

Escape Wife 1171

Chapter 1171 This Is Unreasonable

"Uncle Jason, you are keeping something from me!"

Nicole was certain about it and her face turned gloomy with a trace of sadness flashed across her eyes.

Only then did Jason realize that Samuel and Nicole had come prepared, and it was very likely that they had already known something.

He sighed and said, "Nicole, there are certain things I don't want you to know."

"But I'm involved."

"I'll get you out, even at the cost of the whole Don family. You deserve to live happily with the one you love. As for other things, we and the Shaw family will take care of them. Just pretend that nothing has happened and live your own life with Samuel and the children."

Jason's words made Samuel sigh.

"Uncle Jason, you know things are not always what you expect. Do you really think Nicole can get out? Ever since Nicole married me, trouble has kept cropping up. Do you think she wants to be involved? It'd be better to face it rather than ignore it. Uncle Jason, she has the right to know. At least we can take precautions. It's better than knowing nothing and being used by others. What do you think? "

Samuel's words made great sense, but Jason was not swayed this time.

He looked at Samuel and Nicole and then closed his eyes, looking extremely tired.

"Enough. I'm tired now. If you want to stay, ask the housekeeper to set a room for you. If you want to go home, you'd better leave before it's too late."

"Uncle Jason!"

Nicole wasn't expecting this.

Samuel stopped her.

He could see determination in Jason's tired eyes.

Jason had set his mind to keep it.

"We're staying here tonight."

"Alright."

Jason nodded and asked the housekeeper to set the room. Then he said exhaustedly, "I'm tired. I'll go rest now. You guys make yourself at home."

"Uncle Jason."

Nicole wanted to say something, but Jason waved his hand and went into his room in his wheelchair.

Samuel's face hardened.

'What on earth made Jason so determined to keep it?'

Nicole was a little anxious.

"Samuel, what should we do now?"

"If he's determined to keep it, there's nothing we can do. You know he was a soldier who went through special training. He is quite a keeper."

Samuel's words upset Nicole even more.

"What exactly did Sally want when she came to meet Uncle Jason? What did she say to him? And why did he act like this?"

Nicole was all puzzled.

Chapter 1172 Hit the Nail on the Head

Samuel was stunned by this question.

He thought that Jason thought of Xander when he looked at Xander's paintings, but he didn't expect Jason to mention another topic all of a sudden.

"Second uncle?"

Samuel asked subconsciously.

He suddenly realized that Xander, Nicole's father, was the eldest son of the Don family, Mark was the third son, and Jason was the youngest son. However, it seemed that he had never heard of the second son of the Don family. No one even mentioned his name.

"This person got expelled from our family a long time ago, so long that we almost can't remember him. I even thought that our family only has three sons."

Jason smiled bitterly and smoked the cigarette. But the smoke caught in his throat, and he couldn't stop coughing.

Samuel gave him a glass of water.

Jason drank some water to suppress his cough. Then, he looked at the paintings on the wall and said, "Actually, my second brother likes painting, traveling, and photography just like Xander. He enjoys freedom more. By the way, they are twins."

Hearing this, Samuel was slightly stunned.

Twins?

He never thought of that.

Seeing that Samuel was surprised, Jason smiled and said, "According to genetics, everyone believes Nicole could give birth to twins because the Green family has such genes. But actually, the Don family has such genes as well. However, there aren't many twins in the Don family, so not many people know about it."

Samuel did not interrupt.

It was indeed somewhat unexpected, but it was not difficult to accept.

Indeed, if Nicole's family didn't have such genes, she might not have given birth to twins even if his family had such genes.

He couldn't help but think of the child that Nicole had miscarried.

It seemed to be a singleton.

Therefore, they had such genes didn't mean every pregnancy would be a twin pregnancy.

Samuel did not say anything, so Jason continued, "My parents were so happy to see the twins. My dad liked military life, and he wanted his son to be a soldier. Therefore, he was ecstatic when he got two sons. He raised them in person. Xander was calm and listened to him, but my second brother was rebellious, mischievous, and always disdained Dad's training."

Chapter 1173 Why Would She Do That?

"Nicole?"

The first one Samuel thought of was Nicole.

He quickly ran out and saw Nicole standing at the door of the studio with a pale face. Obviously, she heard the conversation between Jason and Samuel, and the white teacup beneath her feet had shattered.

"Don't move. Leave it to me."

Samuel was a little worried. He hurriedly shouted, then carried Nicole up and directly put her down on the sofa in the living room.

Nicole was a little dumbfounded.

The news just now was too shocking.

She was just a little thirsty. After getting up, she didn't see Samuel and came down. She wanted to come over to take a look when she saw the lights on, but she didn't expect to hear such shocking news.

Second uncle?

It seemed that she had not heard of or seen this person in the Don's for a long time.

She had always felt that there was something missing, but now she realized that Second uncle was missing.

That was right. Dad was the big brother. Mark was the third brother and Jason was the youngest brother. Where was the second brother?

She had always thought that the Don family was a martyr's family. In the past, everyone had said that the second brother of the Don family had died on the battlefield. Even Jason injured both of his legs before retirement. Therefore, she naturally thought that her second uncle was also a martyr and had also sacrificed died like her father. Only now did she know that her father was the only martyr in the Don family.

It made Nicole feel very bad.

It wasn't that her second uncle was still alive that made her sad, but because Mark, Jason and her second uncle were all alive, and only her father had become a martyr. It made her feel sad. Moreover, when she heard the complicated love story among her father, her mother, her second uncle and her aunt, she felt even sadder.

Samuel was afraid that the glass fragments would hurt Nicole, so he put her down on the sofa and said softly, "Sit down for a while. I'll go clean up the fragments. Don't think too much. What's done is done. It's good that we know the truth. We have no right to judge. I know you fell ached for your father, but now I fell ached for you, understand?"

Nicole looked at the worried man in front of her. Her uncomfortable heart was slowly filled with warmth. She was deeply touched, and then she nodded.

Seeing her feel better, Samuel got up and went to find a broom to clean up the glass fragments.

At this time, the servants were asleep, and there was no need to wake them up for the glass fragments.

Seeing that Nicole heard this, Jason couldn't help but sigh as he came out of the studio on his wheelchair.

"Nicole, I don't want you to know about these things."

"But I still have the right to know, Jason."

Nicole looked at Jason.

She could feel Jason's sadness, but she didn't know what else Jason was hiding.

Just now, Samuel's questioning was very sharp, but Jason did not answer. It could be seen that some things were true.

For example, the second uncle was still alive.

For example, the second uncle was now in Country F.

Chapter 1174 Love Helps Me Go Through All the Hardships

Samuel suddenly stiffened, and Nicole noticed that.

Nicole knew that it was not because what she had asked but because what Samuel had recalled.

Nicole was not stupid. Naturally, she could think about what Samuel could think about.

With that, Nicole also fell silent.

Elvis did that for Una.

Una was from Country F. Major, Lillian's son, was the prince of Country F. So were all these things arranged by the king of Country F?

If so, who was the king of Country F?

Why did he attack the Greens, the Dons and the Shaws?

Those who could take advantage of the sisters of the Shaw family, Sally and Audrey, to turn the brothers of the Don family into enemies must know that the Shaw family had lost a daughter.

So this king should have something to do with the terrorist kidnapping.

Thinking of this, Nicole was stunned.

Considering the grudges of the last generation, who was the one that the Dons, the Shaws and the Greens wanted to deal with?

Nicole slowly combed through her memories. Suddenly, some ideas and thoughts popped up.

Zama!

The Harper Town!

She couldn't help but think of the destruction of the Harper Town.

Zama once told that the Dons also participated in destroying the town.

Thinking of this, Nicole felt a little scared.

"Harper Town..."

Nicole whispered.

Samuel became serious.

Evidently, Samuel also thought of the town.

Samuel held Nicole's hands tightly and whispered, "It is not simple. Trevin is the descendant of the Harper Town, and so is Morgan. Sally said that Morgan was injured. Now, we need to find Morgan and bring Trevin back. Neither of them should be in trouble."

Nicole also became distressed.

Trevin was her subordinate, so she wished that Trevin could be safe and sound. Morgan was Joseph's master, and she cared for Joseph. So Nicole also wished Morgan to get no harm.

But Morgan had followed Sally for so many years. Had she been assimilated by Sally? Or was she deceived by Sally?

Nicole did not know about it, nor was she clear about it. She was somewhat worried.

If Morgan and Sally were on the same side, the consequences were simply unimaginable.

"I will ask Laurence to find Morgan."

Nicole subconsciously mentioned Laurence's name. After she finished speaking, she felt that it was a little inappropriate.

Laurence had been removed from his post and was still taking care of Cara in the hospital.

Seeing that his wife was wronged, Samuel immediately stopped teasing her.

However, Nicole laughed out loud.

"I was just teasing you either."

"Alright, you've learned to scare me now, haven't you?"

Samuel paused for a moment. Seeing the naughty look in his wife's eyes, he couldn't help but reach out and scratch her armpits.

"No! Stop it! Itch!"

Nicole immediately began to dodge.

"Don't run! If I don't teach you a lesson, I think you will always mess with me in the future."

Samuel pretended to be fierce and ran after Nicole.

How dare Nicole let him catch up?

As she ran, she laughed. The cheerful laughter was very pleasant to hear at night.

Jason looked at them through the French window. He couldn't help but curl his lips when he saw Samuel and Nicole running farther and farther away from him.

"Nicole is living like a child now. Samuel is really good to her."

"Mr. Green truly loves Miss Nicole."

Claudina had finished her work and stood behind Jason. They all looked at Samuel and Nicole.

"Just now, I was afraid that Nicole would be sad because of second brother. How long has it been? She is actually in a good mood now. Samuel is really good at making her happy."

Claudina paused for a moment and said, "Mr. Jason, why don't you let Miss Nicole get involved? Are you afraid that something would happen to her?"

Jason's eyes darkened a little as he whispered, "I don't know where second brother is right now. In Country F, I also don't know what the situation is. If Nicole rashly goes over and the two of them start fighting, it would be a tragedy. Moreover, Sally is an unpredictable woman. Do you think that she came to me just to tell me what happened back then? She said that she owed Audrey, so she came to explain the situation and tell us the truth about Xander and Audrey. Do you believe her? They are all dead, so what's the point of having such a truth?"

Claudina still didn't understand.

"Mr. Jason, then why do you think she came to the Don's to say such a thing?"

"Why? For our manpower. If we know that second brother is still alive, we would naturally send people to Country F to find out his whereabouts. However, once our people set foot on the territory of Country F, they will definitely be used by her. Then she will say that the Don family is her backing. Do you think the king of Country F will believe her or us?"

The moment Jason said those words, Claudina's expression immediately changed.

"I'm sure the king will believe her! This woman is simply too treacherous."

A cold light flashed in Jason's eyes.

"Although I don't know why she wants the Don family to interfere in her affairs in country F, I will definitely look for second brother. Back then, when dad had died suddenly, he was not clear about second brother's matter, but mom was clear about it. For so many years, mom had been thinking about second brother, but she had never mentioned it. After Xander died, mom locked herself in her room for a few days. In the end, she fainted from hunger and was sent to the hospital for treatment. At that time, mom should be thinking about second brother. Actually, mom had never given up searching for my second brother for so many years. Unfortunately, second brother didn't tell us which country he went to. Who would have thought it would be Country F? My mother passed away, and there were so many reports about the news, but second brother still didn't show up. At that time, I thought that he was dead. I didn't expect that there would still be news of him. So, no matter what he looks like or what his identity is now, I must find him. "

"Cara!"

Laurence rushed over.

Cara was his hope. It was she that gave him the courage to go on.

Laurence was scared at the thought of Cara's risking her life to save him and the blood gushing out of Cara's body.

He couldn't prevent Adela's death, not even have a chance to say goodbye to Adela. He didn't want Cara to die in front of him.

He was afraid that he wouldn't have the time to speak out his love for Cara.

When Laurence ran to the door of the intensive care unit, the doctor arrived.

Cara's face was pale, and her breathing was fast. She was rushed to the emergency room.

Laurence smashed his fists on the door in an attempt to enter, but he was stopped by doctors and nurses. Seeing that Laurence was crazy at this moment, Nicole instantly felt an impulse to cry.

Nicole held Samuel's hands tightly and said in a trembling voice, "If Cara dies, Laurence might not be able to survive this time."

"Cara is fine. Don't worry."

Samuel held Nicole's hands tightly.

Her hands sweated and were very cold.

Nicole couldn't calm down.

"Didn't you say Cara was okay? Why does she suddenly have difficulties in breathing?"

Seeing that his wife was so worried, Samuel whispered something in Nicole's ear.

Nicole was worried, then shocked and finally annoyed. She fiercely punched Samuel and suppressed her anger to whisper, "Samuel, you went too far! You actually cheated and scared Laurence!"

"A man like him deserves it. If he isn't impressed, he won't speak out his love. Even if he can speak out his love for Cara, Mrs. Miller is still a hidden danger. Do you want Laurence and Cara to serve Mrs. Miller? Will Mrs. Miller allow Laurence and Cara to be together?"

Samuel's words startled Nicole.

The answer was definitely impossible!

Cynthia was insane that she even wished that Laurence would live in pain to remember her daughter for the rest of his life. How could she see that Laurence has a happy life?

Nicole suddenly had a headache.

Even if Laurence and Cara loved each other now, Cynthia's sabotage would probably separate them, right?

Nicole looked at Samuel. This man actually told her that he had asked someone deliberately to interfere with Cara's ventilator with an intention to scare Laurence.

Chapter 1177 Take Your Own Path and Leave the Rest to Me

Nicole slept soundly this time.

Even if she didn't sleep well, after she did it twice with Samuel, she wouldn't be able to wake up from the loud thunder and rain.

Because Laurence had not rested for the past two days, after he fainted, Samuel had someone give him a sedative injection and let him sleep a little longer.

Cara's condition was stable, so there was nothing to worry about.

Samuel sent someone to guard Cara's ward before returning to the VIP ward to hug his wife and falling asleep.

With so many things happened during the New Year holiday, he was also very tired.

Samuel was the first to wake up at dawn next day.

He blinked his eyes before he remembered he was at a hospital.

He could live in the Green's, the Shaw's, and the Don's. But he came to the hospital and slept with his wife.

Samuel stood up softly and washed up before leaving the ward.

It was still a little cold outside. The snow last night wasn't heavy, so there was just a layer of ice.

Samuel went to the nearby breakfast stall to buy breakfast for Nicole.

Nicole was woken up by a loud noise.

The sharp voice sounded a little like Cynthia's.

Nicole frowned and opened her eyes. For a moment, she didn't know where she was.

With a move, her entire body felt so sore that it almost collapsed.

Samuel!

This damn man!

Nicole cursed him angrily in her heart, but she didn't see Samuel when she got up.

Samuel had prepared the clothes for her to change on the bedside.

Nicole cleaned up, changed her clothes and left the ward.

Cynthia was stopped outside Cara's ward, so she could not enter but neither did she leave. She cursed loudly at the door.

He scolded Cara as a foxy woman and a mistress.

The bodyguards could stop her from entering, but they could not stop her from cursing.

Seeing Cynthia cursing like a shrew, Nicole couldn't help but frown.

How did this woman become Mrs. Miller?

Professor Miller was so obsessed with scientific research that he didn't have an eye for woman.

Or was it that Adela's death had stimulated her to become like this?

Chapter 1178 He Is Really Ruthless

Nicole froze for a moment and glanced at the caller ID on her phone. It was actually Sally.

Nicole had mixed feelings before answering the phone.

She was on guard against Sally before. But Sally helped Nicole twice in a row. Nicole then felt that Sally was not a bad person.

Nicole wanted to accept Sally for Edwin's and her mother's sake, but Nicole felt an extreme antipathy against Sally after her trip to the Don's.

Regardless of what Sally had in mind, Nicole couldn't forgive Sally for using her second uncle against her parents.

Nicole hung up directly and walked towards Samuel regardless of what Sally was thinking.

"Are you alright?"

Samuel looked round, saw Cynthia lying on the ground and sadfishing, and looked at Nicole with worry.

With soybean milk and fried bread sticks in his hand, Samuel seemed to have gone to buy breakfast.

Nicole took the breakfast in Samuel's hand and said with a smile, "Nothing. It's all settled."

"Go back to your room for breakfast."

Samuel didn't even look at Cynthia.

"Okay."

Nicole was in a good mood, took Samuel's arm and went back to the ward.

Cynthia was depressed when she saw that no one talked to her.

At this moment, Cynthia seemed to realize something.

No!

Cynthia was not going to jail!

Laurence wouldn't dare to put her in jail!

But this time, Cynthia was uncertain.

Cynthia recalled Laurence's determination in his cold eyes and was afraid at once.

Cynthia quickly took out her phone and called Neville.

"Neville, that bastard Laurence reported me to the police! Neville, you have to save me! You have to save me!"

With that, Cynthia started crying.

Neville was puzzled.

Did Laurence report Cynthia to the police?

What did Cynthia mean?

What was going on?

Neville knew that Cynthia hit Laurence frequently. Cynthia didn't listen to Neville, always quarreled with him, and even screwed up his experiment. So Neville was unable to continue his study.

In order to focus on his research, Neville just turned a blind eye to Cynthia who bullied Laurence.

Anyway, Neville knew Laurence's physical condition. It was not fatal for Laurence to be beaten and abused by Cynthia.

As Neville thought this, he went to do the experiment at ease. Besides, Laurence always turned the other cheek over the years, so Neville was more accustomed to it.

Now that Neville unexpectedly heard Cynthia say that Laurence reported her to the police, he was confused.

Chapter 1179 Looked Like She Misunderstood Uncle Mark

No one could understand Sally's sorrow.

Nicole watched as Laurence came out of the emergency room. She heaved a sigh of relief when she heard the doctor say that his injuries weren't serious.

When Laurence was pushed out, he looked around and was relieved to not see Cynthia.

Nicole found it a little funny.

"Now you are scared? I thought you enjoyed how Cynthia treated you."

Although Nicole felt a little sympathetic towards Laurence, she was still very unhappy to think about how obedient Laurence always was in front of Cynthia.

Laurence smiled bitterly and said, "I was just following Adela's instructions. I didn't want to have conflicts with Cynthia."

"The nicer you are to her, the pushier she becomes. If you had been tough with her from the start, you wouldn't have to tolerate her for these years. Alright, I won't comment on your matters anymore. You should make your own decision now and I won't interfere you. Now that Cynthia has been detained, are you really going to let her stay in the jail? "

Nicole was a little surprised.

Laurence looked cold on the outside, but he was actually a very soft-hearted man. Although Cynthia treated him badly for all these years, Adela has been very nice to him. Nicole was really afraid that Laurence only planned to scare Cynthia.

Cynthia was definitely not the kind of person who would compromise after being frightened. She would keep doing what she wanted and finally would get herself into real troubles.

Laurence pondered for a moment and said, "Well, let her stay there. It's safer to be inside than outside, and she can see the situation clearly in this way."

"Aren't you afraid that others would think you are an ungrateful person?"

"Whatever. I know what kind of person I am."

Seeing that Laurence had made up his mind, Nicole was finally satisfied.

She looked at Laurence, then at Samuel, and she whispered, "Leave this matter to me and Samuel. Your main task for this period of time is to accompany Cara and take care of yourself. I'll give you ten days. After that, you should follow me and Samuel to Country F."

"Alright."

Laurence had no objections to this.

After leaving the hospital, Nicole and Samuel got into the car.

Samuel whispered, "Why after ten days? I thought you would leave immediately."

"No, there's no need to mess up our lives for others. Besides, if we don't go, the chaos in Country F is inevitable whether we are there or not. Major still wants us dead, and the fight between Zayn and Santino will not end in ten days. So, it won't make any difference for us. It's just the others who would be worried."

Hearing Nicole's words, Samuel knew that she has become more mature and steadier.

Indeed, no matter they leave now or later, the result would be the same. It was simply a matter of being passive or active. If what Sally said was true, Major, Santino, and Zayn couldn't spare any time to cause trouble for them, then why would they rush to find trouble for themselves?

At this time, they might as well do something they want to do.

"What are your plans?"

"First we should let Ernesto search for Morgan and secretly rescue him. As for the rest, we can talk about it ten days later. I want to go on a vacation with the kids."

Nicole felt that she didn't spend enough time with her children. She didn't know if the children would still need her when she was finally free. Now that the children need their parents, she hopes that she can find time to spend with them as much as possible.

Samuel was happy to hear what Nicole said.

Nicole became serious.

It wouldn't matter if only Samuel and she were in the car, but Zoe was also in the car.

Thinking that Zoe might be targeted, Nicole looked worried.

"Zoe, come here."

Nicole would like to hug Zoe in her arms subconsciously. Otherwise, Nicole couldn't calm down.

However, Zoe seemed to not know the danger. She said drowsily, "Mommy, I'm so sleepy. I would like to sleep in the back seat for a while."

Then she lay down as if she had fallen asleep.

Nicole couldn't understand Zoe's meaning. Nicole looked at Samuel subconsciously. He didn't have any objections and looked calm, so she calmed down slowly.

Perhaps it wasn't as knotty as she thought.

Nicole comforted herself.

The car chased after them. Samuel pressed the accelerator hard and drove fast, but Zoe slept soundly. Nicole even heard her gentle breathing.

Since Samuel and Zoe didn't take it seriously, Nicole waived it aside, leaned against the back of the chair and closed her eyes to rest.

To be honest, she hadn't had a good rest during the New Year holiday, especially after she knew about what had happened between her second uncle and Sally.

Samuel thought that he was a good driver and could shake off the car behind them, but he was wrong. The person behind was also a good driver and persistent.

Since they were close to the Don's, Samuel was too lazy to make any other choices. He drove to the Don's.

The butler was slightly surprised when he saw Samuel's car, but the butler still opened the door.

"Mr. Green!"

Before the butler finished speaking, Samuel rushed in. The butler was scared and took a step back involuntarily. The car behind Samuel took a bend and disappeared.

They were safe.

When Nicole opened her eyes, she realized that she was at the Don's. Her expression couldn't help but change slightly.

The Don's was the last place she would like to come.

She looked at Samuel with a questioning gaze and found that Samuel was looking at Zoe, who was asleep in the back seat, thoughtfully.

"What's the matter?"

"Nothing. Let's go in and have a rest."

Samuel did not answer Nicole. He parked the car, got off the car and picked up Zoe.

It was very cold. He was afraid that Zoe would have a cold. He took off his coat, wrapped Zoe and carried her into the room.
