Chapter 1081 What a Girl!

Nicole really didn't want to think of Trevin that way, but now that everything was clear, she couldn't even ignore it.

Trevin was very regretful. He lowered his head and bit his lower lip. "I know that you have been nice to me, as well as my sister. It would be good if things could continue like this. But why did everything change? Why?"

"I think you already have your answer. Trevin, I didn't do anything bad to you or Maia. I used to take her as my best friend, and I even wanted her to be my cousin-in-law."

Trevin's head was even lower. No one could see his expression.

He didn't say anything, and Nicole wasn't in a hurry either and she just sat down, looking at Trevin.

Nicole looked at the boy in front of her. She had promised Maia to be nice with Trevin, so she had sent him to Night Elf Empire to get trained. She even let him take charge of a group of people now. But she hesitated anyway.

Though she had known that the better he was trained to be, the more he would be able to find out the cause of Maia's death.

Actually, Maia's death had nothing to do with Nicole, but Trevin wanted to blame it on her anyway and she could do nothing about it.

Nicole suddenly felt a little depressed.

If he didn't thank her for her kindness, what was she doing here?

She didn't owe Maia, let alone Trevin.

Now that Trevin had betrayed her, why would she be so sad?

Nicole smiled bitterly and somewhat coldly.

"Now, tell me your decision. You should know the rules of Night Elf Empire."

Trevin raised his head in surprise to look at Nicole.

"You want to punish me with the family law?"

"Shouldn't I? No matter how you entered Night Elf Empire, now that you have betrayed me, neither I nor Night Elf Empire can keep you. Trevin, you chose this path yourself."

Nicole had nothing to say to him.

She just wanted to go back and accompany Samuel.

Samuel was the most important person in her life.

Thinking of this, Nicole stood up and was about to leave.

"Wait."

Trevin suddenly stopped her.

Nicole turned back. The way she looked at Trevin was no longer as sad as before.

She looked calm. Trevin couldn't read her emotions clearly, but he was really afraid now.

"Are you really going to punish me?"

"If that's your question, then it's nonsense. Trevin, I've given you the chance."

"Don't you want to know how I got the ancient book? How did Fill get it then? Also, now that Fill has been kidnapped, aren't you worried about him?"

Nicole suddenly laughed out.

She said indifferently, "I don't care about the progress. All I care about is the result. After all, I'm not interested in what happened in the Harper Town. Fill is my husband's friend, not mine, so it's not my business to worry about him. Moreover, he had been through so many difficulties and that was enough to show his great abilities. Even if some trouble appears, I think he will handle it properly. So why should I be worried?"

Listening to Nicole's explanation, Trevin was dissatisfied.

Chapter 1082 The Person You Love the Most Is Yourself

At that time, she was trafficked abroad. She was unfamiliar with the place and imprisoned. It was Finn who saved her and cared much about her.

He treated her as a friend, a close friend.

If it weren't for Finn's betrayal, perhaps the two of them would still be best friends. It was a pity that things end up like this.

Laurel had adopted him and nurtured him since he was young. To him, Laurel was both a teacher and a mother.

He had no choice.

After what Finn had done, she had nothing to be guilty about. What else could she complain about?

In a few seconds, Nicole had thought of too many things in her mind.

Finn couldn't help but feel a little excited when he saw Nicole walking over.

"Owner, I..."

"Are your legs better?"

Nicole's voice carried a trace of concern, causing Finn to instantly burst into tears.

Although Nicole had said that she had forgiven him the last time they surrounded Laurel, Finn always felt that it was unreal. Now that he followed her here, he was still afraid that Nicole would be indifferent to him. He did not expect that she would speak to him.

"Much better. It doesn't hurt much anymore."

Finn's words caused Nicole to frown slightly.

"It's not a good thing that it doesn't hurt. I'll have someone ask about your condition later and see if there's any possibility of recovering."

Nicole whispered.

Finn bit his lower lip and almost cried.

"It's fine. I'm cool with it."

"What do you mean by cool? You're not married yet. How can you find a girlfriend like this? I still remember how you looked when you were in America. Anyway, put yourself together first."

Hearing Nicole's words, Finn instantly choked up.

"Alright."

"Find a place to sit for a while. I'll deal with the matter and talk to you later."

Nicole patted Finn on the shoulder and asked Jacob, "Which room is Petty in?"

However, Nicole was not in a hurry to refute her. Instead, she looked at her coldly. Being looked at like this, Petty felt extremely awkward, as if she had been stripped naked.

"You have no right to say that. You only have your eyes on my brother's wealth and the nobility of the Green family. If Samuel doesn't have anything, will you marry him?"

Petty shouted, her face getting twisted and ferocious.

"I will."

A trace of sympathy flashed through Nicole's eyes.

"Although my family is not as rich as the Green's, we are not just an ordinary well-off family, and I have been married to love from the beginning to end. Whether Samuel has money or not, it will end up the same. I won't abandon him because of this shitty matter in the Green family, and I won't even abandon him when he needs care the most. Petty, you know how much Zac needs you now, and what's your choice?"

Nicole's words were like a sharp blade, stabbing into Petty's heart.

Since it was seen through, then there was no need to pretend.

Petty's face went gloomy as she looked at Nicole coldly and said, "What can you do to me? We are not in the Seapolis City, and the Green family and Don family have no influence here. Can you detain me? Believe it or not, as long as I make a phone call, my cousin will bring someone here to destroy you. If you die, Samuel will collapse. At that time, my cousin will go to the front and the Green's family will be at our control. And I can take revenge for my mother. "

"You're finally done pretending, aren't you? You're finally willing to face the most selfish ego inside of you, aren't you?"

Nicole sneered, "Petty, what if you could have been acting like a young miss of the Green's family, you'll have a good life. You have a man like Zac loving you and a baby in your belly being with you. You could have such a happy family. Why do you have to choose this path of no return?"

"The path of no return in your mouth is exactly what I want."

Petty didn't want to talk nonsense with Nicole anymore.

She suddenly took out an AK47 from her pocket and pointed it at Nicole. Unfortunately, she underestimated Nicole's agility, and also missed the fact that she was currently pregnant.

Her gun was kicked away, making a crisp sound.

At the same time, Jacob and the others broke through the door and immediately controlled Petty.

Petty simply couldn't believe that she was totally defeated only in one round. She looked at Jacob who suddenly appeared and asked in surprise, "Why are you here? Aren't you supposed to be in Bordeaux?"

"Mr. Green heard that you showed up here yesterday. He transferred me here overnight. Petty, you are such a disappointment!"

A trace of ruthlessness flashed through Jacob's eyes.

If she weren't Samuel's younger sister, he really wished he could tear her into pieces.

Only then did Petty come to aware something.

Since Nicole was here, Samuel was definitely here, but now, she could not see him, which only meant that Samuel did not want to face her, or did not even want to see her again.

Petty suddenly felt a little timid.

"Where's my brother? I want to see my brother!"

"Don't even think about it. I won't let you see him again for your lifetime. Apart from provoking him and making him feel uncomfortable, your existence has no other use."

Nicole looked down at Petty and said coldly, "Lock her up. I heard that there is an international prison here. No one can escape from there, as long as they've got paid enough money. Lock her up there. When the child is born, give it to Zac."

Chapter 1084 I Want Samuel to Be with Me for the Rest of My Life

This was the first time Petty felt that Nicole was too cruel.

This woman used to be so kind to her. How could she be so mean and heartless now?

"Nicole, you were pretending to be nice to me before, weren't you? After all, my mother killed your parents, so you hated me, right? But in front of my brother, you still have to pretend to be very kind to me. How hypocritical you are!"

Petty felt that she had to say something bad to Nicole, otherwise she would really go crazy.

But Nicole smiled and said, "At this time, I don't care what you think. Being kind to you is really stupid."

After she finished speaking, she directly stuffed the towel into Petty's mouth, feeling that the whole world was quiet.

Petty was still struggling. Nicole sat back in her chair. She took out her phone and started to play with it.

Today was Christmas, how would she spend it with Samuel?

She should not let these people ruin their Christmas.

Nicole looked at the holiday discount in the shops nearby. She couldn't help but look one by one.

Half an hour passed quickly.

Suddenly, with a loud sound, Nicole felt the entire ground tremble.

"What's going on?"

Nicole hurriedly stood up.

When Jacob walked in and saw that Nicole was fine, he said, "I don't know what happened. It seems to be an explosion. It's not far from here. Something must have happened in Country F."

Nicole was stunned for a moment.

Country F?

Did Sally do that?

Before she could react, Sally called immediately.

"It's done."

"Thank you."

Nicole hung up the phone and a smile appeared on her face.

It was really simple and effective!

This Sally was really getting more and more likeable.

Nicole asked Jacob to take Petty away.

Jacob said worriedly, "Along the way..."

"Don't worry, Major is not coming for her."

Nicole's words caused Jacob to be slightly stunned, but he still nodded and walked out.

As soon as he walked out, Finn whispered, "Owner, Jacob, I just received news that Santino's house in Country F was blown up and his arsenal was also blown up. Now that the entire Country F is under martial law. Major has been sent to search for the rioters. He probably doesn't have time to save Petty."

Nicole smiled and nodded.

Petty was stunned.

How could this happen?

What a coincidence!

She suddenly turned her head to look at Nicole. Seeing Nicole's faint smile, she became desperate.

"I don't know, but you'd better get up and get dressed in case something happens"

After all, they were not in Samuel's territory now. Especially since Sally did so many shocking things in Country F, they didn't want to get into trouble.

Nicole instantly woke up.

They quickly got dressed.

Jacob knocked on the door from outside.

"Mr. Green."

"Come in."

Samuel said in a husky whisper.

Walking into the room, Jacob saw that Nicole and Samuel were dressed. Jacob said, "Santino is on the way to us. I have heard that he is looking for a rioter. This small town is located on the border, not ruled by Country F, so there is an area outside the jurisdiction, but we can't stop Santino from coming to investigate. Triston told me to ask that if you want to leave this place. If you want to leave, Triston will escort you."

Nicole didn't want to deal with the people from Country F yet. So, when hearing Jacob's words, she hurriedly said, "We'd better get out of here. After all, it's not our territory. We can't explain ourselves if we do something wrong."

"OK."

Since Nicole wanted to leave, Samuel certainly would follow.

Jacob quickly left to get ready.

"I'm sorry that you didn't have a good Christmas."

Samuel was a little depressed.

He was planning to enjoy this date with Nicole but didn't expect so much to happen.

But Nicole smiled, "It doesn't matter, I think this is the happiest Christmas I've had in years."

"Really? Are you kidding me? "

Samuel's eyes were filled with excitement.

Nicole felt that this man was so adorable.

He used to be so focused on his work that he could never remember to celebrate Christmas with her. After eight years of marriage, she felt the feeling of the first love and the first marriage for the first time.

So, it was not bad to experience more things together. At least, this would turn life in the direction that you want, and it was good, wasn't it?

"Really!"

Nicole took him in her arms and kissed him on the lips.

Samuel suddenly tightened his arms and held her in his arms. He said in a husky voice, "I asked Blair yesterday and he told me that I can make love to you in a couple of days. So, I really hope that you will still flirt with me like this."

Nicole was instantly stunned.

'What?'

'So soon?'

Nicole was nervous immediately when she saw that his eyes were burning with passion.

"No, no, no. I think we need to discuss it."

"Well."

Samuel's voice was flippant. Nicole felt more nervous.

"Lillian targeted Pedro all the time, didn't she?"

"No, Blair told me that Lillian and Major's first target was Zayn. Major worked for Santino Freeman. Although Zayn was not interested in competing for power, he had recently appeared in the media because he was too close to you. When Santino knew your background, he was afraid that Zayn would become competitive, so he decided to target Zayn first. I just didn't expect Pedro would attend the appointment on behalf of Zayn, and he made Zayn faint. "

After hearing Samuel's words, Nicole was shocked.

Nicole didn't have a deep impression of Pedro, and she could not even remember what he looked like. Now that she heard Samuel's words, Nicole felt that Pedro was affectionate and loyal to Zayn.

"I think Pedro and Zayn were in deep love with each other, right?"

"Yes, royal family is ruthless. When Zayn was a boy, he was almost poisoned to death. For other princes, their mothers could help them, but Zayn had nobody. Besides, it seemed that the president also didn't like him. If he wanted to live, he had to make more efforts and bear more pains than others. When he finally reached adulthood, he didn't want to live, so he chose to leave. He would rather live in the slums than in the Prince Palace. Fortunately, he met Pedro in the slums."

Samuel told her what he had investigated.

"In Zayn's adolescence, Pedro accompanied him all the time. They left Country F and went to City B together. At first, they were unknown. But now, they became big shots in showbiz. The public could see Zayn's brilliance, but they didn't know the hardships that Pedro and Zayn had suffered. Pedro was not only Zayn's friend but also his lover. Pedro played the most important role in Zayn's life, but he died for Zayn in the end. Therefore, it was normal that Zayn had changed."

Hearing Samuel's words, Nicole felt a twinge of sympathy for Zayn.

"Since he reached adulthood and left Country F, why didn't he come to find me?"

When Samuel heard Nicole's question, he couldn't help but laugh. "What was your identity at that time? You were just the daughter of the Bush family. Although the Bush family was a scholarly family in the Seapolis City, it was useless for Zayn. Besides, Zayn didn't know that you were the granddaughter of the Shaws at that time. In other words, he had nothing to do with you, so why did he come to find you?"

"That's right. I forgot it."

Nicole said with a faint smile.

"By the way, how about Mr. and Mrs. Bush now?"

Nicole did not intentionally inquire about Mr. and Mrs. Bush but asked casually.

Seeing that there was no sadness in her eyes, Samuel whispered, "Melissa had renal failure, but she did not find an appropriate kidney donor in time, so she died not long after. I heard that Mr. and Mrs. Bush even didn't take their daughter's corpse from the hospital. The hospital asked them to identify her corpse, but these two old guys were keeping silent. They even said that Melissa was not their daughter and they didn't care about her."

When Samuel said that, he snorted coldly and disdainfully.

Nicole also sighed.

When Mr. and Mrs. Bush thought that Melissa was their daughter, they were willing to spend all their wealth for her. Because of Melissa, they even didn't care about Nicole, who had lived with them for more than 20 years. Furthermore, they even wanted to take everything from Nicole to make up for Melissa.

However, when they knew the truth that Melissa had nothing to do with them, the two of them suddenly became so heartless.

Even if someone had a pet, he would bury it when it died, not to mention a person, who used to be the closest family.

Nicole shook her head and sighed. "What about Melissa's corpse?"

"Mr. and Mrs. Bush refused to take it, so the hospital had no choice but to find the local police to deal with it. But this matter was also not under the control of the police station. In the end, the police officers paid for the cremation. I don't know where the bone ashes were scattered."

Samuel said indifferently.

Melissa deserved it.

Different people chose different ways. Since she had chosen this way, she should know that this way would not lead to a happy ending.

Nicole did not expect that Melissa would end up like this. She did not expect that Melissa would die so miserably.

Chapter 1087 I Just Want to Get This Straight Here.

Samuel subconsciously hugged Nicole tightly.

Morgan also frowned.

She slowed down and looked at the flickering lights in front of her. She didn't know what she was thinking.

The barricades were right in front of them. All of a sudden, a siren went off in the distance.

"Someone has got rioters and they are calling for back up."

Then the person in front of them quickly ran to another place.

Samuel and Morgan were relieved for a second. Morgan even stepped on the accelerator and directly broke through the barricades.

They could be safe and sound after leaving Country F.

Morgan immediately sent them beyond the border, and there was already a helicopter waiting for them.

Samuel saw Sally from afar.

He frowned slightly, but he didn't say anything.

Nicole was still asleep.

Sally looked at Nicole who was held in Samuel's arms and smiled kindly, "It's cold. I bought her a coat. You could put it on her later. After all, it doesn't look good if we put a quilt on her."

"Thank you."

Samuel's appreciation meant something else.

Sally knew what Samuel was talking about, but she did not say anything. Instead, she took out an old pocket watch and gave it to Samuel. She whispered, "New Year is around the corner. You can give this to my father for me."

"This is..."

"This watch is something left by my mom."

Sally looked sad.

"My mom gave it to Martha before she died, hoping that she would keep it as an emotional attachment. However, that woman finally failed my mom. She found her biological father and planned to set us up for a long time. It is said that this pocket watch was given by my father to my mother as a wedding gift back then. I used to make great efforts to find this pocket watch for a long time. I hope to personally give it to my father, but I am ready yet and I don't know if my father could have a chance to know that I am his daughter. Therefore, I hope that you can give it to my father on my behalf and tell him that I am still alive."

Samuel frowned slightly.

Samuel could just back off. Nobody knew anything about Sally's identity and intention. Samuel did not know what Edwin would say after he returned this pocket watch.

Just as Samuel Edwin was hesitating, Nicole opened her eyes.

"This pocket watch was left by grandma? My grandpa gave it to her as a wedding gift?"

Sally and Samuel seemed to have never expected Nicole to wake up at this moment and they were stunned.

Samuel subconsciously asked, "Is it cold?"

"No, it's not cold."

"What's the matter?"

Noticing the change of Nicole's expression, Samuel couldn't help but ask.

"Oh, nothing. It is just some private things between women."

Nicole hurriedly said.

Such an answer prevented Samuel from asking further questions.

"I'll go and see if there are any great restaurants nearby. You two ladies can enjoy your shopping."

After this, Samuel left.

As soon as he left, Nicole's expression instantly went ugly.

"Are you telling the truth?"

"You think I'll lie to you? I overheard it. I don't know what Tim is going to handle this matter, but I'm afraid that he won't be able to get over this easily. You know, all these years, except you, he cares about her the most."

Evelyn's words made Nicole's expression even uglier.

Martha called Tim!

This was what Evelyn had just told her.

Martha!

Back then, in order to make her father abroad appear, they deliberately released Martha. However, unexpectedly, she took advantage of that opportunity and escaped.

Now she was still a fugitive. She actually dared to call Tim!

What did she intend to do?

Tim was about to get married. Did she come back to cause trouble and ruin Tim's happiness?

Nicole kept thinking about these questions in her mind, and she looked rather gloomy.

Tim always held a mixed feeling towards Martha. For so many years, he had thought his father drove Martha crazy. But it turned out it was Martha who used everyone. Would Tim forgive Martha?

Nicole didn't know. But she somehow felt uneasy.

"I'll talk to him later."

Chapter 1089 Can Martha Give It a Rest During the New Year?

When Nicole looked up, she saw Evelyn was standing there like a statue.

After saying a few words to Samuel, Nicole made her way Evelyn's side.

"What's wrong? Didn't you say you wanted to go to the bathroom? Why are you standing here?"

Hearing this, Evelyn calmed down, but her expression ugly.

"I saw Tim."

Evelyn thought she needn't hide it from Nicole, and she also hoped that Nicole could help her.

In Evelyn's mind, she was a bit aggressive and she was the one who made the first move and chased after Tim, but there were still some things that she couldn't get over.

Nicole also frowned.

What was Tim doing here?

She remembered that Martha had made a phone call to Tim.

Did he come here to see Martha?

A cold look passed over Nicole's face.

If Tim couldn't distinguish right from wrong, she would kick his ass.

"Wait a moment."

Nicole walked back to Samuel and whispered, "Can we move to the private room next to Room 202?"

Although Samuel did not know what happened, considering Nicole's words and Evelyn's bad mood, he thought for a moment and said, "I'll give it a try."

"Alright."

Nicole knew that Samuel was powerful enough to change the private room.

As she expected, within a few minutes, Samuel said it was done.

Therefore, they went to the private room next door.

As soon as they sat down, they heard Tim's cold voice.

"Is there anything you have to say in person?"

"Tim, I heard that you had an accident. How was it? Are you feeling better?"

Hearing Martha's voice, both Nicole and Samuel got shocked and trembled.

It was really Martha!

Samuel's expression darkened.

Nicole gestured for him to calm down.

Evelyn clenched her hands and looked very nervous.

Tim always had Martha in his heart, so when he was devastated and traveled abroad, he might well want to encounter Martha.

"That's good. I'm afraid that because of Viola, you and Mike will be estranged."

"How could that be? Mike won't do that to me."

When Samuel heard that Nicole was worried about this, he couldn't help but laugh.

After getting in the car, they left the airport and went to a nearby restaurant to eat something.

Nicole rested well, but Samuel's eyes had dark circles.

This trip was truly threatening but not dangerous, and it also made them exhausted.

"You should go back and rest. Morgan said she wanted to look at the ancient book. What do you think?"

Samuel pondered for a moment and said, "It's ok, I'll let Jacob give a copy to Blair first. Although it's from the Harper Town, since Zama gave Lucas the ring, Lucas has the right to control this ancient book. I think they are both medical students. If I show it to the Hawks, they might have some ideas."

"That's what I meant."

After Nicole and Samuel returned, Jacob went to do this.

Morgan was still in Country F and hadn't rushed back now, so there was still some time for making a copy of the ancient book.

They returned to the Green's. Samuel took a shower and went straight to sleep.

Nicole couldn't sleep. Seeing that Joseph and Lucas were not at home, she couldn't help but feel a little puzzled.

"Wendy, where are the children?"

"Young Master Joseph and Young Master Lucas said they wanted to go out to play. They didn't let anyone follow them. I don't know where they are. Miss Zoe is at the Don's."

"Oh, alright."

Nicole shrugged her shoulders. She felt that it was a bit unreasonable for her to not buy any gifts for the children when she went out.

She took advantage of Samuel's rest to drive to the mall.

When she arrived at the children's area, Nicole looked again and again. These ordinary toys were simply not challenging for Lucas. It was better to buy clothes.

Nicole bought a set of clothes for each of the children, then bought some desserts and came back.

Lucas and Joseph hadn't returned yet, and Nicole didn't urge them.

She turned on her computer and made a video call to Daisy.

"Daisy, how is Rebecca?"

Daisy did not expect Nicole to give her a video call at this time. She hurriedly said, "It's already been handled. She's filming now. However, because of the impact of this incident, female leading role has changed to female supporting role."

"Let's do it first. We should look after it lately. I'm afraid that other companies will stumble on us."

"Alright."

Nicole pondered for a moment and asked, "Oh right, when will Olivia's album be released?"

"Soon, but what I mean is to find a famous young actor to match with Olivia and shoot an MV first. In this way, not only will give Olivia more popularity, but it will also increase the influence of the album. What do you think, Ms. Bush?"

Daisy's suggestion was naturally good.

Nicole had also thought of this question before, but Rebecca's matter made it difficult for the company to arrange appointments.

Now that Rebecca's matter was settled, it became possible for her to sign a contract with a young actor. Who would she choose at the critical moment?

"You have a suitable candidate?"

Nicole's words made Daisy shake her head.

"Originally, I wanted Zayn to match with Olivia, but recently I heard that he was half-retired, so I turned to the M Band's lead singer, Robert. But this guy's not easy for us to invite. The M Band has been very popular lately, and Robert is so dazzling that people are jealous. We are just a small company. I tried to contact their manager yesterday, but I didn't even get an appointment."

Daisy was really indignant.
