Chapter 2701

2701 Waiting for you to form the formation

The so-called state of war was a unique state in the chaotic era!

If the world had been United, there would not have been a state of war!

But in the chaotic Nanzhan state, where all the countries were fighting for supremacy, war could break out between countries at any time!

After Chen Xiaobei became the North Mystic Lord, he was now shouldering the fate of the entire country!

If it was for personal reasons, it had nothing to do with the state of war. However, if it was for the sake of one's own country and dynasty, once one became enemies with the other party, they would enter the state of war!

Once they entered a state of war, both sides would be fighting for the country!

In this way, both sides could not be considered evil! It was impossible to distinguish between good and evil!

Therefore, there would be no merit points for killing each other!

otherwise, Zhao Yun would have been sent to the 18th level of hell after killing countless people on the battlefield, even if only a small portion of them were kind.

It was precisely because there was no distinction between good and evil in a state of war that not only did Zhao Yun not go to hell, but she also became the hero of the people of the Shu country! Even thousands of years later, his name would be known to the future generations!

Chen Xiaobei was fighting for the royal city of Beixuan!

As long as he killed enemy soldiers, no matter how many he killed, the merit points would not decrease!

Of course, if Chen Xiaobei killed innocent people in the war, a large amount of merit points would be deducted, and he might even be punished by the heavens!

But it was clear that Chen Xiaobei's goal was to unify the world! It was to stop the war! It was a complete merit!

Therefore, Chen Xiaobei would never kill the people. Instead, he would make sure that the people were safe and happy, and live a better life than before!

As long as he could do that, Chen Xiaobei would be the first to receive the merit points after the war!

Then, he would receive the merit of protecting the people!

Finally, if Chen Xiaobei could let the people live and work in peace for a long time, he would have completed his merit and would be able to obtain an even greater merit!

That was why Chen Xiaobei's ultimate goal was to stop the war! It was to protect the people! His merit points would definitely not be low!

Right now, Chen Xiaobei could go on a killing spree!

“Clang! Clang! Clang ...”

With a series of urgent and sharp alarm bells, the entire Imperial Guards 'East Camp immediately became restless!

Other than the patrolling guards, all the soldiers who were resting had also entered a state of combat readiness!

Of course, at this moment, only the 8000 patrolling guards had armor and battle axes!

The remaining one million soldiers did not have any equipment. They had to collect their equipment from the Armory before they could enter the battlefield!

kill!!!

In an instant, the 8000 trained soldiers were the first to charge out! As for the remaining one million soldiers, they all headed to the Armory and gathered there, waiting to receive their equipment!

set up the formation!!!

A man who looked like a general shouted, “Eight thousand patrol soldiers, form the [giant axe battle formation]. No matter how strong the enemy is, you must guard the camp gate for half an hour!”

“After half an hour, the million strong Army will enter the battlefield. At that time, we will form the [heaven splitting divine axe battle formation]! Even a nine-star earth-god can't escape unscathed!”

It was obvious that this general was an old hand, and he knew how to deal with an emergency!

As for the 8000 patrolling soldiers, they weren't new recruits either. They spread out as quickly as possible and got into formation!

“General, don't worry! With 8,000 of us in a battle formation, we can at least unleash the power of a five-star earth-god! Not to mention guarding the gate for half an hour, even killing that invader would be a piece of cake!”

“General, you just have to give the order for those brothers who haven't received their equipment to go back to sleep! Leave this place to us!”

“Well said! Eight thousand of us are more than enough to deal with him. If we add a million more, it'll be like using a dragon-slaying knife to kill a chicken!”

It was obvious that these eight thousand patrolmen were filled with confidence! They thought that they could definitely crush Chen Xiaobei and had no chance of losing!

On the contrary, the general man was more cautious and shouted in a deep voice, "Don't talk nonsense! Hurry up and get into formation! If the enemy attacks now and messes up the formation, you won't be able to get into formation!"

The moment he said that, those eight thousand patrolling soldiers calmed down and hurriedly continued to form the formation.

"Don't worry! I won't sneak attack!"

Chen Xiaobei saw everything, but he did not attack. Instead, he said, "I'll wait for you to form a battle formation before I attack and kill you all!"

"What?"

As soon as he said that, everyone was furious!

"Numbed! You little pretentious d * ck! Your hair hasn't even fully grown yet, yet you dare to be so arrogant!"

"This kid is obviously an idiot! You actually dare to wait for me to form a battle formation! Isn't this the same as waiting for death?"

"Brothers! Quickly get into formation! Since he wants to die, we'll fulfill his wish!"

The crowd was furious and increased the speed of the formation! They could not wait to activate the power of the battle formation and smash Chen Xiaobei into pieces!

"Woof!"

Not long after, this [great axe battle formation] formed by eight thousand people successfully took shape!

The power of 8000 people intertwined and gathered through the battle formation, and quickly condensed into a huge battle axe Dharma!

It crossed a thousand meters and cut through the sky!

The giant axe was aimed at Chen Xiaobei's head!

The terrifying power seemed to split the earth in half. A mere mortal body couldn't resist such a terrifying power!

"Go to hell! Little brat! It's time for you to get struck by lightning!"

"With the honor of a warrior with a huge axe on the line, I will destroy you with this strike!"

"Foolish invader! Suffer our wrath!"

The eight thousand soldiers roared and roared. Their powerful aura and terrifying killing intent almost made the entire space gloomy and somber!

"Boom boom boom ..."

At the same time, the giant battle-ax Dharma form brought with it a violent power that was like a Thunderbolt from the nine Heavens, and it was aimed at Chen Xiaobei's head!

However, Chen Xiaobei did not defend, did not counterattack, and did not even try to Dodge!

All of a sudden, the 8000 soldiers looked at Chen Xiaobei as if he was an idiot. They all thought that Chen Xiaobei was really waiting for death!

Even the cautious general was confused. "Little brat! What do you want to do? You didn't defend or dodge, do you really want to die?"

"Dead?"

"Even if I wanted to die, my little lucky Star would never agree!" Chen Xiaobei laughed.

Everyone was stunned. "Little lucky Star? What little lucky Star?"

"You want to kill my bro bei? All of you will die!"

At this moment, Xuan po flew out and flapped his ice crystal Snow wings, charging directly at the giant axe Dharma!

"What's that little thing? It looks so cute!"

"Is it a bird? Those icy blue wings were so beautiful! I'm going to capture him and make him my pet!"

"What pet? They should be captured and offered to the city Lord to make soup!"

The 8,000 soldiers all sneered. They only saw Xuan PO's beautiful appearance, but they would never have imagined that there was such a terrifying power hidden under his appearance!

"Ten thousand years of extreme frost!"

Xuan po flew in the air and raised his hand, "Ice Age!"

Chapter 2702: everyone exploded

"Boom boom boom ..."

With a low roar from Xuan po, a terrifying and overbearing cold true essence gushed out like a tsunami!

Although Xuan po looked like a little boy, his cultivation had already reached the terrifying six-star earth-god level! Before he became a demon, his original form was an eight-star earth-god ten-thousand-year-old ice soul!

At this moment, Xuan po did not even use his full strength. However, his terrifying inner Yuan had already suppressed the giant axe Dharma!

The icy blue Zhen Yuan was three thousand meters long and three hundred meters wide. It was like a long river of ice that was crashing down!

"Whoosh ..."

In the blink of an eye, the battle-axe Dharma laksana formed by the 8000 patrolmen was directly submerged by the ice River. It was quickly crushed and obliterated by the terrifying and chaotic true essence, leaving no trace behind!

“Oh my God ... That ... That little thing is actually a six-star earth-god Level demon! No! It’s a great demon!”

“Who said he wanted to catch him as a pet? This infuriated him! We can’t stop them at all!”

“This power of ice is too terrifying! Our huge axe battle formation isn’t his match at all! Run ... Quickly run ...”

In an instant, the 8000 patrolling soldiers were all in extreme fear!

The giant axe Dharma power was instantly obliterated. The difference in power was obvious. Death was already upon their heads!

However, what made them even more terrified was the unbelievable extreme cold!

The ice River was still hanging above their heads and had not completely fallen, but the extreme cold had already made everyone feel the terrifying true intent!

Even his protective Zhen Yuan couldn’t block this extreme cold! In a short period of time, it had even caused many people with lower cultivations to have their true core strength shattered!

Not long after, the protective Zhen Yuan of these 8000 people were all shattered, and no one was spared!

cold ... So cold ... I feel like my body has been frozen ... Even my bone marrow has been frozen into solid ice ... Uh ...

“Shouldn’t the powerful monster race be active in Northern kuruzhou? Why would a six-star earth-god Level demon appear here ... Could it be that the heavens want to destroy our great axe city ...”

help ... Help ... I don’t want to die yet ... Help!!!

With their protective Zhen Yuan shattered, the bodies of these 8000 people were directly exposed to the terrifying extreme cold!

The bone-piercing cold and the fear of death tormented everyone both physically and mentally, causing them to scream one after another in an extremely miserable manner!

As the ice River continued to crash down, the screams of these people gradually disappeared!

Their hair, skin, muscles, blood, tendons, bones, and bones were all frozen!

In just a few seconds, these 8000 people had completely turned into 8000 ice sculptures, completely devoid of life!

The ice River descended and sealed off all directions!

One strike to decide the outcome!

“This group of bad guys is so weak!”

Xuan po clapped his hands and said with disdain, “You want to kill my bro bei with such weak cultivation? He really doesn’t know his place!”

“Let’s go! Let’s continue forward!”

Chen Xiaobei shrugged and walked past the 8000 ice sculptures.

At the same time, the chaos Blood Sword was activated secretly. It absorbed the blood essence of the 8000 people around it, but it let go of their souls!

At the same time, Chen Xiaobei also released his ethereal force. Every storage bracelet that the ice sculptures were wearing was forcefully removed and stored into Chen Xiaobei’s infinite space ring!

Soon, Chen Xiaobei and Xuan po saw the huge Armory!

When there was no war, the entire Army of the great axe city had to store their combat equipment in this Armory!

There were one billion people living in greataxe city, and ten million soldiers were stationed there!

In other words, the Armory contained the equipment of 10 million soldiers! One could imagine how large the scale was!

At this moment, the one million Imperial Guards of the East Camp gathered at the entrance of the Armory!

No one had received any equipment yet!

That was because the Armory’s Gate had not opened yet!

The few commanders of the East Camp were all anxious. They huddled together like ants on a hot pan!

“The key hasn’t been sent over? An extremely strong ice true essence exploded at the camp gate! Our eight thousand patrol soldiers won’t be able to hold on for much longer!”

“Don’t worry! It was general Martin who led the 8000 men into formation! He promised me that he would definitely be able to hold the camp gate for half an hour!”

“How can I not be worried? Even if Martin had been holding the fort for half an hour, the city Lord and the core higher-ups who were in charge of the key to the Armory were still having fun somewhere! I’m afraid the key won’t be here in half an hour!”

“Sigh ... The higher-ups are muddleheaded and are delaying the battle! If those eight thousand patrollers die in battle, it’ll be the fault of the higher-ups!”

“Silence! You even dare to say such words! If this falls into the ears of the higher-ups, your entire family will be beheaded in public!”

It was obvious that the commanders of these military camps were smart people. They knew that the situation of the war was ever-changing, and speed was the most important thing in order to suppress the enemy! The consequences would be unimaginable if they delayed!

“He’s telling the truth!”

Suddenly, Chen Xiaobei and Xuan po appeared in everyone’s sight.

if the key was in the camp, these one million people would have joined the battle earlier. The 8000 patrolmen at the front would not have died! Chen Xiaobei said. This was the sin of the muddleheaded higher-ups! It’s the misfortune of a loyal soldier to work for such a high-ranking official!”

Everyone tensed up when they saw Chen Xiaobei. “Who are you? How did you get in?”

All of a sudden, the tens of commanders and the millions of soldiers all looked at Chen Xiaobei as if they were facing a great enemy. They were all on guard and even a little panicked!

“Of course I walked in!”

Chen Xiaobei shrugged and said, “ “Oh, right! The 8,000 gatekeepers had all died in battle! Therefore, no one stopped me!”

“What? They all died in battle?”

As soon as he said that, everyone was stunned at first, and then there was an uproar!

“This is impossible! General Martin led 8000 men to battle, there’s no way he would be defeated so quickly!”

“Martin almost guaranteed that he could hold the camp gate for half an hour! It’s only been a few minutes, how could he be defeated!”

“Martin is the calmest and smartest among the young generals! I won’t believe it even if you beat me to death!”

Obviously, everyone present was very clear about the strength of Ma Ding and the 8000 defenders. Even if they could not hold on for half an hour, they could at least hold on for more than 20 minutes. It was impossible for them to be completely defeated in just a few minutes!

“You guys are thinking too much!”

Chen Xiaobei shrugged and smiled. “They’ll all be annihilated in 30 seconds! The reason why I took a few minutes to come here was to collect their storage bracelets! If you don’t believe me, give me another 30 seconds and I’ll annihilate you all!”

As soon as he said that, the crowd exploded!

Chapter 2703: official declaration of war

“How arrogant! He’s too arrogant!”

“We have a total of one million Titan Warriors here! He actually declared that he would kill everyone in 30 seconds! Does he think he’s an immortal?”

“A deity? Ha, he was a lunatic! He can’t even kill a million pigs in 30 seconds, let alone a million soldiers!”

“He’s humiliating us! In his eyes, a million of US soldiers are not even worth a million pigs and dogs!”

“Brothers! We are the Titan Warriors! We are born to fight! Glory was more important than life! This kid’s contempt is a great humiliation to us! We must fight for glory!”

“That’s right! Although the power of our battle formation will be reduced without the assistance of spiritual weapons and equipment, there is strength in numbers! Even if he doesn’t have any equipment, we don’t need to fear him!”

Chen Xiaobei’s threat of killing everyone in 30 seconds had dealt a huge blow to the pride of the millions of Titan Warriors!

The Titans were known for their brawny limbs and simple Minds! They had excellent combat talent and extremely violent tempers!

They could not stand being humiliated by Chen Xiaobei!

Like an enraged bull, the five-meter tall Titan Warriors locked their murderous gazes on Chen Xiaobei! He wanted to rush up to Chen Xiaobei, hang him up, and beat him to death!

get into formation!!!

The commanders spread out and ordered the millions of soldiers to form a battle formation at the fastest speed possible!

This formation was called the [divine AXE HEAVEN splitting battle formation]! After the formation of these one million people, they could even fight against a nine-star earth-god!

But now, without the assistance of spiritual artifacts, the power of the battle formation would be reduced. It could reach the level of a mid-stage eight-star earth-god!

There was no doubt that Chen Xiaobei would not be able to withstand this level of power!

Of course, although a million-man battle formation was powerful, it had a huge flaw!

It took too long to set up the formation!

If these millions of people had been prepared and formed a battle formation to defend this place, Chen Xiaobei would have no choice but to turn around and leave.

However, at this moment, the millions of people had to stand in specific positions and connect their true origins with a special method to interweave and form a complete array!

Even if they were familiar with the formation, it would still take them at least ten minutes to form such a huge formation!

More importantly, Chen Xiaobei did not even need that much time to defeat everyone!

After all, there was no war in giant axe city at the moment. The high-level experts were all eating, drinking, and having fun at home, not in the military camp! No one could stop Chen Xiaobei!

“Swish!”

Xuan po flapped his Ice Wings and charged into the sky, shouting, " "Ten thousand years of extreme cold! The Ice Age!"

A huge river of ice formed by Xuan PO's six-star earth-god vital essence, accompanied by the extreme coldness unique to the ten-thousand-year-old ice soul, instantly enveloped tens of thousands of people!

"Whoosh ..."

At the same time, Chen Xiaobei waved his hand and threw out a scroll!

At the same time, he injected 10000 upper spiritual stones into the scroll!

As the spiritual stones were burned out, a small array was activated on the scroll!

There were forty-eight blood-colored figures in the formation, rolling and shuttling back and forth like the stars in the sky. It was extremely mysterious!

"Boom boom boom ..."

Then, an extremely hot fireball floated out of the scroll!

Suddenly, it bloomed with endless flames and brought a terrifyingly high temperature to envelop the heads of tens of thousands of people!

That's right!

It was the blood God's deity-burning painting that Chen Xiaobei had just fused with!

The 48 Blood Shadows were the 48 clones of Blood God of Acheron!

With the recovery of his injuries, the clone of Blood God's combat strength had also greatly improved. It had almost reached the level of a five-star earth-god!

And that terrifying fireball was the ten-thousand-year infernal spirit!

This object was an eight-star earth-god level existence, and it could emit a terrifying heat!

With the help of the array, the blood God's clone and the runes of the array strengthened the 10000-year infernal spirit!

Because of this, although the blood God's burning deity painting was only a five-star earth-god level, after several things were combined, the extreme heat that erupted was almost comparable to the power of a six-star earth-god!

Thus, a strange phenomenon of two heavens of Ice and Fire appeared in the air!

At the sight of this, the millions of Warriors who were full of fighting spirit a moment ago suddenly trembled in fear!

"My God ... What ... What the hell is this? Why is there an Ice River in the sky and a sun!"

"It's too terrifying! The tens of thousands of people who were enveloped by the ice River were all extremely cold. They felt as if they were about to freeze to death!"

the tens of thousands of people who were enveloped by the fireball felt extremely hot and burning, as if they would be burned to ashes at any time!

“From the looks of it, the ice River and the scorching sun will be able to kill nearly 100000 people in an instant! In less than 20 seconds, all of us, a million people, will be wiped out!”

“This way, before our battle formation can be formed, everyone will be dead! There was no suspense in this battle at all! We’re ... Going to lose ...”

In the face of absolute power, the dignity of the millions of Titan Warriors was completely crushed!

Just a second ago, they were all fired up, claiming that their honor was more important than their lives, and that they would fight Chen Xiaobei at all costs!

At this second, their hot blood completely turned cold. Their glory was crushed by the fear of death. Even if they had ten times the courage, they would not dare to fight!

Just as they had said, there was no suspense in this battle. If they started, they would be courting death!

“Don’t say I didn’t give you a chance!”

“Those who kneel and surrender now, will you live?” Chen Xiaobei said. Those who don’t surrender will be killed without mercy!”

His words were like a bolt of lightning on a clear day! In an instant, it caused an extremely intense shock to the hearts of the millions of people present!

Without a doubt, most of them had already wavered and were ready to surrender to Chen Xiaobei in order to save their lives!

However, no one could understand why Chen Xiaobei would do that.

The oldest commander walked out and asked in a deep voice, “Who are you? Why did you invade my huge axe city? What good would it do to you if we surrender? There’s no enmity, no benefit, so why must you force me with your death?”

“Everyone, listen up!”

Chen Xiaobei used his ethereal force to spread his voice throughout huge axe city, “I am the current honorable King of the royal city of beixuan! I’m here today to officially declare war on huge axe city!”

“This King follows the heavenly Dao and is unwilling to kill the innocent! I’m here to announce to the entire Army and people in advance! The Royal Army of beixuan will arrive at great axe city in three days!”

“The defenders of the city, those who surrender can live! Those who don’t surrender will be killed without mercy!”

As soon as he said that, the entire city exploded!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 2704: medesio

The hibernating Dragon was shaking the mountains with a single roar!

Chen Xiaobei's words were like a Dragon's Roar, shaking the entire huge axe city!

All of a sudden, everyone in the city fell into a great shock!

Ordinary residential area!

The commoners all ran to the windows, the streets, and even the roofs to look in the direction of the sound!

"Who are you? He was actually so bold! You're declaring war on huge axe city! He's simply too arrogant!"

"Yup! Even if they have a grudge against huge axe city, they should be plotting in the dark and starting a war without anyone knowing! How can you declare war so brazenly?"

that's right ... After declaring war like this, the entire city will be on guard. It will be even more difficult for that person to start another war!

.....

The rich District where the officials lived!

Those high officials and nobles who indulged in wine and women all day long all put down their wine glasses and sent servants out to check.

"Where did this lunatic come from? You actually dare to declare war on us? Isn't he afraid that all the soldiers in the city will be dispatched to encircle and annihilate him?"

"He's definitely a pretentious d * ck, and he just shouted casually! Even if we lend him a hundred million guts, he still wouldn't dare to declare war on us!"

"You're right! Even if he isn't afraid of huge axe city, he definitely wouldn't dare to offend 'fire cloud Supreme King'!"

"Well said! The 36 main cities surrounding the vast mountain sea are all under the banner of 'Supreme King Fire cloud'! We're all together for good or bad!"

"Declaring war on us is the same as declaring war on Supreme King Fire cloud! As long as you're not an idiot, you won't dare to court death like this!"

"Come on! Everyone, continue drinking! Don't bother about that lunatic! The people below will definitely be able to handle it!"

.....

The mansion of the great axe city's city Lord!

City Lord medesio was a typical fatuous ruler, he was either drinking and having fun or playing with the women offered by his subordinates in his bedroom!

At this moment, a huge change was happening in giant axe city, but the city Lord was still busy on a woman's belly!

"Not good! Not good! City Lord! There's a powerful enemy invading the city, and they're declaring war on us! It's said that when the Army arrives in three days, those who don't surrender will be killed without mercy!"

A man who looked like a butler stood outside the palace and reported what had happened to medesio.

However, after waiting for a long time, he did not hear any response from medesio. Instead, he only heard the laughter of a group of women!

Medesio had a fetish. When he was having sex with a woman, he liked to let a group of women watch him!

The more these women praised him for his bravery, the more motivated he became!

In fact, medesio's body had long been emptied out after all these years of indulgence in pleasure. Every time he finished having sex with great enthusiasm, he would exhaust a huge amount of physical and mental energy!

As a result, medesio had to sleep for an entire day and eat a bunch of supplements before he could recover his energy after every session!

Otherwise, he would be weak and listless, unable to do anything!

The Butler was very clear about this. He was afraid that medesio would exhaust his energy and make a mistake, so he could only brace himself and remind him again!

"City Lord! Did you hear me?"

"A strong enemy is coming!" The Butler said anxiously. A domineering declaration of war! City Lord, if you don't care! Huge axe city is about to be in trouble! City Lord! Did you hear that? You can't lose the big picture for the small!"

"Woof! Boom ..."

The Butler stood at the door, waiting for medesio's response. However, all he got was a merciless and deadly true energy!

"Pfft ..."

The quintessential essence directly shattered the door of the chamber and landed on the Butler's chest, sending him flying!

He crashed heavily into the wall behind him and spat out a mouthful of hot blood. His internal organs had been shattered, and his neck tilted to the side as he died on the spot!

Before he died, the Butler's gaze was still anxiously and expectantly looking at the entrance of the bedroom!

What he was worried about was that the consequences would be unimaginable if a strong enemy attacked!

He was hoping that medesio would make the right decision at the crucial moment!

There was no doubt that the Butler was a loyal servant, but it was a pity that medesio was an extremely fatuous master!

As time passed, the Butler's body turned cold! However, the lecherous laughter in the chamber grew louder and louder!

The Butler had died with his eyes wide open!

.....

The slums of the city!

Lockheed had used the young master commander's seal to gather 100000 of his most trusted humble class soldiers from different military camps!

At the same time, the family members of these soldiers were also prepared. A total of nearly 500000 people had gathered and were waiting to leave with Lockheed!

This was because Lockheed's position in the hearts of the humble class citizens was very high and worthy of respect!

Therefore, not only did no one stop Lockheed from gathering its troops, but many people who were not on Lockheed's list also requested to join its team. They were willing to follow Lockheed no matter where they went!

Lockheed naturally did not refuse and accepted all the people who were willing to go!

These commoners came from the slums and were already living a life of suffering in huge axe city!

They all wanted to leave huge axe city from the bottom of their hearts, which was why Lockheed could trust them and was willing to bring them along!

Hence, as time passed, the original 600000-strong team continued to grow stronger! It was approaching two million people!

To huge axe city, which had a population of one billion, this small number of people was nothing!

However, news of Lockheed's return was not known throughout the city. Therefore, these two million people were only a small portion of the poor people who wanted to leave huge axe city!

In other words, if news of Lockheed's return had spread earlier, there would have been 20 million or even 200 million people who would have chosen to follow him out of huge axe city!

From the small to the big, it was not difficult to see that the city Lord and higher-ups of huge axe city had long lost the hearts of the people!

The people did not side with them, and even hated them and wanted to stay away from them!

In the long river of history, the predecessors had already summed up the truth that those who win the hearts of the people will win the World!

Any dynasty or Empire, once they lost the hearts of the people, they were not far from being destroyed and changing their dynasty!

Lockheed was almost certain that huge axe would be defeated in the battle of beixuan!

This was a good thing, but Lockheed was not happy at all!

“What is His Majesty doing?”

Lockheed’s brows furrowed as he looked in the direction of the East Camp. He was extremely anxious.”We agreed to sneak into the Armory without beating the grass or alarming the snake! Why did Her Majesty suddenly change her mind? How are we going to retreat if we alert the enemy like this?”

There were tens of millions of troops stationed in huge axe city!

Of the two million people on Lockheed’s side, there were only 110000 to 120000 soldiers. The rest were the old, weak, women, and children! Once they were surrounded, no one could escape!

However, Lockheed would never have thought of this!

In the East Camp, Chen Xiaobei had successfully taken down a million surrendered soldiers!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 2705: waiting

The East Camp!

Outside the Armory!

Xuan po controlled the icy River, which covered 3000 meters and enveloped tens of thousands of people!

The blood God’s deity-burning painting array was activated and released countless red flame soldiers, which also enveloped tens of thousands of people!

Chen Xiaobei only needed to give the order and he would be able to kill 100000 people in an instant!

In less than half a minute, all the Titan Warriors on the scene would be killed. No one would be spared!

This was the legendary saying, “when an Emperor is angry, millions of corpses will fall!”

At first, the millions of Titan Warriors had still held a glimmer of hope for the city Lord and the higher-ups! They were waiting for the real powerhouses to join the battle, defeat Chen Xiaobei, and save everyone!

However, as time passed, the key to the Armory was not delivered, and the city Lord did not give any orders!

The hope in the hearts of the millions of Titan Warriors was slowly being extinguished!

They finally understood that the governor would not come, and neither would the higher-ups. Their lives were in Chen Xiaobei's hands!

Hope was extinguished, and despair was born!

Most people's hearts had already fallen, and some had even begun to indifferently wait for death!

But Chen Xiaobei spoke again, using both kindness and severity to win over the millions of soldiers!

I can see that you still have your last bit of loyalty to huge axe city!

Chen Xiaobei then shouted, " "However, your city Lord and higher-ups don't care about your lives at all! Such a Lord was not worthy of loyalty at all! If you're still loyal to the death, then you're foolishly loyal! Stupid!"

"You all heard it just now! I have officially declared war on huge axe city! If you don't surrender, you'll be my enemy! Leaving you alive is equivalent to raising a Tiger to bring disaster upon ourselves! Therefore, I will not hesitate to kill you all!"

"However, if you are willing to surrender, I can guarantee that I will not kill you! Even after the siege, you can still maintain your original lives!"

Chen Xiaobei's tone was serious, " "To live or to die, I've already given you a choice! Let me see the answer in ten seconds! I won't wait for you if you're late!"

As soon as he said that, the millions of Titan Warriors in the audience were shocked once again.

Angering Chen Xiaobei would result in millions of dead bodies. This was Chen Xiaobei's dignity, and he could not be offended!

Following Chen Xiaobei's lead meant that he could keep his life and not suffer any losses. This was Chen Xiaobei's gift, he could not miss it!

Life or death! En or Wei!

This two-choice question was actually not complicated or difficult to choose. As long as one was a normal person, they would know how to choose!

I'm willing to surrender ... Thank you for sparing my life, Your Majesty, bei Xuan supremacy ...

I'm also willing to surrender ... Thank you, Your Majesty North Mystic supremacy ...

"I'm also willing to ..."

After a while, some people began to kneel down and kowtow to Chen Xiaobei. Their heads were still on the ground, and they were extremely respectful.

Like dominoes, the kneeling soldiers spread from one point to one side, from one side to one side, and in ten seconds, they spread to the entire field, without exception!

From the commander to the soldier!

The millions of people at the scene knelt on the ground, kowtowed to Chen Xiaobei three times, and then continued to kneel on the ground!

“Very good!”

Chen Xiaobei said, “Don’t think that today’s surrender is a humiliation! To be able to kneel before me, the North Mystic Lord Chen Zhufeng, is the best decision you’ve ever made in your life! It’s also the greatest honor!”

As soon as he said that, the millions of people were indifferent!

The reason why they were kneeling on the ground was to save their lives!

In their hearts, they did not think that Chen Xiaobei was that strong. They did not even think that Chen Xiaobei could take down huge axe city!

After all, Xuan po and the blood God’s deity-burning painting were only six-star earth-god level!

As for the Lord of huge axe city, medesio, he was already a seven-star earth-god and had a seven-star earth-god instrument to suppress his fate!

With this alone, Chen Xiaobei would never be able to defeat medesio!

Besides, what kind of place was the royal city of beixuan? They had never even heard of it!

In comparison, huge axe city had tens of millions of soldiers stationed there all year round. Even if they lost one million, they still had nine million soldiers that could fight!

Even if medesio did not make a move, Chen Xiaobei had no chance of winning in terms of military strength!

Although the millions of Titan Warriors had surrendered, they were not willing to submit to Chen Xiaobei. They would not be happy to kneel before him!

On the contrary, they were all convinced that surrendering to Chen Xiaobei was a great humiliation! As long as they had the chance, they would strike back at Chen Xiaobei and avenge the humiliation they had suffered today!

“I know you guys are not convinced by me! But the truth would prove everything! Let’s wait and see!”

Chen Xiaobei strode towards the Armory.

Millions of people knelt on both sides of Chen Xiaobei’s body. Those who were near him did not even dare to breathe as they watched Chen Xiaobei’s back.

Although the people at the far end were also kneeling, they had already begun to whisper in low voices, and even revealed gloating expressions!

“Is that kid trying to break into the Armory by force?”

heh, if he really attacks the Armory, we can clap and laugh!

“The Armory is protected by an eight-star earth-god level array! A forceful attack would trigger the counterattack of the array! I’ll kill that kid instantly!”

“I’m looking forward to it! They were just waiting for this arrogant brat to be blasted into pieces by the array! We can regain our freedom! Hahaha!”

Without a doubt, an extremely important place like the Armory would definitely be highly protected! If outsiders wanted to attack by force, they would definitely have to pay a high price!

The millions of Titan Warriors were all waiting for Chen Xiaobei to launch an attack and then be blasted into pieces by the defensive magical formation!

However, even if they were given a hundred million brains, they would never be able to imagine what would happen next.

Chen Xiaobei strolled over. Not only did he not attack, but he also kept the black soul and the blood God’s deity-burning painting.

Then, Chen Xiaobei took out a special key from his infinite space ring and fiddled with it in front of the Armory.

“Ka! Crack!”

With two crisp sounds, the Armory’s door was opened!

“What the f * ck? What’s the situation?”

In an instant, the millions of people present were all dumbfounded. Their three views were shattered and they couldn’t believe their eyes!

They had been waiting for the higher-ups to send the key over, but they had not even seen the shadow of the key!

But this Chen Xiaobei, an outsider, took out the key to the Armory!

This was simply unbelievable!

“You see that?”

Chen Xiaobei shrugged and smiled, “The higher-ups of huge axe city are all a bunch of good-for-nothings! Even such an important key has fallen into my hands! How can they not be defeated?”

Chapter 2706: reverence

All of a sudden, everyone was shocked!

Chen Xiaobei opened the Armory’s door with ease. It was like a nuclear bomb had exploded in the hearts of millions of people. It was a huge shock to everyone!

Just a moment ago, everyone was waiting for Chen Xiaobei to attack the Armory and be blasted into pieces by the formation!

Chen Xiaobei had opened the door with the key and slapped everyone's face. This completely changed their minds!

Before Chen Xiaobei opened the door, the millions of people present were certain that Chen Xiaobei would never be able to take down huge axe city!

However, after Chen Xiaobei opened the door, everyone's expectations were completely overturned. Most of them thought that Chen Xiaobei had at least a 50% chance of winning!

One had to know that this Armory stored all the weapons and equipment of the city's 10 million troops!

And now, these weapons and equipment were about to fall into Chen Xiaobei's hands!

This meant that once the war started, the Warriors of huge axe city would have to fight the enemy with their bare hands!

Without a weapon, at least 30% of their combat power would be lost!

Without the armor, at least 50% of the defense would be lost!

It was not an overstatement to say that the loss of the Armory had caused irreparable damage to the military forces of huge axe city!

Before this, none of the millions of people present were convinced by Chen Xiaobei!

But at this moment, this had changed greatly! Many of them were beginning to realize that Chen Xiaobei was not an ordinary person. Perhaps he could really take down huge axe city! Perhaps he could really become a giant in a region!

The Titan race revered martial strength and worshipped the strong!

Chen Xiaobei's open declaration of war against huge axe city was enough to win the respect of most Titan Warriors!

Of course, the prerequisite was that Chen Xiaobei had to be able to fight!

If they were too weak to fight, the declaration of war just now was just a show of strength. After showing off, they would have to run. No one would be convinced!

But now that Chen Xiaobei had opened the Armory's door, it was enough to prove that Chen Xiaobei had made full preparations for this battle. He definitely had the ability to fight!

This meant that Chen Xiaobei's declaration of war was not a show-off! He was truly domineering! His true courage was unparalleled!

After realizing this, some of the people in the audience started to admire and respect Chen Xiaobei!

Some of them even began to believe that in the near future, they would be glad for their decision to surrender today! They would feel proud to be able to kneel at Chen Xiaobei's feet at such a close distance!

Whoosh ... Whoosh ...

Chen Xiaobei rushed into the Armory, waved his hand, and stored all the weapons, armors, and siege weapons into his infinite space ring!

When Chen Xiaobei walked out, the millions of people in the hall were silent!

Even those who knelt the furthest away did not dare to whisper anymore!

They had all realized that Chen Xiaobei's level was way above his, and even the governor of giant axe city's!

And the final answer would be revealed in three days!

"Whoosh ..."

Chen Xiaobei then took out the verdant Emperor's divine gourd.

None of the millions of people present dared to resist, and they were all obediently taken into the referee!

Then, Chen Xiaobei immediately headed to the meeting point with Lockheed!

.....

"Your Majesty! You've finally come!"

Lockheed quickly came forward and asked anxiously, "Didn't we agree to act in secret? How could you declare war on the entire city?"

"What are you afraid of?"

if I'm not wrong, the leader of huge axe city and the higher-ups all think that I'm crazy. They don't believe that my declaration of war is real! At this moment, they're still eating, drinking, and having fun. They don't take me seriously at all!"

"It seems to be true!"

Lockheed thought carefully and said, "Other than the East Camp, the other camps are not responding at all! The city Lord and the higher-ups probably thought that the people from the East Camp were enough to deal with His Majesty! That's why I'm too lazy to care!"

Chen Xiaobei's guess was correct!

The high ranking officials and nobles in the city were all seeking pleasure at this moment, and the city Lord was even snorting in a pile of women!

They did not even care about Chen Xiaobei!

"Your Majesty is too awesome!"

Lockheed gave a thumbs up and laughed mockingly. I really want to see the wonderful expressions on the faces of the mayor of huge axe city and the higher-ups after they learn that the Armory has been cleared!

"It's not just the Armory that has been cleared!"

Chen Xiaobei raised his eyebrows and smiled evilly. I've also captured all the commanders and soldiers of the East Camp and locked them up in the verdant Emperor's divine gourd!

"My God ... Is ... Is this true?"

Lockheed was dumbfounded. He could not believe his ears. After a long while, he exclaimed.

"There are a million soldiers in the East Camp! Moreover, they were all elite warriors! The battle hadn't even started, and they had all become captives! Your Majesty! You're simply too, too, too awesome!"

Lockheed was extremely excited! His face was full of fanaticism, and his eyes were full of admiration for Chen Xiaobei!

At the same time, two million people stood behind Lockheed!

One spread to ten, and ten spread to a hundred! Chen Xiaobei and Lockheed's conversation was heard by everyone!

These two million people were all going to follow Chen Xiaobei!

Before this, they did not know Chen Xiaobei well and were more or less worried!

But now, they had all heard about Chen Xiaobei clearing the Armory and capturing millions of soldiers! He had finally witnessed Chen Xiaobei's power!

Her worries were all gone, replaced by admiration and respect for Chen Xiaobei!

Everyone started to believe that following Chen Xiaobei out of huge axe city was the right choice!

"Your Majesty is wise and mighty! The might of the heavens was unparalleled! Long live! Long live! Long, long, long, long ..."

All of a sudden, the two million people cheered in unison. They had truly acknowledged Chen Xiaobei and wanted to follow him with all their hearts!

"Let's go!"

Chen Xiaobei took out the verdant Emperor's divine gourd and stored the two million people inside.

Of course, in order to prevent the one million prisoners from causing trouble, Chen Xiaobei had also kept the black soul in his storage space, ready to suppress any chaos!

.....

The main city of the mine.

Chen Xiaobei released the two million people gathered by Lockheed and let them live in the main city.

At the same time, Chen Xiaobei also left 200000 people's weapons and equipment for Lockheed's soldiers to use.

After that, Chen Xiaobei rushed back to the royal city of beixuan.

They immediately gathered all the core members of the upper echelons in the palace Hall and discussed their battle strategy overnight!

this battle will be the first battle in the royal city of beixuan!

Chen Xiaobei said, " "Not only do we have to win! Moreover, we must win and shake the world!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 2707: enemy's plan

The strategy meeting lasted the whole night. After Chen Xiaobei and all the core members of the upper echelons discussed, they finally decided on the battle plan for three days!

Compared to the all-nighter meeting at beixuan Royal City, the meeting at huge axe city was a huge joke!

It was not until the next morning that the master of huge axe city and the core upper echelons received the news that the Armory had been cleared! The East camp's million strong Army surrendered and were captured! More than two million people in the slums had disappeared into thin air!

These three pieces of news were like three explosive slaps to the faces of the huge axe city's City Master and the city's higher-ups!

Last night, when Chen Xiaobei declared war, the castellan was playing with women while the higher-ups were having fun. No one took Chen Xiaobei seriously!

It was only now that they had been slapped in the face by reality that they finally realized that Chen Xiaobei's declaration of war was not just a lunatic's claim. It was a real and imminent crisis!

Wasn't this? As soon as he received the news, the city Lord of huge axe city, medesio, summoned all the core members of the upper echelon to the city Lord's mansion!

After chuckling for the whole night, medesio was listless.

If it wasn't for his extreme rage, medesio would have fallen into a deep sleep.

"What happened last night was so stupid!"

Medesio gritted his teeth and growled, " "The enemy has entered the city and declared war on us! At the same time, they took away all our weapons and captured one million of our elite soldiers!"

"This is like taking a dump on our heads! And we only realized it now! Stupid! Stupid! This is unforgivable!"

Medesio was extremely furious and vexed at the same time. He felt like he and all the higher-ups in the city were idiots! Before the battle even started, one of his arms was already broken!

The core upper echelons of the hall were all red in the face. Their faces were filled with shame, and their faces were all smashed! He had completely lost face!

"City Lord!"

An old man with white hair and a white beard stood out and said in a deep voice, "A huge mistake has already been made! There's no use getting angry here! Right now, we should calm down and think about how to deal with the great battle that's going to happen in three days!"

Medesio calmed himself down and showed some respect to the old man, "Mr. Mondo, do you really believe that the enemy will attack us in three days?"

"I can't not believe it!"

The old man frowned and said, "the enemy can clear our Armory and abduct a million soldiers!" It was enough to show that this person was not an ordinary person! It was fine if he didn't come three days later, but what if he really did come! If we don't make preparations, the consequences will be unimaginable!"

"That makes sense ..."

Medesio, who greatly relied on the old man, nodded in agreement, "It's such a big matter, I'd rather believe it than not! We should indeed make early preparations!"

"The city Lord is wise!" The old man nodded.

"Mr. Mondo, you're too kind!"

"I'm a warrior, I'm only good at leading the charge!" Medesio said in a deep voice. Arranging the troops, planning and planning! I'll have to rely on Mr. Mengduo!"

"Thank you for your trust, city Lord!"

"At present, we still have nine million troops stationed there," the old man said seriously. "Two million troops will be divided into each of the four city gates in the East, West, South, and North! The remaining one million will lie in ambush in the forest a hundred miles outside the city!"

the four city gates can all form the 'heaven splitting divine axe battle formation.' Although there is no spiritual weapon to assist, it can still burst out the power of a Peak Eight-star earth immortal. It should not be difficult to defend the city!

"If the enemy dares to attack the city by force, the million-strong Army lying in ambush in the forest behind can attack from the rear! The enemy is being attacked from the front and back, and will definitely be defeated!"

Everyone present nodded in agreement.

After all, the Titan race was known for their brawn and no brains. This old man's intelligence was considered very impressive among the Titan race. Even if others were unwilling to agree, they could not think of a better way!

"We'll do as Mr. Mondo says!"

Medesio immediately clapped his hands and thought for a moment before asking, "Mr. Mondo, who should be the commander of the million-strong Army that is lying in ambush outside?"

“The mission of this one million soldiers is very important! It’s directly related to the outcome of this battle!”

The old man narrowed his eyes and said, “I suggest that the city Lord personally lead the Army and bring along the eight strongest Lion Tiger battle generals!” If the enemy dares to attack the City, City Lord will personally lead the Army and kill them. With a thunderous momentum, we will destroy the enemy’s retreat and settle the situation in one battle!”

“Good! Today, I will lead one million elites with the eight lion-tiger generals to ambush them!”

Medesio’s blood was boiling as he exclaimed, “Three days later, if the enemy dares to come, I will definitely send them to their deaths! Even if they die, they won’t forget what a tragic end they will face for offending huge axe city!”

“The city Lord is wise! We will definitely win this battle!” Everyone in the hall felt that this was a good plan and they all cupped their hands in praise!

The old man nodded confidently and said, “City Lord, you can leave the city at ease! This old man will definitely defend the main city! Once the fighter jet arrived, it would send out a signal and coordinate with the shrewdness to pincer the enemy! We will definitely win this battle!”

“Thank you for your hard work, Mr. Mondo!” “After the war is over, I’ll definitely reward you handsomely!” Medesio laughed.

.....

In the royal city of beixuan.

Everyone followed the plan and started to get busy.

Of course, the busiest person was still Chen Xiaobei!

Chen Xiaobei first handed over all the weapons and equipment to the divine craftsman, the witch! After all, these things were the size for Titans to use. They needed to be modified before they could be used by normal-sized humans!

After that, Chen Xiaobei gave everything that was not suitable to be modified to the Grand shaman of ding Shang and asked him to find a way to sell them!

After that, Chen Xiaobei put all the resources he had obtained from the fiery King’s ruins, as well as the 8000 armored soldiers ‘resources from last night, into beixuan’s National Treasury!

Of course, the 1.5 billion upper spiritual stones from the fiery King ruins were also put into the National Treasury!

All Chen Xiaobei had left was the 130 million upper spiritual stones that he had earned from selling the demonic beasts ‘bodies!

Then, Chen Xiaobei quickly entered the verdant Emperor’s divine gourd.

He immediately called a few of his captives over to activate the sunlight cache before placing the heaven and earth smelt under his special ability!

Within the heaven and earth smelt, there was a seven-star earth-god instrument and seven six-star earth-god instruments that he had obtained from fiery King's remains!

With the infusion of the witch Dragon heavenly flame, the earth-god instruments were all refined into spiritual energy in just a few dozen days!

At the same time, Chen Xiaobei took out the 10000-year-old infernal spirit and a demonic spirit petrifying stone from the blood God's deity-burning painting and placed them into the heaven and earth furnace!

With the lighting stone, the heaven and earth spiritual aura, and the special ability of the sunlight cache, the ten-thousand-year infernal spirit was born at an extremely fast speed!

"A ten-thousand-year infernal spirit is about to become a demon ..."

Chen Xiaobei hesitated and said, "It seems that I have to find Xuan Xin!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 2708

2708 The flame-winged youth

Clearly, Chen Xiaobei was not looking for Liu xuanxin to sneer hehe. He was looking for her to create a primordial spirit blood contract to subdue the 10000-year infernal spirit that was about to become a demon!

The last time, Liu xuanxin used her own blood to create a primordial spirit blood contract, which gave Xuan po a mysterious opportunity to form his Dharmakaya on the spot!

One had to know that immortal cultivators needed special cultivation techniques to form Dharmakaya!

Even a person with great talent would need to cultivate for a hundred years before they could succeed! People with ordinary talent would not be able to succeed even after thousands of years, or even their entire lives!

Back then, Zi Yuan had been sealed for millions of years before he finally condensed a Dharmakaya!

Now, with the help of Liu xuanxin's divine Phoenix blood, the spirit demon could quickly form a dharma body!

This was a heaven-defying cheat! It could save Chen Xiaobei a lot of time, resources, and all kinds of trouble! It felt even better than drinking it!

.....

"No problem! Take out your magic tool!"

yes! Liu xuanxin agreed without hesitation.

They had already formed a primordial spirit blood contract once. Liu xuanxin had only cut her finger and used up a Little Phoenix blood. It did not affect her at all.

That was why Chen Xiaobei had come to look for Liu xuanxin.

If making the primordial spirit blood contract would hurt Liu xuanxin, Chen Xiaobei would rather die than come to Liu xuanxin!

“The magic tool is here, thanks for your hard work!” Chen Xiaobei handed the instrument to Liu xuanxin.

“Swish!”

Just like the last time, Liu xuanxin used her ethereal force to cut her finger.

However, unlike the last time, Liu xuanxin created four primordial spirit blood contracts in one go.

I only need one primordial spirit blood contract. Why do you want to make four? ” Chen Xiaobei’s heart ached. He quickly handed over the medicine to Liu xuanxin.

since I only need a little bit of blood, I can make four servings directly. That way, I won’t have to cut my fingers three times!

of course! Liu xuanxin smiled. the point is, I can’t be by your side all the time. If you need the primordial soul blood contract in the future, you can’t come back to me! These three extra portions will come in handy!”

Chen Xiaobei’s heart felt warm when he heard this. “As expected of my goddess sister, the goddess of luck! You’re so thoughtful!”

Liu xuanxin smiled and said, ” “You’re now the head of a family and the king of a country! A huge burden is on your shoulders! You shouldn’t worry about these small things! If I’m more thoughtful, I’ll be able to share some of your worries!”

“It’s so good to have you!” Chen Xiaobei could not help but pull Liu xuanxin into his arms.

Looking at her beautiful face and smelling her sweet body scent, Chen Xiaobei suddenly felt that he was the happiest man in the world!

alright ... Don’t do this ... I won’t be able to control myself ... Liu xuanxin’s face turned red.

it’s only natural for men and women to love each other. Why should I endure it? ” Chen Xiaobei grinned and said, ” “Go! Follow me back to my Palace, hehehe ... No! It should be to increase a wave of opportunities!”

Liu xuanxin moaned and let Chen Xiaobei carry her into the bedroom.

Men had the power of desolation, and so did women!

Especially after having a taste of that feeling, a woman’s primal power was even stronger than a man’s!

A moment of spring was worth a thousand gold!

After a few thousand gold, Chen Xiaobei was finally done.

With Liu xuanxin in his arms, he felt as if he could forget all his troubles.

Chen Xiaobei was so relaxed and comfortable that he did not want to leave this place.

“Get up!”

On the other hand, Liu xuanxin managed to calm herself down even faster. “Two days later, the war will begin! You should get back to your business!”

“I know! I’ll go immediately!”

Chen Xiaobei nodded in agreement but did not let go of Liu xuanxin.

She said no, but her body was very honest!

“Quickly get up!”

you’re the king of a country now! Liu xuanxin frowned and said, “ you’re responsible for the fate of the dynasty! You can’t forget your duties because of your personal matters!”

“Alright ...”

Chen Xiaobei sighed and finally let go of his hands. He sat up and started to put on his clothes.

With great power came great responsibility! At a time like this, he really couldn’t be selfish and willful. He should put the overall situation first!

“Right, there’s one more thing!”

I know, ” Liu xuanxin said after some thought. you’ve been coming to my place all this time. I like it, but you can’t forget about big sister Bodhi and big sister Qingcheng!

“Big sister Subhuti has been through life and death with you, and she’s even engaged to you, so she should be considered your wife! Sister Qingcheng stratagems for you and manages the rear well. Her contributions and hard work are far above mine!”

“If you ignore them because of me, I’ll feel uneasy!” Liu xuanxin said seriously. Do you understand?”

“I understand! But you’re really overthinking this!”

you three! Chen Xiaobei said seriously, “ the three of you are the same in my heart! I didn’t give them the cold shoulder!”

however, Bodhi has been studying the secrets of the first Saint Duke Empress. I’ve gone to her a few times, but she was always in seclusion. I didn’t even get to see her!

“Don’t even mention Qingcheng! Not only did she have to manage the country, but she also had to run a company. She was simply a super strong woman! I feel like she’s even busier than me! It’s not easy to meet him!”

Chen Xiaobei sighed helplessly. His heart ached at the thought of Luo puti and song Qincheng, but he had no choice.

After all, this was a critical period! The road ahead was full of danger and strong enemies, everything had to be for the big picture!

She couldn't possibly ask Luo puti and song Qincheng to put down their hands on such an important matter just to make up for her love.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei was a man of principle, and a man of true love! If the time was right, he knew better than anyone what to do!

"I will remember everything you say! Have a good rest, I'll be off!"

After Chen Xiaobei was dressed, he got up and left the bedroom.

He entered the verdant Emperor's divine gourd.

The ten-thousand-year infernal spirit had absorbed all the heaven and earth spiritual aura in the heaven and earth smelt. With the help of the demon spirit petrifying stone, it had successfully given birth to a demon spirit and became a six-star earth-god level Inferno demon!

Chen Xiaobei took out a primordial spirit blood contract and began to communicate with the newborn flame demon's spirit and form a blood contract!

Everything was going smoothly and within expectations!

With the help of Liu xuanxin's divine Phoenix blood, the flame demon quickly formed his dharma body!

Just like Xuan po, this flame demon also looked like a young man and had a pair of flaming wings on his back!

"From now on, I'll call you infernal spirit!"

Chen Xiaobei looked at the youngster in front of him, his eyes full of love, as if he was looking at his own child.

thank you, bro bei!

The infernal spirits loved their names, and they flew around Chen Xiaobei, dancing around him in excitement.

"Eh? You can also speak the human language! You also know who I am!"

wait! Chen Xiaobei quickly asked, " did the celestial Hound also inject important information into your demonic spirit point stone? "

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 2709: full strength

"It's the same!"

Infernal spirit composed himself and said,"the information that brother dog injected into the three ignition stones is exactly the same!" No matter which one bro bei uses first, he will get the same information!"

"Mm, that's true!"

yes! Chen Xiaobei nodded. the celestial Hound doesn't know which petrifying stone I'm going to use first. So, I've injected the same information into all three of them. It's to make sure that I'll know the moment I use them!

"Yes, I am!" Inferno spirit nodded.

Xuan po had already transmitted the information about the celestial Hound. It was about the three reincarnated earth Immortals!

Yuji, Sun Simiao, and Wei Xiaobao were all earth level deities chosen by Xiao Tianquan. They could help Chen Xiaobei to become a spy in the clan of enlightenment!

Wei Xiaobao had successfully contacted Chen Xiaobei and even exchanged their phone numbers.

Although he had not met Yuji and sun Simiao yet, Xuan po had already given Chen Xiaobei their phone numbers.

When the time was right, Chen Xiaobei would go and find them!

"Although the information has been transmitted, I'm still a little worried about the safety of the celestial Hound!"

yang Kuai is a disciple of the clan of enlightenment, and I'm close to the celestial Hound. If we're discovered, the consequences will be unimaginable! Chen Xiaobei said.

"Bro bei, don't worry!"

brother dog is very smart and cautious," the infernal spirit comforted. he will definitely not be discovered! When it's done with its mission, it will contact bro bei!"

Chen Xiaobei sighed, but he was still worried. "I know Xiao Tianquan is smart and capable, but because fairy Chang 'e publicly supported me in the group, she was later summoned by the Queen Mother, and there has been no news of her until now!"

this ... the infernal spirit was stunned and speechless.

no! Chen Xiaobei frowned. the Brotherhood group has always been small. First, we lost contact with goddess Chang 'e, and now, we lost contact with celestial Hound! We agreed to meet in the heavenly realm and have a drink! I wonder how many people will still be there ..."

bro bei, your worry is not unreasonable ... But now is not the time for you to think about this!

The infernal spirit was very sensible and said seriously, "Even if the fairy Chang 'e and the celestial Hound really encounter some trouble, you will need to go to the heavenly realm to help them!"

"Right! It's useless to think too much about the matters of the heaven realm!"

Chen Xiaobei was not an indecisive person, so he quickly calmed himself down and said, "I have to do my own things first! Only in this way can I go to the heavenly realm as soon as possible and meet my good friend! Let's drink together! We'll face it together!"

“Well said! Do your best to do what you can! This is the most important thing!” The infernal spirit nodded heavily.

.....

For the rest of the day, Chen Xiaobei spent his time traveling between the nine tribes, working with the witch Lords to prepare for all sorts of Affairs!

In fact, the reason why the overnight meeting had lasted so long was not because the battle was difficult! It was because they had discussed in detail how to appease the people and how to defend the city after the war!

It was easy to attack a city, but hard to defend it!

The preparations they were making now were to be able to defend the city for a long time after the attack and completely stop the war!

Fortunately, the people of the royal city of beixuan were of one heart and mind! Everyone’s hearts were focused on one point, and everyone’s strength was also twisted into a rope. Naturally, they did things quickly and well!

.....

On the morning of the third day, everything was ready.

Chen Xiaobei led the Royal Army of beixuan out of the vast mountains and sea, through the dimensional crack, and into the breezy Plains!

Once they entered the breezy Plains, it would be a flat land. If the Army attacked, they would be able to reach huge axe city before dark!

This was the royal city of beixuan’s first battle. All their forces had been deployed, and it was a huge battle!

Chen Xiaobei was standing on the giant barbaric Tiger’s head, leading the Army!

The icy-winged dark spirit and the flaming-winged infernal spirit were flying at Chen Xiaobei’s sides, protecting him like guardian spirits!

On both sides of the giant barbaric Tiger were the core members of the royal city of beixuan!

The nine Grand shamans were on the right, each of them holding a high-rank earth-god instrument and riding high-rank earth-god level beasts. They were awe-inspiring and powerful!

The people from bei Xuan faction were on the left!

Jiang Ziya and old Wang were wearing yin-yang Daoist robes, one in white and one in black. They both had the air of Immortals and Masters!

Xiang Yu was holding the five Tiger soul-cutting spear in his hand, while Ying Zheng had the heavenly edge Emperor sword at his waist. The domineering aura of a King was vividly displayed!

Zhao Yun wielded the enhanced Silver Dragon Spear, while Lu Bu wielded the enhanced heavenly halberd. The ever-victorious general and the unparalleled flying general exuded an incomparably powerful aura with every movement!

Nezha was wearing the fire ring, Hong Hai 'er was carrying the Thunder spear, and Lin Nan was carrying the Fufeng sword!

Don't be fooled by the fact that these three youths were usually wild and playful! However, on the battlefield, they all became serious! His aura was calm and he was focused! The marching and gathering were well done! His orders were strictly followed!

Other than them, Liu xuanxin was already a seven-star earth-god, and she had also comprehended the divine Phoenix deviant flame technique. She could be considered a general!

Little Diao Chan was already a seven-star earth-god, and with the seven-star earth-god's Midsummer Dream brocade that Chen Xiaobei had given her, her combat power was quite impressive!

However, Liu xuanxin and Diao Chan were both girls. Chen Xiaobei did not want to bring them along, but he could not stand their coaxing. So, he had no choice but to agree to bring them along!

Of course, Chen Xiaobei only wanted them to hold the rear of the Army. He did not want them to fight the enemy at the front!

As for Luo puti and song Qincheng, although they had learned the frosty nine provinces technique and the sun-Moon sky technique respectively, their cultivation was too low and they were busy with other things, so they did not come!

Although LAN Mengcheng, Lin Xiang, Wenyan, and Murong Xiaoyao had all received seven-star earth-god grade clothes, their cultivation was still lower than Luo puti and song Qincheng. Chen Xiaobei did not dare to let them go to the battlefield! Therefore, he did not bring the four of them along!

Other than Chen Xiaobei and the other core members of the upper echelons.

Chen Xiaobei's six direct disciples were also in the Army.

Hundreds of shamans, thousands of shamans, and tens of thousands of apprentices from the nine tribes were also in the Army.

Below them were the nine hundred thousand soldiers of the nine tribes!

Xuanzhong, Berserker, Xiaofeng, and stupa had 200000 troops each!

Out of the remaining 100000, the yaoshu tribe had 60000 people. They were responsible for casting blessings and curses to assist the Warriors of the four tribes!

The sky poison tribe had 10000 men, and they were in charge of the poison attack!

10,000 people from the divine craftsmen's tribe were in charge of repairing weapons and equipment!

The 10,000 people of the beast taming tribe were responsible for taking care of the spirit beast mounts!

The 10,000 people of the dingshang tribe would be in charge of cleaning up the battlefield and calculating the losses and gains!

One king! Twenty generals! An Army of 900000!

All the forces in the royal city of beixuan had come out and started a new chapter in the history of the breezy Plains!

.....

The sun was setting in the West, and the Army had arrived at the West Gate of huge axe city!

Chen Xiaobei stepped on the Tiger and issued his ultimatum!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 2710: war erupts

“The soldiers on the city walls, listen up! I’m the North Mystic Lord, Chen Zhufeng!”

Chen Xiaobei stood on top of the giant barbaric Tiger’s head and shouted, “I’ll give you three minutes to open the gates and surrender. Otherwise, I’ll give the order to destroy your city and kill you all!”

Chen Xiaobei had used ethereal force in his voice. Not only did the guards in the West City hear him, but everyone in the city could hear him clearly.

The goal was simple-to shake the enemy’s morale.

Following Chen Xiaobei’s shout, the slums in the city were in an uproar!

Three days ago, two million poor people followed Lockheed and left. Among them were 100000 poor Warriors!

Compared to huge axe city, which had a population of one billion, two million people was not a lot!

But now, not only did Chen Xiaobei take his men away, he was really coming back with his soldiers! This was enough to prove that Chen Xiaobei was not a pretentious person who only knew how to talk! He was a true expert who did what he said!

Three days ago, most of them did not think that Chen Xiaobei would win. But now, at least a portion of them had changed their minds!

And this group of people were mainly concentrated in the slums!

At the same time, in the areas where the rich and middle-class families lived, there was also a considerable amount of turmoil!

Just three days ago, Chen Xiaobei had captured a million Titan Warriors from the East Camp!

The East Camp was directly under the jurisdiction of the city Lord’s mansion. From the commander to the soldier, they all had good backgrounds!

Chen Xiaobei had taken away millions of rich and middle-class families!

Now that Chen Xiaobei’s Army was at the city gates, the millions of families were all extremely nervous!

In the eyes of these millions of families, the millions of soldiers were like sheep waiting to be slaughtered! He could be dragged out by Chen Xiaobei to be killed on the battlefield and used to threaten huge axe city!

From this, it could be seen that these one million families were already extremely nervous. It was inevitable for them to be restless, and they might even do something out of control!

Of course, the battle had yet to begin, so it was hard to predict the outcome! Therefore, the millions of families in the slums still maintained their last bit of restraint!

Which side they would lean towards in the end would depend on the trend of the battle!

.....

On the West Gate Tower.

Old Mondo had arrived with dozens of generals, looking down at the North Mystic Army from above!

heh, I was wondering what kind of Big Shot it was to actually dare to declare war on my huge axe city!

hahahahaha! old mundo laughed. a mere eight to nine hundred thousand motley crew. Are they here to fill the gaps between the teeth of my huge axe city's ten million strong Army? "

The dozens of Titan Warriors around him all laughed.

Even the soldiers guarding the city sneered.

After all, there were only 900000 people in the front, middle, back, and logistics of the royal city!

As for huge axe city's military, after a million of them were captured, they still had nine million soldiers!

The difference in the number of soldiers on both sides was more than ten times!

It was no wonder that everyone in huge axe city was laughing at them. They did not even care about the Army from beixuan!

"The quality of soldiers is more important than the quantity!"

Chen Xiaobei said, "Although I only have 900000 soldiers under me, they are all brave and fearless Warriors! Dealing with you bunch of good-for-nothings is like slaughtering pigs and chickens, it's a piece of cake!"

heh, as the chief military counselor of huge axe city, I've been through hundreds of battles and have seen countless people. I've never seen an idiot like you who doesn't think before acting tough!

Old Mondo laughed in disdain, "the difference in our military strength is ten times!" I still have a strong city to defend! There was also the replenishment of spirit veins! "And you, you've gone on an expedition. You have neither a stronghold to stand in, nor a connection of spiritual energy! What right do you have to fight me? Just based on his foul mouth? Hahaha ..."

The crowd burst into laughter. They looked at Chen Xiaobei as if he was an idiot.

"Since you've asked so sincerely, I'll be merciful and tell you!"

I have the 'four symbols killing formation'! This formation is a divine immortal level formation! Chen Xiaobei said proudly. Although I only have 900000 people, I can at least unleash the power of a nine-star earth-god! With a snap of my fingers, I can destroy your city and kill you!"

"What? [four symbols absolute killing battle formation]?"

Old Mondo's expression froze for a moment. After thinking carefully, he laughed again."Do you think I'm stupid? The four element Royal City had already disappeared 30 million years ago! The " four symbols absolute killing battle formation " was completely lost and never appeared again! If you really understand this formation, this old man will chop off my head and let you kick it like a ball!"

Hearing this, the Titan soldiers around them laughed even more happily.

In their eyes, Chen Xiaobei was not only an idiot, but also a braggart.

Many of them were even eager to rush down and kill Chen Xiaobei to claim the first credit!

"You won't shed tears until you see the coffin!"

Chen Xiaobei waved his hand and shouted, " "Royal Army of beixuan, hear my order! Get into formation immediately! When the formation is complete, kill the enemy in front of you!"

"Yes, sir!"

900,000 people shouted in unison. The sound was so majestic that it shook the heavens and earth, and its might suppressed all directions!

As soon as he finished speaking, everyone began to quickly form a formation according to the positions and methods they had practiced before!

That's right, Chen Xiaobei had only learned the four symbols killing formation, not a battle formation!

However, the profoundness of the Xuan formation lay in the profound techniques!

Simply put, it was using fingers to form a battle formation!

For example, if ten portions of true essence were added to ten fingers and ten tasks were done at the same time, in addition to special finger techniques and hand seals, a ten-man battle formation could be formed!

Because of this, the way Xuan formations were set up was also the way battle formations were set up!

The difference was that Xuan formations used finger techniques and hand seals to form a formation! And a battle formation was formed by a large number of people!

Chen Xiaobei had been preparing for this battle for a long time!

The " four symbols killing battle formation " had long been taught to the Grand shamans of the four main war tribes by Jiang Ziya. He had also instructed the Warriors to practice it day and night, so they had already memorized it thoroughly!

Not long after, the formation had been set and the general formation had been formed. All that was left was the details of the inner formation and they would be able to complete the formation!

“Not good!”

Obviously, old Mondo was not stupid. Instead, he was very smart and had a lot of experience. He quickly exclaimed, “This formation is extremely profound! It’s very likely that it’s a true divine immortal level battle formation!”

As soon as he said this, everyone was shocked, “what should we do?” There are only two million people around the West Gate, and they don’t have any spirit weapon equipment. Even if they form the ‘heaven splitting divine axe battle formation’, they can only exert the power of an eight-star earth-god, and they will definitely lose ...”

“Don’t panic!”

Old Mondo had experienced hundreds of battles and was extremely calm. “Relay my orders! Transfer the troops from the North, South, and East cities to provide support! At the same time, send out a signal for the city Lord to attack the enemy from behind!”

“At the same time, all the generals and soldiers in the West City, charge out! Disrupt the enemy’s formation at all costs! Stop the enemy from forming their formation!”

Old Mondo’s gaze focused and he said with confidence, “As long as the reinforcements and the city Lord arrive! The enemy would be attacked from the front and back! Our side will crush them with ten times the number of soldiers, and victory is certain!”

As soon as he said that, everyone nodded and praised, “Brilliant plan! What a brilliant plan! Do as Mr. Mondo says! The enemy will definitely be annihilated here!”

Then, dozens of Titan Warriors jumped down from the city gate tower and charged at the beixuan Army!

Soon after, all ten city gates in the west of the city were opened. The two million defenders rushed out like a flood of ferocious beasts!

“That old man is quite smart! They don’t want me to get into formation!”

Chen Xiaobei smiled and said, “Beixuan generals, follow me! Enemy!”

“Yes, sir!”

Twenty-one figures, including Chen Xiaobei, charged out from the Army of bei Xuan!

21 VS 2 million!
