Chapter 1221 He Doesn't Love You

Ysabel sobbed silently after Fill left.

This man was trash.

She started to miss her boyfriend.

'Was that call from him?'

'He probably asked Fill to send me back.'

'I'm so useless.'

Not only did she fail to kill Fill, she even lost her virginity. How could she face her boyfriend if she went back?

Ysabel wanted to take a bath and wash off the scent of Fill, but just as she moved, it hurt so much that she shed tears again.

That bastard!

He was not even human!

Recalling what happened not long ago, Ysabel was extremely frightened.

She never knew that a man could be this bad.

No!

She knew it, but she deliberately ignored it.

She didn't think that she would be so unlucky to encounter such a madman. She even felt complacent about her skills. But she wasn't able to defeat Fill.

Now that she had ended up like this, it could be considered as her own fault.

Why did she come here to kill Fill since he had no enmity with her?

Before this, she didn't even know who Fill was.

It was him!

It was her boyfriend who said Fill was in his way. He was very upset. If she could help him kill Fill, he would be very grateful to her.

He said that if Fill died, he would marry her and never leave her.

It was such a beautiful promise, and she ran over stupidly.

In front of Fill, she boasted that she was good at fighting. She thought that killing Fill was an easy task, but she didn't expect that she would end up like this.

Ysabel shrank back, wrapped her hands around her knees and buried her head between her legs.

What happened to her?

Before this, although she had participated in boxing competitions and won prizes, she had never killed anyone before.

For him, she actually ran over to kill people as if she had been possessed.

That was a person.

How could she come here without any hesitation?

But where was he now that she ended up like this?

Would he negotiate with Fill to take her back?

"Are you afraid?"

Looking at Ysabel's pale face, Fill couldn't help but laugh.

He was very handsome, but because of his gloominess, people usually ignored his handsome face.

Ysabel rarely saw him smile. Sometimes, he smiled coldly and would frighten people, but this time, Fill really smiled.

And there was a dimple on the right side of his face, which made him look like a sunshine boy.

His current smile was so pure that it was tempting.

Ysabel hurriedly turned around.

Attracting?

How could she possibly think that this man was attracting?

He was a devil, okay?

Fill didn't know about Ysabel's thoughts. He wanted another cigarette, but there was none left.

After Whitney died, he couldn't do without nicotine. He smoked more and more, and now he was addicted to it.

Now that the cigarette case was empty, he frowned slightly, but still didn't leave.

He looked at the traffic outside and whispered, "You know what? After I avenged Whitney, I returned to Whitney's hometown. I wanted to bring her parents over and take care of them for Whitney, but they kicked me out. It turned out that they didn't even want to see me."

"They said I was a devil. How could I be so cruel? Why didn't I just hand those people over to the law for punishment? Why did I have to tear them into pieces one by one? I thought I was hearing a joke at that time."

"Why didn't they say that to those people who did that thing to Whitney? Whitney is just a woman, a weak woman. How can they be so cruel and dismember her? I was just avenging her. But her parents saw me as a sinner. They said that I don't deserve Whitney. They said it was lucky that I'm not married to Whitney. Otherwise, Whitney might be affected by me. "

Fill finally revealed some pain and sadness.

The pain was so great that it made Ysabel feel sad, too

"How can they do this to you? You're doing this for their daughter, aren't you?"

Yes.

It was for Whitney that he had turned himself to a ghost, but her parents did not understand him. He was very painful and sad, but he did not care.

"He called you, didn't he? Did he say he would get me out of here? Or did he ask how he could take me back?"

Ysabel looked at Fill with a gleam of hope in her eyes.

Although Fill was hard-hearted, he still couldn't help but take pity on her at this moment.

He didn't say anything, and then Ysabel's eyes gradually dulled. She was extremely disappointed.

"I'm too naive, right? Actually, I knew he didn't love me before I came here. But I just wanted a chance to marry him and be his bride. Looks like it's just my wishful thinking. I'm so stupid," she said self-deprecatingly.

She shed tears in silence and looked anguished, as if her world had collapsed.

Fill felt for her, but there was nothing he could do.

"Can you let me go? I want to go back and ask him why he lied to me. Can you let me go?"

Ysabel suddenly jumped out of bed and knelt down in front of Fill.

"Please! Please let me go. I'm begging you."

Fill squinted with mixed feelings.

He watched Whitney's doppelganger weeping in front of him.

Nine years ago, did Whitney cry and plead with those people just like this?

No!

She wouldn't!

She was so tough that she would never stoop so low.

She would fight rather than kneel down to others to get everything she wanted.

Therefore, Ysabel wasn't Whitney!

Fill came out of the trance, but then a silver light flashed in front of him, and a cold dagger instantly pierced into his chest.

He felt a sharp pain, with his bright red blood splashing on Ysabel's face.

Her face was still wet with tears.

Her hands were trembling, and so was her body.

"I'm sorry, Fill. I'm really sorry. But this is my only chance. I know Jarrod may not love me, but he never lied to me. He said he'd marry me if I killed you, and I believe him! Fill, I believe him! I know it's wrong to kill people, and I also know there is no grudge between us. But you also took my virginity, didn't you? Let's just call it even. I know it may not be enough, but ... I don't have a choice. In the next life, I can do anything for you. Is it okay?"

Ysabel cried bitterly.

She should hate Fill!

After all, he took her virginity.

But why was she so scared when seeing his blood spouting out?

She was really scared!

Fill had never thought that he would be killed by such a little woman.

She wasn't even a killer.

Chapter 1224 It Is Not Like Him

When Samuel and Nicole were enjoying themselves in the mountains, they received the news that Fill was stabbed. Samuel was stunned.

"Fill was stabbed? Are you sure?"

No wonder he was so surprised. Fill was swift and rarely got hurt. He would not let a person get close to him with a knife.

Fill was always on his guard. He would notice it as soon as someone tried to approach him. How could he get stabbed?

Samuel suddenly thought of the fake Whitney.

He frowned.

"Lock that person up. Don't ask her anything without Fill's orders."

Samuel's subordinate was surprised.

"Boss, she stabbed Fill. He's dying. And she killed Dennis. Shouldn't we take revenge on her?"

"I won't let her go. I mean—Fill will deal with it when he recovers."

Samuel did not expect so many things to happen in just a few days. He knitted his brows.

Nicole was worried about him and hurriedly held his hand, "We should go to see Fill."

"But I've promised to take photos with you."

Samuel was a little upset.

However, Nicole smiled and said, "It's alright. We can do it a few days later. It's okay. Besides, Fill is your friend. He's in danger now. You may not be in the mood to take photos with me. I've had a good time these days, and so have the children. You don't have to blame yourself. And we also have a lot of things to deal with. Fill has done a lot for you. He needs your help now. "

Samuel nodded and said apologetically, "Nicole, if you have known before that there would be so many troubles, would you still fall in love with me? Would you still marry me?"

Nicole could tell that he was nervous and uneasy.

Who was Samuel?

He was a proud man from a wealthy family. But now he was being anxious due to her.

It was not like him.

He should be confident.

But it was also natural for him to be like this since he didn't want Nicole to suffer.

It was controversial. He didn't want to give up Nicole, but life would be hard for her if she stayed.

Nicole held his hand tightly and said, "Don't think too much. We love each other. That's enough. You just need to know that I will always love you. I will be with you no matter what happens. I'm okay. It's fine as long as you are by my side."

Samuel pulled Nicole into his arms, but he could not say a single word.

Nicole was very pleased with Lynde's wit.

She whispered, "Ysabel looks just like Fill's dead fiancée."

Hearing this, Lynde was stunned.

That was it!

No wonder Fill was so kind to Ysabel!

No wonder Fill would be stabbed by her!

That was the reason!

Lynde frowned tightly.

"I've heard from Samuel that Ysabel's face hasn't been altered, so it's very likely that she has some sort of kinship with Whitney. Go find someone to check Ysabel's identity and background," Nicole sighed softly.

After knowing Fill's experience, Lynde felt a little uncomfortable.

"Even if she looks like Fill's former fiancée, that can't erase the fact that she stabbed Fill and killed Dennis."

"Fill would make the decision when he wakes up. Samuel and I both hope that Fill can let go of his obsession with Whitney and start a new life. Don't you feel the same way? Go investigate Ysabel's true identity first. As for the rest, wait for Fill to wake up."

Nicole's words made Lynde a little nervous.

"Nicole, could Fill wake up? He has lost so much blood and his face is so pale. We are all afraid..."

"Of course! With Samuel and Blair here, they could save him."

Nicole smiled gently at him. Lynde gradually calmed down.

"I will ask those guys not to do anything out of line to Ysabel during this period. Nicole, don't worry. I also believe that if Fill wakes up, he will explain to us."

"Of course."

Nicole nodded and walked to the door of the room where Ysabel was being held.

There were four men guarding the door, and there were hounds crouching behind them. Ysabel couldn't even get out even if she wanted to escape.

When they saw Nicole, they were stunned for a moment and respectfully greeted Nicole.

"Open the door. I'll go in and take a look."

Nicole nodded and walked into the room under their gazes.

When Ysabel heard the door open, she subconsciously turned around. However, when she saw Nicole, Ysabel felt at a loss and became somewhat desperate.

"Who are you? Did you come here to kill me?"

Ysabel's voice was gentle.

Before seeing Ysabel, Nicole thought that Ysabel was a beautiful and sexy woman, but at the moment she saw Ysabel, Nicole realized that she was wrong.

Ysabel had an oval face. Her facial features were very delicate. She didn't look alluring. However, she was very gentle and amiable. It seemed that people would like her and get along with her.

"Aaron!"

When Nicole said this, Samuel was obviously stunned.

His expression was difficult to interpret. Without saying anything else, he directly turned around and entered the room.

It was the first time for Nicole to see Samuel like this. But after thinking about it carefully, she finally understood.

Although Aaron had nothing to do with him, Aaron and Zama had fallen in love. Moreover, they seemed to have a child. So, Jarrod was likely to be Aaron's son.

If that was true, Jarrod was Samuel's half-brother.

Maybe no one wanted to accept such a result, especially Samuel.

Nicole did not disturb Samuel, so she went straight to the hospital.

Although Samuel had been there, she still wanted to check Fill's injury.

As Nicole got there, Blair was surprised to see her.

"Who put on your makeup? I don't dare to recognize you if I don't take a close look."

Blair's words made Nicole somewhat proud.

"I think so. I don't even feel like myself when I look into the mirror every day."

"Someone of the Sky Group did it?"

"Yes."

Nicole told the truth.

"How is Fill?"

Nicole went straight to the point.

There were mixed feelings in Blair's eyes. When he looked at Nicole, he paused for a moment before saying, "Have you long known that Fill and Samuel were together?"

"Yes. Samuel didn't tell you and Xander because he didn't want you to be stuck in a dilemma. Samuel did this for your good."

Nicole understood their relationship.

Since Fill left, there was no news from him. Everyone wanted to find him. They even thought that Fill had died overseas, but now, they suddenly found that Fill was protected by Samuel. Fill had been living on the border for so many years. To be honest, Blair couldn't accept it.

"He shouldn't have lived such a life."

"Everyone's life is different. It depends on how you choose. Since Fill had made this choice back then, don't stop him if you are his true friend. That's what Samuel thought at that time. It's better to live a life one likes instead of one where he is tortured, isn't it?"

Nicole's words stunned Blair once again.

He suddenly realized that he was superficial compared to Nicole.

"Any news?"

Nicole was a little excited.

This matter had troubled Edwin for his entire life. If he still couldn't find the murderer, he even didn't know how to face grandma after death.

Blair nodded and said, "Yes, there is news. It is said that it was done by a vagrant. As for whether this vagrant is a terrorist or not, I still need to look into it."

Nicole frowned slightly.

A vagrant?

The vagrant seemed to have nothing to do with Edwin. Why would he do it? Was this a distraction? However, since there was a sliver of hope, wasn't it not far from the truth they wanted?

Nicole's excitement could not be concealed.

Blair was also happy.

This caused quite a stir back then. Moreover, Edwin was the person he admired the most. Naturally, Blair wanted to do something for him.

If a loyal hero couldn't have a family to comfort him, many people's hearts would be broken.

"I will look into this as soon as possible. Don't worry. I just hope that you could take care of Samuel."

"I will. He is my husband."

Nicole smiled gently all the time.

Only then did Blair realize that his previous understanding of Nicole was somewhat biased.

He saw things from Samuel's perspective. Looking back, Blair wondered what Nicole had given up for Samuel.

Perhaps she gave up much more than Samuel did.

"Nicole, I'm sorry."

Blair's apology was sincere, but this confused Nicole.

"Why did you apologize for no reason?"

Blair just smiled. But there was a trace of relief and understanding in his smile.

"Nothing. Just take it like I've gone crazy."

With that, Blair walked towards Fill's ward.

Nicole did not understand what Blair meant, but she could feel Blair's kindness. She could not help but smile before returning to Sky Group.

Samuel got quiet after Nicole left. When he came out again, he did not see her. He immediately panicked.

Was it because of his bad attitude that Nicole was angry?

Where did she go?

Did she leave him?

Samuel searched for her.

But why did her love become this?

Ysabel thought that she could get the love she wanted through her own efforts, but now she realized that she was thinking too naively.

Ysabel looked at Nicole and Samuel outside and thought of Fill's cold face.

She didn't know the situation of Fill now.

With so much blood flowing out, could he be able to live?

Ysabel was unsure.

No one here would talk to her except Nicole. They were all Fill's people outside, and she could see the disgust and hatred in their eyes.

In their eyes, she would definitely be an evil person.

Ysabel smiled bitterly.

What exactly did she do to herself?

The blood on her hands had been wiped clean, but she still didn't dare to close her eyes. As long as she closed her eyes, Ysabel could see Fill's pair of relieved eyes. Ysabel felt as if the blood surrounded her and she almost suffocated.

It turned out that killing people would make people disgusted.

Nicole seemed to realize that someone was looking at her. She turned around and looked at the figure in front of the floor-to-ceiling window. Suddenly, she didn't know what to say.

Samuel followed her line of sight and said indifferently, "Everyone has his own life. We can't interfere."

"I know. I just feel a little uncomfortable."

Nicole nodded and walked with Samuel for a while before returning to her room.

They had heard that children were enjoying themselves.

Looking at the videos and photographs on the phone, Nicole smiled and said, "I really envy them. They are carefree now. They'll have troubles when they get older."

"Children have their own blessings. Don't think too much."

Samuel was a little worried about Nicole's body. He asked people heat up the temperature of the heating system.

Nicole looked at Samuel and whispered, "If you retire in the future, shall we come here and live in seclusion?"

"OK. I'll listen to you."

His answer made Nicole happy.

After they talked for a while, news came from outside.

"Boss, we've checked it out. Jarrod's father is Aaron Austin. His mother is unknown. He has been living abroad all these years and is said to have some strength. He has an assassin group, known as Phantom. As long as people can afford the price, there are no people they can't kill, but they have restrained a lot in recent years."

Samuel frowned slightly.

Chapter 1229 This Is a Bargain for Jairo

The subordinate felt as if a knife was over his body. He didn't dare to speak, but swallowed and took two steps backward.

Jairo could sense Samuel's malice even through the phone, so he said hastily, "No, Zac is still alive. However, his condition is bad for he has lost too much blood and is not in good mental state. Mr. Green, you'd better pick him up earlier."

If Zac died in the International Prison, Jairo really didn't know what would happen to him.

But Samuel sneered and said, "You guys released the people I want to imprison, and made the people I have visited dying at your place. Now, you guys make such a crafty plan to let me bring Zac back like nothing has happened. Do you know that after Petty escaped, she injured my best friend, whose life is still at stake? Jairo, I don't think the International Prison could be run anymore."

After hearing that, Jairo's expression turned darker.

Jairo didn't know how wealthy Samuel was, but he knew that Samuel was rich and he shouldn't offend him. But now, he felt really bad to be scolded directly by Samuel.

Everyone could be irritated. Moreover, there had been many people asking Jairo for help these years, and he had never been insulted like this. He said in a cold voice, "Mr. Green, are you threatening me?"

"You'll know it after five minutes."

Samuel quickly hung up the phone.

He asked his subordinates to bring over a laptop and quickly switched codes to get access to the information system of the International Prison.

Almost at the same time, the information of several wardens of the International Prison was released on the International Celebrity List.

What Samuel had done was totally beyond Jairo's expectation.

These wardens were his most loyal lieutenants who relied heavily on their mysterious identities to do things. Now that their information was released, how could they continue to survive in the grey zone?

For the first time, Jairo panicked.

He hurriedly called Samuel. Unfortunately, Samuel was unwilling to answer him this time.

For these past few days, Samuel had been feeling extremely irritated. If it wasn't for fear that Nicole might be frightened, he would never have hold back.

Now, Fill was unconscious, Zac's condition was unclear. What made things worse was that Petty had been involved, and he didn't know whether she was still in the Sky Group.

Jairo didn't talk to him in a proper manner, and even arrogantly asked him to pick Zac up!

How dare Jairo bully him?

Jairo was now in a pucker.

If Samuel still didn't answer the phone, he was afraid that all his secrets would be released.

Thinking of this, Jairo wished he hadn't done all these.

Chapter 1230 It's All Because of Nicole

"What's the matter?"

Noticing that Samuel didn't look good, Nicole immediately became nervous.

"Petty is on the mountain."

Samuel's voice was not loud, but Nicole heard it clearly.

Her heart beat wildly.

"Our children...."

"I'll be right there."

This was the first time Samuel wanted to kill Petty.

He really wanted to keep this sister by his side. After all, there weren't many people in this world who shared the same blood with him. Even if Petty had betrayed him again and again, he always felt that he should keep her alive. But now, this woman was crazy.

If she dared to do anything to his children, Samuel would never forgive himself for being soft-hearted. He might even hate himself.

He was too kind to Petty.

A trace of frustration and killing intent flashed through Samuel's mind.

Nicole hurriedly held Samuel's hand and said, "I'll go there."

"No, Petty has gone crazy. She even hurt Zac and almost killed Zac regardless of their friendship. Do you think you are still important to Petty'?"

Samuel could not afford to take risks.

Anger rose in his chest. It was like magma, which almost burned him up. He felt extremely uncomfortable.

He couldn't wait to kill Petty.

The children's lives wouldn't be threatened only after she was dead.

Nicole saw Samuel's expression at this moment.

The current Samuel was too dangerous. He was like a person who had gone crazy. He didn't even know what he was going to do.

In the past, Samuel had a bottom line. Even if he knew that those people deserved to die, he would still follow the laws. But now, Samuel had no rules at all. As long as it was what he wanted to do, he wouldn't even consider the consequences.

Nicole knew that this was because of the Golden Bug, but she didn't want Samuel to regret it. Moreover, even if Petty deserved to die, Samuel shouldn't be the one to kill her.

His hands must not be stained with the blood of his relatives.

As Nicole thought this, a thought flashed through her mind.

"It's okay if you wanna go. It's so cold outside. Drink some water before you leave. Otherwise, I won't let you out."

Because of Nicole's persistence, Samuel eased a little.

"Just pour me a cup of water. I won't drink any tea."

He knew that Nicole was worried about him, but it took time to make tea. The situation of the children would be dangerous. No one knew whether Petty still had bottom line or not. It was simply too scary that she even killed Zac. But if he didn't drink it, Nicole would be worried, so Samuel could only compromise.
