

Escape Wife 1151

Chapter 1151 We Should Respect Her Choice

Nicole was shocked by Samuel.

He was full of evil as if he had walked out from hell. That feeling was extremely oppressive.

Cynthia was so scared that her legs were weak.

"What are you doing? In a society ruled by law, I can sue you for trespassing and intentionally hurting people."

Cynthia obviously lacked confidence, but still refused to give in.

Samuel sneered and said, "Do you think you can live until then?"

"What do you want to do? I'm Adela's mother."

Cynthia mentioned Adela again.

However, Samuel said, "She has nothing to do with me."

"She is Laurence's benefactor. Yes, she is Laurence's benefactor. If you want to vent your anger, then kill Laurence. It has nothing to do with us."

Cynthia was scared incoherent by Samuel. She even forgot what had caused her conflict with Samuel just now. Now, she only wanted to use Laurence as the scapegoat.

As long as Samuel didn't hurt her and Neville, she really didn't care about Laurence.

Cynthia's attitude deeply upset Laurence.

Laurence treated her like his biological mother. He didn't expect that she wanted him to die.

Actually, he should have guessed that, right?

Without Adela, he probably wouldn't be able to survive.

Anyway, it was he who owed Adela, and he would never be able to repay it in this lifetime.

Laurence's heart sank and was torn apart bit by bit. But finally he calmed himself down.

Did people like him have the right to possess happiness?

Did people like him have the right to pursue happiness?

Adela died. He would never be happy again in his life.

No matter how Cynthia treated him, he owed Adela.

With that, Laurence closed his eyes and whispered, "Mr. and Mrs. Green, I know you did it for me. But it is my family business. I hope that you will not interfere."

Once these words were spoken, Nicole was immediately stunned.

"Laurence, you..."

"Mrs. Green, I know my words will disappoint you, but I deserve to die. That's what I owe Adela. I promised Adela that I would take good care of her parents. Mrs. Green, just leave me alone."

Laurence's words were filled with a trace of desperation.

The people he loved were all dead and he lived desperately like a walking dead. If it weren't for the gratitude, Laurence would choose to die with Adela.

Nicole didn't expect Neville to turn on the new leaf after Adela's death.

Or was it their performance?

Nicole frowned slightly when thinking like this.

Samuel said indifferently, "Your solution is none of our business. However, Mrs. Miller's words made me feel unpleasant and also brought negative effect on my wife. Thus, in order to avoid some misunderstandings, it's better for Laurence to stop working."

Nicole was stunned.

"Samuel..."

Samuel glanced at her. Although he said nothing, Nicole was scared by his indifferent look.

It seemed that he would give them a lesson.

There was no other way.

Nicole sighed in her heart.

It was all Mrs. Miller's fault.

It was too shameless for her to say that she hadn't recovered from the pain of losing her daughter. Honestly speaking, she was just a vicious woman. Or why did she treat Laurence so bad?

She didn't regard Laurence as a human being.

Nicole knew that if she spoke for Laurence now, Samuel would probably be jealous.

She sighed and said nothing.

Laurence was shocked by Samuel's words.

"Mr. Green, I have to protect Mrs. Green. It's not wise for you to suspend me now."

"She's my wife and I will protect her. You are not that important. Since you're not here to protect Nicole, then don't take this job."

Samuel said coldly.

Laurence was suddenly panic-stricken.

"Mr. Green, I'm loyal to Mrs. Green and have no other thoughts."

"Really? I know you are loyal. But for Adela's sake, you are willing to endure Cynthia's torture, how can you promise that you are still strong now? How can you protect Nicole if something really happens? I don't trust you now. You should know that you are not just yourself. You are the leader of Night Elf Empire. You should take the responsibility to protect my family. However, you didn't seem to have understood that. It's acceptable for you to deal with your own things but how can you get hurt and work under such a situation? Your work is dangerous and the people you are protecting are important to me. I would keep them safe my whole life at any price. I'm sorry that you are not worthy of my trust right now since your mental and physical condition is weak now."

Samuel seldom said so many words to Laurence.

Laurence was dissatisfied at first, but now he couldn't say a single word.

He was indeed careless!

As the captain of the Night Elf Empire, he is responsible for protecting Nicole and the children. However, his current physical condition was really terrible.

He knew his condition even he didn't go to the hospital.

Chapter 1153 But I Don't Want You to Feel Wronged

The phone call startled Nicole. She subconsciously looked at Samuel and felt a little depressed when seeing that Samuel's face darkened.

She took out her phone and saw it was Evelyn.

Nicole hurriedly answered.

"Evelyn, what's wrong?"

"Are you back? You'd better hurry up and get home now. If I knew you were out, Tim and I wouldn't have gone out. Do you know how dangerous it is? Do you know that you're being supervised? Why don't you know to protect yourself?"

Evelyn said in a loud voice, leaving Nicole in a daze.

She turned to Samuel for help. Samuel directly snatched the phone and said, "We'll be right back."

"Well, okay."

Evelyn was stunned.

Samuel didn't sound very pleasant.

Samuel did not care what Evelyn would think about. He hung up the phone and put it on the seat. Then, he started the car.

Seeing that he was driving, Nicole couldn't do anything but sit in the passenger seat, but she felt a little uneasy.

If Samuel really set Laurence aside, his life would be very difficult.

She sighed and glanced at Samuel. Then she quietly took out the phone, and looked through Twitter.

Olivia happened to be online, so Nicole sent her a message.

"What if my husband gets angry? Wait for your answer."

Olivia had just finished bathing when she saw the message of Nicole and laughed.

"What happened?"

Tim hugged her from behind and put the chin on her shoulder.

"Stop that. I'm chatting with Nicole."

Olivia blushed.

Tim, this old pervert, was quite excited these days and always wanted to have sex with her. She was very exhausted.

Jacob was slightly stunned and said, "It's almost New Year. Aren't you going back?"

"Do you want to go back?"

Olivia knew what Samuel meant to Jacob, so she asked him.

"I'll do as you say."

Jacob smiled and kissed Olivia.

Olivia felt like she could hardly stand because of the kiss. She tightly grabbed Jacob's pajamas and panted.

Nicole was quite anxious.

What exactly was Olivia doing?

It was almost New Year. She couldn't be recording in the studio now, right?

Thinking of this, she sent another message.

"Are you still online? Help me!"

Olivia suddenly became sober due to the message and she glared at Jacob.

"It's all your fault. I told you that I was chatting with Nicole. Tell me. If Samuel is angry, how can Nicole coax him?"

Jacob had worked with Samuel for a long time, so Olivia felt that it was appropriate to ask Jacob.

Jacob smiled and said, "If it is Mrs. Green who makes him angry, then tell her that Mr. Green is a person who prefers her to be active. Nothing can't be solved if she offers to have sex with him. He can always be conquered by this."

These words made Olivia a little embarrassed.

However, she still sent these words to Nicole.

Nicole instantly flushed.

"Samuel, are you crazy?"

Tim almost jumped up.

"You want to hold a wedding after three days. It's obvious that you want to compete with my wife! Are you sure you are going to bully me, one of the four young masters of the Seapolis City?"

"Yes."

Samuel answered directly, which left Tim speechless.

Nicole smiled and pulled Samuel. "Forget it. You've scared my cousin. What if he can't attend the wedding? My sister-in-law will argue with you."

"That's right. Don't scare my man."

Evelyn grabbed Tim's arm.

"Do you not want that?"

Samuel looked at Nicole seriously and asked.

Nicole's heartbeat suddenly accelerated.

It was a wedding. To be honest, she really looked forward to it.

"Forget it. I won't join them."

Nicole smiled faintly, but a trace of regret flashed through her eyes, which was noticed by Samuel.

"Then we'll hold the wedding two days later, one day before them."

Samuel's words were really getting on Tim's nerves.

Tim said sarcastically, "It's very easy to be said that done. Two days, it's probably not enough to make a wedding dress for Nicole."

"Nicole has a wedding dress."

Nicole was stunned for a moment when hearing this. She couldn't help but think of the dress eight years ago.

Was Samuel referring that one?

Tim really wanted to beat Samuel.

"Well, are you going to let Nicole wear the dress that she once wore eight years ago?"

"No, it is a new one and it will be airlifted here tomorrow."

As soon as Samuel said this, Nicole was stunned.

"When did you do that?"

"I had someone make it three months ago. At that time, I was considering giving you a grand wedding. However, there were too many things and the dress wasn't ready, so the wedding had to be put off. Anyway, it will soon be the end of the year, so let's have a wedding."

Samuel said in an indifferent way, but Nicole could tell that he had planned for a long time.

Tim was unhappy. "If you get married ahead of us, you're still competing with us and no one will pay their attention on our wedding. Please! Even if you have a problem with me, can you let us go for the sake of Evelyn?"

These words made Nicole stunned again.

She looked at Evelyn and said with embarrassment, "Evelyn, I'm sorry."

"Why should you say sorry? We are the most beautiful brides on the wedding day."

Evelyn didn't really care about that.

Since Tim said this, Samuel thought for a while and said, "Then we'll hold the wedding four days later, which will be the New Year's Eve."

"Great."

Edwin agreed.

Steve was a little helpless.

"What real man? I'm just an old man. It doesn't count. It's still my turn."

Edwin took back the piece, and then reconsidered for a while before he placed it. However, it was still captured by Steve.

The final result was obvious. Edwin lost the game.

"I quit. It's so boring. I'm going to sleep."

Edwin acted like a baby, which made Steve laugh.

After everything went quiet, only the snowflakes outside slowly fell, and a few unknown figures flickered.

Nicole felt refreshed when she woke up at ten o'clock in the morning. She followed Samuel's suggestion and entrusted Claire's demand to Ernesto.

Samuel went to the kitchen early in the morning and fried an egg for Nicole.

Tim saw it and said, "Will you fry another one for my wife?"

"Do it yourself."

With that, Samuel brought the fried egg into the room.

Before Nicole brushed her teeth, she saw Samuel enter with the fried egg.

"It smells good."

"Wash up and eat. I still have millet porridge stewed. I'll go down and serve it for you."

Samuel smiled faintly.

"Aren't we going down to have breakfast?"

Nicole asked in confusion.

"Let's eat here. There are many people down there."

Nicole wanted to laugh at Samuel's words.

However, she did not object.

After Nicole quickly washed up, she and Samuel ate their meal in the bedroom.

It had been snowing all night, and it didn't seem to stop.

Nicole looked through the window. The thick layer of snow outside made people feel so cold.

"I wonder how Lucas is doing. Would his second personality would take over him tonight? What if in the military compound..."

"Stop thinking about it. He's fine."

Samuel's arms were around Nicole.

He knew that Nicole was worried about Lucas, and he was, too. But Lucas was his son, there was definitely someone to take care of him in the military compound.

Nicole did not say anything else.

Joseph was still reading medical books in the room.

Nicole suddenly remembered something and asked, "Did you take the medicine Joseph prescribed for you on time?"

"Of course."

"Have you gotten sick again?"

Nicole knew that Samuel would sometimes hide it from her when he got sick, so she stared at Samuel.

"No, not lately, really."

"What did you say? Where's my father?"

Evelyn never imagined that her father would disappear on her wedding day.

Grace was very anxious.

"I don't know either. The groom is on the way. I looked everywhere, but I couldn't find Mr. Ethan. He didn't answer his phone. I wonder if something has happened."

Hearing Grace's words, Evelyn stood up abruptly and ran out, lifting her skirt.

"Ms. Evelyn, you're the bride. You can't go out."

The makeup artist shouted after her.

Evelyn turned a deaf ear. All she cared about now was her father's safety.

Where was he?

Today was her wedding day. Her father definitely wouldn't go far, but why didn't he answer his phone?

So many questions came into her mind.

Her phone rang just then.

Evelyn had a bad premonition.

She took out her phone and saw that the call was from an unknown number.

Evelyn hesitated for a moment, but she still pressed the answer button.

"Hello? Who is this?"

"If you want your father to be safe, then take this opportunity to kill Nicole today."

The caller's voice had been processed by a transducer.

Evelyn's heart tightened nervously.

"Who are you? Today is my wedding day. Release my father!"

"As long as you promise me to kill Nicole today, I will release your father."

The other person was extremely resolute.

Evelyn was on the verge of having a mental breakdown.

"What are you talking about? Today is my wedding day. Blood brings bad luck! Besides, Nicole is my family. How can I kill her? If I hurt her, my marriage will be ruined."

"I don't care. Is your husband more important to you or is your father? Make your decision. Of course, I won't let you get married without anyone giving you away. Your father is in the wine cellar. You can get him out, but he was poisoned by me. If you don't kill Nicole today, your father will die. Evelyn, think about it. One is your father who raised you through hard work, and the other is a woman who is not even close with you. Who means more to you?"

The caller hung up afterwards.

Evelyn was going crazy.

"Ms. Evelyn, you should go back. The groom will be here soon. I'll go find Mr. Ethan."

Grace managed to catch up with Evelyn and quickly stopped her.

Tim was slightly stunned.

"What are you talking about?"

"I said cancel the wedding!"

Evelyn was so anxious that she was sweating. The panic and anxiety in her eyes revealed that something bad happened.

Tim knew her well and he also knew how much Evelyn was looking forward to this wedding. Therefore, if Evelyn asked for calling off the wedding, there must be some problems that she thought couldn't be solved.

Tim cast about for a way in his mind.

"I found it!"

At that moment, he found Evelyn's wedding shoes and raised them in the air.

There was a burst of cheers.

The makeup artist was relieved, when witnessing that Tim hadn't put off the wedding and that Evelyn, lowering her head, hadn't talked to Tim. Besides, she reckoned that Tim didn't have time to arrange anything when searching for shoes.

Evelyn was so worried.

Did Tim not hear what she just said?

She asked him to cancel the wedding and he didn't respond, happily holding up her shoes. What happened to him?

Evelyn twisted her hands agitatedly.

Tim knelt down on one knee and began to put on the shoes for Evelyn.

Tim said to Evelyn affectionately, "My love, are you willing to put on the shoes and walk down the aisle with me? From now on, we are blessed with the same fate and we will stay together through thick and thin. You will be the apple of my eye. I know I'm not perfect, but I will always try my best for you. I will pamper you as my princess, so that you won't be sad and you won't regret marrying me. Now, would you like me to carry you away?"

Everyone was touched by what he said.

Evelyn felt bad for both of them.

This was the oath she wanted the most and the romance she had been longing for. If it weren't for her father, she would be absolutely willing to marry Tim. But how could she do it now?

Once she walked out of the room with Tim, there would no longer be such a peaceful relationship between them.

Evelyn couldn't hold back her tears and began to cry.

"I don't..."

Just as Evelyn was about to reject Tim, the makeup artist took a step forward and stopped her.

"Look, the bride was getting overexcited and her makeup needs to be fixed. Mr. Tim, let me help her first."

Tim stopped her.

Chapter 1158 Evelyn Completes My Life

When Tim heard Evelyn's words, he hurriedly said, "I will listen to no matter what you say. You can never be wrong."

"I like that."

After knowing that her father was fine, Evelyn was in a much better mood. She didn't know what Samuel and Tim had done, but her father said that he was fine now.

She looked at Tim gratefully.

How nice it was.

She was really happy to be able to marry this man and walk through the wedding that she cared about the most in her life.

When Ethan saw the interaction between Tim and Evelyn, he was in a trance.

It was as if he saw his wife again.

His wife was also this happy when on their wedding day, looking forward to having kids and grandkids with him. Unfortunately, she did not have the luck to see Evelyn in the wedding dress.

Ethan held Evelyn's hand, looked at Tim and said, "Tim, I know I've spoiled my daughter. Sometimes, she will be a little indulgent and willful. Please be more tolerant of her. My daughter is a righteous and good person. If one day you stop loving her, please don't hurt her. Call me and I will take her home. I promise I won't cause you any trouble."

He choked with sobs.

Evelyn suddenly burst into tears.

"Dad..."

"Sweetheart, be good when you live with your husband and show respect to your father-in-law. Tim is a good man. Be nice to him. Marriage takes work. Everyone marries for love, but many marriages fall apart. It's normally not because passion fades after time, but because the small grudges accelerated over time. Grudges will lead to resentment and change the love between couples. No matter how angry you are, remember to talk to him. Communication is the key to a happy life. One day, if you don't want to be with him, don't be afraid! You still have me. You still have a home! No matter how old you are, you will always be my baby girl."

Ethan's words touched many fathers present.

Parents of the bride were always sadder than parents of the groom at the wedding.

Evelyn couldn't help but hug Mr. Ethan and burst into tears.

Tim's heart was also filled with emotions.

He knelt down on both knees to Ethan.

"Dad, I am in charge of the Louis family now. My dad went to travel around the world and is not at home. From today onwards, you will also be my father, and I will respect you as much as I respect my own parents. They say that having a son-in law is like having a son. I am willing to be your son. If I do something wrong in the future, I hope you can teach me the same way as you teach your son. As for Evelyn, I, Tim, swear on my life today that as long as I live, Evelyn will live the Louis family as she lives in her own family. Please rest assured, Dad. If you are still worried, I will go to the Manson's with Evelyn three days later and we can live together as long as you don't find us annoying."

Tim sounded very sincere.

Evelyn and Ethan were both stunned.

What did he mean?

He wanted to move into the Manson's?

If he did so, the rumors outside definitely wouldn't be pleasant to hear.

Chapter 1159 I'm Not that In-demand

"What's going on?"

Tim involuntarily put his arms around Evelyn so that she would not fall.

Evelyn looked distracted.

"Did something happen?"

She was a little uneasy. She worried about today's wedding as her father was taken to the wine cellar.

The driver said awkwardly, "Mr. Tim, someone is stopping our car."

"Who's that?"

Tim rolled down the window and saw Blair standing there with a smile. Blair said to Tim, "Mr. Tim, how about changing the wedding car?"

Time looked to the side and saw that Blair drove the same car as the wedding car.

Tim pondered for a moment and whispered to Evelyn, "Let's change a car just in case."

"Alright."

Evelyn did not refuse.

When she was about to get out of the car, Tim carried her in his arms.

"Someone told me that the bride's feet can't touch the ground before marriage. I'll pick you up."

Evelyn was getting a warm feeling spreading through her heart.

"I'm not that particular."

"Come on. It's our custom."

With that, Tim carried Evelyn out of the car.

Blair opened the car door for them and smiled, "I'll drive for you."

"Mr. Blair, thanks so much!"

Tim smiled gratefully.

Blair said to Tim, "We will leave alone and then meet the motorcade at the Shaw's later."

Evelyn paused and she suddenly understood.

"Sure."

She answered for Tim.

It should be Nicole and Samuel that sent Blair to help.

And they guessed that someone would rob the wedding car halfway, so they prepared another identical car in advance.

Evelyn was so tactful. Blair couldn't help but smile and say, "Mr. Tim, you are fortunate enough to have such a good wife."

"Well, thank you."

Tim kept laughing today.

He was really happy.

Blair was married, so he could understand Tim. However, he kindly reminded Tim, "You'll experience the horseplay at your wedding tonight. You'd better prepare for it."

"Are you serious?"

Tim thought that Samuel was joking.

"Of course. I'm not making fun of you. What can be worthy of a celebration than your marriage?"

After Blair finished speaking, he drove away.

Tim held Evelyn's hand along the way. He felt his heart full of happiness.

Joseph!

Nicole ran over quickly and looked for her son.

"What is going on?"

Samuel noticed the worries on Nicole's face. He walked towards her and grabbed her arm.

"Have you seen Joseph?"

Nicole felt safer when she saw Samuel. He was her support all the time.

Samuel frowned.

Joseph?

He remembered Joseph telling him that he was going to the restroom. But it had been a while.

"I will go and look for him."

"Let me go with you. Just now, Zayn just called me and told me that Major is going to revenge on the people around us, and he wanted me to pay extra attention to the children. That was when I realized that Joseph disappeared. I am not a good mom. I lost Joseph. I should have gone to the bathroom with him."

Nicole could not stop blaming herself.

Today was Tim's wedding. They had thought of any possible accidents that might happen and were prepared for them. But they did not think of the possibility that they would do something to the children.

Nicole was about to cry. Samuel comforted her, "It was not your fault. You cannot foresee everything, and this was an accident. Trust me, Joseph will be fine. Come, let us go and look for him."

"OK."

They went to the bathroom.

Because it was during the banquet, people walked in and out of the bathroom non-stop. This was not a good thing for Samuel and Nicole, because Joseph could be taken away without being noticed by others.

Samuel looked at Nicole and whispered, "Wait for me outside. I will go in and look for him."

"Sure."

Nicole nodded.

Samuel walked into the bathroom. He searched everywhere but did not see Joseph. However, he found a button on the ground that was from Joseph's clothes.

His expression became gloomy.

They targeted a child.

Major!

You'd better make sure that my son is fine. Otherwise, I will tear you into pieces even if I need to go the Country F!

Nicole saw Samuel come out without Joseph. She immediately knew that her guess was true.

"I will go and find Joseph."

Nicole was about to walk out when Samuel stopped her.
