

Chapter 18:

Elle's POV:

"Your not actually wearing that are you?" Aurora asked me.

"Umm yeah it's bloody freezing and we are going to be right next to the beach." I stated in all seriousness.

"That snowsuit of yours, well my mother's, isn't exactly very accessible." she said.

"What do you mean accessible," then I realised what she meant, "eww did you really think that I was going to let you have all this? You can't handle all this." I said with a smirk.

"Oh really?" she said whilst raising one eyebrow.

I'm in trouble.

She grabbed me by my hips face on and shoved me back, firmly so that I hissed in pain from the impact of the wall. Her eyes looked straight ahead as if she even needed to ask for permission, of course I was going to give it to her, I quickly granted her permission to do anything to me. Before I knew it, her lips captured mine in a hungry kiss. I grinded against her thigh which she had strategically placed in between my legs. Suddenly I felt a sharp pain in my lower lip where she had bitten down, drawing blood. She pulled back, leaving me with a metallic taste in my mouth.

"Wh-what are y-you doing?" I panted.

"A er," she stated simply.

Are you fucking kidding me? I was proper getting into that and everything, guess I will have to wait.

"Ugh your so annoying." I whined.

The air was cold and bitter just like I thought it was going to be but my scarf, hat and gloves were keeping me warm. Aurora had placed the picnic blanket down on the sand and then proceeded to lay out everything that she had bought with her.

She actually adorable.

"N-next time c-could we d-do this when it's warmer." I stuttered.

"Your such a pussy." she laughed.

"Just wait until you get colder, I can already see your lip starting to shake." I said as I narrowed my eyes at her.

"Also did you just say next time? As in you want to do this again with me?" she questioned.

I rolled my eyes. "Of course I want to go on another picnic date with my girlfriend. Anyway I had one planned for this weekend and I even bought a nice outfit and everything for it but you brought me here instead so I guess that makes up for it, only by a lil though."

"Just a lil?"

"Okay maybe a lot but what can I say, your hot as fuck."

"Actually I'm kinda c-cold now." she shivered.

"I literally told you that this would happen." I said proudly. "Should we head back now?" I asked.

"Umm yeah."

Once we made it back into the warm log cabin I started to make us both some hot chocolates whilst Aurora tried to warm herself up by the fire.

"Sooooo..."

"What do you want Elle." she asked me slightly annoyed because I always say that when I want something.

"You know how earlier you said a er," she nodded, "well is a er now?" I asked.

"Yes Elle a er is now but could we wait like a few more minutes so I can warm up a bit more. Actually you go upstairs now and then I will come and join you." she said as she finished the last of her hot chocolate.

Aurora's POV:

Recently I have been wanting to kinda spice up our sex life but I never really know how so I thought that having a change of scenery would give me just a little edge.

I made my way up the stairs to where Elle was, only to find she was ready and waiting for me. Like the good little slut that she is.

Outside of the bedroom I tend to come across as quite conserved but as soon as that door is looked it all changes. One thing that doesn't change is my need from control, from getting the group task finished myself to making Elle beg for more. And tonight that is exactly what I have planned.

"What took you so long?" she pouted.

"I was warming up." I said sternly as I made my way over too where she was lay on her side. "I see that you were waiting for me."

"No shit, you kinda le me earlier." she whined.

"I'm sorry baby but I promise I'm going to make it up to you." I smirked.

Elle manoeuvred herself so that she was sat on the edge of the bed patiently waiting for me whilst I stripped down to just my blue lingerie. I pushed her back onto the bed and proceeded to straddle her legs. We then started to make out aggressively, then I made my way down to her neck, leaving bruises and marks. My hand cupped her breast and started twisting her hard nipples with my fingertips. I then flipped her over so that she was now lay on her stomach and proceeded to caress her perfectly shaped ass. Her hips thrusted backwards just to gain the slightest bit of friction against me.

"PLEASE AURORA." she begged.

"I haven't even started and you are already begging." I said as my hand stroked her inner thigh.

I flipped her over again so that she was now lay on her back looking up to be with her 'fuck me' eyes. I lowered my head and started to lick her inner thighs, teasing her. Elle then started begging me to touch her, to feel her, to taste her. If only she could see how vulnerable she looks in this moment, begging for me to touch and lick her pussy. She grabbed my hand and pulled it up towards her mouth, where she then spat on them and I started to rib her clit. Then I started to pick up the pace and I could feel her starting to come undone beneath me, but I wasn't about to let that happen.

"Yeah, yeah, right there. I'm- Im gonna cum." she moaned.

I pulled my hand away and flipped her back over so that she was on her stomach again. And started smacking her ass hard so that a pink mark started to appear on her cheek. A er a few more slaps I stopped as I need to for fill my own needs.

I reached over to the bedside table to grab my vibrator and strap-on. Elle's eyes grew wide at the sight of them as I started to put the strap-on on. She quickly moved onto to her hands and knees ready for what she was about to receive. I spat on my hand and started to rub it all over the silicone dick. Placing my hands on her hips to adjust her to the perfect angle, I pushed it into her slowly making her moan loudly. I took this as a sign to go faster and harder. As I pumped in and out of her, her legs started to give way so I grabbed her hips to try and support her. Her moans grew louder as she announced she was about to cum yet I pulled out denying her orgasm once again.

"W-w-why did you stop?" she panted.

Well if she didn't want me to stop I guess I will have to carry on. I aligned the strap-on with her dripping hole before thrusting my hips forward, hard. My hand snaked around her front finding her clit, rubbing it vigorously. Her moans filled the room, signalling her orgasm which just made me even more horny.

I moved to lay next to her on the bed exhausted but not as satisfied as she clearly was, a er I had taken the strap o . Without even realising my hand moved down to my underwear and started making small circles through the fabric. But this clearly made Elle feel as if she needed to pleasure me, to be honest I'm not complaining.

She climbed on top of me and straddled my lap, grabbing onto my wrist to stop me.

"Let me." she pleaded.

And that's exactly what I did. Elle climbed o of my waist and moved herself to be in between my legs a er she pulled o my lingerie. She lowered her head and I could feel her hot breath against my throbbing clit. Soon enough her tongue was making small circles against my clit as she teased my hole with her two fingers. But before she placed them inside of my she reached for the vibrator and replaced her plump lips with it. The sensation of the vibrator, her fingers together and the build up before was enough to tip me over the edge. My legs started to shake as I reached my climax. She lowered her head to my core once again but this time to lick up all my juices, her hands found their way to my thighs to hold them down as she helped me down from my orgasm.

"Come her baby." I rasped.

She made her way back up to me. My hands instantly found her and pulled her close as our lips connected.

Soon a er, we eventually fell asleep in each other's arms a er an eventful night.
