Chapter 111: Lucas Bush was missing

Obviously, no one can answer Jason Don's question now.

Samuel Green now realized Jason Don was here and nodded at him and said, "Master Don, I heard that you mobilized all the power to help me find my son. I'm very grateful for you."

The phrase "my son" puzzled Jason Don again.

"It's Mrs. Bu..."

"My Samuel Green's son! Lucas Bush! He follows his mother's surname."

Samuel Green's explanation made Jason Don suddenly realize that the relationship between Nicole Bush and Samuel Green was not what they seem to be. They must have known each other for a short period of ten or twenty days.

It turned out that they even have children. No wonder they have such feelings.

"I will try my best. If there is any news, please inform each other."

Jason Don no longer delayed, pushing the wheelchair away.

Samuel Green and Nicole Bush did not dare to delay, and quickly began to search for the location of Lucas Bush.

Nicole Bush was a little worried about Samuel Green's health, but Samuel Green insisted, "From childhood to now, from his birth till now, I've never conducted the responsibility as a father, and now the reason why he ran away is me. If something happened to him, how can I not be guilty for you? How can I be guilty for him? Don't try to stop me because of physical condition. If Lucas is gone, what's the point of living?"

Samuel Green is calmer than Nicole Bush.

He thought Lucas Bush is still small and weak, so he would not run too far, and he must be still near the hospital.

"Conveniently, searched the entire military hospital, and you, go to the monitoring room with me. Let's see if we can find clues on the monitoring."

Hearing Samuel Green's words, and Nicole Bush was a little calmer and came to realize what she should do.

Knowing that Lucas Bush was gone, she felt that her world had collapsed. If anyone asked her to analyze the situation like a genius, she couldn't do it at all.

The bodyguard began to search every corner of the military hospital, inch by inch, and Nicole Bush followed Samuel Green to the surveillance room.

Because Samuel Green's special status, when the hospital's director knew that the Green Family's young master was gone, he is very cooperative and ask his men to sort out the surveillance video so that Samuel Green can check out and investigate the video.

Pieces of video was picked out.

Samuel Green and Nicole Bush's eyes were staring straight at the video, constantly looking for Lucas Bush, but no matter which direction, Lucas Bush did not appear.

Suddenly Nicole Bush pointed to a picture and said, "Look, Lucas was hiding in the hallway door just after leaving the ward."

Samuel Green quickly looked at that screen.

The image is not very clear, but they can see that Lucas Bush was particularly wronged hiding in the doorway of the hallway, constantly looking in the direction of the ward, with disappointment hidden in his eyes. He finally turned and ran towards the backyard.

Chapter 112: Someone intentionally ruined the monitoring

Nicole Bush doesn't have time to explain Zoe to Samuel Green now. When Samuel Green talks about Lucas Bush, her eyes were red again.

Perhaps he was aware of some problems with his tone, Samuel Green scolded himself for being so ridiculous, and he gently held Nicole Bush's hand and said, "Relax, our son will be fine."

At this point, Nicole Bush has clearly realized that all of this was designed by someone, and she can only blame that she didn't guard against this sooner, but instead let her son fall into such danger.

"Let's go to the monitoring room and check it again?"

"OK."

Nicole Bush clam herself down and knew that it was not the sad moment. It was most important to find Lucas Bush as soon as possible.

The two returned to the monitoring room again.

The dean was still in the surveillance room. Following the instructions of Samuel Green, the video of Lucas Bush in the backyard was found, but it was sad to find that there was a blank period of five minutes.

The dean was a little embarrassed, and Samuel Green was a little angry.

Nicole Bush said before Samuel Green got angry, "Someone deliberately broke the surveillance."

"Correct."

Jacob Brown called at this time.

"Master Green, I found it. Someone came across the woman who made that call in the game room, and it a coincident that the woman met a young man. The two of them quarreled a bit, and the woman went away after scolding to make the phone call. The phone call happened to be heard by the young man, and now this young man is beside me."

"Bring him over now!"

Samuel Green's voice was terrible cold.

Nicole Bush knew there was a new clue.

They quickly went to the reception room.

The young man was swearing when he was brought in. He was just a 17- or 18-year-old child, and he looked rebellious.

He was a bit angry that Jacob Brown had brought him in, but suddenly he was quiet when he saw Samuel Green.

It is estimated that few people in the entire Seapolis City who don't know Samuel Green. Being taken here by Samuel Green, and the young people are somewhat worried.

“Master Green, I didn't do anything, really!”

Although he don't know what happened, Samuel Green's furious atmosphere made everyone feel uneasy.

Nicole Bush actually wanted to ask about Lucas Bush, but now she didn't say anything, just quietly waiting for Samuel Green to ask.

She believes that Samuel Green feels the same way when it comes to Lucas Bush.

Chapter 113: If it was her, I would never condone

To offend someone, after Nicole Bush returned, Nicole Bush seems to have only had contact with a woman, and that woman is obviously Riley George!

Although he was somewhat reluctant to believe that this might be related to Riley George, Samuel Green said to Jacob Brown on the side, “Go and find out, where was Riley George when Lucas disappeared? Also, during this time Riley George returned to the George family, what has the family done, what her mother Swift Jerry is doing, I want detailed information.”

Nicole Bush heard Samuel Green say this, her eyes widened suddenly.

“Are you Saying that all this has to do with Riley George?”

“I'm just guessing, I hope it's not her.”

Samuel Green's words made Nicole Bush somewhat uncomfortable.

“What if she is?”

She recalled the decision Samuel Green made about her and Riley George five years ago and immediately asked.

Nicole Bush's question is a bit sharp.

Samuel Green looked at her and suddenly felt distressed.

She understands her uneasiness and her worries.

“If it were her, I would not let her go. Nicole, although she is the mother of Joseph Green and the lover of my younger brother, in many cases, I would not punish her for what she did for my brother's sake, but this won't happened now! Lucas is our son, I won't let anyone touch him, even Riley George! The person I am guilty to is the Vincent, and I take care of Riley George because of the Vincent. If Riley George is not sure about her position and did something to Lucas, I will definitely deal with her seriously.”

Samuel Green said clearly, firmly, that protective eyes suddenly broke away from Nicole Bush's psychological haze.

“Samuel, I'm scared! I'm really scared!”

Nicole Bush rushed into his arms

She can believe him, right?

After all, Lucas Bush is a child of them.

Samuel Green hugged Nicole Bush tightly.

He never felt that he had such a powerless day, but now he feels at a loss.

He was the god of the Seapolis City, the master of the Seapolis City, but he lost his son when he was on his own territory.

At this point, Samuel Green cannot forgive himself.

Jacob Brown's investigation soon came out.

“Master Green, Riley George have been reflecting on their home early in the past few days. She has been to a beauty salon to make up her faces during this time, and she haven't gone out anymore. I ‘ve checked it. The beauty salon is the one she always likes to go to. Nothing special, everything is normal.”

Chapter 114: He is my world

Lucas Bush's small body was trembling with cold, but he lay there motionlessly and waited.

He didn't know who kidnapped him, whether he or she was fierce or not, and he didn't know where it was. He could only pretend dizzy with his eyes closed.

Time passed minutes by minutes, but no one came in. The cold and hungry make Lucas Bush can't help but fall asleep again.

Time is also a painful process for Nicole Bush and Samuel Green.

They were intensively investigating while waiting for the phone to ring, hoping that it was just a kidnapping for extortion, but one night has passed, there was no clues on the phone, and the investigation outside was like a rock sinking into the sea, no news came. As for George and Swift Jerry, the Green Family has not relaxed their vigilance on them, but unfortunately they did not go out at all, there is no clue.

Nicole Bush's uneasiness reached the peak.

“No, I can't wait any longer. I have to go out and try, even in every corner, I have to find him myself!”

Nicole Bush ran out like crazy.

Sleepless all night, her eyes were scarlet, and her face was pale and scary.

Samuel Green hugged her.

“Nicole, it's no use for you to search like a headless fly!”

“I have to go and find even if it's useless. Samuel Green, you're not a mother, you don't know how I feel in my heart. Lucas was born after I risk my life, he is my world. Even if I can't find him, At least I 'm looking for him on the road. I always feel that I'm guilty to wait at home, I'm sorry for the child. If anything really happen to Lucas, I won't live.”

All of Nicole Bush's strength collapsed completely at this moment.

One afternoon and one night passed. Twelve hours had passed, but Lucas Bush had no news at all. What does this mean? Not only Nicole Bush, but Samuel Green is also very clear.

The chance to find Lucas Bush has greatly reduced.

If he is out of the Seapolis City, the world is so big outside, where should he go to find his son?

He hasn't seen his children for five years, and he just saw his son. Now he is missing in front of him. Samuel Green is even more uncomfortable. But when he sees Nicole Bush, he blames himself even more.

“I'm going out with you!”

Samuel Green's decision shocked Jacob Brown.

“Master Green, no! You are the God of the Seapolis City. If you go out and find it yourself, the Seapolis City will be messed up!”

“If the city messes up, then let it mess up. I'm not a Master Green, nor the sky of the Seapolis City. I'm just a father! A father who has lost his son and just wants to retrieve his son! Notify all the media, just say the young master of the Green family is missing. Send the Lucas photos and tell everyone, who provided the news and clues, the Green Family will be grateful. But if someone touches someone belongs to the Green Family, even if the Green Family is deemed to end, I will let that person pay the price!”

Chapter 115: The Beauty Salon Has Problems

Samuel Green was a little stunned when he heard that Nicole Bush was going to the beauty salon.

Shouldn't they search Lucas Bush at this time?

Not long ago, Nicole Bush was so eager to find her son, why is she suddenly going to the beauty salon now?

But his doubts lasted only one second and he understood.

He used to think that women going to beauty salons is right and reasonable, and there is nothing to explore, and because men were forbidden to get inside the beauty salons, Samuel Green never thinks about it in other ways. Seeing the light in Nicole Bush's eyes now, he suddenly understood.

"Do you think there is a problem with the beauty salon?"

"I just want to go and check that out. Since that the entire Seapolis City was almost turned down by you and Jason Don, but there is still no news of Lucas. From the disappearance of Lucas to the present, we have been in full control of all access channels, I don't believe there are people who dare to confront you and Jason Don at the same time and took Lucas out of the Seapolis City.

The only explanation is that Lucas is still in the Seapolis City, but he was hidden in a corner. Now We have searched everywhere, but this kind of beauty salon, we have not searched it yet. Moreover, Riley George just came to the beauty salon not long ago? Let Jacob Brown check the time Riley George left the beauty salon and the time Lucas was kidnapped. Maybe this two time will perfectly matched. I don't easily doubt a person, but I have to figure it out. If it is really she who did this to my son, I will never let her go!"

Nicole Bush's speculation is well-founded and well-organized, as if all her sensibility was restored overnight.

Her son is still waiting for her to save, she can't mess up with herself.

If there is no target to doubt, she will keep be unreasonable, now that Riley George is the most suspected one, Nicole Bush will never let this suspicion go.

After listening to Nicole Bush, Samuel Green also thought this theory made sense and quickly asked Jacob Brown to check the time when Riley George left the beauty salon last time. It is shocking to find that the time when Lucas Bush disappeared and the time she left the salons was only three hours away.

Nicole Bush was a little excited when she heard this reply.

"I'm going to pretend to go to that beauty salon to make a face. You and Jacob Brown don't need to go in. I will notify you if anything happens."

Samuel Green took Nicole Bush's hand tightly and said, "Lucas is gone. I am just as anxious as you. I also know that you especially want to find Lucas, but you have to promise me that you must protect yourself first. If you are in a situation that you can do nothing, don't be reckless, come out first, we will work together. Nicole, I have lost you once, and I don't want to lose you again, because I don't know whether I have the courage to survive if I lose you this time."

Nicole Bush looked at the tears in Samuel Green's eyes and nodded.

"Relax, I will come back with my son."

Nicole Bush smiled slightly, a little bit sad.

Samuel Green had someone go and make a disguise for Nicole Bush.

Petty on this side always felt very panicked, as if something serious was going to happen, but Zac Neo insisted to go out and listen to the news.

She walked around the beauty salon all by herself, with Samuel Green's reckless behaviors in her mind.

Perhaps the people in the Seapolis City knew Samuel Green as a retired soldier, the heir to the Green Family, and the president of Eternal Group, but only Petty knew Samuel Green's cruelty and cold blood.

She once followed Samuel Green to Yunnan to rescue the Green Family second master Vincent Green, but in that battle, Vincent Green died.

At that time, Samuel Green seemed to be crazy. He broke into the secret base of villains alone and broke the leader's limbs, but kept him awake.

That cruelty and cold blood is a nightmare that Petty can't erase in her life.

Chapter 116: You are Samuel Green's good son

After all, Petty is more experienced, and she said in a low voice, "Two or three of you, chase after that little devil. The rest of you do your daily jobs.

Don't let others find any abnormal here, hurry!"

She was about to faint from the pain, but she couldn't extinguish her anger.

She used to be someone of great significance, but she didn't expect that she will fail because of a little boy today.

Sure enough, he was Samuel Green's son!

At such a young age, he is able to protect himself. If he grow older, who will he became?

Petty's kindness and conscience had disappeared completely.

She now can't wait to cut off Lucas Bush's skin and twitch his muscles to relieve her hatred.

Lucas Bush heard that the sound of persons chasing decreased, and thought it was an opportunity.

In fact, he is not far from the front desk. At this time, it may be a shortcut to rush out to find help, but he dared not guarantee that the people who come are so sympathetic.

If that guy doesn't care about his life and death, or even try to stop his escape, wouldn't he expose himself to Petty again?

Thinking of this, Lucas Bush gritted his teeth and gave up the idea of running to the front desk of the net. As soon as he turned around, he got into the VIP room directly and hid under the bed.

There're many VIP rooms here, and they should not come in and search the room one by one. Moreover, Lucas Bush has seen this room has a "Do not disturb" sign on the wall, indicating that there is someone inside.

In the case of there are guests, those people might not dare to search so blatantly.

When he entered the room, Lucas Bush heard the sound of bath water in the bathroom, and he hid under the bed.

Nicole Bush entered the beauty salon after being disguised but she felt something wired about this salon when she came in.

How can there be no one in the beauty salon?

“Anyone there?”

Nicole Bush shouted and wanted to go inside.

Just then, two waiters came out.

“Hello, can I help you?”

The waiter smiled, it seemed to make people feel like spring breeze, but also successfully prevented the footsteps of Nicole Bush from entering.

Nicole Bush felt annoyed for a while, but said with a smile, “I heard that you have a good face massage here, I am coming to check out. How to recharge? Is it a payment or a direct charge to the membership card? Any trails?”

She looked around, as if looking at the poster on the wall of the beauty salon. In fact, she was looking at the layout around her.

"But..."

Nicole Bush still want to say something, but she saw that Samuel Green has started discussing specific details with Jacob Brown.

Jacob Brown actually disagreed with Samuel Green.

"Let me go, Master Lucas knows me."

"Don't mention this again. I have to save my own son, or do you think my physical condition is not good?"

Samuel Green's rhetorical question left Jacob Brown speechless.

Who is Samuel Green?

He once broke into the enemy camp and rescued a dozen hostages alone. Who dare to say that he can't?

Nicole Bush said worriedly, "If you want to go in, you may need someone to cover you? It is better to have me come. Just now I was annoyed by the waiter. If I am a noble lady, I can't bear this insult. I can use this as an excuse to bring people to there to make troubles. This may give you a chance."

Samuel Green paused.

In fact, he thought the same way, but he didn't want to let Nicole Bush take risks, and he planned to let other people go.

"It's better to change people, I'm not sure."

"You said, it is our son inside, I am a mother, it is impossible to do nothing. Lucas may be inside, maybe no, we are also trying. But if he is inside, I hope to do something for my so. It's better ding something than waiting here."

Nicole Bush's eyes also looked at the beauty shop.

Samuel Green couldn't say anything to refute.

He said reluctantly, "You must be careful."

"Ok!"

"Jacob Brown, always pay attention to protecting my wife."

This statement by Samuel Green directly points out Nicole Bush's identity.

Although others didn't know what was going on, Nicole Bush's eyes were red and she was little choked.

This word "wife", she had waited for many years. She thought that she will not here this title in her life, but now she only feels inexplicably moved and warm.

“Be careful, I hope you father and son will come back safely.”

Nicole Bush's eyes had a touch of tenderness.

Samuel Green nodded with a smile.

Several people discussed the specific operations again.

After Lucas Bush hid in the VIP room, he hid under the bed, but suddenly found a micro camera under the bed.

He didn't understand why there was this thing here, but for him, it was obviously an opportunity to escape.

Lucas Bush smiled slightly and quickly checked the camera, and found that it was just a secondary machine, and there was a main control machine outside.

Chapter 118: Daddy take you home

"I'm ready!"

Nicole Bush is also excited at this time.

Her son was about to be rescued. She wanted to rush in now, hugging Lucas Bush tightly, never letting go again.

Samuel Green put on his coat held by Jacob Brown, quickly returned Lucas Bush with a set of codes, told him to mind the changes, he would go in through the vent to save him.

With Samuel Green's response, Lucas Bush's heart was somewhat relaxed.

He finally felt that he was not alone.

There will be someone to save him.

That man is his father!

Although he doesn't want to admit it now!

After Riley George release her anger, she sat on the bed again, cried and laughed, "What am I asking for in my life? The only person I love is Samuel Green, but when I was away from home I met Vincent Green. He looked exactly the same as Samuel Green, and I thought of him as Samuel Green. I thought these days would last forever, as long as I gave birth to Vincent Green 's son, I would be able to go back the Green Family, get everything belongs to me!"

"But why is Vincent Green died so fast? He died as soon as I was pregnant. Perhaps God had mercy on me, he made Samuel Green find me. The moment I saw him, I knew that it was arranged by God, I was destined to be with Samuel Green! So I came back. I took Vincent Green's son back. Samuel Green announced that he would position Joseph Green as the future heir of the Green Family out of guilt for his twin brother and gave Joseph Green an upright identity."

"For the past five years, I always thought I could go on like this. Samuel Green would accept me because Joseph Green and make me Mrs. Green, but why is Nicole Bush not dead? Why is she not dead and came back with her son? If I had known this, I should have made a move on her in the hospital."

Riley George laughed again when she finished, but there was tears in the corner of her eyes.

There was a noise outside, making her more irritable.

“Shut up, all of you!”

Riley George opened the door and roared, but saw the leader quickly approaching this way.

“Miss George, the woman came again just now, but with a lot of people coming, it seems to make trouble.”

“Made trouble? Doesn't she know that this is a beauty salon opened in the name of the Green Family? Why is she so reckless? That woman doesn't understand the rules?”

Riley George was angry.

The foreman said in a low voice, “I didn't find out. It is said that she just arrived at the Seapolis City a few days ago. You also know that the Seapolis City organized an international trade conference exhibition a few days ago. Many foreign ladies came here and we can't tell where did she came from. she may not know this is the Green Family beauty salon.”

“I'm going to take a shower, you deal with it first, I'll come right away, by the way, is Technician Zac back?”

“He said he would be back soon.”

The foreman said respectfully.

“Um, when him come back, tell him hurry to the basement to solve the stink boy for me. By the way, why didn't I see Petty?”

Riley George frowned slightly.

Lucas Bush ran away. Although I know he is still in this beauty salon, but I am uneasy. Now there is someone making trouble for no reason outside. It's not a coincidence, it's very likely to involve us all. You listen to me, don't worry about Riley George now. Hurry up and leave here. Chapter 119: Save senior Green first

“Senior Green? Is it your men?”

Lucas Bush gave Samuel Green a subconscious look.

“No.”

Samuel Green was a little nervous.

He quickly put down Lucas Bush and said in a low voice, “Go hide under the bed, no matter who is coming, no matter what happen in a moment, don't make a sound. Wait until I've handled everything and come out again, you know?”

Lucas Bush blinked his big eyes, somewhat worried.

“Can you handle this alone?”

“Yah! As long as you are there, Daddy will do whatever you want.”

Samuel Green smiled and touched Lucas Bush's head. At this moment, he couldn't express his satisfaction.

Lucas Bush's face was awkward, but he didn't say anything.

He obediently hid under the bed.

At this moment, the door was suddenly opened, and Zac Neo faced Samuel Green directly.

Zac Neo didn't think of facing Samuel Green in such a direct way after five years, and he was stunned for a while.

The moment Petty saw Samuel Green, the whole person panicked. She pulled Zac Neo and turned to run, but heard Samuel

Green coldly say, “Where do you think you can go? All of them are my people, Are you sure you can rush out?”

Zac Neo stopped suddenly.

In fact, as for Samuel Green, he can be regarded as his savior. In the Green Family, Samuel Green is quite good to him, but...

Zac Neo stopped, turned to look at Samuel Green, and said in a low voice, "Master Green..."

"I thought you died in that fire five years ago, obviously I was naive. You are living well now, and Nicole Bush has suffered because of the fire, can you tell me what happened that year?"

Samuel Green's expression was very cruel, and there's no trace of kindness. Zac Neo knew that his friendship with Samuel Green as master and servant had been burnt down in the fire five years ago.

Petty pushed Zac Neo constantly, whispering, "You go first, I will stop him."

Zac Neo shook his head and said, "Neither of us can defeat him even if we do this together. Why do we deceive ourselves?"

But Master Green, you are injured."

"So?"

Samuel Green asked as if he didn't care about it.

Zac Neo guarded Petty behind him and said lightly, "So as long as I can beat you, I still have a chance."

"Oh, do you think I will give you this opportunity? Let alone whether you had anything to do with the fire five years ago. Five years later, you dared to kidnap my son, Zac Neo. How can you be so cocky? Even if you want to escape today, I will not give you this opportunity!"

Samuel Green took a step back.

Zac Neo followed, but pushed Petty out in his last step.

"Go"

"I don't want to go! Zac Neo, I want to die with you!"

Petty cried and wanted to grab Zac Neo's hand, but unfortunately she was pushed out by Zac Neo cruelly.

"Go away!"

Chapter 120: I already knew

“Samuel Green!”

“Senior Green!”

Both Nicole Bush and Lucas Bush panicked.

How did the man fall down without showing any omen?

Nicole Bush hugged Samuel Green quickly, and Lucas Bush ran out for help.

For a time, the entire beauty salon became intense again.

The ambulance was roaring, Samuel Green was carried to the ambulance, and Nicole Bush didn't have time to say thank you to Jason Don, so she and Lucas Bush got on the ambulance and accompanied Samuel Green back to the hospital.

Lucas Bush took Samuel Green's hand tightly and looked at his pale face, and asked anxiously, "Mom, will Senior Green die?"

"Of course not." Nicole Bush comforted Lucas Bush.

She knew more than Samuel Green's injuries than anyone else, but for his son he never minded his pain.

She couldn't hate him like the previous way.

Nicole Bush hugged Lucas Bush tightly, and tears kept flowing.

She didn't know what to do if Samuel Green was really in trouble.

Only at this moment did she realize how much she loved Samuel Green.

This love was already carved into her bones and could not be removed.

Lucas Bush seemed to feel Nicole Bush's anxiety and stayed in her arms quietly, but his little hands held Samuel Green's hand tightly and refused to let go.

Lucas Bush prayed in his heart, and the good-looking eyes were in tears.

The ambulance quickly reached the hospital, and the doctors and nurses quickly pushed Samuel Green into the emergency room.

Nicole Bush and Lucas Bush are isolated.

Lucas Bush's little body was a little tired, but he didn't want to bother Nicole Bush. He moved a little, and Nicole Bush noticed it immediately.

"What's the matter? Are you hungry? Mommy will buy you something to eat first. After Samuel Green comes out, I will go home and cook for you, OK?"

Lucas Bush nodded.
