

Escape Wife 1201

Chapter 1201 I Will Give It to You If You Like

"What?"

When Olivia heard the voice, she turned around and saw Samuel throw his phone away. Her mouth twitched and she said, "Nicole, you need to get your husband under control. Although you have a deep pocket, the money will run out if you spend wastefully. Why did you fall in love with such a spendthrift?"

Samuel frowned slightly and glanced at Jacob. Jacob immediately felt chills down his spine.

"Olivia, mind your own business." Jacob coughed.

Olivia saw that Samuel treated Jacob in a domineering manner, so she said, "Don't glower at my husband. Be careful, or I'll ask Nicole to split with you."

Samuel got angry at once.

Nicole knew that Samuel was emotional now and he couldn't get agitated, so she hurriedly pulled Olivia back and said, "Alright. Since you just got married, forget it. At least Samuel asked me to give you the filmmaking company. Try to be nice, please."

"Fine, for your sake."

Olivia said so, fearless.

Soon the two girls whispered to each other.

Jacob said in embarrassment, "Mr. Green, you know, Olivia is always like that."

"I don't take it seriously. She is Nicole's best friend, so I won't quarrel with her. It would upset my wife. I just suddenly thought of someone."

"Who?"

"Alison Lake."

Samuel said in a low voice, but Nicole still heard the name.

Alison!

Nicole's grandfather asked Alison to guard Nicole. Alison was sent to another place on an errand, so she was unable to come back during the New Year.

If Samuel didn't mention her name, Nicole almost forgot about her.

Now Samuel's words reminded her of his current attitude towards Edwin. She understood that he didn't trust Edwin anymore.

Nicole believed that Edwin wouldn't hurt Samuel, but she was not so sure of herself. Since Samuel didn't trust Edwin, she couldn't let Alison stay around her as usual.

Nicole sighed and sent a message to Alison on Twitter.

"After you are done, come to Ernesto and manage the house with him. My husband and I will go on a trip, so it is not convenient to bring you with us. Wait for me until I come back."

Alison was stunned when she received the message.

She didn't feel well after knowing she was left behind by her employer. However, Alison felt relieved after thinking about it carefully. 'Nicole didn't completely turn her back on me. At the very least, she asked me to find Ernesto.'

Thinking of that stupid guy, Alison frowned slightly and replied, "Alright. Be safe. Call me whenever you need me."

"Ok."

Nicole put her phone away.

Samuel did not know that Nicole got all fixed up. He said to Jacob, "Put a watch on her. After she comes back, ask Ernesto to give her some job. It would be best if you can monitor her every move."

Surprisingly, Nicole and Samuel shared the same thoughts.

Jacob nodded.

As Samuel spoke, the car arrived at the underground parking lot of a huge building.

Chapter 1202 Is He Good-looking?

"Samuel, you..."

"Quiet..."

Samuel smiled mischievously. Soon, he hacked into the National Security Agency and caused a panic. Samuel was aimed to disturb the defenses on the Seapolis City.

Jacob narrowed his eyes and realized what Samuel was going to do.

Lucas frowned and apparently realized Samuel's purpose, but did not stop him.

He was just a child, and sometimes it was right to obey adults.

Lucas comforted himself and used hacker technology to add fuel to the fire from another computer.

At this time, the defensive center on the side of the Seapolis City suddenly sounded the security warning. Everyone gathered and stood ready.

Initially, Edwin wanted to inquire about the follow-up to the Harper Town, but he didn't expect that he would be detained after saying a few words. And his cell phone and all communication devices were confiscated. This was basically house detention.

Steve wanted to rush out for dispute, but Edwin stopped him.

He whispered, "There's monkey business about the follow-up to the Harper Town 20 years ago."

"Mr. Shaw, we have to go back. Ms. Nicole and Mr. Green might be dragged into it."

Steve was anxious about it.

Edwin whispered, "Don't worry. Samuel should have a way to take Nicole out of the Seapolis City."

"How is that possible? I just heard all modes of transportation have been restricted. Even if Mr. Green is powerful, he wouldn't be able to get out. I'm also puzzled. There was just a military action in the Harper Town. Why can't we mention it now? Besides, even if we did, what does it matter to them? Why do they stop them from leaving the Seapolis City?"

Steve walked around with anger, muttering to himself.

A complicated emotion flashed through Edwin's eyes.

"Samuel's former housekeeper Zama is from the Harper Town, so is Morgan. Recently, Morgan contacted Samuel. Both of them are more or less related to Samuel. It is reasonable for the superiors to investigate Samuel."

"What do you mean? Zama was scheming and almost killed Ms. Nicole and Mr. Green. The superiors know about it. What are they going to inquire? Even if they do so, they shouldn't restrict the couple here. The current situation makes me feel that the superiors try to target Mr. Green."

Steve said unintentionally, but Edwin got the special meaning of it.

"Steve, try to send the message to Jason. Right now, the only one who can help them is Jason."

"All our ties were cut off, Mr. Shaw."

The more Steve said, the angrier he became. He had been honest for his whole life. Now, he felt like a prisoner.

Edwin felt bitter.

"What's going on with Nicole?"

The siren sounded outside and it was a level 1 alarm when they were worried.

"What's wrong? Is there an invasion? Is it going to be a war?"

Steve knew what the meaning of the siren was.

Edwin was also surprised.

Nicole squinted her eyes.

'Ballard?'

'Tim's father!'

'And her uncle.'

'Why was he here?'

Ballard was being pushed. He was begging for something while protecting his head. Then, he cast a glance at Nicole. He didn't seem to see her because his blank eyes didn't focus on anything.

She heard that Ballard was traveling around the world and didn't saw him even on Tim's wedding day. She never expected that he would end up living a miserable life in such a small city.

'Tim knew it?'

Nicole knew that Tim was unkind to Ballard, but she didn't believe that Tim would do nothing if seeing Ballard like this.

She beckoned to the waiter.

The waiter was very respectful of Nicole, asking, "Madam, what can I do for you?"

"What happened to that person?"

Nicole pointed at Ballard and asked in a low voice.

The waiter glanced at him and said, "He works here, but he does a bad job. We kicked him out several times, and he always came back. Guests often scold him, but some will give him tips after that. He also makes a living from it. Since he doesn't affect our business, the manager lets him stay. Does he disturb you? I'll ask the security guard to kick him out."

"Wait."

Nicole asked in surprise, "What happened to his leg? Did you beat him?"

Seeing Nicole's cold look, the waiter hurriedly explained,

"No, no, no, we didn't do anything to him. He got drunk a few days ago and fell down the stairs. We took him to hospital, but he ran away in the midnight. Now he's here again. He seems an old bachelor, and he's always alone. Besides, something's wrong with his eyes. We feel sorry for him, so we let him stay."

The waiter's words surprised Nicole again.

"What happened to his eyes?"

"I don't know. He can't see clearly, and he said it was cataracts. But when we sent him to hospital, the doctor said that it was because he took too many drugs. Anyway, we don't understand."

Nicole frowned.

Then, she saw Ballard pushed to the ground and a stack of money thrown in his face.

Ballard kowtowed and bowed, not looking like the chairman of the Louis Group.

Nicole felt sorry for him.

She took a video with her phone and sent it to Tim.

If Tim didn't care, she would not interfere. She just didn't want to see Ballard like this.

Tim was on his honeymoon abroad with Evelyn, and it was at night. When he received the video, he paused. Then, he called Nicole regardless of the time difference.

Chapter 1204 My Husband Is So Handsome

After receiving the news, Tim and Evelyn set off overnight for the location given by Nicole.

When Nicole returned to the club, Samuel, who had just finished the business, held Nicole in his arms when seeing that she was quite upset.

"What happened?"

"There's something wrong with Ballard. He doesn't let Tim come here, as if he's afraid of something. But he is the chairman of the Louis Group. What on earth is he afraid of? Now his health is so bad and he couldn't see anything. It was said that it was caused by taking some medicine for many years. I remember he had any chronic diseases, and he was very healthy. Why did he take medicine for years?"

Nicole couldn't understand this.

Samuel frowned slightly and whispered, "Maybe that woman secretly added something to his diet. Remember that woman's lover is a doctor."

Samuel didn't want to mention the name of Jacob's mother at all.

Nicole frowned the moment she came in, making Samuel worried about her.

"Well, no matter what happens to Ballard, all we can do is to help Tim save Ballard. As for the rest, forget about it. We are here to travel, not to solve the problems."

Travel?

Did Samuel really think she was a child?

How did they leave the Seapolis City?

How could he regard their "escape" as travel?

Nicole glared at him, but she did not notice that Samuel was mesmerized by her gaze. He found it charming.

"Shall we go take a look at our temporary new home?"

Nicole was a little curious when hearing this.

"Is there anything different?"

"You'll see when you get there."

After that, Samuel left the club with Nicole.

Their new home wasn't far away, so they just strolled along the road hand in hand.

Nicole glanced at their long shadows under the sunlight and saw that they were intertwined, which was quite sweet.

Nicole couldn't help but smile. Only at this moment did she feel like that they were traveling.

Nicole stretched out the other hand like a child and made a heart shape on their shadows. Then, she secretly laughed.

She thought that Samuel did not see it, but actually, Samuel had seen everything. He looked at Nicole with a suggestion of a smile.

Samuel stretched out his finger to touch Nicole's hand. He imitated Nicole and made a heart shape on the shadows as well. Immediately, a "heart" fell on Nicole's shadow.

Nicole suddenly paused. She looked up and saw a smile touch Samuel's mouth. But he was still looking ahead and seemed to be serious.

This man was always like this.

Nicole swooned.

She was filled with happiness.

Nicole leaned against Samuel's shoulder and said gently, "Do you have any plans?"

"What do you mean?"

"Travel guides."

Chapter 1205 This Is What You're Up To

After the two finished their meal, Samuel smiled slightly and said, "Do you feel sleepy? Need a nap?"

Nicole glared at him and said, "So this is what you're up to."

Samuel responded with a smile. He picked up Nicole and entered the room.

The afternoon breeze was warm while blowing on them, the same as their inner feelings.

After Nicole was put down on the bed, she was waiting for Samuel's next move, but he only cuddled her and whispered, "Have a sweet dream."

She was surprised, but when she saw Samuel's dark circles, Nicole still nodded.

Shortly after, both of them fell asleep. Tranquility reigned over the room.

Lucas encountered Silver Fox. He originally thought that the guy just happened to use the same code name as the Silver Fox he knew, but when the hacker provoked him with his techniques, Lucas was completely overjoyed.

One tried to flee and the other chased after. They both enjoyed themselves.

And Joseph never thought that there would be a doctor in this club.

What really surprised him was the doctor's special insights, which refreshed his mind.

Zoe indulged herself in the Food Zone, and as expected, she ate too much. She then went jogging in the gym before Fill took her to rest in her room.

Everyone seemed to be so relaxed and they got rid of all their loads.

It was already evening when Nicole woke up.

She yawned when seeing the afterglow of the setting sun shedding on the bed.

Samuel had gone.

Nicole was a little disappointed, but when she thought of Samuel's identity, she drove that trace of disappointment away.

She got out of bed and put on her shoes.

Nicole came to the courtyard.

One or two plum blossoms had silently bloomed.

All of that happened in an afternoon. That was amazing.

Nicole strolled through the courtyard and the pavilion, marveling at the changes of this house over the hundreds of years.

After Samuel finished his work in the study, he came out and saw Nicole leisurely walking in the courtyard. Her peaceful face always eased the restlessness in his heart.

He quietly walked over and held Nicole in his arms from behind.

Struck by the familiar scent, Nicole was stunned.

"You're home."

"Yes."

Samuel placed his chin on her shoulder, so carefully as not to put on any pressure.

"There's a night market nearby. Do you want to go?"

"Great."

Nicole was quite interested.

Girls liked night markets.

Chapter 1206 They Got Used to It

There seemed to be a trace of flowing blood within the blood jade.

Nicole hurriedly rubbed her eyes, and when she looked carefully, she found that there was no change in the blood jade.

Could it be that her eyes were blurry just now?

Nicole suddenly shook her head and laughed.

What happened to her?

Such a strange phenomenon could only be seen in books, right?

She casually put the blood jade aside and went in to wash up. After putting on her clothes, she glanced at the blood jade and remembered that Samuel also had a piece on him, so she put the jade on again.

No matter what, the two pieces of jade was a pair. It would made her in a good mood.

The cold blood jade was on her skin coldly, making Nicole feel refreshing.

After she was dressed, she heard the car engine outside. Before she could leave, Zoe's happy voice came in.

"Wow, so beautiful!"

The corners of Nicole's lips curled up slightly.

Lucas was also a little surprised, but boys always didn't care about these things. He and Joseph followed behind Zoe, watching Zoe jump in like a bird.

Nicole hurriedly greeted them.

"Babies, you are back."

"Mommy! This place is so beautiful. I like it!"

Zoe directly threw herself into Nicole's arms.

Nicole picked up Zoe and said with a smile, "I like it too."

Samuel walked out of the study. Seeing Lucas and Joseph's satisfied expressions, he couldn't help but ask with a smile, "You two got a lot today, didn't you?"

"Yes, Daddy. That doctor is amazing."

Joseph's high-spirited look made Nicole somewhat surprised.

Joseph was a good-looking boy. In the past, he was too silent and often made people ignore his appearance. Now, his high-spirited expression made him shine, and Joseph's appearance stood out at the same time.

Nicole couldn't help but sigh that the genes of the Green family were really great.

Samuel touched his head and said, "There are plenty of opportunities in the future. Do you have his Twitter?"

"Yes."

Joseph hurriedly nodded.

Samuel looked at Lucas. Before he could say anything, he heard Lucas proudly say, "I don't want to join the 158 organization for the time being."

"Really? Do you know the difference between you? You used to think you are a genius, but now you know that there is someone smarter than you, right?"

Samuel's words did not make Lucas unhappy. Instead, Lucas solemnly nodded and said, "Yes, I was arrogant in the past. I will study hard in the future. I promise to join the 158 organization with my own ability."

Actually, it was rare for a five-year-old child like Lucas to be so talented. However, Samuel did not want him to be arrogant, and it would only bring him unnecessary trouble in the future.

Appropriate suppression was also a means of educating children.

Now, Lucas' attitude made Samuel very satisfied.

"Alright, wash your hands and have dinner. I'll take you guys to play tomorrow."

"Wonderful!"

Zoe jumped up happily.

Chapter 1207 Nobody Is More Important Than You

Nicole and Evelyn's expressions immediately changed when they heard this.

"What? What happened?"

Evelyn had never seen her father-in-law, but she could tell that Ballard was very important to Tim.

Although Tim didn't say anything, when he heard that Ballard was miserable, he didn't even have the mood for a honeymoon.

The man didn't say anything, but he left a place for Ballard in his heart.

Now that Evelyn heard that something had happened to Ballard, her first thought was whether Tim would be able to withstand it.

"Let's get in the car first."

Samuel did not know the exact situation.

Nicole was a little worried about the children.

Samuel seemed to see through her worries and whispered, "It's fine. They have someone to take care of them. Don't worry."

Hearing Samuel's words, Nicole felt relieved and immediately got into the car with Evelyn.

Samuel drove the car to the entrance of a hotel.

Tim brought Ballard to the hotel after he found Ballard.

There were two police cars here.

Nicole felt somewhat uneasy in her heart.

She tugged at Samuel.

Nicole still remembered how they got out of the Seapolis City. Now that she saw the police cars, she couldn't help but be stunned with a nervous expression.

However, Samuel didn't seem to see the police cars. He held Nicole's hand and walked into the hotel.

The atmosphere in the hotel was somewhat oppressive.

Nicole became uneasier and uneasier. Although Evelyn did not say anything, Nicole could tell that she was very nervous.

After they entered, Fill's people quickly walked over.

"Mr. Green, this way please."

This was Fill's subordinate.

Samuel glanced at him indifferently and followed him.

They took a private elevator.

The elevator quickly reached Tim's floor.

This floor was basically restricted, and there were police officers questioning everywhere.

Nicole vaguely sensed something, and she held Samuel even tighter.

The atmosphere was oppressive, and they arrived at the door of room 609.

Chapter 1208 He Frightened Her Today

"What is in your little brain?"

Looking at the pondering Nicole, Samuel couldn't help but stretch out two fingers and tap her forehead, causing Nicole to protest.

"It hurts. Do you take me as Zoe?"

Nicole pouted, making Samuel want to kiss her.

As Samuel thought so, he did it.

He suddenly kissed Nicole, Nicole was so surprised that she hurriedly grabbed his collar and panted.

With this interruption, Nicole forgot what Samuel said about Ballard.

When they got home, the children were already asleep.

Nicole was urged to take a shower. When she returned to bed, she realized the burning desire in Samuel's eyes. She coughed before saying, "I'm tired."

Samuel chuckled.

Was she frightened by him today?

"Come here."

He waved at Nicole.

"No."

Nicole firmly shook her head and stayed put.

Her body was still aching.

Samuel was totally a monster in the bed. Nicole's legs were weak as she thought of the sex with him.

Samuel looked at her amusedly and said, "I won't do that today."

"Really?"

Nicole's face was filled with suspicion.

Samuel didn't bother to talk nonsense with Nicole. He stretched out his long arm and pulled her into his arms.

"No! Samuel, stop!"

Nicole struggled as she heard Samuel chuckle and say, "Shut up and sleep. I don't mind doing something else to you if your spirit is so high."

At the sound of it, Nicole shut her mouth.

She was obediently lying in Samuel's arms. She didn't think she could easily fall asleep, but conversely, she was asleep very soon.

Samuel felt a little depressed when he heard her steady breath.

Wasn't she worried?

Wasn't she feared?

This dubious woman!

Samuel kissed Nicole's face and then closed his eyes and fell asleep.

It was a good night.

The next morning, Zoe, Lucas and Joseph woke up very early. Especially Zoe, without any respect to her father, came knocking on Samuel's door.

"Daddy, Mommy, rise and shine! Get up and go out for fun."

The children's greatest wish was to play.

Knowing that they were going out today, Zoe did not sleep well all night. She got up and checked the clock from time to time, feeling that the time passed so slowly.

This was the first time her whole family would go together on a trip!

Samuel's eyes narrowed slightly, and when he opened them, he was obviously furious. His eyes were a little scarlet from being woken up, and he even had the urge to throw away the little girl at the door.

At this moment, Nicole reached out and held his big hands. A soft voice rang out in his ears.

"Is that Zoe? Why did she get up so early today?"

Chapter 1209 I Just Need to Be a Good Husband

"Is there a musician here?"

Nicole asked subconsciously.

That guy was quite good at music and it could be seen that he had been practicing for many years.

When Wendy heard Nicole's question, she hurriedly said, "Yes, there is a kid living here. He seems to come from a musical family in the Dash County. It is said that he has been practicing here recently, and that's why we can hear the beautiful playing of the violin and the piano every day."

"I see."

Nicole nodded and a smile spread across her mouth.

Zoe ate breakfast and quickly said, "Mommy, I think the violin sounds very good. I would like to learn how to play the violin."

Nicole was slightly stunned. This was the first time her daughter asked to learn something. However, Nicole did not say yes to her immediately. Instead, she whispered, "Darling, you have to get up early every day to learn how to play the violin. You also have to spend at least half an hour a day to practice. What's more, once you start to play the violin, the first few months can be the hardest. Are you sure that you are ready for it?"

Zoe was slightly stunned and began to frown.

"I have to practice every day? Then what if I want to sleep late?"

"No, you can't sleep late once you start to learn to play the violin."

Zoe became unhappy instantly and said after a moment of hesitation, "Forget it, I can't do that. I can find a husband who can play the violin for me every day."

Nicole didn't know what to say when she heard Zoe's words.

Nicole thought to herself, "What exactly is on her mind?"

However, girls who were born in the purple had to learn things like how to play the violin sooner or later. Nicole just wanted Zoe to have more carefree days.

Nicole just looked at Zoe gently when she thought about this and didn't say anything else.

Nicole and Zoe had finished their breakfast When Samuel was back with their sons. Zoe lay on the sofa lazily and felt a little sleepy, while Nicole packed everything children would need for their trip.

The music outside stopped at some point.

Samuel didn't pay attention to it. He noticed that Nicole got up. She looked charming when she blushed.

Nicole knew that Samuel was looking at her. Her face turned red immediately especially when she felt the manhood of Samuel.

Lucas coughed and directly went back to his room with Joseph to take a shower.

He could not stop that couple from doing PDA, but he could choose to leave this place.

Zoe was taken away by Lucas before she could understand what was happening here.

Only Nicole and Samuel were left in the living room now. Nicole tried to escape, but she was held back by Samuel.

"Where are you going? I haven't eaten my breakfast yet."

Samuel said those words in a normal voice, but Nicole became increasingly shy when he came near.

drought took place here later, and the people led a miserable life as a result. The Dragon King wanted to bring rain to this place, but there was not a command from the Jade Emperor. He could do nothing as people suffered. Crops shriveled in the field, and many children and women also died because of the drought. Many people had come to this place in the hope that someone could protect them. Nine Dragons had been worshipped by the people for decades when they stayed at this place. Therefore, the nine of them came up with an idea to directly fly into the sky, bringing not only magnificent scenery but also rain. The people were so delighted and decided to name this place Nine Dragons Pool in memory of the nine dragons when they saw nine pools

Chapter 1210 I'd Rather Believe That There Are Ghosts in This World

Lucas silently covered Zoe's eyes. Joseph voluntarily held Zoe's little hand and continued walking forward, ignoring the actions of his parents.

Nicole's face turned red from the kiss. She grabbed Samuel's collar to catch her breath, and said somewhat shyly, "Can you control yourself outside?"

"Why? There are only four of us here. I've brought the entire mountain for today. Don't worry, no one has seen it."

Nicole was a little depressed.

He was generous as usual.

The two of them walked on the mountain road again. Samuel behaved himself, and Nicole also took time to watch the surrounding scenery.

The air here was indeed fresh, making people feel refreshing and want to sing. Even in winter, it was still lush. There were even birds singing.

"There shouldn't be any birds in this season. Is it because of the special geographical environment here?"

Nicole noticed that the temperature here was different from outside. It was very warm, and she felt hot in the down jacket.

Samuel smiled and said, "Yes, this is a hot spring valley, so the temperature is much higher than outside. You will see a hot spring when you go up. Shall we go take a dip in a hot spring?"

"Really?"

Nicole didn't have a strong body. Even though she had done a lot of conditioning, her body was still too weak. Now that there was such a natural hot spring valley, how could Samuel miss this opportunity? This was the main purpose of traveling here today.

After arriving at the hot spring valley, a waiter immediately stepped forward.

"Mr. Green, Mrs. Green, this way, please."

Obviously, Samuel had notified him in advance.

Nicole and Samuel followed, but Zoe was attracted by the water paradise on the side.

"Wow, this place is awesome!"

Zoe directly ran over.

There were water slides and a water castle. It was a paradise for a child.

Lucas also liked it, but his mature personality made him hold his joy back, and he still stood there like a small adult.

Seeing Zoe run over, Joseph was afraid that she would fall and get hurt, so he also ran over.

Seeing Lucas' awkward look, Nicole couldn't help but walk forward and say, "Lucas, you are five, not fifteen. Just go and play. Besides, Zoe was so excited. Aren't you afraid that she will fall?"

Lucas frowned slightly.

At this moment, Zoe fell into the water because she ran too fast.

"Damn!"

Zoe cursed. Before Joseph could rush over, she was tripped by a small water plant in front of her and fell into the water.

Lucas couldn't help but walk over quickly.

Nicole looked at her son and chuckled.

She had winked at Joseph just now and let him fake his fall. Sure enough, Lucas ran over.

Lucas looked cold, but he really cared about the people in his heart.
