Chapter 1781: Conveniently Breaking Through Cultivation

Wugui Kojiro continued his explanation. “When a cultivator reaches one million combat power, a faint Primordial Spirit spark would appear in his Dantian! After that, when his combat power increases by another 500,000, that faint spark would become a Primordial Spirit pyre! This is when the person’s combat power is exactly 1.5 million! From then on, every time there is a 500,000 increase in combat power, another pyre would appear! When the number of Primordial Spirit pyres reaches nine, the person would then be at the peak phase of God-Ascension cultivation! After that, when the nine pyres consolidate into one and begin to develop a Primordial Spirit, is when a person breaks through to Primordial Spirit cultivation and become a true Earth God!”

Wugui Kojiro had basically explained the entire concept of God-Ascension cultivation in a nutshell, and his explanation was very clear as well.

Chen Xiaobei had no problem understanding it all. “God-Ascension cultivation is the stage of refining Primordial Spirit pyre! When the nine pyres become one and morph into Primordial Spirit, it becomes an avenue to the Earth God!”

“That’s right!” Wugui Kojiro nodded.

“That’s why 1.5 million combat power is like a bogus peak phase of God-Ascension! With the addition of 4.5 million combat power that came from nine pyres, one could reach 5.5 million combat power! That is the true pinnacle phase of God Ascension Cultivation!”

“That’s right! The sovereign emperor of Tenshou is ranked number one because his combat power has reached a shocking 2 million! The fact that he carries three Two-star Earth-God Instruments. He’s in an entire class of his own!”

“Mm, I understand now!” Chen Xiaobei said. “I remember Ling Qingfeng saying that Apocalypse Starfield has its own Heavenly Fate leaderboard with 108 Earth-Gods at pinnacle phase! It looks like she meant quasi-peak! The real rankings are based on strength!”

“Overcoming hundreds and thousands of apocalyptic events will make a person qualify as an Earth God!” Wugui Kojiro said. “The people on the Heavenly Fate Leaderboard are all top-tier elites! No matter where they go in Apocalypse Starfield, they would be powerful enough to defeat any kind of enemy they encounter!”

Chen Xiaobei nodded and muttered to himself, “No wonder there’s only Skybreaking Cultivation Pill and no Earth-God cultivation breaking pill! There’s still a hell of a long way for me to go!”

“Master, what are you saying?” Wugui Kojiro asked.

“You won’t understand! I’m giving you another task!”

“Task?” Wugui Kojiro swallowed nervously. “Is it the sovereign emperor?”

“No. You have two days to buy 50,000 mooncakes for me. The flavors have to be new and unusual, and they have to be in individual packages!”

“Huh? 50,000 mooncakes?” Wugui Kojiro scratched his forehead. “Master, didn’t you say that you’re going to make the sovereign emperor your loyal hound? Why are you buying mooncakes? Are you going to put the dog biscuits into the mooncakes?”

“Stupid!” Chen Xiaobei snapped. “Even a child knows that everything the emperor eats will be first tested by the food taster. Why would I put the dog biscuits in the mooncakes?”

It was obviously all beyond Wugui Kojiro’s understanding. “If there are no mooncakes, then you’ll have wasted two days, right?”

“Brains are good things. Unfortunately, you don’t have one! Enough talking, just go do as I say!” Chen Xiaobei scolded impatiently. “Once my secret weapon is delivered, I can take care of the sovereign emperor without a problem! It’ll just be two days of rest!”

“H... How....?” Wugui Kojiro was completely baffled by his master.

The sovereign emperor of Tenshou! Number one in the Nine Zone Heaven Leaderboard – carries three Two-Star Earth-God instruments and had an unlimited supply of Spiritual Qi from the Spiritual Channel in the Imperial City!

In a one to one combat, no one in the entire Nine Zones could win against the sovereign emperor of Tenshou!

Yet, here was Chen Xiaobei claiming that he could do it without a problem!

If anyone else had heard him say it, they would surely condemn him for being completely ludicrous.

However, since Wugui Kojiro was fed the Heavenly Dog Biscuit, he was totally devoted to Chen Xiaobei. Even if he dared not believe it was possible, he would still obey Chen Xiaobei’s command unconditionally.

When Wugui Kojiro went about his task of purchasing mooncake, Chen Xiaobei took out his Tiang Gong furnace and threw in dozens of Spiritual Medicine one after another.

“I have only one Heavenly Dog Biscuit left. I have to make one more batch!” Chen Xiaobei ignited a Transmogrifying Flame as he added the herbs into the furnace.

This was a low-grade Heavenly Dog Biscuit after all and did not require the use of Sanmei True Fire.

With all the herbs inside and the fire temperature and intensity under control, Chen Xiaobei put away the Tian Gong furnace.

“This will take seven days to complete. But as of now, I can only make low-grade Heavenly Dog Biscuits! Although I already have the High-grade Heavenly Dog Biscuit’s recipe, I still haven’t been able to locate the two necessary Three-Star Earth-God medicine! I hope my secret weapon arrives soon! I just need to control the Tenshou emperor to get into their exchequer. They might have just what I need! Once I have everything, I can start making High-grade Heavenly Dog Biscuits! Then I will be able to lay hold of Earth-God level loyal hounds. That will be the day!”

Chen Xiaobei felt hopeful at the thought of it.

After that, he began to cultivate.

With only 100 years of life left, he could not make use of the Daylight Cache, but with the Heavenly Path's boost, he did not need to take the shortcut to achieve results that surpassed all ordinary people.

For the remaining two days, Chen Xiaobei cultivated for 48 hours.

Previously, that would have earned him 4,800 health and combat power each.

Now, with the Heavenly Path's reward, that number was doubled to 9,600 for both health and combat power!

Ding!

[Cultivation: Peak phase of Ethereal Cultivation; Lifespan: 100 years; Health: 330,000; Combat power: 330,000]

"Hard work does pay off! I finally reached the peak of Ethereal Cultivation!" Chen Xiaobei punched the air excitedly. "I just need to take the Skybreaking Cultivation Pill and I'll be able to break through to God-Ascension cultivation! I still have 45 days left before my cut-off date with Lady Nuwo! I've completed the task way ahead of time! Time waits for nobody! I'll break through now! Once I'm done with everything, I can ask Lady Nuwo for Little Fox's whereabouts!"

Chen Xiaobei quickly swallowed a Skybreaking Cultivation Pill.

Cultivating was a long and time-consuming process. With hard work and determination, Chen Xiaobei finally met the first goal he'd set for himself!

The pill took effect and the breaking through began!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 1782: Secret Weapon

The Skybreaking Cultivation Pill was necessary for Chen Xiaobei to break through from Ethereal cultivation to God-Ascension cultivation.

The powerful medication swept through Chen Xiaobei's body and seeped into his every pore, muscle, and bone, activating his latent energy under the influence of this one-of-a-kind pill.

Rumble! Rumble!

The Ethereal Force in Chen Xiaobei's body began to thrash and bubble like hot lava in a volcano, raising the temperature of Chen Xiaobei's blood. It felt endless.

As Chen Xiaobei had reached the pinnacle phase of Ethereal Cultivation, the bubbling Ethereal Force inside him was getting increasingly agitated. All it needed was that one moment of a 'volcanic eruption' to break through the bottleneck to the next cultivation.

The peak of every cultivation was a bottleneck.

Only by breaking through this bottleneck could a person step into the next level of cultivation.

This breakthrough process was, undoubtedly, an extremely difficult feat.

Most people's 'bottleneck period' would last from a few years to about a decade. The less fortunate ones may not be able to breakthrough even until their passing.

Chen Xiaobei was different, however.

With the help of the Skybreaking Cultivation Pill, breaking through that bottleneck was easy-breezy.

"Break!" Chen Xiaobei roared, and a 'volcanic eruption' was set off and Ethereal Forces gushed out – thicker, purer, and more intense!

The explosion of the Ethereal Force brought about a force of impact, widening and deepening Chen Xiaobei's Dantian, continuously refining his health and strengthening his body at the same time.

Ding!

[Cultivation: Early phase of God-Ascension; Lifespan: 1,100 years; Health: 500,000; Combat power: 500,000]

"Yes! I did it!" Chen Xiaobei was ecstatic.

Something that took people decades to accomplish, Chen Xiaobei did in half a minute!

Breaking through to God-Ascension cultivation – successful!

"True Nirvana cultivation produces True Kang Celestial cultivation which enables sensing the quintessence of nature. Ethereal Force cultivation produces Ethereal Force, whereas God-Ascension cultivation doesn't have any special characteristics. It only skyrockets health and combat power! But after that, each increase of 500,000 combat power will produce a Primordial Spirit pyre. Perhaps, a special transformation will take place then."

At the mention of increasing combat power, Chen Xiaobei thought of the 1 million year Ambergris.

"There's no need to rush into using this treasure... There's no point increasing my combat power when my health cannot support it. It would be pointless... Right now, I have 500,000 combat power. When I use the Primordial Witch King Combat Enhancement Training Manual, I would be able to wield 650,000 combat power! That means I will need to elevate my health to 650,000 first before using the Ambergris!"

Chen Xiaobei's next goal was to increase his health. Once the longevity of his health was on the right track, the combat power he could yield would far exceed his current cultivation! His strength would also be unapparelled to those with the same level of cultivation!"

"With the fight in Royal Dome, I was able to add 400,000 to my merit points and my luck went up by 40,000! I should be pretty lucky at the Mid-Autumn Festival Red Envelope Snatching Session!" Chen Xiaobei smiled at the thought. "There are three more days before the event. I should go to the Brotherhood Group and ask for a Red Envelope that helps with increasing health beforehand. My combat power will definitely skyrocket! Hehe!"

“Oh, I better book a few Red Envelopes that can help restore Divine Instruments too! The Green Dragon sword and Red Dragon Sword are in pieces. If I can mend them, it will be really helpful to me in the future!”

Ding!

Chen Xiaobei received a message.

Ao Liancheng: Childe Zhufeng, as per your request, I’ve arrived in Tenshou Starfield.

Chen Xiaobei: Hang on, I’ll send Wugui Kojiro to pick you up!

In the two days Chen Xiaobei had been cultivating, Wugui Kojiro managed to procure 50,000 mooncakes and was already by his master’s side, waiting for the next order.

“Haha! My secret weapon is here! Seems I can go catch myself a sovereign emperor dog today! Soon, I can wrap up my plans and give Luo Puti a betrothal gift that will shock all of the Nine Zones to their core!”

Chen Xiaobei smiled, feeling pleased with himself.

“Hmm, while I wait for Ao Liancheng to get here, I should ask Lady Nuwo where my little Fox is! Good things just keep happening! It can’t be stopped! Wahaha!”

Chen Xiaobei: Lady Nuwo, as promised, I have reached God-Ascension cultivation. On top of that, there’s a chance it will continue to skyrocket in this short period of time! I now have the capacity to protect Little Fox! Please tell me where she is!

The message was sent but there was no reply even after ten minutes of waiting.

“I guess the lecture is still ongoing...” Chen Xiaobei frowned. “Sifu did say that he may or may not be able to join the Mid-Autumn Festival... Sigh, that means it’ll be some time before Lady Nuwo replies!”

In the ten minutes of anticipating a reply, Wugui Kojiro had returned with Ao Liancheng.

“Zhufeng! I brought you what you need!” Ao Liancheng waved the storage bracelet in his hand.

“Come in and take a seat!” Chen Xiaobei accepted the bracelet and grinned. “Now we have everything we need!”

“Zhufeng! I brought you the thing but I have a lot of questions that are bugging me. I don’t know if I should ask them or not.” Ao Liancheng looked uncertain.

“We are brothers! Just speak frankly!” Chen Xiaobei said.

“But...” Ao Liancheng let his words trail as his eyes wandered towards Wugui Kojiro.

Chen Xiaobei assured him, “He’s just one of my dogs. Just ask whatever you want to ask! You don’t have to worry about anything!”

“Dog?” Ao Liancheng gasped in horror. “Wugui Kojiro is the Tenshou emperor’s favorite little prince! Zhufeng... Is it okay... for you to call him... a dog?”

Wugui Kojiro answered with a smile, "That's right! I am Childe Zhufeng's loyal hound! Don't worry, Childe Liancheng!"

"I..." Ao Liancheng rubbed his forehead. "Am I dreaming? Is this the real Wugui Kojiro?"

"Stop doubting. Don't you trust me?" Chen Xiaobei said. "You don't have to say it. I know that you want to ask me if I'm Tenshou's man."

Ao Liancheng nodded slowly. "Yes... Now, there's a rumor going around that you're Tenshou's spy... I'm worried that Saint Duke will do something to you..."

Chen Xiaobei shrugged. "As you can see, Wugui Kojiro here is my loyal hound. His old man, will also become my loyal hound! Whether or not I'm a Tenshou spy is pretty obvious!"

Chapter 1783: Extract Poisonous Gas

"What? The emperor, Wugui Wangba has become your loyal hound?! Zhufeng... Is that supposed to be a joke?" asked Ao Liancheng who seemed very shocked.

If others were to have told him about it, he would not have believed a single word. However, since Chen Xiaobei was the one that told him about it, he had to believe him. That was because Chen Xiaobei had done a lot of impossible tasks in front of him. No matter how difficult the task, Chen Xiaobei would always deliver his promise.

For example...

Saving Neptune Starfield!

Capturing the Giant Barbaric Tiger!

To Ao Liancheng, Chen Xiaobei was the kind of person that was born to perform miracles.

"I'm not kidding here! I will do it now! If everything goes right, I think I will be able to settle it by today!"

"Zhufeng... It's not that I don't believe you... I just can't figure out how you are going to settle the whole thing. Are there going to be unexpected dangers? Do you need Neptune Starfield to help you?"

"Are you doubting me? Have you heard about what happened in Royal Dome Starfield?"

"Of course!"

"What do you know about it? I heard that a man in a black robe and ghost mask singlehandedly killed the emperor, eight Wangye and thousands of soldiers! This is one of the biggest news I have ever heard in these few years!"

"So, you do know that man in the black robe is powerful?"

"Of course he is powerful! Super powerful! Too damn powerful! I will never become as powerful as him even if I was given 100 years to train myself!"

"So, do you think the Tenshou's emperor is more powerful or the man in the black robe?"

“Of course it’s the man in the black robe! I can safely tell you that he is definitely from Apocalypse Starfield! He is also a super-elite on the Fate Leaderboard in Apocalypse Starfield!”

“Hehe... You know what? I’m actually that man in the black robe!”

“What?!!!!!”

“I know you will find it really hard to believe! Let me show you some proof!”

Chen Xiaobei then took out his Verdant Emperor’s Divine Gourd because he was too lazy to explain the whole thing to him. Luo Bin and Lin Xue were released from it.

“Who... Who are they?”

“They are Luo Bin and Lin Xue. Both of them are Princess Puti’s stepparents! They have been locked up in the deepest part of Royal Dome’s jail for a long time!”

After three days of mediation, Luo Bin and Lin Xue had almost recovered fully. Of course, they were eternally grateful for it.

“Oh god! Zhufeng! You really are that powerful man in the black robe!”

“Now, you don’t need to worry about my safety anymore, right?”

“No! Of course not! With your amazing feat in Royal Dome, you can easily defeat the Tenshou’s emperor!”

“It’s good that you are not worried about me anymore. Just wait for me here. I’m going to prepare a secret weapon! After that, we will carry out my plan!”

“Zhufeng! Hold on! I think you shouldn’t waste more time! Just send Luo Bin and Lin Xue back to Saint Duke first to prove that you are the main in the black robe! I can bet that Luo Qiongchang will beg you to marry Princess Puti!”

“I know that Puti will definitely choose me to be her husband! Why would I need to rush it? There are still 40 days left before the competition ends. I want to prepare a bigger present for her before I go back to Saint Duke!”

“A... A bigger present? Isn’t killing Royal Dome’s emperor and the Wangye not enough? You even saved Luo Bin and Lin Xue! I think this present is definitely big enough for them!”

Chen Xiaobei then shrugged his shoulders with a smile on his face. After that, he entered the gourd without saying another word.

“Childe Chen... What is he trying to do?” asked Luo Bin and Lin Xue.

“I don’t know as well...” said Ao Liancheng while shaking his head.

“What did you bring to our master?” asked Wugui Kojiro.

“Seawater,” answered Ao Liancheng.

After hearing the answer, Luo Bin, Lin Xue, and Wugui Kojiro were left in shock.

Seawater was definitely no secret weapon.

.....

Inside the gourd.

Chen Xiaobei took out the Green Jade Cauldron, pouring in all the seawater. Clearly, this was no ordinary seawater as there seemed to be some kind of ink-like liquid mixed within it.

Swoosh...

After that, he summoned his Transmogrifying Flame and heated the cauldron to evaporate all the seawater. Streams of Black Qi rose to the air as the seawater started to boil.

Siii...

Siii...

Immediately, Chen Xiaobei used his Storage Bracelet to absorb all the Black Qi. All these Black Qi were actually Chen Xiaobei's true secret weapon! Only those from Neptune would know its true capabilities. It was the exact same poisonous gas that almost killed everyone from Neptune Starfield! Though the Demonic Beast was sealed away by Chen Xiaobei, the toxin that it released was still lingering in the sea. Earlier, Chen Xiaobei had asked Ao Liancheng to use a submarine to collect a sample of toxic seawater.

To any elite that was not an Earth God, touching this toxic would mean death. Even a powerful elite like the holy emperor of Neptune was almost killed by it! The reason why Chen Xiaobei was not afraid of it was because of the Cleansing Bodhi he had with him. In order to make sure that no one would be killed by this toxin, he had to enter the gourd alone to extract it.

"With this secret weapon, Tenshou's emperor will never be able to defeat me!"

Chapter 1784: Sudden Attack

At Tenshou's palace.

With the royal study room in the center, there was not a single person within a 300-meter radius. Outside the 300-meter radius were tens of thousands of Tenshou warriors forming a giant circle, guarding the place. Usually, there were only 1,000 warriors standing guard around the 100-meter radius point. After hearing what the man in the black robe had done in Royal Dome Starfield, the emperor was so afraid that he reinforced his protection.

Nowadays, he even carried three Two-star Earth-God Divine Instruments with him all the time. Filled with Spiritual Qi, they were ready to launch full-blown attacks at his enemy. He had instructed the warriors to kill anyone that set foot inside his protection circle. Even the officers and generals had to wait and talk outside the protection circle.

"Our emperor is really scared to death by the man in the black robe... He has not left his study for two days... Grand chancellor, it's rare that you've agreed to initiate the war but, I think the emperor might not agree to it since he's in a very unstable state," said the grand general, Takao Sansen.

“General, I don’t think you know our emperor well enough! What happened in Royal Dome had indeed scared him to death! That is also why the emperor will speed up the whole war thing!” said the grand chancellor, Ishizai Danto.

“Why do you say so? Our emperor is the kind of man that likes to get things done quickly! He swears that he will destroy Saint Duke within three years! Do you really think that he will cancel his plan just because of some man in a black robe?!”

“That’s just your guess. I don’t think that is how he thinks...”

“Hehe... You should know that officers like me will never agree to start the war as soon as possible! Why do you think that I’m here now to speed up the whole war thing?”

“About this... You are right! Usually, this is the general’s responsibility! In fact, you have just brought a few of your officers to persuade the emperor with me... Could that mean the emperor has given you a direct order?”

“You are right! I received the emperor’s order this morning. He asked me to bring the core officers with me to discuss some business with him! From what I know, we are not the only ones! Even the royal members have been asked here! It’s obvious that the emperor wants war now!”

“This is great! The soldiers and I have ran out of patience! We are going to destroy Saint Duke, take away all their resources, rule their lands, toy with their women, and enslave their men! This is going to be awesome! Hahaha...”

“Grand general! Please refrain yourself from saying something so explicit. After all, you are still an important officer here!”

“What’s wrong with saying something explicit? I’m a real man! Besides, these are the reasons why I love going to war!”

“Grand general is right! As long as we win the war, we can take possession of their resources, land, women, and even make them our slaves!”

Suddenly, a group of men in fancy clothing walked towards them. The few men walking at the front were Tanshou’s Wangye and the group of young men walking behind them were princes.

“Speaking about women! That princess, Luo Puti is mine!” said Second Wangye, Wugui Taiyu with a perverted smile on him.

“Second brother! With your current age, you are qualified to become her father! I think you should let me take possession of her! Hahaha...” said Ninth Wangye.

“Fellow uncles! From what we know, the two of have married multiple wives! I think we should be the ones that take possession of Luo Puti!” said the princes.

“Fine! Fine! Fine! Go ahead and take all the women! I’m going to take possession of all their resources anyway! Spiritual Stones are what matters to me!”

“I’m going to enslave 100,000 men from Saint Duke and order them to build a city for me!”

Everyone was getting really excited and talking about how to utilize their plundered resources even though the war had not even started yet. What they did not expect was that the man in the black robe had already entered the protection circle and arrived at the entrance of the royal study room.

Buzz...

Buzz...

A flying bug smaller than a fly buzzed around the study room.

“Just like what I expected! There’s no place for me to get into the study room!” said the fly.

This fly was, in fact, Chen Xiaobei. Earlier, he had used the High-tier Prosperous Monkey Fur to transform himself into a fly! Though his Nightstalker Outfit was upgraded recently, it still did not allow him to achieve full invisibility. In order to get into the protection circle without anyone realizing it, he had to turn himself into a common insect.

Another thing was that Chen Xiaobei would not be able to feed the emperor the Heavenly Dog Biscuit while he was still a fly. That was because all the windows and doors were all tightly shut and there was a small defensive formation that had been set up keeping any living beings from getting close to the study room.

To get into the study room, Chen Xiaobei had to destroy the formation first. Of course, he had already expected to encounter such a problem, which was why he brought his secret weapon with him.

Swoosh!

Chen Xiaobei deactivated the skill and returned to human form. He then put on the usual black suit.

“Man in the black robe!!! He is standing in front of the study room!!!”

The guards that kept an eye on the study room 24/7 had immediately noticed Chen Xiaobei.

“How did he enter the protection circle?! We have tens of thousands of warriors guarding here!”

“Is he a man or a ghost... No normal human being can pull such a stun!”

“I don’t think he is a ghost... I think he is an Earth God!”

None of them could figure out how did Chen Xiaobei entered the protection circle.

“Stop standing there! Form up into formation and protect the emperor!” shouted Takao Sansen.

“Protect the emperor! Protect the emperor!” Izhizai Danton shouted as well.

Rumble!

Suddenly, three rays of lights landed at the entrance of the study room. Chen Xiaobei, however, was not the one who launched the attack. It seemed like the emperor wanted take the initiative to attack Chen Xiaobei first. In total, the emperor had spent 30 million low-grade Spiritual Stones to power all three of his Two-star Earth-God Divine Instruments!

Standing at the entrance, Chen Xiaobei did not have enough time to dodge the attack because he did not expect the emperor to attack first.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 1785: Turning the Tide Around

Rumble...

Three rays of Two-star Spiritual Lights were aimed squarely at Chen Xiaobei. This attack was equivalent to three Two-star Earth Gods working together to kill him. It was definitely a lethal hit. Even if Chen Xiaobei had 30 One-star Earth-God Divine Instruments with him, there was no way that he could defend himself, not with his current highest speed anyway. It was still not enough to dodge the attack.

BAM!

The attack had successfully landed on Chen Xiaobei. The ground cracked. It was as if a massive-scale earthquake had just shaken him. All the people that were standing 300 meters away were shocked to see such a powerful attack. Those with weak cultivation had lost their balance and fell to the ground. When the quake had finally stopped and dust cleared, everyone could see a hole that was hundreds of meters deep and as big as a basketball court in front of the study room.

“Oh god... What just happened? Has our emperor just killed that man in the black robe?”

“I think you are right! I saw three Spiritual Lights land on that man in the black robe. There’s no way he can survive that attack even if he is a Two-star Earth God!”

“Our emperor is the most powerful man in this universe! I can’t believe that he managed to kill that man in the black robe in such an easy manner!”

“All hail the emperor! All hail the emperor!”

Everyone was cheering for the emperor for he had just achieved something great. People were basically worshipping him right now.

“That man in the black robe was too damn arrogant! How dare he show up in front of the study room alone? Our emperor has fully charged his three Two-star Earth-God Divine Instruments! He can use them to attack his enemy anytime he wants!” said Takao Sansen.

“That’s why I say, a well-prepared man will always win the battle! That is why our emperor can kill that black-robed man with a single strike!” said Ishizai Danto.

“The black-robed man is our sworn enemy! Once he is dead, no one will be able to stop us from going to war anymore! Hahaha...” laughed Takao Sansen.

“It’s all set in stone now! All we need do to right now is to wait for the emperor to meet us and discuss the date to start the war!” said Ishizai Danto.

Suddenly, someone shouted, “The emperor is coming out from his study room!”

A man in black samurai attire and brown clogs walked out of the study room. His left hand held a saber and in his right a sword. On his ring finger, a ring with a huge gemstone could be seen. It was emanating powerful Spiritual Qi. Clearly, these three items were the only Two-star Earth-God Divine Instruments on Tenshou Starfield! The person that possessed these three items was none other than the emperor himself, Wugui Osama!

“The man in the black robe is dead? Piece of garbage!”

Wugui Osama then walked around to look for Chen Xiaobei’s body. He did not manage to find it and so, he kept away his sword and saber. The glow on his ring slowly faded away as well.

“Eh? Isn’t that... A Storage Bracelet? That is the storage bracelet of the black-robed man! I believe all Royal Dome’s Earth God Divine Instruments are inside it! This is like a gift that fell from heaven!” shouted Wugui Osama.

Phissh...

Suddenly, a stream of black smoke shot out from the Storage Bracelet and hit the emperor right in his face.

“Ugh... Ugh...”

Immediately, his pupils contracted and his face turned black. Before he could call someone to help him, he fell to the ground and started to throw up foam, shuddering violently.

Buzz...

A ripple appeared on a rock at the corner of the giant hole. It was Chen Xiaobei deactivating the special ability of his Nightstalker Outfit.

“Ugh... Ugh...”

The emperor was so shocked by him it was as if he had just seen a ghost.

“You must be really surprised to see me, right? You must also be wondering how the hell I survived the blow from three of your Two-star Earth-God Divine Instruments.

“Ugh...”

The emperor tried to squeeze some words but failed to do so. The hole was at least hundreds of meters deep and there were 200 meters between the emperor and the crowd outside the protection circle. That was why none of them had a clue on what was going on here.

“My Netherspirit Battlescouter had been upgraded recently! The Ultimate Protective Puppet can help to block an attack that comes from anything below a Five-star Earth-God Divine Instrument! You can kill me easily if you have a weapon like that! Unfortunately, your Two-star Earth-God Divine Instrument has caused me no harm whatsoever!”

“Ugh... Ugh...”

“Don’t you worry! I will not let you die! At least not now!”

Chen Xiaobei walked towards him and fed the emperor a Heavenly Dog Biscuit that was covered with his Ethereal Force. After that, he employed the same method of removing toxins out of the Neptune holy emperor on Wugui Osama. From this moment onwards, the number one elite on the Nine Zones Heavenly Leaderboard had now become Chen Xiaobei's loyal hound.

Outside of protection circle.

Officers were discussing the incident amongst themselves.

"Why is the emperor not here yet? Could something have happened to him?" asked Wugui Nobita.

"Don't worry! The man in the black robe is dead, and I didn't sense any Spiritual Waves coming out from the hole! The emperor should be doing fine!" said Takao Sansen.

"The emperor is here!" shouted Ishizai Danto.

Immediately, everyone paid attention to the doors. They all saw the emperor jumping out of the hole and striding towards them.

"Greetings emperor! Greetings emperor!"

Every single person looked at the emperor with the utmost adoration.

"At ease! Today, I want to discuss how to deal with the man in the black robe! He is now dead! All of you can go back now!"

"Huh? My king, I thought we are supposed to discuss kickstarting the war at an earlier time?" asked Takao Sansen.

"Who told you that?" said the emperor while glaring at the general.

"Grand chancellor was the one who told me about it!"

"Ishizai Kun! Did I mention anything about that to you?!"

"About this... Yesterday, you asked me to come here to discuss an important matter, right?" said Ishizai Danto.

"I just said I want to discuss killing the man in the black robe! What made you think that I was about to discuss war?" asked the emperor in an angry manner.

Chapter 1786: Prepare to Plan

Sii...

Facing the emperor's wrath, everyone from the scene took in a deep breath. They could almost feel their hearts jumping out of their throats.

Reigning the starfield for a few decades, the emperor had built up a rather terrifying ruler's aura. Moreover, this emperor was the number one elite on Nine-Zones Heavenly Leaderboard. The Murderous Qi that exuded from him was powerful enough to put fear into everyone's hearts. Under immense pressure, no one dared to lie to the emperor. All of them nodded their heads unconsciously.

"It seems like all of you thought that I would say yes to kickstarting the war earlier! Soldiers! Capture all those who disrespected me!"

"What?!!"

Everyone was shocked to hear the order. All tens of thousands of warriors hesitated to execute the order.

"What now? No one wants to follow my orders?!" asked Wugui Osama in an icy voice.

He then activated the ring he wore on his finger. Immediately, everyone held their breath. He could easily kill everyone around him with ease if he wanted to do so.

"Yes, my king!"

Tens of thousands of warriors shouted at the same time. They then stabbed their katanas in all the officers' and royal members' necks! None of them could say or do anything about it.

"My king, we have captured all of them!" said one of the warriors while kneeling on the ground.

"Ishizai Danto is the head of all government officers and Takao Sansen is the army general! These two people have spread terrible rumors to the public! A lot of people are confused by them! They have seriously affected the foundation of our starfield which is why they are sentenced to death right here, right now!"

"What?!!!"

Everyone could not believe the emperor had just dropped such a severe order.

"Listen to my order! Decapitate them! I want both of their heads hung on the entrance to our capital city for three months! I want to see who has the guts to do what they have just done!"

"Mercy please... My king... Please spare our lives!"

The two of them almost peed their pants when they heard that the emperor was going to execute them. There was nothing they could do except to beg for their lives.

"My king! Ishizai-kun and Takao-kun are the pillars of Tenshou Starfield! I think it will most likely affect our starfield if you execute them!" said the Second Wangye, Wugui Nobita.

"This is my final decision! All those who speak for them will be executed as well! Execute them now!!!"

Swish!

Swish!

The two warriors lifted up their sabers and chopped the heads off. Everyone around them was drenched in cold sweat when they saw what happened to the two of them.

"My king... What should we do with the rest of them?"

"I can spare their lives, but they must be punished! Take them out and whip them 300 times!"

“My king... Have mercy please... All we did was listen to the rumor! We don’t deserve such heavy punishment!”

Everyone started to beg the emperor to not punish them. Without the protection of Ethereal Force, all of them would be bedridden for a year and a half after being caned. “Bring them away and punish them now!” said the emperor in a determined manner.

None of them could figure out what was the emperor thinking. Every single decision that he made today was utterly ridiculous. No one would expect that their emperor had become Chen Xiaobei’s loyal hound. Killing Takao Sansen and Ishizai Danto was just the beginning of Chen Xiaobei’s plan. He would slowly carry out his exciting plan on Tenshou Starfield! When the 40 days were over, Chen Xiaobei would then be able to present his mysterious gift to Saint Duke.

After that Wugui Osama returned to his study room and Chen Xiaobei was waiting inside it.

“Master! I have done what you asked me to do!”

Chen Xiaobei then nodded his head and tossed a Storage Bracelet to the emperor.

“There are 200 nuclear warheads inside this Storage Bracelet!”

“Nuclear warheads? What is that?”

“It’s the most powerful weapon from the world where I come from! It can kill anyone that is not an Earth God!”

“That... That is really powerful... Why did you give this to me?”

“I want you to install all these nuclear warheads at Tenshou’s army base, weapon factories, and other places that are related to fighting a war! I want to destroy all of them with a single button!”

“With all these nuclear warheads, you are going to destroy the entire Tenshou Starfield!”

“That is just the beginning! 40 days later, Tenshou Starfield will cease to exist!”

“How... How is that even possible... Your nuclear warheads are really powerful but I don’t think they are enough to destroy the entire starfield!”

“Just do what I asked you to do! Other than that, hand me all your Earth-God Divine Instruments!”

“Yes master!”

Without any hesitation, Wugui Osama passed all three of his Two-star Earth-God Divine Instruments to Chen Xiaobei.

“Now, bring me to where the national treasury is!”

“Yes, master!”

Chapter 1787: Emptying the Place

Tenshou's national vault was extremely huge. After years of invading Saint Duke, Tenshou had managed to amass all their resources. That was why Tenshou was a lot wealthier than Royal Dome. When Chen Xiaobei was in Royal Dome, he only took a small portion of resources from their vault because he wanted Eighth Wangye to make Royal Dome a better place to live in.

As for Tenshou Starfield, Chen Xiaobei had no intention to keep this place, wanting to grab everything in the vault and put them in his Infinite Space Ring.

In total, he took three trillion low-grade Spiritual Stones. This included hundreds of thousands of Spiritual Medicine, Spiritual Instruments, and Spiritual Pills. A giant vault was swept clean within a few minutes.

What was left were nine treasure boxes that were placed in the deepest part of the vault. Chen Xiaobei then walked closer, wanting to open all nine of them.

Just like Royal Dome, One-star Earth-God materials and herbs were stored in the first six boxes. Chen Xiaobei took all of them without any hesitation. The last three remaining treasure boxes were completely different from the rest. The treasure box on the left stored a crystal-like material. Chen Xiaobei could feel that its Spiritual Attribute was extremely strong.

"Is this a Two-star Earth-God material? It seems like your ring is made from the same material."

"Yes, it is indeed! My Frozen Heart Show Ring is made from the same piece of material you're looking at now!"

"This is some epic item!"

After keeping the material into his Infinite Space Ring, Chen Xiaobei moved on to the second box. Within it lay folded an old blueprint.

"Is this supposed to be a map? What's so special about it? Why is it inside the treasure box?"

"This is where the ancient Enigma Equipment Faction is located!"

"Enigma Equipment Faction?! What's so special about this faction?!"

"Enigma Equipment Faction was the top tier faction in the Earth God Realm tens of thousands of years ago! This particular faction was very different from all the other factions! It was established alone by an equipment crafting master! With his masterful skillset, he managed to craft a Celestial Item on his own at Earth God Realm! From that moment onwards, his faction got really famous! Countless people wanted to be his disciple! During the hottest moments of Enigma Equipment Faction, they had at least 10 million pupils and at least one trillion worshippers! Such a huge faction was worthy of comparison to the top ten factions in Earth God Realm! Unfortunately, something bad happened to them and the entire faction fell!"

"Due to a lot of Earth-God Divine Instruments being stored inside the faction, many people tried to steal them from him. In the end, the faction leader had to use a secret technique to tear open a space that enabled the transfer of all the Earth-God Divine Instruments to a private realm!"

Clearly, Wuguo Osama had done a lot of research on where to look for this private realm.

“Does that mean that with this map, I will be able to find where the private realm is?”

“It’s not that easy! This map will direct us to the last known address of Enigma Equipment Faction! Their faction is extremely huge! Looking for space crack within the faction is harder than looking for a needle in the haystack!”

“After listening to what you said, that would mean the chances of locating the crack is close to zero!”

“That’s right! If you just barge in like that to look for the crack, it’s actually impossible! However! If you manage to locate the nine pieces of lost Enigma Equipment Tokens, the chances of you locating the crack might be higher!”

“Enigma Equipment Tokens?”

“Enigma Equipment Tokens belonged to eight core-elders of the faction and the faction leader himself! They were also crafted with Two-star Earth-God materials! As you can imagine, their Spiritual Attributes are extremely powerful! Legend has it that one will be able to activate the ancient formation once the person manages to gather all nine of it!”

“Unfortunately, no one knows where the nine tokens went! The difficulty of looking for the token is as equally hard as looking for the crack in the faction!”

“Look at this!”

Immediately, Chen Xiaobei took out a token that he found on Royal Dome and showed it to Wugui Osama.

“Damn... Damn!!!”

“This... This... This... This is the token! I know I’m right! This is the Enigma Equipment Token!”

“There is only one left! But, at least there’s hope now!”

“Master! Where did you find this token?”

“In the vault of Royal Dome!”

“Damn! Royal Dome is getting really sneaky! They didn’t even say a single word after they found the token!”

“Of course! You of all people should know that this token is an extremely important item! Telling others about it might cause the entire Royal Dome Starfield to be destroyed!”

“You are right about that... I didn’t let anyone else know about this map as well!”

After that, Chen Xiaobei turned his attention to the last treasure box.

There were ginseng-like herbs in the box and had a surface of bright silver.

“This is a Three-star Earth-God Herb! Silver Dragon Frosty Ginseng!” shouted Chen Xiaobei in an excited manner.

“Yes it is! This Silver Dragon Frosty Ginseng is one million years old; the one and only within the Nine Zones! Even in the entire Apocalypse Starfield, you can only find three of it!”

“Great! This is great! This ginseng is one of the ingredients for High-tier Heavenly God Biscuits! With the Invisible Spirit Herb that I acquired earlier, I just need one more Three-star Earth-God herb now!”

All these while, Chen Xiaobei had relied heavily on Heavenly Dog Biscuits to make sure that all his plans would be executed perfectly. If he managed to concoct High-tier Heavenly Dog Biscuits, he would be able to feed them to Earth Gods!

Ring...

Suddenly, Chen Xiaobei’s cellphone rang.

“Qin Yitian is looking for me?”

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 1788: Beautifying Ring

“Hello? Ms. Qin! To what do I owe this call to?” Chen Xiaobei asked politely.

The person on the other line was the number one genius of Vermillion Phoenix’s top-tier family and was in possession of a three-star Earth-God Instrument.

“Childe Chen, are you free these few days? I’d like to ask you for a favor.” Qin Yitian said.

“I am! Ms. Qin helped me get the Black Water Stone and I haven’t even had the chance to repay you! Just tell me what you need!”

“Yesterday, a war broke out in Vermillion Phoenix. My comrades sustained severe injuries and the doctors here can’t do anything. Can you come and take a look?”

Chen Xiaobei hesitated. “I can but I’ve never been to Vermillion Phoenix before, and I don’t have a high-grade spacecraft... I’m afraid it might take me a while to get there. Can the patient make it through...”

“He can’t!” Qin Yitian almost shouted into the speaker. “Where are you? I’ll come and get you!”

“I’m in Tenshou Starfield’s capital planet. In the prince’s official residence. I will ask the prince to meet you when you arrive!”

“You really are somebody, Childe Chen! You even have the authority to dispatch the Tenshou Prince!” Qin Yitian sounded surprised and impressed.

“You’re too kind, Ms. Qin. Compared to you, I’m nothing.”

“Alright, I need to go now! I will be in Tenshou Imperial City by tomorrow morning at the latest. Please get ready!”

“Alright! We’ll contact each other on the phone then!” nodded Chen Xiaobei.

After they had both hung up, Chen Xiaobei turned to Wugui Wangba and said, “Alright. The exchequer is cleaned out. You can do as I’ve asked and deploy the missiles! I’ll be going back to Wugui Kojiro’s place. If you have questions, just give me a call!”

“Don’t worry, master!” Wugui Wangba patted his chest confidently. “I know Tenshou inside out. I will make sure that everything goes according to plan!”

Chen Xiaobei returned to Wugui Kojiro’s place afterward.

“Zhufeng! How was it? Something big happened in the palace!” Ao Liancheng asked as he walked in the door. “The Army General and the Grand Chancellor were executed and members of the royal family and their officers were whipped until they were bedridden! Are all these your doing?”

Luo Bin and Lin Xue, too, were eager for an answer. Unless they heard it from Chen Xiaobei’s own lips, they found it difficult to believe.

It was all so outrageous that no logical person would have accepted that as the truth.

“It seems that you guys are pretty well-informed.” Chen Xiaobei commented. “Yes, it was me. My plan is working smoothly. Next, we’ll have to wait for the right opportunity before going further!”

“Good heavens!” Ao Liancheng shouted. “Zhufeng! Are you sure you’re not a deity? Is there nothing in this world that you cannot do?”

Chen Xiaobei shrugged. “I’m not a deity, but I do have a lot of deity friends!”

“Oh, you’re too humble! Truly, you are the godliest person I have ever met!” Ao Liancheng praised.

Chen Xiaobei was actually telling the truth. All that he had achieved owed greatly to his deity friends in the Three Realms Red Envelope Group.

Considering Ao Liancheng had never met a deity before, he was unaware of their existence.

To him, Chen Xiaobei was merely kidding to downplay his achievements.

“Childe Zhufeng!” Luo Bin and Lin Xue, too, were impressed. “You really are remarkable! You are extremely capable! We are blessed to have you on Saint Duke’s side!

“You’re too kind!” Chen Xiaobei said. “I’m doing this all for Puti! It is my duty! If I fail, then I’ve neglected my duty!”

Luo Bin and Lin Xue nodded approvingly. “Childe Zhufeng, you are a hero in the making! This maturity, spirituality, and mentality are practically non-existent among the young!”

The group chatted for a while after that.

They shared dinner before Ao Liancheng left Tenshou Starfield returning for Neptune.

Wugui Kojiro arranged a separate living quarter for Luo Bin and Lin Xue. It was attended by his most trusted subordinates.

Chen Xiaobei, on the other hand, remained in Wugui Kojiro’s study.

“Qin Yitian will be here tomorrow morning. Although there’s not a lot of time left, I shouldn’t waste it.”

Chen Xiaobei took out his Green Jade Cauldron and set it on the floor.

“Master, what are you doing...?” Wugui Kojiro stared openly at the unfamiliar thing. “This cauldron possesses an extremely powerful Spiritual Attribute! I don’t think this is an ordinary item...”

“You have a good eye! I’m going to forge!”

“What?! You know how to how to forge?!” Wugui Kojiro repeated, an octave higher. “Blacksmiths are very rare! Most of them are in the forties or fifties! I’ve never seen or heard of a blacksmith as young as you!”

“Well, here is your chance to broaden your knowledge and experience!” Chen Xiaobei then placed a ring and something that looked like crystal into the Green Jade Cauldron.

Wugui Kojiro gasped. “That...That is a Frozen Heart Spirit Ring! And the other one’s a material used to craft Frozen Heart Spirit Ring! These two are Tenshou Starfield’s most precious items!”

Chen Xiaobei made no reply and summoned the Transmogrifying Flame.

“Master... You also know pyrokinesis?! You really are a blacksmith!” Wugui Kojiro was feverish. “Childe Liancheng was right! Master, there really is nothing you cannot do! You really are incredible!”

Chen Xiaobei confessed, “Actually, I’m only an amateur blacksmith. Only if someone tells me the specific instructions, can I learn how to execute it! Without directions, I won’t be able to forge independently!”

Wugui Kojiro looked bewildered. “Then... Then what are you doing now? Aren’t you forging something?”

“Right now, I’m just going to embellish this ring!” Chen Xiaobei shrugged. “Back home, I used the Transmogrifying Flame to make many fine jade carvings! Embellishing jewelry and precious stones is just an old profession of mine!”

“Embellish jewelry and precious stones?” Wugui Kojiro repeated. “Master, are you planning to use this Two-star Earth-God Instrument to pick up women?”

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 1789: Dying Man

“Yup! I am going to give this ring to a girl!” Chen Xiaobei grinned. There was a tenderness in his eyes.

“My god... Master, you’re too generous...” Wugui Kojiro gulped. “This is Tenshou’s precious treasure!”

The densely populated Tenshou Starfield, home to billions of people, only had three Two-star Earth-God Instruments in their possession. If people found out that Chen Xiaobei was giving them away as a gift, all of the nine major starfields would have the shock of their lives.

Chen Xiaobei shrugged. “Is this called generosity? I don’t think it’s anything special. If I had something even better, I would have still given it away without hesitation!”

“Nothing special...?” Wugui Kojiro’s little heart nearly exploded.

Two-star was the highest grade of Earth-God instruments in all of the Nine Zones! This was equivalent to at least upper-middle grade in Apocalypse Starfield. Many Earth Gods would be willing to risk their lives just to own one!

Yet, here was Chen Xiaobei calling it 'nothing special'!

He then spent about two hours to completely transform the Frozen Heart Spirit Ring. At first glance, it looked like a shiny diamond like the ones back on earth but upon closer inspection, an observer would be able to see that the Frozen Heart Spirit Ring was even clearer and had a natural luminous glow from it. Lustrous. Dazzling.

Most notably, this was a Two-star Earth-God Instrument! The energy it wielded was comparable to a Two-star Earth-God!

No amount of diamonds combined could compare to the Frozen Heart Spirit Ring!

By the time he was finished with the ring, it was already midnight.

Instead of resting, Chen Xiaobei spent time cultivating.

While he was already at God-Ascension cultivation, there was still a long road ahead. He could not let his hair down yet. He needed to take hold of every minute and every second he had, to continue this lengthy accumulation of strength. His goal was to get to the Earth-God realm, and then the Heavenly Realm.

Only by having sufficient strength would Chen Xiaobei be invincible in the coming future!

He cultivated for almost 5 hours.

The sun had only risen when Qin Yitian's call disrupted Chen Xiaobei.

Ding!

[Cultivation: Early phase of God-Ascension; Lifespan: 1,100 years; Health: 501,000; Combat power: 501,000]

"That was too short... Thank goodness for the Heavenly Path's reward! A 1,000 point increase in combat power and health used to cost me ten-hours' worth of cultivation!" Chen Xiaobei thought aloud to himself. "Breaking through to God-Ascension level added 1,000 years to my lifespan. I can use that to speed up the process if necessary!"

After this short reflection on his cultivation gains, Chen Xiaobei sent Wugui Kojiro to pick up Qin Yitian.

While waiting for their return, Chen Xiaobei cleaned himself up.

A few minutes later, a very beautiful flying vehicle flew past the courtyard gates towards the prince's study.

The door slid open and Wugui Kojiro and Qin Yitian alighted from the craft.

Qin Yitian was stunning as ever with her striking looks and sultry figure. She had put on a crisp, white dress that made her look like a goddess.

To say this woman embodied the image of perfection was not hyperbole!

Except for that intense Murderous Intent, however!

According to Su Xiaoman, when Qin Yitian was a newborn, the Three-star Earth-God Instrument called the Heavenly Sword came down from the heavens and made her its master!

Until this day, the sword had never left her side. As the years passed, the murderous aura of the sword influenced her so intensely that her mere presence made people weak in the knees.

Throughout the journey to his place, Wugui Kojiro avoided any eye contact whatsoever with Qin Yitian.

"Lady Qin, is the patient in the vehicle?" asked Chen Xiaobei who had a strong mind and was not fearful of her.

"Yes!" Qin Yitian nodded. "He's getting worse! I don't think he's going to make it!"

"Mm, let me take a look fist!" Chen Xiaobei walked to the car.

Qin Yitian pressed a button on her car key and the door opened upwards to reveal a wounded patient lying in the passenger seat.

This was so that they did not have to move the wounded man, who looked like he was easily in his thirties. His torso was swathed in thick layers of bandage, and fresh blood was stubbornly seeping through his chest leaving an ever increasing large red stain.

His face was a sickly shade of green and whenever he coughed, which was rather persistent at this point, blood would sprout from his mouth and nose.

The spacious carriage reeked of blood and the floor was dyed in droplets of red.

"He is a shidi of mine. We're from the same faction. The enemy hit him right in the chest. We've consulted a lot of doctors. They all say that his heart meridian has been permanently damaged, and there's nothing they could do for him..." Qin Yitian sighed. "I was ready to bury him but he hung on to life and had not stopped breathing! So, I wanted to try my luck to see if you could save him!"

"Aren't you just making it difficult for Childe Chen?!" Wugui Kojiro was not happy. "How can Childe Chen save someone on the verge of death? Does Childe Chen look like a deity to you?"

Wugui Kojiro was extremely intimidated by Qin Yitian's frightening presence, but he pushed that fear aside as he felt that she was deliberately making things difficult for his master. As his loyal hound, it was his job was to defend Chen Xiaobei against any injustice whatsoever.

Qin Yitian nodded. "I know that asking him to heal my shidi is a little imposing! I dared not give myself too much hope either on our way here, seeing how his condition had been worsening! I won't grumble if Childe Chen can't do it!"

"Now, that's more like it!" Wugui Kojiro pursed his lips. "Childe Chen is not a god. How could he raise the dead to life?"

"Why not?" Chen Xiaobei raised his eyebrow at the prince. "You don't know anything! Step aside! Don't stay here and ruin my reputation!"

"I..." Wugui Kojiro looked confused. He was just protecting his master. How was that ruining Chen Xiaobei's reputation?

Qin Yitian was taken aback. "Childe Chen, you mean... You can save my shidi?"

"Of course!" Chen Xiaobei smiled confidently. "I even guarantee that he'll be able to walk in three days!"

"H...How...?" Both Qin Yitian and Wugui Kojiro asked in disbelief.

"It's already a miracle for a dying man to stay alive. How could he possibly walk in three days?" Wugui Kojiro was bewildered.

Qin Yitian looked just as doubtful. "Childe, Chen, it's okay if you can't do it... You can just tell me. I won't blame you! There's no need to crack jokes like that!"

Chen Xiaobei shrugged in response. "In terms of medical skills... if I claim second place, then there would be no one to claim the first!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 1790: Returning from Death

Arrogant! Outrageous! Vainglorious!

These were descriptions that came to Qin Yitian and Wugui Kojiro's mind upon hearing Chen Xiaobei's statement.

Of course, out of courtesy, Qin Yitian did not say those things aloud, and out of loyalty as Chen Xiaobei's loyal hound, Wugui Kojiro could not speak ill of his master.

It was obvious, though, that neither of them believed Chen Xiaobei.

In this wide wide world, there were the Nine Starfields, the Apocalypse Starfield, and the Earth-God Realm!

Chen Xiaobei had just said that if he claimed second place, no one else would claim first!

Any normal person with a brain would not believe Chen Xiaobei.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei was the real deal. He did not have to convince others to believe him. The results would speak for themselves.

Immediately, Chen Xiaobei injected three rays of Ethereal Force into the body of the wounded man.

The force took liquid form and traveled in the meridian and veins of the man. It was a gentle and mild Water Attribute Ethereal Force, unclogging any blockages that it came across.

"What powerful Water Attribute Ethereal Force! Stable! Pure! Robust!" Qin Yitian exclaimed. "Childe Chen! You must have reached God-Ascension cultivation?!"

"Keen eyes, Lady Qin! I have, as a matter of fact, reached God-Ascension cultivation!"

"What?!" Wugui Kojiro's mouth fell open involuntarily. "Chide Chen! You... When did that happen? That's... frightening..."

“Don’t make a fuss!” Chen Xiaobei shrugged. “This small cultivation is not even worthy of mentioning in front of Lady Qin.”

“You’re too humble!” Qin Yitian’s beautiful eyes were round and wide. “Childe Chen, you’re only what, twenty-two? No one in Apocalypse Starfield has ever broken through to God-Ascension cultivation at your age! Your talent is truly amazing!”

“You overpraise me, Lady Qin. My head will grow big if you keep flattering me like this!” Chen Xiaobei grinned as he began an acupuncture procedure on the patient.

“Are you interested in joining Heaven Dominating Faction?” Qin Yitian asked. “I can be your referral! I’ll make sure you are made a core disciple and we will pour in generous resources for you!”

“You could... Really?” Wugui Kojiro’s eyeballs nearly fell out of their sockets.

Heaven Dominating Faction was the number one faction in all of Apocalypse Starfield.

People who were accepted into the faction were all fierce and formidable people capable of dominating everything and everyone in their respective Starfields!

The core disciples of Heaven Dominating Faction were a class above. They were either legendary elites or extremely talented people.

Wugui Kojiro was green with envy to hear Chen Xiaobei bring offered the chance to join Heaven Dominating Faction.

Chen Xiaobei surprisingly shrugged at the proposal. “I don’t want to join Heaven Dominating Faction because I have already established my own faction!”

“What?!” Again, Wugui Kojiro found himself in a stupor.

Did Chen Xiaobei just turn down Qin Yitian’s invite?

Qin Yitian had to take a minute to digest it as well. “Childe Chen really is an interesting person! I have never seen anyone refuse an offer to join Heaven Dominating Faction!”

“Yeah! Childe Chen! Would you like to think about it again?” Wugui Kojiro quickly spoke up. “Being part of a powerful faction means having powerful support! You just need to flash your Heaven Dominating Faction membership and everyone will give face to you!”

“If people don’t give me face, I will fight for it then!” Chen Xiaobei replied. “You guys see Heaven Dominating Faction as a powerful backup, but compared to my personal backup, Heaven Dominating Faction is really not that significant!”

He was talking about the Three Realms Red Envelope Group of course! The Prime of Tongtian! His brothers from the Brotherhood Group!

Any one of them could crush Heaven Dominating Faction and turn it into dust.

Chen Xiaobei’s refusal was within reason.

Of course, Qin Yitian and Wugui Kojiro knew nothing about that.

Wugui Kojiro stammered, "Childe... everyone knows... how powerful Heaven Dominating Faction is...! Below the Earth-God Realm, Heaven Dominating Faction is basically indestructible! How could you say... that they are... That's just too... Too..."

"Too cocky!" said Qin Yitian. "Childe Chen. You are indeed extraordinarily gifted, but don't you think you're overly conceited? Who are you to disrespect my faction like that?"

Chen Xiaobei shrugged. "I was able to cure the person your faction could not save. Is that enough of a qualification?"

"What?" Qin Yitian gave Chen Xiaobei an odd look.

"Argh... Hack Hack..." The wounded man in the car suddenly coughed. His eyes fluttered open. His voice hoarse and weak when he suddenly asked, "Where am I? Am I in the underworld? Could dead people... feel pain... hack... hack..."

Qin Yitian looked as if she had been struck by lightning. She was speechless.

Wugui Kojiro's reaction was the exact opposite. He screamed, "He's alive! He's alive! Childe Chen brought a dead man back to life! My God! This is incredible beyond belief!"

"I... I'm alive?" A slow smile spread across the man's lips. "My god... I'm alive! This is a miracle! I thought that I was going to die for sure... I even gave up on all hope of living. I was just waiting for death to come knocking... I didn't think that I'd be alive..."

"It's our Childe Chen who saved you!" exclaimed Wugui Kojiro who was dying to announce that. "Our Childe Chen's medical skills are godly!"

"Childe Chen... You are the Childe Chen who saved me?" The man looked at Chen Xiaobei. "Thank you so much! Thank you! I was so severely wounded, it must have taken you a lot of..."

"Actually, I didn't have to exert much at all." Chen Xiaobei shrugged. "All it took was the time we spent talking just now."

"How... How is that possible..." The man gasped.

Of course, Qin Yitian and Wugui Kojiro knew that Chen Xiaobei had done it all while he was talking to them.

Amidst a discussion, he had raised the dead to life!

Unless they had not seen it with their own two eyes, none of them would have believed it either.

"Childe Chen... Where did learn all these skills? I, Qin Yitian am truly impressed by you!" cooed Qin Yitian who had one hand over her mouth.

Chen Xiaobei smiled. "If you're willing to join the Bei Xuan Faction I established, I can teach you myself – one on one. You'll guaranteed to learn under my instruction."
