Two thousand?

Blarggh!

Shi Dafeng's heart was wracked in sudden pain. A mouthful of blood was spat on the ground. Shi Mingwei was bristling in anger. His face was totally twisted. At that very moment, the two of their faces were burning. It was like they had just taken thousands of slaps on their faces. This was their doing. They deserved it. Initially, they could showcase their very much authentic Frosty Autumn Spring Tree without any trouble, but they chose to mess with Chen. Not only that, they mocked Lan as well. Obviously, they were seeking for a death wish. Chen had to teach them a good lesson.

The two of them wanted to cannibalize Chen and drink his blood badly. However, they were not allowed to do because Mu had brought a full closure on the matter. Anger would get them nowhere. If they offended Mu. Not only they would lose more than two hundred million but also losing their lives. This was the true strength of an extremely powerful person. No one would dare to disobey him. The weaker ones had to listen to the stronger one. They had no right to change the outcome.

"Mingwei... Let's go...." There was still some blood in Shi Dafeng's mouth. His eyes were bloodshot. No, the vessels had burst and his sclera was completely red in color. He looked like a ghost from a scary movie. Undoubtedly, an ultimate hatred had been created between Chen and the Shi family. Once they stepped out of the door, everyone in the villa started to get excited again. This was a rare opportunity for them to take a closer look at the national treasure. All of them examined the painting carefully. Also, they took out their cameras and took pictures of it.

"Mr. Chen, may I ask you a question? Do you wish to sell this Frosty Autumn Spring Tree painting?" CEO Ma walked towards Chen and asked politely.

In the beginning, he looked down on Chen but now he addressed him politely in a good manner. Due to the presence of the precious painting, Chen had become more respectable in others' eyes. No one in the villa would ever look down on him.

"Do I want to sell it?"

Chen paused for a while and said, "I'm willing to sell this for the price of two hundred million Yuan. If you can pay me now, this painting will go into your possession."

In Chen's eyes, antiques were pretty useless. Money was the way of living. CEO Ma was startled when he heard the price.

"Can I pay you by monthly installments?"

"I'm afraid I can't do that. I do not like to drag. If you want it, you have to pay me in one shot." Chen shrugged his shoulders and clarified his stand.

"I don't think I'm able to purchase this painting. My total assets are worth one billion. But, most of them are capital goods. I don't think that I can get two hundred million Yuan in such a short time." CEO Ma said disappointedly.

Chen was shocked. He did not know CEO Ma had one billion worth of asset. If he couldn't get his hands on two hundred million Yuan right now, no one else in this villa would be able to pull this off. Just when Chen was considered lowering the price, Mu walked towards Chen.

"Do you mind selling this painting to me?" Mu asked politely.

"Of course I don't mind! But..." Chen said in doubt.

"Money is not an issue. Just give me your bank account number. I can wire the money to you right now." Mu said casually.

"What the f*ck! This is a real billionaire! No! He should be a Super Billionaire! I can't believe he is able to transfer two hundred million to me on the spot. Compared to CEO Ma, Mu might have hundreds of billion with him! This is so damn cool!" Chen thought. He quickly gave him his bank account number.

Within five minutes, two hundred million had been wired to Chen's bank account. Looking at a line long figures in his account, he felt like he was dreaming. His joy escalated to space instantly. After receiving the money and handing over the painting to Mu, Chen, Lan, and Uncle Qin left the villa.

"Chen, I can never fathom the extent of things that you can pull off. You know how to predict the future, you get hold of different antiques easily. Are you a tomb raider?" Lan bombarded him with questions once they were in the car.

"Hehe... You are a smart girl!"

"That's right! I'm the legendary male version of the Tomb Raider! My lady, are you interested in learning some of the tomb digging techniques from me?" Chen laughed evilly.

"Quit talking nonsense!" Lan pouted playfully and rolled her eyes.

"Alright. I should quit talking nonsense. Can I have your account number? I will wire the money to you right now." Chen said seriously.

"Alright."

Lan was really a smart and considerate girl. She knew that Chen did not want to talk about the antique incident anymore, so, she stopped asking about it. Chen quickly finished the transaction process. He was cracking his head about what he should do about the money that he owed Lan. He never thought that he could fully return the money to Lan today. Also, he still had one hundred and nine million in his bank account. That money was more than enough to buy his whole village. Thinking of this, Chen actually wanted to travel back to his village as soon as possible.

His parents had worked hard to support his studies in the big city. He needed to go back to make them proud. He decided to hire someone to work on the house's interior design. He would invite his parents to come over to stay with him once the makeover is done. Chen couldn't wait for it to happen.

Lan had classes to attend once they reached the university. Chen also had a mission to accomplish. He quickly ran to the university office and waited outside. Yesterday, he had predicted that Lin would face some kind of danger tonight. So, he purposely waited for her to come out from the office. He decided that he was going to follow Lin tonight to help her out. He wanted to find out what was happening to her.

"Which class are you from? Why are you snooping about here?!" A fifty-year-old, plump man walked toward Chen and stared at him.

"Hello, Vice Headmaster Wong. I was just passing by," Chen simply made something up. His eyes were filled with hatred.

This fat man was the vice headmaster of Green Vine University; Wong Jianren. He was only fifty but he was already bald. His teeth were crooked and yellowish. No words could describe his ugliness. Other than that, he was also a randy old goat. He had always set some kind of underground rule to have sex with some of the female teachers. He even slept with a few students from the art stream. The most disgusting thing was that he would always use security issues as an excuse to barge into the female shower room. Chen was not the only one who hated him. Most of the students in this university were disgusted by him.

Chen quickly walked away from him. He was going to vomit if he spent one more moment with him. However, Chen did not walk too far from the office. He found a hidden corner to continue his surveillance. A few minutes later, Chen saw something that shocked him to death. The bastard Wong brought a female teacher out of the office. She was none other than Lin Xiang. Chen quickly followed them. He couldn't let this happen to Lin.

Wong drove to the Shangri-la hotel. That was a five-star hotel. It was a place for dining, entertainment, and staying the night as well. There was nothing wrong with dining here. Also, it would be more convenient to book a room right after dining to have sex. It was easy to guess Wong's mind. A skinny hand tapped Chen's shoulder when Chen wanted to get down from the cab to follow them.

"Why are you here?"

Chen saw a skinny man when he traced the hand back to its owner. The man's stare was ice cold. He looked like a snake that had just came out from its nest. This man was none other than Jing Fei.

"Cut the shit! You have been sentenced to death by Boss Shi! I will bring back your head to Boss Shi if you refuse to hand over the Frosty Autumn Spring Tree painting." Jing Fei said in an icy-cold tone.

"Shi Dafeng has no idea what he has just done to me! Apparently, he has a death wish! How dare he order you to kill me?!" Chen said angrily.

"Erm?"

Jing Fei was stunned by Chen's unexpected reaction. He thought Chen was just another boy toy who would beg for his life at this critical situation. However, Chen acted completely differently. He was not afraid of him. On the contrary, Chen dominated him with his powerful presence.

"Son of the bitch! Acting cool before your death? Do you think that I, the Thief King of Yun Chuan is a piece of weakling?" Jing Fei tried to scare Chen with his title.

"Thief King of Yun Chuan? You are even weaker than a piece of meat! What kind of King are you? Wait, don't tell me. King of meatloaves, maybe!" Chen said condescendingly.

"Motherf*cker! It seems like I'll have to beat the f*ck out of you before anything else!" Jing frowned. Then, he proceeded to try slapping Chen.

Jing Fei's cultivation was in later stage of physical phase. Also, his combat power was one thousand. Chen's cultivation was still at an early stage of physical phase. His combat power was only a hundred. There was a huge gap of power difference between the two of them. Technically speaking, it was impossible for Chen to fight against Jing

Fei. But, Chen always had his trump card with him. This was why he was not afraid of Jing Fei. The moment that aura had burst out, he had already activated it.

"The strength of Xiangyu! Come to me!" Chen shouted in his heart.

The Netherspirit Battlescouter started to work. Xiangyu's strength filled Chen's body instantly.

Ding!

[Combat power: 5000]

"Eh?"

Jing Fei's slap was closing in on Chen's face. However, his palm stopped in the middle of the air. It stopped moving completely.

"How is this even possible?" Jing Fei's was in complete shock.

Chen's hands were like a metal clamp wrapping around Jing Fei's hand. No matter how hard Jing Fei tried to loosen up his hand from Chen, it wouldn't budge.

"Ouch! Ouch!"

Chen squeezed, hard, and Jing Fei Started to squeal like a pig. The strength of Xiangyu was extremely powerful. Chen could crush Jing Fei's hand anytime he wants.

"Please stop! I beg you! Mr Chen... Master Chen! Spare my life!" Jing Fei's face turned red and he started to perspire. The excruciating pain destroyed his state of mind completely.

He knew clearly that it was impossible to fight against Chen. Other than begging for his life, there was nothing else that he can do.

"You came here to take my life! Why should I spare your life?" Chen growled menacingly.

"I'm willing to become your slave! Also, I can be your loyal dog as well!" Jing Fei was scared to death. He even threw away his dignity.

"A loyal dog? That sounds like a good idea!"

Chen started to focus and observe Jing Fei's face. Through the Eight Diagram "Qi" observation skill, Chen saw that Jing Fei reeked of treachery. He definitely could not be trusted. However, Chen had another plan. He took out his cellphone, clicked on his treasure chest and withdrew the heavenly dog food that had he received earlier. A ray of strong light burst out from his cellphone and further terrified Jing Fei. Chen opened the bag. He saw three pieces of bone shaped dog food inside the bag.

"Only three? The Xiao Tianquan is too damn stingy....That's alright! Let's try the magical effect of this dog food first. If it does not help to increase the loyalty of a person, it's pointless to possess so many of it."

Chen took out a piece of dog food and said, "You have seen my secret! If you do not wish to die, eat this now!"

"Ah?"

Jing Fei was confused after hearing what Chen just asked him to do. It was totally understandable for someone to take revenge by punching the person. But, taking revenge by asking someone to eat dog food did not make sense at all.

"Are you going to eat it?!" Chen shouted at Jing Fei.

"Eat! I will eat it now!" Jing Fei quickly nodded his head. His life was in Chen's hand. Even if Chen asked him to eat dog shit, he would have to eat it as well.

"Wow, this is actually pretty good..."

Jing Fei was stunned, and he kept on chewing and chewing the dog food that he had just put into his mouth. It looked like he was enjoying it, so much so that he wanted to ask for seconds. No matter what, it was still heavenly food, dog food or not.

"Eh?"

Something weird happened the next second. Jing Fei's pupils dilated and his mind went blank. The way he stared at Chen was as if he just lost his soul.

"Master... Are you my master?" Jing Fei slowly opened up his mouth and talked. His voice was monotonous. He sounded like a robot.

"What the f*ck?! The effect of this dog food is insane!"

Chen got really excited and he quickly nodded, "Yes! I'm your master! From today onwards, you will be my follower!"

"Yes! My master!" Jing Fei nodded his head mechanically.

A few seconds later, his pupils returned to normal and he definitely looked livelier. His eyes were filled with great reverence towards Chen. It definitely looked as if he had become Chen's number one worshipper. He was basically treating Chen as his almighty God.

"What the hell? He's completely loyal now! This is so crazy!" Looking through the Eight Diagrams "Qi" observation skill, Chen was getting even more excited.

"After so long, I finally figured out that this heavenly dog food is the best item that I have ever received! If I let Mu consume this dog food, I will become the king of kings of Green Vine City. He would be a puppet underground king!" Chen got really thrilled.

After some thought, Chen shook his head and said, "Murong Tian is a decent man. I can't just control him with dog food. I should reserve it for my future enemies. Hehehe..."

Ding!

"Sigh... My points were deducted again. I can't go on like this! I need to find a way to regain them!" Chen sighed.

This was not the time. He needed to follow up with Lin's incident.

"Jing Fei, let's go in. We are going to split up and follow the woman that I followed just now!" Chen ordered Jing. Then they proceeded by entering the hotel.

This hotel was extremely big. They still could not locate Lin after half an hour.

"Shit! This is bad! Where do I find Lin in this huge hotel?" Chen got really anxious. He wouldn't be so anxious if it was another man who took Lin. But, the man that took Lin away was Wong Jianren; the randy old goat. If Chen failed to locate Lin in time, nasty things were going to happen to Lin.

"Master! I have an idea." Jing Fei spoke softly.

"What? Speak now!" Chen asked impatiently.

"Don't you remember that I'm the king of thieves? Come with me!" Jing Fei smiled mysteriously and moved forward. Chen quickly followed him. Jing Fei's title wasn't for nothing. He truly had skills worthy of being the king of thieves. As they had been looking for Lin, he had already figured out the layout of this hotel.

Soon enough, Jing Fei led Chen to a very important place; the surveillance room!

Chen understood immediately. However, he said worryingly, "This is an important place. There's no way we can enter it without permission."

"We don't need their permission." Jing Fei smiled and he took a steel wire from out of nowhere.

Kacha!

Pilipala!

Jing Fei sat in front of the computer and his fingers moved across the keyboard at lightning speed. He was controlling more than ten monitors.

"Man! This is insane!"

Chen was really impressed by Jing Fei. He had so many different types of talents. It was totally worth keeping him as Chen's loyal lap dog. Initially, there were two security guards in the surveillance room, but both of them were knocked out and tossed aside by Jing Fei in a series of fluid actions that would have made Jacky Chan proud.

"Master! I found it!" Jing Fei smacked the keyboard and a picture showed up. He saw Lin Xiang and Wong Jianren entering one of the rooms on the twentieth floor. A food cart came right after they entered the room.

"Zoom in on the number of the room! We are going in!" Chen ordered Jing anxiously.

"Yes!" Jing Fei obeyed Chen's order immediately.

After some thought. Jing Fei had to speak up, "Master! I think I should say something about the current situation. That woman volunteered to have sex with that man. Don't you think we are being busybodies if we get involved in this incident?"

"Cut the crap! I know Ms. Lin the best! She is an innocent girl! She must be backed up against the wall! I must rescue her!" Chen's words were quick and definite.

Then again, it was still early. Also, Wong just ordered a meal. He would not do anything to Lin at the moment.

"Jing Fei, I'm going out for a while. Keep an eye on him!" Chen said angrily and left the room afterwards. He was determined to rescue Lan today and teach Wong, that randy old goat, a valuable lesson.

Inside the 2066 room.

"Pretty lady. Come and taste the wine. I purposely ordered it from the hotel just for you." Wong held the glass in his hand and swirled it with the intention to look cool in front of Lin. The red liquid in the glass was filled with an evil aura.

"I'm not good at drinking alcohol." Lin had her head bowed down. Her face looked pale and her front row of teeth bit down on her lower lip. She looked extremely unsettled.

"Don't be nervous. Everyone has their first time. You should take in some alcohol to reduce your anxiety." Wong smiled disgustingly and said. Then, he handed over a glass of wine to Lin.

"I really am not an alcohol person..." Lin pushed the glass unconsciously and the wine spilled onto Wong.

"What the actual f*ck?!"

Wong's face turned black and he said angrily, "Please do not pretend to be an innocent girl in front of me! This is not the f*cking time! Don't you dare forget what you said to me when you borrowed money from me."

"I... I regret my decision now... Please let me go... And, for the money... I will return it to you slowly..." Lin's lower lips were almost bleeding due to her biting force. Her eyes were filled with torment.

"Hmph!!! Are you treating me like an idiot?! You borrowed three hundred thousand from me! When can you fully return such huge amount of money to me?"

"I did warn you. If you fail to pleasure me tonight, I will go to the police tomorrow and tell them about how you cheated me of my money. When that time comes, I will kick you out from the school personally and force you to return the money to me!"

"This..." Lin's face became paler after hearing Wong's words. Judging from her current living conditions, if she lost her job right now, her life will be turned into a complete mess.

"Mr. Wong, please don't do this to me. I borrowed the money from you to save my brother's life. Can't you see this as an act of kindness? Have mercy on me, please!" Lin's eyes turned red and tearful. Her body was shaking. These were the signs that she was going to break down real soon.

"Cut the bullshit! You took my money. And now, you turn into an ungrateful bitch! I will not allow this happen on my watch!"

Wong leaned towards Lin and said, "Have sex with me, right now, if you don't want to lose your job!"

Lin was shocked. She quickly stepped back and said, "Mr. Wong... Please, give me more time to consider it."

"Hmph!! Just do whatever you want!"

Wong pursed his lips and said with no fear, "The proof of you borrowing money from me is in my hand. You can take all the time in this world to consider this."

Lin did not respond to Wong. She rushed into the bathroom and washed her face with cold water. There was a saying; hell and heaven were only within a flash of thought. It would be hell for her no matter what she chose. After Chen exited the hotel, he quickly rushed to a narrow and dark back alley. There were a lot of massage centers and saloon at the back alley. A warm neon pink light caught Chen's attention. It looked like something fishy was going on in the shop. Then, Chen walked into the saloon. There were few women with cigarettes in their mouths, shaking their legs and waiting for business inside the saloon. Their eyes lighted up when they saw Chen entered the shop. They couldn't believe that such a handsome young man would visit their brothel. It all looked a wild dream to them.

"Who is the boss?" Chen asked condescendingly.

"I am the boss! Is there anything that we can do for you, handsome man?" A middle-aged lady stood up and said. Her face was caked with foundation. Also, her lips were the shape of thick sausages moving along with her mouth. It looked as if she was ready to eat Chen up.

"This is a brothel. Am I right?" Chen frowned a little and went straight to the pint.

"You... What are you talking about? This is a real saloon." The plump lady feigned ignorance.

Chen took out a stack of cash without a second thought and said, "Is. This. A. Brothel?"

"Yes! Yes! Yes!"

The plump lady nodded. She looked like a chicken pecking on the ground. The other women reacted the same. That stack of cash was more than enough to support them for half a month.

"Who has sexually transmitted disease?" Chen asked.

"Huh?"

The lady boss was shocked and said, "Don't you worry. All of us here have constant checkups with doctor. We do not have any STD."

"I want someone with STD!" Chen cut in.

"This..."

All the women were very puzzled. This young man had some serious fetish.

"Er... I will get straight to the point, since you have such weird fetishes."

The plump lady smiled shamelessly and said, "Actually, we have not done any checkups with any doctors. Me, Ru Hua, Fu Rong, and Ah Ju are contracted with different kind of STDs. Which one would you like?"

"All four of you. Come with me!" Chen took out more cash and put it on the table.

"Woah!! You are so damn generous!"

The plump lady patted her chest and said excitedly, "I'm not going to boast about anything! Because of your generosity, the four golden flowers will come with all the skills that we possess to make sure that you stay at the height of pleasure for the entire time!"

The third woman stood up after Chen had finished talking. The first woman's face was darker than Zhang Fei's. The second woman's boobs were so saggy that they actually laid on her tummy. The third one looked retarded. She was sucking on her finger after using it to pick her nose.

"Ewww."

Chen's asshole tightened up. He said, "I'm not the fortunate one. The mission for all four of you is to pleasure my boss! I can even give you more money if my boss is satisfied with your service."

"Don't you worry! We will make sure that your boss will blow up so many times that he forgets his own name!" The four golden flowers were very excited. They were more than ready to serve Wong.

At the Shangri-la hotel, in front of room 2066, the door slid opened silently. Even digital locks couldn't stop them.

"Please march in, four-golden flowers." Chen led them into the room.

"Who is that?"

Wong was lying down on the bed. He quickly stood up when he heard someone talking.

"Don't be anxious, Mr Wong. I have brought the beauties that you asked for earlier!"

Chen put on an evil smile and said to the plump lady, "Sister! That is my boss! He has some fetishes that are really difficult to fulfill. He loves violent women. Please, make it as violent as possible."

"Understood! You mean SM! We know how to do that!" The plump lady raised an eyebrow and the other three golden flowers started to knead their fists. They quickly surrounded Wong.

"Who are you people? I warn you, don't come near me! Stop fooling around!" Wong was so startled that he retreated to the corner of the room. His face was full of fear.

"Hehe... He's already getting into the role. He really fancies this. Let's go, my sisters!" The plump lady gave the order by lifting up her hand.

The four golden flowers charged at Wong and he was pushed down on the floor. They started to rip open his shirt.

"What the hell are you guys doing? Stop messing around! I'm going to call the police!" Wong felt as if he was being crushed by a bunch of ugly ghosts. He shrieked in agony.

Piak!

Piak!

"How dare you slapped me?!" Wong started to feel dizzy, due to the two strong slaps that landed on his face just now.

"How can I pleasure you if I don't hit you?" The plump lady lifted up a fist and started to punch Wong in the face. Wong's face was quickly swollen. At the same time, his clothes were completely ripped off by the three golden flowers. The dark-faced lady straddled Wong and started her indescribable love action. Ru Hua and Ah Ju took out their candles and whips. Then, they started to "punish" Wong with all their might.

"Ah... Oh... Ouch!" Wong was being tortured to death and tears started to roll down his face. Have you ever wondered what hell looked like? Well, this was as close as it got! Chen held his gut down. It was on the verge of expelling its contents. He took out his cellphone and recorded the action in front of him. For three minutes, he stood there, silently recording in disgust.

Chen kept his phone and smiled coldly, "The four golden flowers! Please, work harder on my boss! Unleash all your skills on him. I will make sure my boss pays you extra tomorrow! I'll leave you guys to it first!"

After that, Chen ordered Jing Fei to open the bathroom door.

"Chen! Why are you here?!" Lin looked extremely awful. It was like her soul was lost in some other world. She had mixed feelings when she saw Chen appearing in front of her. She was speechless.

"Don't be afraid, you're okay now! I'll take you home! No one would dare to touch or hurt you with me around." Chen put on a warm smile, held Lin's hand and exited the room. After they left the hotel, Lin wanted to look for a place to calm herself down. Chen was afraid that she might do something crazy, so, he decided to stick with her at the moment.

"Master, you can go ahead and accompany Ms. Lin. I'm not going to become the third wheel..." Jing Fei said considerately.

"Okay. I would like you to do me a favor." Chen's stare turned cold and his words were like frostbite.

"Ms. Lin, can you wait for two minutes here?" Chen told Lin and he walked further away with Jing Fei.

"Master, are you planning to mess up Shi Dafeng?" Jing Fei was very smart. He figured out what Chen wanted him to do immediately.

Chen nodded and said in an ice-cold tone, "I will not forgive him since he ordered someone to kill me!"

"Understood! I will murder his whole family tonight!" Jing Fei's eyes were filled with bloodlust. Based on his strength, killing a human was easier than killing a chicken.

Chen stared at him and said, "Did I even ask you to murder his whole family? You are such a maniac!"

"Erm... What do you want me to do? Master?" Jing Fei bowed down his head.

"Death is too easy. I want him to experience something that is scarier than death itself. Deep inside his eyes reflected a deep darkness that no light could escape from. It was ice-cold and frozen.

"Then... What should I do?" Jing Fei gulped. He figured out that Chen was an unpredictable person. Also, he felt that Chen could be quite scary at times!

"I thought that you are the thief king?!"

Chen said in a serious tone, "I want you to rob Dafeng jewelry shop tonight! Do not leave a single item behind, in the vault!"

How....How is this even possible?" Jing Fei was shocked and said in embarrassment, "It's easy to slip inside the jewelry shop. Also, it's not hard to break in the vault as well. But...How do I move all the jewelry by myself?"

"Don't worry! I will not ask you to do something impossible like that."

Chen took out his cellphone and clicked on his treasure chest.

"Look carefully! All you need to do is click on the "receive" button. Then, you can absorb everything into my treasure chest.

"I.....Oh my God....What kind of technology is this?" Jing Fei's jaw almost dropped to the ground.

"Cut the crap! I'm going to hand over the phone to you right now! Don't disappoint me!" Chen said.

"Don't you worry, my master! With this magical cellphone in my hand, I can steal everything in the vault! Just sit tight and watch the news tomorrow!"

Jing Fei took over the cellphone. It was like he had just received a holy item. His face was full of sincerity. Then, he left in rush.

"Shi Dafeng, you asked for this." Chen put on his evil laugh. He had everything under his control.

Shi Dafeng had three hundred million dollars worth of assets with him. In order to purchase the Frosty Autumn Spring Tree painting, he had gathered all his liquid capital and pawned his jewelry shop to the bank as well. The only thing he had left was the jewelry. If Jing Fei succeeded in this mission, Shi family would be completely broke and they would not even have any chance to start over again. Also, Shi Dafeng would become the real poor man. Also, he will lose the ability to return the loan that he had applied for, earlier. The end result for his family, would be bankruptcy.

Chen calmed himself down and returned to Lin. He asked, "Ms Lin, where do you want to go? Let's go!"

"I want to have a drink..." Lin said depressingly.

"Okay. It's good to let everything out." Chen grabbed a cab and they headed towards the west side of the city. This side of the city is full of entertainment centers.

Chen was not familiar with this place at all. So, he went to the Fire "Grim-Reaper" Boss's bar to have a drink. The boss was very enthusiastic. He gave them free booze and the best seats in the bar as well. He truly is Chen's biggest fan.

It was the busiest time of the night. After serving Chen, the boss had to go handle his other patrons. After he left, Lin hurriedly popped the cap off her beer bottle and drank from it straight.

Cough

Lin was not good at drinking alcohol. After two mouthfuls of booze, she started to cough non-stop.

"Drink slowly. No one is going to take that away from you," Chen smiled.

She sniffed, put the bottle down and said, "You must be thinking that I'm such a cheap b*tch. I went and have sex with Wong Jianren for money. Right?"

Editor thoughts: Entertainment district? Seriously? That's your idea of calming down a woman who almost got violated? I mean. You could go grab some beer from a nearby vending machine or something, and then go to some cliched, bench in an empty park or something, I guess.

"Don't be so hard on yourself. You only did it because you had no choice."

Chen's gave Lin a reassuring look.

"You think so?" Lin was stunned. She felt warm and fuzzy inside, and her eyes started to water.

"Silly woman, why would I have gone to rescue you if I believed that you wholeheartedly wanted it?' Chen asked softly.

Lin's delicate body trembled – Chen had just touched the softest spot in her heart.

Tears rolled down her cheeks uncontrollably. She spun around and hugged the crook of his arm tightly, burying her small face in his shoulders, and started to cry.

"Thank you... Thank you for believing in me..." Lin choked through her sobs.

Chen cooed into her ear while stroking her back lightly, "Go ahead and let it all out. You will feel much better. After that, vent all your problems to me. Whatever burdens you have, I will carry them with you.'

"Wh... Why... Why are you so good to me?" Lin whimpered.

"Because you deserve to be treated well," Chen said, smiling reassuringly.

Back when he was always cutting classes, working a part time job, Lin was the one who persistently urged him to not give up on his studies.

Lin was also the one who would buy him dinner and hot soup when all that he could afford to eat were plain steamed buns.

These small acts of kindness were deeply imprinted in Chen's heart, never to be forgotten in time, through all eternity.

When it came to his enemies, Chen will never be merciful – he would be brutish and unkind.

But when it came to his friends and people who he was indebted to, Chen would greatly value the relationship. He would be more than willing to help. He would definitely do his best to help his friends.

That was why he would help Lin with whatever she needed.

A few minutes later.

Lin had calmed down. She wiped away the traces of tears and slowly told her tale, "This whole thing started, because my brother owed some the loan sharks. My hands were tied. I had no choice but to borrow money from Wong Jian Ren... He knew that I did not have the means to pay him back, so he proposed that I spend the night with him..."

"Why did your brother borrow the money in the first place? From the looks of things, this is not something that took place in one night,' Chen mused.

"Gambling!"

Lin gritted her teeth, a flash of anger crossing her face. "My brother is addicted to gambling, and he sucks at it – nine out of ten, he would crash. In the past, he only gambled small amounts, and I could barely afford to pay the debts that he had on him with my salary. But recently, he became bolder and gambled larger amounts and the debts grew bigger... To protect him, I stupidly promised Wong..."

"No, you're not stupid at all. You are a great sister," said Chen, grinning from ear to ear.

"Really?"

"Of course, it's true. I swear, if I'm lying to you, I'll turn into a puppy." Chen grinned.

"You are a puppy! A cute puppy!" Lin beamed, a pair mesmerizing dimples appearing on her cheeks.

Seeing this, Chen relaxed and he chuckled, "Well, since the puppy is so cute, shouldn't the owner give him a kiss?"

Chen was only playfully teasing her. He was just joking.

Never in his wildest dreams would he have thought that Lin would actually have the guts to do it. She grabbed him by the arms, drew her lips close to him and pecked his cheek.

"Jesus Christ!"

His whole body trembled as if he had been tazed. The hairs on his body stood on end.

Deemed as one of the four most beautiful girls in school, Lin was living proof that goddesses did exist.

Today! Today he was actually kissed by the goddess herself!

This fortunate occurrence caught Chen off-guard! His tiny heart was so euphoric that it could just float into space!

"More! More! The little puppy wants more!"

Chen moved on to the next phase by puckering his lips and pouncing on Lin.

"No! No! Little puppy is not allowed to take advantage of me!" Lin yelped, moving away quickly.

Her pretty face turned red, and her expression was stern, but there was sweet inkling in her heart.

In fact, that day at the school gate, when Chen had saved her from the hoodlums, she had already developed some feelings towards Chen.

What that had just happened was a chemical reaction between Chen and Lin.

But, Lin was still uncertain about a lot of things. Frankly, she was actually not brave enough to take advantage of the situation.

"Today, we have severely aggravated Wong.'

Lin composed herself and said in a serious manner, "Tomorrow, I will turn in my resignation letter. You then will tell the school that it was I who ordered you to confront Wong – that way, you won't be expelled."

"Silly girl. I was the one responsible for all of it. How can I let you take the blame?" Chen grinned. In his heart, he was moved by her words.

Lin stubbornly insisted, "You must maintain your school record! Imagine what would happen if you were kicked out of school? Have you thought about your future? What about your parents?"

"Don't worry." Chen gave a confident smile and said, "We have evidence of Wong's nightly activities – I got it on camera just now. He would definitely leave us be, or else, he'll go crashing down!"

"What's that? Let me see," Lin asked, curious.

"No, it's too graphic. Not meant for children's eyes," Chen chuckled.

"You are the child here! In fact, I am your teacher! Come on, let me see!"

"No, I really can't..."

"I want to see it!"

"I don't have my phone with me!"

Chen sent Lin home and headed for school.

The night went on uneventfully.

The next day, it was as Chen had expected.

Chen attended classes as usual. Wong never showed up.

A little while later, he heard that the pervert had been abused by the four golden flowers to the extent that his mouth was left foaming, and had been rushed to the hospital. While there, he took two months of leave in one fell swoop.

He was obviously avoiding Chen.

Today, Chen woke up in the morning and went straight to the school gates.

Jing Fei was already there, waiting for him.

Needless to say, yesterday's operation was successful!

"Master, here. Your phone!"

Jing Fei returned the phone to Chen respectfully.

"Very good! Let me see the fruits of your labor!"

Chen grinned, while opening the treasure chest, "Good boy! There are so many things in here?!"

Inside the chest, there were up to a few thousand articles of precious jewelry.

Gold, jade, diamonds, agates, and all kinds, were abundant. What's more, every piece was well-made; everything was of the highest grade and quality.

"Yesterday night, I checked the Dafeng jewelry shop thoroughly. I managed to swipe it all into your treasure chest. The estimated market price for all the jewelry is around one hundred million!" Jing Fei explained.

"One hundred million? Awesome!" Chen's eyes shone when he heard the number.

This time, not only had he messed Shi Dafeng up, he had also filled up his own little gold vault. This is so exciting! "Very well! You did very well!"

Chen withdrew his smile and said gravely, "After this, go check. How much did he pawn his jewelry shop for?"

"You... You plan to take over the jewelry shop?" Jing Fei's eyes widened in shock.

Editor's thoughts: Erm, what happened to Lan? Oh dear, the makings of his harem. Well. Pretty sure the jewelry have their serial numbers or something. He won't be able to sell them openly without getting arrested lol.
