Chapter 1061: Presumably, this person is still in Black Moon City; I would like to meet this friend.

Yun Xianxian glared at Lu Chen, who was fiercely gripping her jade legs. This man really was just as she had suspected, always with that one thing on his mind.

But then again, all Lu Chen had done just now was to speak a few words to her master through her body, and he had never seen what her master looked like. So how could he possibly harbor any designs on her master?

This man's harem was filled with stunning beauties, and his primary criterion for selection must be looks, as it had always been when he took consorts. Moreover, his harem was composed almost entirely of women he had handpicked himself, which proved how much he valued the appearance of his consorts.

If this unworthy disciple hadn't yet seen her master, he shouldn't be considering such things about her just yet, although her master was indeed as beautiful as a heavenly fairy, ethereal and aloof.

Yun Xianxian then asked, "You... huh... you haven't even seen... my master... why do you seem... like you want to... with her..."

Lu Chen said with a smile, "You're overthinking it, I was just using that method to drive her divine sense out of your body, that's all."

Yun Xianxian looked at Lu Chen solemnly, clearly not believing his words. She hadn't even finished speaking, and he was already answering her, clearly out of guilt.

Moreover, even if this man truly had no designs on her master at present, once her master arrived in the Tianchen World, the moment this unworthy disciple laid eyes on her, he would surely plot to include her master in his harem.

She couldn't be bothered with these things anymore, letting them unfold as they would. She just hoped this unworthy disciple wouldn't get hurt later, and that her master would be safe.

Although she still held some bitterness in her heart about her master locking her away, after hearing Lu Chen's past analysis of the reasons, she felt that her master might have done it for her own good.

However, she could only know what her master was really thinking when she faced her in the Tianchen World.

Thinking of this, Yun Xianxian watched helplessly as this unworthy disciple held onto her legs, knowing that once her master arrived in the Tianchen World, he would probably be busy for a while.

As Yun Qingshu kept drawing closer to the Tianchen World, the strange sensation in her grew increasingly intense, to the point where she thought of severing karma, but she didn't have the power to do so yet.

And Yun Xianxian was somewhat special to her. Even though Yun Xianxian had already been defiled by that man, she would not sever their karma so easily.

Ziyang World.

Black Moon City.

A woman clad in a Phoenix Robe appeared above Black Moon City, quickly locating Ji Qiuyu. Although she didn't know Lu Chen, Ji Qiuyu was the Lord of Black Moon City.

Finding Ji Qiuyu was tantamount to finding Lu Chen.

At that moment, Ji Qiuyu was exchanging cultivation insights with a Lu Chen puppet in a room, when suddenly, she felt a sense of unease, as if some calamity was about to happen.

Ji Qiuyu glanced at the Lu Chen on the bed and then said, "Lu Chen, I sense another strong presence has come to Black Moon City."

Upon hearing Ji Qiuyu's warning, the real Lu Chen slowed down his movements, shifting his attention to the puppet.

Just then, a woman's voice arrived, saying, "Lord Ji indeed hails from the Ji Family; with a cultivation state of merely Genesis Realm, yet able to sense my presence."

Hearing this voice, Ji Qiuyu was taken aback for a moment, and the next instant, a woman dressed in a Phoenix Robe, wearing a Phoenix Crown, appeared in the room.

Upon seeing the woman before her, Ji Qiuyu hesitated for a moment. Ever since she arrived at Black Moon City and became its City Lord, she had hardly returned to the Zixiao Dynasty. However, she still had some understanding of the current state of affairs in the Zixiao Dynasty.

She knew that Princess Nangong Yuehua was competing with other princes for the imperial throne, but she was unaware that Nangong Yuehua had already triumphed and was now the Empress of the Zixiao Dynasty.

When Nangong Yuehua appeared in the room and referred to herself as "We," Ji Qiuyu realized that the struggle within the Zixiao Dynasty must be nearing its end, and it was this woman who had emerged victorious.

Seeing Ji Qiuyu staring at her in a daze, Nangong Yuehua spoke indifferently, "What is it, does Lord Ji no longer recognize Us?"

"We recall that you had met Us more than once back in the Zixiao Dynasty."

Having come to her senses, Ji Qiuyu quickly performed a courtesy and said, "Greetings, Your Majesty!"

Although she was now affiliated with the Great Chu Dynasty, she ultimately belonged to the Zixiao Dynasty. She followed the commands of the Zixiao Dynasty, and with the Emperor of the Zixiao Dynasty descending upon Black Moon City, it was only natural for her to pay her respects.

Nangong Yuehua spoke again, with subdued emotion, "Lord Ji, there's no need for formalities. All these years, you have guarded Black Moon City alone, bearing burdens without complaint. Even though you have lost contact with the Zixiao Dynasty, you have never left Black Moon City and have always remembered your mission. You have worked hard, Lord Ji."

Ji Qiuyu responded, "It is this subject's duty."

At that, Ji Qiuyu asked, "May I know why Your Majesty has graced Black Moon City with your presence?"

Ji Qiuyu guessed the reason for Nangong Yuehua's visit—only something to do with the man lying on the bed, Lu Chen, could have prompted the Empress of the Zixiao Dynasty to make the trip personally.

Nangong Yuehua glanced at Lu Chen lying on the bed, not displeased by his failure to rise and pay his respects. She was merely curious why a cultivator of the Genesis Realm did not seem at all nervous upon encountering her, the Empress of the Zixiao Dynasty; he did not get up and instead remained lying on the bed.

After her glance at Lu Chen, Nangong Yuehua's gaze returned to Ji Qiuyu. "We have heard that a large-scale Demonic Tide erupted outside Black Moon City not long ago. At first, Black Moon City was nearly indefensible, but then a Loose Cultivator appeared, who, relying on a so-called Demon-Exorcising Sword Technique, alone withstood the Demonic Tide and even deterred the demons of the Sealing Grounds from leaving their domain."

"We presume this individual is still within Black Moon City. We would like to meet this friend."

Hearing Nangong Yuehua's words, Ji Qiuyu thought to herself, as expected...

At this moment, Lu Chen's gaze swept over Nangong Yuehua, and for some reason, he felt that this woman bore a striking resemblance to Pavilion Master Nangong Qingya of the Blood Rainbow Pavilion.

He then used the system to identify her.

[Name: Nangong Yuehua]

[Identity: Empress of the Zixiao Dynasty, sister of Nangong Qingya, Eightfold Realm of Ten Thousand Laws, promptly made a personal visit to Black Moon City upon learning of a Loose Cultivator capable of suppressing Demonic Qi, intending to bring back that Cultivator to the Zixiao Dynasty to face the Heavenly Demon that may break the seal in the future.]

[Favorability: 10]

After seeing the information about Nangong Yuehua, Lu Chen smiled faintly. No wonder he found Nangong Yuehua to resemble Nangong Qingya so closely—they were sisters.

The sisters indeed had a tacit understanding; shortly after the younger sister left, the older sister made her appearance.

At that time, Nangong Yuehua also noticed Lu Chen's gaze. Seeing that the man boldly assessed her without restraint, Nangong Yuehua's brows furrowed slightly.

Since her declaration as Empress, this was the first time she had encountered a man who dared to scrutinize her so brazenly.

Chapter 1062: I Give You Two Choices

Ji Qiuyu also sensed that something was off with Nangong Yuehua's emotions. Seeing a faint aura of authority emanating from Nangong Yuehua, Ji Qiuyu was about to say something, but Lu Chen interrupted her.

"Your Majesty, I am the Loose Cultivator who helped Black Moon City withstand the Demonic Tide."

As Lu Chen finished speaking, Ji Qiuyu quickly added, "Your Majesty, since Lu Chen helped Black Moon City resist the Demonic Tide, the Great Chu Dynasty has appointed him as the Deputy City Lord of Black Moon City."

Hearing this, Nangong Yuehua was unimpressed. She clearly understood what Ji Qiuyu meant; Ji Qiuyu was implying that Lu Chen was now a man of the Great Chu Dynasty and couldn't just be taken away.

But for her, if Lu Chen truly possessed the capability to suppress Demonic Qi, it didn't matter whether he belonged to the Great Chu Dynasty or Tianji Pavilion, she would make a move to snatch him.

At that moment, Nangong Yuehua glanced at Lu Chen, who was lying on the bed, and then asked, "I am curious, where did your so-called Demon-Exorcising Sword Technique come from?"

Lu Chen replied, "Your Majesty, there is no such thing as a Demon-Exorcising Sword Technique."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's answer, Nangong Yuehua's red pupils seemed to become even more blood-red, and a murderous intent radiated from her.

An invisible pressure emanated from Nangong Yuehua's body, making the entire room oppressively heavy, to the point where Ji Qiuyu found it difficult to breathe.

However, Lu Chen seemed unaffected; he continued with a calm expression, "I can suppress Demonic Qi simply because my physical constitution is special."

After Lu Chen's words, a burst of Spiritual Power lifted him from the bed, and then a stream of Spiritual Power entered his body, checking his condition.

This examination caused Nangong Yuehua's expression to turn even colder. This man seemed like an inanimate object, devoid of any signs of life, his heart not even beating, yet the Spiritual Power within him was incredibly abundant. Moreover, there was no trace of Demonic Qi in him, nor was he a Demon Cultivator.

Lu Chen's technique was Saint-level Puppetry, not easily seen through. Without special means, at least someone at the Divinity Transformation Realm would be required to realize that his body was a puppet.

After examining Lu Chen's body, Nangong Yuehua was sure that this man's constitution was indeed special, but she was uncertain whether his ability to suppress Demonic Qi was due to his constitution or if he had practiced a Demon-Exorcising Sword Technique.

But that didn't really matter.

As long as it was confirmed that this man could suppress Demonic Qi.

Nangong Yuehua then said, "Come with me to the Zixiao Dynasty, I can ensure you live the rest of your life in glory and riches, and the Zixiao Dynasty can provide you with endless resources for cultivation to become stronger."

Lu Chen smiled and said, "Previously, Your Majesty's sister from the same mother also wanted to take me away, but considering my important role in Black Moon City, she ultimately chose to leave."

"Even Your Majesty's sister knows to consider the bigger picture. I believe Your Majesty, as the Emperor of the Zixiao Dynasty, would know the right course of action."

Sister?

Very few people were aware that she had a sister. Although she was Princess Junwan, she had many sisters, but only one was from the same mother.

That was Nangong Qingya.

Nangong Qingya was naturally bloodthirsty. To conceal her existence, the Emperor had sent her away from the Imperial Palace early on. Over time, she became a Demonic Cultivator and even the Sect Master of Blood Rainbow Pavilion, the leading Cult of the Demonic Qi-infested Ziyang World, but almost no one knew she was a princess of the Zixiao Dynasty.

Those who had known about this were mostly eliminated by Nangong Yuehua's father.

This man actually knew!

Nangong Yuehua promptly raised her hand, and a force directly pulled Lu Chen's body to her, gripping his neck tightly.

Unfortunately, Lu Chen had a puppet body, so no matter how hard she squeezed, he was unharmed.

"Who are you!"

Nangong Yuehua's tone was extremely cold, as if issuing a command, unmistakable.

Lu Chen calmly said, "Your Majesty, why are you and your sister alike, so violent, always resorting to physical actions? If you accidentally killed me, with no one to restrain the Heavenly Demon Power, once the Heavenly Demon breaks its seal, the cultivators in this world will likely soon be devoured."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's words, Nangong Yuehua quickly stabilized her emotions.

She continued to ask, "Since you know she is my sister, then you should be very clear, there is only one outcome for those who know."

The Blood Rainbow Pavilion was the largest Demonic Cultivator force in the Ziyang World, and if people knew that the owner of the Blood Rainbow Pavilion was the sister of the Empress of the Zixiao Dynasty, wouldn't that make people think that the Zixiao Dynasty and the Blood Rainbow Pavilion were colluding as evil forces?

Moreover, she had just ascended the throne not long ago, and if the old officials of the Zixiao Dynasty knew about this, they would certainly use this as an excuse to propose deposing her.

Nangong Yuehua continued, "I give you two choices, either come back to the Zixiao Dynasty with me or die!"

Since this man knew she had a sister, he could not be allowed to remain in Black Moon City any longer; if the news got out, it would bring her great trouble.

At that moment, Lu Chen pulled out an identity token given to him by Nangong Qingya and immediately said, "The Nangong Sect Master instructed me to guard Black Moon City here, preventing the spread of the Demonic Tide. She told me that if someone wanted to take me away, to immediately activate the token, and she would soon appear before me."

"If Your Majesty insists on taking me away, then I have no choice but to activate this token. It has probably been many years since Your Majesty has seen your sister, hasn't it?"

Seeing the token in Lu Chen's hand, Nangong Yuehua frowned, for it was indeed the Pavilion Master's Token of the Blood Rainbow Pavilion, which Lu Chen could activate by channeling a bit of Spiritual Energy.

Concerning her sister, Nangong Yuehua had no desire to see her, for after all, she was a Demonic Cultivator, while she was the Empress of the Zixiao Dynasty.

One righteous, one villainous, the two sisters were destined to be enemies in this life.

After thinking for a moment, Nangong Yuehua knew that even Nangong Qingya had not taken Lu Chen away. If she took Lu Chen away now, the Blood Rainbow Pavilion would surely come knocking.

Moreover, other forces were also eyeing Lu Chen, and in the future, more and more forces would contend for him. Given that, she might as well leave Lu Chen in Black Moon City to guard it, preventing the spread of the Demonic Tide and thus slowing down the Heavenly Demon's breaking of the seal.

As long as the Zixiao Dynasty and the Blood Rainbow Pavilion both declared for Lu Chen to guard Black Moon City, other forces naturally wouldn't target Lu Chen anymore, as anyone who tried to take Lu Chen might be labeled a Demon Cultivator.

Because only those who want the Demonic Tide to spread and release the Heavenly Demon wouldn't want Lu Chen to guard Black Moon City.

Thinking this, Nangong Yuehua let go of Lu Chen and then took out a jade amulet, sending it directly to his face with Spiritual Power.

"If I find out you have divulged the relationship between me and that person, no matter how important you are to the Ziyang World, I will personally take your life."

"There is a Transmission Array within the token, should you encounter danger, just activate the array, and I will send someone to rescue you."

As her words fell, Nangong Yuehua vanished from where she stood, no longer in the mood to ask how Lu Chen found out about Nangong Qingya's identity.

In her eyes at that moment, since Nangong Qingya had even handed over the Pavilion Master's Token to Lu Chen, it proved that she valued him highly, perhaps foreseeing that her sister would come, so she took the initiative to inform Lu Chen of their relationship.

Chapter 1063: The Maturation of Mu Zixuan's Inner Child World

Seeing that Nangong Yuehua's breath had completely dissipated, Ji Qiuyu, dripping with sweat, finally sighed in relief. She had thought that Nangong Yuehua, regardless of consequences, would take Lu Chen away directly.

At this moment, Ji Qiuyu turned her head to look at Lu Chen and asked with curiosity, "When you just mentioned 'Your Majesty's sister,' were you referring to the Blood Rainbow Pavilion Master?"

Ji Qiuyu didn't previously know the Blood Rainbow Pavilion Master's name. However, the last time Nangong Qingya visited, she had introduced herself.

With the surname also being Nangong, and given that Lu Chen had said Nangong Yuehua's sister had visited, the only one who did was Nangong Qingya. Therefore, it proved that Lu Chen's reference to Nangong Yuehua's sister was indeed the Blood Rainbow Pavilion Master Nangong Qingya.

This revelation astonished Ji Qiuyu greatly. The fact that the leader of the evil force Blood Rainbow Pavilion was actually the blood sister of the Empress of Zixiao Dynasty would surely cause an uproar if it got out.

Lu Chen turned his head to look at Ji Qiuyu and responded, "Don't you think their surnames are quite similar?"

Ji Qiuyu said somewhat speechlessly, "Just because of the surname you've concluded that Your Majesty and she are blood sisters?"

Lu Chen walked up to Ji Qiuyu, wrapped his arms around her waist, and whispered in her ear, "Of course not. The main reason is that they look so much alike. The first time I saw Your Majesty, I thought the Pavilion Master of Blood Rainbow Pavilion had come back again."

After some thought, Ji Qiuyu felt that Lu Chen's guess had some merit. Nangong Qingya did indeed resemble Nangong Yuehua. However, one was a righteous leader, and the other was the head of an evil faction, so few made the connection between them.

Ji Qiuyu said, "Now that we have the Pavilion Master's Token from Blood Rainbow Pavilion, and Your Majesty's jade pendant, other forces should no longer dare to harm you."

Lu Chen said, "That's not certain."

"Within the Ziyang World, there must be some Demon Cultivators, right? I've halted the spread of the Demonic Tide, slowing the speed at which the Heavenly Demon breaks the seal, so in the eyes of these Demon Cultivators, I am a thorn in their side, a target they surely want to eliminate."

Saying this, Lu Chen raised his hand to stroke Ji Qiuyu's hair and continued, "If they are only targeting me, I'm not really worried. What I fear most is that some Demon Cultivators might discover your relationship with me, and then harm you."

Hearing Lu Chen's words, Ji Qiuyu was deeply touched and immediately said, "Rest assured, if one day I truly face danger, and someone tries to use me to threaten you, I will simply detonate my Dantian and will not become your weakness."

Lu Chen hurriedly said, "Qiuyu, don't have such thoughts. If someone really uses you to threaten me, then let them. After all, they don't know that I am merely a puppet body right now; even if they kill me, my original body won't be affected in the slightest."

As soon as Lu Chen said this, Ji Qiuyu instantly realized the truth. Indeed, Lu Chen was in a puppet body; even if it was destroyed, his original body wouldn't be at any risk.

So, she didn't need to worry too much about his safety. As long as his original body didn't come out, those Demon Cultivators wouldn't be able to do anything to him.

But then again, if Lu Chen's original body never appeared, wouldn't she never be able to become his true Daoist couple?

Thinking this, Ji Qiuyu's cheeks flushed with red. On one hand, she was concerned for Lu Chen's safety, while on the other, she longed to become his Daoist couple soon, which conflicted in her heart.

However, for the sake of Lu Chen's safety, she would rather become his Daoist couple later. If something really happened to Lu Chen, they would have no future together.

Several days later.

In Tianchen World.

Lu Chen's original body was still rolling around in bed with Yun Xianxian, seemingly not at all worried about the arrival of Yun Qingshu.

With Lu Chen's nurturing over these days, Yun Xianxian's Cultivation State had reached the Third Layer of the All Law Realm. Now, with the support of Shenghui Armor, Yun Xianxian's personal strength had even caught up to the Divinity Transformation Realm.

Of course, even with the strength of the Divinity Transformation Realm, she was unlikely to be a match for her Honored Master, Yun Qingshu, mainly because her master had the ability to control her body, rendering her formidable strength useless in his presence.

During these days, Lu Chen's Cultivation State had also been rapidly improving, although slower compared to Yun Xianxian.

On the soft couch, Lu Chen lay on his side, his arm wrapped around Yun Xianxian's waist, gazing at her beautiful face. Yun Xianxian said, "You wouldn't really plan on just waiting like this for my master to arrive, would you?"

This rebellious disciple maintained a close relationship with her, which under normal circumstances she wouldn't mind for several months at a time, since he treated all his other women the same way and had such capabilities.

But now that her master was about to arrive in the Tianchen World and could locate her exact position, all her master needed was to reach the Tianchen World and he could instantly appear before them. Yet, this rebellious disciple still wouldn't let go of her, continuing to do these things to her.

She suspected that this rebellious disciple might deliberately want her master to see them being intimate.

Lu Chen said, "I'm doing this to enhance my strength. After all, since the Honored Ancestor is so powerful, my current strength is not yet capable of contending with him."

Yun Xianxian glanced at Lu Chen; she didn't believe that he was actually cultivating and enhancing his strength through Cultivation Techniques. If that were the case, she would have sensed it, but these past days it seemed he was purely pursuing pleasure.

Yun Xianxian thought to herself, well, let it be. Looking at this rebellious disciple's demeanor, he must have made all the necessary preparations already, and she needn't worry too much.

Just as Yun Xianxian was thinking this, Lu Chen's body suddenly erupted with waves of Spiritual Power. These waves of Spiritual Power spread instantaneously, and all the Cultivators in Black Dragon City felt it.

This...

Yun Xianxian, embracing Lu Chen's muscular waist, was also stunned after feeling the surge of Spiritual Power coming from his body.

Was this rebellious disciple actually cultivating?

He had made another breakthrough so quickly?

She had not sensed any flow of Spiritual Power in him these past days.

How had he managed to break through so quietly all of a sudden?

As Yun Xianxian's mind wandered, Lu Chen also looked slightly distracted, his face full of surprise as he read the system notification before him.

Reward: Saint Level Cultivation Technique, Evergreen Longevity Technique.]

[Mu Zixuan's world has given rise to worshipping creatures, host has obtained the Origin Power of the universe.]

This...

After coming back to his senses, Lu Chen immediately allowed his Divine Sense to enter the child world nurtured by Mu Zixuan.

In the child world created by Mu Zixuan, some merfolk with tails had carved numerous stone statues of Mu Zixuan and Lu Chen, bowing their heads before these statues.

Lu Chen was somewhat astonished. Chu Yuqin's child world had been the first to be nurtured, yet to date, it hadn't produced any beings with human intelligence. In contrast, intelligent life had already emerged in Mu Zixuan's world, which had only just matured.

Lu Chen took a glance at the merfolk kneeling and worshipping the stone images of him, feeling somewhat conflicted; the creatures nurtured in Mu Zixuan's child world were like his own children.

These merfolk could be considered his own offspring, and as time flowed faster in the child world than in the outer world, he would eventually experience the pain of outliving his own progeny.

Chapter 1064: It seems that the Grandmaster is about to arrive

Once his Divine Sense had returned, Lu Chen found that Yun Xianxian was staring at him with both eyes. Lu Chen smiled and asked, "Honored Master, why are you looking at me like that?"

Yun Xianxian said expressionlessly, "I am very curious, how exactly did you make your breakthrough?"

"You were only at the Fifth Layer of the Yin-Yang Realm a short while ago, yet just now your Cultivation State instantly rose above the Fifth Layer of the Myriad Laws Realm, and there seems to be a special kind of pressure emanating from you. Standing before you, I feel like I am beholding countless worlds."

Lu Chen smiled faintly but did not answer. The reason for the rapid increase in his strength was mainly the Origin Power of the universe. After obtaining the Origin Power, Lu Chen felt a kindred connection with the entire cosmos. He could even observe the entire Tianchen World from a third-person perspective now.

At present, he had only obtained a trace of Origin Power. If he could obtain even more cosmic Origin Power, he dared not even imagine what would happen.

Seeing that Lu Chen gave no response, Yun Xianxian continued, "You must be like me, with your own power sealed. You've broken the Sealing now, so your strength has been restored, right?"

Lu Chen thought this explanation was quite good, so he said, "Honored Master's guess is not wrong; my power indeed was sealed."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's answer, Yun Xianxian felt a strange sensation in her heart. This guy must have been even stronger than her before, right?

She was weaker than Lu Chen and yet she had become his Honored Master, which seemed somewhat improper.

But then again, ever since the day she made Lu Chen become her disciple, the rebellious student had never truly regarded her as his Honored Master. From beginning to end, he had his mind set on her body.

The so-called master-disciple relationship was merely this man's way of indulging a certain interest through role-playing. Having followed him for so long, she knew all too well what kind of person he was. Role-playing was what the rebellious student enjoyed the most.

Thinking of this, Yun Xianxian let go of her concerns. Her title as Honored Master was nothing more than a name; there was no need to take it too seriously.

At this time, Lu Chen continued to wrap his arms around Yun Xianxian's slim waist, drawing their bodies even closer together, creating an even more intimate connection between them.

However, after doing all this, he didn't make any other moves, just remained still and quiet. He used to do the same in the past. Despite frequently spending days and even weeks in bed with his wives and concubines, he wasn't always active. Occasionally, just quietly embracing like this felt quite good too, as long as they stayed together.

While holding Yun Xianxian, Lu Chen checked the reward from the system he had just received.

[Evergreen Longevity Technique: A Saint-grade Cultivation Technique, an upgrade of the Rejuvenating Skill. By cultivating this technique, the host can gain more lifespan and will possess the power to repair the Divine Soul as well as have greatly enhanced healing abilities.]

Reading the description, Lu Chen was momentarily stunned. The Rejuvenating Skill at full mastery granted the ability to resurrect the dead, but there were conditions – the body had to be intact, and the death couldn't have been too long ago.

Evergreen Longevity Technique was a Saint Level Cultivation Technique. If one could fully master the Evergreen Longevity Technique, then would it be possible to restore a person's body as long as their soul was preserved?

As Lu Chen was pondering this, the system notification sounded.

"The Evergreen Longevity Technique indeed possesses such capability, but in order to restore a person's physical body through their Divine Soul, some special materials need to be prepared."

Hearing the system notification, the corners of Lu Chen's mouth tilted upward slightly. It was no issue; preparing special materials was trivial as long as he had the ability.

With this thought, Lu Chen said to Yun Xianxian, "Xian'er, I have here a special Cultivation Technique; would you be interested in learning it?"

Hearing Lu Chen's form of address, Yun Xianxian pursed her lips, but she did not correct him. She asked curiously, "What Cultivation Technique?"

Lu Chen didn't hesitate in the slightest, directly imparting the cultivation technique to Yun Xianxian. As a flash of golden light entered Yun Xianxian's brain, her delicate body trembled.

Evergreen Longevity Technique?

After sensing the effects of the Evergreen Longevity Technique, Yun Xianxian was instantly stunned. A Saint-grade cultivation technique that could resurrect the dead?

Could it be true?

Where did this defiant disciple acquire such a cultivation technique?

Wait a minute...

With this defiant disciple's identity, acquiring a Saint-grade cultivation technique doesn't seem to be that strange after all.

Yun Xianxian then said to Lu Chen, "At a time like this, you're giving me this kind of technique. It's not because you're worried you're no match for my Honored Master, is it?"

Before, Lu Chen had only taught her the Rejuvenating Skill and hadn't given her the Evergreen Longevity Technique. Clearly, Lu Chen was holding back, but now he was willing to offer a Saint-grade technique, which made it seem like Lu Chen was preparing for the worst scenario.

After all, once one masters the Evergreen Longevity Technique to perfection, as long as one's divine soul is preserved, one could bring someone back from the dead. That meant that even if something were to happen to Lu Chen, as long as she kept his divine soul, she might one day resurrect him.

Lu Chen said with a smile, "You really let your imagination run wild. I just recovered some memories a while ago and recalled the complete Rejuvenating Skill, so I decided to teach it to you for you to cultivate."

"When Honored Ancestor arrives in the Tianchen World, there will naturally be someone to deal with her. Perhaps there's no need for me to act."

Hearing Lu Chen speak this way, Yun Xianxian thought of how he had grown all this way, always mysteriously gaining new forces and powerful beings at his side.

This guy's identity is so special; there must be powerful protectors behind him.

With this thought, Yun Xianxian's worries about Lu Chen's safety completely vanished. Now, she was actually a bit concerned about the situation of her own Honored Master.

What if her Honored Master were defeated? She might end up in Lu Chen's...

Just the thought of herself, Chen Wanrong, and her Honored Master attending to Lu Chen together made Yun Xianxian feel extremely awkward.

While Yun Xianxian's thoughts wandered, Lu Chen suddenly said, "It seems that Honored Ancestor is almost here."

After obtaining the Origin Power, Lu Chen's perceptive abilities had become incredibly powerful. Even before Yun Qingshu arrived in the Tianchen World, he had already sensed two Immortal Boats rapidly approaching.

Considering the fragility of the Tianchen World, just a child world that couldn't withstand the disruption of Divinity Transformation Realm experts, Lu Chen decided to take the initiative to leave the Tianchen World and wait for Yun Qingshu's arrival in space aboard the Feihong Immortal Boat.

Yun Xianxian also perceived a familiar sense rapidly approaching the Tianchen World, and for a moment, she grew tense.

Even knowing that there were powerful beings on Lu Chen's side to protect him, the approach of Yun Qingshu still made her feel pressured. Moreover, she was unsure how to face Yun Qingshu, her mentor who was like both teacher and mother.

Yun Xianxian twisted her body slightly, pushing against Lu Chen's chest, intending to separate from him.

However, Lu Chen continued to hold her slender waist firmly, showing no intention of letting go. Yun Xianxian then glared at Lu Chen. This defiant disciple really planned to let her Honored Master see them like this?

With a faint smile, Lu Chen used Shadow Shifting, and in the next moment, their bodies appeared inside the inner palace of the Immortal Boat above Black Dragon City. Then Lu Chen said to the Immortal Boat's artifact spirit, "Honghong, leave the Tianchen World!"

As soon as Lu Chen's words fell, the Feihong Immortal Boat flew toward the edge of the Tianchen World.

Chapter 1065: Bastard!

At this moment, Lu Chen looked through the window of his sleeping chamber, observing the cosmic space. Although he had previously possessed the ability to explore the entire Tianchen World, witnessing it through his eyes was still incredibly shocking.

The entire Tianchen World was enveloped in a hemisphere that resembled the sky and earth, unlike a typical planet. The outside of the Tianchen World was surrounded by a thick barrier, and without tools like the Immortal Boat, Cultivators below the All Law Realm would find it difficult to pass through the barrier and leave the Tianchen World.

At that time, Lu Chen saw a huge, semi-circular world at the bottom right corner of the Tianchen World. This world was more than three times larger than the Tianchen World and was already in contact with it.

Clearly, the world that was in contact with the Tianchen World was the Ziyang World.

Around the Tianchen World, there were many other worlds, large and small, but most of those worlds were already shattered, leaving only small fragments.

The Star Domain where the Tianchen World was located resembled a graveyard of worlds, with countless broken worlds floating in the void.

As Lu Chen was observing the cosmic space, Yun Xianxian spoke up, "You should finally let go of me now."

Yun Xianxian also noticed that Lu Chen's attention was no longer on her but on those shattered worlds.

Having come to cosmic space, Lu Chen couldn't possibly continue causing trouble.

Hearing Yun Xianxian's voice, Lu Chen snapped back from the shocking cosmic scenery. He gazed into Yun Xianxian's purple beautiful eyes and said with a sly smile, "The grandmaster will be here soon, and I want the grandmaster to see just how deep our relationship is."

Yun Xianxian furrowed her brows, about to say something when the devious disciple flipped her over and pressed her onto the soft couch...

Yun Qingshu's Immortal Boat quickly arrived at the edge of the Tianchen World. Yun Qingshu even identified the world as Tianchen World without checking the coordinates on the star map.

Upon discovering the luxurious Immortal Boat parked outside the Tianchen World, Yun Qingshu instantly had a bad premonition.

The Immortal Boat signified the identity of the Cultivator. The more luxurious and vast the Immortal Boat, the more extraordinary the identity of its owner.

The Immortal Boat in front of them was no longer just an Immortal Boat; it looked more like a palace in the air. The owner of such a luxurious Immortal Boat was likely to be a young master of some Super Force, or perhaps even a Prince of an Empire.

Yun Qingshu did not act rashly.

This Immortal Boat, parked outside the Tianchen World, clearly indicated that its owner had anticipated their arrival and was specifically waiting for them there.

At that moment, Yin Zhengye also maneuvered his Immortal Boat next to the Mysterious Moon Palace Immortal Boat. Having finally caught up, Yin Zhengye breathed a sigh of relief. It was good that he had arrived quickly, otherwise, it would have been troublesome.

Yin Zhengye also glanced at the Feihong Immortal Boat in front of him. He recognized it as Lu Chen's instantly. Just as Yin Zhengye was considering whether to go greet him, a cold voice spread through the cosmic space.

"Move aside, I want to enter the Tianchen World!"

The tone of Yun Qingshu was extremely domineering, showing no regard for the owner of the Feihong Immortal Boat.

However, once Yun Qingshu's voice fell, there was no response from the people on the Immortal Boat opposite, and the strange feeling in her body became clearer and clearer.

Yun Qingshu seemed to realize something at this moment and immediately released her Divine Sense. Soon, her Divine Sense reappeared on Yun Xianxian.

As her Divine Sense entered Yun Xianxian's body, she found Yun Xianxian lying on a soft couch in a very humiliating position, being wantonly tortured by a man behind her.

Yun Qingshu immediately flew into a rage. As her Divine Sense entered Yun Xianxian's body, she also determined that Yun Xianxian's exact location was on the luxurious Immortal Boat opposite her.

Clearly, this man had intentionally stopped the Immortal Boat just outside of Tianchen World, waiting for her arrival.

After she arrived, the man had not ceased, continuing to do such things to Yun Xianxian, obviously provoking her.

Yun Qingshu immediately withdrew her Divine Sense and directly yelled, "Bastard!"

A majestic Spiritual Power surged directly towards the Feihong Immortal Boat. However, just as the destructive Spiritual Power was about to collide with the Feihong Immortal Boat, barriers emerged around it, and the Spiritual Power released by Yun Qingshu directly struck the barrier, leaving the Feihong Immortal Boat unscathed.

Yun Qingshu could no longer restrain herself; daring to do such a thing to her incarnation right in front of her, she wanted to tear the man on the Immortal Boat to a million pieces!

Soon after, Yun Qingshu flew towards the Feihong Immortal Boat, and as she was about to approach it, the jade flute in her hand transformed into an ice sword emitting a chilling air. Then, Yun Qingshu swung the sword.

A surge of Sword Qi instantly flew towards the Feihong Immortal Boat, the fluctuation generated by the Sword Qi turning the floating debris in space into dust.

If this Sword Qi were to contact the Feihong Immortal Boat, the consequences could be imagined. Yet, at this critical moment, a black shadow suddenly appeared in front of the Feihong Immortal Boat.

Fire Dragon Sword!

In the next moment, a Sword Qi burning with raging flames erupted from Yin Zhengye's sword, colliding with her Sword Qi. The resulting shockwave pushed their Immortal Boats thousands of miles out.

The debris around them also turned to powder, and the entire cosmic space they were in was enveloped in dust.

Yun Qingshu waved her hand, and the dust was instantly pushed aside by a force. Once she saw that it was Yin Zhengye who had intervened, Yun Qingshu coldly asked, "Yin Zhengye, what do you mean by this?"

Yun Qingshu had already prepared to confront the Black Dragon Holy Land on her way to Tianchen World, but she had not expected Yin Zhengye to take action at this moment.

She thought there was something in Tianchen World that Yin Zhengye cared about, and only when they entered Tianchen World would Yin Zhengye turn against her, but Yin Zhengye had turned against her now.

Yin Zhengye did not hide anything; with a smile on his face, he said, "The lord behind this Immortal Boat is my master. If Palace Master Yun strikes at my master, that means declaring war on me and the entire Black Dragon Holy Land."

As soon as these words were spoken, Yun Qingshu and the people from Mysterious Moon Palace were stunned. They had initially guessed there was something in Tianchen World that Yin Zhengye cared about, but they had never imagined that Yin Zhengye cared for a person, and moreover, the true master of the Black Dragon Holy Land!

The identity of the person that a cultivator from the Huashen Realm like Yin Zhengye would call master can only be imagined.

At this moment, Yun Qingshu's expression became even colder. She had thought she could easily handle the man who had violated Yun Xianxian, not expecting this man to actually be the lord of the Black Dragon Holy Land.

Chapter 1066: What have you done to my disciple!

Although Yun Qingshu sensed that the man crouched behind Yun Xianxian had at most the cultivation state of the All Law Realm, Yun Qingshu also knew that the owner of Black Dragon Holy Land couldn't possibly be an ordinary cultivator.

At that moment, the people from Black Dragon Holy Land and Mysterious Moon Palace were on edge, both sides locked in a standoff.

Through the causal link, Yun Qingshu sensed that Lu Chen was still doing that to Yun Xianxian. Yun Qingshu's expression became colder and colder, with the chill emanating from her spreading tens of miles away.

Yun Qingshu looked at Yin Zhengye and said coldly, "Your master violated my Direct Disciple's body. Today I will tear him to pieces. Yin Zhengye, are you sure you want to stop me?"

Yin Zhengye said with a smile, "As far as I know, Lu Yanghua has always desired Yun Xianxian's Immortal Spirit Body, and has repeatedly pressured Mysterious Moon Palace, threatening to hand over Yun Xianxian. Now that Yun Xianxian has become our master's Daoist couple, and the Immortal Spirit Body has already been violated, Palace Master Yun can completely pin this on Black Dragon Holy Land. From now on, Mysterious Moon Palace won't have to worry about Lu Yanghua's threats anymore. Isn't this a good thing?"

Yun Qingshu didn't respond. The chill around her grew denser, as she had never worried about Lu Yanghua's threats.

Compared to Lu Yanghua's threats, what she cared about more was the purity of her own alternate self.

Yun Xianxian, her alternate self, was a special manifestation she'd painstakingly created, and now another man had taken possession of her body—how could Yun Qingshu stand this?

She also understood Yin Zhengye wouldn't let her pass. In that case, she would kill Yin Zhengye.

She would kill whoever stood in her way!

The next moment, a huge vision appeared behind Yun Qingshu, exuding terrifying majesty, as if a deity herself.

Even Yin Zhengye, a cultivator of the Divinity Transformation Realm, felt tremendous pressure.

Seeing that Yun Qingshu was serious, Yin Zhengye didn't hesitate and yelled loudly.

"Black Dragon Law Idol!"

The next moment, a huge vision also appeared behind Yin Zhengye, a black dragon slowly rising, its eyes as vast as palace halls, staring at the ice woman vision behind Yun Qingshu.

Moments later, both of them acted. The ice woman behind Yun Qingshu waved her hand, sending numerous white flame-emitting ice spikes towards Yin Zhengye.

Yin Zhengye's Black Dragon Law Idol opened its huge dragon mouth and exhaled, sending a stream of black flames directly at the spikes emitting white flames.

When the power of the two Law Manifestations collided, waves of Spiritual Power exploded around them, and the space around them cleared again.

The fight outside was fierce, as was the one inside the Feihong Immortal Boat.

Lu Chen heavily injured Yun Xianxian repeatedly.

At that moment, Yun Xianxian was inwardly cursing Lu Chen as an ingrate. Her Honored Master had arrived, yet this guy was still tormenting her. This was tantamount to doing that to her right in front of her Honored Master.

Sensing the commotion outside, Yun Xianxian wanted to break free from Lu Chen, but he had complete control over her body, so all she could do was let him attack her.

After who knows how long, Lu Chen clearly sensed that Yin Zhengye was losing the upper hand.

Although both were in the Divinity Transformation Realm, Divinity Transformation Realm also had levels, and Yin Zhengye's power clearly didn't match Yun Qingshu's.

At that moment, Lu Chen took a deep breath and exclaimed, "Phew... that feels great!"

As his words fell, Lu Chen let go of Yun Xianxian and then swung his hand, donning his clothes, and walked directly toward the outside of the tent.

Seeing Lu Chen let her go, Yun Xianxian also hurriedly got up. After dressing, she staggered and followed after him.

Lu Chen then said to Yin Zhengye, "Saint Lord Yin, come here for a moment."

Upon hearing Lu Chen's telepathic message, Yin Zhengye immediately let the Black Dragon Law Manifestation release more power. By the time Yun Qingshu reacted, he had already teleported directly to the Feihong Immortal Boat.

The moment Yin Zhengye saw Lu Chen, he knelt down without hesitation, "Greetings, my lord!"

Lu Chen did not dally either; he immediately took out a piece of Shenghui Armor from the system inventory and threw it to Yin Zhengye, "Put it on!"

Seeing the Shenghui Armor in Lu Chen's hand, Yin Zhengye was startled for a moment, but then he caught it without hesitation and waved his hand. The next moment, the Shenghui Armor enveloped his entire body.

At this time, Yun Qingshu's body flew directly toward the Feihong Immortal Boat, stopping when she was less than a hundred meters from it.

Instead of rushing to attack, she coldly measured up Lu Chen and Yun Xianxian, her body still radiating a thick murderous intent.

Yun Xianxian quickly said, "Honored Master, I willingly became Lu Chen's Daoist couple. Please do not direct your anger at Lu Chen, disciple is willing to accept the punishment!"

Hearing these words, Yun Qingshu raised her eyebrows and her murderous intent grew stronger, the coldness around her intensifying so much that the space around her seemed to freeze.

Yun Qingshu had thought that Yun Xianxian was forced to become this man's female slave and that he had confined her using some means, which explained why she was unable to sense her in Tianchen World. But Yun Xianxian actually said she was willing?

Yun Xianxian was not only her daughter but also her split self; she knew Yun Xianxian too well. How could Yun Xianxian possibly have feelings for a man and offer herself voluntarily?

Even when she had made it to Tianchen World, the two were still engaged in such trivial matters, clearly not by choice.

Yun Qingshu's icy gaze instantly turned towards Lu Chen, "What have you done to my disciple!"

"Speak, and I might leave your corpse intact!"

Lu Chen did not respond immediately; she looked at Yun Qingshu.

Yun Qingshu and Yun Xianxian bore a striking resemblance, both were equally cold and beautiful, but Yun Qingshu exuded an even colder, more aloof air, accurately described as lonely.

Lu Chen then used the system to identify Yun Qingshu's identity.

[Name: Yun Qingshu]

[Identity: Palace Master of Mysterious Moon Palace, main body of Yun Xianxian, Yun Xianxian's mother, survivor of the previous era, Huashen Realm Cultivator, wishing to tear the host into pieces immediately after learning that the host has defiled her split self.]

[Score: 100]

[Favorability: 0]

Seeing Yun Qingshu's profile, Lu Chen was slightly taken aback.

How is Yun Qingshu both Yun Xianxian's main body and her mother?

This...

If Yun Qingshu is Yun Xianxian's main body, shouldn't Yun Xianxian be considered Yun Qingshu's secondary self? Like just one person, how could one person also play the roles of mother and daughter?

Right when Lu Chen was baffled, a system notification sounded, "When Yun Qingshu created this secondary self, Yun Xianxian, she used a special method allowing Yun Xianxian a great degree of autonomy, possessing a complete and independent character, making Yun Xianxian both Yun Qingshu's secondary self and her daughter."

Lu Chen thought to herself, so that's how it is.

Then, wearing a smile, she said to Yun Qingshu, "Son-in-law has met his honorable mother-in-law!"

As soon as Lu Chen made this remark, Yun Qingshu's chill became unbearable, rushing straight towards Lu Chen. Yin Zhengye quickly stepped in front of Lu Chen to protect her.

Chapter 1067: Who the hell are you!

After donning the Shenghui Armor, Yin Zhengye's strength had greatly improved, and he easily blocked the chill released by Yun Qingshu.

Of course, the chill Yun Qingshu had just released was subconsciously emitted by her body and was not particularly formidable.

Yun Qingshu looked coldly at Lu Chen, feeling very puzzled inside. This man actually addressed her as "mother-in-law" in front of her and even called her "Honored Mother-in-law"?

Virtually no one knew about her relationship with Yun Xianxian, not even Yun Xianxian herself.

Yet this man seemed to be aware of her relationship with Yun Xianxian.

At that moment, Yun Qingshu's curiosity about Lu Chen's identity had intensified.

Yun Qingshu then said, "I am Xian'er's Honored Master, not Xian'er's mother, and certainly not your mother-in-law!"

At this point, Yun Xianxian was also curious. Why would Lu Chen suddenly call Yun Qingshu "Honored Mother-in-law" and even claim to be her "darling"?

Lu Chen respectfully said, "Honored Mother-in-law jests, although Xian'er is merely your incarnate, you did bestow her with life and granted her a complete personality. Naturally, you are Xian'er's mother, and as Xian'er's darling, it is proper for me to address you as Honored Mother-in-law."

Hearing Lu Chen's response, Yun Qingshu's chilling aura spread once more, covering the Feihong Immortal Boat in a layer of frost and creating several cracks in its barrier.

Yun Qingshu never imagined that someone could see through her relationship with Yun Xianxian so directly.

At this moment, the one who couldn't believe it the most was Yun Xianxian. For the first time, her ice-cold and breathtakingly beautiful face showed a look of astonishment. Yun Xianxian turned her head towards Lu Chen, "Lu Chen, what are you talking about? Why can't I understand?"

Yun Qingshu also sensed the emotional turmoil in Yun Xianxian and, staring into Lu Chen's eyes, she asked coldly, "Who are you, and how do you know about this!"

Seeing that Yun Qingshu did not deny it but instead asked Lu Chen about his identity, Yun Xianxian's mind went blank. Thus, was everything Lu Chen said true? Was she truly an incarnate of her Honored Master?

How could this be...

Now she finally understood why her Honored Master was always able to control her body—she was essentially an incarnate of her Honored Master, and her Honored Master could naturally manipulate her body at will.

No wonder Lu Chen had comforted her before by saying that her Honored Master keeping her confined might actually be for her protection.

She was an incarnate of her Honored Master, so her Honored Master would certainly not let her become Lu Yanghua's Furnace Cauldron.

No wonder Lu Chen, this rebellious disciple, had been so excited and fierce upon knowing that her Honored Master was coming—it turns out he had known all this from the start.

Could it be that in Lu Chen's eyes, she was just a substitute for the main body?

Realizing the truth, Yun Xianxian felt a heavy blow, her entire body weakened, and she was about to sit down.

Lu Chen hurried to Yun Xianxian's back and held her up, preventing her from sitting down.

Seeing this, Yun Qingshu's brows furrowed—this man even dared to hold and embrace his own incarnate in front of her!

After embracing Yun Xianxian, Lu Chen looked at Yun Qingshu and answered, "Like Lu Yanghua, I am a son of Emperor Shenwu of the Shenyue Dynasty."

If possible, Lu Chen did not want to use force against Yun Qingshu; it would be best to avoid a confrontation, so he simply revealed his other identity.

Hearing Lu Chen's reply, Yun Qingshu felt a faint shock in her heart. She had of course heard of Emperor Shenwu and knew the terrifying aspects of his reign—he had fought across countless territories, destroying numerous High-Level Cultivation Worlds to establish the Shenyue Dynasty.

Originally, Yun Qingshu had thought that Lu Yanghua's rapid growth might be due to some major power giving him experience in their realm, but she had not expected Lu Yanghua's true identity to be that of an Imperial Son.

What shocked her even more was that the man who had taken over her avatar was also an Imperial Son.

However, even if he was an Imperial Son, the fact that he had violated her avatar's purity could not just be overlooked.

Thinking of this, Yun Qingshu said expressionlessly, "Do you believe that just because you revealed your identity, I would not dare to kill you?"

Lu Chen did not immediately answer. Instead, he unleashed his power, and in the next moment, a faint golden armor appeared on him.

A power that surpassed the All Law Realm emanated from Lu Chen, and sensing the force around him, Yun Qingshu's brows slightly furrowed. He continued, "Although I am not as powerful as you, my mother-in-law, I can still protect myself. Moreover, Saint Master Yin Zhengye's power is now even stronger than yours. It won't be easy for you to kill me."

As soon as Lu Chen had finished speaking, Yin Zhengye also released Spiritual Power, exuding a terrifying pressure that clearly surpassed the Divinity Transformation Realm and reached the Returning Ruin Realm level.

Yun Qingshu immediately understood the situation—their immense power boost was due to the golden armors they wore.

Even though they relied on external forces, she only had the power of the Divinity Transformation Realm. Trying to kill someone with the strength of the Divinity Transformation Realm in front of someone at the Returning Ruin Realm level was indeed not easy.

Could it be, just let it go?

Her avatar had been tormented right before her eyes by this man, could she just let it go?

Suddenly, a cold aura began to surge out from Yun Qingshu. She stared at Lu Chen's eyes and coldly asked, "Do you really think I can't kill you?"

With her current ability in the Divinity Transformation Realm, she naturally couldn't kill this man. However, if she were to break her own seal and recover her true power, killing Lu Chen would be a matter of a blink of an eye.

Of course, if she were to remove her own seal, she would certainly draw the attention of the cosmic origin, since she was a survivor from the previous era and could not expose things from that era.

Unless her life was threatened, she would never break her seal. Although the issue with Yun Xianxian made her incredibly angry, exposing her true identity just to kill someone was not worth it for her.

Seeing Yun Qingshu's murderous gaze, Lu Chen smiled and said, "Of course, I know that you, my mother-in-law, have the power to kill me, considering that you are a survivor from the last era, always possessing some unique methods."

At those words, Yun Qingshu froze.

This man knew of her relationship with Yun Xianxian, and he even knew that she was a survivor from the previous era.

He couldn't possibly be just a simple son of Emperor Shenwu.

She had always believed she was the only survivor from the previous era, so no one would ever know her identity.

Yun Qingshu coldly asked, "Who exactly are you?"

She felt as if she had no secrets hidden from this man.

If such a person continued to live, it could lead to others using him to target her in the future. Knowing that she was a survivor from the previous era, he might also know her weaknesses.

Having such a person continue to live would pose too great a threat to her.

Chapter 1068: One day, you will regret the words you said today!

Seeing Yun Qingshu looking at herself with a guarded expression, Lu Chen smiled and said, "My dear mother-in-law, actually, your son-in-law and you are the same; we're not really from this universe either."

Hearing this, Yun Qingshu was taken aback once again.

However, she did not immediately believe Lu Chen's words; her face filled with doubt as she sized him up.

At that moment, Yun Qingshu thought to herself that if this man were a survivor from the previous era like herself, then he might indeed know her identity.

Could it be that she wasn't the only one who had survived the previous era? Were there other survivors?

At this moment, Yun Xianxian, who was in Lu Chen's arms, was completely baffled. She could not understand what Lu Chen and Yun Qingshu were talking about, but she did understand one thing—Lu Chen's origins were even more mysterious than she had known.

Lu Chen was not only the son of Emperor Shenwu; he had an even more noble identity.

At that time, Yun Qingshu fell into silence and did not speak for a long while, and Lu Chen also did not continue speaking. In fact, he did not know what the "previous era" was or what had happened during it. His statement was merely an attempt to close the distance between himself and Yun Qingshu.

After all, there couldn't be many survivors from the previous era. If he pretended to be like her, he might be able to gain her favor.

Lu Chen glanced at Yun Qingshu's favorability and discovered that it had indeed increased; her favorability had directly risen to thirty.

After their silence, it seemed as if time had stopped in the entire cosmic space.

It was after an unknown amount of time that Yun Qingshu finally spoke, "Even if you are like me, from the Ancient Era, you defiled my incarnation. I still have to kill you. What more is there to say!"

Lu Chen said, "There was never any defilement; Xian'er and I were willing. How could it be considered defilement."

Hearing this, the chill around Yun Qingshu erupted again, and Yin Zhengye immediately took action, blocking the cold air that was heading straight for Lu Chen.

At that moment, Lu Chen, holding Yun Xianxian's delicate body and with his head against her jade cheek, portrayed an intimate appearance as he continued speaking to the distant Yun Qingshu, "Mother-in-law, when you created Xian'er, you gave her an independent personality. You shouldn't treat her as just an incarnation of yourself, but rather as your daughter."

"Since she has an independent personality, you should respect her wishes. Who she wants to be with is her freedom."

Hearing Lu Chen's speech, Yun Qingshu felt extremely angry. "Ridiculous! I gave her an independent personality, not for her to become your Furnace Cauldron!"

Lu Chen said, "I never intended for Xian'er to be my Furnace Cauldron, mother-in-law. Since you can control Xian'er's body, you should also be able to access her past memories. I have never thought of making her a Furnace Cauldron; what we have is true love."

Saying this, Lu Chen spoke into Yun Xianxian's ear, "Right, Xian'er?"

Hearing Lu Chen's words, Yun Xianxian, whose mind had been blank, gradually came back to her senses. Although she felt a bit uncomfortable, believing that Lu Chen was merely using her as a substitute for Yun Qingshu, she still decided to stand by Lu Chen.

She looked at Yun Qingshu with a complex expression—the one who had given her life and endowed her with an independent personality.

"Disciple is grateful to the Honored Master for giving disciple life and an independent personality, but disciple has fallen in love with Lu Chen and will not voluntarily return with the master."

"If the master feels that the existence of disciple's incarnation tarnishes the master's identity, the master can simply destroy this incarnation of the disciple."

Upon hearing Yun Xianxian's words, Yun Qingshu slightly furrowed her brows.

She was really curious as to what kind of love potion Lu Chen had fed Yun Xianxian that made her so infatuated with him; logically, her own split body shouldn't have had any feelings of love.

When she initially created this split body, she had feared her split body would be defiled by other men, so she didn't instill any feelings of love in her.

At that moment, Yun Qingshu's eyes suddenly emitted a purple light, and Yin Zhengye thought Yun Qingshu was about to attack; readying to defend himself, he discovered Yun Qingshu still hadn't moved from her spot and hadn't attacked first.

However, in the next moment, Yun Xianxian's pupils also emitted a purple light, and Lu Chen instantly realized that Yun Qingshu had once again possessed the Yun Xianxian in his arms.

After taking control of Yun Xianxian's body, Yun Qingshu immediately read all of Yun Xianxian's memories since she left the Mysterious Moon Palace, and upon discovering that Yun Xianxian's body had been forcefully taken away by Lu Chen, she instantly became furious.

Especially when she found out that Lu Chen had numerous women in his harem, Yun Qingshu's expression became even more severe, and the coldness in her spread again, enveloping the entire Feihong Immortal Boat with the chill coming off her body.

However, as she continued to read Yun Xianxian's memories, she realized that Yun Xianxian indeed hadn't lied; she truly did fall in love with her rebellious disciple.

Though Lu Chen was somewhat lascivious, he genuinely treated her well; not only did he give her the powerful Spiritual Artifact, Shenghui Armor, but he even imparted the Saint Level Cultivation Technique, the Evergreen Longevity Technique, to Yun Xianxian.

She hadn't even passed the Saint Level Cultivation Technique onto her own split body, yet Lu Chen had been so generous.

After reading all the memories, Yun Qingshu withdrew her Divine Sense and then coldly said, "You love him, but he does not necessarily love you. If he loved you, he wouldn't have so many wives and concubines."

"You should understand that he likes you, he just likes your body. Once he tires of you, you will be of no use to him."

Yun Qingshu's words had barely fallen when, before awaiting Yun Xianxian's response, Lu Chen quickly said, "I admit, I do indeed like Xian'er's body, but that doesn't mean I do not love her. To like someone, I naturally should like everything about her, and if I didn't like her body, how could I claim to love her."

Yun Qingshu coldly said, "Sweet talker!"

At this moment, Yun Xianxian actually also suspected that Lu Chen might not truly like her, viewing her just as a substitute for Yun Qingshu; however, she wouldn't leave Lu Chen unless he actively abandoned her.

Yun Xianxian then said, "No matter what the Honored Master says, I will not leave Lu Chen. If the Honored Master feels that this split body brings shame upon you, you are free to destroy this split body."

Yun Qingshu's Divine Sense could enter her body any time, meaning she could destroy her split body whenever she wanted. For Yun Qingshu, to destroy her split body was merely a matter of thought.

Hearing Yun Xianxian's words, Lu Chen became anxious; Yun Qingshu wouldn't really destroy Yun Xianxian's split body, would she?

Lu Chen thought for a moment and, realizing that Yun Qingshu had given Yun Xianxian a complete and independent personality, she wasn't truly treating her as just a split body, perhaps Yun Qingshu wouldn't do such a thing.

Still, he should take precautions.

Just as Lu Chen was considering how to stop Yun Qingshu from harming Yun Xianxian's split body, Yun Qingshu spoke, "You will one day regret what you said today!"

At that moment, Yun Qingshu's gaze fell upon Lu Chen, "Coercing possession of my split body and treating her as a plaything, even if I cannot kill you today, I will inevitably settle scores with you in the future!"

Dauntlessly, Yun Qingshu turned and left, eventually flying onto the Immortal Boat of the Mysterious Moon Palace.

Chapter 1069: The True Self Does Not Have a Disciple Like You!

Seeing Yun Qingshu leave directly, Lu Chen and Yun Xianxian felt very puzzled, just walked away?

However, although Yun Qingshu returned to the Mysterious Moon Palace's Immortal Boat, she didn't have the Immortal Boat turn around and leave; the Immortal Boat from the Mysterious Moon Palace was still suspended in cosmic space.

Seeing this, Lu Chen thought that it seemed Yun Qingshu didn't plan to leave just yet; she probably had something else to do.

At this moment, Yin Zhengye knelt halfway and said, "This old servant pays respects to his Lord!"

Lu Chen indifferently said, "Lord Yin, get up. From now on, don't call me 'Your Majesty.'"

Lu Chen wasn't quite comfortable with this title; even if he was to be called master, he preferred it to be from his wives and concubines in bed, not from an elder man.

Yin Zhengye instantly reacted and immediately corrected, "Yes, Your Majesty!"

After Lu Chen glanced at Yun Qingshu's distant Immortal Boat, he immediately asked, "How many Immortal Boats did the Mysterious Moon Palace send?"

Currently, only the two Immortal Boats controlled by Yun Qingshu and Yin Zhengye had reached the Tianchen World. The two of them had increased their speed to hasten the journey, while the other Immortal Boats were still behind.

Yin Zhengye replied, "Your Majesty, a total of thirteen. However, one Immortal Boat left the Mysterious Moon Palace midway."

Hearing this, Lu Chen thoughtfully looked at the Immortal Boat controlled by Yun Qingshu, wondering if she might be planning to attack Tianchen World once all the other Immortal Boats from the Mysterious Moon Palace had arrived.

But now, even in her Divinity Transformation Realm, she couldn't handle him; what could the others from the Mysterious Moon Palace do to Tianchen World anyway?

Forget it, no point in thinking about it now; he would naturally find out what Yun Qingshu was plotting when all the Immortal Boats from the Mysterious Moon Palace arrived.

Thinking this, Lu Chen then said to Yin Zhengye, "Lord Yin, you stay here and wait for the Immortal Boats from the Mysterious Moon Palace and Black Dragon Holy Land to arrive. If there is any movement from the Mysterious Moon Palace, immediately send someone to enter Tianchen World and inform me."

Yin Zhengye said, "Yes, Your Majesty."

Immediately following that, Lu Chen controlled the Feihong Immortal Boat to leave the cosmic space and returned to the Black Dragon City Imperial Palace.

Since Yun Qingshu hadn't made a move, he didn't need to go looking for trouble with Yun Qingshu. He wanted to see how she planned to deal with her relationship with Yun Xianxian.

Just after returning to the Black Dragon City Imperial Palace, Yun Xianxian's body suddenly erupted with blasts of cold air, instantly freezing the entire chamber, and she also suddenly increased the distance between herself and Lu Chen.

Seeing this, Lu Chen was taken aback. At that moment, Yun Xianxian drew a sword and pointed it at Lu Chen, her expression cold as she stared at him.

Lu Chen, puzzled, said, "Honored Master, what is this about?"

Yun Xianxian said coldly, "Don't call me Honored Master, I don't have a disciple like you!"

Lu Chen, smiling, said, "Honored Master, surely you haven't been misled by the grand master again?"

Hearing Lu Chen's words, Yun Xianxian felt a piercing pain in her heart. She coldly said, "You forcefully took possession of my body initially for the sole purpose of making me a substitute for that person, didn't you?"

With that, Lu Chen instantly understood why Yun Xianxian had suddenly turned against him; it was a misunderstanding.

Though she was indeed a split persona from Yun Qingshu, Yun Xianxian, having her own independent personality, naturally couldn't accept being treated as a substitute for someone else, even if it were for her prime self.

Lu Chen then said, "Xian'er, I have never had such thoughts. For me, you are you, and the Honored Master is the Honored Master."

Yun Xianxian, expressionless, said, "Do you think that at this point, I would still believe your lies?"

If Yun Qingshu wasn't her main body, Lu Chen's excitement when he mentioned Yun Qingshu during their intimate moments would only make her think that Lu Chen was merely lecherous.

But now, it was clear to her that Lu Chen had been treating her as a substitute for her Honored Master, which caused her immense pain.

Perhaps this rebellious disciple had never truly had feelings for her, and he only resorted to toying with her because he couldn't have her main body.

Seeing Yun Xianxian's indifferent expression, Lu Chen sighed slightly, realizing that he needed to let her cool down first.

Then, with a Shadow Shifting technique, Lu Chen appeared directly behind Yun Xianxian. Yun Xianxian immediately reacted and tried to dodge him, but Lu Chen still managed to embrace her waist and in the next moment, her spiritual power was completely sealed.

"Release me!"

Yun Xianxian immediately struggled.

Lu Chen, without saying much, carried Yun Xianxian to a soft couch, "You... you bastard... mmm..."

Rip...

Mmm~!

Lu Chen didn't want to use such methods, but maintaining close proximity was the only way to calm Yun Xianxian down more quickly.

This trick indeed proved effective, and after an exchange of emotions for a while, Yun Xianxian's attitude softened, though she still harbored some unease. There was nothing she could do about it; this rebellious Lu Chen was too dominating, and she could only be suppressed in anger in front of him.

After an unknown period, Lu Chen slowly lifted his chest and looked down at Yun Xianxian, who had regained her composure by then. She turned her head away, refusing to meet Lu Chen's eyes.

Though her face was flushed with pleasure, her expression was quite cold, clearly still angry with Lu Chen.

At that moment, Lu Chen said, "Xian'er, I swear by my Dao Heart that my being with you was purely because I like you, and not because I saw you as a substitute for your main body. At that time, I didn't even know your real identity."

"It was only after recovering some of my past memories that I learned of your real identity."

Hearing this, Yun Xianxian was slightly stunned. She hadn't expected Lu Chen to swear an oath by his Dao Heart, which was risky for cultivators.

Yun Xianxian turned to look into Lu Chen's eyes, still coldly saying, "A man like you, who is always on top of women, what Dao Heart can you speak of?"

Lu Chen's cultivation relied mainly on Dual Cultivation, and his Dao Heart didn't seem to greatly impact his cultivation, of course, Yun Xianxian said this casually, but her heart had begun to somewhat believe Lu Chen's words. She still felt a bit awkward, though.

Every time she was slightly emotional, that guy would resolve it this way. Couldn't this rebellious disciple let her vent her emotions properly for once? Whenever she got emotional, he would suppress her.

Lu Chen could see that Yun Xianxian had believed his words, and he smiled slightly, then said, "As long as one is a cultivator, one has a Dao Heart."

"How about I make a different oath, if I lie, then I will..."

Before Lu Chen could finish his sentence, Yun Xianxian suddenly raised her hand, covering Lu Chen's mouth to prevent him from continuing.

Expressionlessly, Yun Xianxian said, "I don't want to listen to your sweet talk. It doesn't matter if I am her incarnation or not, I can't leave you now, do whatever you want."

Chapter 1070: Ancestor, no need for more words, I will still do what I should!

Upon hearing Yun Xianxian's words, Lu Chen slowly moved Yun Xianxian's jade-like hand away from his mouth, then looked intently at her face, which though cold as frost, bore a flush of red.

"If that's what you're saying, then so be it. You are already my woman, and in this life, you can only be my woman, regardless of what you think, I will not let you leave me."

"You may call me shameless or despicable, but I will not let you leave me."

Having said this, Lu Chen bent down once again and captured Yun Xianxian's red lips with his own. Yun Xianxian did not evade, nor did she struggle, but instead responded to Lu Chen's kiss.

After they kissed for a while, Lu Chen once again lifted his torso, his gaze fixed on Yun Xianxian's eyes, which no longer held the indifference of before. Her violet orbs stared intently at Lu Chen.

So the two of them looked at each other in silence, and after an indeterminable amount of time passed, Yun Xianxian finally spoke, "You have designs on my Honored Master as well, don't you?"

Lu Chen said with a smile, "What are you talking about, dear wife? I only fancy you. How could I possibly have designs on the Honored Master?"

Yun Xianxian let out a cold retort, "You, what kind of person are you? Do I not know? Your harem is nearly established, and yet you have the nerve to say you only fancy me?"

"Truly shameless."

At this point, Yun Xianxian raised her hands to Lu Chen's cheeks, looked him straight in the eye and said, "I know you have thoughts about my Honored Master. I have no intention of stopping you from doing anything with her, even if she is my primary form."

"However, I do not want you to treat me as her. I am myself, and she is her."

Though she had come to terms with the fact that she was nothing more than a split entity from Yun Qingshu, Yun Xianxian, as an individual with her own independent personality, was very concerned with how Lu Chen regarded their primary and alternate forms.

Compared to the primary form, she was the first to meet Lu Chen, the first to become Lu Chen's woman, and she would never allow him to treat her as the primary form and for the primary form to have the same amount of love from Lu Chen as herself.

Even if Lu Chen eventually succeeded with her primary form as well, in her eyes, that would be an affair between Lu Chen and Yun Qingshu that had nothing to do with her.

Lu Chen understood what was on Yun Xianxian's mind, and so he said, "I understand, I promise you, I will never treat you as her."

As Lu Chen spoke these words, Yun Xianxian's eyes suddenly shifted from violet to red.

Seeing this, Lu Chen instantly knew that Yun Qingshu was taking over again. Just as he was about to say something, Yun Xianxian scoffed, "As a clone of mine, you actually want to break free from me, even becoming jealous over me, how laughable!"

Lu Chen looked into Yun Xianxian's eyes and said, "Mother-in-law, I am in the middle of a task with Xian'er right now, and for you to suddenly appear in Xian'er's place seems somewhat inappropriate, doesn't it?"

Hearing this, Yun Qingshu immediately became enraged, "Shut up!"

Yun Qingshu had just returned to the Immortal Boat and had not intended to bother Lu Chen again for a while. She planned to stay outside the Tianchen World to observe this Lu Chen.

However, shortly after her return to the Immortal Boat, that peculiar sensation transmitted to her again. After reading Yun Xianxian's memories, it was clear to her why she had felt that way. Evidently, that scoundrel Lu Chen had made his move on Yun Xianxian once more.

While she was just outside the Tianchen World, this scoundrel dared to carry on in such a brazen manner with her own alternate form; it was as if he completely disregarded her, which greatly displeased Yun Qingshu.

Yun Qingshu felt the need to have a serious talk with Lu Chen, and so she used her Divine Sense to connect to Yun Xianxian's body, and took direct control.

Lu Chen didn't actually keep quiet, he continued to ask, "What brings my mother-in-law here to find me?"

Yun Qingshu said coldly, "I am Yun Xianxian's primary form. If you continue to address me in this manner, I will simply destroy Yun Xianxian's incarnation."

Hearing this, Lu Chen smiled and said, "Honored Ancestor, I understand. Then, what instructions do you have for me?"

Yun Qingshu said, "Yun Xianxian is a secondary form of mine. Whatever she does, I can sense it. Therefore, starting from today, you are forbidden to engage in acts of intimacy with her."

Lu Chen said, "But Honored Ancestor, this puts me in a difficult position. Xian'er and I are a Daoist couple, and such acts are expected between us."

Yun Qingshu's red eyes suddenly radiated a fierce glow as she said icily, "You have so many women in your harem, you don't need her."

Lu Chen said, "But Xian'er is irreplaceable."

"Honored Ancestor, there's no need for further words. Whatever needs to be done, I will still do it!"

"You!"

Yun Qingshu was momentarily choked up, then said, "Aren't you afraid that I will destroy her? After all, she is my incarnation, and all it would take is a thought for me to destroy her."

Lu Chen said, "I believe Honored Ancestor wouldn't do that. You willingly came to the Tianchen World for her; this proves that you have long stopped seeing her merely as an incarnation."

"If Honored Ancestor truly wished to destroy her, you could have done so when you sensed her losing her innocence. You wouldn't have waited until now."

Hearing Lu Chen's analysis, Yun Xianxian's expression turned extremely cold. To be honest, at first she did think of actively destroying Yun Xianxian's incarnation.

But at that time, it seemed as if a force in the Tianchen World severed the connection between her and Yun Xianxian. Even though she could sense through the link of cause and effect that Yun Xianxian was losing her chastity, she was unable to destroy Yun Xianxian's body on her own.

Only when her Divine Sense could enter Yun Xianxian's body could she easily destroy Yun Xianxian's body, as now was the case.

However, after she accessed Yun Xianxian's memories, she suddenly lost the desire to destroy that incarnation.

She discovered that Yun Xianxian had indeed become another person, just as she had initially envisioned, and was no longer simply a part of herself.

When she first created Yun Xianxian's incarnation, wasn't it to use such a means to create an existence like a child for herself? She intended for this to be more than just a simple incarnation.

Although Yun Xianxian's innocence was lost, she had grown. Furthermore, Yun Xianxian, who originally had no concept of romantic affection, actually developed these feelings after being with Lu Chen, which meant that Yun Xianxian had truly become another person.

Yun Qingshu then said, "I'm warning you, don't assume you know everything and act as if you have everything under control. Perhaps one day, when I am displeased, I will simply destroy this incarnation."

Lu Chen snorted with laughter and said, "If Honored Ancestor dares to destroy Xian'er, I will bind you and use you as a substitute for Xian'er."

As soon as these words were uttered, the chill emanating from Yun Xianxian surged wildly, but the next moment, the Spiritual Power within her body was suppressed again, and the chill dissipated instantly.

Seeing the Spiritual Power within Yun Xianxian suppressed, Yun Qingshu knew she couldn't do anything to Lu Chen, so she no longer bothered to intimidate him with such tactics. She straightforwardly asked, "Tell me, who exactly are you, and how do you know I come from the Ancient Era?"
