Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1011 It Was a Narrow Victory This Round.

"How much did you spend? You hired such a group of mercenaries! They should be Major's subordinates, right? With Elvis as your backer, you guys have indeed built up quite a number of forces for so many years."

At this moment, Nicole had no fear at all. Instead, she was quite calm.

Alison firmly stood in front of Nicole to protect her and whispered, "Mrs. Green, I will protect you. Leave me alone and take the chance to escape."

"Don't be silly. Lillian won't let me go, and I won't let you die here for me. You should know more about these people than I do. We aren't their match. Now that Ernesto hasn't come over, and there's no movement from the Dons and the Shaws. I guess Lillian has also done something to make them temporarily unable to come here."

Nicole kept looking at Lillian.

Hearing Nicole's words, Lillian's eyes lit up.

Lillian smiled and said, "Nicole, I really like you."

"Unfortunately, we can't be friends."

Nicole helped her finish her words.

"You are right. You are nice to my daughter, so I will let you die without any pain. Since you are the daughter-in-law of the Green family, then die here. Don't worry. After you die, I will have you and Samuel buried in the Green family's tomb. At this point, I am still merciful."

Lillian acted like she was mercy and said.

Alison hurriedly put on an offensive posture and protected Nicole behind her.

"I won't let you hurt Mrs. Green."

Lillian's eyes flashed with chill.

"What are you waiting for? Kill them!"

Hearing her words, the mercenaries behind her immediately headed towards Nicole and Alison.

Although Nicole knew it was difficult to escape, she didn't want to surrender. She could not stand by and watch so many people attack Alison.

Nicole quickly joined the battle, but unfortunately, her previous wound was hurt again.

The two of them fought against ten mercenaries. They didn't stand a chance. Alison was injured in a short while, but the more Alison fought, the more courageous she became, as if she wasn't afraid of the pain at all.

Nicole's back was in great pain. She could feel that the wound was bleeding, but Alison was fighting for her. She couldn't let Alison die here.

At this moment, Nicole realized that she was still far from becoming a qualified superior. Unfortunately, she did not have another chance.

Just as Nicole and Alison might not be able to resist, the sounds of car engines suddenly came.

Lillian frowned slightly.

It was Zayn!

Nicole suppressed the emotions in her eyes and answered it.

"Has Melissa boarded the plane?"

"Not yet. I heard you captured Lillian?"

Zayn was well-informed.

As soon as Nicole took control of Lillian, he had already received the news. Nicole even suspected that he had installed a monitor on her.

"Why do you want Lillian?"

Although Lillian was a little tricky for Nicole, and she didn't know what to do for the time being, Zayn's sudden request for Lillian surprised her.

Zayn didn't hide it from her and whispered, "Major is close to Santino. I heard that Lillian was the mastermind behind Pedro's murder, so I must get her. As long as she confesses, Samuel will be acquitted."

"Samuel didn't kill anyone. Without Lillian, they wouldn't convict him."

Nicole knew what Pedro meant to Zayn.

Pedro was dead. Lillian was the mastermind, so Zayn wanted to kill her. However, Nicole still defended Samuel.

Zayn paused for a moment before his tone softened.

"I'm begging you, okay? If I can't personally avenge Pedro, I won't have the mood to do anything."

Nicole sighed and said, "What are you going to do to her?"

"Don't worry. Anyway, I guarantee that you won't see Lillian anymore and she won't cause trouble anymore."

In fact, keeping Lillian was useless to Nicole. Most importantly, it was related to Petty. It wasn't appropriate for her to do anything to Lillian. It was indeed a good choice to hand Lillian over to Zayn.

"Alright."

"Thank you, Nicole."

After Zayn finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

A man stood behind Zayn. After Zayn hung up the phone, he said, "Melissa has already been handed over to the Green family. She will board the plane tonight, but Santino seems to have received news. Do you think we need to do something?"

"No need. If Samuel can't even do this, he's not qualified to be one of the Fourth young masters of the Seapolis City."

Zayn had not smiled since Pedro's death.

He was so depressed.

The man said worriedly, "But Samuel is in the police station after all, so it's a little inconvenient for him."

"Inconvenient? You underestimate him. Although Major's trip this time was a little tricky, it was not enough to trap Samuel. We can't move, or we'll be exposed. Although Santino suspects me now, he can't do anything without evidence. Tell our people to remain silent about his recent probing. Don't move and try to preserve their strength as much as possible. "

The man left.

Zayn leaned against the floor-to-ceiling window and looked at the sea in front of him. His eyes lit up slightly, as if he was thinking about something.

"Grandpa, how dare I do something illegal? Besides, how did you know I caught Lillian?"

After Nicole finished speaking, she suddenly realized that Alison was Edwin's bodyguard.

Alright, she couldn't hide it from him. She was in a difficult situation.

According to Edwin's words, he wanted her to hand Lillian over to the police, but the police might not be able to get any information from Lillian. Moreover, there were uncertainties. If she ran away, it would be difficult to catch her again in the future.

If she didn't hand her over to the police, Edwin wouldn't agree.

It was really difficult for her.

"Grandpa, can you stop worrying about these things? By the way, you haven't told me what happened to that pair of tiger-toed shoes that Grandmother left behind. Do they belong to my mother?"

Nicole hurriedly changed the topic.

Edwin was shocked suddenly.

"Why are you asking about this?"

"I'm curious. The little box is in my bedroom. No, it's in my mother's bedroom. Who else could it be if it wasn't my mother's? But if it was my mother's, why did grandmother lock it up? Besides, what is grandmother like? I rarely hear her from you."

Nicole asked several questions.

Edwin pulled a wry face.

"You've asked so many questions. Which one should I answer first?"

"Answer whichever you want."

Ashley handed the peeled apple to Edwin.

Edwin felt pleased. He felt that this apple was the sweetest among all the apples he had tasted in his life.

"You little clever girl, Zoe is really like you."

"After all, that's my daughter."

Nicole was proud.

Nicole sighed.

Things were really annoying.

She really wanted to go out with Samuel without caring about anything.

"Is Trevin here?"

"Yes, but he's in charge of Lillian. I heard from Ernesto that he was already arranging for the helicopter to send Lillian tonight."

Alison reported dutifully.

Nicole whispered, "Tell Trevin to follow the plane to Country F. Zayn has given him a few visas over there. He can bring a few people over and contact Samuel's people in Country F. Don't let anything go wrong when handing her over. No matter what, we definitely can't let Lillian be taken away halfway."

"Alright, I'm on it."

After Alison left, Nicole got up and went upstairs.

She couldn't enjoy her dinner tonight.

She changed her clothes and personally called Zayn to tell him that he'd better find someone to go with Samuel's people to pick Lillian up.

Zayn had no objection to her arrangement.

After that, Nicole planned to take a rest and pick up Melissa personally.

She would not let go of her.

At this moment, Nicole's phone rang.

She glanced at it. It was actually a video invitation from Joseph.

Nicole hurriedly tidied herself up and answered it.

"Joseph!"

"Mommy!"

Joseph was darker than before, but he looked very healthy and lively without any signs of autism.

That made Nicole very gratified.

"How is it? Where are you now? I see your face is tanned."

Nicole felt concerned.

Joseph smiled and said, "I'm in Africa with my teacher now."

"Africa?"

Nicole was instantly shocked.

"Why are you there?"

"Teacher said that the medical conditions here are limited. I want to come over to provide voluntary support. Furthermore, the illness here is complex and suitable for me to study."

At the beginning, Joseph did not like medicine so much, but now, getting used to seeing so much suffering with Morgan, he suddenly felt that studying medicine was still quite good.

"Mommy, I heard that Daddy is suffering from neuralgia, right?"

Nicole was slightly shocked.

Zoe was a little shocked at the sight of Nicole and then she quickly ran towards Nicole.

"Mommy!"

"Stand still!"

Jaylen saw that Zoe left her position and directly pulled her back. But she pulled too hard, Zoe fell down on the ground and cried.

"Mommy."

Nicole felt tortured by worry.

How could her sweet heart be treated like this?

Given a wink by Nicole, Alison directly stepped forward and kicked Jaylen to the ground.

"Nicole is the parent of the child. How dare you give yourself airs?"

Alison's kick made Jaylen topple down to the ground.

"Oh my ass!"

Jaylen howled and threatened, "How dare you kick a teacher? No wonder a parent like you would cultivate such a tough girl like Zoe."

Nicole was irritated.

"I have my own way to teach my daughter. What do you mean by forcing a child to stand in the corner?"

"If she did something wrong, she must be punished. Otherwise, she won't learn a lesson."

Jaylen stared at Nicole confidently.

Nicole felt it hilarious.

"If someone do something wrong, he or she will be punished. So, may I ask what my daughter did wrong?"

"She hit Lenand's head. Isn't this wrong?"

Nicole pulled Zoe up from the ground and said to Alison, "Did you record the video?"

"Yes."

"Take a few more photos, especially of Zoe's wet trousers and clothes. Have you taken a clear picture of her standing in the corner?"

"Yes, it's done."

Only then did Nicole whisper, "Bring Zoe some dry clothes. Whatever she does wrong, you, as a teacher, have no reason to punish a four-year-old child to stand in the corner with wet clothes."

Jaylen glanced at Zoe and said indifferently, "It's only been less than half an hour. Is it possible that Zoe has a fever?"

At this time, Zoe suddenly grabbed Nicole's hand and said, "Mommy, I feel so uncomfortable."

Nicole hurriedly touched Zoe's forehead, which was so hot.

Nicole felt so anxious with a serious expression.

"I don't know whether other kids will have a fever, but my daughter will! She had an organ transplant operation, so she's strong enough per se. If anything happens, I'll fix you!"

Chapter 1016 We'll Know After Investigation

When Samuel transferred Zoe to the kindergarten, did he mention his family background? Even if he didn't, it was strange that there were people in the Seapolis City who didn't know Samuel.

Nicole felt that this was impossible!

If the principal knew Samuel, he would certainly remind the teachers. In addition, Jaylen obviously did not have any qualities as a teacher.

Thinking of this, Nicole quickly called Ernesto.

"Investigate Jaylen in the River Kindergarten."

"Alright, Mrs. Green."

Ernesto didn't ask why. He just acted accordingly.

Before Nicole got the full picture of Zoe's condition, Alison called.

"Mrs. Green, Lenand has left the operating room with twelve stitches. There is not much danger at the moment. Luckily, there's a doctor sent from the Military Hospital. Otherwise, the quack doctor here would kill people."

Alison's words made Nicole alert.

"Which doctor? Also, the doctor from the Military Hospital has arrived?"

"Yes, Dr. Ben from the Military Hospital happened to be visiting nearby and rushed over after hearing the Director's summons. The quack doctor here said that there is congestion inside and Zoe needs craniotomy. After seeing the X-ray, Dr. Ben said that it is only a slight congestion and there is no need for craniotomy. Besides, for such a young child, craniotomy is very risky. I wonder if this doctor has a license or not."

Hearing Alison's words, Nicole narrowed her eyes.

"Investigate this doctor. Also, check if there is any relationship between the doctor and Jaylen."

"Mrs. Green, are you suspecting that Jaylen asked the doctor to do so?"

Alison asked doubtfully.

"It's hard to say. I am just guessing. We'll know after investigation."

"OK."

After hanging up the phone, Nicole put on a sullen look.

A simple incident between children had actually escalated to this. If there was really something wrong with Jaylen, things would get more complicated.

Thinking of this, Nicole quickly called Ernesto.

"Have the public relations department of the Eternal Group investigate if there are any reporters coming in or out of the M Village. Also, check if the reporters in the downtown area are on the way to there. If they are, try to stop them as much as you can."

"Stop? Do you mean to stop them by force?"

Ernesto was a little surprised.

If it had to be solved like this, the thing must be huge.

Nicole didn't want to that. But if she didn't, under the circumstances that she had no other helpers, she didn't know how to deal with this in the shortest time.

'If only Samuel is here.'

She missed Samuel again.

"Stop them by force."

Nicole sounded a little tired.

Ernesto whispered, "Mrs. Green, I have a suggestion."

"Go ahead."

Chapter 1017 It's Good to Have You Back

Nicole felt there must be something wrong with Jaylen. Anyway, she would let Jaylen pay the price.

If Jaylen was educating Zoe in a normal way, Nicole would have no objection. But the fact was that Jaylen was too harsh and meddled too much.

Nicole asked Alison to post those videos on the Internet, and asked Ernesto to draw on the company's public relations department to make it a hot search.

Just for a minute, it became a hot topic on the Internet.

Many women who had their own children couldn't bear it when they saw the video, and began to condemn it one after another. Some of them even began cyber manhunt.

It was not long before all the information about Jaylen was made public.

Jaylen was from a family of farmers for generations.

Being a farmer was not shameful but even glorious. What was shameful was that Jaylen, who was born in the countryside, denied it when she went to school and began to work. In order not to be found that she came from the countryside, she never allowed her parents to come to the city to take a look at her. She didn't even have a video call with her parents. She seldom returned home. During festivals and holidays, she usually traveled around and took lots of photos to post on her social media.

Jaylen did not find a formal job after graduating from university, but she spent money like water. She told others that she didn't care about money because her parents were rich enough. For that, no one bothered to consider whether it was true or not.

But this time, Jaylen's lie was completely exposed.

There was strength in numbers. Netizens even found evidence that Jaylen had illicit sexual relations with others.

In order to satisfy her vanity of spending money like water, Jaylen chose to be a mistress for successive three men. Once, she was caught by the wife of a man and taken out naked and got beaten. It also made the headlines in Twitter, but was finally withdrawn by someone.

As the video provoked much discussion, everything disgraceful that she had done in the past had been again exposed, and it immediately became a hot search.

Nicole realized the power of the Internet, on which the information about Jaylen was much clearer than what Ernesto had investigated.

She didn't pay any attention to the gossip, and just had a look at the men Jaylen had been with.

The three men were all from the upper class of the Seapolis City. One was famous in the construction industry, one in the tourist industry, and the third, with whom Jaylen had been recently, was from the education sector.

Giovanni!

Nicole was sure that she didn't know the man, but she wondered if Samuel had ever offended him.

Jaylen could not be hostile towards her and Zoe for no reason. She had not offended Jaylen, so what she could do was to figure out whether they had any grudge against Samuel.

Nicole sent the name "Giovanni Yate" to Ernesto.

"Focus on this man, a celebrity in the education world."

Not long after Nicole's message was sent, Ernesto replied.

"Mrs. Green, I've investigated the man. He has nothing to do with you and Mr. Green. But he has a brother abroad, whose name is Dominic."

Nicole felt familiar with this name. She narrowed her eyes and thought for a moment before she suddenly remembered it.

Dominic!

Viola's father!

Audrey's one-night stand abroad!

That was it! Everything was clear now.

Dominic loved Audrey, who had become his obsession for the rest of his life.

Audrey died when they were on the island, but Nicole came back safe and sound.

Dominic hated her for that?

Or it was Viola's instigation?

She was really a troublemaker!

Nicole was vexed.

"Is Melissa here yet?"

"Not yet."

Ernesto hurriedly answered the call from Samuel.

"What's going on?"

Samuel felt that it was not as simple as all that.

Ernesto whispered, "The plane ran into strong turbulence and couldn't get here. So it was forced to land in H city."

Samuel frowned in deep thought.

He knew that the weather was, for sure, uncontrollable. What he was afraid of was that Major would take the opportunity to make trouble.

"How's the situation on Major's end?"

"He did nothing. Major must have known that Lillian had been taken by Zayn, and he now might be in Country F working out how to save her. After all, Lillian, his aunt, is much more important than his girlfriend. What's more, Major knows well what will happen if Lillian is caught by Zane. So I don't think there's much chance that Major will hijack the plane."

Ernesto said what he thought.

However, Samuel whispered, "But that doesn't mean he won't do it. He's in H city, isn't he? Ask Fill to send someone over to check it out."

"Who is Fill?"

Ernesto was confused.

Samuel then realized that the person standing in front of him was Ernesto, not Jacob.

Ernesto was a quick learner. But he had just started working as his assistant, so he didn't know much about many things. While Jacob had fought with him on the battlefield, so he was, naturally, more aware of some personal relationships.

Now, Samuel suddenly didn't know how to explain to Ernesto who Fill was.

"Forget about it. I'll call him myself. You go ask our people to keep a close eye on Major. And I'll handle the issue here."

"Okay."

After hanging up the phone, Samuel put on a serious look.

Jacob!

Samuel thought to himself, "When will you regain consciousness? Jacob!"

Samuel sighed, picked up the phone and dialed the number he hadn't dialed in a long time.

"Boss, do you know what time it is? It's 3:30 in the morning! What's the matter with you today? Call me at this hour?"

Fill yawned and complained. Samuel put on a more serious look when he heard this.

"Don't you know I'm in jail?"

"Those people are unable to control you. You can easily escape from the international prison, not to mention that small police station. Boss, you're trying to fool me. Besides, you've escaped from prison now, haven't you?"

Fill said mischievously.

"Sure, it's the best for you. Come and hang out at SZ Club the day after tomorrow. You haven't introduced Nicole to us. Claire suggests that all of us should hang out some time."

Samuel agreed.

"Alright."

After hanging up the phone, he remembered that Nicole had personally visited Claire for Zoe.

Five years ago, he didn't introduce Nicole to his other brothers because he wasn't sure about his feelings for her. Now that they had experienced so much together, it was time to introduce Nicole to them.

Samuel put his phone aside and took a shower before returning to bed.

Thinking that he couldn't make out for half a month after tomorrow's operation, Samuel kissed Nicole again.

Nicole felt a little uncomfortable lying on her stomach. She wanted to change her posture, but Samuel's sudden kiss stopped her.

Nicole couldn't move.

Nicole pushed him, but she couldn't stop Samuel.

A new round started once again.

It was not until four in the morning that Samuel finished his business.

Nicole felt that all the bones were about to fall apart.

She looked at Samuel resentfully and said, "What happened to you today? You're crazy."

"I haven't seen you for so many days. I miss you."

Samuel felt a little guilty, but he didn't regret it.

Nicole looked at him resentfully, then directly raised her foot and kicked him.

"I'm so tired. I want to sleep. If Zoe woke up, you made breakfast for her. And the thing about Jaylen and Dominic..."

"I'm on it. I'll take care of everything. You just need to rest. Also, where do you want to go for our vacation?"

Samuel remembered very clearly that when Nicole visited him in prison, she had said that she wanted to go on a vacation with him after everything was settled.

Nicole was about to fall asleep. When she heard Samuel say this, she subconsciously said, "I don't care about our destination. I just want to be with you."

Samuel showed a faint smile.

"Then let's go to Country F."

"Whatever, I want to sleep."

Nicole turned her head to the side and fell asleep.

Samuel looked at her with affection.

If she was too tired to get up tomorrow, how could he do the surgery?

He shook his head, lifted the blanket and then went to the bathroom to get a basin of hot water. After wiping Nicole's body with a hot towel, he put on a clean set of pajamas for her before taking a shower, and then went to the study.

When he returned, he heard about what happened to Zoe. He thought that Nicole handled it very well. The rest could be handled by government authorities.

Chapter 1020 My Wife Must Be Safe and Sound

Samuel took a warm shower and lay down beside Nicole.

Nicole had a good sleep and didn't get up until 11 am. Perhaps it was because she felt relieved at Samuel's return, or because she was too tired.

Looking at the clock, Nicole thought that her eyes were deceiving herself, or that the clock was broken.

The hunger forced her to get up.

On the bedside table were loose-fitting pajamas, and there was a pair of thick slippers on the ground.

Was Samuel serious? He treated her as a woman who needed to be babysitted.

Unwilling though, Nicole put on the slippers and went downstairs.

"Mommy, you finally get up! You sleepyhead!"

Zoe sat on the sofa and played with the toys that Samuel had bought for her, with some snacks by the side.

Nicole blushed at Zoe's words.

"Where's your daddy?"

"Daddy went out for grocery shopping. He said he would cook coke chicken wings for me."

Zoe's eyes lit up when she talked about food.

"You little foodie! Is the fever gone?"

Nicole touched her forehead and breathed a sigh of relief when she found everything was alright.

"I feel well. Mommy, when did Daddy come back?"

"Last night."

Nicole touched Zoe's head and poured herself a glass of water.

Zoe pouted and said, "What if Daddy had come back earlier. I wouldn't have been bullied by Miss Jaylen."

Nicole felt a little sad.

"Mommy and Daddy will take you to kindergarten later. Do you want to go to another kindergarten?"

"Mommy, can I stay away from kindergarten? I don't like it at all."

Zoe said with disgust.

Nicole knew that it hurt Zoe.

She didn't know how to talk about it with a child.

"Baby, we all have to work on our own stuff. Daddy needs to earn money. Mommy needs to manage the company. Your brother needs to study. Naturally, you also need to go to kindergarten."

"But I can have a tutor."

Nicole felt somewhat overwhelmed by Zoe's resistance against socializing.
