Chapter 4451: life extension!

“Are you stupid?”

“Right now, the heavenly Dao can no longer control my life and death. His strongest trump card, the ice Dome Sage Dao talisman, can be easily neutralized by me. Why can't I kill him?” the ice Dome Saint ancestor said solemnly.

“On what basis?”

Chen Xiaobei laughed. you can barely even hold a sword now. If you try to kill me, your blood essence and saintly Qi will be completely depleted. You'll be a dead man before you even see the heavenly axiom!

“I can hold on!”

“I'll give it my all,” Ice dome's divine ancestor said stubbornly. at least I still have a chance of survival. If I follow you, I might not live past tonight!

Obviously, the ice Dome divine ancestor knew that her body was already at the end of its rope.

Her mind was very clear. If she gave it her all, she might have a chance of survival. If she didn't, she was doomed to die. She would not make the wrong choice.

“What if I can protect your life?”

Chen Xiaobei looked at the ice dome's divine ancestor with a half-smile.

“You ... You can save my life? This ... How is this possible!”

Ice dome's divine ancestor looked at Chen Xiaobei in disbelief. When her eyes fell on Chen Xiaobei's hand, she immediately understood.

Chen Xiaobei was still holding the sky-breaking sacred wood key in his hand.

what's your relationship with divine ancestor Broken Sky? ”

Ice dome's divine ancestor's expression changed drastically, and she immediately asked, “Can you really get rid of the ten feet Red Sky breaker's special ability?”

Normally, no matter what Chen Xiaobei said, Ice dome's divine ancestor would not believe him and would have killed Chen Xiaobei with one strike.

But now, the solid evidence was in Chen Xiaobei's hands, and she had no choice but to believe it.

I have nothing to do with the divine ancestor of the broken Sky clan. I obtained this key of the broken Sky sacred tree by chance.

but, my medical skills are not bad. I also know a little about alchemy. I might not be able to completely remove your special ability, but I can at least extend your life!

Chen Xiaobei was telling the truth.

He did not lie to the ice Dome divine ancestor because when Chen Xiaobei was plotting against the heavenly axiom, the ice Dome divine ancestor had kept her promise and did not attack Chen Xiaobei.

So, Chen Xiaobei owed the ice dome's divine ancestor a favor.

With Chen Xiaobei's personality, he would repay a drop of kindness with a spring.

As long as the ice dome's divine ancestor was willing to believe him, Chen Xiaobei was willing to help her extend her life. If there was another way, Chen Xiaobei was even willing to completely remove her curse.

"I ... Why should I believe you?"

Ice dome's divine ancestor's eyes were wide open as she looked at Chen Xiaobei suspiciously.

"Just based on this!"

Chen Xiaobei quickly took out a few pills from his inventory.

These elixirs were all refined by Saint Emperor GUI Gu. In the Holy ancestor ancient battlefield, they could be said to be treasures that were well-known.

"These ... These pills are the unique secret recipes of guigu sect! Any one of them is a Saint medicine that can heal injuries and extend one's life!"

Ice dome's divine ancestor recognized it at a glance.

Then, she frowned and questioned, "but you didn't refine these pills at all!" Moreover, these pills are of no help to me at all!"

"Don't say anything, just watch!"

Chen Xiaobei was too lazy to explain. He held the pill in one hand and the three great saint orbs in the other.

"Whoosh ..."

In the next moment, the eighth-rank Hong curse was activated by the great saint orb, and the essence of the pills was extracted.

"Shua shua shua ..."

Then, Chen Xiaobei took out a bunch of rare and precious herbs.

Using the same method, the essence of the medicinal herbs was derived.

Finally, according to a specific ratio, the different medicinal essences were mixed together. Finally, a fiery red liquid pill was formed.

how ... How is this possible?!

Ice dome's divine ancestor was stunned. "You ... You're a descendant of the great sage Tribe? Isn't this race on the verge of extinction?"

"Furthermore, you actually know alchemy! You can also combine the great Dao of the five elements with alchemy, using the medicinal pills and herbs of the five elements to cycle and promote the birth of the most powerful and fierce fire-element medicinal pills!"

"Oh my God ... This ... This is simply too magical!"

As a top powerhouse at the level of the Holy ancestor, the ice Dome holy ancestor's experience and vision were naturally top-notch.

She had only seen it once, but she had already seen through the essence of Chen Xiaobei's alchemy.

This was her comprehension and talent. It was truly not something that ordinary people could compare to.

Of course, it was also because she had seen through Chen Xiaobei's nature that she could feel how powerful he was.

She was certain that with Chen Xiaobei's alchemy skills, he would be one of the top alchemy Masters in the ancestral Holy region.

Shocking! Horror! He couldn't help but be impressed!

"Chi ..."

Ice Dome divine ancestor put down the long sword in her hand and said in a deep voice, "I'm willing to believe you! As long as you can help me extend my life, I can protect you!"

"We don't know who's going to protect who yet. Let's eat first." Chen Xiaobei placed the pill in front of the ice dome's divine ancestor's mouth.

At this moment, Ice dome's Saint ancestor didn't even have the strength to lift her sword.

Although she did not want to do this, she still opened her mouth and let Chen Xiaobei feed her the pill.

It seemed that this was the first time she had been fed by a man. In an instant, her pretty face turned red.

She was as beautiful as a flower, beautiful beyond comparison.

"Whoosh ..."

As the pill entered his stomach, its medicinal power began to spread.

Ice dome's divine ancestor felt a flame burning in her body and spreading rapidly.

First of all, his blood essence and Saint Qi had been replenished to a certain extent, and he was much more energetic.

Secondly, the extremely strong and intense fire attribute medicinal power directly pushed upwards, causing a certain suppressive effect on the broken Sky One Zhang Red's Wood attribute special ability.

Although it couldn't completely eliminate her special ability, it could greatly reduce its effect on ice Dome Saint ancestor.

As long as the medicinal power was still there, Ice dome's divine ancestor would be able to move around freely. As long as she was not fighting with others, the effects would not be too great.

This way, Ice dome's divine ancestor's life would be extended, and she would not have to risk her life.

He was waiting for an opportunity to completely remove his special ability.

"Thank you ..."

Ice dome's divine ancestor lowered her head in a rare moment of shyness, and her tone was no longer bone-piercingly cold.

This woman was extremely beautiful to begin with. At this moment, her temperament revealed a little warmth. In an instant, it was as if spring had warmed the earth and flowers had bloomed for thousands of miles. She was simply too beautiful to be absorbed.

"Swish!"

However, at this moment, a huge black shadow suddenly appeared in the sky.

Chen Xiaobei and the ice dome's divine ancestor looked up.

In an instant, the two of them were so shocked that they were dumbfounded and their scalps went numb. They simply couldn't believe their eyes.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4452: suspicious point!

In the purple-red Sky, a huge black shadow as large as a mountain had appeared.

Its main body was shaped like a turtle.

The back armor was thick and heavy, with jagged bone spikes jutting out in a disorderly manner. A black-gray Metallic luster shone on it, as if it was a huge mountain cast from silver.

Its four legs were like heavenly pillars, extremely thick, and covered in silver-gray scales with sharp edges.

Its tail was longer and narrower than an ordinary turtle's, and it was covered with countless silver-gray spikes. If one didn't look at its body and only looked at its tail, many people would think that it was a huge silver-armored Thorny Dragon!

That's right!

A mere tail could be compared to a true dragon.

One could only imagine how huge this silver-gray Saint turtle was.

It was no wonder that Chen Xiaobei and the ice dome's divine ancestor were so shocked that they could not believe their eyes.

“What ... What the hell is this?”

Chen Xiaobei looked at the ice dome’s divine ancestor, confused.

Obviously, the ice dome’s divine ancestor had more experience and knowledge than Chen Xiaobei.

However, at this moment, the ice Dome Saint ancestor could only shake her head helplessly as she faced the huge silver-gray Saint turtle.

“I’ve never seen or even heard of such a Saint Beast!”

Ice dome’s divine ancestor’s face was pale, and her blue eyes were just as shocked as Chen Xiaobei’s.

“Even you haven’t heard of it before ... This ...”

Chen Xiaobei was even more shocked.

The ice dome’s divine ancestor was a figure who had existed for countless years. Moreover, she had already stood at the highest peak of the world, the divine ancestor realm.

It wasn’t an exaggeration to say that the divine ancestor knew everything that existed in this world.

Only those extremely secretive, profound, and ancient secrets were above the Holy ancestor and were not known to him.

One could imagine that this Silver Saint turtle must be hiding a huge secret.

This Saint turtle had either been hidden since birth or was older than any Saint ancestor. This Saint turtle had never even appeared in the legends or been heard of by Ice Dome Saint ancestor.

Ice dome’s Saint ancestor swallowed her saliva, her pretty face full of nervousness and fear.

“Alright!”

Chen Xiaobei activated the chaotic space.

He let the ice dome’s divine ancestor enter first, and then waited for two seconds. After it seemed like someone else had entered, Chen Xiaobei followed.

The chaotic space was very special. After Chen Xiaobei devoured the Saint devouring axe, he had learned the spatial ability.

It could be opened and closed with a single thought, and from the outside, there was no trace of it at all.

Unless the silver-gray Saint turtle could see through the spatial wall of the chaotic space, it would not be able to find Chen Xiaobei.

“Is the Saint turtle’s cultivation strong? Even you have to avoid it!”

Chen Xiaobei asked.

a late-stage one-star divine ancestor is at the same level as me. However, I don’t have any confidence in defeating it ...

“I can’t fully use my Saint origin power now, and even if I’m at my peak, it’ll still be difficult to fight it!” Ice dome’s Saint ancestor said.

It was obvious that there were many things that could affect the outcome of a battle between two people of the same cultivation realm.

Cultivation technique! Weapons! Special ability! An array! Talent! Wait, wait, wait ...

Among them, the most important one was the bloodline talent!

Ice Dome Saint ancestor couldn’t be sure, but her intuition told her that the silver-gray Saint turtle’s bloodline was terrifyingly high.

“If even you don’t have the confidence to fight, then it’ll be troublesome ...” He said.

this ... Chen Xiaobei frowned. based on the current situation, these independent spaces were not created by divine ancestor Broken Sky! Divine ancestor Broken Sky has only discovered these independent spaces!”

if I’m not wrong, there are terrifying dangers in every independent space here. Only by overcoming the dangers can we open the door to the next independent space!

“Back then, divine ancestor Broken Sky must have defeated the dangers in the first and second spaces! When he reached the third space, he realized that he was no match for the Saint turtle, so he retreated!”

Ice dome’s divine ancestor frowned. “How do you know that divine ancestor Skybreak has retreated? And not die at the hands of the Saint turtle?”

“Because of this!”

Chen Xiaobei took out the sky-breaking sacred wood key and said, ” “The three green gates we passed through earlier were all made by divine ancestor Broken Sky.”

in other words, only when divine ancestor Broken Sky leaves this place alive will he be able to set up the three green doors to prevent others from entering!

The ice dome’s divine ancestor calmed down and agreed with Chen Xiaobei’s analysis.

“You’re right! Back then, the mysterious disappearance of divine ancestor Broken Sky should have involved entering these independent spaces! He was also the one who hid this space, making it impossible for anyone to find it!”

Ice Dome Saint ancestor paused and said in a deep voice, ” however, logically speaking, after divine ancestor Broken Sky retreated, he should have returned to the public’s view. Why is there still no news of him after so many years? ”

I’m not sure ... Chen Xiaobei thought for a moment and said, ” “After the divine ancestor Broken Sky came out, did he leave the divine ancestor ancient battlefield?”

“Yes, that’s possible!”

Ice Dome Saint ancestor nodded and asked, "How did you get the key in your hand?"

"This ..."

"There was a stall owner called old mudfish before I entered the Holy ancestor ancient battlefield! He was the one who sold me the key! Could he be the true body of the divine ancestor Broken Sky?"

"Old mudfish?"

Ice Dome divine ancestor frowned and thought for a moment before shaking her head. "This doesn't make sense. If the old mudfish is the divine ancestor Broken Sky, why would he sell you such an important key? Did you pay a sky-high price?"

"No..."

Chen Xiaobei shook his head and continued, "I remember that he said that this key would only be sold to the fated. He said that I would give him however much money I had. At that time, I did pay with all my money, but that was far from a sky-high price!"

"This is the most suspicious part!" "No matter how I look at it, the old Loach is at a loss in this deal!" Ice dome's divine ancestor said.

when the old mudfish sold me the key, it was completely dry and rotten. I had to use some other methods to restore its spiritual nature! Chen Xiaobei said.

Chen Xiaobei had used a lot of the Saint pan dew to turn the dead wood into the sacred sky-breaking wood key, which was glowing with emerald green light.

"This is even stranger!"

Ice dome's divine ancestor frowned and said, 'according to your speculation, the old mudskipper might have known in advance that you had a way to repair the key! That's why he intentionally sold this extremely important key to you!"

"This is impossible ..."

what?" Chen Xiaobei was puzzled. how did he know?"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4453: The word "ultimate"!

4453 The word "ultimate"!

The more he analyzed this matter, the more mysterious it became.

If the old mudfish had sold the key to Chen Xiaobei on purpose ...

So, how did the old mudfish know that Chen Xiaobei had the Saint pan dew? Chen Xiaobei had never told anyone about this secret!

Or perhaps, the old mudfish knew nothing and was simply waiting for the fated person.

How did he know that the fated person would be able to help him repair the key? Could it be that there was an expert who had given him guidance?

There were too many suspicious points in this matter, and it could not be explained at all.

“Let’s not consider that for now!”

“What we need to do now is to leave this place as soon as possible!” Ice dome’s divine ancestor said solemnly. Otherwise, the medicinal herbs in your hands will run out sooner or later, and you won’t be able to help me extend my life. I don’t want to die Here!”

no! Chen Xiaobei shook his head. we’re already here. I want to defeat that silver-gray Saint turtle and see if I can find some clues to solve the secret!

are you crazy!?

Ice dome’s divine ancestor looked at Chen Xiaobei in disbelief.

“With just the two of us, it’s impossible to defeat that Saint turtle!” The best choice is to retreat!”

“That’s not for sure!” Chen Xiaobei smiled.

“Chi ...”

After that, Chen Xiaobei took out the divine Blood Shield.

This treasure was a peak Saint Emperor. Its original owner, the anatta star, was unable to use it with his own Saint Origin Energy, so it had long since been filled with Saint origin.

That was equivalent to ten peak Saint Emperor energy.

Chen Xiaobei took out nine of them and used them to cultivate the one character Saint-killer curse.

“Whoosh ...”

Chen Xiaobei took out the Saint sunlight cache and burned his lifespan to speed up his cultivation.

After some time, as the nine peak Saint Emperor powers were used up, the nine words of the one word Saint destroyer curse reached the peak of the ninth step.

The one word Saint destroyer curse’s greatest characteristic was that when all nine words reached the peak of the ninth step, it could give birth to a hidden word.

The hidden word was where Chen Xiaobei’s confidence came from.

As he continued to activate the technique, the nine words, which were shining with a holy white light, flew around Chen Xiaobei. They intertwined and formed a beautiful Aurora.

“This ... This is ...”

At the same time, Ice dome’s divine ancestor was stunned.

A pair of ice-blue eyes were staring at Chen Xiaobei.

His eyes were fixed on Chen Xiaobei, and he could not move them away.

Obviously, the ice Dome Saint ancestor had recognized the one-word Saint-Killing Curse and had even evoked some special memories.

It was to the extent that she was stunned on the spot, and her head was buzzing, unable to extricate herself.

“Whoosh ...”

After Chen Xiaobei had completed 360 million major and 810 million minor cycles of the one word Saint-killer curse, a change finally appeared.

“Shua shua shua ...”

Xuan, Yuan, pan, Hong, life, extreme, beginning, destruction, and nothingness. The nine words connected from head to tail, forming a ring.

“Whoosh ...”

In the next moment, dazzling nine-colored holy light burst out from the center of the nine-word ring.

In an instant, a vast and terrifying aura descended. It was like the collapse of billions of mountains and seas, and the invisible pressure almost caused the entire chaotic space to collapse.

Ice dome’s divine ancestor took a deep breath. Her face was pale, and her pupils shrank. Her delicate body couldn’t help but tremble, feeling that her state of mind could collapse at any moment.

At the same time, even Chen Xiaobei, who had a strong mental state, felt an unprecedented mental pressure.

His forehead was covered in cold sweat, his back and hands and feet were extremely cold, and even his heartbeat and breathing were seriously affected. It was very difficult for him to support himself.

However, Chen Xiaobei’s state of mind was still much stronger than the ice dome’s divine ancestor’s.

At least, Chen Xiaobei was not at risk of breaking down. He just needed to have enough willpower to hold on.

Of course, as long as he could get through this, Chen Xiaobei’s state of mind would grow and improve again.

“Whoosh ...”

Finally, the final words appeared.

Dao!

The core and most important part of the one word Saint-Killing Curse was the word ‘Dao’!

“Whoosh ...”

When the word ‘Dao’ was formed, it meant that Chen Xiaobei had already completed the one word Saint-Killing Curse.

In an instant, the terrifying pressure in the surroundings dissipated.

What replaced it was purple Qi from the East, and auspicious signs filled the sky!

“Whoosh ...”

Then, the nine-colored holy light shone down on Chen Xiaobei like the spring breeze and rain, making him feel very comfortable!

“BOOM!”

Without any warning, Chen Xiaobei’s Saint Qi suddenly fluctuated and soared, stabilizing at a very high position.

[ding Yingying’s cultivation base is at the early stage of eight star divine Emperor. Lifespan: 4 years of the underworld! (Zero points are ignored)

“Hmm? I’ve broken through a major realm?”

Chen Xiaobei did not expect that the appearance of the word ‘Dao’ would give him an opportunity to break through to the next realm.

After all, Chen Xiaobei had used up all his Saint Emperor Mystic fat. It would be very difficult for him to break through to the next realm.

However, he did not expect to complete a breakthrough at this time.

This was definitely an unexpected surprise.

It felt really good.

Of course, the breakthrough of a major realm was only an appetizer. The real highlight was still behind!

“Whoosh ...”

Chen Xiaobei activated the one word Saint-killer curse and formed the word ‘Dao’ in front of him.

He focused his mind and tried to understand the benefits that this word could bring.

“So, the word” Dao “is the origin of everything!”

Chen Xiaobei pondered, “ the world only knows that the great sage Tribe is the origin of everything, but they don’t know that the great sage Tribe was also derived from this character!

“As for the other words, they are no exception. They all originate from Dao! This is the Dao begets one, one begets two, two begets three, three begets all things!”

“So, there are two special abilities for this character! Dao nurtures all things! 10,000 DAOs return to one!”

Very quickly, Chen Xiaobei understood the special ability of the character.

These two abilities were extremely heaven-defying and overbearing. One could say that they were absolutely invincible below the divine ancestor.

In fact, if Chen Xiaobei had enough energy, he could even cross a realm and fight the divine ancestor.

however, the silver Saint turtle's level is too high. I can't defeat it with just these two abilities and the energy I have!

Chen Xiaobei turned to look at the ice dome's Saint ancestor.

"You ... Why are you looking at me?"

Ice Dome Saint ancestor's face was slightly red and she pursed her lips like a little girl who had done something wrong.

"Big sister! You were the one who kept looking at me, okay?"

Chen Xiaobei raised his eyebrows and said, "Do you know the secret of the one word Holy extermination curse? If you are, then tell us quickly. This is related to whether or not we can defeat that big turtle outside!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4454: Symbols!

4454 Symbols!

a long, long time ago, before I reached the Holy ancestor realm, I once encountered a fatal danger ... Fortunately, a senior came to my rescue at that time, and I survived!

Ice dome's beautiful eyes narrowed as she said in a deep voice, "and the cultivation technique used by that senior is exactly the same as the cultivation technique you just cultivated!

it's Supreme Ling Kong!?" Chen Xiaobei quickly made his own judgment.

"The senior didn't leave his name ..."

"However, very few people know how to use this technique. I only know you and him. Therefore, that senior might be the supremacy Ling Kong you mentioned!" The ice Dome Saint ancestor said.

"It's definitely him!"

"What else do you know?" Chen asked. Say it all! This is very important to me!"

"After senior saved me, he was in a hurry to leave. Before he left, he specifically asked me a question!"

he asked me if I've ever heard of a Black Saint stone that can emit a terrifying aura of war," Ice dome's Saint ancestor said.

"Black Saint stone? The aura of war?" Chen Xiaobei suddenly thought of something.

Chen Xiaobei then took out the black stone that he had obtained from the secret realm from his inventory.

"BOOM!"

In an instant, a terrifying and unparalleled aura of war exploded.

It was as if it was a terrifying war that could destroy the world and slaughter everything.

A mountain of corpses and a sea of blood was not enough to describe its horror.

“Hiss ...”

Ice dome’s Saint ancestor gasped.

At this moment, she felt as if her soul had been sucked out of her. Her entire body was exhausted and her mind instantly went blank.

In fact, a terrifying illusion burst out in her mind.

She stood in the middle of the blood-stained battlefield when the nine Supreme Saint ancestors suddenly appeared and surrounded her.

In an instant, extreme despair enveloped her. Ice dome’s sacred ancestor felt an unparalleled fear. Her pupils shrank involuntarily, and her body trembled. Cold sweat poured down her body like rain.

It was simply too terrifying!

“Calm your mind! It’ll be fine after we get through it!”

Chen Xiaobei had already experienced how terrifying this black Holy Stone was back in the secret realm in the sky. Now that he had gotten used to it, he was able to withstand it even though his state of mind was still greatly affected.

what ... What ... What is this thing?!

Ice Dome divine ancestor’s pupils contracted as if she had never seen such a terrifying thing in her life.

this is Supreme Ling Kong’s item. If I’m not mistaken, it should be the black Saint stone he asked you about! Chen Xiaobei said.

“This is too terrifying!”

Ice dome’s divine ancestor took a deep breath and said, still in shock, “ since it’s Supreme Ling Kong’s item, you can try to use the technique you just used. Perhaps there will be some changes.

“That makes sense!”

Chen Xiaobei immediately activated the one word Saint-killer curse.

First, the nine words formed into a nine-colored ring of holy light.

“Whoosh ...”

Then, the last word ‘Dao’ appeared.

“Chi ...”

As expected, the black Holy Stone gave off a special spiritual wave, as if it was responding to Chen Xiaobei.

It turned out that this method was correct.

“Dao nullifies all things!”

Chen Xiaobei then activated the ‘Dao’.

“Shua shua shua ...”

Dao begets one, one begets two, two begets three, three begets all things!

In an instant, the sun, moon, stars, mountains, rivers, lakes, seas, plants, birds, beasts, thousands of Laws, Master’s Dharma form, and the heavens were derived from the word!

“10000 DAOs return to one!”

After that, Chen Xiaobei continued to activate the second level of the ‘Dao’.

“Shua shua shua ...”

All the things that were derived from it quickly poured into the black Saint stone like rivers returning to the sea.

“Chi ...”

In the next moment, the surface of the black Saint rock glowed with a layer of Golden Saint light. Then, dense dark golden symbols appeared.

These symbols were very special.

It was so exquisite, mysterious, and ancient that not only Chen Xiaobei, but even the ice dome’s divine ancestor could not understand it.

Ice dome’s divine ancestor had never even seen or heard of such a thing.

why are these symbols!?

However, to his surprise, Chen Xiaobei had seen these symbols before, and he had a deep impression of them.

“Swish!”

Chen Xiaobei then took out a golden blueprint from his inventory.

Chen Xiaobei had taken the map from the natural law School.

It was because Chen Xiaobei could not understand the symbols on the blueprint that he had hidden it away and never had the chance to use it.

To Chen Xiaobei’s surprise, the dark golden symbols that appeared on the black Holy Stone were exactly the same as the symbols on the drawing.

what ... What’s this blueprint?!

The ice dome’s divine ancestor was dumbfounded. Chen Xiaobei’s storage space was like a treasure chest.

Anything that Chen Xiaobei took out was enough to shock everyone.

“My guess is that this map should record a method to raise Gu.”

it’s because when I found the map, there were a lot of herbs and treasures beside it, ” Chen Xiaobei said.

raising Gu!?

“The method of raising Gu is related to the black Saint stone?” Ice dome’s Saint ancestor frowned. This doesn’t make sense ...”

“There must be a connection between the two. Let me think about it!” Chen Xiaobei stopped talking and started to focus on his thoughts.

With Chen Xiaobei’s current brain power, he quickly thought of some connections.

I first used dao yan to spread all things, then I used Dao return to one to merge all things into the black Saint stone. Then, those special symbols appeared!

it’s possible! Chen Xiaobei said. then, every symbol corresponds to something that is derived from the word ‘Dao’!

“It’s possible!” “Why don’t you try and see if you can merge a physical object into this Black Saint stone?” Ice dome’s divine ancestor immediately gave her affirmation.

Clearly, the items that Chen Xiaobei had created with his Dao of evocation ability were just illusory symbols and not real objects.

If he were to fuse something with the black Saint stone, it might produce a different change.

“You’re so smart!”

Chen Xiaobei complimented the ice dome’s divine ancestor, and the woman blushed again.

in fact, although the heavenly axiom has the Golden Map, it certainly can’t understand the mystery of it. The reason why there are all kinds of medicinal herbs and heavenly materials and earthly treasures around the map may just be a wild guess of the heavenly axiom based on the shape of the symbols.

Chen Xiaobei thought for a moment and suddenly realized something. “I understand!”

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4455: backup plan!

“This Golden Map is actually the work of Supreme Lord Ling Kong! Back then, he first found the black Saint stone and used the Dao word incantation to manifest those special symbols, which he recorded on the blueprint!”

“Because the black Saint stone is very important, Lord Ling Kong created the Ling Kong secret realm and hid the Saint stone in it. As for the blueprint, he always carries it with him so that he can comprehend the special symbols!”

then, supremacy Ling Kong was attacked by the sky-burier sacred clan. He died, and his most important one-word Saint-killer curse and the Golden Map fell into old Feng’s hands! Chen Xiaobei said.

“After that, old Feng completely memorized the one word Holy extermination curse and destroyed the book that recorded it. However, old Feng can’t remember the symbols on this golden diagram, so he didn’t dare to destroy it!”

“In the end, old Feng was caught by the heavenly Dao, and the blueprint fell into the hands of the heavenly Dao!”

but the heavenly axiom can’t figure out the secret of the drawing itself. So, it can only find something that looks similar to the shape of the symbols and try it out randomly.

“It’s also because the heavenly Dao has never gotten an answer, that’s why the Golden blueprint has always been on his table, so that he can study and try it at any time! In the end, I took them away in one fell swoop!”

Chen Xiaobei finally understood the whole story.

This golden blueprint was not a secret recipe for raising Gu, it was only used by Lord Ling Kong to record the symbols.

With the black Saint stone, the drawing was meaningless.

What Chen Xiaobei needed to do next was to verify the ice dome’s divine ancestor’s suggestion.

He wanted to see what would happen if he merged something with the black Saint stone.

“The Dao of all things gave birth to the sun, moon, stars, mountains, rivers, lakes, seas, plants, birds, beasts, thousands of laws, the Dharma of the venerable of the world, and the mighty heavens! These things are completely in line with the configuration of an independent great world!”

that is to say, as long as I can merge an independent macro world into the black Holy Stone, I should be able to verify your hypothesis! Chen Xiaobei said.

“Then let’s try! We’ll find a Lackey of the great sun sect and use his Saint Soul world for an experiment!” Ice dome’s divine ancestor was very smart and cautious, and she had even thought of defensive measures.

Using someone else’s Saint Soul world for an experiment, even if it was dangerous, it would not affect Chen Xiaobei and her.

“Yes! We’ll do as you say!”

Chen Xiaobei immediately summoned a Lackey of the great sun sect from the beixuan sacred soul world.

This was a one star divine Emperor. The level of the sacred soul realm was very low. Even if the experiment failed, Chen Xiaobei could easily give him a whole new level of sacred soul realm.

So, without any hesitation, he released his divine soul out of his body and gave it to Chen Xiaobei for adoption.

“10000 DAOs return to one!”

Chen Xiaobei activated his ability again.

He had succeeded!

This low-level Saint Soul world had completely fused with the black Saint stone.

Crack ... Crack ... Crack ...

Then, the black Saint rock grew a little at a speed visible to the naked eye.

quickly comprehend it. What changes have there been? also, does the sacred soul world still exist? ”

The ice dome’s divine ancestor was very curious and urged Chen Xiaobei.

“Whoosh ...”

Then, Chen Xiaobei started to communicate with the black Holy stone’s spirit. He said in surprise, ” the characteristics of this Black Saint stone are very similar to the heaven Earth embryo membrane of the sky burying Yuan sacred clan!

sky burying Yuan sacred clan!?

Ice dome’s divine ancestor was very smart and immediately understood.”You mean this Black Saint stone can also breed an independent great world? It can also devour and merge with foreign great worlds?”

“That’s right! However, it’s not only that!”

it’s a magical item! Chen Xiaobei said excitedly. just like the heaven and earth membrane, this black Holy Stone is also a magical item! In addition to the function of the heaven and earth membrane, this Black Saint stone could also grow into the number one defensive puppet fighter of The Holy Road! The myriad DAOs Saint Emperor armor!”

“Myriad DAOs Saint Emperor puppet? “I’ve never heard of it ...” Ice dome’s divine ancestor was confused.

“You don’t need to hear about it, just wait and see!”

Chen Xiaobei was excited.

Since the experiment was a success, there was nothing to worry about.

Next, Chen Xiaobei summoned all his millions of lackeys and forcibly commandeered their million Saint Soul worlds.

“Ka ka ka ... Ka ka ka ...”

As the Saint Soul worlds kept merging, the black Saint rock kept expanding. It turned from a small piece to a huge mountain.

according to the level, the fused sacred soul world has already reached the level of a peak Sacred Emperor. However, this is still far from enough ...

Chen Xiaobei took a deep breath, and finally, he released his sacred soul and merged it with his own sacred soul.

After devouring and digesting Holy Emperor Mo Sha, Chen Xiaobei's divine soul and divine soul realm had both reached the level of a one-star divine ancestor.

The black Saint stone itself had reached the level of a Saint ancestor.

Therefore, the Saint Soul world with a million lackeys could only make the black Saint stone expand, but not cause a qualitative change.

"Whoosh ..."

Now that Chen Xiaobei's holy ancestor-level Holy soul world had merged with it, the black Holy Stone finally experienced a change in its nature.

With a wave of extremely terrifying spiritual fluctuations, the black Saint stone shone with a deep, heavy, dark golden Saint light, making the entire chaotic space tremble.

I can feel that the black Saint stone has reached the critical point of qualitative change. It might need all the energy to trigger the change!

Ice dome's divine ancestor immediately reminded Chen Xiaobei.

Chen Xiaobei did not need her reminder to know that the black Holy Stone was a magical item. Without energy, it could not be used.

"Old black! Come out!"

Chen Xiaobei said to the empty space beside him.

"Whoosh ..."

In the next moment, the dark heavenly Qilin revealed itself.

this ... This is!?

Ice dome's Saint ancestor was shocked.

Before this, she had not noticed that the dark heavenly Qilin was right beside her.

Thinking back, she had wanted to kill Chen Xiaobei just now.

If she really attacked, the dark sky Qilin would definitely ambush her from the dark and deal her a fatal blow first!

In other words, Chen Xiaobei had left a backup plan from the very beginning. If the ice dome's divine ancestor cooperated, they would be fine. If the ice dome's divine ancestor was not under his control, the dark sky Qilin could kill him at any time!

It was clear that Chen Xiaobei had the upper hand from the beginning to the end. The ice dome's divine ancestor had no chance of killing him.

"This is Blackie, a helper I found!"

“Before I planned to ambush the heavenly axiom, I used the communication rune to contact old hei!”
Tell it to come over and hide nearby to cooperate with me! It was Blackie who had emptied the Saint veins and distracted the heavenly Dao! Only then will I have a chance to help you escape!”

this ... Ice dome’s divine ancestor was instantly stunned. The expression on her face was fascinating.

Chapter 4456: Self-deterrence!

4456 Self-deterrence!

Ice dome’s divine ancestor was clearly a very smart woman. She rarely admired others when it came to resourcefulness.

But now, Chen Xiaobei had shown her what it meant to scheme! What was a scheme?

Not only did Chen Xiaobei fool Tiandao, but he also kept the ice dome’s divine ancestor in the dark.

The ice dome’s divine ancestor was glad that she had not killed Chen Xiaobei.

Otherwise, he would be assassinated by the dark sky Qilin the moment he used his Saint Origin Energy. He would not even know how he died.

alright, you don’t have to be so surprised. We’re allies now. As long as you don’t betray me, I won’t do anything to hurt you!

Chen Xiaobei smiled. It was his way of consoling the ice dome’s divine ancestor, so that she would not be suspicious and restless.

hmm ... It’s good to be allies ... Ice dome’s divine ancestor nodded, still in shock.

She still remembered that the ice dome’s divine ancestor had treated Chen Xiaobei as an ant.

The ice dome’s divine ancestor now had a whole new level of respect for Chen Xiaobei. She no longer dared to underestimate him.

In fact, Ice dome’s divine ancestor was even a little afraid of Chen Xiaobei.

She was afraid that Chen Xiaobei would plot against her.

It was because of this that she felt that it was good to be an ally.

If he were to become Chen Xiaobei’s enemy, he would have to sleep with one eye open.

Blackie, I need energy.

Chen Xiaobei said.

“Whoosh ...”

The dark sky Qilin didn’t say anything. It released the one-star middle-stage divine ancestor level divine Meridian that it had just emptied. It didn’t hide anything.

Firstly, the dark sky Qilin and Chen Xiaobei had a life-and-death friendship, so he would not keep it for himself.

Secondly, the dark sky Qilin didn't need to use Saint Origin Energy to increase its strength, so there was no need to hide it.

“Whoosh ...”

Under Chen Xiaobei's guidance, the vast energy began to pour into the black Holy Stone.

Finally, as the energy was completely burned, the black Saint stone welcomed its final transformation.

In an instant, it was earth-shattering!

With a loud explosion, the chaotic space trembled violently from the shock, and even the spatial walls were distorted for a time, almost shattering.

A terrifying pressure suddenly filled the entire space.

Ice Dome Saint ancestor and dark sky Qilin's expressions changed drastically. Their hearts trembled and they almost couldn't withstand it.

Chen Xiaobei's face was grim. He was not feeling well either.

“Whoosh ...”

A beam of dark golden holy light pierced through the space and condensed into a dark golden ball of light.

Originally, there was nothing in the light ball.

However, as the Holy Light gradually weakened, a set of majestic black armor appeared where the light ball was!

That's right!

This was what Chen Xiaobei had mentioned, the first defensive Battlesuit!

Ten thousand DAOs Saint Emperor armor!

At this point, this magical treasure could be considered to be completely formed!

“Whoosh ...”

Chen Xiaobei released his spirituality.

Previously, Chen Xiaobei could only communicate with the dark Holy stone's spirit. But now, Chen Xiaobei could make the Holy Emperor armor recognize him as its master!

“Shua shua shua ...”

Once the process was complete, the armor transformed into an Iron Man and flew toward Chen Xiaobei, putting itself on him.

Chen Xiaobei was already very handsome, and with the majestic battle armor on him, he looked even more handsome.

Ice dome's Saint ancestor was dumbfounded.

Chen Xiaobei was like a Supreme Battle God, exuding a terrifying pressure.

Not only was he handsome, but he was also extremely overbearing and tyrannical. Any woman who saw him would be tempted.

In comparison, the dark sky Qilin did not have any feelings for handsome men.

It could only feel that Chen Xiaobei's aura had become extremely terrifying, and it even had a submissive mentality.

In fact, if not for the dark sky Qilin's three-star divine ancestor bloodline, it would have been completely subdued by Chen Xiaobei's aura.

"This puppet fighter is too strange ..."

The dark sky Qilin sighed and said, "the pressure it carries seems to be a natural deterrent to demon beasts!" Any demonic beast with a bloodline lower than the Holy ancestor level would be intimidated in an instant and submit completely!

"No! Not only to demonic beasts!"

Ice Dome Saint ancestor's face was pale, and a thin layer of cold sweat had already appeared on her forehead. "I can also feel a sense of deterrence that seeps into my soul and marrow! War! Kill! Crushing! A ruler! If you don't submit, you can only die!"

The onlooker sees the game more clearly than the player.

Now, Chen Xiaobei was the owner of the armor and was no longer affected by the pressure of the armor.

However, the dark sky Qilin and the ice Dome Saint ancestor could feel the most direct effects.

Fortunately, one of them had a high cultivation level while the other had a strong bloodline. Otherwise, they would not even have the courage to stand and talk to Chen Xiaobei.

"Now, I should be able to fight the silver-gray Saint turtle outside! Even if we can't win, at least we won't be defeated!"

Chen Xiaobei's confidence was boosted, and he even had a bold idea. If it's really like what you said, that the ten thousand DAOs Saint Emperor armor has its own deterrence, I might even be able to subdue that big turtle!

"This ... If this really comes true! That would be great!" The ice dome's divine ancestor was dumbfounded. She was looking forward to Chen Xiaobei's idea.

"I can sense that the bloodline of that giant turtle is no weaker than mine," the dark sky Qilin added. It's an ancient Saint Beast. If we can tame it, the benefits will be unimaginable!

“Good! Then let’s give it a try!”

I’m not going to let you go! Chen Xiaobei said excitedly. but before I leave, I need to improve my cultivation a little.

There was only one portion of Nine Star divine Emperor Peak power left in the Saint-less blood space shield.

“Whoosh ...”

Chen Xiaobei released his energy and with the help of the Saint sunlight cache, he began to cultivate.

Chen Xiaobei had just broken through a major realm, so there would not be any bottlenecks in the small realms after that.

As long as he had enough energy, it was only a matter of time before he broke through.

[ding Yingying’s cultivation base is at the peak of eight star divine Emperor. Lifespan: 4.3 years of the underworld! (Zero points are ignored)

He broke through three small realms and reached the peak of eight star divine Emperor.

He had only used up a small portion of the energy, and there was still a lot left, which Chen Xiaobei stored for the time being.

However, the increase in lifespan was still very little.

After all, the lifespan increased by cultivation had to be reduced by the lifespan burned by activating the sunlight cache. Therefore, it was reasonable for it to only increase by a little.

If he wanted to increase his lifespan by a large margin, he might have to capture the heavenly Dao alive and snatch his lifespan.

Of course, Chen Xiaobei’s first priority was to subdue the silver-gray Saint turtle. As for the wielder of the will, as long as Chen Xiaobei was strong enough, he would have plenty of opportunities to deal with it in the future.

“Whoosh ...”

After that, Chen Xiaobei brought the ice dome’s divine ancestor and the dark sky Qilin back to the outside world.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4457: Number one of the Saint Dao!

4457 Number one of the Saint Dao!

At this moment, the silver Saint turtle was still floating in the air like a huge mountain.

Perhaps it was asleep, but it was floating aimlessly. More importantly, it did not seem to notice the presence of Chen Xiaobei and the others.

Young master Chen, are you sure you can defeat this Saint turtle? ”

Ice Dome Saint ancestor frowned slightly, her pretty face full of anxiety.

“I don’t think it’s possible ...”

“No matter what, the myriad DAOs Saint Emperor puppet is only at the middle stage of the one star divine ancestor realm. The Saint turtle’s cultivation base is one minor realm higher than it, and that’s not even taking into account its bloodline talent and special abilities!” The dark heavenly Kirin said.

It was obvious that the ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were both wary of the silver-gray Saint turtle.

Even if Saint Emperor Yi was one minor realm higher than the Saint turtle, he might not be able to defeat it.

Because of this, the ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were both very worried.

“Don’t worry! The first battle of The Holy Road was not a joke! Moreover, I’ve already comprehended the Dao word incantation! There shouldn’t be any problems!”

Chen Xiaobei was very confident.

Initially, Chen Xiaobei did not know what the divine path was. However, after creating the ten thousand DAOs Holy Emperor armor, Chen Xiaobei understood the true meaning of the Holy path.

The meaning of The Holy Road was very special.

It could refer to a certain Dao heart, but it could also refer to a certain ability to carry out from beginning to end.

To put it simply, it was to reach the absolute pinnacle of a certain aspect and turn it into one’s own Dao!

For example, the broken Sky divine ancestor had become a demon from a sacred wood, and he had practiced the wood Dao all his life. When the wood Dao reached its extreme, it had sublimated into the wood divine Dao.

The ice Dome divine ancestor was the same. She had carried out the ice Dao to the extreme and finally sublimated it to the ice divine Dao.

And the divine path was a necessary condition to become a divine ancestor!

Once a person reached the peak of Saint Emperor, both the Qilin corpse and the Saint Emperor Mystic resin could no longer ignore the bottleneck and directly break through.

Only by sublimating one’s own Dao into the divine Dao could one break through the realm and step into the divine ancestor realm.

In other words, the divine path was the symbol of the divine ancestor.

Of course, the ‘powerful’ here referred to the quality, not the level.

Just like a bloodline, the myriad DAOs Sacred Emperor armor’s quality had reached the level of a peak sacred ancestor. Its level was directly proportional to the sacred soul world it had fused with.

This meant that as Chen Xiaobei's Holy soul world continued to level up, the ten thousand DAOs Holy Emperor armor would also continue to level up until it reached the peak or even the Supreme level of the Holy ancestor.

That was why Chen Xiaobei was so confident.

If the silver gray Saint turtle reached the two-star divine ancestor realm, it would be difficult to defeat it.

However, the myriad DAOs Saint Emperor armor could directly suppress one-star divine ancestors in quality.

Or perhaps, it could also be seen as a different kind of bloodline suppression.

"I'm going! You guys stay here and don't participate in the battle to avoid being affected!"

let's go! Chen Xiaobei said. Then, he flew up and charged at the silver-gray Saint turtle.

The ice Dome divine ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were stunned. They wanted to persuade Chen Xiaobei not to act rashly but it was too late.

"Clang"

Ice dome's divine ancestor took out her white sword and held it in her hand. She was ready to protect Chen Xiaobei at this critical moment.

After all, she still needed to rely on Chen Xiaobei to keep her alive. She did not want Chen Xiaobei to die just like that.

"Whoosh ..."

At the same time, the dark heavenly Qilin also concealed its form.

Its bloodline ability was at the three-star divine ancestor level, and the silver Saint turtle couldn't sense its existence at all.

If Chen Xiaobei was in any danger, the dark sky Qilin would be the first to come to his rescue and ensure that Chen Xiaobei could escape safely.

"BOOM!"

In the sky, the silver Saint turtle was indeed sleeping. As Chen Xiaobei approached, it was suddenly jolted awake, and its body instinctively exploded with a tsunami-like amount of Saint Qi.

In an instant, the entire space was enveloped in a silver-gray holy light.

The terrifying pressure and fluctuations crushed the entire space.

The earth cracked and the sky twisted as if the world mode had descended.

"It's too scary ..."

The dark sky Qilin gasped. Although it was unwilling, it still hid behind the ice Dome Saint ancestor.

"Whoosh ..."

Ice dome's divine ancestor hurriedly circulated her Saint origin power to protect herself, barely resisting the terrifying energy fluctuations around her.

Fortunately, Chen Xiaobei's liquid elixir had helped the ice dome's divine ancestor to suppress the red Sky breaker's ability. Otherwise, the silver-gray Saint turtle's Saint vitality alone would have been enough to severely injure the ice dome's divine ancestor and completely crush the dark sky Kirin!

This was the power of the Holy ancestor that possessed a high-quality bloodline!

Just the instinctive reaction of being awakened could erupt with a vast power that could destroy the world!

It even made people feel that a sneeze from the divine ancestor could directly destroy a part of the heavens!

It was terrifying!

"Whoosh ..."

On the other hand, Chen Xiaobei was already close to the silver-gray Saint turtle, and his entire body was shrouded in the terrifying Saint Qi.

Chen Xiaobei's physical strength had reached the level of a one-star divine ancestor.

However, without the protection of the ten thousand DAOs Saint Emperor armor, this burst of silver-gray Saint Origin Energy would have been enough to cripple or kill Chen Xiaobei.

It was really too terrifying!

But now that Chen Xiaobei was wearing the ten thousand DAOs Holy Emperor armor, it was a different story.

"Whoosh ..."

Chen Xiaobei hovered in the air, his posture calm and unruffled.

He even felt that the Saint Origin Energy that had shattered space was like a breeze that brushed against his face, not causing any negative effects at all.

More importantly, Chen Xiaobei did not have the energy to activate the ten thousand DAOs Holy Emperor armor. At the same time, Chen Xiaobei's own Saint Origin Energy was not enough to activate it.

In other words, the Holy Emperor armor of ten thousand DAOs's natural defense was able to nullify all the Saint Origin Energy that was charging at Chen Xiaobei.

"This ... This works? Am I hallucinating!"

The dark heavenly Qilin let out a cry of surprise. It could not believe its eyes. It can resist the terrifying Saint Qi without using the spiritual treasure. This puppet fighter is too powerful!

"He's really too strong ..."

“Childe Chen is in the center of the Saint Origin Energy. If I were there, I would be seriously injured even if I tried my best to resist it ...” Ice dome’s Saint ancestor sighed.

It was obvious that the ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin had a whole new level of respect for Saint Emperor myriad DAOs after seeing this.

Shocking! Horror! He was full of anticipation!

Just a moment ago, they did not think that Chen Xiaobei had any chance of winning. But now, their thoughts had changed.

They were looking forward to Chen Xiaobei’s performance to win this match. It would be best if he could tame the Saint turtle as planned. That would be great!

Chapter 4458: Dual swords in unison!

4458 Dual swords in unison!

Who are you?!

Seeing that its pressure could not hurt Chen Xiaobei, the silver-gray Saint turtle was not in a hurry to attack.

It turned its silver-gray eyes, which were as big as stars, and looked at Chen Xiaobei carefully, up and down, as if it could see through Chen Xiaobei.

“I’m a passerby.”

Chen Xiaobei was not in a hurry to attack. He said calmly, “I want to obtain the opportunities in this independent space, so I asked you first.”

“You’re very confident!”

The silver-gray Saint turtle might have been born with a slow temper, so he spoke in a calm and steady manner without any impatience. you didn’t attack me when I was asleep, but woke me up on purpose. Do you think you have the ability to fight me? ”

It was obvious that the silver Saint turtle had seen through many things.

First of all, Chen Xiaobei’s cultivation was only at the pinnacle of an eight star divine Emperor, and his physique was only at the early stage of a one star divine ancestor. To the silver-gray Saint turtle, he was as weak as an ant.

Secondly, Chen Xiaobei’s armor was an intermediate one star divine Emperor, which was one level lower than the silver Saint turtle’s cultivation.

However, the silver grey Saint turtle felt an unprecedented terrifying power from the puppet fighter.

This intimidating force had even shaken its calm state of mind.

This was very terrifying!

That was why the silver Saint turtle didn't rush to attack. It wasn't because it was slow, but because it was afraid of the unknown dark armor.

The silver-gray Saint turtle was talking to Chen Xiaobei to buy time and observe his strength.

It could be seen that the silver-gray Saint turtle was like an experienced Hunter. Once it attacked, it would completely end its prey and would not allow any variables to happen.

"Whether I have the ability to fight with you or not, won't you know if you come over and try?"

Chen Xiaobei was still very confident.

He felt like he was invincible when he was wearing the armor.

I'm invincible, you can do whatever you want.

fine, my mission is to guard this level. If you insist on going to the next level, you must pass me!

Therefore, it could only bite the bullet and stick to its mission.

Since Chen Xiaobei wanted to fight, it could only play along.

"Boom boom boom ..."

As soon as the silver Saint turtle finished speaking, terrifying Saint origin power started to surge from its body.

At this moment, the Saint Origin Energy no longer exploded and crushed the entire space like it had before. Instead, it was completely gathered around its body.

Its own tortoiseshell already had an unimaginably strong defense.

At this moment, his Saint Origin Energy had formed the second layer of the turtle shell, and its defensive power had increased by several times.

The main point was that it had not activated its bloodline talent or ability.

"Come on!"

The silver Saint turtle was very calm. It did not move an inch and decided to use its current defensive stance to fight Chen Xiaobei.

He was really as steady as an old dog.

"Dao nullifies all things!"

Chen Xiaobei did not hesitate and activated the 'Dao' incantation.

In an instant, the nine-colored radiance exploded and formed nine pillars of light that reached the sky.

From these light pillars, the sun, moon, stars, mountains, rivers, lakes, seas, plants, birds, beasts, and thousands of nomological laws were derived. Finally, they converged to form an illusory world.

"Whoosh ..."

Then, in this illusory world, Chen Xiaobei's own Dharma power was born. It was the Dharma power of the venerable one in this illusory world!

"Whoosh ..."

Finally, behind the head of the Dharma form of the venerable of the world, Nine Heavens of great might emerged!

Holy light filled the sky, auspicious signs filled the sky, and billions of golden rainbows connected from the front and back, causing the color of the world to change!

"What powerful strength!"

The silver-gray Saint turtle's eyes focused and said in surprise, " with this power, he's invincible below the divine ancestor realm!

Of course, the silver Saint turtle thought that it had seen through Chen Xiaobei's power, so it did not have to worry about him.

He sighed,"it's a pity that my cultivation has already reached the divine ancestor level, which is an entire realm higher than your strength!" You can't hurt me at all!"

"Is that so?"

However, Chen Xiaobei was still smiling confidently and his tone was calm as if everything was under his control.

If it was just a special ability, Chen Xiaobei's Dao of all creation would not be able to hurt the silver-gray Saint turtle.

However, the effect was completely different when it was combined with over ten thousand Saint Emperor armors.

One had to know that the original Saint stone form of the ten thousand DAOs Saint Emperor armor was activated by the Dao word incantation.

In other words, the ten thousand DAOs Saint Emperor armor and the one word Saint execution curse were connected from the same source. They even existed for each other.

Simply put, the ten thousand DAOs Saint Emperor armor and the one word Saint execution curse were like a special combination of two swords.

The effect would be greatly reduced if only one of them was used.

However, if he could combine the two swords, the power would increase exponentially.

Back then, Lord Ling Kong might have obtained the one word Saint destroyer curse and the dark Saint stone at the same time.

Unfortunately, due to various reasons, Supreme Ling Kong had not been able to comprehend the final mystery of the dark Saint stone. Or perhaps he had already comprehended it but had not had the time to put it into practice.

No matter what, Supreme Ling Kong had left behind a huge regret.

Chen Xiaobei would be the one to make up for supremacy Ling Kong's regrets.

"Whoosh ..."

In an instant, the myriad DAOs divine Emperor banner and the Dao of all things resonated with each other.

Then, mysterious symbols started to appear on the pitch-black armor.

These runes were dark gold in color and were distributed on the puppet fighter in an orderly manner.

Each symbol contained the power of the source of the corresponding object, reflecting a deep and heavy terrifying pressure.

The symbols of the sun and moon hid the source of the sun and moon. The symbols of the laws, the origin of the hidden laws ...

And so on. The symbols of all things hid the origin power of all things, and further, they derived the mysteries of all kinds of saintly ways.

The Holy Road was the extreme of all things.

When all the saintly ways reached the extreme, it was the most invulnerable power in the world.

"Boom boom boom ..."

As the Dharma form of the Lord of the World illuminated the heavens, the dark golden runes of the ten thousand DAOs Saint Emperor Armor All shone with a holy light that was even more dazzling than the sun.

At this moment, with the help of the myriad DAOs Saint Emperor armor, he had broken through to the one star divine ancestor realm.

Under the same level, he was invulnerable and absolutely invincible.

how ... How is this possible?!

At the same time, the silver Saint turtle was dumbfounded. It couldn't believe its eyes.

It had thought that all it had to do was defend and it would be able to wear Chen Xiaobei out.

However, at this moment, it realized that things were not that simple.

"BOOM!"

Chen Xiaobei, who was wearing a black armor with golden patterns, looked like a god of War. With just one punch, he had pierced through the silver-gray Saint turtle's protective layer of divine origin Energy.

A punch that shocked the heavens!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4459: The battle for the Trump cards!

4459 The battle for the Trump cards!

“BOOM!”

Chen Xiaobei threw a punch at the silver-gray Saint turtle. In front of the turtle, Chen Xiaobei was like an ant.

From the ice Dome Saint ancestor’s and the dark sky Qilin’s point of view, it looked like a speck of dust that had crashed into a vast mountain.

However, to everyone’s surprise ...

It was as if Chen Xiaobei had defeated the real world. His punch had pierced through thousands of soldiers and shattered the silver Saint turtle’s protective layer of Saint Origin Energy.

this ... This is too terrifying ... If I were to face this punch, I would probably die immediately!

Ice dome’s Saint ancestor gasped.

Her pretty face was pale, and her pupils were constricted. She looked at Chen Xiaobei as if she had seen a ghost.

His three views were instantly blown up, and he even began to doubt his life.

this kind of power is simply inconceivable. It can’t even be measured with common sense!

The dark heavenly Qilin’s voice was trembling.

Although it was hidden, one could imagine that it was trembling and breaking out in cold sweat.

If it hadn’t been hiding behind Ice dome’s Saint ancestor, it might not have been able to hold on.

This was extremely terrifying!

One had to know that the ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were far away from the battlefield, so the shock they felt had already overturned their world views and made them uneasy.

One could only imagine how terrifying it would be if it was on the battlefield!

“Boom boom boom ...”

At the same time, Chen Xiaobei’s fist had already landed on the mountain-like tortoiseshell.

The shocking power forced the silver-gray Saint turtle to fall and crash to the ground.

For a moment, the entire space was shaking.

The ground was shattered, and a giant hole as deep as the ocean appeared under the silver gray Saint turtle.

At the same time, the ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were both shaken and staggered back.

“Whoosh ...”

The core of the Saint Meridian shattered, and a huge amount of Saint origin power gushed out, filling the pit on the ground like a vast ocean made of Saint origin power.

That kind of shock simply could not be described with words.

“Ka ... Ka ka ka ...”

What was even more terrifying was that the silver Saint turtle’s shell was covered in cracks, with Chen Xiaobei’s fist as the center.

This was the most shocking and terrifying part!

One had to know that the hardness of this tortoiseshell had already reached the late-stage of a one-star divine ancestor. With the support of his gifted bloodline, his true defensive power might have reached the peak of a one-star divine ancestor!

In other words, Chen Xiaobei’s simple punch had destroyed a one star divine ancestor Pinnacle Armor!

If it was not for the Holy turtle bloodline, a normal one-star divine ancestral device would have been crushed by Chen Xiaobei’s punch!

terrifying ... Terrifying ...

The ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were completely dumbfounded.

Chen Xiaobei did not let them down.

Chen Xiaobei’s performance was enough to shock the world!

But!

The silver-gray Saint turtle was not defeated!

Instead, he roared domineeringly, “brat! If this is your strongest combat power, then you can die now!”

As it roared, a large amount of boiling, mercury-like silver-gray blood spurted out of its mouth. It had clearly been seriously injured.

However, the blood contained its unique, high-level bloodline ability.

“Swish!”

First, a ball of silver-gray blood flew toward Chen Xiaobei like a meteor.

Although Chen Xiaobei was able to burst out with unassailable power, his killing power was definitely superior to the silver-gray Saint turtle.

However, in terms of speed, Chen Xiaobei was at a huge disadvantage.

The silver-gray blood had the speed of a peak one-star divine ancestor, and it hit Chen Xiaobei.

“Swish!”

The tremendous force sent Chen Xiaobei flying.

“Ka ... Ka ka ka ...”

At the same time, the silver-gray blood on Chen Xiaobei’s body began to spread all over his body and quickly solidified.

It was like a layer of metal seal, imprisoning Chen Xiaobei’s body.

In the blink of an eye, Chen Xiaobei’s entire body had turned into a Mercury Statue, completely sealed and immobilized.

“Shit!”

The ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin let out a desperate scream at the same time.

Just a second ago, they were still in awe of Chen Xiaobei’s performance.

At this second, they never dreamed that the silver Saint turtle, who was originally at a disadvantage, could actually counterattack and turn the situation around!

This result was definitely out of their expectations, but it was completely within reason.

After all, they already knew that the silver Saint turtle’s bloodline was of a very high level. It must have a heaven-defying bloodline talent and special ability.

The truth was that both Chen Xiaobei and the silver-gray Saint turtle had their trump cards.

It all depended on whose trump card was stronger.

The result now seemed to be that the silver gray Saint turtle’s trump card was stronger. The key was that the silver gray Saint turtle’s ability to grasp the timing was also super strong.

Just when everyone thought that the silver Saint turtle was being suppressed, it suddenly used its trump card and sealed Chen Xiaobei. The outcome of the battle was decided immediately, and the battle came to an end.

At the level of the divine ancestor realm, no enemy could be underestimated.

A little carelessness would lead to eternal damnation!

However, what happened next was even more shocking.

“Whoosh ...”

The silver Saint turtle used its Saint energy to send a drop of blood to Chen Xiaobei’s shattered armor.

In an instant, the silver-gray blood spread rapidly along the cracks in the tortoiseshell and solidified rapidly. It actually repaired all the cracks perfectly, which was equivalent to repairing the entire tortoiseshell!

“This ...”

The ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were dumbfounded.

Chen Xiaobei was sealed, but the enemy had recovered from his injuries. This was a dead end.

The ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin did not even have the chance to save Chen Xiaobei. Most importantly, it was useless to save him.

There was still no solution to this dead end!

“Boy, it’s a pity that you know nothing about my ability. Otherwise, you might have a chance to live!”

The silver-gray Saint turtle looked down at Chen Xiaobei, but it did not have any intention to kill him. “I can see that you used the one word Saint-killer curse! If you’re willing to teach me this cultivation technique, I can spare your life!”

Chen Xiaobei’s body was sealed, but he was still conscious and could even speak.

“You’re right, I don’t understand your ability, but ...”

Chen Xiaobei’s tone was calm and confident, ” “You also know nothing about my ability!”

“Ten thousand! Dao! Return! One!”

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 4460: Profound Sage ruins!

4460 Profound Sage ruins!

The Dao word incantation coexisted with two special abilities. The Dao derivation was an all-round power, while the 10000 DAOs return to one was the gathering of power.

activate! Chen Xiaobei shouted, activating his special ability.

The dark golden runes on the ten thousand DAOs Saint Emperor armor started to gather towards his heart.

The 10,000 symbols combined into one unique symbol.

Everything in the world had a counter to each other!

The symbol that was formed from 10000 DAOs represented a specific attribute of the saintly way that could restrain the enemy.

This did not require Chen Xiaobei to judge or control it. The armor itself could determine the enemy’s saintly attribute and combine it with the 10000 return to one to gather all the power into a symbol that could suppress the enemy.

The power that could be produced would be able to restrain the enemy with specific attributes.

For example, the silver Saint turtle’s Saint path was gold.

The symbol where the power of the 10000 DAOs return to one gathered represented the fire sacred Dao, which perfectly countered the metal attribute above the five elements.

In other words, when Chen Xiaobei’s strength was about the same as the enemy’s, or when he was at a slight disadvantage, the power derived from the 10000 DAOs return to one could not only gather the power of 10000 DAOs, but also had an attribute-suppressing effect, which was enough to counter the enemy.

“Break!”

With Chen Xiaobei’s roar, the mercury-like metal shell that sealed his body broke apart.

Dark golden flames burst out from the cracks.

“Whoosh ...”

The next moment, Chen Xiaobei raised both his hands and burst the seal.

Under the cover of the dark golden Holy Fire, Chen Xiaobei was like a Supreme God of War. His entire being exuded a terrifyingly overbearing pressure and a Supreme battle will that could burn the universe!

how ... How is this possible?!

Seeing this, not only the ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Kylin, but even the silver gray Saint turtle was so shocked that it almost collapsed.

Just a moment ago, the ice dome’s divine ancestor and the dark sky Qilin thought that Chen Xiaobei would lose.

Just a moment ago, the silver Saint turtle was still showing off its special ability, thinking that it had Chen Xiaobei in its grasp and could threaten him to hand over the one-word Saint destroyer incantation.

At that moment, the ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were so shocked that their scalps went numb and they couldn’t even speak.

The silver Saint turtle was even more shocked. It did not expect that the special ability it was so proud of would not be able to trap Chen Xiaobei!

The silver-gray Saint turtle felt as if it had been slapped in the face when it thought about how it had threatened Chen Xiaobei. It was embarrassing!

“I can give you a chance!”

Chen Xiaobei looked down from the sky and said, “You can either submit to me! Or I’ll kill you with my next move!”

“This ...”

The silver Saint turtle was stunned.

Saint Emperor armor of ten thousand DAOs was already a strong deterrent to the silver grey Saint turtle.

Coupled with the fact that his special ability had been broken, it was a huge shock to the silver gray Saint turtle’s heart.

At this point, the silver Saint turtle’s mental defense was on the verge of collapse.

The silver-gray Saint turtle looked at Chen Xiaobei again. The dark golden flame was burning with the purest fire Saint path aura.

The silver Saint turtle instinctively felt fear because of its attribute restraint.

Moreover, the silver Saint turtle had already felt Chen Xiaobei's power. It knew that Chen Xiaobei was not exaggerating when he said that he would kill it with one move. He was a man of his word!

It was afraid!

It was a fear that came from the deepest part of his heart!

Even Chen Xiaobei's image had formed a huge shadow in its heart!

"I ... I'm willing to submit ..."

The silver Saint turtle lay on the ground, its huge head lowered, and its aura was humble and calm.

"Lotus!"

Obviously, Chen Xiaobei would not trust the silver-gray Saint turtle so easily.

With a thought, a sacred lotus of heavenly path was formed.

Now that Chen Xiaobei's divine soul had reached the level of a one-star divine ancestor, and with the help of the 'Dao' character incantation, the heavenly Dao Divine Lotus seal that was created could control all divine souls below the level of a two-star divine ancestor.

"Whoosh ..."

With a thought, Chen Xiaobei imprinted the heavenly Divine Lotus onto the silver Saint turtle's Saint Soul.

This super loyal dog was officially under Chen Xiaobei's command.

The ice Dome Saint ancestor and the dark sky Qilin were even more shocked. Chen Xiaobei's image in their hearts had risen by several levels.

Even the proud Ice dome's divine ancestor could not help but admire Chen Xiaobei from the bottom of her heart.

"Whoosh ..."

After that, Chen Xiaobei absorbed all the Saint Qi in the space.

The total amount was equivalent to a late-stage one-star divine ancestor's energy. To Chen Xiaobei, this was a huge gain.

"Swish!"

Immediately after, another space gate opened at the other end of this space.

This meant that there was a fourth independent space after this one.

"Old grey, what's going on with this space?"

Chen Xiaobei looked at the silver-gray Saint turtle.

“This is the ruins of the profound Sage Supreme divine ancestor, and there are a total of seven layers of space!”

there’s a Hong Meng sacred beast guarding each layer, ” the silver-gray Saint turtle slowly explained. those who reach the seventh layer will be considered to have passed the test and will obtain the great opportunity left behind by the profound Sage Supreme divine ancestor!

a profound Sage Supreme divine ancestor!? Chen Xiaobei was taken aback.

Through the ” Xuan ” spell, Chen Xiaobei knew that the innate ability of the profound Sage Tribe was their understanding of good fortune.

By consuming a certain amount of mental energy, he could explore everything around him.

As long as there was an opportunity that could help him, it could be discovered by the profound Sage Tribe.

“Is the profound Sage Supreme divine ancestor dead? Why would they leave behind this ruin?” Chen Xiaobei was very confused.

The profound Sage Tribe was extremely powerful. In terms of overall strength, they were even comparable to the yuan Sage Tribe and were ranked first among the nine Supreme sacred ancestor tribes.

If the profound Sage paramount divine ancestor died, then the profound Sage clan would definitely not be able to be ranked at the top, and they might even be in danger of being exterminated.

However, if the profound Sage Supreme divine ancestor wasn’t dead, why did he set up the ruins?

“No, the profound Sage Supreme divine ancestor isn’t dead!”

this ruin was set up when he was young, ” the silver-gray Saint turtle said. he wasn’t the Supreme Saint ancestor at the time. Before a life-and-death battle, he decided to leave something for the fated people in the future, so he set up this ruin!

after the battle, he survived, but he did not remove the ruins. Therefore, this place has been preserved, and the existence of the seven great Sacred Beasts is to wait for the fated person of the profound Sage Supreme divine ancestor.

Chen Xiaobei asked, ” “I’m very curious. What did the profound Sage Supreme divine ancestor leave behind?”
