

Chapter 19:

Elle's POV:

I felt Aurora stir in my arms as I planted so , wet kisses down her neck.

"mmm" Aurora mumbled.

"Morning Princess." I whispered into her ear.

As I was still planting sloppy kisses along her neck, Aurora grinded her ass back into my core causing my to let out a breathy moan.

"Good morning to you too baby." she said as she rolled over to face me.

She leaned in to connect our lips in a sensual kiss, running my tongue along her bottom lip it wasn't long until she granted me access. I slipped my tongue inside her mouth, she moaned when our tongues collided, dancing together in a fluid motion. I straddled Aurora's lap, rolling my hips into her. I could feel myself becoming more wet by the second, I couldn't help but moan into her mouth as she thrust her hips up at the same time that I rolled mine down.

"We need to get up." she giggled.

"Ugh can we not have like a few more minutes?" I pleaded.

"Okay fine." she said defeated.

Aurora rolled over, kissing further down the swell of my breast, she cups them both in her hands massaging them gently before taking one of my nipples in her mouth. She then ran her tongue down the length of my torso, feeling myself tense up under her touch, swirling and licking over my abs she continues her reign down to my thighs. Her face was now only inches away from my core, she could probably see my wetness building up, I could feel her hot breath on my throbbing clit, waiting for her to touch me.

"Elle we really need to get up considering we will be leaving tonight and I want to go on a walk in the woods." she said as she got out of bed leaving me there speechless. "Get your sexy ass downstairs, I made pancakes!" she shouted at me from downstairs.

I rushed downstairs, I mean who doesn't love pancakes, to be greeted by the smell of cooking. Aurora was stood looking out the window as she waited for the pancake to be ready to flip, I walked up behind her wrapping my arms around her waist.

"Elle now is not the time for cuddle as I don't want to burn breakfast." she stated, wriggling out o my arms.

"There's always time for cuddles." I pouted.

A er Aurora had finished cooking breakfast we made our way to the table to sit and eat.

"You know it's funny," I looked up at her confused, "that you are so different with me in private than you are with other people." she said.

"What do you mean?" I asked, still confused.

"Well with me you are I guess needy whereas with other people you are a stone cold bitch."

"Way to put it nicely." I glared at her. "I guess it's because I don't really like many people and that you are special to me and I always want to be close to you, like even when we cuddle and things I dunno I want to be even closer like I can't get close enough to you." She nodded in response. "Also you are also different in a way, like you used to seem really reserved but in the bedroom well umm," my cheeks started to flush, "you are like the complete opposite."

"What can I say your hot." she smirked making me blush. "Anyway we better go get ready for our walk."

Many people would describe the woods as a scary place to be but honestly it feels very romantic, but that might just be because I'm with Aurora. We followed a dirt footpath into the woods which went in a circle so by the end we will end up back at the cabin. The tall trees created an arch way over the path, only allowing small bits of light to pass through the layers of leaves. I felt at peace out here, there was no sound apart from our footsteps and the rustling of the leaves in the wind. The woodlands are beautiful but as I look to my side nothing can compare to her.

"You beautiful you know." I said, squeezing her hand.

She blushed and looked up at me before stopping, her hand reached up for my face, pulling me down into a chaste kiss.

"Your really sweet but I'm starting to feel a bit chilly now."

"That's okay we are nearly back anyway." I said before giving her a quick peck on her cheek.

We walked back in silence, not an awkward silence but a comfortable one. It was like we didn't need to physically say anything to each other, we just knew what the other was thinking.

We started to pack our things for when we leave tonight but honestly I really don't want to leave. Just being her with her makes me feel alive? I dunno but I feel good, her aura is just addictive like a drug and I'm the drug addict that keeps going back for more.

"Hey babe, could you come and help me with this?" she asked from the other side of the room.

I walked up behind her and snaked my arms around her waist.

"Maybe we could take a break?" I suggested.

"I dunno, we kinda have a lot to get through." she stated but I still had other ideas in mind.

I spun her around by her waist so that our faces were now in close proximity, pulling her into a searing kiss that quickly became heated.

"Okay maybe we could take a little break, I mean we have some time." she said defeatedly.

~~~~~

Aurora's POV:

I pushed her back onto the bed, our lips still connected, straddling her waist, I pulled o her top throwing it behind me somewhere to expose her breasts. I then made light work of stripping her down to nothing, taking in the sight that is Elle, I then leaned back in capturing her bottom lip causing her to moan into my mouth.

Elle pulled back from the kiss. "Wait, I want to see you." she said pulling o my clothes leaving me exposed to her.

"Better?" I asked.

"Very." she said whilst biting her lip.

Running my tongue over the entirety of Elle's curves, taking my time to pay attention to all of her, I finally reach my final destination.

Looking up at her, I move my fingers through her soaking wet folds, causing me to moan at the sensation on my fingertips. I then lower my head, running my tongue though her folds as my fingers tease her entrance.

"Fuck Aurora...please." she begged.

I didn't want to waste anymore time so I quickly buried my head into her core, circling my tongue over her sensitive clit. Then I plunged my fingers deep inside of her not giving her time to adjust, I add another digit, moving three of my fingers in and out of her at a rapid pace. Using my tongue I add more pressure to her sensitive bud causing her to buck her hips up, meeting my movements, I use my other hand to hold her hips down, whilst I take her swollen nub in my mouth, sucking and licking until I feel Elle start to tense up.

I le my head up and make my way back up to Elle, only to find that she had her eyes closed whilst I was pumping in and out of her.

"Open you eyes baby." I husked in her ear.

Once she had opened her eyes, it must have been enough to send her over the edge as she shuddered underneath me. I slowed down my pace, helping her come down from her high.

"I- can we umm." she stuttered.

"Use your words Elle." I said sternly.

"Can I use the umm strap." she asked sheepishly.

"Of course you can." I said giving her a chaste kiss before going to get it.
