Chapter 1131 Nicole Is Where I Draw the Line

Unexpectedly, the real IP address was the Presidential Palace in Country F.

Samuel frowned.

Soon after he input the Trojan horse program, the other party took intercepting and rescue measures. At this time, Samuel found who he was.

"Zayn, is it you that ordered the man to take photos of Nicole and me? Just ask us if you are curious about how we are doing."

Samuel chatted with Zayn through an instant messenger.

Zayn was stunned by his behavior.

Lucas was a computer genius, so Zayn tried to avoid Lucas. Unexpectedly, Samuel still found him.

Zayn thought, the apple doesn't fall far from the tree.

Now Zayn thought it unnecessary to lie to Samuel.

"You're brilliant."

Zayn sincerely praised Samuel.

"I'm always brilliant."

His reply was full pride. Even though Zayn was not satisfied, he couldn't find fault with Samuel.

Zayn sneered, "I know you will discover the man sooner or later."

"So you intentionally told me what Major looks like, didn't you?"

"Yes."

It was unnecessary to hide anything from the wise.

"Why didn't you tell me the truth from the beginning?"

Samuel was puzzled as Zayn had tried to make Nicole admit that she was his missing sister.

Zayn paused for a moment and said, "If I say I don't want you to get involved in this mess, would you believe me?"

"I don't believe you. You should do nothing if you are so kind."

Zayn smiled bitterly.

"Alright, I'm selfish. No matter what I do, it's all for myself. Pedro is right. People like me are destined to be lonely forever."

Samuel did not interrupt him.

Samuel was unable to judge whether Zayn was selfish or not. The abnormal family had a great influence on Zayn.

Samuel pondered for a moment and said, "You want to get rid of Major?"

"Yes. He is Santino's brain trust, and I have got into trouble many times because of him. I want to make use of you to help me with it."

Zayn went straight to the point.

Samuel was somewhat relieved.

Hold on!

Samuel said "they" just now.

Who were "they"?

Did Samuel imply Zayn's mother wasn't the only one alive?

Zayn didn't expect this.

Therefore, he got expectant.

He stood up abruptly, and wanted to ask someone to investigate this, but not after a while, he stopped.

His mother must have her reasons for not telling him she was alive. If he investigated her, it would cause trouble for her.

Thinking of this, Zayn calmed down.

It was a great surprise to him, but now he didn't even know whom to share it with.

How pathetic he was!

Looking at the screen, he flipped through the contacts, but he didn't find anyone who could talk to.

He smiled bitterly, and missed Pedro very much.

Somehow, he dialed a number.

He frowned slightly, but Nicole answered before he could cancel the call.

"Zayn, what is it?"

Nicole's crisp and warm voice was like the sunshine that pushed away the clouds, which delighted him right away.

He smiled and said with great joy, "Nothing serious. I miss you, so I want to give you a call and hear your voice."

Hearing this, Nicole paused for a while.

"Zayn, are you alright?"

"I'm fine. I've been alone for a long time, so I wanted to talk with someone, but I don't know who to talk with. And somehow, I called you. After all, you're my sister, right?"

What Zayn said was all right.

Admittedly, he could call her "sister". However, to be exact, she was his cousin!

In Nicole's mind, Zayn was supposed to be as important as Tim, but Tim had helped her a lot, so she could even repay Tim at the cost of her life. However, she never felt close to Zayn.

Therefore, she kept silent.

Zayn didn't feel embarrassed, and continued, "I was always busy after returning home. I was busy fighting for power, protecting myself, deterring Santino, and expanding my influence. I hardly realize it's almost the New Year. Nicole, I haven't contacted you these days. Don't get angry with me, because I didn't do it on purpose."

"Well, it doesn't matter. You should go on your trip."

What Nicole said was a little perfunctory, so she got regretful after she finished it.

Considering Zayn's identity and position, she guessed he was trying to get closer to her, but she was not indifferent to him.

What was Samuel doing?

Nicole knew that Samuel would hear her if she went over now, but if she didn't, she could not control her emotions.

Tomorrow, she would go to see Edwin. Now she might quarrel with Samuel. Nicole thought, 'The earlier I solve the problem, the better it will be. Otherwise, Grandfather would be worried about us.'

Then Nicole walked towards the study.

When Samuel heard Nicole's footsteps, he couldn't help but pause. He subconsciously wanted to turn off the computer, but he didn't as it was hacked.

At this moment, Samuel wanted to beat Lucas up.

As Nicole pushed open the door and entered, Samuel hurried to stand up to block the computer screen.

"Darling, why are you here?"

"What are you doing?"

Nicole's expression was somewhat gloomy.

Nicole heard moans coming from the computer.

Just now, Nicole had been unable to hear it clearly because of the distance. Now the sound made Nicole flush.

"Samuel, you're actually watching this disgusting video behind my back! Were you masturbating yourself?"

Samuel felt he was being misunderstood.

"Honey, you wrong me. Someone else hacked into my computer. I am just about to solve this problem."

Samuel was eager to explain it to Nicole.

Nicole didn't believe him.

"Well, you mean someone hacked into your computer and sent the video to you. How can the hacker be so kind to you? Is he your son?"

Samuel thought, 'It's indeed my son. Lucas must be mad when he did it.' But he didn't tell the truth to Nicole.

That was because Nicole definitely didn't believe it, and Samuel couldn't bring Lucas over and question him.

However, Samuel tried to explain it to Nicole, "Nicole, my computer has been hacked. It is true. If you don't believe me, you can try turning it off. You won't make it."

In order to prove himself, Samuel quickly showed her the computer screen.

The scene on the screen was unbearable.

If Nicole knew that it was Lucas who sent this, she might go crazy.

Perhaps Nicole would think that Lucas was misled by Samuel.

Samuel didn't know why Lucas sent him the video. Samuel did suffer a lot but he couldn't tell Nicole about it.

Seeing his sincere expression, Nicole walked toward the computer.

"You'd better prove that the video isn't yours, otherwise..."

Nicole finished the sentence, Samuel hurriedly said, "It just popped up. There's no such thing in he spoke,

Chapter 1134 You're a Doctor. Not a God

Hearing this, Maddie froze.

When Blair saw this, he knew Samuel was right about it.

After the hypnosis, Blair was very tired, so he went into the bedroom to eat something, but he didn't expect something went wrong during this period.

Blair said guiltily, "I'm sorry. I'm a little tired after the hypnosis, so I went to eat something, but I didn't expect this."

"I don't blame you."

Samuel was not unreasonable, and he knew Blair was very guilty now.

Samuel looked at Maddie and asked, "What did Lucas do?"

Maddie looked at Blair. Blair hurriedly said, "I am her interpreter. Maddie has learned to read our lips these days, but she still needs an interpreter."

"No problem."

Samuel did not look down on her at all, so Maddie heaved a sigh of relief.

"Not long after Lucas was hypnotized, Dad went out. Lucas suddenly sat up and rolled up his sleeves. He had a nice bracelet on his wrist. I thought it was inconvenient for him to wear a bracelet, so I wanted to take it off, but he pushed me away and took it off himself. That bracelet was very strange. He touched somewhere and the bracelet split. There was a strong light shooting out of it. Then, a computer screen appeared on the opposite wall and it was just a shadow. There was also a keyboard's shadow on his quilt. He typed something that I couldn't read on the keyboard. When I decided to ask him what he was doing, he gave a strange smile, put away his bracelet and lay down until you came."

Hearing Maddie's words, Samuel and Blair figured out what happened.

"It was 3D projection light sensing virtual laptop."

Samuel nodded.

A hacker would carry his computer everywhere. However, Lucas had a special identity and it was too noticeable for him to do this, so the military equipped him with a 3D projection light sensing virtual laptop. To put it bluntly, it was a high-tech product. This kind of laptop was operated by the sensing of light and the touch of human's body temperature.

Hearing this, Samuel was sure that it was Lucas who sent this video to him.

To be exact, Lucas' second personality did it.

However, he was very young, why did he send such a video to Samuel?

Did it mean that Lucas' second personality was a playboy or a randy boy?

Thinking of this, Samuel was a little scared and worried.

He was not angry at all. Instead, he was overwhelmed by anxiety and worry.

Blair also looked solemn.

It indicated that his hypnosis failed.

Lucas' self-regulation system produced his second personality to alleviate the sequelae of killing someone. It was bad and very dangerous.

"Samuel, I'm sorry. I...."

"There's no need to apologize. You're a doctor rather than a god. No one expected Lucas to be like this. Let's keep this a secret for the time being. I'll go back and discuss it with Nicole. I have to leave Lucas here with you for a few days. Don't tell him this. At least don't tell him for now."

Samuel said in a frustrated tone.

"No problem."

Blair nodded.

Was he really coming in?
Nicole tugged at the quilt, feeling very sad and conflicted.
She just ate some junk food behind his back.
Why was he so cautious about that?
At worst, she would just confess.
Thinking of this, Nicole lifted the quilt and was about to get the door when Samuel suddenly opened it.
"Hi, Samuel."
Nicole immediately said with a complaisant smile.
Seeing his wife's smile, Samuel felt a lump in his throat, not knowing what to say.
He didn't want to upset her, but he had to talk with her about Lucas.
Samuel's ignorance and complicated gaze panicked Nicole.
"I wasn't really angry with you just now. I know that it is normal for a man to watch adult videos. Alright, I have to admit that I was pretending. I asked Wendy to buy some junk food for me. I was afraid that you wouldn't let me eat it, so I took this opportunity to make a fuss. In fact, I just want some junk food. I've already confessed. Will you forgive me?"
Her words stunned Samuel.
What?
Junk food?
Samuel frowned.
"You are not in a condition for it."
"I know, but I just can't help it. I promise you I won't eat it anymore. Please stop frowning. I'm scared."
Nicole blinked her big eyes and looked at Samuel.
Samuel sighed and said, "Nicole, I have something to tell you."

"I know that you must be very disappointed and angry. I'm really sorry. I promise I won't eat it anymore. I know that you're saying this for my own good."

Nicole hurriedly apologized.

Turning around and closing the door, Samuel came to Nicole's side and took her into his arms.

"So?"

Samuel loved the way that Nicole looked now, but he still couldn't understand what Nicole was trying to say.

Rarely seeing Samuel like this, Nicole couldn't help but wrap her arms around his neck. She whispered, "So I want us to solve problems together. You said that you were worried that Major might hurt me, but I'm also worried about you and Lucas. Major said he will hurt me, but who knows if that was a smokescreen? Perhaps his target was all of you, and he just wanted to confuse us. He is so cunning that he most likely will do so. We'd better move to Grandpa's tomorrow, and we can stay with everyone. It will be better for us to deal with Major together than alone, right?"

"But I don't want anyone to know about Lucas now."

This was what Samuel was most concerned about.

Lucas had a promising future. If this was exposed, he would be finished, or at least his military career would be over.

Nicole whispered, "It's fine. We just tell them that Lucas has some special training, and it will be more than an hour a day. That would be enough. No one will doubt it."

"But..."

Nicole knew what Samuel was worried about. She whispered, "We don't have to ask Blair."

"What do you mean?"

Samuel was puzzled.

Nicole took a deep breath and said, "We do have a doctor in our family."

"Who is it?"

"Joseph."

Samuel was stunned when he heard what Nicole said.

"Nicole, are you kidding me? How old is Joseph? Do you know that hypnosis is required to treat dissociative identity disorder?"

"I know. I've called Morgan, and she told me that Joseph is a master at hypnosis now. After Bruce's disguise as Vincent was exposed, Joseph began to study dissociative identity disorder and hypnosis. But we weren't with him for a long time, so you don't know yet. Just like this time, I was controlled by bugs, and who would have thought that Joseph could save me. Although Joseph is still young, we can't underestimate him. He's very smart."

Samuel was still anxious.

"What if..."

"Don't worry. You are clear about the relationship between Joseph and Lucas. What's more, it will be convenient for the treatment if they live together. Gabrielle is about to give birth and Blair is busy with that, so I think Joseph is a good choice."

Nicole said sincerely.

Samuel was tempted.

"Darling, don't worry too much. I'm Lucas' mother. Will I hurt him?"

"I know."

Samuel finally agreed to Nicole's suggestion, but he still frowned. Nicole wondered why.

"What are you still worried about?"

"I don't understand why Lucas' second personality sends me a sex video? Even if he develops another personality, it should be the same age and not an adult."

Samuel was depressed.

Nicole suddenly reminded something.

With this in mind, Nicole wanted to hang up the phone, but Olivia picked up the phone at this time.

Olivia was panting.

Nicole suddenly felt envious of Olivia's vitality. She hadn't sweated like this for a long time.

"What are you doing? It sounds like you've done some exercise."

Nicole asked with a faint smile.

Olivia smiled and said, "Yes, I'm taking dancing class. Michael said I'm not in good shape, so he asked me to take some physique lessons. How are you? I've been so busy that I don't have time to call you."

Nicole was not happy to hear her words.

"Well, I'm a little busy too."

"Alright. Don't be angry with me. I'll treat you to dinner in a few days. The New Year's coming. Probably Jacob and I will celebrate it at your place. You know, we both don't have any relatives. You're our only close friends. Shall we spend the New Year together?"

Olivia was still smiling, but Nicole could tell that she liked her current life very much and was full of vitality.

Nicole smiled and said, "Sure, but we will be with my grandpa at that time. Everyone will be there. You should come to, too. It would be fun."

"Sure. I'll behave myself then. I have to hang up now. My teacher is calling me over. Let's talk later. Bye."

Hearing the busy tone, Nicole couldn't help but feel even more empty and disappointed.

She also wanted to be an able woman!

Nicole swore to herself when she saw Samuel walk out of Blair's room.

"How is it?"

She quickly asked.

Samuel and Blair both said, "Not a big deal. We've asked about Joseph's medical skills, and he absolutely can help Lucas."

"That's good."

Nicole finally relaxed.

As they talked, Lucas and Maddie walked out.

Maddie was obviously reluctant to part with Lucas. Lucas comforted Maddie like a man with a gentle expression.

Nicole felt that Lucas was never that gentle to her.

Well, why did she suddenly have the illusion that her own son would be taken away by someone else?

Seeing that Nicole was a little disappointed, Samuel hurriedly held her hand and said, "You have me."

His voice wasn't loud, but it was enough for Nicole to hear.

Nicole was instantly comforted.

After Lucas and Maddie bid farewell, Nicole and Samuel brought him home.

Chapter 1138 The Greens Don't Need Celebrities Anymore

As soon as Samuel was about to move, he heard Zoe mutter, "Mommy, hug."

Nicole was sleepy and subconsciously hugged Zoe. Then she went on sleeping.

Seeing this, Samuel let out a deep sigh, then returned to the bedroom. He was alone and sleepless.

For the first time, he felt that this bed was so big that it made him feel empty and lonely.

Nicole hugged Zoe and slept soundly. But she was awakened by the cold in the middle of the night. The quilt was rolled under Zoe, and Nicole was naked and very pitiful.

She shook her head helplessly. Well, it would be better to sleep next to her husband.

Nicole felt a little thirsty and got up quietly to drink some water, only to find that the light was on in Lucas' room.

She couldn't help but pause.

Thinking of Lucas' situation, Nicole was anxious.

She went over quickly. Before she got to the door, someone pulled her with a powerful arm and covered her mouth.

Nicole was startled and almost screamed.

It was Samuel. She sighed with relief.

"What are you doing?"

"Hush now."

Samuel shushed her.

Nicole leaned against the door and peeked into the room. Sitting in a chair, took off the bracelet from his wrist and directly turned it on. Under the light, an on-screen computer monitor and an on-screen keyboard were projected.

"This is..."

"I'll explain to you later."

Samuel said in a low voice that they could hear.

Nicole held her breath and watched.

After Lucas turned on the computer, he hacked into an adult website and sent screenshots of the videos directly to Samuel's computer.

He pursed his mouth. The mischievous smile on his face was shocking.

If Lucas was his old self, he wouldn't be like this. Nicole was very sad to see Lucas like this.

Joseph came from behind and whispered, "What are you sending?"

Lucas didn't even look back and said, "You are just a little boy. You don't understand. Go to bed."

He looked and sounded just like an adult!

"But I want to know," Joseph asked in confusion. "You look happy."

Chapter 1139 I'm Afraid I'll Hurt You

"What's going on?"

Nicole stood up and Samuel looked a little grave.

The two of them quickly ran out.

Joseph was directly thrown to the floor outside by Lucas and bumped into the cabinet at the side. The cabinet banged because of the impact, which attracted Nicole and Samuel.

When they saw that Joseph was thrown out by Lucas, Nicole immediately felt heartache.

"Joseph, are you okay? Does it hurt? Let Mommy see if you are injured."

Joseph felt that his entire body was about to fall apart.

He had just fallen asleep and hadn't expected that Lucas had actually woken up and threw him out without saying a word.

His butt really hurt.

"Mommy, I'm fine. Go and see Lucas."

As soon as Joseph finished speaking, Samuel arrived at Lucas' room. He saw Lucas sitting in front of the computer, opening the game interface and playing the game crazily. He didn't seem to feel anything about what he had just done.

Samuel frowned slightly.

"What are you doing?"

Lucas only glanced at Samuel, then turned around and continued to play the game without saying a word.

Possessed by his second personality, Lucas, was still indifferent.

Nicole did not dare to let Joseph and Lucas stay together anymore. She hurriedly carried Joseph back to her room and called Ashley overnight to ask her to come over and take a look at Joseph.

After Ashley arrived, she checked Joseph and made sure that he was fine. Only then did Nicole let out a sigh of relief.

"What happened?"

Ashley was slightly surprised.

Nicole didn't want to tell her about that. She only said that Joseph fell off the bed when he slept. She was afraid that he would get hurt so she asked her to come over and give him a check.

Since Joseph was fine, Ashley went back.

Samuel stayed at the door of Lucas' room for an entire night.

Lucas didn't say anything. He just played online games on the computer until the day broke. He walked to the bed and fell asleep.

Samuel walked over to see Lucas. He really fell asleep.

He adjusted his son's sleeping position and covered him with a quilt before leaving Lucas' room.

What happened last night was terrible.

Samuel came out and realized that Nicole had not slept all night.

Nicole's face was somewhat pale, and there were some dark circles under her eyes. She looked quite pitiful.

"Go to sleep. Edwin just asked us to move over today. He didn't say the exact time. Go back to sleep first. I'll call you later."

Hearing that, Nicole shook her head.

"I'm not sleepy."

It had been a long time since she stayed up and kept a clear mind like this.

Chapter 1140 Don't Think Too Much

"No! No matter what happens to you, you are our dear son. No matter what happens, your mother and I will not let you go."

Samuel held his son in his arms again. He felt that his son was so weak. Why did he think that his son could become a genius and exist in the cruel military compound?

He was annoyed, self-blamed, and wanted to help Lucas get through this difficult time.

Lucas still wanted to say something, but he heard Samuel whisper, "Your mother wants you to have a good rest. If you really like being in the army, we will send you to the military to train for two years when you turn eighteen. Lucas, our family runs a big business and needs an heir. Joseph chose to study medicine. You will be the heir of our family."

Samuel knew that this was a bit cruel to Lucas, but he really didn't want to risk losing his son anymore.

Back then, he had also passionately joined the army and risked his life. But now that he had children, he realized that he couldn't bear to see the children get hurt or his wife get sad.

Even if Lucas wanted to join the army, he had to reach his age.

His son couldn't withstand such a harsh environment.

Lucas did not say anything, yes or no.

The two people who weren't very enthusiastic hugged each other tightly for a long time. Nicole couldn't find Lucas after cooking the porridge with preserved eggs and lean meat. She ran to look for Samuel nervously and saw them hugging each other, which moved her.

"Alright, since you're awake, get up and have some porridge. I've cooked quite a bit."

Nicole pretended to be relaxed as she spoke.

Lucas came out of Samuel's embrace and looked at Nicole with a trace of guilt in his eyes.

It broke Nicole's heart to see that.

"Come on, son, Mommy will carry you down."

"I'll walk down myself."

Lucas dodged Nicole's arm and even avoided to be close to her.

He was afraid.

He was afraid that he would become someone else, and that he would hurt his mommy in an unknown situation.

Seeing Lucas like this, Nicole felt sad and tears immediately gushed out.

"Mommy, don't cry. I'm not, I..."

Seeing Nicole cry, Lucas immediately panicked.

He hurriedly turned to Samuel for help.

Samuel took a step forward and hugged Lucas in his arms. Then, he stood up and said to Nicole, "Come on, Lucas is hungry. Let's go down and have some porridge."

"Alright."

Nicole wiped away her tears and walked down with Samuel.

Joseph had already woken up and didn't dare to sleep anymore. At present, only Zoe slept soundly.

She stretched, got up and smelled a fragrance, and hurriedly said, "Oh? What did Mommy cook? It smells good."

Nicole smiled, but somewhat reluctantly.

They sat down at the dining table.

Nicole also cooked a few dishes that the children loved.
