's friend?"

Zhou Shuang held her chin high. She cockily said, "See, I've already told you but you didn't believe."

Xuxu walked over and threw her a fierce glare. "You gave me such a fright."

"So it's a misunderstanding after all." The police officer smiled and bowed at Yan Rusheng.

Yan Rusheng offered a small, polite smile, and he remained silent.

Just then, Lu Yinan appeared before Zhou Shuang like a flash of lightning. He gripped her wrist and dragged her out of the door.

"Hey, what are you trying to do?" Zhou Shuang put up a struggle and refused to leave with him.

Xuxu saw Lu Yinan's boorish behavior and frowned in annoyance. "This guy!"

After they left the police station, Zhou Shuang forcefully flung her hand away from Lu Yinan and roared, "Lu Yinan, what are you doing? Why did you drag me?"

"Why did you go for an abortion?" Lu Yinan looked at Zhou Shuang as if he was examining a criminal.

Zhou Shuang rolled her eyes at him. "None of your business."

After that, she crossed her arms and shook her leg like a ruffian.

Lu Yinan looked at her and scorned, "As a woman, can you be more cultured?"

Zhou Shuang coldly lifted an eyebrow. "I'm sorry but I'm like this. What can you do?"

Lu Yinan answered, "I don't want to get involved, so please don't get arrested again."

"Why do you have to worry when I'm at the police station? It's not as if you're the one arrested." Zhou Shuang rolled her eyes at Lu Yinan once more and walked away from him.

Lu Yinan turned back and looked at that willful and determined figure. His hand violently trembled with rage. "You."

He ran after her and stood in front of her.

Zhou Shuang frowned impatiently. "Get lost and don't block my path, you irritating fellow."

"Give birth to the babies and I'll raise them up." Lu Yinan surprisingly calmed down, and his voice turned soft.

But his grandeur and arrogant aura still exuded. His words sounded more like a command with no room for discussion.

Zhou Shuang sneered. "You are funny. The babies don't belong to you, so even if I were to give birth to them, you won't stand a chance to raise them."

Lu Yinan knew that he was in the wrong and his attitude softened. "I've said it wrong and I hereby apologize to you. Please don't be unreasonable anymore."
