Chapter 1251 I Want to Enjoy the Romance

Samuel felt that this voice was somewhat familiar.

He turned around and saw a little boy in a small suit walking out.

Armand was also stunned when he saw Samuel and Nicole. The last time he saw Zoe in the park was when Samuel went to look for Zoe. He naturally knew Samuel was Zoe's father. Thus, the graceful woman standing beside Samuel must be Zoe's mother.

Why were they here?

If they were here, would Zoe also be here?

Armand immediately became excited.

"Mr. Green, why are you here?"

That the boy could clearly call out Samuel's surname surprised Nicole. She couldn't help but ask, "Who is this?"

"The brat who kidnapped our daughter in the park last time."

Armand's lips twitched when Samuel said this.

Why was Mr. Green so hostile to him?

Nicole quickly understood.

"You're Armand, right? I've heard about you from Zoe. Are you the one that played the violin?"

"Yes, Mrs. Green."

Armand's every move was refined. It was clear that he must be well-educated.

Nicole was satisfied with the boy.

"You are really good. I thought it was from an adult. Music took practice, you know."

Hearing Nicole's praise, Armand was somewhat happy, but he still said modestly, "Thank you. I just practice more than others."

"Our son-in-law can't be an artist."

With that, Samuel pulled Nicole away.

Armand was stunned.

What was wrong with artists?

"Mr. Green, is there any misunderstanding?"

Armand felt very nervous and hurriedly asked.

Last time, Samuel was not this hostile to him.

How could the young Armand understand why a father like Samuel was bad to a boy who wanted to woo his daughter?

"There's no misunderstanding. We are from a business family, and my son-in-law should be a business genius. Art is just an elegant thing for us, and we cannot live on it. Besides that, I will return the jade pendant you gave Zoe. I've always wanted to return it to you, but it's delayed because I can't find your exact location."

Samuel frowned slightly. Nicole also subconsciously looked at the rear-view mirror. As expected, a black car followed behind them like a shadow.

Nicole and Samuel glanced at each other and nodded tacitly.

Samuel hugged Zoe in his arms, while Nicole held Joseph in her arms.

"Daddy?"

"Mommy?"

Joseph and Zoe were confused.

"Nothing. Have a rest."

Nicole smiled. Joseph nodded, closed his eyes and fell asleep in Nicole's arms. Seeing Joseph fell asleep, Zoe also slept in Samuel's arms.

"Go straight, then turn around at the intersection ahead."

Samuel kept his voice low, but the driver could hear it clearly.

The car was still running smoothly. But at the intersection ahead, the driver suddenly turned the car around and slammed on the brakes. The car behind them never expected that. The driver hurriedly stepped on the brakes. Unfortunately, it was too late.

The car crashed into the fence and made a loud noise.

Samuel's car turned around and passed by.

Because it was too dark, Nicole could not see clearly who was in that car. She only felt a cold gaze following them, making her feel uncomfortable.

Nicole frowned. And Samuel said, "Turn left in next intersection and change to another car after entering the alley."

"Yes, Mr. Green."

The driver made a phone call to get it arranged.

Nicole did not ask anything. She was very quiet but alert, and looked outside from time to time.

The car behind them did not follow. Samuel and Nicole changed to another car in the alley and went to the airport.

Their private plane was ready there. When the attendants saw Samuel and Nicole coming over, they quickly opened the door and pulled Samuel and Nicole up.

After the plane took off, Nicole said, "Who do you think are following us?"

"I don't know."

Samuel shook his head. A serious look appeared in his face.

Nicole frowned deeper.

"I feel their cold gaze. I can assure you that they mean no good"

"It's fine. I'm here. I won't let anything happen to you and the kids."

Samuel held Nicole's hands and comforted her.

However, Nicole sighed and said, "I'm not afraid of any dangers. I just feel strange. Rhys was caught. Who else will follow us? Could it be Major?"

"No, Major is busy enough with his own business. He has no time to plot against us."

Chapter 1253 Where Are the People in the Ancestral Hall?

Samuel looked down at Nicole and found her in a coma. He became sullen and anger flickered in his eyes.

He quickly hid Nicole under the altar table, but he didn't expect that there was a mechanism. When he put her down, Nicole fell, but he did not know at all.

After hiding Nicole, Samuel saw some people coming in.

All of them were strangers, but they didn't look like people from the Harper Town.

Samuel felt dizzy and glared at them murderously.

"Who are you? Get the hell out of here!"

His voice was hoarse, and the blood on his thigh gushed out bit by bit. However, it was the pain that kept him awake.

Seeing that Samuel was like this, those people were all stunned for a moment, and directly attacked Samuel without answering his question.

Where were the bodyguards?

Where were the bodyguards outside?

Samuel was a little confused, but he did not dare to take the enemy lightly. He stabbed himself with the dagger again to stay awake, and then quickly fought back.

Those people were not in a hurry to have a ferocious fight against Samuel. It seemed that they knew the influence of the incense on Samuel. They just dodged to drain him and captured him when he was exhausted.

Their intention was obvious for Samuel. However, at this moment, he already felt a little exhausted, but these people kept circling around with him.

Samuel was a little impatient.

He could not let these people find Nicole, but he did not know how everything was with the children now, either. Samuel felt a little aggrieved and angry. A rage emerged from his chest and quickly expanded to his whole body.

These people all deserved to die!

Anyone who wanted to hurt his children and his wife had to die.

When Samuel had this thought, his eyes began to change.

The gold quickly replaced the original color of his eyes, and a murderous look appeared in an instant.

"What the hell is this?"

Someone asked, but in the next moment, Samuel grabbed his neck and directly broke it.

Actually, Samuel couldn't see things clearly. What he saw was a golden ocean, but he became extremely sensitive that he could even hear the breathing clearly.

After the first person was strangled to death by Samuel, the others finally panicked.

"He, he doesn't seem to be affected by the incense anymore."

Another voice sounded.

Samuel quickly ended that person's life.

He was like an executioner killing them unemotionally.

At this moment, Samuel did not have any feelings of pity. The only thing he focused on was killing.

The ancestral hall was full of screams with a strong smell of blood, which made the place creepy.

Samuel did not stop until he could not feel the breath of a living person.

He sat on the ground and gasped for breath. The gold color in his eyes slowly faded away and everything was back to normal.

Samuel was also a little nervous.

At this moment, Joseph hurriedly took out a small bottle from his schoolbag. He put a drop of the liquid from the bottle on his hand, and quickly applied it on his temples. Instantly, a strong coolness woke him up.

He carefully poured the incense ash into a bottle again and began to test it.

Samuel did not disturb Joseph, and Zoe also held her breath, waiting outside.

No one knew how long it took. Joseph finally raised his head and said to Samuel and Zoe, "Dad, it's done. Please come in."

After he finished speaking, he sprayed some liquids in the ancestral hall, which made the smell of the incense fade a lot.

Samuel walked in with Zoe in her arms when Joseph finished all these.

"How is it?"

"Something was wrong with the incense. It contained some drug components that can make people hallucinate. The climate here is very special. It's humid all year round. Once the incense is ignited, it will have a chemical reaction with the wet air and create some scenes that people may think it's real. Plus, we are at an ancestral hall. It doesn't usually open windows or doors, so the effect will be even stronger."

At this moment, Joseph seemed to change into a different person. Instead of being reserved and wordless, he confidently talked about the medical things, which was especially dazzling.

Watching at Joseph, Samuel seemed to see the young Vincent.

At that time, Vincent did not seem to be as ordinary as they said.

Samuel still remembered that he had watched the reading speech contest that Vincent had attended. At that time, Vincent was at the same age as Joseph. He stood on the stage, giving the speech to more than three hundred audiences confidently. He was not nervous at all, just as dazzling as Joseph.

Yeah.

Vincent was excellent when he was young, just like Samuel.

Since when did Vincent become ordinary?

Samuel could not remember.

He only remembered that because of the contrast with Vincent, he had been more and more outstanding. As Laurel had thought highly of him, Vincent had gradually turned into a nobody, and people paid no attention to him anymore.

Samuel was lost in memory.

He still remembered how he and Vincent played together when he was a kid.

At that time, they were carefree. Vincent even fought with others for him, but since when did the relationship between the two of them change?

Now there was a gap between them. Vincent respected him, but they were not friends or brothers anymore.

Samuel felt heartsick suddenly.

Zoe's eyes were filled with joy.

Joseph only felt that his eyes were burning. He was in no mood to answer Zoe. He did not know what had happened to him just now. His eyes indeed hurt terribly.

"Where's Daddy?"

Joseph still couldn't open his eyes. But he thought of something.

Zoe hurriedly said, "Daddy is still confessing, like possessed by evil. Joseph, you were just the same. This ancestral hall is evil. Hurry up and save Daddy."

"Do what you did to me to save Daddy."

Joseph could not open his eyes at all.

Although Zoe's method was rather ruthless, it was very effective.

However, Zoe smiled bitterly and said, "I don't dare. That's Daddy."

She could do that to Joseph, but not to Samuel.

Joseph hurriedly said, "Be bold and do it. If we delay any longer, something else might happen. Hurry up!"

Zoe nodded.

Zoe didn't hesitate anymore. She sprayed the chili water on Samuel's face.

Samuel let out a cry.

Samuel became stunned for a while. He groaned due to the burning sensation. Zoe said timidly, "Daddy, don't blame me. I'm trying to save you. I'm not a doctor. Daddy, are you awake?"

Samuel's heart suddenly beat fast.

He frowned when remembering his reaction just now. His solemn expression frightened Zoe. She hid behind Joseph.

"Joseph, will Daddy hit me?"

"I won't!"

Samuel answered her.

"Zoe, ask the people outside to fetch a tub of water."

"Got it."

Zoe sighed in relief after seeing Samuel back to normal.

She intended to fetch the water by herself. But this place scared her. She followed Samuel's order.

Chapter 1256 Who Knows Whether You're Telling the Truth

The way Samuel looked at him slightly stunned Joseph.

"What's the matter? Did I say something wrong?"

Zoe smiled and ran over to Joseph. She hugged him and said with a smile, "No. Joseph, you're awesome. I think you are smarter than my brother."

Joseph instantly felt a little embarrassed when hearing Zoe's compliment.

"That's not true. Lucas is really smart."

When Joseph talked about Lucas, his eyes were full of joy without hatred.

Samuel knew that Joseph really loved Lucas and Zoe. He opened his heart and treated them as his siblings.

They were all children, and there was absolutely no grudge between them. As long as they loved each other, it didn't matter if Joseph hated him.

He was okay about that.

Samuel suddenly got relaxed.

"Alright, go and choose a room at the hotel we pick. Ask the bodyguards to follow you. This place isn't the Seapolis City. We're unfamiliar with the surroundings, so be careful. Do you understand?"

Zoe and Joseph nodded.

Joseph held Zoe's hand and took a step. When he saw that Samuel was about to enter the ancestral hall again, he couldn't help but shout.

"Daddy, are you still going in?"

"Yes."

Samuel turned his back to Joseph, his eyes determined.

His wife was still inside the hall. He had to go in.

However, Samuel didn't tell that to the children in case they grew worried.

Joseph looked at Samuel's figure. His eyes suddenly became wet.

"Daddy, take this in case you smell the incense again."

Joseph slipped a small bottle into Samuel's hand and left with Zoe.

Samuel looked at the small bottle in his hand and suddenly smiled.

This kid was really reserved.

Joseph had both grudge against and love for Samuel. After all, Samuel truly treated him as his own son in the past five years.

Samuel put the small bottle into his pocket and walked into the ancestral hall again.

"Stay outside. No one can enter without my permission."

"Got it."

The bodyguard nodded.

Samuel closed the door of the ancestral hall.

It instantly became dark inside. The cold and gloomy atmosphere was frightening.

After all, it was haunted by dead souls. Samuel looked at the spirit tablets in the ancestral hall. There were more than 200 of those. He didn't know if all dead people in the town were honored here, or just the grandmasters.

Samuel kept silent while Nicole talked to Juliana.

The people outside started to rescue them.

Soon, Nicole and Samuel were pulled up, along with Juliana. But Juliana was contained as soon as she was out.

"Antidote."

Samuel's voice was very cold.

Juliana gave a little shiver and handed the antidote to Samuel. Only then did Nicole discover that Samuel's fingers were black.

"Are you poisoned?"

Nicole had no strength left, her eyes filled with worry.

Samuel said softly, "I'm fine. Let me help you take a shower first."

After saying that, he put the antidote in his pocket and commanded coldly, "Lock her up. I want to know all her secrets."

"Yes."

The bodyguard immediately stepped forward, which scared Juliana. She tried to struggle free.

"No! You can't be so ungrateful. I have saved your wife."

"Otherwise, you would be dead now."

Finishing this sentence, Samuel carried Nicole outside the ancestral hall directly.

When they returned back, Zoe and Joseph hurried over.

"Daddy, what happened to Mommy?"

"Stay back. Your Mommy was drugged and need a rest. Don't worry. You guys go to bed. Joseph, come with me."

Samuel hesitated for a moment and asked Joseph to stay.

Although Zoe was a little worried, she felt relieved when Joseph was called inside.

So, she went back to her room.

Joseph followed into the room and frowned, his eyes on the Nicole.

"Mommy, someone poisoned you?"

"Is there a way?"

Samuel wore a serious expression.

Joseph nodded and said, "It's not a big deal. This poison can temporarily paralyze the nerves but has no effect on the body. Rinse it and Mommy will be okay. But doesn't Mommy always stay with you? How could she be poisoned?"

"A woman did it."

Samuel's eyes flashed with coldness.

Joseph did not ask any further. After giving Nicole another detailed examination, he felt completely relieved.

As soon as Samuel finished cooking, Nicole received an advertisement message.

Nicole tossed her phone onto the table dejectedly and whispered, "How did these salesmen of house and decoration service get to know our phone number? They are so annoying."

"What's the matter?"

Samuel brought up the food and asked casually.

Nicole pointed at the phone and said, "The spams so annoying. It is weird. There is no house for sale in the Harper Town. It's funny that the message has a phone number in it. The funniest thing is that the phone number is eight digits. The Harper Town isn't a municipality. The phone numbers should be seven digits. How can it be eight digits?"

Nicole just wanna complain, but Samuel realized something and paused.

"Show me the message."

Seeing that Samuel's expression had changed, Nicole paused and then handed him the phone.

"It's just a spam. What's wrong with it?"

After reading it, Samuel frowned. Then he looked carefully and whispered, "This is a Morse SMS from Claire."

"What?"

Nicole was stunned.

He must be kidding!

They were in real world, not some TV shows.

How could an advertisement message be a Morse SMS?

Seeing Nicole's surprised expression, Samuel lowered his head and kissed her. Nicole stared at him shyly.

He smiled and said, "This was how I, Emory and Blair contact with each other when we were performing actions. It's a way to deliver message when we can't make phone calls. This phone number is random. Using a software, we can use any phone number. However, we can only send one message, so we usually include Morse code in it. This number is Morse code. I'm afraid Claire can't contact me now, so she contacted you."

As Samuel spoke, he copied the phone number and took out a small notebook from his pocket. He searched according to the phone number and finally found another phone number.

He didn't know whose phone number it was, but he quickly dialed it.

Someone quickly answered his phone call.

"Who is it?"

"I am Samuel. Claire told me to call you."

Samuel came straight to the point.

The person on the other end of the line was stunned for a moment, and then said in a low voice, "Mr. Green, I guess the commander's wife asked you to come find me because she wanted me to tell you that Juliana is one of ours."

"What?"

Samuel was stunned.

"Where can I find the evidence?"

Juliana was desperate.

Samuel sneered and said, "Either you give me evidence, or you die. Choose one."

"Can I leave this place to look for evidence?"

Juliana carefully looked at Samuel, feeling anxious.

Unexpectedly, Samuel nodded and said indifferently, "Three days. If you don't find any evidence in three days, I will find you no matter where you are. Don't doubt my ability."

Juliana wanted to cry.

How did she get involved with this cruel man?

"Do you think my body can recover in three days? Let alone looking for evidence, I..."

"Emory's people are all capable. Are you saying that you are not one of them?"

Since Samuel said that, Juliana had to keep silent.

She was kicked out of the Harper Town with an injured body.

Zoe stood in front of the French window and looked at Juliana. She sighed and said to herself, "Is it still possible to have some delicious food? Why do I have the feeling that this woman is unreliable?"

She shook her head and walked into the room.

Samuel took a sample of blood from the bed sheet and handed it to Joseph.

"Check if this DNA is registered. If it is, find out its identity."

Joseph was slightly stunned, then nodded.

After coming out of the ancestral hall, Samuel didn't seem to be bothered by what he had said before and assigned him more work.

Joseph felt complicated now. He didn't know whether he should be happy about it or not.

He liked Samuel and knew that Samuel was good to him, but what happened to his parents did affect him.

He pretended so well in the past. After everything exposed in the ancestral hall, Joseph thought that Samuel would send him far away, never let him get in touch with the core things. However, Samuel did the opposite, which made him more confused.

"What's wrong? Is there a problem?"

Seeing Joseph confused, Samuel asked coldly.

"Nothing. It's just DNA testing requires one and a half to three days, and I don't have any equipment here."

Joseph stopped shilly-shallying. He looked at Samuel and said frankly.

Samuel pondered for a moment and said, "Make a list of the equipment you need. I'll send someone to get it in an hour."

"Okay."

Joseph nodded.

Samuel turned around and was ready to leave.

"Daddy!"

However, Joseph stopped him.

"What?"

slightly raised his eyebrows

"Nothing."

Joseph quickly turned away.

"Can I not answer right now?"

Joseph's voice was deep and he was a little irritated.

He said in the ancestral hall that he was living under someone else's control. Now Samuel also said it and Joseph felt it was quite harsh.

Why did he say that back then?

In the Green family, Nicole, Zoe, and even Samuel treated him very well, so how could he feel this way?

But now that he said it out loud, it couldn't be recalled.

Joseph had regretted, but now he was being forced by Samuel, he was annoyed.

Seeing that Joseph was like a five-year-old kid, Samuel smiled and said, "Sure. Tell me after you visit your father's grave."

"Can't you wait a few years?"

Joseph felt it was too short.

Samuel was forcing him!

"No!"

Samuel replied immediately.

Joseph was depressed.

They ran again, but this time, neither of them spoke.

When they returned to their residence, Nicole and Zoe had woken up.

Zoe was laughing in Nicole's embrace. Something funny also made Nicole laugh.

Seeing this scene, Samuel was happy.

"What are you talking about? You're laughing so happily."

Samuel touched Zoe's head.

Zoe immediately left Nicole and smiled, "This is our secret. I won't tell you. Joseph, you run with Daddy! How is it? Is the air fresh here?"

"Yes."

Joseph is always gentle to Zoe.

"Joseph, Mommy said that she would visit uncle's grave later. Will you be very sad today? If you're very sad, you can cry on my shoulder, although I'm not so strong."

Hearing Zoe's words, Joseph was cheered up.

"Okay."

"Okay, make a promise."

Zoe stretched out her pinkie.

The two children made a pinkie promise. They are very serious, which moved Nicole a little.

"They reminded me of our childhood."

Speaking of this, Nicole thought of her adopted parents. She shook her head and said in a low voice, "Enjoy the meal. I'm hungry."

"Alright. Joseph and I will take a shower and then join you. We're all sweating. It's uncomfortable."

"Alright."

Nicole nodded.
